Ignoring child support could lead to lost licenses

By CARLTON JOHNSON
Staff Writer

Want a state license? Don't ignore child support.

Beginning Sept. 1, two new laws will allow a Texas marriage license and other state licenses to be denied or suspended for parents who owe court-ordered child support and continue to ignore those responsibilities.

Howard County Clerk Margaret Ray recently attended a Texas Association of Counties Post Legislative Conference dealing with new legislation affecting county government.

Under House Bill 1863, a Texas marriage license can be denied if the applicant has not paid or is delinquent with court-ordered child support. The law will also require an individual to verify under oath he or she does not owe child support in order for the license to be approved.

If an individual lies under oath, the offense will be punishable as a felony.

Ray said the law doesn't expound on how to check this information, but both parties will be asked to sign the affidavit stating they are not delinquent on child support payments.

Ray added she has asked County Attorney Hardy Wilkerson to ask the Attorney General's Office for an opinion concerning the law and how to handle the new requirement.

She said there are still several unanswered questions about the new legislation.

Also, House Bill 433 allows 56 state agencies to refuse or suspend a variety of licenses from someone who is behind in his or her child support payments.

In addition to drivers' licenses, this law also includes hunting, fishing, real estate, medical, law, and a variety of other occupational, professional and recreational licenses.

Nineteen other states have similar laws for drivers license suspension, but the new Texas law is believed to be the most encompassing.

Laws in other states don't include the number and scope of licenses covered, nor are revocation procedures as simple to use.

Casey Hoffman, president of Child Support Enforcement in Austin, is looking forward to seeing the new laws implemented.

The legislation has received support from top Texas officials including Gov. George W. Bush, Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock, Attorney General Dan Morales, and Comptroller John Sharp.

Hoffman, who directed the attorney general's office on child support prior to starting his own private company, said, "The threat of license revocation is one of the most effective tools to emerge in recent years to influence non-paying parents."

Another piece of legislation that will directly affect Howard County is House Bill 1341, which allows for a $2 surcharge on copies of birth certificates.

Copies will now jump from $9 to $11. Ray said $1.80 of the surcharge will go to the state and 20 cents will be left with each county.

Letters will go to those who owe

Herald Staff Report

Texas Attorney General Dan Morales is wasting no time preparing for new child support laws set to take effect Sept. 1.

On Thursday, Morales advised parents who are delinquent on their child support payments they will risk losing their driver's, professional, and recreational licenses.

Morales' office will send about 50,000 letters in the next few weeks to parents who are delinquent on child support payments.

The letters are being sent to non-custodial parents who are more than 90 days delinquent in child support payments and who are not the subjects of pending litigation by the Attorney General's Office.

Morales said, "The measure of our success will not be based on how many licenses we suspend, but on how many non-custodial parents begin to pay."

Parents who don't respond to the notice they receive may be scheduled for an administrative hearing regarding license suspension.

Morales added, "There will be ample opportunity for delinquent parents to get right with their obligations. However, we will be ever so cognizant that every day of delay in providing support is another day of suffering for the children."

AME sues Hall-Bennett over payment of services

Herald Staff Report

Hall-Bennett Memorial Hospital is being sued by American Medical Enterprises Inc. for allegedly not paying for services since December 1992.

According to a lawsuit filed in the 118th District Court, the two entities had a signed agreement where AME would provide medical management for the hospital as well as diagnostic testing.

AME would also help in the recruitment of doctors and be involved in marketing and fund raising for the hospital, which is non-profit.

The agreement also stated Hall-Bennett would pay for diagnostic lab testing and gross billing revenue from the hospital and doctors.

Hall-Bennett was reportedly supposed to pay 5 percent of the gross billable revenue, or a minimum of $3,000 per month, to AME.

AME would also receive 1 percent of the gross revenue per month for each physician recruited.

In a letter sent to officials with the hospital in July, AME's attorney Roderique S. Hobson Jr. stated the hospital had ignored previous requests to pay the bills totaling $86,748.94.

Hobson also stated if the bill was not paid at that time, he would file the lawsuit against the corporation.

Consolidation of 911 put on hold for now

By KELLIE JONES
Staff Writer

It looks like the consolidation of the 911 system in Howard County is on hold, at least for now.

911 Coordinator Carl Dorton recently went before the city council for their approval of his 1995-96 budget without any extra money budgeted for the consolidation. County commissioners are scheduled to approve the budget on Monday as well.

In January, 911 officials met to begin discussing the consolidation of the system. At that time, they said they would have to go before both the city and county entities to approve the additional money it would take to get the system up and running.

Between then and now, those involved in the project such as 911 board members, police, sheriff, fire and ambulance officials have been trying to find a location and decide who is going to pay what amount for the consolidation.

No agreement has been met by the officials involved yet.

One of the locations proposed was in the basement of the Howard County Courthouse. The passage of the bond election was a stipulation for choosing that site because a new electrical system, among other things, was needed for the up-to-date equipment.

Dorton has said if an agreement can be reached to iron out the details of the consolidation, the budget would have to be amended.

The 911 service rates for this year will be set at 50 cents per line for residential homes, $1.17 per line for businesses and $1.86 per line for trunk lines. All fees are paid on a monthly basis.

The total budget proposed for 911 for the 1995-96 year is $113,545. This includes such expenditures as:

- Salaries/benefits - $29,950
 - Administrative charge - $80
 - Contract labor - $22,200
 - Accounting - $1,800
 - Professional audit - $2,000
 - Lease for 911 service/equipment - $36,800
 - Office space lease - $2,700
 - Utilities - $1,500
 - Insurance - $2,000
- The revenues expected for this fiscal year include:
- Projected fee collection - $113,500
 - Earned interest - $2,500

Lone Star Card possible solution to welfare fraud

By CARLTON JOHNSON
Staff Writer

One of the major steps in State Comptroller John Sharp's plan to overhaul the state's welfare system is on-line, spreading throughout Texas and producing results.

Overhauling the food stamp program is Sharp's solution and a major step toward helping people on assistance programs become independent again.

Sharp called the Lone Star Card program that began June 1 "the most sweeping attack on bureaucratic bloat and welfare fraud ever launched."

Sharp said, "This debit-type security card will hold both bureaucrats and the people who depend on temporary public assistance accountable. Not only will it save tax dollars and cut down on fraud, but it may also boost food sales for area grocers."

He added, "In the Houston area, where the card had been in use since Feb. 1, retailers reported an immediate increase in food sales after the card's implementation. From February to March, food sales rose by $4.5 million, because the benefits can be spent on food and

Wu says he feared 'psychological collapse'

SUNNYVALE, Calif. (AP) — Harry Wu wept softly as he recounted his darkest hour while he was held captive in China: the day prison officials took away his wedding ring in an effort to get him to confess to spying.

The naturalized American citizen told about 200 supporters at a reception Sunday that was the only time he got on his knees and begged during his 66 days in captivity.

"The threat of Communist China against my personal safety and life was not my major concern," Wu said through a translator. "But I was very concerned about the possibility of my psychological collapse."

Wu said his wife, Ching-Lee

Mrs. Poe died Saturday, Aug. 26, in a Houston hospital.

She was born on April 17, 1914, in Brownwood. She taught school with the El Paso School District and retired in 1979 after 32 years. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church.

Survivors include four daughters: Ginger Stephens, Mary Jane Casler, Betty Jon Knous, all of Houston, and Tommie Childress, Mertzon; two brothers: Jack M. Graves, Lexington, and C.C. Graves, Hereford; two sisters: Nova Lynn Campbell, Midland, and Elizabeth Brinner, Snyder; 10 grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents C.C. Graves and Jessie Lowe Graves.

Arrangements under the direction of Nalley-Pickle & Welch Funeral Home.

Carleen White

Committal services for Carleen White, 63, Del Rio, will be at a later date in Ventura, Calif. Mrs. White died Saturday, Aug. 26, 1995, in Shannon Hospital in San Angelo.

She was born June 15, 1932, in Santa Maria, Calif. She had lived in Del Rio for over 30 years. Mrs. White was a Licensed Vocational Nurse and had been director of nursing at Del Rio Nursing Home. She was a Baptist.

Survivors include one daughter: Brenda White, Del Rio; five sons: James White, Big Spring, Jerry White, San Angelo, John White, Clyde, Claude White, Langtry, and Danny White, Del Rio; one sister: Charlotte Lee, Camarillo, Calif.; 16 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Arrangements under the direction of Myers & Smith Funeral Home.

Newton Moore

Graveside services for Newton Lee Moore, 87, Sand Springs, will be 1 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 29, 1995, at Trinity Memorial Park with Rev. Eldon Cook, pastor of Central Baptist Church, officiating.

Mr. Moore died Saturday, Aug. 26, in a local nursing home.

He was born on Dec. 22, 1907, in Hollis, Okla., and married Altie Lee Foster on Jan. 27, 1930, in Lubbock. He moved to Howard County in 1953 from Haskell County and had farmed and ranched in both counties.

After moving to Howard County, he also did contract oil field work. He was a Baptist. Mr. Moore was a lifetime member of the Texas Cowboy Reunion Old Timers Association in Stamford.

Survivors include his wife: Altie Lee Moore, Big Spring; two daughters: Marie Blount, Wichita Falls, and Llada Flanagan, Rockland, Maine; seven grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; one niece and several cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one sister.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home on Monday evening from 5 to 7 p.m.

Arrangements under the direction of Nalley-Pickle & Welch Funeral Home.

Card

food alone, not on crack cocaine or other illegal activities in the food stamp black market.

Sharp said, "In Houston, just six weeks into the system, $1 million was taken off the black market. These were taxpayer-funded benefits that previously disappeared into the black hole of the black market."

"That's exactly the kind of efficiency we had in mind when we proposed this program."

On August 1, the card was implemented in San Antonio, El Paso, Lubbock, Amarillo, Beaumont, Port Arthur, Nacogdoches and Lufkin. Later this year, it will also be implemented in Abilene, Austin, Midland-Odessa, San Angelo, Tyler, Texarkana, Waco and Wichita Falls.

Clients will use the card to pay for grocery-only food stamp purchases. Also, families who qualify for the Aid to Families with Dependent Children benefits program will use the card to receive payments.

According to Texas Commissioner of Human Services Burt Ralford, AFDC grants and food stamp benefits represents a $500 million investment in the economy of some areas.

He said, "We want the support of the retail community to make sure Texas has the nation's most efficient system of helping needy citizens."

The Texas Department of Human Services administers the food stamp and AFDC programs, while Austin-based Transactive Corporation is the private operator of the new electronic delivery system.

The card is expected to be implemented statewide by 1996, with 16,000 Texas retail outlets serving 2.7 million food stamp recipients in 1.3 million households.

Reunited with her on Thursday after being expelled from China, Wu says he learned a valuable lesson: "Listen to your spouse."

But the two, who sat side by side on the stage at the Chinese American Culture Center, did not appear ready to rule out future missions to China. However, Wu faces a 15-year prison sentence if he returns.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Probe trampled man's rights, friends say

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — In 1991 during the Persian Gulf War fervor, federal agents swarmed into Jasmine Azima's engineering business, confiscating records.

In the years since, no grand jury has been convened. No charges have been brought. No apologies have been issued.

But U.S. Attorney James H. Deatley has sent Azima's attorney a letter, the San Antonio Express-News reported in a copyright story in Sunday's editions.

"This is to advise that at the present time there are no federal criminal charges pending against your client Jasmine Azima," Deatley wrote to lawyer Van Hilley. "It is my understanding that the items taken pursuant to a search warrant have been returned to Ms. Azima. I am closing our file subject to being reopened should additional information come to our attention."

Signing organ donor card isn't enough

DALLAS (AP) — Just signing an organ donor card isn't always enough to assure that a potential donor's organs will help make a transplant possible at death.

Officials say the decision ultimately is that of the family, and unless they've discussed it with their loved one, the decision frequently is overruled.

"People sign a donor card, and they feel they've done all that they need to do," said Daniel Whiteside, executive director of the Association of Organ Procurement Organizations, which represents 51 organ procurement organizations across the country.

"It is important for people to understand that the decision is really one made by the individual's family at the time."

That time is after the potential donor has been declared brain dead and while his or her organs are kept going by artificial means.

Fort Worth gets large share of sex offenders

FORT WORTH (AP) — Three out of four paroled sex offenders living in Texas halfway houses are lodged in Fort Worth, and that makes some residents of the city uneasy.

Some people say they fear Fort Worth has become a dumping ground, at a time when many cities are actively turning away those with a history of sexual offenses.

All but 40 of the 167 sex offender parolees living in the state's halfway houses are in two Fort Worth facilities, according to recent data from the state's Parole Division.

Only 19 of the parolees are from Tarrant County. The rest were rejected by their home counties and went where the space was available — in Fort Worth.

Deborah Moore, a Fort Worth psychotherapist who counsels sex offenders, said she worries that the large numbers "stretch the ability to supervise" the parolees.

THEY ALL SURVIVED

One of three passengers in a single-engine airplane crawls out from underneath the burning wreckage of the plane that he and two other people were in when it crashed near Kikapoo airport Saturday in Wichita Falls. The pilot and two passengers were pulled to safety by two witnesses. No injuries were reported.

Last two Oklahoma escapees caught near Mexican border

Two Oklahoma jail escapees, sighted in Arkansas last week after four fellow fugitives were caught, were recaptured at the Mexican border in Texas, authorities said, perhaps after returning to this country from Mexico.

Steven Warner, 21, and Ross Barton, 20, both of Miami, Okla., were caught about 10:25 p.m. Saturday at Roma, Texas, according to Roma Patrolman Eloy Barrera.

The two men — both soaking wet and wearing muddy tennis shoes — were arrested about three blocks from the Mexican border, "just feet away from freedom," Barrera said.

Roma police believe the men probably crossed into Mexico, sold a stolen truck and swam back to Texas to make a phone call, Barrera said.

The owner of a service station telephoned police to report two suspicious men at the station's phone booth, the Roma patrolman said.

The two were among six inmates of the Ottawa County Jail at Miami who escaped Wednesday.

Four of them — Terry Dale Botts, 24, James Dewayne Blille, 22, and Gary Hanna Jr., 26, all of Miami; and Marvin Alexander, 21, of Quapaw, Okla. — were recaptured Thursday in northeastern Arkansas.

The two who remained at large until Saturday were spotted Thursday night in Lawrence County, Ark., where a truck was stolen from a home at Minturn, and hadn't been seen in the state since then.

"We're pretty sure it was them," said Kenny Oldham, a Lawrence County investigator.

Roma, a town of about 8,000 on the Rio Grande between the United States and Mexico, is in Starr County in far southern Texas, about 80 miles west of Harlingen.

Warner and Barton smelled strongly of marijuana when police found them, Barrera said, and a marijuana cigarette was found in Barton's pocket. Barrera said the men were arrested for being under the influence of a controlled substance and were being held in the Starr County Jail.

The two gave false names when they were arrested, Barrera said, but were identified properly on Sunday after Warner called his father seeking bail money, and the father called the Ottawa County Jail to report his son's whereabouts.

Ottawa County officials contacted Roma police and sent them photographs, fingerprints and other identifying information, deputy jailer Ron Jorgan said.

The six inmates, being held on a variety of charges, escaped from the 100-year-old jail by using pencils to gouge a hole in the brittle cell wall. All six had been accused of an escape attempt two weeks ago.

Two arrested in Fort Worth slayings

FORT WORTH (AP) — Two teenagers who were seen at a fast food restaurant Friday night with two other youths who were killed shortly thereafter have been arrested in the killings.

Police arrested Derrick Smith, 18, and a 15-year-old boy about 6:30 p.m. Sunday. Smith was arrested at his residence on a capital murder warrant signed by Judge Sharen Wilson and was ordered held on $500,000 bond.

The juvenile was taken into custody at a relative's house.

Both youths were arrested without incident, police said.

They're being questioned in the deaths of Michael McEachern and Kathryn Nesbit, whose bodies were found in the early morning hours of Saturday. McEachern's vehicle was found nearby.

Detectives said the motive for the slayings apparently was the theft of the stereo system in McEachern's vehicle.

Police said the two suspects and the two victims were seen together at the restaurant by an off-duty police officer, who contacted detectives with the information when he saw the victims' pictures in the newspaper.

Hispanic women focus on reproductive health, rights

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Despite a long cultural and religious tradition to the contrary, Hispanic women must take charge of their reproductive health and rights, participants of a weekend conference decided.

The Mujeres Project presented A Latina Reproductive Rights Conference on Saturday that included workshops on reproductive rights, prevention issues, the roles and responsibilities of women's organizations on reproductive issues, abortion, sexuality and self-esteem.

"This is groundbreaking. It is historic," declared Olga Morales Aguirre, the project's executive director, to the 100 invited participants.

"As far as I know, this has never been done in San Antonio before, or even the state," she said.

"Why? Because for many, the issue is cultural and church-based, and we never saw any Latina leader step up to the micke and say, 'Let me be part of the process and have an opportunity to agree or disagree.'"

A recurring commentary in the sessions was that Hispanics, historically, have been taught and socialized not to talk about their bodies, sex or sexuality and to respect authority figures, such as clergy and doctors.

Keynote speaker Aracely Panameno, executive director of the National Latina Institute for Reproductive Health in Washington, said those attitudes have been daunting for Hispanic women.

"We are talking about it, but we have not coalesced. We have not formed support networks. Other women's groups form to outreach the Latinas. We want to be able to do it by ourselves. But I don't think we have had the resources, financially."

According to data from the Latina Institute for Reproductive Health, until 1989 the government did not keep separate reproductive health statistics for the ethnic group.

Quote of the Day

"If we would guide by the light of reason, we must let our minds be bold."

Louis D. Brandeis, Supreme Court Justice, 1932

Choice is yours - pay up or be license-deprived

Children need support, that judges often order the non-custodial parent to pay something to support the child

Texas is now stepping up its enforcement of paying child support with new laws effective Sept. 1, both of which do not allow you to "bribe" your state licenses if delinquent on support.

According to the laws, you will be able to obtain a marriage license, a driver's license, or hunting, fishing, real estate, medical, law and other occupational, professional and educational licenses.

If you lie on the affidavit about child support, that will be a felony on the felony level.

It seems losing a license is a pretty decent incentive for making payments.

child support. What a shame it has to be this way. Whether or not you like the mother or father, the children shouldn't suffer. That's what not paying child support does - it makes life harder for the child.

Granted, it doesn't take care of the custodial parent's abuse of child support, but for the many people out there who depend on it, it takes care of that problem.

It's your choice - pay up or be deprived yourself.

Iris causes deadly mudslide

By JAVIER MAYMI
Associated Press Writer

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — Tropical Storm Iris moved away from the northeastern islands of the Caribbean today and was keeping its distance from the United States as it traveled north.

The storm swept through the eastern Caribbean with 65 mph winds on Sunday, killing two people in a mudslide in Martinique. Another person died after falling into a storm-swollen river in Guadeloupe.

The storm's center was about 100 miles northeast of the island of St. Martin at 5 a.m. EDT today. It was moving 10 mph north and expected to hold to that course but strengthen later today.

Richard Pasch, a hurricane specialist at the National Hurricane Center in Miami, said Iris could hit the 74 mph-threshold for a hurricane.

"It's gotten better organized. It could definitely become a hurricane soon. We think it will strengthen," he said.

On its present track, however, Iris should not hit Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands, where it seemed headed on Sunday. Even so a tropical storm watch remained in effect for the U.S. Virgin Islands.

"It should pass far enough to the east," Pasch said. "They could get some gusty winds and showers, but we don't see tropical storm conditions there."

Tropical storm warnings remained in effect for Antigua and islands north through the British Virgin Islands. But they were likely to be lowered for at least a portion of the area later today.

Iris broadsided Martinique overnight, causing flooding in many coastal towns.

Heavy rains caused a severe mudslide in the Martinique town of Vauclin, killing a 55-year-old man and his wife when their house washed off a mountainside. The couple's daughter was injured.

Authorities said they were trying to evacuate the town but were unable to find adequate transportation due to the high winds.

The incessant rain also flooded downtown Riviere-Pilot.

Serge Larcher, mayor of Martinique's southern resort town of Diamant, wept as he toured the town's ravaged beachfront.

"This storm has ripped through the hearts of the people of Diamant," Larcher said. "It's a horrible sight. The beach is destroyed, the town is ravaged."

In Guadeloupe, about 100 miles north of Martinique, a 20-year-old man drowned after he fell into a river and was dragged by strong currents.

Republicans question First Lady's trip to China

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Republicans are saying Hillary Rodham Clinton's planned visit to China to attend a conference on women's issues sends the wrong message to citizens of the Communist country.

"Clearly when Mrs. Clinton goes as first lady of the United States of America, it sends a number of mixed messages," Rep. Susan Molinari, R-N.Y., said Sunday.

"There's no doubt that China's going to use the visit of Mrs. Clinton as a propaganda tool."

Molinari worried that the first lady's visit would allow China to whitewash its human rights record and ignore the plight of women there.

But Geraldine Ferraro, U.S. ambassador to the U.N. Human Rights Commission, called Mrs. Clinton's decision to attend the U.N.-sponsored World Conference on Women in Beijing "a win for women throughout the world."

Ferraro said that a planned statement the Sept. 4-15 conference will issue, addressing economic and political rights for women and violence against them, will have an impact on Chinese society.

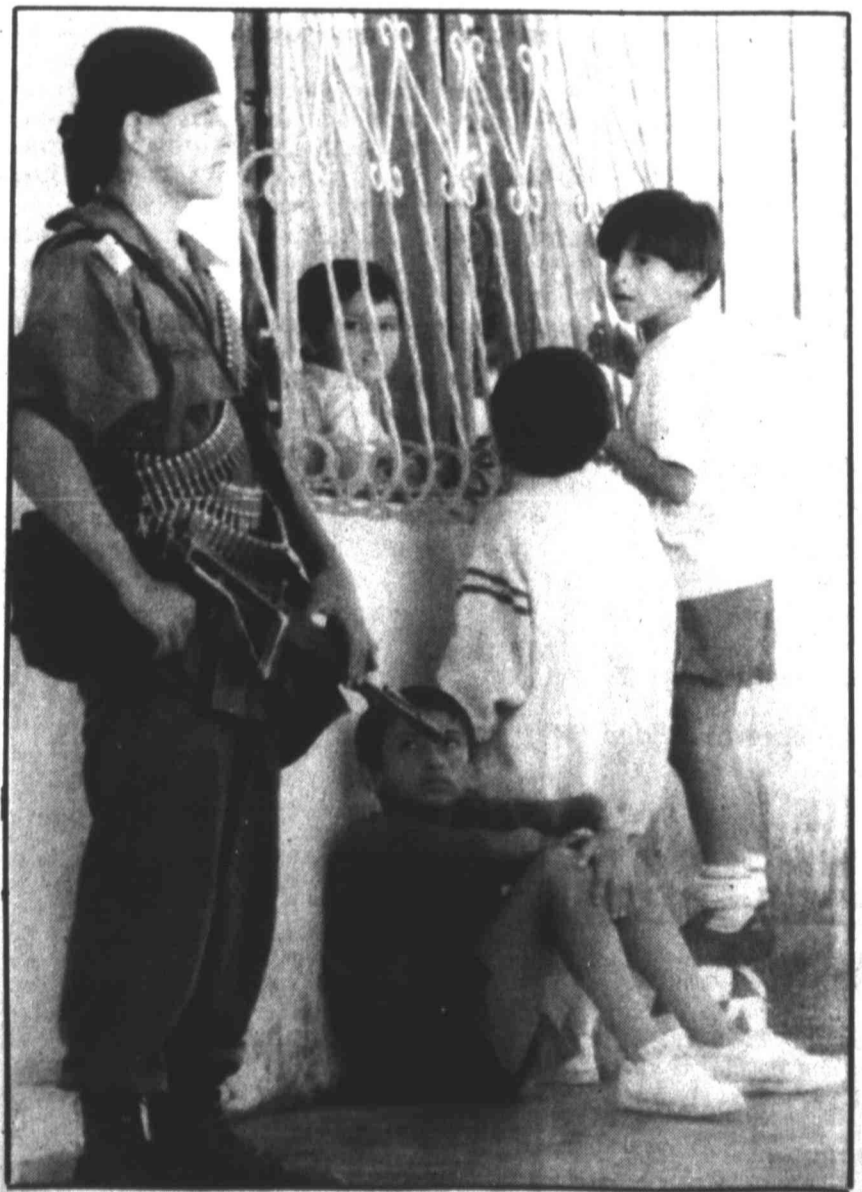

"China will be criticized in that document," she said.

But Molinari, who joined Ferraro on ABC's "This Week with David Brinkley," questioned whether that message will reach the Chinese people through the nation's tightly controlled state media.

As the debate continues, U.S. diplomats said they were discussing a visit by Chinese President Jiang Zemin to the United States, which could include a meeting with President Clinton to discuss Sino-American relations.

Younger, more violent traffickers may take over Cali drug cartel

A member of the Colombian anti-narcotics police stands guard near a house where police believed drugs were being hidden in the city of Armenia. No drugs were found during the raid. The drug kingpins who used to host village festivals for the peasants who grew their cocaine are on the way out. Now Colombian authorities say a new breed of younger, more violent drug traffickers is emerging to take their place.

By CHRIS TORCHIA
Associated Press Writer

ARMENIA, Colombia (AP) — Authorities say a new breed of drug kingpins is emerging, many of them only in their 20s, already millionaires and ready to kill anyone who gets in their way.

"These are the violent ones. They control the hitmen, they're well-armed and they're not interested in turning themselves in," said Lt. Col. Addon Aldana, chief of police in Armenia, a city north of Cali.

Prosecutors are now building cases against some of them:

—Juan Carlos Ramirez, a reputed trafficker in his late 20s whose nickname is "Chupeta" (Lollipop), is wanted on illegal enrichment charges.

—Arturo de Jesus Herrera, nicknamed "Banana," has been linked to the massacre of 13 farmworkers in October 1993.

U.S. and some Colombian officials now worry that Samper is taking the pressure off prematurely. Units of an elite security force that hunted Cali traffickers are already transferring to Bogota to fight common crime.

While raids are continuing, it's not clear how long they will last.

Pressured by the raids, many drug traffickers are shifting their home base and refining labs, at least temporarily, to the Caribbean coast and the eastern plains, according to police and local residents, interviewed on condition of anonymity.

However some drug dealers still venture out for a little pageantry.

Will there be any forgotten?

Editor: The upcoming United Nations Fourth World Conference on Women to be held in Beijing, China is supposed to focus on the human rights abuses women suffer. However, I fear that some of those the conference claims it represents will be forgotten, namely the millions of children—particularly female infants—sacrificed to the Chinese government's "one child per family" policy. (If you are not familiar with the atrocities of forced abortions regularly inflicted on Chinese women, an excellent article entitled "Question of Duty" by Dr. Yan Wong can be found in the September issue of Reader's Digest.)

My principle concerns are these: Is the world somehow condoning these hideous practices by allowing a Women's Conference to take place in a country named by many organizations as the worst offender of women's human rights? And how can we as individual citizens influence our own and other governments not to go along with China's insanely cruel population control practices? My only thought is that "money talks" and only through the power of the pocketbook can we force the government of the People's Republic of China to change its policy. Our rallying cry should be, "If China can kill its children—we can kill its economy. Boycott Chinese made goods!"

Sure, you may have to pay a little extra to buy "American" (or whatever) over a cheaper Chinese made consumer good.

Which is more comfortable... a little more... for a Chinese... child because it... government's "one... and consider this... would be here... government... kind of popu... policy?

Is voter apathy the problem?

Editor: What a selection we are apparently blessed with in the political arena coming up for 1996. While all these political choices are great, and selection possibly will be difficult, the most difficult obstacle politicians must overcome to be elected will be voter apathy. Is it really voter apathy, or is it the "system-stretching" the elections throughout the year? We are confronted with all sorts of elections, all of them important. But why must each choice require a separate trip to the polls? A special election for this, one for that, ad infinitum.

Seldom, do I hear a remark by a politician or political party make much sense, nor do I endorse hardly any of them. But H. Ross Perot did make sense when he suggested we hold elections on Saturday and Sunday! To carry his idea a little farther, why not consolidate every proposition and every office to be filled to coincide with the primary election early in the year, and the general election in the fall of the year, but both of them on Saturday and Sunday while almost everyone has free time, and would like an outing with their family to boot. Go vote, then shopping, have a meal out, and make it an enjoyable day.

Of course this would require an election in itself, and most politicians would be anti-change, because they would prefer to be voted in by their special interest group. And to put it where it really is, this proposition would be too practical to be even considered. As is the tax reform situation. Don't rock the boat. Status quo has worked for decades—why should we change now?

NEWS IN BRIEF

Merger combines Chase Manhattan, Chemical

NEW YORK (AP) — Chemical Banking Corp. and Chase Manhattan Corp. agreed to merge in a $10 billion stock transaction that will create the biggest banking company in the United States, the banks said today.

The combined company — to be called Chase Manhattan — will have $297 billion in assets, outranking Citicorp, at present the largest U.S. bank company with $257 billion in assets.

The new bank will have 25 million customers across the nation and rank third in mortgage lending and fourth in credit cards. In New York, the new Chase will be number one in consumer and business banking. The bank will also be a global leader in several corporate banking businesses.

The merger, expected to close by the end of March 1996, will result in 12,000 job cuts from a combined staff of 75,000 in 39 states and 51 countries. Both Chemical and Chase are based in New York.

Medical supplies go to American Indians

WASHINGTON (AP) — To the military, the stuff is just taking up space in a warehouse. But to the money-strapped hospitals and clinics that serve American Indians, $6 million in medical supplies and equipment is a godsend.

Everything from bandages to X-ray machines is being shipped from an Air Force warehouse this month to Indian health facilities from North Carolina to Alaska.

The equipment, some of it never used, comes from U.S. bases that are closing in Great Britain and Denmark.

"The military was stuck with a lot of perfectly good medical supplies and equipment that normally would be given to undeveloped countries," said Kenneth Bricker, a spokesman for the federal Indian Health Service.

The supplies were earmarked for Ukraine, but Congress intervened and ordered the Pentagon to give them to American Indian facilities instead. Sen. Daniel Inouye, D-Hawaii, said the material would fill a critical need.

Another $90 million in equipment and supplies is expected to become available over the next two years as additional European bases shut down, he said.

Woman offers $50,000 reward for dog

OCEAN CITY, Md. (AP) — A Pennsylvania woman who believes her dog fell overboard is offering a $50,000 reward to get him back — dead or alive.

Tina Sigafosse, a chiropractor from Thomasville, Pa., believes her 1-year-old terrier, Baby Huey, fell overboard last Friday while she was in the Delaware Bay on her 38-foot cabin cruiser.

Sigafosse said she didn't see Baby Huey go overboard but suspects the dog fell into the water after he escaped from the downstairs cabin. The dog was wearing a purple dog collar but no I.D. tags.

Three dead, one missing in floods

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP) — Floodwaters swept an 8-year-old boy and at least two adults to their deaths as dregs from Tropical Storm Jerry battered the Carolinas with up to 15 inches of rain.

Another person was missing in upstate South Carolina, which was hit hard by flooding that forced hundreds of people from their homes. Two deadly traffic accidents were blamed on the weather.

Bryant Eagle, 8, was skateboarding on a sidewalk in Gaffney, about 60 miles northeast of Greenville, when he fell into a flooded drainage ditch and was sucked into a storm pipe.

His mother, Donna Eagle, said she tried to pull him out. "We couldn't grab him. It was strong. He didn't have time to call out," she said Sunday night, hours after a rescue crew recovered his body.

The body of Christoffer Michael Douthy, 18, was found Sunday morning in a flooded Greenville County creek. He drowned after jumping in to save a teen-age girl who survived.

Authorities in nearby Greer held out little hope of finding 20-year-old Victoria Marie Cordle, swept away when her car plunged into a rain-swollen creek. Three passengers survived.

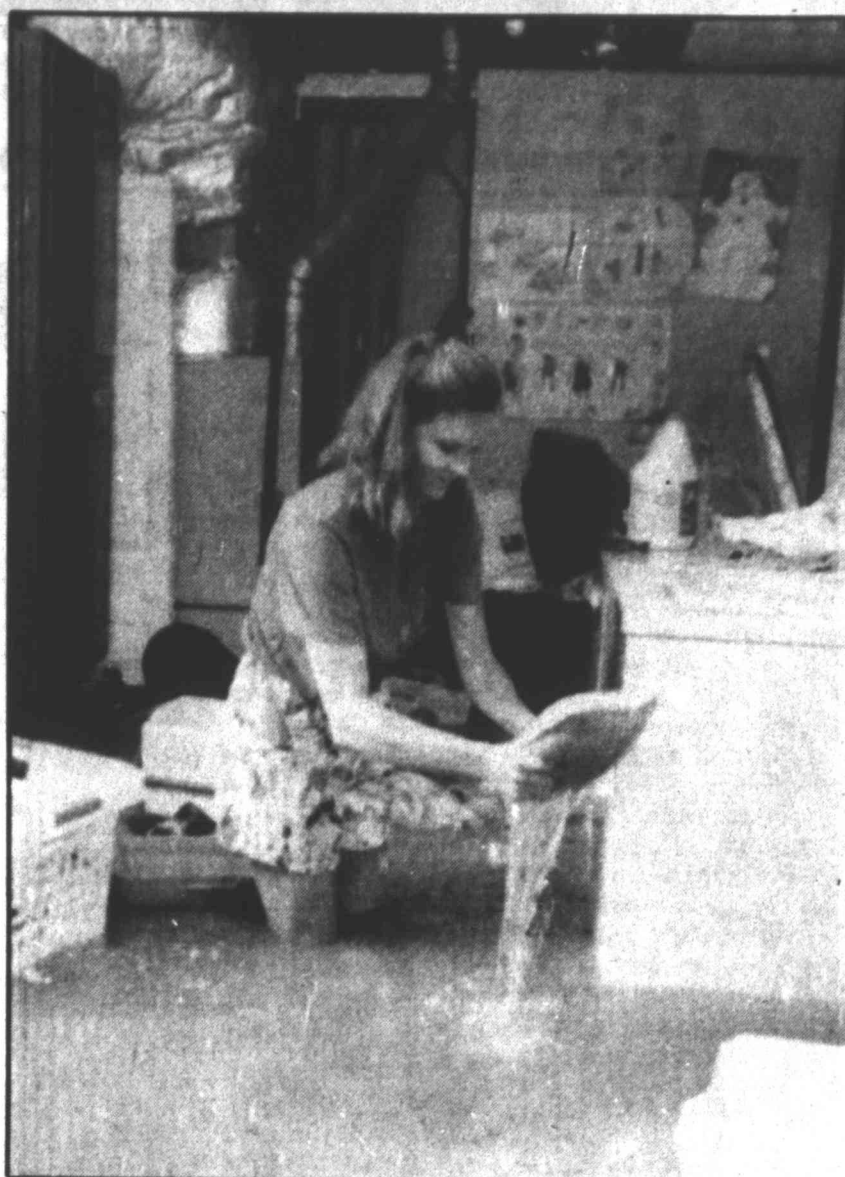

In North Carolina, firefighter Greg Hinson drowned Sunday night trying to rescue a stranded motorist in Alamance County, northwest of Raleigh.

Motorists in the middle region known as the Piedmont were unable to navigate low-lying streets, some covered by 4 feet of water.

When the water got too high, hundreds of residents from the nearby college town of Chapel Hill, Charlotte, to the west and Robbins, located between the two, were forced to leave home to seek shelter elsewhere.

"Around 5 a.m., I woke up and my hand was in water," said Robert French of Charlotte. "I knew we had to get out of there."

Sugar Creek jumped its banks, forcing 63 residents of a Charlotte nursing home to evacuate Sunday morning, and in nearby Cabarrus County, 60 residents were evacuated from a long-term care center in Kannapolis.

Elizabeth Morrow wrings out a pillow in the garage of her flooded home in Charlotte, N.C. Heavy rains from Tropical Storm Jerry have caused damage to homes and forced evacuations in some areas.

Plane crash ends man's rampage

KINTNERSVILLE, Pa. (AP) — A 70-year-old airstrip maintenance worker angry about losing his job shot his two bosses at work, killing one of them, then escaped in a plane which crashed about 20 minutes later, investigators say.

Kenneth Jerolaman was killed in the crash.

Investigators say they believe Jerolaman became enraged Saturday when his bosses tried to fire him after a decade at Labate Aviation, an airplane restoration company.

Company owner Dominic Silverio, of Philadelphia, was killed. His partner, Salvatore Labate, 67, was shot three times in the abdomen. He was hospitalized in guarded condition.

After shooting Silverio and Labate in a hangar, Jerolaman maneuvered a plane onto a grass runway and flew 10 miles before plunging to the ground outside Frenchtown, N.J. State police spokesman Joe Scheideler said it was too soon to say if the plane crashed because of a mechanical problem or the pilot intentionally flew it into the ground.

Syringes reportedly found on bombing suspects' food trays

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The warden of the federal prison holding the two Oklahoma City bombing suspects says the inmates are not at risk despite a report that syringes were found on their food trays.

Warden R.G. Thompson told The Daily Oklahoman in today's editions that security at the El Reno Federal Correctional Institution is "not at all" in jeopardy. He said the controversy was "an internal personnel matter" and refused further comment.

The Muskogee Daily Phoenix reported Sunday that Charles M. "Chuck" Mildner, chief correctional supervisor at the prison, was suspended with pay after he ordered that only one officer be allowed to handle food trays for bombing suspects Timothy McVeigh and Terry Nichols.

Mildner's supervisors revoked the order, his attorney, David Wilson, told the newspaper.

Mildner established the policy after syringes were found on food trays going into the unit where McVeigh and Nichols are held, Wilson said.

Contraband was found again on the trays after Mildner's order was countermanded and inmates had access to the trays, Wilson said.

"What would happen if one of those two inmates were to die inside the prison?" Wilson asked. "It would make him a martyr to all these crackpots and extremists."

McVeigh and Nichols could be sentenced to death if convicted in the April 19 explosion at the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City.

1995 Property Tax Rates in Glasscock County Independent School District

This notice concerns _____ property tax rates for Independent school district. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the school district used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the school district can set before it must hold a rollback election. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes and state funds by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Last year's tax rate:
Last year's operating taxes	$ 4,599,300
Last year's debt taxes	$ -0-
Last year's total taxes	$ 4,599,300
Last year's tax base	$ 348,883,350
Last year's total tax rate	$ 1.320000 /$100

This year's effective tax rate:
Last year's adjusted taxes	$ 4,597,383
(after subtracting taxes on lost property)
+ This year's adjusted tax base	$ 285,117,520
(after subtracting value of new property)
- This year's effective tax rate	$ 1.612452 /$100
x 1.03 = maximum rate unless the school district publishes notices and holds hearing	$ 1.660826 /$100

This year's tax rate to trigger a rollback election:
Last year's adjusted operating taxes	$ 4,597,384
+ This year's adjusted tax base	$ 285,117,520
- This year's local maintenance and operating rate	$ 1.612452 /$100
+ $0.08 cents = this year's maximum operating rate	$ 1.692452 /$100
+ This year's debt rate	$.000000 /$100
- This year's rate to trigger a rollback election	$ 1.692452 /$100

This year's highest rate following a successful rollback election:
Last year's adjusted operating taxes	$ 4,597,384
+ This year's adjusted tax base	$ 285,117,520
- This year's local maintenance and operating rate	$ 1.612452 /$100

Ohio State tailback Eddie George (27) scores a touchdown in the third quarter of the Kickoff Classic Sunday at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J.

New wrinkles on offense pay dividends for Buckeyes

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) — The time might be past when Ohio State's offense can be categorized by the handoff and the downfield pass.

The new wrinkle — a short-passing game highlighted by the swing pass — and a couple of big plays by the defense and special teams went a long way in the No. 10 Buckeyes' 38-6 victory over Boston College in the Kickoff Classic on Sunday.

"There are a few things we changed and helped us accomplish what we accomplished today," quarterback Bobby Hoyer said. "It's overall consistency. If you saw us, we didn't force the ball at any time. We mixed up the pass and the run, and if we can continue being consistent, that's what will be different about our team."

Boston College was ranked No. 22 in the preseason poll, but dropped out after the loss.

If there was a key play, it was perhaps the first swing play, which came late in the first half with Ohio State already leading 14-3. Boston College had Ohio State pinned at its 1, facing third and 10.

Hoyer took the snap and floated a swing pass to Eddie George in the left flat for a 14-yard gain. George followed with a 19-yard run and Hoyer then hit Terry Glenn with a 46-yard pass to the Boston College 20.

Three plays later, Hoyer capped the 99-yard drive with a 12-yard scoring pass to tight end Rickey Dudley for a 21-3 lead.

"The defense feels like you have your back against the wall," Buckeyes tackle Orlando Pace said. "But we punched our way out. We not only wore them down, we broke their confidence. They didn't feel the same after that."

That was obvious in the third quarter when Ohio State took the opening kickoff and drove 82 yards in 18 plays for a field goal. George, named the game MVP with 99 yards rushing, two TDs and three pass receptions for 44 yards, caught swing passes of 16 and 14 yards. Both catches came with the Buckeyes needing more than nine yards for a first down.

"We knew Boston College liked to pressure the passer, so that was something we recently installed," George said. "I was surprised that after the first couple of catches, I thought they would bring someone out to cover me 1-on-1, and they never did."

Boston College coach Dan Henning said the swing pass didn't catch his team by surprise.

"We played the swing pass poorly," said Henning, who was just as disappointed in the Eagles' failure to stop Shawn Springs' 97-yard kickoff return that made it 14-3. It was the first kickoff return for a TD in the 13-year history of the game.

Seconds after Dan McGuire's 24-yard field goal cut Ohio State's lead to 7-3, McGuire sailed his kickoff to Springs at the 3. Springs angled across the field and found a gaping hole as he turned upfield around the 20. He got a great peel-back block from Jeff Wilson at the 27 and a final block from Glenn on McGuire near midfield.

Ohio State outgained Boston College 488 yards to 300 and had only one turnover to four for the Eagles. The Buckeyes also came up with several big defensive stops, the best coming with seven minutes left in the second quarter.

Trailing 14-3, Boston College moved 52 yards to the Ohio State 19. But on fourth down with less than a foot to go, quarterback Mark Hartsell was stopped on a sneak.

Labonte survives late fender-bender for win

BRISTOL, Tenn. (AP) — Terry Labonte knew he had gotten away with one.

"I went the whole race without a single scratch and then I wind up with a smashed up car in the winner's circle," Labonte said with a grin following his hard-earned victory in Saturday night's Goody's 500.

Labonte's Hendrick Motorsports Chevrolet took the checkered flag sliding backwards after the hard-charging Dale Earnhardt slammed into the rear of the leader's car coming off the fourth turn on the last of 500 laps on Bristol International Raceway's .533-mile concrete oval.

"That's the first time I've

ever won a race going backwards," Labonte added. "But I'm not mad at Dale, because I won. If I hadn't won, I might have been a little mad at him."

"But I honestly don't believe he intended to wreck us. It was just one of those deals that happen in racing."

Earnhardt, who came from the back of the field to the front twice during the long night of racing, said, "I couldn't catch him. I got jammed behind those slow cars and I got into him, and he still wound up winning the race. It was all just close racing." Earnhardt, who pitted during the last caution period on lap 390, gave up track position, but used his fresher tires to charge from ninth on lap 429 to second on lap 487.

Labonte had pitted with most of the other lead lap cars on lap 322 and was nearly out of both gas and tires by the end.

"I knew it was pretty close on fuel, but I don't know how close because they never told me," Labonte said. "But I knew I was wanting some tires there at the end."

The seven-time Winston Cup champion nearly caught Labonte, who was slowed on the final lap by several lapped cars racing each other for position.

Woods continues amateur dominance

Tiger Woods, center, hugs his caddy after winning the U.S. Amateur Golf Championship.

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Tiger Woods was trained by his father from the age of 6 months to be a golfing champion.

On Sunday, he confirmed — again — his budding greatness with a shot worthy of a champion.

Moments after hitting a 140-yard fairway shot within 16 inches of the cup on the final hole of the U.S. Amateur, the 19-year-old Stanford student had his second straight victory in the tournament and his fifth national title in five years.

Only four other players have captured as many national titles as Woods: Bobby Jones, with nine; Jack Nicklaus, with eight; and Jay Sigel and Jerome Travers, five each.

That's heady company for a young man who hasn't even started his sophomore year in college. But Woods maintained the best thing about beating 43-year-old Pennsylvania auto dealer Buddy Marucci was winning the automatic invitations to the Masters and U.S. and British Opens that go to the U.S. Amateur champ.

"It's the experience that I get to have because of winning" that's the best reward, Woods said.

Woods' experience playing slick fairways and wind-blown links courses in this year's British and Scottish Opens may have been the key to winning at Newport Country Club, which is as similar to St. Andrews' Old Course as any 18 holes in America.

That and the hours of practice he put in after being let down by short-iron shots in the Masters.

"I spent hours and hours on the range and it paid off on the 18th hole," Woods said. "It's nice to see that hard work pays off."

One-up heading to the final hole, Woods lofted his second shot from the middle of the fairway and watched it spin back to the pin. He pumped his fist as he walked up to the green.

Lucky shot goes Norman's way

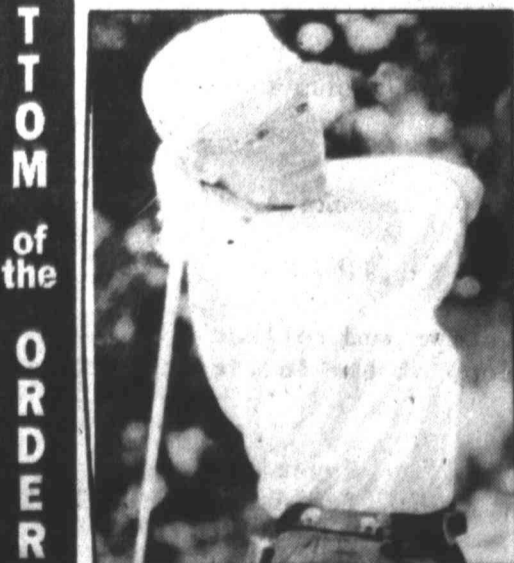

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — A miracle shot in a playoff decided the World Series of Golf — and this time Greg Norman did the shooting.

Norman's 66-foot pitch-and-run with a 7-iron from the fringe gave him a birdie on the first playoff hole Sunday and sent Nick Price and Billy Mayfair to the purgatory that the blond Australian has visited several times before.

Gaetti leads KC to win

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — There's a lot to be said for experience. Gary Gaetti's two-run homer spoke volumes.

During a 13-year major league career, Gaetti had seen Matt Whiteside before. So when Whiteside delivered in the eighth inning Sunday with Kansas City holding a 3-2 lead, it was almost as though Gaetti had seen a sneak preview of the pitch.

The result was a two-run insurance homer in the eighth that helped lift the Royals to a 5-2 victory Sunday over the Texas Rangers, giving them three victories in four weekend games against the team they're chasing for an American League wild-card berth.

"It's just one of those things," said Gaetti. "I've faced the guy enough to know what he does, you know."

Seles' return puts fire back into women's tennis

Well, it happened! Steffi Graf's worst nightmare has returned to women's tennis with a bang. I was all for Monica Seles' return, but I had to question her being given the co-number one ranking.

That question was answered and then some during the Canadian Open. She went through players like a fish goes through water. The U.S. Open begins today and it should be an interesting two weeks.

Graf is seeded number one and Seles is seeded second, which means the chances for a Graf-Seles final are pretty good. Don't forget, however, that you have people like Arantza Sanchez-Vicario, Conchita Martinez, Mary Pierce, and Gabriella Sabatini lurking in the wings.

Carlton Johnson
Staff Writer

The chances of one of them knocking off Graf is better than one of them beating Seles. I'll be pulling for both players because I enjoy watching both of them play, but Seles has proven herself to be worthy of the co-number one ranking in the ATP computer.

I'm not sure if the reports of Graf's being upset were exaggerated or true, but the point is moot now.

Seles is back, she's better than she was before, and she says she's having fun doing something she loves. The speed on her serve has improved, and her passing shots, from her forehand and her backhand, are deadly. She's even scoring winners by hitting cross-court shots. That's pure power!

The worst thing that happened to a lot of players on the women's tour is that they got a chance to sit down and watch her play, including the exhibition against Martina Navratilova.

Navratilova is still good enough to earn a top 10 ranking, but she has lost a lot of her speed.

What she does to make up for age and slower reactions is use her head to outsmart other players. She's patient now, but even that was not enough to stop Seles.

Of course Navratilova couldn't be happier that Seles is back. She talked her into coming back as well as played a lot of tennis with her to get her ready to come back.

Women's tennis continues to gain momentum as its popularity increases, but what a boost to have two players with the talents Graf and Seles possess. The co-number one ranking won't last forever, but what fun it's going to be watching these two battle it out in match after match.

I like Steffi, but I'm picking Monica to win the U.S. Open.

for Norman, who endured last-hole losses to Bob Tway in the 1986 PGA Championship and Larry Mize in the 1987 Masters and has lost in playoffs in all four majors.

"When it happened to me, it happened in such quick succession," Norman said. "People couldn't let go of that. But it's slowly worked itself out."

"Golf's gods were with me today."

The $360,000 first-place check allowed Norman to pass Tom Kite as the PGA Tour's leading money-winner with $9,493,579. He has a season-record $1,555,709 this year.

The $2 million tournament was held at the 7,149-yard, par-70 Firestone Country Club course.

Norman, who made the playoff with a 3-under-par 67 for a 72-hole total of 2-under 278, had considered withdrawing from the tournament Thursday night after accusing playing partner

Mark McCumber of improving his putting line on the seventh hole. But Norman's wife, tour commissioner Tim Finchem and two business associates talked him out of it.

Instead, he won for the third time this year. His other victories came in The Memorial and the Greater Hartford Open.

Norman, four shots back as he stepped to the 16th tee, said the victory ranks as one of the best of his career.

witted by his German rival.

Schumacher's masterly concocted victory with brilliant wet-weather driving in a neck-and-neck race with Hill left him with a 66-51 edge in the driver standings going into the Italian Grand Prix in two weeks.

"It was bloody difficult," Schumacher said. A qualifying mishap left him 16th on the starting grid, yet he was in the lead by the 16th of the 44 laps and went on to notch his 16th career victory. That ties him for ninth on the career victory list with Sterling Moss.

It took some spectacular, if unconventional, driving to achieve it.

When Belgium's inevitable showers hit the race just before the halfway mark, Schumacher decided to stay out on the 4.333-mile track on slick tires. He was gambling it wouldn't keep raining.

Hill did the logical thing, ducking into the pits for wet-weather tires, and indeed he was soon vying for the lead.

Then Hill learned that logic isn't always the answer to the low clouds and curtains of rain clinging to the pines of the Ardennes hills.

Schumacher started weaving all over the track, closing off any hole Hill found.

"I knew it was going to dry out," Schumacher said.

Hill's Williams Renault team was hopping mad with Schumacher's daredevil capers, especially when the cars touched wheels at top speeds. Williams lodged a protest, which Formula One officialdom converted into a warning to Schumacher. Should he be guilty of similar driving in the next four races, he'll be suspended for a race.

It wasn't the answer Williams was looking for, and it certainly didn't set well with Schumacher.

"We had some pretty hairy moments out there," Hill said. The strategy was "to keep him behind me for as long as possible," Schumacher retorted.

1995 Property Tax Rates in Glasscock County

This notice concerns 1995 property tax rates for Glasscock County. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

	General Fund	Farm to Market/ Flood Control Fund	Special Road/ Bridge Fund
Last year's tax rate:
Last year's operating taxes	$ 1,421,652	$ -0-	$ -0-
Last year's debt taxes	$ -0-	$ -0-	$ -0-
Last year's total taxes	$ 1,421,652	$ -0-	$ -0-
Last year's tax base	$ 350,504,820	$ -0-	$ -0-
Last year's total tax rate	$.4056 /$100	$ -0- /$100	$ -0- /$100
This year's effective tax rate:
Last year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$ 1,421,742	$ -0-	$ -0-
+ This year's adjusted tax base (after subtracting value of new property)	$ 287,312,460	$ -0-	$ -0-
= This year's effective tax rate for each fund	$.494842/$100	$ -0- /$100	$ -0- /$100
Total effective tax rate	$.494842/$100

In the first year a county collects the additional sales tax to reduce property taxes, it must insert the following lines unless its first adjustment was made last year.

- Sales tax adjustment rate	$ -0- /$100
- Effective tax rate	$ -0- /$100

x 1.03 = maximum rate unless unit publishes notices and holds hearing $.509687/$100

	General Fund	Farm to Market/ Flood Control Fund	Special Road/ Bridge Fund
This year's rollback tax rate:
Last year's adjusted operating taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property and including taxes for state criminal justice mandate.)	$ 1,421,742	$ -0-	$ -0-
+ This year's adjusted tax base	$ 287,312,460	$ -0-	$ -0-
= This year's effective operating rate	$.494842/$100	$ -0- /$100	$ -0- /$100
x 1.08 = this year's maximum operating rate	$.534429/$100	$ -0- /$100	$ -0- /$100
+ This year's debt rate	$.000000/$100	$ -0- /$100	$ -0- /$100
= This year's rollback rate for each fund	$.534429/$100	$ -0- /$100	$ -0- /$100
This year's total rollback rate	$.534429/$100

A county that collects the additional sales tax to reduce property taxes, including one that collects the tax for the first time this year, must insert the following lines

- Sales tax adjustment rate	$ -0- /$100
- Rollback tax rate	$ -0- /$100

For a county with additional rollback rate for pollution control, insert the following lines

+ Additional rate for pollution control	$ -0- /$100
- Rollback tax rate	$ -0- /$100

GLASSCOCK COUNTY
SCHEDULE A
UNENCUMBERED FUND BALANCE

The following balance will probably be left in the unit's property tax accounts at the end of the fiscal year. These balances are not encumbered by a corresponding debt obligation.

Type of Property Tax Fund	Balance
General Fund	$ 630,000

This notice contains a summary of actual effective and rollback tax rates' calculations. You can inspect a copy of the full calculations at the Glasscock County Courthouse.

HOROSCOPE

FOR TUESDAY, AUG. 29, 1995

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Today is full of change and confusion. Evaluate what is going on with a professional matter. Ideas flourish. Only you know how to handle pressure and overcome obstacles. Your social life and work mix gracefully. Tonight: Go out. ****

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): You get a lot done because you adjust to news or a change in plans in a positive fashion. Review your choices, and demonstrate your ability to get the job done. Review your exercise and health program. Touch base with what works for you. Tonight: Work late. ***

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Be sensitive to a partner's distress. Right now it serves you to try to understand what is bothering this person, even though you see a situation in a different way. Be sensitive, but staying detached helps you solve a problem. Tonight: Be a wild thing. ****

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Settle down, and be responsive to a family member's concern. Examine what might be best for you in the long run. Partners are confused, and you might not be able to resolve an issue as quickly as you would like. You need a change in scenery. Tonight: Do your own thing. ***

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Fatigued you propose and examine a change. You gain insight after initiating talks. There is no need to push or argue. Give someone space so he can see the wisdom of your thinking. Take an active stand with a neighbor. Tonight: Stand the breeze with a friend. ****

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Expenses could go overboard. You see life in a new way. Be willing to brainstorm and settle problems. Your creativity and understanding mix to help you succeed. Avoid a financial risk at all costs. Do not underestimate what you offer; stay confident. Tonight: Treat yourself. ****

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): You are driven by someone's perceptions and understanding. Go to a friend who is handling life well and can give you valuable feedback. Touch base with your high energy and aim it toward your long term desires. Tonight: Be yourself. ****

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Think about what you want. Examine alternatives with care. There is confusion concerning a communication. Determine what is needed to make an adjustment. Your temper could be self-destructive; be aware of your need to express it. Tonight: Curl up with a good book. ***

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Problems with a money matter could be upsetting. Face a problem, and develop a better understanding of what is necessary to solve it. Focus on your long-term goals and a special friendship. Your sense of direction helps you get what you want. Tonight: Hang out with good friends. ****

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): You might be causing yourself trouble with an authority figure. Your clarity - or lack of it - could be a major obstacle today. Definitely do a better job of listening to what is needed at work. Put your energy into a project, and ask fewer questions. Tonight: Burn the midnight oil. ****

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Be less perturbed by a private matter, and get more in tune with what is needed. You'll have many options if you reach out to someone. Explore alternatives, seek information and take a risk. Long-distance news plays a significant role. Tonight: Go to the movies. ****

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): One-to-one relating helps you handle a disagreement. Be aware of what you are bargaining for. Avoid a fight, if you can. Understand what it takes to have a successful partnership. Do not listen to a friend who has let you down before. Tonight: Dinner for two. ****

IF AUG. 29 IS YOUR BIRTHDAY: Money matters will play an important role in your year. You need to focus on security and getting whatever it is you need to feel comfortable. You might also opt to curb spending. A real estate investment in 1995 could be excellent for you in the long run. If you are single, 1996 holds many romantic possibilities. Allow yourself to change if it helps you get where you want to go. If attached, the two of you experience a unique closeness in 1996. LIBRA can aggravate you.

A few lessons for the geographically impaired

DEAR ABBY: This letter is in response to the letter from Hawaii. Your Hawaiian correspondent was put out by the number of people who didn't know that Hawaii was part of the United States.

We who live in NEW Mexico are constantly running into the same situation. Let me give you a few examples: New Mexico was the only state in the union whose license plates were stamped with "U.S.A." in the lower right-hand corner of the plate.

I also have seen maps in which New Mexico was completely omitted!

As a counselor who assists students in applying for financial aid to further their education, I have been asked why they did not seek aid from their OWN country (meaning Mexico)! And this from so-called educated administrative assistants and executive secretaries!

Many people visiting New Mexico comment on how surprised they were that they didn't have to go through customs or present a passport. They actually thought New Mexico was a part of Mexico. - FROM MEXICO (THE NEW ONE)

DEAR FROM: Move over. Many from West Virginia wrote to say that their state is sometimes considered the western part of the state of Virginia. And while we're on the subject of geographical ignorance, many wrote to say that they wish people would quit getting Australia confused with New Zealand.

Saturday's Puzzle solved: A crossword puzzle with the solution.

THIS DATE IN HISTORY

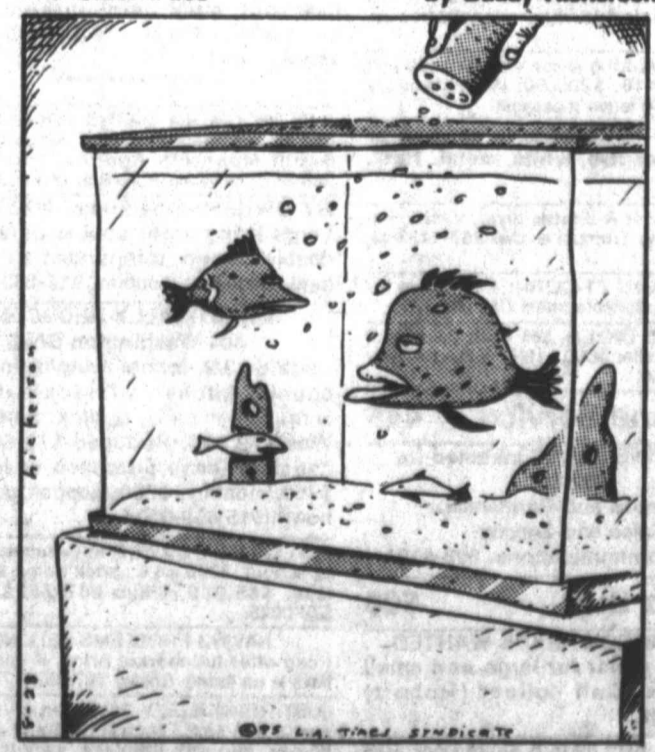

Today is Monday, Aug. 28, the 240th day of 1995. There are 125 days left in the year. Today's Highlight in History: On Aug. 28, 1963, 200,000 people participated in a peaceful civil rights rally in Washington D.C., where Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. delivered his "I Have a Dream" speech in front of the Lincoln Memorial. On this date: In 1609, Henry Hudson discovered Delaware Bay. In 1749, German author Johann Wolfgang von Goethe was born in Frankfurt. In 1774, Mother Elizabeth Ann Seton, the first American-born saint, was born in New York City. In 1828, Russian novelist Leo Tolstoy was born near Tula.

In 1916, Italy's declaration of war against Germany took effect during World War I. In 1917, 10 suffragists were arrested as they picketed the White House. In 1955, 40 years ago, Emmett Till, a black teen-ager from Chicago, was abducted from his uncle's home in Money, Miss., by two white men after he had supposedly whistled at a white woman. He was found brutally murdered three days later. Two suspects were later acquitted by an all-white jury. In 1968, police and anti-war demonstrators clashed in the streets of Chicago as the Democratic national convention nominated Hubert H. Humphrey for president. In 1973, more than 520 people died as an earthquake shook central Mexico. In 1981, John W. Hinckley Jr. pleaded innocent to charges of attempting to kill President Reagan.

In 1988, 70 people were killed when three Italian stunt planes collided during an air show at the U.S. Air Base in Ramstein, West Germany, sending flaming debris into the crowd of spectators. Ten years ago: About 1,000 people gathered in Augusta, Maine, to attend a memorial service for Samantha Smith, the young peace advocate who had died with her father in plane crash. Five years ago: Iraqi President Saddam Hussein, saying he sympathized with his foreign captives, pledged to free detained women and children. One year ago: A Drug Enforcement Administration plane crashed in a remote area of Peru's cocaine-producing jungle, killing five U.S. agents. Today's Birthdays: Actor-dancer Donald O'Connor is 70. Actor Ben Gazzara is 65. Actor Richard Sanders is 55. Senator William S. Cohen, R-Maine, is 55. Actor David Soul is 52. Baseball manager Lou Piniella is 52. Skating champion Scott Hamilton is 37. Actor Jason Priestley is 26.
