ADDRESSES WANTED

The Big Spring Herald is seeking the addresses of all Big Spring and Howard County military personnel currently deployed to the Middle East.

Herald Publisher Hank Bond said the newspaper will be sending free newspapers to the service men and women helping to prepare for a possible conflict with Iraq.

Those wanting to submit a friend or relative's address can bring them by the Herald's office at 710 Scurry, mail them to P.O. Box 1431, Big Spring 79720 or they can e-mail them to newsdesk@crcom.net or editor@bigspring-herald.com.

SPRING BREAK FILING

Interested candidates considering a bid for a school trustee's position can obtain candidacy materials at the maintenance/transportation office this week while the district administration building is closed for spring break.

Candidates can file the information when the business office reopens on March 14.

Candidates for school boards in Forsan, Coahoma, Stanton, Garden City, Grady and Ackerly can file on Monday, March 17, when area schools return for vacation.

The deadline to place a candidate's name on the ballot for the May 3 elections is March 19 and write-in candidacy filing ends on March 24.

Candidacy forms can be picked up and filed at area school board administration buildings during regular business hours Monday through

Congressional candidate forum set

By BILL McCLELLAN

News Editor

With a dozen or so candidates lined up to try and take the vacated 19th U.S. Congressional District seat, it's difficult to keep up with who is who, much less know their position on key issues.

That's why the West Texas Republican Club has scheduled a candidate forum for March 27 in the East Room of the Dorothy Garrett Coliseum.

"We're hoping to give all of the voters of Howard County and the surrounding area exposure to these candidates," said Marilyn Read, club secretary. "This is going to be a very important seat, and one that is important to our community."

The forum will begin at 7 p.m. and despite the number of candidates, will only last 1-1/2 hours.

"People will be able to submit questions to a panel. The panel will then combine the questions to avoid repeating the same ones. Our moderator will ask each candidate the same question and he or she will be given one minute to respond," explained Read.

Each candidate will also be given one minute to address the audience at the opening of the forum, and another minute for an ending statement.

"It's very structured, we realize that, but with 12 candidates, it's going to have to be," said Read.

The club has verbal commitments from all 12 current candidates. However, only candidates who have officially filed by March 20 will be able to participate in the forum.

Read said a good turnout of citizens will benefit Howard County.

"We want to be important in the minds of the candidates. If they see a lot of people at this forum, they are going to see that

City fathers expected to consider appointing 9-1-1 board member

By ROGER CLINE

The Big Spring City Council will consider appointing a new member to the Howard County 9-1-1 Communications District Board of Directors at its meeting tonight.

The council will meet at 5:30 p.m. in its chambers, 307 E. Fourth St.

The recent resignations of Don Nell Luce and Tommy Tune from the board mean both municipally-appointed seats are now open.

Mayor Russ McEwen has suggested local attorney Tim Yeats, a former member of the 9-1-1 Board, as a replacement for Tune.

Yeats was born and raised in Howard County and graduated from Forsan High School in 1975. He attended Howard College before graduating from Texas Tech University with a law degree in 1982. He has been in private practice since then.

Yeats served on the original 9-1-1 Board, from 1987 to 1992. During his tenure he served as chairman of that board.

In order to be appointed to the board, the city councils of at least two of Howard County's three cities — Big Spring, Coahoma and Forsan — must approve his appoint-

A family excursion turned tragic for a Yorktown couple and two of their grandchildren while traveling north of Big Spring on Sunday morning.

The family was driving north on U.S. Highway 87 about 16 miles north of Big Spring around 10 a.m. Sunday, on their way to New Mexico, when Linda Herweck, 54, of Yorktown, apparently lost control of the 1998 Ford Explorer.

"She fell asleep or something and began to drift off the road," said Department of Public Safety Trooper Neal Stallings. "She woke up and overcorrected and they started rolling."

Stallings said two people, including Herweck's husband David Herweck, 56, were ejected from the vehicle. Mr. Herweck was pronounced dead at the scene.

Linda Herweck and her

14-year old grandson were life-flighted to San Antonio for treatment, while the couple's 16-year old granddaughter was treated at Scenic Mountain Medical Center and released to her parents.

Judge Bennie Green pronounced Mr. Herweck dead, and said he did not order an autopsy in the case.

BSHS' Churchwell, Thangam shine at state meet

By LYNDEL MOODY

Staff Writer

Big Spring High School sophomores Logan Churchwell and Manoj Thangam own some bragging rights following impressive showings in state forensic competition.

The two Big Spring teens utilized their oratory skills to stand tall at the Texas Forensic Association state meet held in Dallas on Feb. 27-March 1.

"Logan was a semifinalist in student congress," said Jennifer Adams, Big Spring High School speech and debate coach. "He served as presiding officer during one session of congress. Logan was one of only 16 students in the state awarded this honor."

In foreign extemporaneous speaking, Thangam reached the quarterfinals before being knocked out of competition.

"As a sophomore Manoj, is among the top 45 speakers in the state," Adams said. Churchwell and Thangam, along with other BSHS team members, were part of the more than 700 students from 196 schools across the state competing in the nation's largest high school state championships.

Students from both public and private schools can participate in TFA meets from large, middle and small-sized schools.

The Big Spring team uses TFA meets as practice for University Interscholastic League competition. The District UIL meet is set to begin at the end of this month.

With the Austin meet marking the end of the TFA season, the team is also setting its sights on the National Forensic League qualifying tournament in April.

"We ended up the fourth largest NFL school in the area — (It went) Amarillo, Abilene High, Midland Lee and then us," Adams

A&M Club encouraging students to pick up forms

By LYNDEL MOODY
Staff Writer

Students planning to attend Texas A&M University in the fall are strongly encouraged to pick up Howard County A&M Club scholarship applications soon in order to meet the May 16 deadline.

"This (deadline) will allow the club to present recipients with the scholarships at graduation this year," said Mike Niklasch, club president. "Please keep in mind that even though students may not have received their acceptance letter from Texas A&M, they still need to complete and turn in their application."

Scholarships are awarded to students based mostly on financial need, said Jeanne Niklasch, club member. Students must reside in Howard County to apply. This year, the club will award three $1,000 endowed scholarships, the Sidney Clark Scholarship, given to an entering freshman; the Jeanne and Mike Niklasch, Class of '84 Scholarship; and a third scholarship that has yet to be named. The club will also bestow several smaller scholarships left from the proceeds raised during its annual fund-raising auction.

This year's 4th Annual Howard County A&M Club Auction is set for Aug. 9 and the club is seeking donated items to auction.

Anyone wishing to donate an item or time to the fund-raising project should contact Jeanne Niklasch at 268-9649.

To obtain an application, see a high school counselor or call Hays Strippling at 267-6810 or Mike Niklasch at 268-9649 or 267-6525.

The next Howard County A&M Club meeting will take place March 18 at 7 p.m. in the La Posada Restaurant, 206 NW Sixth, and is open to all Aggies and friends of A&M.

Among them are: State National Bank Senior Vice President Richard Steel; insurance agent Eve Nieto; Spencer Wolfe, retired from Western Environmental Management in Carlsbad, N.M.; secretary and local volunteer Nell Burgess; and Shirley Sliwinski, retired VA Medical Center employee.

The council will also:

- Hear a request for assistance with the Pops in the Park Independence Day festival.
- Hear a presentation on the Downtown Revitalization Association's planned Concert In the Park activ-

CEMETERY

"we're going to have probably $50,000 worth of pipe and fittings and things of that nature out there," said City Manager Gary Fuqua. "Actual construction should start next week sometime, so we'll have open ditches running through there and we were just concerned — first about the security of all the equipment and the pipe that's going to be out there, and then of course the security and safety of the public if they go out there at night and there's open ditch lines and stuff."

Fuqua said the cemetery will return to its normal schedule once construction is complete.

"We hope to have it totally complete within 90 days, but it depends on the weather and other conditions," he said.

At the Feb. 25 city council meeting, council members approved a change order on the project, not reducing the scope of the project and lowering the price tag from $108,802 to $70,000. Fuqua said the city will use its own crews to make up some of the difference.

"We're going to spend about $70,000 with the contractor, and then the city's going to be doing some additional work, putting the trunk lines in, the main lines going out there," he said. "The council has asked us to contact the diocese about the Catholic section, which is not a perpetual care section and does not belong to the city of Big Spring. We're contacting them to see if they would like to do some irrigation there so that we could hook it onto our system."

The project does not include the "Mimosa" or "Lotus Garden" sections of the cemetery, which are not currently being sold.

"There are one or two more areas out there that we're not actually selling properties at this time," Fuqua said. "Sometime in the future, before we actually start selling that property, we would like to put irrigation in that area as well."

OUR VIEWS

Ag Expo set for March 20

If you want to understand the impact agriculture has on Howard County and the surrounding area, walk into any retail business in Big Spring and ask. They'll tell you that agricultural producers are vital to their business. That's because the hundreds of farmers and their families who reside in the Crossroads area are exactly like the rest of us — they buy their groceries and clothes here; their gasoline, diesel, chemicals, seed, tires and implements here; send their children to school here, worship here; and pay taxes here.

In short, while oil and gas have been a major shot in the arm for our area, industries come and go. The agriculture industry has long been the mainstay.

That's why, each year, we take time out to honor those men and women who make their living off the land.

We hope you will join us and the Big Spring Area Chamber of Commerce in honoring our agricultural producers Thursday, March 20, at Dorothy Garrett Coliseum. The annual Ag Expo — in which agri-businesses show off their wares — will be held from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. Admission is free.

The highlight of the day is the 11:45 a.m. luncheon. Two awards will be presented — the agriculture producer and the agri-business of the year.

Tickets for the luncheon are free to those in the agriculture field. Others may attend the luncheon by purchasing a ticket at the chamber for $9. If you want to attend the event but don't care to eat, you are welcome to do so at no charge.

Join us then on March 20 as we take time out to honor those who cultivate the soil. The products they raise represent the clothes on our backs and the food on our tables.

Bond's Broadcast

By Hank Bond

Politics heating up on all fronts

It is certainly a trying time for the people of the world. In nearly every corner of the world there is some sort of desperation just yelling to get out. As for the United States, we have the Iraq leader and his followers to contend with, the North Korean government continues to try and find a way to make us mad enough to turn the entire country into a parking lot — and of course we still have Osama, pain in my neck, Bin Laden to contend with. I personally refer to him as Caveman, and a few other less printable names.

Right here at home we have our own little set of problems, as we watch political battles popping up nearly every day along with the point-counterpoint arguments of the day.

I note with interest that former President Bill Clinton and his challenger for the Oval office, and former Senator, Bob Dole will work for at least 12 weeks debating point after point on CBS' news icon 60 Minutes.

This should prove interesting and play just about as well as Andy Rooney does.

I must admit I will be one of those watching as often as I can to see what possible relevance these two will add to the situations facing us today. The duo offers something very unique. The former President is one that many wanted out of office and the other one not nearly enough wanted him in office in the first place.

It should be real, real and did I say real interesting to watch this unfold.

I enjoyed listening to Mayor Russ McEwen's speech last Tuesday in the Dorothy Garrett Coliseum on the Howard College campus. I was quite pleased and may I say impressed to see the large contingent that gathered to hear his remarks. I agree with those who believe this is something that should happen at least once a year. It is a nice public event and allows the airing of the many things this community has to offer and in what state they appear to be functioning. Sure there are problems but we spend plenty of time on those.

I believe KBST should be commended for airing the program in its entirety. That is the kind of mission a good local radio station should be on. Bringing news as it happens.

This allows everyone concerned to do their jobs. We as your newspaper can add to that by bringing you follow-up and additional details as they develop.

This town supports the general media efforts quite well. There are many who depend on these sources on a daily basis to keep informed, be entertained and very importantly, be assisted in making quality, educated buying decisions.

From a local news perspective, the rest of this month should offer a variety of those following events of a political nature. With the TEA scheduled to visit and review actions of the Big Spring school board members and the general operation of the school system it could get very interesting.

In addition there is the developing situation with the 911 Board and you can add on the recall effort toward the sales tax used to fund the Moore Board.

Politics right now are as thick as a pea soup fog here in Big Spring and it could shake out to be pretty interesting before the fog lifts.

Last but not least, I encourage you to attend the community prayer rally, "United We Stand," slated to get underway at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Big Spring Municipal Auditorium. This is to offer prayers of support for those defending our country in these trying times — as well as the trials and tribulations we face right here on a daily basis.

There's a fine collection of individuals slated to be on hand to speak and help lead the prayer rally and I look forward to enjoying the evening. Everett Bender should be commended — so here you are Everett — for his diligence in helping pull this all together.

After the prayer rally you should stick around, for at 7 p.m. the Grammy-nominated African Children's Choir is scheduled to perform. This world famous group is made up of children from Ghana, the Sudan, Uganda and other African countries.

There is no admission, however, an offering will be collected to support the choir's needy children. Who knows, maybe KBST will be in a position to broadcast this special evening as well.

I promise a complete report on this event coming up next week.

And so, for another week, thanks and thirty.

The doctor says you're fit as a fiddle, Mr. Jenkins, even if you are built more like a cello."

She was one mean mother

In the Bible, you will find these words in Matthew 7:1-2: "Do not judge lest you be judged yourselves. For in the way you judge, you will be judged; and by your standard of measure, it shall be measured to you."

In view of the continuing debate in our nation over the right or best way to rear children, I wanted to share some thoughts with you that may be of value. The reason I decided to begin with these verses from the Bible is because I wanted to amplify the word "standard" and how it gives us a basis or justification for the way we do things. Just as a youngster grows up to accept or adopt many of the attitudes and values of his or her parents, we also tend to judge the actions of others in light of our own standards.

If you can accept what I've just said as being true and can also see some tremendous opportunities all around you to help our nation's youth, I would like to share an article titled, "The Meanest Mother In The World." I don't know who wrote this article and she is not my mother, but after you read it, I believe you will see why I wanted to share it with you.

THE MEANEST MOTHER IN THE WORLD

"As a child, I had the meanest mother in the world. She was real mean. When other kids ate candy for breakfast, she made me eat cereal, eggs and toast. When other kids had coke and candy for lunch, I had to eat a sandwich. As you can guess, my dinner, too, was different from other kids'. My mother insisted on knowing where we were and what we were doing. She insisted that if we said we'd be gone for an hour, that we would be gone for one hour or less. She was real mean. I was ashamed to admit it, but she actually had the nerve to break the child labor laws! She made us work! We had to wash the dishes, make all the beds, learn to cook and all sorts or cruel things. I believe she lay awake at night thinking up mean things for us to do. She always insisted on us telling the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. By the time we were teenagers, she was much wiser and our life became even more unbearable. None of this tooting the horn of a car for us to come running. She embarrassed us to no end by making our dates come to the front door to get us! I forgot to mention, while my friends were dating at the mature age or 12 or 13, my old fashioned mother refused to let me date until

I was 15 or 16. Boy! was she mean! My mother was a complete failure as a mother. None of us have ever been arrested or beaten by a mate. Each of my brothers served his time in the service of his country willingly, not protesting. And whom do we have to blame for the terrible way we turned out? You're right. Our mean mother. Look at all the things we missed. We never got to take part in a riot, never burned draft cards or got to do a million and one things our friends did. Our mean mother made us grow up into God-fearing, educated, honest adults. Using this as a background, I am trying to raise my children. I stand a little taller and I am filled with pride when my children call me "mean." You see, I thank God He gave me The Meanest Mother In The World."

This was written some time ago, but the message it contains still applies today. When we don't care enough to train or discipline our children in right conduct, honesty, respect for the rights and property of others and how to perform domestic skills to meet their own needs, we are neglecting our most basic duty as parents. As Henry Ward Beecher once said, "A mother is the child's schoolroom."

Third time no charm for HC

Texans ends Hawks' run in Region V finals

By HANK BOND
Publisher

RICHARDSON — No matter what type of trite saying you would like to apply to Sunday's National Junior College Athletic Association Region V championship game it still ended Howard College's outstanding season.

South Plains College (31-2) took the third meeting of the year from the Hawks (29-4), 65-60 and will advance to the Sweet 16 tournament in Hutchinson, Kan., next week.

It was the third win of the season for the Texans over Howard College. South Plains claimed the home and home series in Western Junior College Athletic Conference play before taking the neutral court win.

Former Howard College head coach Steve Green saw his team edge past his old team in a Sunday afternoon thriller on the University of Texas-Dallas campus.

It wasn't easy — and certainly not boring — as the two physical clubs battled end to end for the full 40 minutes. Howard College fans outnumbered every team the Hawks faced in the tournament by at least two to one and Sunday was no different.

The Hawks made it interesting — and exciting.

Against South Plains, Howard took a 20 lead as Chaun Brooks hit from just inside the top of the key, but the Texans ran off nine straight points to take a 9-2 lead with 13:45 to go in the first period.

Vas'shun Newborne hit from the free throw line ending a six-minute scoring drought for the Hawks. Brooks followed by hitting a driving layup off a thread-the-needle assist from Jared Fears to make it 9-6.

A South Plains three-point play made it 12-6, before Gabe Johnson picked up the Hawks' game. He crashed the inside and used the glass to count a bucket that pulled Howard to within 12-8, with 10:59 to play in the half.

The Hawks caught fire from there.

Fears sank a 3-pointer from the right corner and then watches on as Steven Goff brought the crowd to its feet with a NBA-style trey to trimmed the Texans' lead to 15-14. Jon Sykes, a freshman walk-on from New Mexico, made two free throws seconds later to give their Hawks their first lead, at 16-15 with 7:37 left.

After a deep three for the Texans, Johnson hit two charity tosses at 5:56 and the game was even at 18-18 — marking the first of six times the two teams would be tied in the initial 20 minutes.

The teams traded leads until South Plains counted a three-point trip and it was 27-24 at the break.

"Our guys worked very hard in the first half, and in fact for the entire ballgame, to keep it close," said Howard College head coach Chris Jans.

The Texans continued to protect their lead in the second.

After a quick start by the Texans, Brooks buried two 3-pointers to cut South Plains' lead to 34-31 with 16:18 to go. Johnson brought Howard to within a single point on the Hawks' next trip down the floor with a powerful layup from the right side.

The Texans pushed the lead back to 39-33 before Johnson, again, ignited

It hurts especially because I felt all year long we were the best team in the region but we had three chances to beat the team that ended up being the best team and we came up short.

Chris Jans

an HC rally. Johnson pushed in an offensive rebound and then watched as freshman Je'Kel Foster converted two Texan turnovers into baskets to make it 39-37 with 11:44 to play.

The teams continued to trade baskets and free throws with South Plains holding the lead at 52-49 with 6:52 to go, but Foster gave the Hawks' contingent reason to cheer nailing a 3-point basket from the right side to make it a 52-52 game.

It was the first tie since late in the first half, but Howard was unable to regain the lead as South Plains ran the lead back to 59-54 on a 7-2 run.

The Hawks scrapped and regained a flicker of hope as Leon Woodstock hit a basket in the lane with 1:35 to play making it a one-point contest at 61-60.

The Woodstock basket, however, was the last for the Hawks and a five-point final minute run for South Plains set the final margin.

"For the most part I have to say we played pretty well. I thought we'd knock them down and we didn't. I couldn't be prouder of their effort," said Jans.

The Hawks connected on a cold 4-of-22 from three-point land and finished the game hitting just 33 percent of their shots, compared to 41 percent by South Plains.

Howard had ample opportunities, outgunning the Texans 65 shots to 52 and crashing the boards on the offensive end snaring 16. The teams were even with 38 rebounds for the contest. South Plains turned the ball over 23 times to 18 for the Hawks.

"These players (Howard) deserved the opportunity to know the feeling you get when you win a game like this," Jans said. "I suppose it just wasn't supposed to happen."

In conclusion Jans said, "It hurts especially because I felt all year long we were the best team in the region but we had three chances to beat the team that ended up being the best team and we came up short."

Foster led the Hawks in scoring with 15 and four rebounds. Brooks finished with 13 points and five rebounds.

Fears had nine points for the Hawks. Johnson had eight, Pate 5, Newborne 1, Goff 3, with Sykes and Price finishing with 2.

The Hawks advanced to the championship game, Saturday night with a 60-46 win over the Collin County Express.

Howard jumped to an early 7-0 lead to start things off as Jacque Pate hit a follow, Eddie Starks nailed a 3-point basket from the top of the key, and Chaun Brooks hit a sweeping layup at the 16:51 mark.

Collin fought back to tie the score at 13-13 and with 5:16 to go in the half before HC put them away.

Howard went on a 10-0 run to end the first half and took a 15-point lead, at 31-16, into the half.

A second-half dry spell by the Hawks allowed Collin to pull to within five with 7:14 to go in the game.

The Hawks ran off six straight to push the lead back to 11 and extended their lead to as many as 17 before settling for the 14-point win.

Newborne paced HC with 13. Brooks had 10.

Sunday's game was the final game for six sophomores on their roster. Making the last appearance in an HC uniform were Jared Fears, Eddie Starks, Joey Kane, Daniel Price, Jacque Pate and Gabe Johnson.

Howard College head basketball coach Chris Jans led the Hawks to a 29-4 record and a berth in the Region V Tournament this season. In his two years at HC, his teams have averaged 24.5 wins a year.

Seventh grade Steers run to Lamesa crown

By TOMMY WELLS

Sports Editor

The Big Spring Junior High School seventh grade track teams proved one thing Thursday at the Lamesa track meet — they know how to win.

Jordan Kinnear won both the shot put and discus titles and the BSHS relay squads turned in a hat trick performance en route to leading Big Spring to the boys' team title. The Steers racked up 163 points in the meet — 16 more than second-place finishing Lamesa.

Big Spring also picked up first-place finishes from several other standouts, including Brandy Hubbard, Haden Phillips and Zack Dawson. Hubbard won the pole vault, while Phillips took the triple jump honors. Dawson sprinted his way to the top in the 2,400-meter run.

The Big Spring Lady Steers' seventh grade team tallied 127 points and finished second in the final team standings.

Whitney Lewis and Esther Tobar anchored the Lady Steers' efforts with a brilliant performance in the 100-meter dash. Lewis and Tobar raced to a 1-2 finish in the race. Clarissa Carrisalez was fourth overall.

Danielle Jeter also picked up a gold medal at the meet. She won the 200-meter dash edging out teammate Desiree Yanez for the top honors.

The Big Spring Lady Steer relay teams won the 4x100-meter and the 1,600-meter relay events. They were fourth in the 4x200-meter event.

People In The News

By The Associated Press

Nick Nolte says he's been vigilant about remaining sober since his arrest last year for driving under the influence of drugs. He said the legal troubles and media attention - much of it focused on a mugshot that showed him looking disheveled - prompted him to be open about his recovery. "There's no hiding there. I've always said I had a substance problem ever since. It's something you deal with, and you take care of it, and you can keep it under control," the 62-year-old actor said Wednesday. Looking trim, tan and healthy, Nolte made the remarks during interviews to promote his upcoming drama "The Good Thief," about a heroin-addicted gambler trying to organize a heist. The film debuts in limited release April 2.

"Now the trick is not to relapse and that's a matter of just daily vigilance," he said. "It's like having a disease. If you had a cancer on your skin and had it burned it off, you'd wash it and clean it everyday."

Nolte, who has made dozens of films, was nominated for Academy Awards for 1991's "The Prince of Tides" and 1997's "Affliction."

time in Ticketmaster history that a performer sold tickets for seven stadium dates in a single day. The nine-show run at a single stadium is a first for any performer worldwide.

Tickets for the new shows, Aug. 28 and 30, go on sale at 9 a.m. EST Saturday through Ticketmaster. Giants Stadium holds about 60,000.

Springsteen, who won three Grammys this month for his Sept. 11-inspired "The Rising," is the top-selling concert attraction at the Meadowlands Sports Complex.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) - It's another record for The Boss.

Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band have added two more dates at Giants Stadium after tickets for the original seven shows in July sold out Saturday.
