City council expected to adopt budget, set tax rate on Tuesday

By BILL McCLELLAN News Editor

Big Spring City Council is expected to adopt an annual budget for 1999-2000 and set a tax rate when it convenes at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday

An increase in rates for cemetery lots, a boost in the employee compensation plan and approval of the Moore Development for Big Spring, Inc. budget are among other items on the agenda.

City council members are expected to set a tax rate of approximately 62 cents per $100 51.183 cents assessed for maintenance and operation of the city and 10.817 cents for the payment of various bonds. The total 1998-99 tax rate was 61 cents per $100 valuation.

increase in residential sanitation rates from $8.50 to $10.50 per month, which the city estimates will generate an additional $197,640 in revenue annually. Landfill gate fees will also increase $3 per ton, a move which will bring in an additional $36,129, according to city figures.

City cemetery rates will will increase from $425 to $650. Service rates will increase from $325 to $425 on weekdays and $400 to $525 on holidays and' weekends.

The budget includes no The budget includes an employee raises but does include a 1 percent increase in the city's contribution to employees' deferred compensation plan.

Also included in the budget is adding Veterans Day as a paid holiday for employees and boosting the number of vacation days for employees who have worked for the city 10 or more vears allow cities to receive an additional one cent from the sales tax that the state receives; • simplify the accounting of municipal court costs and fees that are submitted to the state.

Six items are up for approval on second reading by the council. All were approved with little or no discussion on first reading. They would renew annual agreements with:

• the Howard County tax assessor-collector for the collection of taxes;

• Heritage Museum to operate the Potton House;

· Heritage Museum, for preservation and restoration of historical projects;

· Big Spring Area Chamber of Commerce for general promotional and tourist advertising and attracting conventions and visitors

United Way helps Boy Scouts meet objectives, goals

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second in a series of 11 weekly stories on the member agencies of the United Way of Big Spring and Howard County. Next week: Girl Scouts.

By BILL McCLELLAN

News Editor

The Boy Scouts of America have been around for almost 90 years and nearly as long in Howard County – always with the purpose of helping to shape and mold the values and character of youth.

lege," says Warren Wallace, senior district executive for the Buffalo Trail Council. "We emphasize the point of leading ones self toward good decisions or helping others to do the same for the good of everyone. And we usually do it through outdoor activities. We don't want to take the 'outing' out of scouting." The Boy Scouts are one of 11 local agencies that benefit from United Way of Big Spring and Howard College funds. "The Boy Scouts are grateful to be a part of United Way," says Wallace. "It is dependent upon us to come up with the funds we need, and while the amount we receive from United Way is not a huge amount, it is nonetheless very important to us and the youth we serve.' Some 468 Scouts and 100 active adult leaders are in the Lone Star District, which Howard, encompasses Glasscock and Sterling counties, according to Wallace. "This is our eighth year as a 'quality' district. To become a quality district, you have to meet certain guidelines. So we're very proud of that." Wallace says. A popular local holiday attraction is looking for more electricity to illuminate the lights and operate the sound system.

One of the highlights of the holidays in Big Spring is the annual Comanche Trail Festival of Lights, an event that that dramatizes the canyons and topography of the historic spring during the Christmas season, according to festival spokesman Gloria McDonald.

The lighting committee of the festival is about to let bids that will double the current available electricity, allowing for 250,000 lights for the third annual festival, McDonald said.

In addition, the increased electrical capacity will allow for more displays better sound and better reading lighting for musical events 'This event holds the promise of great potential for Big Spring and had been highly successful in the infancy of its beginning," said McDonald, who hopes the new power will project an even more impressive light this coming holiday season. "The newly built pavilion is a spectacular overlook of the historical spring that watered such famous people as Cabaza de Vaca, Captain Marcy and others on their quest to travel west. The spring had actively fresh running water and was very possibly the only active fresh water for many miles. Therefore, the city of Big Spring was formed," she noted.

There are eight Packs in the district, 11 Troops and five Venturing groups. The Packs make up the Cub Scouts, boys in the first through fifth grades. Troops are for boys age 11 through 18, and the Venturing program is for boys and girls age 14 to 20.

Venturing is a new program, developed with the needs of teens in mind. It offers an opportunity for investing their time in their futures.

"We're in the process of forming a medical exploratory post," says Wallace. "We hope that all comes together in the next few weeks."

Whether it is the Venturing program, Cub Scouts or Boy Scouts, scouting is tied to family and community.

"All of our groups have charter partners, either churches, parent-council school groups, civic groups," says Wallace.

Each level of Scouting has advancement programs that are designed to hold the interest of the Scout, while teaching him values trek activity held by the Buffalo Trail Council. Also pictured is Matthew Jennings of Midland.

"The basis of all of the programs is to develop character and strong values." says Wallace.

Youth participation in Boy Scouts of America increased 4 percent in 1998, to 4,757,184. Cub Scouting membership Tiger Cubs, Cub Scouts and Weeblos Scouts – grew to more than 2.17 million, according to BSA national statistics. Venturing posted a first-year membership of 188,075.

In addition, 41,167 young men earned the Eagle Scout Award, the third year in a row the number achieving Scouting's highest rank has exceeded 40,000.

In the 1997-98 school year, 11 area Scouts achieved the Eagle rank

"That number is the best, percentage-wise in the council. I'm proud of that because it means the program is working from the grassroots up," savs Wallace.

Area Scouts stay busy. On Sept. 16, it will be "Scout Night" at Park and Putt from 6:30-9:30 p.m. On Sept. 24-26, a Cub Scout Lad and Dad gettogether will be held at the Buffalo Trail Scout Ränch in the Davis Mountains.

A Camporee is planned Oct. 15-17 and on Oct. 23, the Cub Scout Pushmobile will be held at the Wal-Mart parking lot.

Exploring-Venturing An weekend is scheduled for the Scout Ranch Friday through Sunday, Oct. 29-31

"For my money, there is a lot going on all the time," says Wallace.

Youth can join a Scout group at any time.

"If a parent missed one of our rallies and his son - or daughter, even, depending on her age is still interested in scouting, I'd like them to get in touch with me," Wallace says.

The lighting committee includes Bobby McDonald, Dana Duncan and Pat Simmons, festival chairman.

The non-profit festival is financed by donations only. For more information, contact McDonald at McDonald Realty, 263-7615.

Wilderness housing close to being ready

RICK McLAUGHLIN

Staff Writer

Prisoners should be ready to move in to the new, $200,000 home for Wilderness Camp inmates in Building 64 at the McMahon-Wrinkle Airpark by Oct. 1, Director of Public Works Todd Darden said Friday.

The original building, shared with Avantech, is 95 per cent completed, Darden said. But the 150-man housing addition, about 65 percent completed, is running more than two weeks behind because the prefab building was delayed nearly that long.

Darden, noting that Oct. 1 is less than three weeks away was not worried. "We had three days to do the framing, three days to do the slab ... if I can't get the skin done by Oct. 1, something's wrong.'

The building is "basically just a shell with electricity, heating and evaporative coolers, but no plumbing," he said.

The addition of about 7.000 square feet, with the space in the original Webb Air Force Base building, will give the city about 18,000 square feet of floor space in the new facility.

City officials have noted that this will cost the city about $200,000, compared to the million dollars it is said would be the replacement cost of an all new building.

That's because most of the labor for the camp is being done by Wilderness Camp inmates, as well as city employees. Darden said the project supervisors are "impressed with the quality of work the inmates have done."

The original building, shared with Avantech, will house offices, restrooms and support services, while the addition will house 150 prisoners.

The city is under contract with the Texas Department of Criminal Justice to provide housing for the inmates. In exchange, the inmates perform various labor around the community on such projects as the pavilion and restrooms at Kids' Zone, the Comanche Trail Festival of Lights at Christmas, and the Vietnam Memorial Gold Star Chapel.

House fire claims life of local woman HERALD Staff Report

A 72-year-old Big Spring woman died Friday night when a fire broke out in her home at 640 Manor St. shortly after 10 p.m.

Faye Moore was pronounced dead by Peace Justice Quail Dobbs. Mrs. Moore's husband, 78-year-old Lonnie Moore, was first taken to Scenic Mountain Medical Center and later air-lifted to University Medical Center in Lubbock.

University Medical Center House Supervisor Nancy Smith said he was listed in critical condition at press time today.

Big Spring Fire Marshal Burr Lea Settles said firemen found flames coming out of two windows on the north side of the house. They entered through the front door to fight the flames and found Mrs. Moore by the back door of the house. Settles said they found Mr.

OBITUARIES

Faye B. Moore

Faye B. Moore, L.V.N., 72, of

Big Spring, died Friday evening, Sept. 10, 1999, in a tragic fire at her home. Services were 10 a.m Monday, at Myers & Smith Funeral Home Chapel, with the Rev

Doug Shelley, pastor of East Side Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Trinity Memorial Park.

MOORE

Mrs. Moore was born Aug. 27, 1927, in Oenaville. She devoted her life to helping others. She had held numerous jobs in the health care field for 40 years. In 1963, she graduated from the Licensed Vocational Nursing Program at King's Daughters Hospital in Temple.

Faye B. Moore was a caring, compassionate person. She cared greatly for many of whom too much of the world cared little. Her life, her works and her humor will live on and be a lasting memorial to her.

She is survived by: her loving and devoted husband, Lonnie D. Moore of Big Spring; her daughter, Linda S. Moore of Austin; and her sister. Effie Davis of Oenaville.

Mrs. Moore was preceded in death by her parents, Frank Barfield and Ollie Brisby Barfield; three brothers, A.B. Barfield, Glenn Barfield, and Slim Barfield; and her beloved dog, Sam.

The family suggests memorials to Vista Care Family Hospice, the Osteoporosis Foundation, or the Women's Center of their choice.

Come With Me

The Lord saw you getting tired

And a cure was not to be,

So He put his arms around vou

And whispered, "Come with me."

With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer

And saw you fade away, Although we loved you dear-

We could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating,

Each time we see your picture,

You seem to smile and say, "Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping, We'll meet again someday." Pallbearers are Roy Keefer, Curtis Arcenaux, Harvey Harris and Hack Hudgins. Honorary pallbearers are all men of East Side Baptist Church.

Arrangements under the direction of Myers & Smith Funeral Home.

The Rangers report suggests how limited the initial investigation of the tragedy may have been and how tightly it was controlled by the FBI – although federal officials had publicly insisted that the case was led by a special task force of more than 30 Texas Rangers.

"There needs to be a reanalysis of everything in this case in light of what's recently come out," one official said. "People have said there have already been investigations. But there has never been an investigation of what happened on the law-"We now have ballistics enforcement side, of what law

"It is my understanding that the FBI had taken all of the 35mm film, negatives and reference material into their possession, and only a limited number of photographs were returned to the Texas Department of Public Safety," Ranger Sgt. Joey Gordon wrote in the report.

The inch-thick document arrived Friday on Capitol Hill, where it had been subpoenaed earlier this month by the House Government Reform Committee. It details an unusual inquiry launched in June by James B. Francis, chairman of the commission that oversees the state's chief law-enforcement agency.

Francis ordered the inquiry after learning the Justice Department had tried to block all public access to the evidence.

The siege began with a gun battle that broke out as ATF agents tried to search the com-

"FORCED TO SELL" THIS SATURDAY CARS AND TRUCKS WILL BE SOLD FOR AS LITTLE AS $99.00

ODESSA, TX. - The largest independent used car and truck dealer/in West Texas has just announced plans to repeat the largest one-day used vehicle sales event in Odessa's history. This event will take place Saturday, September 18th, 1999. The sales location at 6101 E. Hwy. 80 has been selected because of it's enormous capacity. This General Fleet lot (#6) will accom modate more than 500 cars in a single location. "We have more vehicles in stock than ever before. We have rental (program) cars, luxury cars, travel vans, diesels, crew cabs, duallys, inexpensive school cars, work cars, commercial trucks, and fixer-up cars, trucks and vans. I've been given orders to sell some 2000 cars and trucks for as little as $99.99 just to move them. We haven't been taking cars to the big auctions and now they are stacked up everywhere. "I have been ordered to move excess inventory", said Joey Lee. The general manager went on to say, "I will sell some vehicles for $1000.00 to $3500.00 less than they would normally be priced.

General Fleet Brokers Inc.'s inventory has grown tremendous ly because of an influx of trade-ins acquired from new car dealers. These cars and trucks are usually wholesaled to other dealers or sold at closed dealer auction. Some of these vehicle will be sold AS-IS, but most have been inspected and reconditioned to the highest standards and therefore are eligible for all of our normal used vehicle warranties and service policies.

Rather than pay auction fees and transportation bills, the management of G.F.B. has elected to have a public liquidation sale in Odessa. In an attempt to sell 100 cars and trucks in one day. General Fleet Brokers will have all vehicles on display at 6101 E Hwy. 80 (Loop 338 & E. 80) by 8:00 a.m. Saturday. Buyers will be given a chance to look at all vehicles before the prices are put in them at 10:00 a.m. Whoever is sitting in the vehicle when the price is put in place will be given the first opportunity to pur chase the vehicle at the posted sale price. This radical approach to moving inventory should make it simple and quick for anyone wishing to purchase a great vehicle at a very low price. Choose a vehicle, drive it, if you like it, you already know the price. "No haggling necessary and G.F.B. has over 30 different finance programs and can finance anyone," said Todd Robinson, Finance Manager at G.F.B. No prices to negotiate. Pick a vehicle, get it financed and delivered fast. This sale is being advertised some with a few give-aways; a free Car, TV, VCR, Boom Boxes, etc., but we rely primarily on word of mouth which Todd Robinson says is the best form of advertising. "If you, can and do, sell someone a good quality used car at a good fair price, they are sure to tell others where they purchased it," says Todd Robinson expressing the philosophy of General Fleet Brokers Inc. This opportunity is for one day only. The vehicles will be on display at E. Hwy. 80 & Loop 338 in Odessa for assistance call 915-550-2886

In return, the United States is considering measures to ease sanctions against North Korea, National Security Adviser Sandy Berger said in Auckland, New Zealand, where he was accompanying President Clinton at an Asian summit.

"It is now our understanding and expectation that North Korea will refrain from testing any long-range missiles for the duration our our negotiations to improve relations," Berger said. "This is an important initial step for addressing our concerns about North Korea's missile program."

• The tentative agreement was struck in negotiations held by U.S. and North Korean experts in Berlin.

Berger said the United States was pleased that progress was being made in the missile talks, which are to continue.

Berger said North Korea had agreed that "nothing would be done in the meantime that would interfere with the positive atmosphere that existed in the talks.'

The administration takes that to mean that North Korea will not proceed with a missile test, another U.S. official said, speaking on condition of anonymity.

In Seoul, a South Korean Foreign Ministry spokesman expressed relief at the "successful settlement.'

"I don't know whether that much specific agreement was made," Chang Chul-ju said. "but I can say that the first button has been fittingly fastened." North Korea's potential to strike at least some targets in the United States is often cited by the Clinton administration in promoting a U.S. missile defense system.

The United States has been grappling with North Korea for years in an attempt to sidetrack nuclear weapons programs that, if nothing else, raise ter sions on the Korean Peninsula.

The Big Spring Independent School District will hold a public meeting at 12:00 PM, September 23, 1999 in Big Spring High School Board Room, 707 East 11th Place, Big Spring, Texas 79720.

The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the school district's budget that will determine the tax rate that will be adopted. Public participation in the discussion is invited.

The tax rate that is ultimately adopted at this meeting or at a separate meeting at a later date may not exceed the proposed rate shown below unless the district publishes a revised notice containing the same information and comparisons set out below and holds another public meeting to discuss the revised notice.

OUR VIEWS While summer is still officially here, cool weather's nice or weeks and weeks and weeks, the weatherman has been forecasting low temperatures to reach into the 60s. Needless to say, we've not gotten there and, in fact, the poor old fellow has missed it by as much as 10 to 12 degrees some nights. But when our "cold" front moved through Sunday afternoon, it was nice to be able to watch the mercuty in the thermometer as it plummeted from 95 to 90 to 85 to 80 and all the way down to the upper 60s.

While the rain we've gotten over the past week can't undo the damage done to what once looked to be one of the best cotton crops in recent memory, it keeps further damage from occurring while also allowing for a moisture base to build as we head into the fall and winter months.

Effectively, we went 75 days with little or no rain and more than 25 days with temperatures soaring above 100 degrees - so there is lost moisture to be regained.

And while the summer of 1999 will not go down as one of the hottest ... nor will it go down as one of the driest ... it has been enough of a summer to make us all appreciate the times when the good Lord has provided us with moisture to sustain our land and cooler air to rejuvenate our bodies.

But they are moving, that's the important thing, investing all that pent-up, pubescent energy in dance, and not just some loosey-goosey shuffle like my generation did with its eyes half-closed.

This is aerobic, acrobatic, skillful, entertaining to watch. This is more fun than exercise, better exercise than exercise and done to old songs with names like "She Can't Fix Grits" and "Lipstick Powder and Paint.'

The truth of it. I am at Jitterbuggers because I saw a sign, far from here, in the boonies, at a rural flea market. It said "Mesh Backpacks For Sale! See what's on your kid's mind.'

I drove on down that road but couldn't shake the thought of that sign, what it left unsaid. The antivenin to youth violence and black trench coats, the solution to ending school mayhem: mesh backpacks. Sure. That should fix everything. Soon I remembered a note I'd received from Richard Thompson of Peachtree City. He wasn't writing to plug himself or the nonprofit teen club he opened in June, but to respond to a column in which I'd marveled that anyone tackles child-rearing. Especially in today's confused world.

Richard reasoned that good could come out of the inevitable pain that goes with loving a child. In his case, a painful divorce drove him to finish a plan he'd been hatching for years. He wanted a teen center for Peachtree City kids, for his own three kids. A place for teen-agers to gather instead of in parking lots and shopping malls.

Richard doesn't think he has the secret solution to all that ails youth, but at least he's trying.

"People kept asking, 'What will you do with problem kids?' So far there have been no problem kids," Richard says. He is a tall, debonair man, whose anachronistic good looks would work well for an extra in a Bogart movie.

The swing theme, the club name, all that's just a jumpingoff place. Eventually Richard hopes to have a large dance floor, a sports room, bands that will play all kinds of music. (At a recent battle of the bands here, sounds were diverse; two of the groups were "Slow Child at Play" and "Lucid.") Richard's wish list is long, his membership growing.

Meanwhile, the fledgling Jitterbuggers teamed with Elizabeth Benjamin, a New York producer in Atlanta, long enough to promote a three-day swing extravaganza. Elizabeth, a dynamo, found the Jitterbuggers Web site and immediately contacted Richard.

"We didn't even have to speak, it was so clear we were on the same page," Elizabeth says. "I'm not saying swing is the answer, or the only answer, but at these events nobody ever feels like they don't belong ...

TO THE EDITOR:

For the last few days, I've been thinking about them wanting to stop the prayers at the start of each football game.

It upsets me. Why in the world are they trying to take away a good thing?

Prayers do not hurt anyone nor do prayers stain the world with ugliness.

Prayer is truly a beautiful thing. For when one prays, it's heard all the way to heaven by our God, Father of all. And it seems like by them wanting to stop the prayers at the football games that they are also wanting to stop God from being there too. For prayers are man's link to God and I think it's wrong to stop the prayers at the games.

I for one, will stand up and pray wherever I am, for without prayer, we lose our contact with God. God is so good that he let his only son die so all could live.

TO THE EDITOR:

As a teacher in Big Spring, I would like to send belated thanks to the following businesses and organizations for providing the teachers of BSISD with a fabulous appreciation luncheon prior to school beginning. Thank you to: Sonic Drive-In, Coca Cola Bottling Company, Calvary Baptist Church, First Big Spring Banking Center, Firet Assembly of God Church, Big Three Auto Salvage, First United Methodist Church, Nalley-Pickle & Welch, and First Baptist Church. The lunch you provided to the teachers of BSISD helped us start the year on a positive note. It's nice to feel appreciated!

Another positive note for teachers was the pay raise finally granted to us by the state legislature. There were many people lobbying on the side of teachers, and for them and their work, we are grateful. I would personally also like to thank the members of our school board for continuing to provide the step increases in salary above the state pay raise. As I said, it's nice to feel appreciated!

I would now like to take this opportunity to say that I feel fortunate to work for BSISD, a district not without controversy or problems, but one I feel with Christian leaders striving for the best for students, employees and the community. Although BSISD is currently facing some difficult and frustrating circumstances, I would like to encourage them to support the community and students to come together in prayer, whether if be at football games, the flagpole, or a community prayer rally at the coliseum. Big Spring, not all school districts, even in the "Bible Belt" are so supportive (Sometimes it takes a crisis for us to embrace our rights and to fight to keep the rights we may often take for granted.)

The members of the Big Spring Evening Lions Club wish to say "Thank You" to the Big Spring businesses and individuals who supported and/or attended the barbecue supper in the East Room of the Dorothy Garrett Coliseum on Friday, Sept. 3

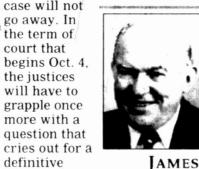

A special thank you to the staff of the Big Spring Herald for the notices and articles telling the community of the new location and the reenforcement of the ongoing programs the Evening Lions provide for the community. We appreciated KBST radio staff for their announcements of the event.

Finally, we wish to recognize Ms. Jodi Tasior, the manager of Great Western Dining, who helped provide the ingredients for this fund raising barbecue at a price we could afford and turn a profit for the Evening Lions Club community service projects.

The Everson case, decided 5-4 in 1947, was easy. It involved a New Jersey law that authorized local school boards to reimburse parents for the cost of bus transportation for their children to and from school. Everson complained that by including children attending Catholic parochial schools, the law violated the Constitution. Justice Hugo Black at first appeared to agree. In a famous passage he wrote:

"The First Amendment has erected a wall of separation between church and state. The wall must be kept high and impregnable. We could not approve the slightest breach."

But Black saw no fatal breach in the New Jersey law. It was not a law directly respecting an establishment of religion. It was a law of gener-overing the courts: The serpentine wall

In the ensuing five decades, the high court has traveled a long way from Everson. The court has found nothing amiss in tax laws that treat contributions to churches as charitable gifts. Church property may be exempted from local taxes on real estate. Church publications get the same postal benefit extended to other nonprofit publications. Handicapped children in parochial schools are entitled to the same benefits accorded children in public schools. School lunch programs make no religious distinctions. States must provide the same nonsectarian textbooks to students in public and parochial schools alike.

al application. To strike it

But in this field, the boundaries separating the permissible from the impermissible are marked by serpentine walls. State aid for textbooks appears to lie on the sunny side of the wall; state aid for other assistance is often shaded. In the coming term the high court will consider a major case involving the loan of instructional equipment to religious schools under a federal program known simply as Title VI. You will be hearing a great deal about it as time goes by.

The program creates nine kinds of "innovative assistance" for both public and private schools. Title VI funds may be expended for all kinds of instructional equipment, including computer software and hardware and "other curricular materials which are tied to high academic standards." Benefits for children in lar, neutral and nonideological," and must not take the place of equipment the school otherwise would buy on its own. In 1985 a number of parents private schools must be "secu- cation of 4,000 children who who objected to the program sued to stop benefits for children in Catholic schools. The suit followed an off-and-on course for 12 years. Finally U.S. District Judge Marcel Livaudais ruled that Title VI did no violence to the Establishment Clause: The program had a secular purpose, its aim was not to advance religion, and it did not require excessive entanglement with the state.

The 5th Circuit reversed his decision. Circuit Judge John M. Duhe Jr. commented on the difficulties that face federal judges "in the vast, perplexing desert of Establishment Clause jurisprudence." During the pendency of the suit, he said, 'the sand dunes have shifted,' but some old landmarks of separation remained. It will be up to the Supreme Court to promulgate new maps and new boundaries.

The high court also will have to deal with the increasingly complex problems of tuition grants or vouchers. This simmering controversy recently boiled over in Cleveland when U.S. District Judge Solomon Oliver Jr. abruptly suspended the city's program. Created by the Ohio legislature in 1995, the plan authorizes grants of up to $2,250 for children from low-income families. The grants may be applied toward tuition costs in either public or private schools. The immediate effect of Oliver's ruling was temporarily to disrupt the edudeserved more considerate treatment at the hands of a federal judge.

Ohio's program is not significantly different from a voucher program in Milwaukee. The Wisconsin plan contains a provision assuring participating children that they cannot be required to attend religious services. Milwaukee schools must strive for a religiously diversified student body. The Wisconsin Supreme Court upheld the Milwaukee plan last year, and the Supreme Court denied a petition for review.

Eventually the high court will have to stop dodging and face the issues directly. An opportunity is at hand in a case from Arizona. Here the facts are different - the Arizona plan lacks the fenders and bumpers of the Wisconsin plan — but the underlying principle is the same. Arizona allows a state tax credit of up to $500 for those who donate to STOs (School Tuition Organizations). Parents then apply to an STO for a scholarship for their child. The American Civil Liberties Union, which never sleeps in its effort to top the wall of separation with rolls of razor wire, sued to have the program declared unconstitutional. Arizona's Supreme Court upheld it nonetheless, and the ACLU's petition for review is now pending. In my own view, none of the challenged programs authorizes or promotes an "establishment of religion." Their purpose is wholly secular - to assist in the education of children. What in the world - or in the Constitution — is wrong with that?

IN BRIEF

Lady Steers seventh second in own tourney

Big Spring Junior High School's seventh-grade Lady Steers finished second Saturday in their own invitational volleyball tournament. Monahans chalked up the championship with a 15-4, 3 15, 15-11 win over Big Spring in the championship game.

Stefani Scott paced the Lady Steers' losing effort, scoring 12 points in the match, while Heather Vassar added eight. Vassar had led the way offensively in the opening match of the tournament, scoring 10 points in a 15-7, 15-7 victory over Midland Greenwood. In the second match, a 15-4, 15-1 win over Water Valley, Vassar, Alex Watkins, Rachél Gee and Chelsea Abner all scored five points.

CTA gives BSHS netters workout before 5-4A play

When Big Spring's Steers and Lady Steers found themselves left out of the Abilene Invitationa' team tennis tournament Saturday, members of the Crossroads Tennis Association (CTA) stepped in to fill the void.

The result was a highly-competitive day of tennis that saw the high school netters win 13 of 25 matches in their final warm-up before opening District 5-4A match play in Sweetwater this Saturday. In boys' singles action, Derek DeHoyos, Zach Smiley, Brian Watt, Alex Edgemon, Aaron Langford and Ryan Vela posted wins.

Jay Shroff and Edgemon took a doubles win, as did Michael Roffers and Vela. Mindy Partee provided the one girls' singles win. The Lady Steers fared better in doubles action, as Melissa Cypert and Partee took two doubles wins, while April Ward and Megan Roffers added another.

Cowboys stage wild comeback for 41-35 overtime win

LANDOVER, Md. (AP) - In the histo- and three interceptions. ry of the Cowboys-Redskins rivalry, give this game four stars - and color them blue and silver.

Dallas matched its biggest comeback ever Sunday, rallying from a 21-point deficit in the fourth quarter to beat Washington 41-35 on Rocket Ismail's 76yard touchdown catch in overtime.

"Nobody thought it was going to be easy, but nobody thought it was going to be like this," Cowboys tight end David LaFleur, who caught two touchdown passes, said as he smiled and shook his head in amazement.

Ismail, signed as a free agent to add speed to the receiving corps, split the safeties and was wide open for Troy Aikman's fifth touchdown pass 4:09 into the extra period.

"I think this is probably the wildest game I've ever been a part of," said Aikman, who was 28-for-49 for 362 yards

Dallas has rallied from 21 points down to win once before, 30-27 in overtime against New Orleans in 1984. It was also the third time the Cowboys have made up a big deficit to beat the Redskins, coming back from 20 points down in 1983 and 17 points in 1979.

"It gives you more to build on than if you win 28-14," Dallas coach Chan Gailey said. "(Ismail) caught it, and then I think I breathed.

In other games Sunday it was Chicago 20, Kansas City 17; New Orleans 19, Carolina 10; New England 30, New York Jets 28; Green Bay 28, Oakland 24; Indianapolis 31. Buffalo 14: Arizona 25. Philadelphia 24; St. Louis 27, Baltimore 10; Tennessee 36, Cincinnati 35; Minnesota 17, Atlanta 14; Jacksonville 41, San Francisco 3; Detroit 28, Seattle 20; New York Giants 17, Tampa Bay 13; Pittsburgh 43, Cleveland 0.

San Diego was idle. The Miami Dolphins takes on the defending Super Bowl champion Denver Brøncos tonight.

The Cowboys trailed 35-14 going into the fourth quarter, but sent the game into overtime on Michael Irvin's 12-yard reception with 1:46 left. The crucial extra point by Richie Cunningham hit the left upright before going through Washington had a chance to win the game on the last play of regulation, but holder Matt Turk fumbled the snap on what would have been a 41-yard fieldgoal/attempt by Brett Conway.

The loss hit the Redskins hard. They collapsed in last year's season-opener against the New York Giants and then lost their next six in a row.

"Having things fall apart, especially in a big game like this, it was a hard loss,' defensive tackle Dan Wilkinson said. "We're by no means going to throw in the towel, but this hurts right down to your heart."

Don Snyder bought the Redskins this year for $800 million and has demanded that coach Norv Turner make the playoffs or else. He was clapping and cheering - along with a record crowd of 79,237 — after the home team recovered from a 14-3 first-half deficit.

By the end of the game, Snyder's expression was more serious.

"I don't think the owner was putting $800 million on this game," cornerback Darrell Green said. "I haven't prepared the entire offseason just for this one game. I'm in it for the long haul.'

With Deion Sanders, Kevin Smith, Leon Lett and Quentin Coryatt missing from the Dallas defense, Washington had no problems moving the ball for three quarters.

The Redskins were in Cowboys territory on nine of their first 10 offensive possessions

Lady Steers set for 5-4A opener By JOHN A. MOSELEY

Sports Editor

Now it gets serious ... really serious. Big Spring's Lady Steers open District 5-4A volleyball play at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, traveling to Fort Stockton for a match they hope will be the first step to a berth in the Class 4A playoffs later this fall.

And Lady Steers head coach Traci Pierce couldn't think of a much tougher way for her team to open district action than facing the Prowlers on their home court.

"It's certainly going to be a challenge for us, because Fort Stockton is traditionally a good team," Pierce said after watching the Lady Steers finish their pre-district schedule with wins over Monahans' Lady Loboes and Water Valley's Lady Eagles in a three-way match Saturday.

"We haven't played that well in Fort Stockton in the past, either," Pierce added. "To be honest, Fort Stockton always has a little bit of an edge when they're playing at home, because everyone in the district has to travel so far to get there. You have to tough it up, though, and be ready to play your best volleyball."

The Lady Steers enter Tuesday's district opener with an 11-6 record, the best mark they've fashioned in recent memory.

And while Pierce says San Angele Lake View has to be considered the favorite in this year's 5-4A chase, she believes the Lady Steers are entirely capable of battling for the district championship and have every reason to expect one of three playoff berths "You have to make Lake View the favorite, because they've got a great tradition and a lot of girls back from the team that was the district's co-champion last year," she explained. "At the same time, we feel like we're certainly capable of being a contender. "The important thing about this team is that we've continued to get better," Pierce added. "We've been able to do lots of things that in the past really weren't feasible for us to do ... like changing our defense last weekend at the Plainview tournament. It wound up giving us some problems and probably kept us from making the championship game, but we knew we had to make a change if we were going to compete against people like Lake View later in the season. The importance of that change showed during Saturday's matches with Monahans and Water Valley. After dispatching Monahans 15-13, 15-4, the Lady Steers found themselves struggling early in their match against Water Valley — a team that beat them in pool play at the San Angelo tournament earlier in the season. With senior Monica Rubio out of the lineup as a result of illness, the Lady Steers quickly found themselves on the short end of a 9-2 score in the opening game of the match. But with freshman Meghan Pudliner filling Rubio's spot, the Lady Steers rebounded when senior Lacey Anderson stepped to the service line. Anderson promptly served 11 straight Lady Steers points, allowing Big Spring to take a 15-11 win.

Royals rally for 6-3 win over Rangers

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) -Jay Witasick keeps giving the Kansas City Royals reasons to keep him in the starting rotation.

Witasick settled down after allowing home runs to Rafael Palmeiro and Juan Gonzalez and won for the third time in four starts as the Royals scored four runs in the sixth inning to beat the Texas Rangers 6-3 Sunday.

Witasick (7-11), who retired 11 of 13 batters after the home runs, had been scheduled to return to Kansas City's struggling bullpen. That might change now, after he allowed three runs in seven innings in another string start.

"This is something new for me," Witasick said of his starting role. "I took my licks earlier in the year and I think I learned from that. Right now I'm feeling comfortable starting. Whatever role I'm in, I still have things to learn. But as a starter the results are coming around."

nario in the second game of the match, watching Water Valley jump out to an 8-0 leader before roaring back with 15 unanswered points.

"We're probably not where we really would like to be ... certainly not as good as we can be," Pierce said as she looked ahead to the district opener. "We're still a little late setting up n the block in the middle at times, but I think that's going to come around for us.

"The important thing is that everyone is playing good volleyball right now," she added. "We were playing a couple of teams that could have intimidated us Monahans had a couple of girls that were 6-foot-2 and could really play above the net, and Water Valley is a strong team.

"But we relaxed and played good volleyball in both matches," she added. "That's a sign of a good team ... one that doesn't get all tied up ... doesn't let what the other team can do intimidate them. We didn't. Instead, we settled down and played our game ... that was the difference.'

Pierce noted that seniors Nina Evans and Cathy Jaure have joined with junior Melissa Forth to present a formidable front line.

"They were all hitting the ball extremely well," Pierce said. "Nina has really come on in the last few days ... beginning to see the court, read the other team's defense and be able to know what they're going to let her do. That's made a big difference in what we've been able to accomplish."

The same can be said for catcher Sal Fasano, who was recalled from Triple-A Omaha on Sept. 1. After hitting a pair of two-run homers Saturday, he capped the four-run outburst in the sixth with a go-ahead RBI double.

The Royals won their third straight over Texas and have won five of their last six. The Rangers entered the series with a four-game winning streak

"We've been through stretches like this before," Texas manager Johnny Oates said. "It's not like it's the end of the world. Before we came here we were the greatest thing since sliced bread and now we're the stuff that goes between it. Write your epitaph today and we'll scratch it out like we have a lot of times this year.'

Palmeiro tied his career high with his 43rd home run in the second inning and Gonzalez added a two-run homer in the third to give Texas a 3-0 lead.

In other American League games it was, Boston 4, New York 1; Toronto 5, Detroit 3; the White Sox 4, Cleveland 3; Baltimore 4, Seattle 1: and Anaheim 6, Minnesota 3.

In National League games, Arizona beat Philadelphia 5-0, Houston beat Chicago 7-1, New York beat Los Angeles 10-3, San Francisco beat Atlanta 8-4, Cincinnati beat Florida 11-5, Montreal beat San Diego 8-4 and Milwaukee beat Colorado 12-9. Pittsburgh's game at St. Louis was rained out.

Crossroads runners shine in weekend cross-country meets

By HERALD Staff Report

SEMINOLE – Runners from Big Spring and Garden City turned in strong performances Saturday at the Seminole Invitational Cross-Country Meet.

No team competition awards were presented during the meet, but Big Spring coach Randy Britton and Garden City boss Mike Wallace both praised their teams for their showings.

Garden City's Michelle Fuchs led the local contingent in girls' varsity action, finishing fifth in the field with a 14:12.52 clocking, while teammate Alicia Trevino was 51st in the 99-girl field.

Big Spring's Sally Arguello was 13th in the girls' field with a 14:37 clocking. while Delores Liedecke was 36th with a 15:33 and Eve Tobar was 41st with a time of 15:51.

AREA ROUNDUP

The boys' varsity race saw Big Spring's Mike Martinez lead the way for area runners, finishing the three-mile circuit with a 17:50 clocking, while Rolando Ladesma was sixth with an 18:30 time. Mike Solis was 13th with a 19:03.

Roger Alvarado led the way for Garden City with a 20:58.19, while Justin Crowley was 34th.

In junior varsity action, Ashley Martinez led the way for the Lady Steers with a 15:35 clocking that left her seventh in the field, while Jennifer Collins was 35th. Chris Martinez and Justin Finley paced the Steers JV by finishing 11th and 12th, posting times of 21:00 and 21:01.

The junior high races saw Garden City's Alison Jansa finish ninth in a field of 66 with a 15:47.5 clocking, while Jessica Hoch was 11th with a time of 16:02.95. Robert Lopez led the way for Garden City's boys, finishing 10th with a time of 15:18.28, while Trey Hillger was 18th.

Bulldogettes finish strong at Concho Valley Classic

CARLSBAD Coahoma's Bulldogetters finished sixth in a field of 17 teams Saturday at the Concho Valley Cross-Country Classic hosted by the Water Valley and San Angelo school districts.

Williams paced the Rachel Bulldogettes, posting an individual finish of fourth in the field of 166 runners with a 14:38 clocking, while Leann Smith finished 11th.

Rounding out the Coahoma varsity showing were Ashley Lang in 46th, Crystal Atkinson at 75th and Kristi Kinard in 83rd.

In junior varsity action, Brandi Hart finished eighth for the Bulldogettes, while Jamie Corse crossed the finish line in 16th place.

This weekend. Garden City's teams travel to the Reagan County Invitational in Big Lake, while the Big Spring squads travel to Lubbock., making final preparations for hosting the Big Spring Invitational meet scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 25.

Coahoma's girls will take a week off before resuming their schedule in Abilene.

HOROSCOPE

HAPPY BIRTHDAY FOR TUESDAY, SEPT. 14:

Stay anchored in the here and now, rather than thinking too far into the future. Break past educational barriers; travel and explore different lifestyles. Taking seminars, going back to school and meeting new people become a lot easier by late winter. Work can be unpredictable and may often get on your nerves. Start an exercise program or a stressreduction plan. If you are single, "spring fever" might take on a new meaning to you. Late winter/early spring brings a new and different person into your life. If attached, share your foibles and fears. Plan a special trip together. SCORPIO enjoys your company.

The Stars Show the Kind of Day You'll Have: 5-Dynamic; 4-Positive; 3-Average; 2-So-so; 1-Difficult

ARIES (March 21-April 19)

Unexpected behavior sends you into a tizzy. Think before you say anything difficult or testy. Pressure builds; others take your words more seriously than you intended. One-on-one relating is key to resolving issues. Take the first step. Learn to forgive and forget .. Tonight: Moving right along!

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Hold your ground. Affirming your boundaries in a way another cannot hear causes more problems than you really want. Be clear, yet be indulgent and understanding of a loved one. Give 100 percent with a family member. Tonight: Accept another's idea of a good time

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)

Pace yourself. You might be more in the doldrums than you realize. Getting solid answers proves to be difficult, if you challenge a co-worker. Unexpected news affects you deeply. Let your tone reflect your loving intentions. Let others know you care. Tonight: Bring extra work home

CANCER (June 21-July 22)

*A friend pushes you way beyond the limits of your selfcontrol. Enjoy spending a little on a loved one and/or yourself. Your sense of direction helps you understand how to creatively cover all bases. A child shows you how much he cares. Indulge others. Be understanding. Tonight: Whooping it up! LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Follow through with a difficult associate at work. You cannot give up just yet. Stay centered when dealing with this person. Don't lose your direction. Give others a lot of rope, especially a family member. Stop and purchase something special for a loved one. Tonight: Head home. VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) *Make an additional effort. Don't let another discourage you with harsh words or a change in plans. Know what you want when dealing with a difficult, challenging friend or associate. You naturally put your all into work, communication and feelings. Tonight: Run errands, then stop for a visit on your way home.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)

*A difficult associate or partner pushes you hard. You might have inadvertently created a difficult situation. Honor what another says, but don't feel that you must agree, especially if it involves your funds. Join in with friends. Tonight: Curb spending.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

 You feel good. Put your best interests first when dealing with a partner who is never pleased with you. You are in the limelight; others look to you. Be in touch with another's need to flatter you, and enjoy the moment. Your magnetism speaks. Tonight: Whatever makes you smile.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

Understand another's position. Remain sure of vourself with a testy co-worker. Fatigue could be an issue here. Make sure you are taking good care of yourself. Someone at a distance really cares; help him find the right avenue to express this caring. Tonight: Take some time off.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

*Lighten up about what is going on with a loved one or child. You really don't have any control. Stay focused on your goals and needs. Attend meetings. Stay optimistic. Financially, you pull the wild card. Remain sensible, even if a partner pushes you. Tonight: Opt for togetherness.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Take the lead. From your point of view, another is being difficult. Worry less Understand where others are coming from. A partner or potential sweetheart is very indulgent. Make time for this person, or let him be more a part of your public life. Tonight: In the limelight.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)

*Take an overview, even when another is trying your patience. Getting down to the nitty-gritty won't serve you. Relax and focus on work. You hear interesting information. Separate fact from fiction here. Be sensitive to a co-worker who might have a crush on you. Tonight: Relax to music or try a new restaurant. BORN TODAY Actress Mary Crosby (1959), actor Sam Neill (1947), actor Walter Koenig (1936) For America's best extended horoscope, recorded by Jacqueline Bigar, call (900) 740-7444, 99 cents per minute. Spend-thrift in-laws refuse to live within their means

DEAR ABBY: I am 25 years old and have been happily married for three years. My husband is the man of my dreams. We are both hard-working and save most of our earnings to meet future goals.

My problem is his mother and father mismanage their money terribly Throughout their lives, matter no how much money they made, they spent more During the past 30 years, when they overspent on phone bills, dinners out, massages, etc., they would ask for money from her brother.

Recently my father-in-law took early retirement because he is in poor health due to years of smoking and poor diet. His entire pension was used to pay off their house and accumulated debts. If they had watched their spending, I believe they would have enough through Social Security and her paycheck to pay their bills - yet they are still spending frivolously, acouiring new debt and asking us for money.

This isn't the first time they have asked and received at inopportune moments when we really needed the money ourselves - such as just before our wedding and at Christmas. As I was writing the most recent check a couple of weeks ago, my mother-in-law laughed and said, "If you think I know how to spend, you should see my friend 'Mary'!'

I thought to myself, we would all love to spend, spend, spend, but it shouldn't be done unless one has the means. I want to be a fair person, but now every time I think of my in-laws I fear they are going to one day wipe us out. How can I prevent it? – DROWNING IN THEIR DEBT

DEAR DROWNING: There has been a role reversal here. Your in-laws are acting like children and you and your husband have been thrust into the role of reluctant parents. If the two of you continue bailing them out, they will never quit their frivolous spending.

You and your husband must stand firm on this. Enough is enough. Your in-laws may need some counseling in prudent financial management. If that is not an option, volumes have been written on the subject.

Saying no won't be easy, but it's important that you draw the line now! ©1999 UNIVERSAL PRESS
