Hornets Are Losers In Game With Strong Clifton Team, 26-0

LOCALS BEST IN 2ND QTR.

Backed by a large crowd of their own townspeople, the Clifton High School football eleven ran rough shod over the Gatesville Hornets here last Friday afternoon, piling up a score of 26-0.

Outweighed and outplayed the local eleven at no time threatened the Clifton goal line, despite the fact that the Hornets did make eight first downs to the visitors twelve. Coach Ewing sent many substitutions into the line in an effort to check the powerful offense of the Clifton crew, but to no avail.

Scoring began in the first few minutes of play. Clifton kicked to Gatesville. One line play netted a short gain. On the following play, Bone playing his first game at the fullback position fumbled and Clifton recovered. In the next few plays the visitors carried the leather over for the first marker. The second touchdown came soon afterwards on a long pass.

In the second quarter the Hornet defense began to click and the local team played on even terms with their visitors.

A touchdown in the third quarter and another in the fourth gave Clifton their well earned victory and a second defeat for Gatesville in three games this year.

Lineup for Gatesville: I. end Hinesley, I. tackle Bauman, I. guard Weaver, center Culbertson, r. guard Chapman, r. tackle McDowell (c), r. end Ward, quarter Dickie, r. half Powell, I. half Chamlee, fullback Bone.

Substitutions: Myers, Sinus, Hair, Hobby, Lowrey, Bradford, Sasse, Morgan, Hoicomb, Rutherford.

Officials: Arnold, refrec; Harris, umpire; T. Jones, headlinesman; K. Jones, field judge.

ALVIN CLEMENTS IS NAMED POSTMASTER

Mr. Alvin Clements received word Tuesday of his appointment as postmaster at Copperas Cove, to succeed Marvin Brooks who has been postmaster here for the past twelve years. Mr. Clements expects to take over his new duties in the immediate future. He has been employed by the Texaco Company.

Mr. Brooks has made a good postmaster, and it is with regret that we see him leave his post and we hope he and his good family will remain in Copperas Cove.

Mr. Clements was a substitute rural mail carrier before his father's retirement as mail carrier and was a familiar figure around the post office.—Copperas Cove Crony.

Post Office to Close Wednesday Afternoon Says Postmaster Ford

AFTERNOON OFF EACH WEEK

Some two or three years ago, Congress passed a shorter work week law for Postal and other Government employees, whereby they were entitled to have Saturday afternoon off, thereby cutting their time to a maximum of 44 hours per week.

The Post Office Department, at that time, authorized postmasters to close their offices at noon on Saturday or, if found to be more practical, to close at noon on some other day during the week, in order that the shorter work week law could be placed in effect without additional cost to the Department.

"This office has heretofore managed to remain open every afternoon until 5:30 o'clock and granted compensatory time to employees without impairing the efficiency of the service and without additional cost. While, due to an increase in business, it is now thought advisable to exercise the right granted by the Department and close the post office one afternoon each week. Since it is deemed impractical to close at any time during the day on Saturday, we will close each Wednesday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock," according to C. W. Ford, local postmaster.

RODEO AT JONESBORO TO HOLD SPOTLIGHT

The rodeo will be staged under the managements of Messrs. Brown and Gilmore, widely known rodeo promoters of this section.

Four parties will be listed upon the ballot used in the General election in Texas on November 6, Democratic, Republican, Socialist and Communist.

E. J. Hix, of Houston, is running as an independent candidate for Congress from the eighth district and probably there are more who have certified their candidacy through various county clerks.

The voters may choose between four candidates for United States senator. They are Tom Connally, of Marlin, Democrat, the incumbent; U. S. Goen, attorney of El Paso, Republican; W. B. Starr of Cisco, Socialist, and L. C. Keel of Ranger, Communist.

Seeking to be governor of Texas are the following: James V. Alred, of Wichita Falls; D. E. Waggoner and George Edwards, of Dallas, and Enoch Hardaway of Breckinridge.

The 21 Democratic nominees for seats in the national house of representatives are opposed by eight Republicans, one independent and two Socialists.

8,010 BALES SHORT OF 1933, REPORTED

Census Report shows that there were 11,614 bales of cotton ginned in Coryell County from the crop of 1934, prior to October 1, as compared with 19,624 bales ginned to October 1, 1933, crop of that year, according to W. R. Goodson, special agent.

ICE CREAM SUPPER WILL BE FRIDAY FEATURE

There will be an ice cream supper and a free program next Friday night, October 19, at the school building at Flat.

The community quilt, which was made by the Ladies Club will be given away after the entertainment.

A large crowd is expected to attend this community affair.

Farmers Continue to Bring in Surplus Tax-Exempt Certificates for Pooling

Surplus cotton certificates continue to come in. Through last week there were approximately 260,000 pounds of cotton in surplus certificates submitted to the county agent for national pooling.

One hundred thousand pounds of cotton in surplus certificates were mailed to Washington Saturday and a like amount will be mailed tomorrow (Wednesday).

Of the 14,853 bales exemption certificates issued, from the 90 per cent in Coryell, the above figures show over 5,000 bales returned as surplus for national pooling.

It is understood that West Texas producers are holding certificates for use next year which is causing a shortage in the national pool, hence "we are led to believe that practically all certificates submitted from

DRESS SHOW TO BE EXHIBIT FEATURE

The Womens' Home Demonstration Clubs will hold their exhibit in the District Court Room in the Courthouse next Saturday, October 20th.

Clothing, canned goods, fresh fruits and vegetables will be on display, and a dress show will be staged at three o'clock.

All club members and visitors are welcome to come.

An all-day singing will be held at Hackney, 10 miles east of Gatesville on Coryell Creek, Sunday, October 21, according to G. A. Vandiver.

Everyone keep the date in mind and plan to see an interesting performance.

PIE AND BOX SUPPER AT SALTER SAT.

The Methodist Ladies of the Slater community are sponsoring a pie and box supper at the M. E. Church at Slater next Saturday night, October 20.

The proceeds will go to the church, and everyone is cordially invited to come.

this county will be sold," stated county agent Sherrill.

Recent advise from Washington indicates that the expense of pooling will not exceed 3c per pound and will probably be only 2c.

It is quite probable that the Bankhead Law will be continued next year since 90 per cent of the farmers have signed adjustment contracts which will be in force in 1935. Also, non-signers are now permitted to partake of the advantages of the 12c loan the same as 1934-35 signers.

Holders of option cotton may now receive $7.60 net advance and remain in the pool by bringing their "yellow" participation trust certificates to the county agent's office and making application for same.

Producers wishing to buy certificates to finish out their ginning may secure the exact amount from John A. Hughes, adjustment assistant.

Cattle
Five hundred additional head of cattle were granted to be purchased in Coryell County this week. This number will be prorated among all those producers who made application but whose cattle have not been inspected to date.

Terracing
The county agent has requested that all farmers who have terracing to be done please communicate with him in order to secure appointments.

NOVEL SUPPER WILL BE HELD AT HUBBARD

A novel affair in the form of a sock supper will be held at the Hubbard school at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening, October 19. All women of the community are urged to bring well filled socks. Funds derived will be used for repairs on the piano.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Drouth Still Hangs On in West Texas

Although drouth conditions are somewhat alleviated over Texas as a whole, there are still spots that have not been favored with rain and water shortage is more acute than ever. Pictured here is S. E. Fletcher, who lives three miles south of Santa Anna, in Central West Texas. Fletcher is forced to haul water not only for livestock, but for personal needs, and this picture may be taken as typical of certain Texas areas still drouth-stricken. (Texas News Photos.)

NOTICE: Any erroneous reflection upon the character or standing of any person or firm appearing in its columns will be gladly and promptly corrected upon calling the attention of the management to the article in question.

There appeared in the most recent issue of this newspaper a "Notice of water and light system revenue bond election" for the city of Gatesville, to be held on the 20th day of November. In simpler words, the citizens of Gatesville will soon have the opportunity of deciding whether or not this city shall own and operate its own light system in connection with the water system already in existence. Before the election is held there will be quite evident two distinct sides to the issue. As a matter of fact, lobbying on both sides has already sprung up. This newspaper is in no position at present to take either one side or the other. The proposition has come to the foreground without the usual advance propoganda and for that reason we are not entirely posted on the facts that should be considered in such a vital issue. We feel that it is only right and just that before taking any part whatsoever in the eventual controversy we should at least inform ourselves properly. And that should also be done in the case of each individual voter in order that he or she might render a decision that will be to the best interests of the city as well as to the individual voter.

In a desperate effort on the part of Gatesville to create a more friendly relation with Copperas Cove the opposite results apparently have been obtained. The feeling of the neighboring city has grown more bitter toward Gatesville than pleasant. We very seldom find residents of that section doing their shopping in Gatesville. Farmers who come here to get their AAA pay-off checks usually have them cashed at a local bank and head south without doing any trading to amount to anything with merchants of the county-seat. Copperas Cove on a previous occasion made a special effort to be excluded from Coryell County and they will continue with their efforts until Gatesville can make amends for whatever has caused the strained relations between the two towns. It is reported that on the Bell county and Lampasas county sides of Copperas Cove county AAA authorities send representatives to the remote communities in their respective counties with checks for the farmers on their cotton and livestock for which they have cooperated with the federal government in the various adjustment programs. In Coryell, however, Copperas Cove producers must come to Gatesville to receive their compensation checks. This is an unfortunate situation and whether or not it can be remedied such a condition adds oil to a nasty fire that continues to burn in the attitude of Copperas Cove to Gatesville.

It was recently pointed out by an official of the State Department of Education that a sad thing existing in the curriculum of public schools today is the fact that pupils are not taught enough of the principles of finance and investment. It might be well to also instruct students of the pit-falls of speculation as compared to the merits of sound investment.

World Comment

By JOE
BURNS

Dissatisfaction among the oppressed racial minorities of the old Austrian-Hungarian Monarchy brought about the assassination of its heir to the throne, Archduke Franz Ferdinand, and precipitated the great conflict known as the World War. Now, a member of the Serbian race has again taken his toll among the royal families of Europe—slaying King Alexander Kara-Georgevitche of Yugoslavia while on an official visit to France.

This fanatic, like his fellow countryman who fired that fatal shot on July 28 of 1914, had no personal grudge against his victim but hoped, by some desperate act, to free his people from the oppression under which they have been laboring since the peace treaties of 1918 put them under the domination of Serbia.

At the opening of the Great War Serbia had only 6,000,000 people crowded into about 20,000 square miles of southeastern Europe commonly known at the Balkans. But, as you know, Serbia was the first to arouse to wrath of the Central Powers at the beginning of the war. And, although she suffered accordingly throughout the four years of that conflict, she came out on top a victor when the Americans won the war for Europe on the Western Front.

At the peace, the Allies wanted nothing better than to recompense their friends with home nice slices of enemy territory. Serbia, therefore, was given two sections of territory to its north known as Groatia and Slovenia, peopled by Slavs, similar in race and language to Serbians. And Alexander Kara-Georgevitche was made King.

But the trouble came when the dominant Serbians decided that they would rule this people and not share their rule with them. Thus, for fourteen years and more 6,000,000 Gtroats and Slovenes have been smarting under the militant rule of Alexander and his Serbian army.

Alexander wished for his people to be united and happy. But, after party squabbles for years in which nothing was done toward uniting the complex people which made up the kingdom of Serbs, Croats, and Slovenes or Yugoslavia as it is called officially and for short, set aside the constitution in 1929 and assumed personal rule with the sincere hope that he could form one united race of Yugoslavia—in other words, that Croats would forget they were Croats and Serbs forget they were Serbs and all unite in forming one great Slav nation. But conditions came up which hampered Alexander carrying out these wishes—and Croats, Slovenes, Dalmatians and all continued to be dissatisfied.

Alexander lived under constant dread of assassination for years. He was a great ruler in the true Balkan style. His object in going to France, where he lost his life, was to make friends for his country and do his part in maintaining the peace of Europe. His 11 year old son, Peter, succeeds him to the throne. But, he died from the wrath of an oppressed people living under his rule.

FOOTBALL CHATTER

By TEDDY

Ewing's young Hornet squad met defeat at the hands of the strong Clifton Cubs Friday afternoon on the local gridiron. Clifton had what I would think a one man team. Wallace, Clifton's 170 pound fullback, paved the way for the Cubs on every occasion to score. Wallace did not have much speed, and why the Hornets could not stop him is more than this writer can understand. This inexperienced club of Ewings is learning more by playing this year than any coach could teach them in four years. They are still scared. Some of them haven't the natural ability to play football. If a man isn't born with the natural ability to play football, and the lore for football in his heart, a coach cannot make a football player out of him.

Several local fans have asked me to promote some football games for a local all-star team. An all-star team of last year, composed of former Hornets, did much for the Hornets of last year in the way of making enough money to get them sweaters. I see no reason why the same all-stars should not be permitted to play this year and help these Hornets if the high school authorities see that they will not have enough finances to buy sweaters.

Gatesville high will play West next Friday afternoon in West. The West team is somewhat like the locals, but will be there fighting until the last whistle has blown. The Hornets will again be playing on foreign soil and will have to show some improvements this week or it will be another black mark in the history of the Hornets.

Texas Farm Notes

Mason—Radishes, beans, carrots, beets, and lettuce have been planted in a fall garden by Helen Waller, garden demonstrator for the Grit 4-H Club in Mason county, according to Miss Leah Cox, home demonstration agent. Helen realizes her garden is a factor in reducing the grocery bill and is necessary for obtaining the type of food needed by her family so that meat and bread will not make up too large a part of their daily ration. Helen also plans to can some of her surplus products.

Rusk—With four tomato juice demonstrators in Cherokee county and several more planning to get their tomato juice standardized, the home demonstration club women of that county plan to furnish regular customers and two cafes with supplies of tomato juice next year, according to Miss Irene Price, home demonstration agent. Mrs. Tom Pugh, Mrs. J. T. Brown, Mrs. A. I. McIver, and Mrs. L. L. Rogers have had their tomato juice standardized by the home industries specialist of the Extension Service.

Bonham—That one good variety of cotton produced on a large scale will bring a premium that is worth seeking has been proved by the experience of J. R. Goss of Fannin county, according to V. J. Young, farm demonstration agent. "For the past three years I have grown Acala cotton on my farm of 4000 acres. I have always been able to get from $7.50 to $14 per bale premium on my cotton. I do not need to be convinced any further on this matter," Mr. Goss says.

Dumas—C. C. Brown of the Middle Well community in Moore county will have something besides a snow bank for his livestock this winter even though his feed crop failed because of the drought, according to W. K. Cottingham, farm demonstration agent. Mr. Brown has harvested several tons of Russian thistles for use as roughage. He cut them off just under the top of the ground with a oneway plow. He then raked and stacked them wetting them with water and sprinkling salt on them as they were stacked.

KIDNAPING CASE IN COURT

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Bruno Richard Hauptmann, the German carpenter accused of killing the infant son of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, will appear in Bronx supreme court tomorrow morning to fight extradition to New Jersey.

His attorney, James M. Fawcett, will argue for a writ of habeas corpus which, if granted, would nullify the extradition papers signed last week by Governor Herbert H. Lehman. If the writ is denied, Fawcett has declared he will appeal the decision, indicating a possible delay of a day or two before Hauptmann's removal from New York jurisdiction.

David T. Wilentz, attorney general of New Jersey, will argue against the writ, presenting witnesses to support his contention Hauptmann was present at the Sourland Mountain home of the Lindbergs near Hopewell, N. J., at the time of the kidnaping, March 1, 1932. —Temple Telegram.

This is our third week of school, and as most of the cotton is picked, our attendance is nearly one hundred per cent. Regular attendance means rapid progress in school work.

The students are working industriously to keep their work books up to present date. Rapid achievement is being made in daily class work too.

Sports

The senior boys will start practicing basket ball soon. We have been practicing volly ball and we hope to match a game in the near future. Our new play ground ball equipment has arrived and we are enjoying its use immensely.

Home Economics

The past week we studied fruits, their food value, and preparation as breakfast dishes. Our first lessons in food preparation have been very successful. We are predicting that there will be some good cooks in this Foods Class.

Grade News

The attendance in the first and second grades has been nearly perfect for the last week.

The third and fourth grades have been furnished some new work books. The children are eager to do their best work in them. We are all improving in everything and hope to progress more and more.

The fifth grade pupils are working hard on their spelling assignments, consequently their grades are improving. We enjoy working in our work books very much, some neat work is being done. We are also developing a new interest in reading.

The sixth and seventh grades are showing signs of improvement, and are advancing rapidly in their assignments. The past vacation dullness seems to have worn off and things are looking brighter.

Imagine!

ON TEXAS FARMS

Minnie Fisher Cunningham
Extension Service Editor
A. & M. College

Yard improvement demonstrators have one eye out for native shrubs as they go about the world these days. The plan is to mark them now while they can be identified, and transplanted them later.

Mrs. Hope Porter of the Maypearl home demonstration club in Ellis county did not find it hard to persuade her husband to put up pantry shelves to contain 1000 cans and jars of home-grown food after she had put up the products.

J. L. Gore of Bellefonte community in Wood county says that cutting the weeds in his pasture proved to be as profitable work as he did on his farm this year. Mr. Gore has a subirrigated area of one acre where he has a stand of carpet grass which has furnished grazing for three horses and two cows in spite of the drought.

The value of conserved moisture was proven again by Elmer Hitt in Garza county when he outwitted the drought by planting a cotton crop in the basin of what in ordinary years is a lake. Five acres of this are giving Mr. Hitt between three and four bales of cotton which he estimates is as much as the entire 32 other acres he planted will yield. With the help of the county agent he drained the excess water out to another portion of his farm and this caught by contoured rows was utilized to make a fairly good crop of maize.

Snyder—Three hundred and forty-eight pounds of peas, radishes, and greens gathered from the Scurry county relief garden in one week have provided 48 families with fresh vegetables, according to Miss Nellie Ward, home demonstration agent. A total of 516 pounds have been received by 80 families since the garden came into production. The garden is subirrigated with concrete tile made by workers on the relief roll under the direction of Miss Ward. Rape and turnip greens are available in large quantities and lima and pinto beans have a heavy crop now in the making and will soon be ready for use.

Panhandle—In spite of the drought, 18 varieties of vegetables are being grown in the garden of Mrs. Tom Epting of Carson county. Three years ago Mrs. Epting installed subirrigation lath in her garden of 30 by 60 feet at a cost of $2.40 and is still finding its use beneficial. On July 22 she planted 10 rows of pinto beans which came up on July 28, and on September 11 she exhibited some of the fresh beans at the Carson county home demonstration exhibit. At that time she had a bountiful supply for canning and for fresh use.

Mason—The "Torn Hat" painted by Thomas Sully more than 100 years ago and reproduced on the cover of a recent issue of a farm magazine has solved the picture problem for Mrs. Arch Reeves, bedroom demonstrator for the Ten Mile Home Demonstration Club of Mason county, she tells Miss Leah Cox, home demonstration agent. Mrs. Reeves chose a gold frame that blended with the colors of the picture. By cutting out the picture and framing it herself, she has a famous picture that means something to her and to her small daughter at a cost of only 29 cents.

Canyon—A one-way plow was used as a harvester on the ranch of J. J. Currie of Randall county by adjusting it so as to cut about one inch deep, according to W. H. Upchurch, farm demonstration agent. The plow was used on a field of sorghum which seeded with a wheat drill for hay but grew only a few inches in height. The stalks were so short that an ordinary rake would not pick them up. The stalks root and all, when cut by the one way plow were heavy enough to be picked up by a side delivery rake. The net result was the saving of 25 or 30 tons of good sorghum hay.

Galveston—The feed cost on a herd of 40 cows has been reduced by T. C. Scruggs of Galveston county by the use of fifteen acres of permanent pasture, according to J. C. Yeary, farm demonstration agent. The pasture is now in its fourth year and Mr. Scruggs says that the saving due to its use is practically 30 per cent or an average of about $30 per month.

MRS. C. E. GRANT

After an illness of more than three years, more than five months of which time she was confined to her bed, Mrs. Grant quietly passed away at 12:15 p. m. October 3, 1934 at the family home at Pancake. The remains were laid to rest in the Turnersville cemetery Thursday afternoon, surrounded by the family and a host of friends who mourn her passing. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. O. Jolly of Freeport, a former pastor and friend of the family, assisted by Rev. Van P. Morrison of Turnersville. Special music was arranged for the services. Flowers for the occasion were carried and arranged by six granddaughters, Doris Grant, Johnnie Shackles, Fleta Berry, Berta Griffith, Mabel Sellers and Irene Wilson. The six pall bearers were her grandsons, Donald Weaver, Harmon Sellers, Grady Carson, Emmett Grant, Weldon Grant and Edgar Wilson.

Mrs. C. E. Grant was born in Kentucky on December 28, 1864.

She moved to Texas when a small child and settled in the Hay Valley Community.

She was married to C. E. Grant at Gatesville, Texas on May 9, 1882. To this union twenty children were born, sixteen of whom survive her, four having died in infancy. Those living are Mrs. Bennie Wilson, Mrs. John Hamilton, Mrs. Geo. Roe, Mrs. Owen Lee and Mrs. Marvin Balch, all of Fort Worth; Mrs. Roy Johnson, Amarilla; Mrs. Albert Sellers, Pancake; Mrs. Ollie Raines, Pancake; Mrs. Kit Carson, State Training School; Mrs. Shafe Weaver, Ames; Mrs. Roy Grimland, Turnersville; Mrs. Hubert Mayhew, Turnersville; Mrs. Ted Liljedhal, Jonesboro; Charlie Grant, San Antonio; Jack Grant, Lubbock and Ed Grant, Pancake. Besides her companion and children she leaves fifty four grandchildren, thirteen great grand children, one sister and a host of friends and neighbors to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Grant was a devoted wife and mother and was ever ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. No night was ever to dark or to cold, no weather to bad but that she was ready to go far or near to help in any way she could. There is not a home in her community that she has not ministered to their needs, and she will be greatly missed by all her friends and neighbors. Mrs. Grant was converted in her early life and joined the Missionary Baptist Church and remained an active member to her death.
