HERE and THERE

Our National and State governments have been planned and executed so that each minute detail might be cared for properly without causing any complications for the administration and citizens of State and Nation to solve. There has arisen one situation however, that has parliamentarians guessing. How can John Nance Garner graciously resign from the position of Congressman to become Vice President of the United States?

Antelope Wins in Four Teacher School Class

Scoring 924 points out of a possible 1000 the Antelope school won over Ewing by a close margin of only four points.

The State Supervisor scored all the four teacher schools of the County while inspecting them for State Aid, except The Grove, the only four teacher school in the County not receiving State Aid. The Grove school was scored by the County Superintendent.

The State Score Card is a measuring rod by which we can reasonably well measure the character of school plant, house, equipment, teacher, pupils and community.

The following is the results of the four teacher schools:

Antelope	Perfect Score	Ewing	Maple	Levita	Owage	The Grove
Grounds and Outbuildings	105	110	105	105	95	95

Death of Mrs. F. O. Aiken—Remains Shipped to Lamesa

Mrs. F. O. Aiken was born in Bastrop County in 1859. Before her marriage on June 21, 1877, she was Miss Ziddle Moore; no children were born to that union. As a young couple, they moved to West Texas and were pioneer settlers in that section.

Former Gatesville Man To Edit Childrens News

The following announcement is made by Sam M. Braswell, Sr., publisher of the Childrens News, that Fred A. Storey, for several years a resident of Clarendon and formerly associated with Mr. Braswell in the publication of the Childrens News, will have editorial charge of the News.

Dr. King Vivion of S. W. University, Speaker at Gatesville P. T. A. Tuesday

The large crowd which attended the first 1933 meeting of the Gatesville Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday evening evidenced the high esteem which the Gatesville people have for Dr. King Vivion and also the fact that a renewed enthusiasm is being manifested in the organization for this year.

The meeting opened with music led by Mr. D. W. Diserona and Miss Mamie Sue Halbrook. The devotionals were given by Rev. Clarence Allen Morton, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

After a business session, during which Mr. Joe Hanna presided, Dr. Vivion was introduced by Rev. W. Ward, pastor of the local Methodist Church. In his introduction, Rev. Ward gave a brief resume of the work of Dr. Vivion, showing that he was well informed in the field of education.

Enlargement of the highway commission to five members would give the Ferguson a balance of power inasmuch as three of the five members would be named by Mrs. Ferguson.

Tom E. Foster, former Kilgore newspaper editor and business manager of the Ferguson Forum, acted as secretary. He interviewed applicants to see Ferguson, admitted some and postponed the meetings of others.

He said most of those who called at the Ferguson rooms today were summoned by Ferguson. Among the visitors were Col. Alvin M. Owsley and Larry Mills, both active workers in the recent gubernatorial race.

Leaders of the dry forces of Texas assembled here for a statewide convention of the United Dry Forces for Prohibition did not discuss their cause with Ferguson before he departed at noon for Austin.

G. M. Carlton Bros. & Co. Starts Last Drive in Big Quilt Business Sale

Temple Business Man May Be Named Highway Commissioner by Ferguson

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 5.—According to a newspaper report here Tuesday, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson's appointee to the state highway commission succeeding Coase Johnson of Tyler, whose term expires February 1, will be named chairman if his can be done legally, James E. Ferguson, husband of the governor-elect, said here today.

Judge W. R. Ely, Abilene, is the present chairman. Ferguson said lawyers differ as to whether the governor possesses the authority to designate a chairman. If it can be legally done, he said, the appointee will be named chairman.

The former governor declined to comment on who might be appointed. It is rumored here Frank Denison, Temple merchant and business man, would be named. Ferguson said the appointee would be a "good Ferguson man."

Ferguson said his wife's appointments would be announced Sunday. Mention of the legislature brought one comment from the former governor—that the Ferguson will adopt a "hands off" policy.

Justice of the Peace—A. Shirley. Commissioner, Pre. No. 2—J. R. Bates. Commissioner, Pre. No. 4—Dick Payne.

The following named officers who were re-elected to their respective offices, also took the oath of office: District Clerk—Pleas M. Post. County Clerk—C. P. Mounce. Sheriff—W. W. Hollingsworth. ## Coryell County Schools Progressing Nicely

In spite of the many financial problems that is confronting the schools of Coryell County are doing fine work. We have unusual good attendance and teachers, pupils, and patrons are bending every effort to make their school work go.

City Tax Payments Greater Than Last Year

According to City Secretary Fred G. Prewitt, the total amount of taxes paid into the city of Gatesville is almost $1,000 more than for the same time last year. This must be a guide that considerable more tax payers have paid their taxes this year than one year ago as the local tax rate is some what less than last year.

Coryell Makes First Entry in Stock Show

Pt. Worth, Jan. 5.—To Coryell County goes credit for making the first entry in the 1933 Northwestern Exposition and Fair Stock Show, which will be held next week. Manager John B. Davis said Friday that the 4-H Club of Coryell County has entered 11 showmen and seven showgirls in the boys and girls' baby lamb classes. George Harper of Flat is in charge of arrangements to bring the exhibit to Fort Worth.

Farm Aid Big Issue for New Year in House

Washington, Dec. 31.—An emergency farm relief plan designed to supply just the push needed to start the country toward prosperity will be the first important business of the House in the New Year.

More purchasing power for the farmer by upward $500,000,000 is the goal of its sponsors, who argue that this sum, going back into channels of trade, will start the wheels of industry moving faster and boost employment.

A domestic allotment plan, has been decided on to the job. It has the united support of organized farm leaders and Chairman Jones announced today his agriculture committee will report the bill to the House "not later than next Wednesday."

Bees: Buying Power "The bill is designed to increase the purchasing power of the farmer and thereby give buying power a start that will help lift the country out of the depression," Jones said.

Representative Rainey, the Democratic leader, said the bill will give the right of way as soon as it comes from committee and predicted its approval by the House, but the plan, which would pay producers a bounty on their share of domestic consumption, is not without opposition.

The allotment plan would be administered by the Secretary of Agriculture. In return for an agreement to reduce his production, the farmer would be entitled to a bonus on that portion of his crop that is consumed domestically.

This bonus would come out of an adjustment fund, raised through a charge on processing. The rate of the processing tax would be that amount necessary to give the commodity its prewar purchasing power in industrial commodities.

Husband Slays Wife and Child, Then Kills Self Hillsboro, Texas, Dec. 31.—Paul Kennedy, 34, filling station operator and former peace officer for the Santa Fe Railway at Wichita Falls, shot and killed his wife and 5-year-old daughter, Pauline, at their home Saturday night and then killed himself.

Bob Alford's family spent Sunday with Mrs. Annie Alford. Garner Plans to Hurry Action on Farming Relief Washington, Dec. 30.—Speaker Garner told the house today that farm relief legislation will be taken up "as soon as possible."

His statement came soon after Chairman Jones said the agriculture committee would hold a special meeting tomorrow to expedite the bill. Just before the week-end adjournment, Representative Small, the republican leader, questioned Garner concerning next week's program.

Garner said the house would start on the first deficiency appropriations bill an added: "It is to be hoped the agriculture committee will report its bill for agricultural relief. If it does it will be the purpose to ask a rule and take it up as soon as possible." Jones had expressed himself as hopeful the bill would be reported by the end of next week.

The Cook's Nook

To the Irons! Waffle Season is Here

Do you call them griddle cakes, flap jacks, battercakes, pour cakes, slappers, slajacks, or hot cakes? It doesn't really matter, because you are sure to call them good! Waffles, too, simply melt in your mouth, so get your griddles and your waffle irons, clip out these recipes, lay in a plentiful supply of syrup—and prepare to enjoy Autumn!

Waffles and cakes started life as breakfast delicacies but now they are served for supper and luncheon and even parties too. There are endless variations in making them, and they are the boon of every beginning cook.

To mix griddle or waffles, any mixing bowl may be used but it is convenient to use a special wide-mouthed pitcher with straight sides, from which the batter may be poured. The batter should usually be as thin as will keep its shape when cooked. Test it by pouring a little onto the griddle and baking. If it is too thin, add a little more flour; if it is too thick, add a little milk, and keep on testing until it suits you.

White flour is used for the standard recipe, but you may also use buckwheat or rraham flour. Sour milk cakes are more tender; this batter, of course, needs soda, while the sweet milk uses baking powder.

If the notion strikes you, you might try adding fruit to your waffle batter, or making chocolate waffles. Butter-milk waffles are made by using half buttermilk and half sweet milk, combined with 1-3 teaspoon soda and 2 1-4 teaspoons baking powder. You might even like cornmeal waffles.

Griddle cakes, especially cereal, breadcrumb and buckwheat cakes, are sometimes served with sauce or gravy. Some people like jelly or marmalade and on the special kinds (cheese, plum or vegetable hot cakes) a special sauce is used. Waffles are often served with whipped cream or even ice cream, but the favorite accompaniment is either the light or dark syrup. Here are the recipes to try on your own home griddles!

36 Griddle Cakes 2 1-4 cups flour 4 teaspoons baking powder 1-2 teaspoon salt 2 cups milk 1 egg beaten 1 tablespoon oil or compound 1 tablespoon sugar Mix and sift ingredients. Add milk slowly, then beaten egg and beat about a minute, until smooth. Add the lard and beat another minute, then cook on a hot griddle. If you like, substitute brown sugar for the white, or use syrup instead of sugar. Any griddle cake batter may be cooked in a waffle iron, extra oil being added to ensure browning.

Ten Minute Waffles 2 cups flour 4 teaspoons baking powder 1 teaspoon salt 1 1-2 cups milk 2 eggs, beaten separately 4 tablespoons lard or compound Mix and sift dry ingredients, add milk slowly, then yolks of eggs and lard; then fold in stiffly-beaten egg whites. Batter should be fairly thick (thick enough to show "a track" when spoon is drawn through it) before oil is added. Use sour milk, only 1 teaspoon baking powder and add 3-4 teaspoon soda, for a very tender waffle. Chocolate Waffles 3-4 cup flour 1 teaspoon baking powder 1-2 teaspoon salt 1-2 cup lard or compound 2 squares chocolate 3 eggs, beaten 1 cup sugar 1 teaspoon vanilla Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt and sift again.

Garner Formally Quits As Member of Next Congress

Washington, Dec. 31.—The resignation of Speaker John N. Garner as member of the Seventy-Third Congress from the Fifteenth District of Texas was forwarded to Gov. Ross Sterling Saturday. In his letter to the Governor, Mr. Garner points out that his election as Vice President makes it impossible for him to qualify as member of the House from the Fifteenth District.

His resignation is presented at this time, Mr. Garner wrote the Governor, so that the latter may take such steps as he deems proper for the election of his successor.

Garner's letter of resignation settles the matter as far as he is concerned, although the House General's department in Austin has held that Garner could not resign the office of Representative in the Seventy-Third Congress until he had taken the oath as such.

At the same time a dual election has been provided in the Houston district for filling the vacancy caused by death of Representative D. E. Garrett, in the present Congress and membership in the Seventy-Third Congress.

The resignation filed by Mr. Garner, according to the congressional view, creates as much of a vacancy in the Fifteenth District as death of Mr. Garrett did in the Houston district, and which the

Agriculture Bill Passed by House

Washington, Dec. 30.—The $100,000,000 agriculture department appropriation bill was passed by the house today and sent to the senate.

The measure was reduced $118,956 during debate by the house, and the appropriations committee had pared about $7,000,000 from budget estimates. The bill carries about $206,000,000 less than that of last year. Most of the reduction was in road funds.

The agriculture bill is the third of the 10 annual supply bills to be passed by the house this session. The $961,416,597 treasury-post office bill and the $43,332,904 interior department measure have already been sent to the senate.
