Judge Cross Delivers Charge to Grand Jury As Dis't Court Opens

JANUARY TERM UNDERWAY

The regular January Term of the District Court of Coryell county began Monday morning, when the grand jury was empaneled and instructed as to their duties by Judge R. B. Cross.

The following gentlemen compose the grand jury for this term of court and, as explained by Judge Cross, for the next six months in the event it should become necessary to recall them in special session:

E. L. Cummings, Charley Franks, J. H. Brown, Carl Hinson, Jim McKelvain, Homer Painter, George Fritz, Ben West, Sam Barnard, Milton Graham, Bayne Perryman and Tom Reeves.

Mr. Ben West was appointed foreman of the grand jury by the court.

In charging the grand jury Judge Cross explained briefly the manner of their selection, and stated that they had been chosen by the jury commissions from the different sections of the county because of the confidence placed in them as being men devoted to the preservation of law and order and as being fair and just men.

Judge Cross said that he could think of no better guide to the grand jurors in the performance of their duty than the words of the oath they had just taken, that in his opinion no word could be taken from it without impairing its force and meaning and that none could be added to it that would improve it.

The oath taken by the grand jurors is as follows: "You solemnly swear that you will diligently inquire into, and true presentment make, of all such matters and things as shall be given you in charge; the State's counsel, your fellow's and your own, you shall keep secret, unless required to disclose the same in the course of a judicial proceeding in which the truth

Three Headliners Are Slated in Loop Games Here Tomorrow Night

PLAY AT CLIFTON TONIGHT

The Gatesville Hornets and Horettes basketball teams will go to Clifton today where they will meet two strong teams of Bosque county.

The four teams have met before—at Gatesville. In the boys game the locals were fortunate in winning by a very narrow margin, 33-27. The girls had less trouble however and severely trounced the Clifton fems.

Clifton will be playing at home tonight, which will make all the difference in the world perhaps. They will also be playing on their pet court, an enclosed and sheltered court on a dirt floor. The Gatesville girls stand a good chance of winning but the boys are likely to bow to the Clifton cagers.

Other games this week to be played here will be on Wednesday and Saturday nights at which time the Gatesville quint will meet Killeen, a team that defeated Temple 24-23 recently. The roaring Pearl Dragons, that have spit fire at competition everywhere, will take a big bite when they play the Baylor University Cubs. In the third game Evant will play Hamilton.

On Saturday the Evant boys and girls will play the two Ireland teams and Ewing and Flat club girls will play the third game.

PRESIDENT CONGRATULATES MR. AND MRS. POST

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Post of Gatesville, who recently celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary, were the recipients of a letter of congratulation last Friday from Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States. The letter, although it was typewritten was signed personally by the President in his own handwriting.

Mr. and Mrs. Post were married at Troy, Alabama, Jan. 8, 1885. They moved to Gatesville soon after their marriage and have resided here since that time. Mr. and Mrs. Post have six living children and seventeen grandchildren.

Mr. Post, local insurance man, was a printer during his early married life, having founded the Gatesville Post and the Star here. He was in the hardware business here for many years.

MUSICAL COMEDY AT GYM FRIDAY NIGHT

On Friday night, Jan. 18, at 7:30 the Gatesville Choral Club will present a musical comedy, "The Golden Trail." Everyone is invited to attend. The admission charge is very reasonable.

Carl Nesbitt Is Named Adjutant General by Governor-Elect Allred

BROTHER OF EARL NESBITT

Carl Nesbitt of Mineola, and brother of Earl H. Nesbitt, superintendent of the State Training School near Gatesville, received the appointment from Governor-elect James V. Allred to the position of Adjutant General of Texas.

Mr. Nesbitt was formerly a captain in the National Guard and state commander of the American Legion. He is now serving as superintendent of the public school system of Mineola.

Nesbitt was reared in Coryell county and has many friends in this section of the state. He will succeed Henry Hutchings as Adjutant General when the Allred administration takes office today. He has been a strong supporter of the Governor-elect.

According to the Associated Press, "Allred has said he regarded this appointment one of the most important he will make, since he plans a reorganization of the ranger force." The Adjutant General is commander of the Texas rangers.

Former Superintendent Of Gatesville Schools Becomes High Official

QUITS WACO AFTER 20 YEARS

B. B. Cobb, superintendent of the Waco schools, was elected executive secretary and treasurer of the Texas State Teachers Association, succeeding R. T. Ellis of Fort Worth, at a meeting of the executive committee in Austin last Friday, according to newspaper dispatches.

Mr. Cobb, formerly of Coryell county and Gatesville, was for several years superintendent of the Gatesville public schools, a prominent civic leader of this city. He has been head of the Waco schools for the past 20 years. Prior to his going to Waco to succeed John C. Lattimore, who was killed in an automobile accident, he was city superintendent of the Marshal schools, according to the Waco News-Tribune.

Mr. Cobb's resignation from his present post was to have been officially presented at a meeting of the school board last night. Although his contract with the Waco schools runs through next August it is likely that the board will release him at his request.

MRS. G. T. ROGERS

Funeral services for Mrs. G. T. Rogers, who died here Sunday night about 7:00 o'clock after a prolonged illness, will be conducted at the First Methodist Church at 2:00 o'clock this afternoon. Interment will be held at the City Cemetery.

Friends and Relatives Attend Last Rites of Coryell County Citizen

SERVICES FOR J. G. SADLER

Funeral services for John G. Sadler, who passed away Friday, were conducted at the family residence on Fennimore street in Gatesville Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with the Rev. Jas. L. McLean officiating. The body was interred in the City Cemetery.

A host of local and out-of-town friends and relatives attended the last rites of one of Coryell county's prominent citizens.

John Graham Sadler, 85-years old, was born in Tennessee May 22, 1850 and had been a resident of Gatesville 15 years prior to his death. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Surviving the deceased are his wife, and five children, Mrs. Edna McClain of Paris, Mrs. Effie Bromley of Los Animas, Colorado, Mrs. Ed Clark of Arnett, L. T. Sadler of Arnett and Bob Sadler of Murday, and one brother Dr. R. A. Sadler of Howe.

Pallbearers were: J. G. Clark, Walter Clark and Henry Clark of Lubbock, L. M. McClain of Merkel, Guy McClain of Merkel, J. G. Sadler of Big Springs, Weldon Sadler of Arnett and Rob't Sadler of Waco.

ANKLE INJURIES SEND TWO OUT OF PRACTICE

The championship hopes of the Gatesville High School boys' and girls' teams will be greatly impaired with the loss of two valuable players.

Guinevere Whisenhunt, star forward on the girl team, sustained a sprained ankle in the semi-final game of the Tournament with Pearl last Saturday. On Saturday night, in a game with Plainview, Hazen Ward, dependable Hornet forward, also suffered a sprained ankle.

The two players will likely be out of scrimmage for several days.

NAME OF LEGISLATOR HAS LOCAL AFFILIATION

Listed among the ex-students of Baylor University who are now occupying seats in the 44th legislature is Morris Roberts of Pettus.

Mr. Roberts has some interest in Gatesville and vice versa, since his wife is the former Miss Camille Gordon of this city, and daughter of L. B. Gordon, local druggist.

Baylor boasts of 10 exes on the roll of the Legislature.

Political events in Austria are reflected in lower industrial production figures of the country because many concerns suspended operations for several days.

The Pearl Dragonettes were officially crowned champions of the Invitation Tournament here Saturday night when they eliminated Rosebud in the final round, 23-21. The Pearl team came through to win a well earned title, playing consistently throughout the tourney. Miss Ozella Hargis' group of girls apparently has their eyes set on the county championship. Members of the team include Geraldine Preston, Iris Culp, Oweta Medart, Leona Freeman, Ann Hampton, Relon Mesely, Mildred White, Mattie B. Bynum, Dava Lee Chandler and Gladys Barington.

In the consolation flight, Plainview overpowered Coryell City 58-11, to win the championship of that division.

The Tournament got underway Friday morning with twelve teams registered for participation.

I will think—talk—write . . . Texas Centennial in 1936! This is to be my celebration. In its achievement I may give free play to my patriotic love for Texas' heroic past; my confidence in its glories that are to be.

There has been some talk in Gatesville of organizing a luncheon or civic club, to be composed of representative business and professional men of this city. There is no doubt but that such an organization is greatly needed here. One can look about in the neighboring towns of the same size and realize the great amount of good that these clubs are accomplishing. Some investigation has already begun and in nearly all instances the representative, progressive, men are ready to accept the movement. In some cases it has been reported that a few do not favor the club, thinking it would be in direct competition to the Chamber of Commerce or that, properly conducted, the C. of C. could accomplish everything that is needed in the way of civic development. This newspaper is hardly of that opinion. The Chamber of Commerce has a particular function to perform. A luncheon club could take care of emergency projects and with one particular ideal foremost could do a great job in building up the proper promotion for Gatesville and at the same time afford an outlet for business men of this city to convene in a social way as well as a business way.

There are going to be a lot of people disappointed when and if an old-age pension bill passes Congress. There have been so many rumors floating around that some folk seem to think that because they are past sixty years old the federal government is going to mail them a check for 200 "smackers" on the first of each month to take care of their needs. We would not be surprised to learn that a pension bill gets through Congress, and we are heartily in favor of some sort of compensation for the aged. But we WILL be surprised if there is an appreciable amount of cash involved in the bill. Our present knowledge is that the insurance for the aged will come in the form of credit and that's about all we do know. We hope that Coryell County folk who are past the 60-year mark will not be disappointed in the terms of a possible old-age pension provision to such an extent that they will make any undue noise when the terms are explained.

Judge Sam Russell set a precedent in Erath county last week when he called on a local minister to offer an invocation when district court convened. We can readily see many merits to such a procedure, besides the fact that Judge Russell is to be commended upon his reverence. The fact that the important task of weighing justice was opened with a prayer makes that very important undertaking assume the seriousness that it should have. We know of nothing finer to lend more dignity to the courts of the land.

A very fine editorial appeared in the McGregor Mirror last week emphasizing the buy-at-home idea, giving its advantages. The editorial pointed out that "every time a dollar kisses this community goodbye it goes to help the prosperity of another section." It was also pointed out that there is enough money in McGregor (for instance) to make everybody prosperous, provided it is turned over fast enough and passed from one citizen to another.

All government expenditures for the year ended June 30, 1934, totaled about $15,500,000,000 and the gross debt of all governmental divisions in the United States is approximately $47,000,000,000 according to estimates by the National Industrial Conference Board.

Federal expenditures in the last fiscal year are estimated by the board at $6,784,100,000, the largest for any peace-time year and about $2,051,000,000 more than in the fiscal year 1933. State and local governmental expenditures are estimated at $8,704,000,000 in 1932, the last year for which official figures are available.

Now amounting to $47,000,000,000, total gross public debt in the United States increased 496 per cent from 1922 to 1932, and 21 per cent from 1932 to 1934, the board estimated. Public debt totaled $5,572,000,000 in 1913, $33,220,000,000 in 1922 and $39,172,000,000 in 1932.

Analysis of State and local debts in 1932, the last year for which figures are available revealed that the total of $17,590,000,000 amounted to $141.27 per capita, an increase of 77 per cent over 1922. Florida had the largest debt per capita, $337.74. New Jersey was second with $278.61. New York third with $271.40 and Oregon was the only other State with a debt of more than $200 per capita. Georgia had the lowest per capita debt, $36.76.

The election of Coke Stevenson as speaker of the Texas House of Representatives does not mean that Allred's program will be blocked at every turn in the lower house. A hearty pledge of co-operation has been made by the Speaker and apparently Stevenson is willing to turn his back on the past and lend a sympathetic ear to Allred's legislative program. Rep. Franklin Spears of San Antonio, close friend of Allred and supporter of Stevenson in the recent speakership contest, disclosed last week that an Allred-Stevenson conference had dissipated all ill-will between the two and brought mutual assurances of co-operation and good will. Which bodes good for everyone concerned.

AAA payments to farmers for crop adjustments during the past 18 months were reported today to have reached a total of $580,772,564 Jan. 8. In addition the farm administration has expended $169,354,043 in removing surplus farm commodities on drought relief activities and in conserving seed supplies in drought states.

The oyster feed that has been talked about so much and the feed that this writer has been waiting to tangle-up with has practically reached its climax, and will probably be given the first of next for the local all-stars.

This writer wants to personally congratulate the local high school authorities on the stand they took regarding the controversy that arose between Pearl and the Gatesville school in the girls Tournament. They are to be commended.

The two Hornet teams, girls and boys, will journey to Clifton to night and play the two Clifton teams. The fems will probably come out with the big end of their score, but the boys are doped to drop a close game to the Bosque county cagers.

Wednesday night there will be three games played on the local gym floor that promise to be nip and tuck. The local Hornets will not find the going so easy when they meet the Killeen quint. Pearl will probably meet their worse defeat of the season Wednesday night when they take on the Baylor Cubs. Hamilton is doped to defeat the Evans lads.

The boys' Tournament which is to be held here on the 25 and 26 of this month promises to be of more interest than the girls' just closed. From what we gather the Hornets will be the only team in the county that will be represented in the Tourney.

The judge gave them in charge the entire Penal Code of the State of Texas, and stated that he did not wish to pick out any particular law and place more emphasis on it than the others, they they should investigate the violations of all laws, but that this did not mean that they should indict every person who might have inadvertently violated some trivial provision of the law without real criminal intent.

However, Judge Cross commented at some length on the prevalence of murder and other major crimes in the country at this time. "One of the things," he said, "that should appeal to you is that it should be our duty as citizens and officers to try as best we can to make human life more safe in America. Human life is entirely too cheap. In the city of Dallas in the first twelve months of 1934 there were seventy-nine murders committed, and I dare say that was more than was committed in England with the great city of London in 1934.

"In Texas in 1934 there were over five hundred murders committed, and in the United States more than twelve thousand five hundred every year, which means a little over one thousand every month.

Centennial Doubts May Be Cast Aside—Kramer

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 13.—(Spl.) "Whatever doubts may have prevailed in the minds of some people with respect to the celebration of the Texas Centennial in 1936 definitely may be cast aside" asserted Arthur L. Kramer, Chairman of the Master Planning Board of the Texas Centennial Central Exposition, in announcing that the Board would welcome suggestions aimed to assure the success of the Centennial's observance from any interested citizen of Texas.

"The celebrations of the Centennial may be accepted as an assured fact," continued Mr. Kramer, "and Dallas, as the site of the central exposition, is committed definitely to a program, which will insure an observance commensurate with the dignity and importance of the occasion.

"The Master Planning Board, of which I have the honor to be Chairman, recognizes the magnitude of the task before it; it recognizes that it must proceed rapidly in order that the finished exposition may be ready to welcome the multitudes, who will visit Texas in 1936.

"It recognizes also that this is to be a Statewide celebration and that there are many people in Texas, who for months and perhaps years have given intelligent thought to what phases of Texas history and development could be emphasized properly in the Centennial's celebration.

"The Master Planning Board therefore cordially invites, and will earnestly welcome, any suggestions made by any interested citizen of Texas. Manifestly, every suggestion made cannot be accepted. There are limitations of time and space and finances, which of necessity must be reckoned with; but every

ON TEXAS FARMS

Minnie Fisher Cunningham
Extension Service Editor
A. & M. College

In Jackson county, home demonstration club women report 57,647 quarts of food canned during 1934 by themselves and by the women they have helped. Estimated value is $12,166.15.

Six terracing schools by 237 men and boys were held by the Brown county farm demonstration agent in December. He has on file 98 applications for help in terracing, covering 8,973 acres.

Starting with two trench silo demonstrations and a depression, helped along by a drought, Brazoria county farmers and dairymen now have 75 trench silos ranging in capacity from 35 tons to 950.

Hog killing and pork curing demonstrations were held in Washington county at the farms of Messrs. Chip and Lewin Rout in December by T. H. Roensch and C. Hohn, county and district Extension agents, when 26 hogs were killed, cut and cured the Texas A and M way. About 30 people participated in the demonstration.

Delta county women had an eye to looking well and in their home demonstration work they completed 322 individually fitted patterns and made for themselves 6,245 articles of clothing valued at $9,140.63. New clothes closets to house their good clothes were reported by 20 women and 37 others improved the closets they already had.

Madisonville—By terracing 50 acres of land, Fred Seay of Madison county estimates that he has added $250 to the value of his farm for a cash outlay of $25, he told W. L. David, farm demonstration agent. Mr. Seay used the county grader and machinery to do his work and found that it cost him 411 cents per acre. The terraces were built 24 feet wide and 24 inches high. Since Mr. Seay has found out how little it costs him to have this work done, he plans on having more terracing done in the near future.

Kountze—Thirteen thousand five hundred pounds of wool were sold by 43 members of the local wool growers' association in Hardin county during December for $2,600, averaging $60 per grower, according to W. P. Barrett, farm demonstration agent. Through a cooperative agency, small growers in the county have been able to sell their wool for several cents above the price offered them individually by buyers. The wool was assembled at the central points in the county where it was weighed, branded and listed.

Gatesville—The cost of digging and filling a 60 foot trench silo was only $18.50 for an estimated amount of 25 tons of silage, W. T. Perryman, Coryell county, told D. W. Sherrill, farm demonstration agent. Mr. Perryman declared that the $18.50 covered the cost of labor and all other expenses, and that the estimated replacement value of the 25 tons of feed in the short pasturage and feed the silo is $250. "In a time of use of trench silos and the saving of feed that otherwise would be wasted is very important," Mr. Perryman says.

Canadian—An average of 11 eggs per hen was laid during November by 550 white leghorn hens belonging to Mrs. Smith Morehead of the Washita Home Demonstration Club in Hemphill county, while standard production for that month is only 9 eggs per hen, according to Miss Sadie Lee Oliver, home demonstration agent. The 509½ dozen eggs sold for $160 while the cost of production was only $82.65, leaving Mrs. Morehead a profit of $77.35 for the month. Her chickens are raised by methods outlined by the Texas Extension Service, and her expenses were for laying mash, grain, oyster shell, medicine, and lights.

Quitman—Doris Jeanne Holley, 11 year old bedroom demonstrator for the Cartwright 4-H Club in Wood county, has completely refinished her bedroom at a cost of $14.80 by doing all of the work herself with the help of her father and mother, according to Miss Katherine Kelly, home demonstration agent. Doris Jeanne planned her walls, used heavy building paper to cover them, and sewed sacks together and tacked them up to use as canvas. She repapered her walls and ceiling, finished her woodwork and floors which had previously been unfinished, and then enameled her furniture jade green.

Falfurrias—Sixteen Brooks county women taught to can by Mrs. J. M. Word, member of the Falfurrias Home Demonstration Club, have preserved $305.50 worth of meat and vegetables this year, according to Miss Louise Hogue, home demonstration agent. Meat canning was taught to 13 women, 11 of whom were not members of the home demonstration club. These 13 women canned 210 quarts of meat valued at $283.50. Vegetable canning demonstrations given to three women resulted in the canning of 110 quarts of vegetables valued at $22. In addition one non-club member taught by Mrs. Word made six quarts of orange marmalade valued at $2.10.

Inauguration of Allred To Hold News Spotlight

Austin, Jan. 13.—A week of great import stretched out before the 44th legislature today.

On Tuesday James V. Allred will be inaugurated governor in succession to Miriam A. Ferguson. All other things more or less revolve around that event.

Allred will deliver an inaugural address, expected to be short and to deal rather perfunctorily with affairs of the state. Later he will send a message to the legislature outlining the program for which he campaigned and which he hopes to see enacted.

Legislature Marks Time

Until the views of the new governor definitely are set forth, observers expect the legislature to mark time.

Much interest continues in the appointments Allred has made or will make. That he has been deliberate in announcing appointments is believed due to his desire to make sure of the right men for the right places. But the last riddles in this connection soon will be solved.

Carl Nesbitt of Mineola, former state commander of the American Legion, has been named adjutant general and will be in direct charge of the ranger force, which Allred proposes to reorganize thoroughly. Gerald Mann of Dallas has been appointed secretary of state, and Dave Nelson of Orange and R. H. Martin of Del Rio as members of the livestock sanitary commission.

Ely's Fate Unknown

Perhaps chief interest in other appointments centers on the fate of Judge W. R. Ely, member of the highway commission. Friends of Ely, acknowledgedly an expert on highways affairs, have urged his reappointment, while certain groups have sought his replacement. Allred has given no inkling as to his intentions.

The legislature has completed organization with the exception of creation of standing committees in the house and Speaker Coke Stevenson of Junction has held many conferences to ascertain what committees members wish to serve on. He has said he would grant the preferences of members insofar as possible.

200 Bills Introduced

A harmony meeting between the speaker and the governor-elect led many to believe a source of possible friction in the lower chamber had been eliminated. Until they met and pledged friendly cooperation for the welfare of the state, some feared Allred's support of Bob Calvert of Hillsboro in the speaker contest would have deleterious results on progressive legislation.

Nearly 200 bills were introduced in both houses in the first week, but they were only the beginning of the deluge. More than 2,000 were expected for the session of 120 days.

Of much interest was the announcement of Senator Claud Westerfeld of Dallas that he would introduce a measure repealing the poll tax as a requirement for voting. He would substitute a system whereby all citizens would be registered and allowed to vote free of charge. Rep. W. A. Shofner of Temple is proposing such a measure in the house.

SMALL NEBRASKA TOWN SPENDS $5,000 IN WORK

The Better Housing Chairman for Rogers, Nebr., population about 125, reports that approximately $5,000 has been spent in painting, repairing, and modernizing in his community since the campaign was started—approximately $40 per capita.
