

IT'S LAW NOW; TO BE ENFORCED IS AGREEMENT CITY - CITIZENS

A locally unprecedented ultimatum was delivered Friona city officials and law enforcement bodies Tuesday night calling for strict and equitable enforcement of the laws and for full use of the power of the court in levying of fines and or sentences.

In a meeting called by the city officials, announced at its beginning as a "discussion period for devising means of entertainment or youth-directed activity in a youth program here," representatives of the churches of the town, civic clubs, youth organizations, the school and women's clubs quickly raised pointed questions that indicated the majority belief that the major problem was not one of needed additional entertainment, but rather of "maintaining a law enforcement organization backed by the citizenry and meriting the respect and support of the community - a law and court recognizing the law infractions of the parents as well as students - regardless of personage."

"If it is a case of inadequate number of patrolmen - if one man must spend so much time issuing tickets for parking infractions that he must neglect the misdemeanors - then add another man to the local law enforcement group" one aroused member of the group noted.

In fact, the Tuesday night meeting was in no manner confined to discussion of the youth program - but evolved into a forum discussion of student problems - parent problems and responsibilities, duties of the elected and appointed representatives of the city officials, the widely-talked "yellow-stripe" situation within the city, and traffic regulations and control - a veritable Town Hall Meeting.

And equally clear to all attending was the belief that more is expected of both the city government and of the citizens as parents and as good members of society.

The Tuesday night session came as a climax to various meetings of local organizations conducted on the same theme. The meeting came as a climax to local sculduggery in which lives have been endangered. The meeting came as a climax to a situation brought into immediate focus by alleged and evident "devilment" of the past week wherein personal property was damaged in Friona, lives actually endangered in incidents of provocations of youths upon local faculty members - all without apprehension of guilty parties.

After listening to the voiced opinions of practically all the thirty-four citizens present, the city officials went on record as follows:

- (1) The Friona City officials will direct the law enforcement officers to carry out the full and impartial duties of their office.
- (2) The city courts will follow through with imposition of just but rigid fines and/or confinement sentences for youths and/or adults.
- (3) All city statutes will be studied pertaining to present and foreseen undesirable incidents - if existing laws will not protect the public then new statutes will be provided.

(4) The traffic situation will be studied thoroughly and corrective measures initiated as rapidly as possible, specifically with reference to:

(a) Parking and traffic control adjacent to the school grounds.

(b) Reckless and high speed driving either during the daytime or in the late night hours.

(c) Wise use of courtesy tickets for minor parking violations, with a view to bettering the public relations between the city and the local businessman and the visiting customer or businessman.

Participation of the entire group Tuesday night came in open discussion immediately after Rev. Russell Pogue, local Baptist minister, pointed out that no problem could be analyzed and remedied unless the background, cause, and any patterns of behavior were known.

Following on the heels of this statement, a number of the citizens present voiced the opinion that "lack of activity" was not the cause of present youth problems. Nelson Welch, inviting further clarification of the situation, asked for the floor for the viewpoint of the city commission and for any of their findings.

Mayor Allen, in answer to the interrogation, indicated that a sponsored activity had been the idea of the commission. Commissioners Kendrick and White concurred. Activities suggested by Allen included skating, playing of games, and other youth-directed activities.

Welch then hit upon the probable key point of the whole meeting when he asked, "Will these projects, worthwhile and good as they may be, reach those with whom the problems actually have arisen?"

Kendrick stated he believed these activities were in large measure a good solution inasmuch as the long week-ends with minimum local activities induced idle hands and minds - leading directly or indirectly to the youth problem. Leo McLellan concurred in that he "had heard the young folks themselves complain on numerous occasions that there was nothing to do in Friona."

School officials spoke up at this point and revealed that only some 5% of the entire student body posed a discipline problem in off-school hours, the trouble occurred possibly more on "activity" nights than at other times, and that already there was a near full calendar of student activities.

Mrs. Kenneth O'Brien stated she believed the clubs of the area already were tackling the entertainment situation - it was "up to the city government to prove that they can more adequately handle the discipline problem, and the clubs will be glad to string along with whatever entertainment is needed."

Several citizens present urged full publicity of law infractions as necessary; the Star concurred and the city commission agreed to place readily available the names of violators.

A vote of confidence was given the city commission in its task of "strict law enforcement and evident desire to reach a solution on local problems that is in accord with the majority of the citizens and voters."

The meeting adjourned with another similar forum called for one month from date to check progress and make or amend methods of further bettering the community youth, law enforcement, and traffic situations.

Drilling Permits Voted Despite Local Wishes

Column Left. . .

Flying saucers? Both Mr. and Mrs. George Baker report having seen a very strange object in the skies over this vicinity one day last week - no doubt one of the flying saucer variety.

George tells us that he was attracted to the object when he glanced up at a plane passing westward. Far above and slightly behind the airplane he noticed a silver disc that maneuvered in the skies for several minutes, up and down, backward and forward and finally streaking southwestward in a straight line in about the same path taken by the plane.

George knows that he saw something - but what?

McCall's Needlework and Crafts Annual just released carries in its "Hints" department a suggestion from Mrs. K. E. Deaton of Friona. Our friend, Mrs. Deaton submitted:

Toothpicks make excellent tools for picking up tiny bits of color and painting fine lines when you are reproducing dainty outlines and details in textile painting. Use toothpicks for copying tiny flowers and painting features in faces. Toothpicks are thrown away after use, eliminate cleaning brushes.

Teen-Age daughter (as radio ground out the final notes of the latest bit of swing): "Did you hear anything so wonderful?"

Father: "Only once, when a truck loaded with empty milk cans hit a freight car filled with live ducks."

Our thanks (as we smack our lips) to the J. T. Guinns for the nice box of tomatoes and sweet taters.

Membership Drive for the Parent-Teacher Association in Friona is beginning this week. Officers state that all dues should be in by October 14th if possible. (That's next Tuesday).

Committeemen representing the 13 counties in the Hi-Plains Water Conservation District voted to require permits for drilling water well and to leave well-spacing in the hands of county committees. This action, taken at a meeting in the Hotel Jim Hill, Hereford, Texas, October 2nd, was a follow-up to recommendations made at recent county meetings in the district.

Only one dissenting report was submitted against the well permit and spacing rule action. Parmer County farmers, Committeeman Bruce Parr of Friona reported, are opposed to any rule which would limit their freedom in drilling wells. Parr said irrigation in Parmer County is a comparatively new development and farmers at present see no need for regulation.

In line with action taken at this meeting, officials of the district expect to have the well-drilling permit requirement in effect, probably by the first of the year and not later than Feb. 15. If farmers object to county committee's ruling they may take their request for a drilling permit to the district board, which may call in professional engineering assistance to work out a system of well spacing suited to the particular area.

Tom McFarland of Lubbock, manager of the Hi-Plains Water Conservation District, presided at the meeting.

Speakers on the morning program included W. L. Broadhurst of Austin, Tom Craig of Amarillo, and Norris P. Swanson, irrigation specialist with the Soil Conservation Service.

Broadhurst and Craig agreed in recommending the district employ professional engineering help in working out well spacing rules.

General trend of all discussion was to urge reformation of water conservation rules on a county and district level in order to prevent control from slipping to state and federal agencies.

Friona, 37; Clovis B, 6. There's a good game in the offing Friday night - Friona vs. Petersburg at Petersburg. A large delegation of supporters is urged.

Record Early Freeze Hit Area This Week

Seven Towns Were Represented At FHA Council Meet

Temperatures took a sudden drop Monday night in the area to bring a record low for this time of year, some thermometers in the community registering as low as 25 degrees.

Frost was reported, and many farmers told of their stock tanks being frozen over.

Amarillo weather bureau records show the earliest killing frost occurred Oct. 16, 1903. Average time of the first killing frost here is Nov. 1.

Late cotton and feed in the county was damaged to an extent now yet determined. Many farmers have reported, however, that the early-planted cotton and feed, and those crops where irrigation was cut off at an early date, escaped any serious damage.

Warmer temperatures now prevail and are forecast for the rest of the week, with no moisture in sight.

Lettuce in the east part of Parmer County and in Deaf Smith county escaped damage in the most part, although ice formed about the heads Monday night. Pickers were delayed in their lettuce harvesting only a few hours Tuesday morning.

Participating in the meeting were girls and their sponsors from Anton, Lubbock, Phillips, Floydada, Hereford, Olton and Friona.

FATHER DIED

Funeral services for Randy Knight, father of J. E. Knight of Friona, will be held Friday in Louisburg, Kentucky. Mr. Knight died Wednesday. J. E. was at his father's bedside.

Rhea Community To Type Blood

Residents of the Rhea community voted Friday evening to launch a blood-typing program in their community, placing the types on file at the local Parmer County Community Hospital.

Mrs. Dorothy Bauer was placed in charge of arrangements at the meeting of the Rhea Farm Bureau and Rural Neighborhood group attended by over fifty residents.

A movie, "Rural Neighborhood Progress" was shown by Melvin Sachs, bureau chairman. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Herzog.

Paul Koeltzow is president of the Rural Neighborhood organization.

Next meeting will be the regular 1st Friday meeting, November 7th.

UNDERWENT SURGERY

Roy Rhodes, fifth grade teacher in the Friona Grade school, underwent surgery last Wednesday in the Parmer County Hospital to remove the steel plate in his right arm between the elbow and wrist.

Mr. Rhodes received a shrapnel wound, during the invasion of Germany in World War II, that made the steel plate necessary. He is recovering nicely.

Monday Morning Musings...

Coincidentally with National Newspaper Week in which the service, responsibility, and freedom of the press has been called to the attention of the public, a number of local events have transpired in this very week that have taxed this newspaper's ability on handling each of the above phases.

As on former occasions, well-meaning citizens have come to us, asking withholding of some information that should be public knowledge; did you realize that usually a large per cent of the people know something already of these incidents that some wish un-published?

Even if it were not general knowledge, the great job of your paper is to "report" the news - someone else made it, and for that we cannot be held responsible!

It was an ugly incident reported to us: students aggravating local faculty members - in one case to the extent where the lady teacher resorted to firearms to protect the sanctity of her home. But it did happen, and your newspaper is obligated to carry the story - it could and would do nothing else.

We're making little editorial comment on the law enforcement, traffic, and youth (or maybe more appropriately "adult") problems here. We believe this situation adequately brought to light in the news story of Page 1 telling of the recent "Town Hall Meeting." Also our views have been expressed in private to the proper authorities.

One suggestion in which we are most sincere: Mr. Commissioner, would it not be wise to import a law enforcement officer, schooled, trained, and experienced in the wise handling of our local law problems?

We have a good man on the job. Perhaps even with a new man at the head of the department he should be retained - we leave that up to people who know law enforcement techniques much better than ourselves.

Just as we trust our banking to men adept and trained in finance - just as we entrust our schools to people carefully trained in knowledge of the books and of psychology - just as 'ol Bert would make a frightfully poor druggist or as you might be lost in a newspaper - in this light, we are asking for a specialized law agency here.

We are not asking for a "gestapo" city, ruled with an iron hand - WE SPECIFICALLY ASK FOR SPECIALIZED SERVICE IN HANDLING OF THE MOST VITAL OF CIVIC PROBLEMS - that of law enforcement and public relations. Are we asking too much?

Ever attend a meeting of your city commission? We did this week, as we would like to do much more often.

We believe if more people would make it a habit to attend these, soon the commission would recognize that you and I were genuinely interested in the local problems and were capable and desirous of discussing these with the city dads for our mutual good. We are wondering if the case of appearing only once or twice a year before the commission does not lead to their conclusion that we have a "chip on the shoulder" whereas regular attendance would more correctly impress that we are "interested tax-payers." It would work for our mutual benefit, we maintain, and we would all receive better audience with our local bodies.

Must say that Charles Allen and his co-workers are attempting solution of problems confronting them. We believe Tuesday night meeting they called was unprecedented in the area. Whether you or I agree with every detail of this or any other administration is besides the point - we respect any attempt to better conditions, and we lend our full support to the commission in the task meted out to them.

Slipped away Tuesday of this week to do a little visiting and to attend the Regents luncheon at WTSC.

Without question WT is a paramount asset to this area, and we like the hands in which its administration has been placed. Dr. Cornette not only is a capable school administrator, but he is a Christian gentleman and a civic minded citizen. We like his type of leadership.

Was glad to see Representative-elect Jess Osborn at the luncheon. Kinda makes us believe he's going to be at the right places at the right time to represent the people he serves - he's exploring the job cut out for him, and we predict he'll do a job that is truly representative of the wishes of his district.

Was interested in a side-line discussion between General Ray Clark of the Amarillo Air Force Base and some WT educators. One teacher noted that the air base provided the latest of visual aids, provided an instructor for a classroom of only 10 or 12 men, whereas the state educational institution worked under much less perfect conditions.

General Clark was quick to defend the air policy, stating, "For every twelve men entering class we must turn out 12 proficient men, tops in their skill. There MUST be a minimum of failures. There definitely is a manpower shortage as the fellows coming along now are those born in the early days of the depression - when the national birthrate was at its recent low ebb - we cannot fail in the training of the limited number of airmen afforded us."

Sure wish we knew of some printers trained likewise! And you in your business or profession would no doubt like to see the same training in your field.

THE AMERICAN WAY

May The Aim Be Accurate

WASHINGTON AND "Small Business"

—By C. WILSON HARDER

The Office of Price Stabilization continues to amaze Washington.

Before Congress adjourned, the appropriation for this mysterious agency was slashed about in half as a move to hasten its demise.

For weeks the air around Capitol Hill was rent with cries of anguish that half of the OPS staff must be dismissed. Presumably, they had been dismissed to the tune of several thousand.

But now the OPS has embarked upon a project that is more ambitious in stature, requires more personnel than perhaps even the most elaborate plan ever launched in Communist Russia.

Ceiling prices on certain grocery items, which account for about 40 per cent of grocery store sales are now going up in more than half of the nation's half million grocery stores.

OPS officials admit that the ceiling prices are no less, and in many cases, higher, than grocers get in today's highly competitive retail price situation.

Added to this plan is a further announcement.

The grocers will not figure their own ceiling prices. They will be all figured for them by the 54 regional and district offices of OPS. Posters will be supplied the grocers every month with the prices already computed for them, plus weekly amendments.

This is considered by all who are interested in the welfare of the American people.

have had any business experience, as a very ambitious undertaking calling for a veritable host of manpower. It is estimated that the manpower OPS will use in this useless work, if thrown into the front lines in Korea, would end the battle.

"In fact," say some observers, "that would be a fine solution to two problems. OPS officials and Chinese could probably understand each other."

There are indications consumers will pay higher food costs due to this OPS action.

Many grocers are already talking about raising their prices to equal the OPS ceiling prices. Thus enforced regulation may result in competitors reaching some common understanding.

If such is done, it will be illegal, but so far, no one has definitely established the legality of a government bureau dictating price structures without declaration of an all out emergency.

The only parallel to this situation is in Russia where government also establishes prices.

Washington now asks:

How does it happen with substantially slashed personnel, OPS can undertake a job of this magnitude? Or, is it possible, that the agency was 100% overstuffed before it was slashed?

One thing is now certain.

When Congress reconvenes, a much closer scrutiny will be taken of OPS. Congressmen hate to be publicly fooled. This vast, ambitious new project by OPS after weeks of crying that with a reduced appropriation, there would be only enough staff left to open the mail, has put on record that Congress was very badly taken in by the OPS.

SCIENCE and HEALTH

Antibiotic Terramycin Spurs Plant Growth

Take five parts terramycin wonder drug and mix with a million parts water. That's the formula used by scientist Dr. Louis G. Nickell of Chas. Pfizer & Co. of Brooklyn, in opening up a new field for antibiotics—the stimulation of plant growth. For the sweet corn he treated grew three inches taller, and the above-ground portion weighed twice as much as normally treated corn. In other experiments, in which penicillin was mixed in the soil, radishes grew more than twice as large as those grown in untreated soil. As Dr. Nickell pointed out to scientists at Cornell, "are only preliminary experiments. But it is easy to see what a discovery could mean to farmers throughout the world, especially in short-season areas. The discovery of the disease-destroying power of the antibiotics was a turning point in medical science. More recently, the discovery that antibiotics like penicillin and terramycin mixed in animal feed spur the growth of poultry and livestock, was a boon to the barnyard. Dr. Nickell's findings may prove another antibiotic landmark in agriculture."

The Law and You

By Robt. (Bob) Kirk

DO YOU KNOW—who may take acknowledgments of written instruments for records?

Most generally instruments in writing may also be acknowledged before a Notary Public. Notary Publics are specially appointed for the purpose of taking the acknowledgments of persons known to them to be the persons signing instruments in writing. However,

BACK TO TEXAS

This letter is being written while Mrs. Rogers and I are en route to Texas. We were able to secure the services of a lady to stay with the children so that Jean and I might get home for a few weeks. We discovered that the University of Texas was playing the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill. This is not out of the way coming to Texas, so we arranged to attend the game. You could all be justly proud of Texas. The boys played a wonderful game. The Panhandle was well represented in the person of T. Jones, who hails from Childress and plays quarterback. He did an outstanding job and received high praise from all of the spectators and the opposing players. The people of North Carolina certainly proved that their reputation for good sportsmanship is no idle rumor. They certainly displayed to the nth degree the courteous hospitality for which the South is famous. Many Texans were on hand for the game. I'm sure all of them left with a warm spot in their hearts for the fine State of North Carolina. This state has a fine delegation in Congress that has provided much of the strength in the battle against socialistic programs, and in protecting the rights of the South.

We left Durham which is 12 miles from Chapel Hill, and drove across the state to Asheville, thence to Chattanooga, thence to Memphis, Little Rock, Tulsa, on to Sherman, Texas, to visit my mother, then to the District where we will be for several weeks unless we get a hurry-up call to return to Washington. During this entire trip I have been especially interested in noting the attitude of the people on the matter of voting. Many of them are hesitant to discuss party politics, but they are all wide awake about the coming election and are pretty well advised on the important issues facing the country. They are definitely doing their own thinking. Many of the smaller towns have headquarters set up for the presidential and vice-presidential candidates. The people as a whole appear to be interested in facts and truth. They are reading and listening carefully and weighing the facts. They don't hesitate to ask questions and to seek all information possible. This is so in the rural areas as well as the large cities. There seems to be increasing interest in a presidential preferential primary. Some feel that party nominations should be by such a primary, with the electoral college system for election. Others feel that the president and vice-president should be elected by popular vote; that the electoral college system should be abolished. There are still others who feel that a proper solution would be an amendment providing that each candidate should receive only the percentage of electoral votes that he receives popular vote in each state. This is definitely a problem on which much will be done and said before the 1956 elections.

Generally speaking, we found that the folks in all sections are primarily interested in the Uni-instruments in writing may also be acknowledged before a Clerk of the District Court, the Judge or Clerk of the County Court, within this State.

In States other than this State, for recordation in this State, the acknowledgment may be taken before a Clerk of some Court of record having a seal, a Commissioner of Deeds duly appointed under the laws of this State, or a Notary Public.

Outside the continental limits of the United States a Minister or Consul to a foreign country or certain members of their offices may take such acknowledgments and also a Notary Public duly qualified in the country in which the acknowledgment is being taken.

In the case of members of the Armed Forces, any commissioned officer in the Armed Forces may take the acknowledgment to an instrument in writing. It is not necessary that such an officer have a seal to affix to the acknowledgment so taken by him.

In case a Notary Public is not accessible, two witnesses who know the individual signing the instrument may sign as witnesses. Thereafter one or more of the witnesses must personally appear before a person authorized to take an acknowledgment, and state on oath that he saw the individual sign the instrument and that the individual acknowledged that it was executed for the purposes and consideration stated in the instrument and that the witnesses signed the same at the request of the signer of the instrument. When this has been done, such an instrument may then be recorded in the proper records in the County Clerk's office.

ted States and what it stands for. They realize the responsibility that we hold in the world today and are willing to meet all requirements, but they are not willing to exhaust our resources trying to keep up the whole world. Opinions are varied on how far this country should go in foreign aid, but almost unanimous that such aid should be on the basis of the helped, helping themselves as much as humanly possible.

The crops across the southeastern section seemed to be in fairly good shape, but you can sure tell where the drought disaster belt begins. The small business men report decreases in sales and profits, but many of them think that this is the usual pre-election slump, and that business was a healthy thing in the smaller communities, because things had just gone too high. He seemed to think that the slump would become more noticeable in the larger cities, especially as to profits, and that the election had nothing to do with it. It is interesting to read the national polls and estimates that are made on a nationwide scale, and then go out into the different communities and talk to the people. The nation-wide picture is a great deal different from the single community pictures, but the two together make a wonderful view of the entire American scene.

If you ever get to feeling that the country is going to the dogs and can't be saved, just start out across the country and stop every chance you get and visit with the folks. America will never go to the dogs as long as we have the kind of Americans that I have been talking to for the past several days, and most of them look pretty healthy and good for many years to come.

Texas Democrats want Texas-born IKE

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

A MAN OF PRINCIPLE WHO THINKS AS WE DO

"RESOLVED" that it is the recommendation of the Convention that every Democrat in Texas vote and work for the election of Dwight D. Eisenhower for President and Richard Nixon for Vice-President."

TEXAS STATE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION
AMARILLO, TEXAS - SEPTEMBER 9, 1952

You can be a Democrat without being a Trumanite. Your party's state convention in Amarillo on September 9 passed the resolution quoted above. Texans who believe in the time-tried Jeffersonian principles of the Democratic Party are going to vote for Dwight D. Eisenhower on November 4. If you are tired of Trumanism and want to help elect Eisenhower, send in the coupon. Be a Texan - not a Trumanite - vote Ike.

TEXAS DEMOCRATS FOR EISENHOWER

I am a Texas Democrat for Eisenhower, and I want to work in my community to elect him. Please send me further information.

There's a difference in hands that "do" dishes and hands that "dial" dishes. Hands that "do" dishes are often rough and red, chapped and creased and unattractive. Hands that "dial" dishes are soft and smooth, the nails are polished and pretty, and they always look beautiful and bright.

An automatic electric dishwasher — the way that lets you "dial" dishes — makes dishwashing a snap. Just scrape the dishes, stack them in the dishwasher and snap the dial.

For your hands' sake, don't "do" dishes, "dial" dishes.

Fort Worth — No hogs or sheep were unloaded at Fort Worth Monday due to the embargo brought about by the finding of some hogs infected with vesicular exanthema on the yards late last week. It is expected that sheep shipments to the market may be resumed late this week.

Cattle and calf trade on Monday at Fort Worth was a slow affair again in view of the heavy runs that appeared around the major marketing circle. The 152,000 cattle and 27,000 calves reported at 12 major markets Monday totaled 12,000 more than a week ago and were 69,000 above the same date a year ago.

Most high quality stockers and high grade killing cattle and calves ruled steady at Fort Worth and the plain and medium sorts were steady to easier.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings sold for $23 to $31, two loads of 1,129-pound fed steers from Addington, Oklahoma, from Price & Short, topping at $31. Other slaughter steers and yearlings of cutter, common and medium sorts sold from $10 to $22.

Fat cows cashed at $12.50 to $16.50, and among cow shippers were Millard & Scharbauer Eidson, Lea County, N. Mex., with a load of 932-pound cows at $13; Newt Redmon, Swisher County, had 56 cows at 1,021 pounds at $13.50 and 17 head at 1,009 pounds at $13. Furd Hall & Son, Tarrant County, a load at 982 pounds at $13, with odd head at $15.

Good and choice fat calves drew $18 to $26, Cecil Sullivan of Red Oak had some heavy calves at $26; and E. E. McAlister, Eastland County, had some calves at $25 and $26 that weighed over 500 pounds. Plain and medium butcher calves drew $14 to $18, and culls cashed at $10 to $14.

Good and choice stocked steer calves sold from $20 to $26 and plainer kinds sold from $15 to $18. Heifer calves sold $1 to $2 under steers. Stocker steer yearlings cashed at $16 to $23, a few lightweights to $24.50. Stocker heifers sold from $21.50 down. Stocker cows were reported from $13 to $18.

Mrs. S. A. Blankenship, Armstrong County, had a truck lot of 605-pound steer yearlings at $23 Monday at Fort Worth.

POWER TAKE-OFF WORK DONE BETTER!

...with the new Ford Tractor and PROOF-METER

Everyone knows that implements driven by power take-off should be run at their recommended P.T.O. speed, for best results. But how can you tell what the P.T.O. speed is, in actual operation? Up to now, there's been no way to check it—without special equipment.

But NOW you can know! Now the Proof-Meter—standard equipment on every new Ford Tractor—shows the P.T.O. speed right before your eyes all the time—while the implement is moving, while it's under load! This exclusive Ford advantage eliminates costly "guess-work." It enables you to set the throttle to keep P.T.O.-operated implements always running at just the right speed for best work, greatest fuel economy, longest life! The Proof-Meter can increase profits on power take-off jobs, a lot. It's valuable in many other ways too...

5 Instruments in ONE! In addition to P.T.O. Speed, the Proof-Meter shows you Tractor Travel Speed, Engine Speed, Belt Pulley Speed, and indicates Hours Worked. Nothing else like it.

Have You A PLAN FOR SAVING?

According to a recent Federal Reserve Board Survey, while three out of four families save a part of their income, only one in four PLANS its savings. Our experience over many years proves that PLANNED savings is what counts. Setting aside a definite percentage of your income as you receive it — whether from a salary or from a crop or livestock — soon builds up a substantial reserve fund against emergencies. We shall be pleased to help you.
