Rains which fell over Coryell county Saturday and Sunday were climaxed early Sunday night with a northerly blizzard that drove the mercury down to 12 degrees by 8:00 o'clock Monday morning.

The rain came early Saturday afternoon and continued off and on during the the night and all day Sunday. Toward dusk Sunday evening the rain stopped, followed by snow clouds appearing overhead with a strong wind coming out of the north and continued colder until Monday morning. The blustery winds began to die down toward noon yesterday and the sun came out in full as the clouds disappeared. Cattle in this section were looked upon to suffer the most from the drastic change of weather.

Townpeople were inconvenienced yesterday morning with frozen water pipes and many were forced to walk to town when they were unable to start their cars.

Roosevelt Wants Garner For Mate Again in 1936

Washington, Jan. 20.—Word was quietly passed today that President Roosevelt wants Vice President Garner to team up with him again for the 1936 presidential election.

This information dashed cold water on the aspirations of some half dozen prospective candidates.

There had been talk among pronounced liberal democrats in the administration about getting Garner replaced either by Secretary Ickes or Wallace.

To clear up the matter, some democratic leaders sought the president's attitude. Any doubt about Mr. Roosevelt wanting Garner to be his running mate has been definitely dissipated.

With this development, political interest turned to the prospects of leading senators of both parties to return in 1936.

Besides the floor chieftains Senator Robinson of Arkansas, democrat, and Senator McNary of Oregon, republican—many of the best known members of that branch—32 in all—will be up for re-election.

Senator Borah, Idaho republican independent, who has seen the longest service in the senate, and Senator Carter Glass, Virginia democrat, who recently celebrated his 77th birthday anniversary, are veterans whose terms expire at the end of congress. Borah entered the senate in 1907.

Already Governor Ben C. Ross of Idaho, has indicated he would seek the democratic nomination to run against Borah.

Senator Huey P. Long of Louisiana, plans to seek the presidency in 1936, having definitely broken with the Roosevelt administration. However, he is taking no chances on not being returned to the senate.

FIGHT ON RATS WILL BEGIN TODAY

IRELAND WELL PUTS ON NIGHT SHIFT

J. S. Pugh reports that the Pugh-Pace Doyle No. 1, being drilled near Ireland in the southeast part of Hamilton county, has put on two crews and drilling is going forward at a more rapid pace now. The hole is in perfect condition and the formations are running true to geology, he stated, and they are still having frequent showings of oil and gas.

J. T. Payton, an oil man of Dallas, has joined the Pugh and Pace forces financially.

Drilling will continue night and day and the well will be completed as soon as possible. It is reported that the price of leases are advancing and quite a bit of activity in trading is going on in that immediate territory.—Hamilton News.

which are so often hard to fight on account of their migrating instincts, going from one part of town to another.

It is estimated that within thirty days the city will be void of rats and mice. Relief labor will be utilized to aid Mr. Lindsey in his sanitation program.

Property and Poll Tax Due Before February 1 City Election in April

AUTO LICENSES NEXT MONTH

Many Coryell county residents neglect paying their poll tax on off-election years only to regret it when many vital questions to be voted upon arise.

All poll tax must be paid by January 31 if eligible voters expect to participate in any election this year. Payment of poll taxes gives the individual the right to exercise his or her citizenship.

In order to avoid a penalty, the 1934 property tax must be paid before January 31. The payment of automobile licenses will not start until February and will continue through March.

D. H. Culberson, county tax assessor-collector, and his corps of assistants will be in position to serve the taxpayers of the county. City taxes will be paid at the City Hall in Gatesville. The election of mayor and two alderman for Gatesville will likely occur in April as heretofore.

VISITORS INSPECT G'VILLE NEW GYMNASIUM

The popularity of the Gatesville High School gymnasium has spread beyond the bounds of Coryell county, according to what Sup't Frank L. Williams has to say.

On Wednesday of last week members of the Hamilton school board accompanied by a group of business men made a special trip to Gatesville to inspect the local gym. On Thursday a group of eight men from Cameron, including the superintendent of the Cameron schools and the athletic director, Carrol Wood, paid a similar visit to the Gatesville schools. On Friday a group from Lampasas including members of the board and representative citizens, ten in number, drove to Gatesville to inspect the new gymnasium.

According to Sup't Williams there have been several other parties from Central Texas towns and cities here for the purpose of studying the details of the new building.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

We sympathize wholeheartedly with every effort to prevent war. Nobody, except perhaps a very few ambitious military men, a little handful of political leaders who conceivably might intrench themselves in power by means of a successful war, and—perhaps—a few cold-blooded men who figure that war would put money in their pockets, wants this nation or any other nation to go to war.

The profit motive should be held in check but we do not agree that we should make no preparation for self defense, merely because somebody might make a profit in selling guns, airplanes, poison gas and other war material to the government. The American Legion is right about that.

"In time of peace prepare for war" is a saying as old as civilization itself. Human nature hasn't changed much, if any, in ten thousand years. One never knows when a spark may touch off the warlike spirit, and make some of the very folks who don't want war willing and eager to fight.

Our nation isn't to pick a quarrel with any other. But unless we are reasonably prepared to defend ourselves, some other nation may try to pick a quarrel with us. The best insurance against war is the widespread knowledge that we are equipped to fight if necessary, in defense of our national rights, because we are in a world that is constituted largely of jealous, selfish and self-seeking nations. —Mart Herald.

The old proverb has it that "God helps those that help themselves." It applies to communities as well as to persons. A good many people are always looking for some prosperity to come to them from outside or from the efforts of people other than themselves. They fail to consider the things they can do to make a community more prosperous.

There are two things that everybody can do to promote the progress of his home town. The first thing is to spend his money at home. The second is to keep his home place in perfect order. If he hasn't the money to repair it as he would like to, he can at least clean up every particle of refuse, and it will cost him little when summer comes to beautify it with flowers. —Crawford Sun.

If the young people of this generation could realize that a life of ten years fully lived is worth more than one fifty half lived, more of them would put forth the great efforts of preparing themselves for the period left them. It makes no difference whether life is really started at twenty-five or fifty if we are not going to do anything worthwhile anyhow. If we are going to do something, the sooner we can get ready for that something the more good we can accomplish. —Lampasas Record.

Ear muffs may be out of vogue but they are certainly not out of reason in just such weather as this. In fact, we wish there was such a thing as a "nose muff."

World Comment

By
BURNS

"We exaggerate misfortune and happiness alike. We are never either so wretched or so happy as we say we are." —Balzac.

KARL M. KAHN, noted Washington correspondent, reports a move on the part of Northern and Western Democrats to squeeze Vice President Garner out of renomination in 1936. Their argument will be that the South has more than its share of high places with Arkansas' Robinson as senate majority leader, Tennessee's Byrns as speaker of the house, Alabama's Bankhead as house majority leader. Mr. Kahn predicts that their planning is a waste of time and effort. Mr. Roosevelt will name his running mate in '36, he says, and if he wants Garner, the vice presidential nominee will be Garner.

The actual outlay for national defense came to $479,000,000 in 1934. $612,000,000 is allotted for the current year and it is estimated $792,000,000 will be spent in the next fiscal year. This can be compared with the $790,000,000 France is spending on national defense for this year and $400,000,000 being spent on armaments in Japan.

Some more about the national debt. It has been pointed out that the total envisaged for the end of the fiscal year 1936 is over $34,000,000,000—a tidy little sum. And unemployment will not be wiped out by any means at the expiration of this period, necessitating the expenditure of more billions for relief. The most vital question is the one of carrying and retiring a debt of, say $40,000,000,000. Yet the costs of paying interests on that debt, plus amortization charges, and with the present level of normal governmental expenses, would still be well under the amounts which have been collected in this country under war taxes. The sum would be burdensome. Yet, when considered with the fact that the national income exceeded $80,000,000,000 in the boom years, and when contrasted with the rates of taxation and debt in Great Britain and some other nations, the load could hardly be called unbearable.

$636,000,000 will be spent for retirement of the national debt this year.

The United States will not enter the World Court by a unanimous decision of the Senate. Senators Johnson, Borah and La Follette have formed a strong opposition bloc against entry and are prepared to fight the President's proposal throughout the coming debate on the question. The World Court—popular designation for the Permanent Court of International Justice—is a permanent tribunal for the judicial settlement of international disputes, which sits at the Hague, Netherlands. The Court was formally opened Feb. 15, 1922.

The public has not expressed its opinion on the question. And yet, it will be a momentous step which the government will take in entering the Court. It will be in the cause of peace—and it will undoubtedly strengthen the International tribunals, such as the World Court and the League of Nations. In doing so, the U. S. should however firmly set its mind against participation in future World conflicts.

"Thanks to my terraced and contoured land I raised enough feed to winter my cattle and won't have to sell them to the Government," said E. A. Oberst, who lives five miles southwest of Canyon, to W. H. Upchurch, farm demonstration agent of Randall county. This feed enables Mr. Oberst to avoid sacrificing a herd that he has spent years developing.

A Nieman, Pecos county, planted 45 acres of cotton which a July hail storm demolished. He plowed under the cotton plants and late in July planted hegari which produced an average of five tons per acre at a cost of $11 per acre. Mr. Nieman sold his crop at the rate of $17 per ton, netting a nice profit.

Peach trees that are going into new orchards on land released from cotton in Van Zandt county are being protected from rabbits by the use of paper cylinders. Elbertas and Georgia Belles are favorites for planting in this county and 2100 more trees went into the ground in December.

C. H. Millinger of Llano is installing several hundred feet of concrete tile for subirrigation around his home. Mr. Millinger secured the tile from Walter Roberts, a 4-H club boy of Llano county who learned to make it as a part of his club work undertaken under the supervision of D. D. Steele, Llano county agent.

Raising 720 pound of cucumbers, subirrigated with tile, and bringing 65 gallons of them for pickles, encouraged Mrs. Paul Johnson of Hale county to lay another 75 feet of concrete tile for subirrigation over which to plant water melons. Results were 70 large sweet juicy water melons and many smaller ones.

Channing—Demonstrations in Hartley county in the use of concrete tile for subirrigation have been so satisfactory that the work. The tile was made and laid with relief labor, and to his general supervision of Duke farm demonstration agent. In 1932, according to E. R. R. tres planted on the school year 800 feet of tile to water the recently completed the laying of the Channing High School has the school furnished the material. Tile was installed on two residential lots in Channing in 1932 for the irrigation of trees, and both have proved satisfactory. Mr. Duke says.

Muleshoe—A net profit of $2.88 per bird was made by Levi B. Churchhill, Bailey county turkey demonstrator, on his turkey flock this year after all expenses were deducted, according to J. B. Waide, Jr., farm demonstration agent. The turkeys were charged market price for all feed raised on the farm, and 50 cents per hour for all time spent in taking care of them. The cost of raising the birds, including labor, feed and cost of poults was $1.82 each and the gross return was $4.70 per bird. No birds were sold for breeders. The birds were all farm dressed, and more than 98 per cent were graded U. S. prime by government licensed graders.

Belton—"Fifteen acres of land terraced in September 1933 and planted to oats made better than an average crop, and I have noticed a 25 per cent improvement in the land as well," John W. Blankenship of Bell county told George P. McCarthy, farm demonstration agent, in explanation of the new terracing done on the Blankenship farm in December. "Immediately after the terraces were constructed we received a six inch rain, and I was pleased to find that my terraces did not break in any place. In this one rain, the old washes in the field also filled in considerably," Mr. Blankenship added.

Huntsville—A total of 4,300 cans of food have been preserved during the year for 35 Walker county families by Mrs. R. L. Williams of the Clines Prairie community in addition to food put up for use by her own family, according to Miss Frances Punched, home demonstration agent. Mrs. Williams canned for her own family, for the families of her two children, and received 645 cans toll for services rendered in the canning plant in the community. She has traded canned goods for different supplies and has used some to pay a doctor bill and a hospital bill.

Edinburg—A store room was converted into two bedrooms, three storage closets were built, and her own room was improved by Mrs. J. W. Haggard, bedroom demonstrator for the North Pharr Demonstration Club in Hidalgo county, according to Miss Mattie Wilroy, home demonstration agent. In improving her own room, Mrs. Haggard set back a partition and made the room four feet larger. In the two additional bedrooms, she finished the floors, walls, woodwork, and ceiling. "When you get started improving a room, you just can't find a place to stop," Mrs. Haggard said.

Eldorado—A decorative design worked out in the refinish of the worn linoleum on her floor was used by Mrs. Hugh McAngus, cooperator in the Schleicher county Home Demonstration Club, to make her linoleum look new and attractive, according to Miss Lora Farnsworth, home demonstration agent.

Mrs. McAngus gave her linoleum two applications of under coat paint, added two coats of tan floor enamel, and then put on one coat of clear varnish. Following this, she worked out a floral design in green enamel.

De LEON FARMER HAS TWO PRIZE RELICS

J. B. Sanders, De Leon Route 2 farmer, has in his possession two relics which he prizes for their tragic meaning to his family, according to the De Leon Free Press. They are two "minnie balls," large-size rifle bullets which a Yankee soldier fired into the body of his father, W. H. Sanders, during the Civil War.

The elder Sanders was not killed, the balls striking him in the leg, making flesh wound. He died at De Leon in 1914.—Comanche Chief.

Utilities and Advertising

(From the United States Daily News)

Power gas utilities have spent as high as $30,000,000 a year on advertising, the federal trade commission reports.

The commission seems to think there is something reprehensible, or at least suspicious, in that. But why should there be, necessarily? Gas and electric companies have service to sell and most local distributing companies also sell appliances. Considering the enormous volume of this business in the United States, $30,000,000 for advertising probably isn't such a disproportionate item as it might seem at first glance. Certainly the utilities have as much right to advertise their service and merchandise as any other type of business.

But what mainly concerns the federal trade commission is the fear that large advertising expenditures are gaining the power and gas companies undue influence over newspapers and magazines. The report goes into considerable detail concerning that aspect of the matter. Apparently the commission is particularly alarmed over the amount of free space utilities manage to get in the newspapers.

It is true that the larger power and gas companies have their publicity departments; but so, for that matter, does every industry of any consequence. The mails are burdened every day with tons of publicity hopefully addressed to newspapers. Most of it is promptly consigned to the waste basket, but some finds its way into print.

The fact is that any enterprise which comes into contact with the lives of a great many people is bound to originate legitimate news. Any editor who resolved to keep his paper's columns entirely free of news which might be construed as utilities propaganda would soon find his resolution colliding with his judgment of news values. Members of the federal trade commission should read the chapter on press agency in Stanley Walker's book "City Editor," wherein he tells us how the National Electric Light Association arranged the semi-centennial celebration of Edison's discovery of the incandescent light. The president of the United States, Henry Ford and other first-string dignitaries participated, but fundamentally it was a publicity stunt for the electric industry. Nevertheless, it was also news, and any newspaper that ignored it would have looked silly.

It would be foolish to deny that the domestic utilities lose no opportunity to put in a lick against public ownership; naturally, since their interest is opposed to public ownership. There are conditions under which anti-public ownership propaganda is a proper matter of official inquiry—as when it is intruded into the public schools under the guise of instruction. But fairness demands that those who oppose public ownership should be accorded the same opportunity to present their case as is accorded those who favor it. The facts fail completely to sustain the implication in the trade commission's report that liberal advertising expenditures are a factor in regimenting public opinion against public ownership. Ordinarily the reverse is true; a public official who makes a speech advocating public ownership can get columns of free newspaper space by virtue of his position where an advertising utility company is fortunate to get inches.

"The Golden Trail"

By Brack Garrett Curry

The Gatesville High School Choral Club under the direction of Miss Mamie Sue Halbrook, presented "The Golden Trail," a musical comedy of three acts, Friday evening in the gymnasium. The setting was at a small inn in central California, where a Spanish nobleman and his entourage, a band of robbers, a group of '49 miners, and the members of an emigrant train, took lodging. Appropriate stage scenery and beautiful lighting effects added to the brilliant acting of the cast. Waldine Wharton ably filled the part of Margarita, a beautiful Spanish senorita, who was the object of Harold Chamlee's love, a daring pony express rider. Albert Dickie, Montmorency Puddington, brought a deluge of laughs during the presentation in his part of the clown, and drew the prize for the best acting. Anita Lowrey, Queen of the Mexican Dancers, was really a queen to the audience with her solo "A City of Mexico," and the accompanying dance. Earl Martin, James Evans, Belva McCoy and Wendell Lowrey also took leading parts and ably contributed their talent to the play.

Despite the unfavorable weather conditions, a reasonably large crowd witnessed the operetta and receipts totaled forty-four dollars.

The full cast of characters is as follows:

Don Carlos Alvarado, Earl Martin; Montmorency Puddington, Albert Dickie; Senorita Margarita Alvarado, Waldine Wharton; Modeste, Belva McCoy;

Make Plans for Dams in Central Texas Watershed

The construction of a large number of small dams, in addition to the 12 major projects impounding from 5,000 acre feet of water upward, and costing from $100,000 to a million dollars, is the latest of the proposed Brazos valley conservation and reclamation program, John W. Norris, chairman of the state board of water engineers, said today. Many of these dams would be built in central Texas, in Navarro, McLennon, Coryell, Lampasas, Burnet, Bell, Williams, Milam, Falls, Limestone, and Leon counties.

Several have already been plotted along the course of the Navasota, in Leon and Limestone counties. More would be built upon the lower San Gabriel, and Brushy creek, in Williamson and Milam counties.

ROVING AMBASSADOR TALKS CENTENNIAL FOR U. S.

Dallas, Tex. Jan. 20. (Spl.)—Mrs. Lucille Bryan Harrison, former Texas newspaper woman and now a publisher in Danville, Ill., will be the first roving ambassador abroad for the Texas Centennial celebrations of 1936.

Mrs. Harrison will sail from San Francisco soon on a world tour and has volunteered to contact press and civic agencies over the globe in the interest of Texas' commemorative project. She formerly worked on newspapers in Waco and Fort Worth.

Several would be built upon the Yegua in Washington and Burleson, Brazos and Lee counties. The Piluxi in Hood and Erath counties is scheduled for several, and the smaller tributaries of such streams as the Nolan, Salado in Bell and Bosque in McLennan are cited for large amounts of improvement work. Acquilla Creek, in Hill county would have one dam; and No-and's river in Johnson is marked for several.

Norris issued an urgent request to residents of the watershed to send in sites for prospective small dams, with the idea in mind of his engineers investigating and incorporating these sites into the Brazos bill within the near future.

"HUMAN ADDING MACHINE" FREED FROM PRISON

Pittsburgh.—The man "who once raced an adding machine and won" will be freed on parole from the Western penitentiary soon.

Eugene H. Kuhn, the "human adding machine," was sentenced to 36 to 40 years in 1919 for killing his estranged wife's parents. Recently Gov. Gifford Pinchot granted clemency and Kuhn will soon be freed.

His mathematical ability repeatedly amazed officials at the penitentiary. He can add two columns of figures simultaneously and can divide, multiply and subtract large sums entirely "in his head."

He can easily do the work of three clerks. Penitentiary officials said he has never taken any educational courses in mathematics.—Ex.

DESIGNS FOR 4 BUILDINGS ALREADY COMPLETED

Dallas, Tex. Jan. 20. (Spl.)—Tentative designs for four of the proposed permanent structures to be erected here for the central exposition to be held in connection with the series of historical celebrations throughout the state in 1936 in commemoration of the Centennial of Texas independence, have been completed. There are the hall of agriculture, the Hall of Education, the Hall of Natural Resources and the State of Texas Building. These it is proposed to erect contiguous and complementary to one another.

The Hall of Agriculture will have sections for grain, cotton and citrus fruits with ample provision for each division of these products. Statewide angles are given full consideration in the proposed designs and every part of Texas and every angle of its development is to be accorded recognition.

The Hall of Education will allow for representation of the common schools, high schools and higher institutions of learning. Provision will be made for exhibits from all over the State with ample room for laboratory and class room presentations. This hall will be surmounted by a globe and a campanile tower that may be fitted with carillon bells.

The Hall of Natural Resources will afford space for exhibits of the vast gifts bestowed upon the State by Nature, including granite, coal, oil, sulphur, gas and others.

The State of Texas Building will be monumental in character, embracing a rotunda where will be exhibited statues of the Fathers of Independence and other pioneers figuring notably in Texas' early history. In its recognition will be accorded each county of the State and there will be a reception hall to be used in welcoming dignitaries to the exposition.

Romantic and historical sides of Texas' progress will be emphasized in the State Building and provision will be made for stressing features of various sections of the State as well as those of individual counties.

The Southwestern Conference sent its third football mentor into larger football circles. Coach Ray Morrison, who for the past thirteen years has led the S. M. U. Mustangs to 82 victories, 37 defeats, and 20 ties, as head coach of that institution. Morrison is rated as one of the best coaches in the southwest today. He recently accepted a 5-year contract with Vanderbilt. Prior to Morrison's move Dina Bible went from A. & M. to Nebraska a few years ago, and Francis Schmidt turned in a successful season at Ohio State the past year.

Abe Barnett's Baylor Cubs had the privilege of handing the local Hornets their first defeat of the season last Friday night in Waco. Although the locals met a 24 to 11 defeat, they evidently played brilliant basketball. If and when Gatesville plays Pearl, the writer would be willing to wager a little on the Hornets from the showing they made against the Cubs.

It seems that this writer will never get to partake of those oysters that have been promised. If the cold weather continues, local all-stars will have to wait an indefinite time before the oyster spree.

The Hornets added another game to their long line of victories Saturday afternoon by defeating the Methodist Home quint of Waco 64-16.

The games that hold the spotlight for the week are to be played on Wednesday night. Southwestern University will send their "B" team to this city to play the local Hornets. The Gatesville lads will probably meet their second defeat of the season.

Dr. Otis C. Ray will put his team, the Merchants, against Aleman, a quint that can handle a basket ball like a biscuit.
