The body of Mr. Dick Cooper, 62, of Waco, who died early Wednesday morning, March 27, was brought to Gatesville for burial Thursday at the City Cemetery where he has two children buried.

Funeral services were held at the Herring Avenue Methodist Church in Waco. Rev. M. M. Chunn, pastor of the First Methodist Church of this city, conducted the services here.

SCHOOL CENSUS CLOSING OUT

According to school authorities who are taking the school census all names must be reported by Saturday night, tomorrow, in order to get on this year's list. The school district has been covered and rechecked for all children between the ages of six and eighteen on or before the first day of September 1935.

The roll at present stands some forty pupils under that reported for last year. Since this means a loss of $16.50 per pupil for every child not reported the school will lose considerable money unless more pupils are found.

You are requested by school officials to call the high school office and report the name of any child who has not been taken on the census this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Chess Sadler visited Garland Anderson who is a patient in a Waco sanitarium, the first of the week.

Please bring your last year's receipt with you as it will enable us to serve you promptly.

Thanks,
DAVE H. CULBERSON,
Tax Collector,
Coryell County Texas.

Pay Fee—or Else

On Friday, March 22, at a special meeting of the Commissioners Court an order was passed placing a special officer in charge of the registration of all motor vehicles, that have not been registered on or before April 1st. It will be the duty of this officer under his appointment to serve written notice on any individual found driving any type of motor vehicle upon any public road or highway in this county after April 1st, without his 1935 license plates attached there to, allowing a reasonable time in which to secure such 1935 license plate. If this notice is not complied with then such officer is to file complaint in the office of the County Attorney against any individual failing to comply therewith.

In compliance with this order, and with the general laws of this state covering the registration of Motor Vehicles, it will be my duty to accept and prosecute any complaint filed in my office constituting a violation of this law, in the same manner as is provided for the violation of any other penal law of this state.

Not desiring that any prosecution be had on this matter I urge that all motor vehicles be duly registered.

Respectfully,
FLOYD ZEIGLER, Co. Atty.
Coryell County, Texas.

Jim Brown, Alice Earl Anderson, and Charles Baker visited Garland Anderson at the Baptist hospital Wednesday afternoon.

D. W. Sherrill, county agent, and John Voss made a business trip to College Station Wednesday.

In order to bring this year's program to a successful conclusion and in order to secure checks in a reasonable time the dead line date for taking the applications for new cotton contracts for 1935 has been set as next Monday, April 1st, and this will be the absolute last day for making applications for a cotton contract. Farmers who wish a cotton contract MUST have the application in the county office by the close of business April 1.

Producers who have failed to sign the continuation papers for their old contract or who have made a change of legal status on the farm covered by a contract are requested to come to the county office and execute these papers immediately, in order to expediate payments. In cases where the farm covered by a contract has been divided the interested parties should appear before the county committee and stipulate the division agreed upon and split contracts will be signed immediately. Farmers who have papers mailed to them to sign are urged to sign and return these by return mail. Every effort is being made by the county office to expediate this year's program in Coryell County. The splendid cooperation thus far received on the 1935 cotton program is very much appreciated by those in charge of the AAA program.

There have been several requests and inquiries regarding the changing of status of tenants in 1935 on a farm covered by a cotton contract in 1934. In regard to these requests the Washington office has ruled that even if the farm has changed owners or changed tenants this year, that if the same farm was covered by a contract last year the status of a tenant in type of tenure can be raised but not lowered from the type of tenure signed up in 1934. It is to be remembered that the cotton contract was signed up as a two year contract and that the status of tenants would remain the same for two years and that the contract would stay with the farm for two years. To clarify this information received from Washington there is quoted below the following excerpt from a letter from the Cotton Production Section, Washington, D. C.:

"There is nothing in the cotton reduction contract to prevent a landlord from renting the land to another tenant in 1935 or to prevent the tenant from renting land from another landlord in 1935, provided the tenant had only a one-year lease in 1934. If a change is made the landlord, however, must maintain the same number of tenants and these must have the same status as in 1934. In other words, it would be a violation of the contract for him to change from managing share tenants to share-croppers or from share-croppers to day hands in order to secure for himself a greater share of the benefit payments."

Reference is also made to Cotton letter No. 75, paragraph 4, which reads as follows:

"Some are confused about section 7 of the voluntary contract. Our information is that this paragraph does not bind the landlord to keep the same tenants, but that it does bind him to keep the same number of tenants in the same status as in 1934."

PLAY AT LEVITA

"Fortunate Calamity," a comedy drama in three acts, by Charles E. Pendry, will be staged at the Levita school house, Friday night, March 29, at 8:00 p. m. The cast is composed of young people from the Gakton community. Antics of the colored servants and the refined comedy of the cook and her sweetheart afford unlimited entertainment, according to Mrs. Gordon Davis, Assistant Director.

Laughs! laughs! galore! from start to finish, both in the play and the between act numbers which will be furnished by Hazen Ament and partner, Low Russell as well as Mrs. Gordon Davis, all Gatesvillians. The very efficient Mrs. Prendergrast Frothingham, the magician will also offer high class entertainment with her hypnotic work.

Also, there will be the proverbial string band which will complete the evening's entertainment. Admission for the evening has been set at 10c to everybody.

Judge Bates Cross, accompanied by his daughter Elaine, was in Hamilton Wednesday on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Turner and daughter, Barbara Jean, of Dallas visited relatives here and at Levita Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Turner returned to his home Sunday afternoon while Mrs. Turner is spending the week with relatives and friends.

HUBBARD NEWS

With hopeful hearts farmers are looking westward this morning where a low hanging black bank of clouds are giving promise of a much needed rain. Water supplies are fast evaporating and the ground is drying out until seed wont come up if planted. All nature seems in a thankful mood, though, and trees have put on their Spring attire, the earth is carpeted with grass and bright little flowers are peeping up everywhere. So let us say this is a pretty good old world after all.

There was preaching at Hubbard this week end which is our regular meeting time. Bro. W. O. Hopson filled the pulpit and brought the congregation some wonderful messages.

There will be a meeting at Hubbard school house next Sunday night for the purpose of organizing a Bible class and singing; every body is urged to be present, especially members of the church.

The pie supper was a very successful one for the base ball boys who will use the proceeds to purchase supplies for the team.

We are sorry to report Mr. Arthur Fuller's small son J. B. sick. He is in a Temple hospital to be operated on for appendicitis. We hope that he will have a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Roy Bruton had a very painful accident last Friday night when their team ran away and Mrs. Bruton was thrown under the wagon wheel which ran over her, breaking some of her ribs. She was carried to Mr. Marvin Tippit's where she was resting very well at last reports.

Rev. Henry Dunn of Coryell Valley, who pastored Hubbard church years ago, and his daughter, attended church here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd White of Friendship visited their daughter, Mrs. R. A. Dixon, over the week end and attended church.

Entered as second-class matter June 24, 1933, at the post office at Gatesville, Texas, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

NOTICE: Any erroneous reflection upon the character or standing of any person or firm appearing in its columns will be gladly and promptly corrected upon calling the attention of the management to the article in question.

Years of work and promotion have been spent in working the county schools up to the place where they are today, running eight months' terms, with all the modern improvements, and two or more teachers, not to mention the vast changes in curriculum, state text books and many other advantages too numerous to mention. Teachers, trustees, superintendents, principals, and County superintendents have diligently worked for years to make these improvements possible in the public school system of the county.

Now, as the article in the Tuesday News by County Superintendent J. M. Witcher informs us, unless the legislature does something during this session at Austin, a part of the work that has been done in the past on this up-hill job of improving our school system, will come to naught.

Reviewing the situation briefly, A. A. Bullock of the State Department of Education has notified Mr. Witcher that if something isn't done in the passing of the State Aid bill, the state aid will be cut twenty-five per cent, all of which means no more eight month terms for the rural schools.

The remedy is simply this: Write your State senator and State representative and tell him to not only vote "yes" if this bill comes up, but if it doesn't come up, to get busy and bring it up. If this bill is passed in the Legislature additional Federal aid will be available and will help remedy the situation.

Rainy April showers are on us! Also April Fools Day, so popular with the youngsters! Whether it be sand or rain, we must take it. Heretofore it has been rain, but it seems now we are going to greet April in a cloud of dust instead of the product of old Jupiter Pluvius.

In line with April Fools Day, let us (not being a gloom peddler) remind that there are plenty of good practical jokes to be pulled during this "Boys Day" without doing damage to property or person. This event, used by Protestants is probably a hold-over from the regular Catholic Mardi Gras celebration which also comes in the spring and is a season of festival activities and fun with the lid off.

World Comment

By JOE BURNS

MARCH, 1935, may be set down by historians as the moment when the great powers frankly abandoned all hopes and pretenses of the post-war peace period and openly squared away to rearm. Everywhere we see rearmament and expansion plans occupying the nations of the world.

Japan started the ball rolling in 1931-32 when she snatched Manchuria away from China and set up a puppet state. Her later withdrawal from the League was only the first of the death blows that august body was to receive.

Germany withdrew from the League in 1933 and without Germany any European decisions of importance had to be made outside the peace body. The failure of the League to protect China against Japan and to stop the Chaco war between Paraguay and Bolivia sorely hurt the League's pride and prestige. The refusal on the part of the United States to join the League was considered as a death blow at the time also. Russia helped to bolster up the cripple somewhat when it joined the League last year.

But now the League is like a cast-off child. It is, as a matter of course, going to conduct an investigation into the German rearmament plans but nothing can be done to keep the Germans from rearming. Rather, nothing will be done. Italy is planning to expand at the expense of Abyssinia (Ethiopia). Red Russia has practically doubled its world's largest standing army from a half million to nearly a million men. France's 1935 defense budget of $792,000,000 is the hugest peace time expenditure in her history. England has made moves to strengthen her defenses. The United States are doing likewise. And Adolf Hitler has cast to the winds his last semblance of obedience to the Treaty of Versailles, calling for a German conscript army of half a million men. Austria, Hungary, and Bulgaria—the other nations whose armed forces were limited at the close of the war—are expected to follow Germany's example. Bolivia and Paraguay are fighting the bloodiest war in South America's history. Japan and Russia may tangle at any time. If so, Germany and Poland would most likely attack Russia for the west. France as a matter of necessity would come to the aid of Russia. England might become embroiled. And, if the Japs bothered our trade with Russian Siberia, we probably would have to enter to protect our merchants. The League was formed to maintain peace and, incidentally, to enforce the provisions of the Versailles Treaty. But with the nations of the world rapidly arming and the Treaty of Versailles being regarded by its signatories merely as another scrap of paper, the League is left completely out of the picture.

The thing to do is keep a war from starting. But it looks like Europe is going back to 1914 as fast as it can. The Continent is rapidly forming into two armed camps. Germany, as in 1924, heads one. France the other. The century-old enmity between Frenchman and German will flare into war again is the opinion of the State Department and most other governments. Most of the European nations are trying to make up their minds on which side they want to be.

Russia will fight with France. The Belgian army is a co-ordinated part of the French army and in the event of war would become an integral part of the French army. So Belgium is with France. Italy can be expected to join side where the greatest gain is to be had. Yugoslavia has shown Germanic leanings for two years. If Yugoslavia joined the German camp, Italy could be expected to fight shoulder to shoulder with the French. The Austrian people are at heart pro-German and could at least give Germany moral support in war. Czechoslovakia is anti-German to the nth degree. Some 3,000,000 Germans live in Czechoslovakia and for this the government and the people fear a German attack. Czechoslovakia will fight with France. Hungary will fight with the group that will return her

A good friend of mine once asked me to dine with him at a certain hour, and I had a flat tire, a dirty spark plug, and then the old model car went dead on me, besides breaking my arm trying to crank the thing. I finally phoned over telling my story and his answer was "we are sorry, the dinner is all ready, but I will tell them you tried to make it." I did not lose my friend. I ate a hamburger, while a few miles away there was a good meal. Now, for me to have chosen the hamburger rather than the good, delicious meal would have been a sign of insanity on my part.

My friend, you are spiritually insane when you fail to fill your mind with the higher and better things of life as is afforded you at the church.

FORD V-8

In A Class By Itself

THERE is no way to compare the Ford V-8 with any other car because there is no other car like it.

The Ford enables you to step up into the fine-car class in performance, beauty, comfort and safety. But there is no stepping up in price. That is kept down by Ford low-profit policies and unique manufacturing methods. These are as different as the car itself.

It takes eight cylinders to give the modern performance you need these days. The Ford is powered by a V-8 — the finest type of eight-cylinder engine. You have to pay more than $2000 for that in any other car.

FROM THE NOTE BOOK OF MISS MARTIN

Since she plans on canning at least 100 containers of fruit and vegetables for her pantry shelves, Bernice Glaze, food preservation demonstrator of the Liberty 4-H club, has 15 varieties of vegetables in her garden. These include tomatoes, English peas, onions, tender-green, cabbage, lettuce, carrots, egg plant, peppers, Honey June sweet corn, spinach, potatoes, mustard, and radishes.

Although she wasted cement in learning to make concrete tile for sub-irrigation, Mrs. L. C. Perryman, pantry demonstrator of the Liberty Home Demonstration club made 91 tile one foot long from one sack of cement and 4 times as much sand.

These tile will be laid on a level about 12 inches under the ground. Two rows will be laid on a level about 12 inches under the ground. Two rows of tile 50 feet long which have been placed four feet apart will require about 250 gallons of water for sub-irrigation.

Variety is the spice of life, according to Mrs. Homer Baize, pantry demonstrator of the Slater Home Demonstration club. She is trying out 5 vegetables that has not raised previously. These are Chinese cabbage, New Zealand spinach, cabbage bean and tendergreen. Tendergreen is a cross between mustard and spinach.

THREE GREAT STARS SHINE IN DAZZLING MUSICAL

Combining the talents of the three stars said to be most ideally suited to musical comedy, RKO Radio brings to the screen "Roberta," which proved a stage sensation. Irene Dunne, Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers are headlined in the motion picture coming to the Regal theater Saturday night at 10:30, and Sunday and Monday.

With Miss Dunne singing, Astaire and Miss Rogers dancing, and a bevy of America's most beautiful girls displaying the latest in feminine style creations, the lavish production is said to move swiftly and tunefully through a most intriguing story. The plot centers about a double romance in Paris, city of color and gaiety.

The central situation sees an All-American football player as the owner of a feminine style salon, by accident of inheritance, and an American college man leader teamed with the favorite of the Paris music halls as the double attraction of a famous night club.

Among the Kern numbers which Miss Dunne sings is the popular "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes." Astaire and Miss Rogers introduce several spectacular dance routines even the "Continental" and the "Night and Day" of "The Gay Divorcee."

TEXAS HISTORY

Christmas Day was a cheerless one for those families way back in the early days of the Republic in Texas having absent fathers, husbands, and brothers. Simple thanksgiving was given for their bravery, but many hearts ached at the sight of vacant chairs. The men were with Colonel Fisher in Mier, fighting fiercely for their lives and their goal. For two days the Texans tried their strength against General Ampudia's forces and finally surrendered Dec. 26. Ten of their number had been killed, 43 were wounded, and the rest were taken prisoners. The Mexicans lost nearly 700.

General Ampudia supervised the marching order of his Texan prisoners. They were being sent to Mexico City, where they could tell President Santa Anna of their noble plans for subduing the Mexican Nation.

The story of the Mier prisoners is one that every Texan knows. The cruel treatment they received and the hardships they endured will never be forgotten. At Saltillo the "supreme government of Mexico" ordered the immediate execution of every tenth man; seventeen were to die. Survivors of that awful fate have written the most fascinating stories in all the history of our State. It was decided that the men were to draw beans from a huge earthen vessel; those who drew a black bean were to be executed; the ones drawing the white beans were to be free. Commissioned officers were to draw first.

The soldiers were lined up alphabetically. "Big Foot" Wallace, present at the drawing of the beans, describes in his "Adventures" how nonchalantly and brave the men were. Only one officer drew a black bean. As each man drew, he handed his bean to the Mexican official in charge. The white ones were lined up on a stone wall, and the black ones were slipped into a Mexican officer's coat pocket.

Those who drew black beans were exceedingly brave. "Well, boys, the jig is up," the unfortunate ones would say. Or, "They have taken in my sign at last." Thus Big Foot Wallace reported the proceedings.

The seventeen men who were to die were led apart from the others, and without a quiver faced the Mexican firing squad. Ten minutes after the drawing a loud volley of shots was heard, and the Texan prisoners knew that seventeen noble lives had been ended.

Many stories have been written of the Mier Expedition. It will be forever engraved in the hearts of true Texans.

CLEANLINESS IN HANDLING MILK AND CREAM

By Byron A. Bassel
The importance of keeping all food products as clean as possible is universally recognized, and this applies particularly to milk and cream, as either of these affords one of the best media for the development of bacteria, or germs, which are ever present in the milk. For that reason it is absolutely essential that any utensil or receptacle which is used in handling milk be absolutely clean.

All utensils such as milk pail, strainer, separator, and holding can should be thoroughly cleaned after each use with a stiff bristle brush and an alkali washing powder. Soap and rags should never be used on a piece of dairy equipment, as they will inevitably leave a "dish rag" flavor and odor. The soap forms a greasy film on all of the utensils and this film will give an off flavor to the milk which is placed in that utensil. Rags used either by themselves, or with soap soon develop an old and rancid smell, and when used for wiping the pieces of equipment leave that particular odor thereon. After scrubbing with brush and washing powder a plentiful use of boiling water is necessary to finish the cleaning and to insure sterilization. After using boiling water the cans, pails, etc., should be stored upside down in the sun, but protected from dust, dirt, etc., because the sun is a good sterilizing agent. Then before using any of the equipment again it should be rinsed with cold water to remove any dust which might have settled in it.

In the above paragraph the strainer was mentioned, and should have further discussion. The best type of strainer to use is the one with the perforated bottom using the cotton disc for the filtering surface. These discs should be used but once and discarded, thus obviating the use of a rag which is used over and over again. Rags should never be used for straining because they do not filter efficiently, and because it is extremely difficult to wash and sterilize them. These cotton pads for use with the type of strainer mentioned above cost but very little, approximately 1-3 of a cent apiece, and the strainer itself is available at a cost of around $1.00. Considering the small cost, and the amount of good which it will do, it should be in use on every dairy farm in the state. There are a few pieces of equipment which we recommend to be used, and this is one of them, as it will go further in insuring high quality milk and cream than any other.

In cleaning the separator it is important that the separator be taken down and every part scrubbed with the brush and washing powder and then scalded with boiling water. The cleaning of the separator is very important for two reasons: 1st, an unclean separator will not separate efficiently causing a loss of fat in the skimmed milk; 2nd, the bacteria in the cream and milk which was left from the previous skimming will have developed to the point of causing a bad off flavor and odor, and of contaminating the fresh milk and cream which passes through. Therefore, you are losing money in two ways by skimming in an unclean separator—by the loss of fat in the skim milk, and by the lower quality product caused by off flavors and gross contamination with bacteria.

lost provinces. Rumania is allied with France. Bulgaria most likely would join Germany in an effort to regain her lost territory. The attitude of Poland is doubtful if Poland joins the French group, an iron ring will surround the Reich. If Poland refuses to join France and Russia and adheres to the friendly treaty with Germany, no iron ring, as proposed by the French, can be formed.

It looks as if some cool heads and steady thinking will be necessary to prevent a catastrophe in Europe. The present rulers in Europe do not seem capable to deal with the economic crisis. It has been the custom down through the centuries to forestall economic chaos at home by war. Let us hope that the rulers of today will be sober minded enough to realize that nothing can be gained by war—only a civilization destroyed.

The Klek Klub met Wednesday morning and elected new officers, who we are expecting to keep everyone busy so they will not realize such a thing as Spring fever.

We are expecting the High School pupils to report that they will soon put on another play.

People of this and adjoining communities met and surprised Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Whatley with a party Saturday night. There was a large crowd, and everyone had a nice time.

The help rendered during the County Meet by the patrons was appreciated very much. We regret that we did not bring back all blue and red ribbons, but some one must take defeat, and "take it with a good spirit." We should all look at our defeat just that way, hoping some day to again be winners.

Sports News

We wish to congratulate winners of the loving cups. And we will be very glad to receive a visit from any volley ball teams and tennis players.

Now is a very serious time in our school term, because teachers have to stay awake to keep the pupils awake. In lower grade classes work is being rehearsed in order to keep all busy.

Our month with many good reports to be sent parents. On the honor roll this month are, Thelma Faye Dossey, fourth grade; Mildred Fay Whatley, and Cathleen Self making some average grades in the third; Clayton Moseley and M. J. Blackman ran a tight race which ended in a tie in the second grade. Venida Rambo in first grade.

G'ville Grammar School

Harold Diserens and Alma Louise Murray won first in spelling. Roy Prewitt placed 3rd in story telling contest. Martha Ann Powell and Gladys Marie Phillips won second in music memory. In track events Ruth Rutherford won one first and Weldon Campbell won one 2nd place. Both boys and girls playground ball teams won first places in ward schools.

—Beatrice Renau.

Last Monday Mr. Witcher gave us a talk on developing our spiritual, mental, and physical lives. We all enjoyed his talk and we wish he could speak to us again sometime in the near future.

We were glad to have Mr. Williams with us.
