TOURNEY TO CONTINUE

Tonight when the County Basketball Tournament continues and the semi-finals are to be played, Pearl and Gatesville are slated to play the first game. Pearl defeated Turnersville Tuesday night 23 to 27.

The winner of this game will probably win the county Tourney and will likely enter the District Tournament held in Waco on Friday and Saturday, February 22 and 23.

Fans who have long waited to see these two teams pitted against each other will have the opportunity of seeing one of the best and most thrilling games ever to be played on the local gym floor.

Finals Next Week

Tourney games will continue tonight, and the finals will terminate next Thursday night, February 14.

I had the pleasure of seeing something very rare the other night. The Hon. County Attorney, Floyd Zeigler, called my attention to Marion Burleson being in town without his usual accomplice, Charley Whigham seen in town greeting friends Thursday. Dr. Moore and R. H. Williams of the CCC camp at Neff Park were pleasant callers to the News' office this week. John Reesing and Rufus McKinney seemed to be creating quite a bit of interest fixing their scales Thursday. Roland Bone "hits-me-up" about buying a ticket for the Firemens benefit show. I saw so many taking in the Trades Day even on the Square Wednesday, but it would be unfair to mention some and not others. Billy Nesbitt seems to be always in smiles, I wonder if he ever has the "blues." Lorenza Brown telling me not to miss that "colored" basketball game Tuesday night. The "skeets" at the City Drug certainly "take-on" over Mrs. Raymond Ward's young son—and who wouldn't?

MRS. JUDGE CROSS VERY ILL

The many friends of the family are grieved to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Judge R. B. Cross.

She is suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia, but all that medical skill can devise is being done for her.

Meetings on Wednesday Settle Many Necessary Details for New Church

MUCH PROGRESS IS MADE

Much progress in the building movement has been made in the last two weeks. Committee meetings are often and in earnest. Tuesday morning at ten o'clock sections of the committee began active work and continued until afternoon. At two o'clock the committee on architectural plans met and disposed several questions which had arisen concerning building plans. These difficulties were disposed of by the general meeting and then such plans as were presented by the Architect were considered. Mr. Birch D. Easterwood, regularly employed architect.

The meetings of the day settled many necessary details and left the Plans Committee and the Architect able to make progress intelligently. As the immediate plans committee agrees upon designs these are submitted to the whole committee and the final blue print will be submitted to the Church in conference before its adoption and the contract is let.

Serious study now saves useless expenditures and insures a building that will take care of current needs.

A meeting of the finance committee was held on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. This committee is taking its responsibilities as a serious business proposition. It is composed of men and women who are accustomed to large problems.

CORN-HOG CONTRACTS TO BE SIGNED UP SOON

Committeemen will begin taking Corn-Hog contracts one week from to-day. The sign up will begin February 15 and a schedule of sign-up days in each beat will be announced in next week's paper. Committeemen are studying the rules and regulations pertaining to the 1935 Corn-Hog Contracts and will begin taking contracts as above stated. The 1935 Corn-Hog Contract calls for a ten to thirty per cent reduction in corn acreage from the past 1932-33 corn acreage average and a ten per cent reduction of 1932-33 average pigs sold for market. The payments will be 35c per bushel on the acreage reduced and fifteen dollars per head on the ten per cent hogs reduced.

NOTICE TO WHEAT CONTRACT SIGNERS

Since the Wheat acreage this year (1935) must be between 54 per cent (the minimum) and 90 per cent (the maximum) of the base acreage, any producers whose wheat froze out must come to the County Wheat Association's office in order to get acreage certified after measurement before any wheat is plowed under.

Twelve or fifteen counties in central Texas will be represented at this meeting of teachers, which is a division of the Texas State Teachers Association.

B. B. Cobb of Waco is president of the organization.

Local Colored Team to Be Pitted Against Like Club From McGregor

BOTH HAVE STRONG CLUBS

Among the basketball games to be played in the local gym the coming week is a game between the local all-star colored boys and a like team from McGregor. The two teams have met here splitting two games.

The locals have won several games this year, among the teams suffering defeat at the hands of the colored crew are Vailey Mills, Crawford, and the McGregor team, that will be here Tuesday night to get revenge on the local club.

Recently the colored quint from Temple journeyed to McGregor and handed that team a 17-13 defeat.

Local fans are promised a thrilling as well as a spectacular game Tuesday night when the two teams make their first debut on the local gym floor.

C. C. C. CAMP AT NEFF PARK PUBLISHES PAPER

The Civilian Conservation Camp located at Neff Park, near McGregor, is publishing a weekly paper. The bulletin carries happenings that occur in the camp, and has been given the name Blue Eagle News.

The students enlisted in the camp do the editing, which is one of the many ways the authorities have of developing minds of the students. The personnel of the camp may attend classes in Typing, Book-keeping, Physical Education, Auto Mechanics, Dancing and Penmanship.

Park Authorities feel that it is just as important to develop the minds of students as well as physically.

WHAT TEXAS REALLY NEEDS
(From the Dallas Morning News)

The cotton business of the South, even more than that of the Southwest, is certainly on the rocks at present. Texans possibly can stand the crisis rather better than the old South, since it has more fertile lands and can produce more cheaply. But both sections are tarred with the same brush. What with high tariffs, cotton substitutes, and the rapidly increasing cotton acreage in other countries, King Cotton must see the handwriting on the wall and realize that his long reign is nearing its end.

Texas has its new deal, its planning boards, and a Legislature anxious to do its best for the promotion of the welfare of the State. The real wealth of Texas is in its inherently capable population of six millions, whose prosperity is the essential need of the State. There is a well-grounded suspicion, however, that the mass of the population are in extremely straitened circumstances, compelling so many to seek relief from public and private sources.

Obviously, this relief should be given, but with deep regret. Our citizens know how to work, they want work, and work they should have. There is need for serious consideration of the plight that has come or will come upon owners of small farms and tenant farmers, as the demand for cotton decreases and the price goes down.

The tenant and cropper system has become a curse and newer methods of farming should be devised that would induce the farmer to continue to cultivate his farm, aided by all the scientific knowledge that the State can provide.

In the long run, perhaps in the short run, local industries should be systematically developed in every possible community. Texans should be encouraged to manufacture for their own primary needs, utilizing local capital and raw material. It is a shame that the profits from the natural great riches of the State should for the most part go outside the State.

If Texans reaped the full benefits of the State's resources, no citizen would be classed as having a "lower living standard than farming peasants of India or China."

World Comment

Glancing at the World

At present the international horizon is clear of war clouds but domestic troubles the world over remains unsettled. In Mexico we find Communism aking rapid strides and unrest seething, resulting in the recent sporadic outbreak in the northern provinces. Further south, the Bolivians and Paraguayans are tearing at each other's throats and it sees that bankruptcy is the only thing that can bring an end to this bloodiest of South American wars. Each day the newspapers announce that a decisive battle is pending" but the following day we only read an account of the death of several thousand additional peons to the already enormous list.

Skipping across the Atlantic Spain is quiet at present but the question of the form of government really desired by the people is not settled. The monarchists continue their activities but are unable to make any appreciable gains. The Socialists and Fascists glare at one another across the parliamentary benches but neither can win over a majority of the populace.

Neighboring Italy is fighting valiantly to keep the lira on the gold standard as a result of the proffered French loan, will be able to do so. In Africa, Abyssinia is feverishly arming to prevent what is expected will be an Italian invasion as soon as Mussolini can arrange the financial ends and straighten out his affairs in Central Europe, i. e. putting Archduke Otto of Hapsburg on the Austrian throne and thus thwarting Adolph Hitler's efforts to unite Austria and Germany.

The internal situation in France is much improved. Premier Flandin seems to have restored at least temporarily domestic tranquility and the financial outlook is better at the present with business showing a slight improvement.

Hitler has just celebrated the second anniversary of his advent to power in Germany. Word comes from Berlin that Der Fuehrer remains in power simply because nobody takes the trouble to put him out. But you can bet your boots that if such a situation exists the monarchists or communists will soon be hopping in and Herr Hitler will be hopping out. Princess Katherine Radziwill, eminent authority on German affairs, predicts the early overthrow of Hitler and his Nazis.

England seems to be getting along pretty well at home. Unemployment is slowly but surely decreasing and the trade outlook is better, although the Japanese continue to harrass the British considerably in their Oriental and African trade. Britain has united with France to settle amicably all disputes in Europe which tend to lead to war and according to recent reports is willing to accede to Germany the right to rearm. France, as might be expected, is against this proposal but will probably be prevailed upon to agree.

Tension between Russia and Japan has increased within the last month and talk of an impending war in the Far East is growing. The Japanese are frankly afraid of the Soviet air armada stationed at Vladivostok and probably won't try to provoke the Russians for some time yet if ever. There is considerable talk of unrest in Japan and the recent Jap conquest of Chahar Province in China points further to the disintegration of that nation. Japan is determined to dominate the Far East and makes no bones about it.

COW'S STARE ON HEN HOUSE SAVES THE CHICKS

A bovine Sherlock Holmes led to the discovery of a negro burglar at the Snodgrass home, 903 North Thirteenth street, Constable Will Surratt reports.

Snodgrass went into his yard the other night to feed the cow. The cow paid no attention, merely stared stolidly at the chicken house. Even when the bran mash was put before her, she continued to stare. Snodgrass, curious, went to the chicken-house door and opened it.

A big black negro burst out, flung a sack in Snodgrass' face and fled. Snodgrass smacked him with a milk bucket, but couldn't stop him.

He did get a good look at the intruder, however, which he relayed to his next-door neighbor, Deputy Constable I. P. Stanford and Surratt tracked the negro down within an hour, had him in jail and he confessed.—Waco News Tribune.

Congress Considering Proposals of Old Age Pension Enactment

HON. O. H. CROSS EXPLAINS

Just at this time when so much interest is being manifested over the country about old age pensions it is extremely interesting to know just what is being done and contemplated by Congress now in session in Washington. Hon. O. H. Cross, member of Congress representing this Texas district, has received numerous inquiries concerning the matter and has replied fully in a letter which is reprinted below. The Coryell County News is glad to give publicity to this letter because of its absorbing interest to many of our readers and to the large number of elderly people of Coryell County who are in line to reap needed assistance from the enactment of an old age pension law. The letter from Congressman Cross follows:

"I am in favor of an old age pension based upon economic soundness. There are a large number of bills introduced by different ones proposing as many different plans. These bills are all referred to, and are being considered by the Ways and Means Committee. They are referred to this committee because this is the committee in Congress that when money is appropriated must devise the way of taxing the people to raise the means to pay it.

"This committee is holding hearings on the various plans before it, and when these hearings are finished this committee constantly advising with the President, will report a bill that the President will not veto. This bill when reported by the Ways and Means Committee will be brought before Congress under a rule from the Rules Committee which will doubtless provide that no changes or amendments can be offered to the bill, and the Congress must accept it or reject it as reported by the Ways and Means Committee to the Congress.

"I am not a member of the Ways and Means Committee, but have been submitting the letters and petitions sent me to this committee for their consideration. However, I have been advised by the members of the committee with whom I have talked that their investigations show there are in excess of ten million people in the United States over sixty years of age, and that under the Townsend plan twenty-four billion dollars ($24,000,000,000.00) would have to be raised annually to pay the pensions, and that with a population of one hundred and twenty billion people, the average family consists of about five members, or there are about twenty-four million families in the entire country, and if this tax is to be raised by a Sales Tax, each family would have to pay on an average of $1,000.

"I am also advised by members of this committee that are holding these investigations that not only do the families in agricultural states average more in numbers than do the families in the non-agricultural or industrial states, such as New York, and other states with large centers of population, but that the farming families purchase far more on an average than families dwelling in cities, because of agricultural implements, livestock, and other things that farms require.

"In addition to this, as a rule the poorer classes of our population have larger families than do the well-to-do, and the burden would fall especially heavy upon them. They say, too that it would take considerable more on an average than $1000 to the family because of the tremendous expense of administering the law. And that under the Townsend plan the tax being raised by a Sales Tax, those with large incomes, many in excess of one million dollars would pay in proportion to their ability to pay a mere trifle, which of course, is true.

"From the attitude of the members of the Ways and Means committee that I have heard express themselves, I do not believe that the so-called Townsend plan has any chance to be reported by the committee to Congress. I feel sure that whatever bill they submit to Congress will be passed, and I expect to vote for it.

"Of course, any State can increase the amount to be paid to its citizens to any sum the Legislatures may see fit. In fact, the Legislatures of 28 states have already passed laws paying an old age pension to the citizens of those states who have reached the age that makes them eligible under the law."

THE WORLD'S BEST KNOWN MOTHER IS SHY

Chicago, Feb. 6.—She is very different from what one might expect, this mother of quintuplets and five other children, 10 youngsters in all—and only 26 years old!

A simple country lass, Mrs. Oliva Dionne has come out of her Canadian north woods in a plain home-made brown crepe dress to be housed in a regal suite in the Congress hotel, where several presidents of the United States have stayed, rushed here and there, a famous personage, with theatrical producers ringing her telephone.

Child-like is this woman, this world's most widely known mother of today, who has little to say and that in French only.

THE STORY OF CANCER CONTROL

Written Especially for Women, with Special Emphasis on Preventability and Cure.

YOUR PEACE OF MIND NEW DIAGNOSTIC AIDS AND YOUR FAMILY PHYSICIAN

One of our great tumor specialists states that every woman should be invited by her family physician to look through her own breast tissue twice a year. This is made possible by a new application of an old method, called transillumination. It is performed with a little light which demonstrates the presence—or the absence—of innocent or malignant tumors, and of small sacs, called cysts, which contain fluid. Aside from the diagnostic value to the physician thus secured by passing light through the breast, this new method has a definite appeal to all women who are worried about breast lumps, especially those women over thirty years of age.

Hard tumors are of two kinds. One is quite innocent. The other is extremely serious in nature if untreated. Both types of tumor should be removed. In transillumination, all hard tumors cast a dark shadow with a pink background—this background being the normal tissue of the breast. Uncomplicated cysts show a light area with a pink background.

No longer need a woman worry needlessly about the lump which she has discovered. If she immediately consults her family physician he can not only satisfy himself about the true condition, which often is not cancer, but he is able to offer a very important service to his patient. The mental relief resulting from the knowledge that her breast is in a normal condition is a sufficient reward to cause every woman to demand this type of examination twice a year.

If a suspicious lump is discovered the family physician will have at his disposal the personnel from various diagnostic tumor clinics on whom he may call for group advice. These clinics are able to command facilities and physical equipment not usually available to a family physician. After a doctor has arrived at a definite diagnosis, these clinics will be glad to advise him as to the most satisfactory treatment. It will always be radium, x-rays or surgery, or possibly a combination of two of these, or even all three.

Every effort is being made at the present time to secure this complementary consultation service for every physician in your state. Such a service demands the expenditure of large sums of money for physical equipment, housing, etc., not to mention the donation of valuable experience and the sacrifice of time on the part of these special groups who only desire to see you well again.

Cancer authorities agree that if careful examination of the breast were demanded twice a year by women, malignant tumors would be discovered very early in their period of growth, and, as we know, early discovery increases enormously the chance for permanent cure.

PROPOSAL TO TAX UTAH BACHELORS

"Broadway Bill" Grand Romance; Baxter, Loy Superb in Big Comedy

The amazing Frank Capra, director of "Lady For a Day" and "It Happened One Night," has undoubtedly surpassed all his former glories in his newest Columbia comedy sensation, "Broadway Bill," which makes its debut at the Regal Theatre Saturday night at 10:30, also Sunday and Monday.

With uncanny genius, the inimitable Mr. Capra has produced a beautifully human and appealing screen romance that it sheer delight. Based on a story by Mark Hellinger and written for the screen by the same Robert Riskin who collaborated with Capra on his two previous successes, "Broadway Bill" sets a standard in screen entertainment that will not easily be reached.

No little of the film's superb qualities can be attributed to the splendid performances registered by Warner Baxter and Myrna Loy in the two starring roles. Baxter's "Dan Brooks" is his finest screen characterization since the Cisco Kid in "In Old Arizona." Myrna Loy is a delightful revelation, a new and greater screen personality. Together as a romantic team, both Baxter and Loy are near perfect.

The story is that of Dan Brooks, who is a nomad at heart, but by circumstance the son-in-law of J. L. Higgins (Walter Conolly), who controls everyone and everything in Hugginsville. His word is law, that is, to everyone excepting Dan, who doesn't give a hoot for business. Although he is married to one of Higgins' three daughters and is general manager of the Higgins Paper Box Factory, which assures a rosy financial future, he still doesn't like it. He likes horses, freedom, everything that is anthesis of hide-bound Hugginsville. The entire Higgins clan sneer at him—all except Alice, the young unmarried sister-in-law.

In spite of sneers, Dan kicks over the financial apecart and goes his way. With him goes his horse, "Broadway Bill," and the horse's colored groom, Whitey, played by Clarence Muse. Unknown to Dan, there goes with him also the devotion and sympathy of Alice, his young sister-in-law.

The developments that follow are filled with drama, pathos and comedy. It will tug at your heartstrings one moment and make you laugh through your tears the next.

One of the thrilling sequences of the story is a horse race which, it may be honestly said, has not been equaled on the screen.

Baxter and Miss Loy, as said before, are excellent. Other fine performances are turned in by Conolly as the father, Helen Vinson as the selfish wife, Clarence Muse as Whitey, Raymond Walburn as a conniving bogus "Colonel," Lynne Overman as "Happy" and Margaret Hamilton as Edna, a boarding-house-keeper, familiarly known as "Vinegar Puss." Others seen in the picture, all of whom acquit themselves well are Frankie Darro, George Cooper, Douglas Bumbrille, Charles Levison, Ward Bond, Harry Todd, Paul Harvey, Charles Wilson and Edmund Breeze.

"Broadway Bill" will live in screen history!

County Meet Spelling

The spelling contest for the County Meet was started Tuesday afternoon under the direction of Mrs. Reesing. Twenty-five students have already entered, both juniors and seniors. They will study until the try-out which will be held a short while before the County Meet. The date for the County Meet is March 22, 23 and 24.—Ethel Diserens.

Declamation

There is a great deal of interest being shown in declamation, according to Miss Virginia Wothy, the sponsor. Most of the students who entered have already chosen their declamations. Some of the declaimers are taking expression from some other teacher than Miss Worthy, in order to get extra help, although this is not required.—Dorothy Swindall.

Track For The County Meet

The boys track prospects of Gatesville High School are looking very favorable this year. Mr. Doyle Baldrige, coach of the squad, says there are quite a few boys out and several of them are already showing promising results. It is expected several Gatesville High representatives will be at the district meet this year.—James Webb.

Debate Club

The Debate Club meets each Thursday morning under the direction of Supt. F. L. Williams. The club is divided into four groups of boys and one group of girls. The members of the club are: Robert Cook, Brack Curry, Harold Goolsby, Emil Lee, Lillie Mae Morris, Mildred Morse, Edwin Prewitt, Billie Richardson, Tom Robinson, Jr., Earl Scott, Bob Thomas and W. J. Thompson.—Geraldine Schloeman.

Woods, States Superintendent of Public Instruction, Miss Lillian Peek, States Director of Home Economics, Mr. C. N. Shaver, President of the Texas State Teachers Association, Dr. Fred C. FAT SHOW AT HOUSTON
MARCH 2-14

Houston is merely the place of holding the great Fat Stock Show, that belongs to all of the Gulf Coast States. The number of fat calves shown at the Houston Show has only been equalled by Chicago in the past year. The sale price of these calves has not been equalled by any Show, although cattle are selling for just twice as much money in Chicago, today, as they were selling at one-year ago today.

Society Night

Saturday, March 2, the opening day of the Show at Houston is Society Night, celebrated with a very brilliant Horse Show, where 10,000 Vocational students and high-school representatives will furnish the music with five big bands and some smaller bands.

The entries, this year, both in breeding stock and fat stock far exceed the entries of a year ago, and are coming from farther distant territory, as there will be a number of exhibits from more than 800 miles away, and a few as far as 1200 miles.

The Premium Money at the Houston show has been increased 70 per cent over that of last year. The Premium List is ready and has been mailed in the form of The Breeder-Feeder newspaper, and will be sent to anybody who will let us know that they would like to have a copy. The entries to this Fat

Show close on Saturday, February 16.

Many entertainment features have been added to this great Show and the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association meet on the 3 closing days, March 12, 13, and 14th. There will be more Cattlemen in Houston, this year, than that seaport city has ever witnessed.

This Show is building markets for every Gulf Coast State west of the Mississippi River. President J. W. Cartwelle, reports that according to the new entries and early receipts of entries that this Show may carry as many head of livestock as all of the 3 previous Shows combined.

VISITS OFFICE WITH PAPER PRINTED IN 1800

Mr. Lum Stovall of King was a recent visitor to the News' and had with him a paper published in Uicster county, Kentucky in 1800.

John Adams, then President of the United States, had a proclamation in the paper, that would equal the wording of proclamations issued by Presidents of recent years.

The paper being 135 years old was somewhat worn in every respect, but the ads were interesting to note. Negro wench were for sale, as well as ashes.

Mr. Stovall stated that his father had given him the paper, and he would not depart with it for any sum of money.
