Next Week Last Time to Apply for Tax-Free Tags For 1935 Cotton Crop

In order to secure Tax-Exemption Certificates before cotton ginning time farmers must apply for tax-exemption certificates next week, according to the schedule of place and time as outlined below. The days allotted for the taking of these applications are Wednesday, May 15; Thursday, May 16; and Friday, May 17. The Community committee of three will be at different locations each of the above days to receive applications. Every farm in order to sell any cotton tax-free MUST make an application for cotton tags.

Regardless of whether there has been an old or new contract in the cotton reduction program or whether there has been or whether there has not been a reduction contract made, in all cases there must be a Bankhead Application made NEXT WEEK, according to the schedule which follows:

If there is only one share-tenant or if there is a managing share tenant, either the tenant or the landlord may make the application and print the others' name thereon. In cases of there being more than one tenant on the farm the landlord must be the one to make application for tax-exemption Certificates. The landlord will give the name of each tenant (share tenant or cropper) that this is on the farm and will give the acreage which each one or these tenants will or intends to plant to cotton. This will cause each tenant to get his pro rata share of the Tax-Exemption Certificates for his part of the cotton crop. Regardless of how little or how much cotton is planted on the farm the allotment of Tax-Exemption Certificates will be made on the basis of the adjusted and corrected five year average acreage and production. The whole county will receive under the 1935 Bankhead Law approximately 65 per cent of the five year base production.

Those farmers who have not made a reduction contract on their farm should bring before the community committee last year's Bankhead application or the actual five year figures for 1928 to 1932 inclusive. Those who have a reduction contract or who have made application for one will have the Bankhead Application for 1935 completed according to office records, and

Hubert McPeak Dallas District Field Agent Explains FHA Here

Accompanied by Will Orth, Representative of the N. E. Farm District of the Federal Housing Administration office of Dallas, Hubert McPeak, together with Mr. Orth outlined the plans of the Federal Housing Administration and showed Visomatic pictures in connection with this work at 2:30 P. M. Thursday afternoon.

Pat Holt, Editor of the Messenger was unanimously chosen as the new local FHA chairman, replacing Ayres Compton, who resigned on account of ill health.

Bankers, builders, lumbermen, carpenters, painters, and representatives of all the building trades and newspaper men were present. A few women visitors were interested listeners.

Unlike the HOLC, the FHA, according to Mr. McPeak, is a business organization by the government, organized primarily for those who CAN and WILL pay. He also suggested that the lumbermen handle the preliminary missionary and solicitation work, before passing their recommendations on to the bankers for loan approval.

Details of these loans may be gotten from lumbermen, the bankers, or the chairman of the local FHA committee. Also, both Mr. Orth and Mr. McPeak suggested that the local organization be completed among those interested parties.

ETHMA BEAUTY SHOPPE ADDS OPERATOR

Mary Huffman, experienced beauty operator here for some time, has become associated with the Ethma Beauty Shoppe, according to owners.

Mary has had considerable experience at local shops since her graduation from a beauty school.

all that is necessary is that they sign the application which is already filled out and will be in the hands of the community committee. The unit of each farm in each reduction contract must be identical with that unit included in the Bankhead application. In other words there will be a Bankhead Application ready for the producer to sign for each and every cotton reduction contract. All the new 1935 cotton Reduction Contracts will be attached to the respective Bankhead forms to be signed.

Too much emphasis cannot be placed on the very important matter of making a Bankhead Application for every farm (Continued On Last Page.)

"Honor Bright" Senior Presentation Tonight Starring Large Cast

"Honor Bright," the senior class play, will be presented at 8 o'clock, in the high school gymnasium, tonight. This play centers around the troubles of young Richard Barrington, played by Durward Taylor, when he becomes engaged to a stage actress, Tot Marvel. His family heartily disapproves of Miss Marvel, played by Beverly Chamlee. His troubles increase when Tot fails to arrive at the appointed time and sends a telegram from which he can gather no meaning.

Honor Bright, an enterprising young book agent played by Margaret Gilder, is mistaken for Tot by Richard's uncle, Bishop Carton, the part given by Raymond Leonard. Many complications develop when Tot finally arrives on the scene pursued by officers.

Other in the cast are: Mrs. Lucy Barrington, Alice Earl Anderson; Peggy Carton, Dorothy Culberson; the Reverend James Schooley, Emil Lee; Bill Drum, A. C. Bates; Watts, Edwin Pre-witt; Annie, Lillie M. Morrie; Maggie, Mildred Morse; Foster, Joe Powell and Jones, Charles Ray Hinesley.

Clara Bell Everett, Ina Beth Fore, Frances Goodall, Alexia Henson, Merle Hopson, Iris Morse, Louise Holland, Pearl Powell, Elaine Smith, Lella Young, Waldine Wharton, Ozell Hollingsworth, Edith Raby Lackey, and Virginia Young will give a between-acts song. Merle Hopson and Chess Baize are to sing "What's the Reason," accompanied by Rebecca Clemons.

The Sweetheart of Gatesville High School who was elected in a contest sponsored by the Press Club will also be presented at the play.

SEISMOGRAPH CREW THRU HERE ENROUTE HAMILTON

Thursday, adding to the oil excitement, several trucks belonging to the Geophysical Service, Inc., were here and when a driver was interviewed he said they were going to Hamilton to "shoot" acreage in that section, presumably in connection with the oil scare centering around Ireland.

This shooting, consists of drilling holes in the ground covering a considerable space. Then, by means of electric wires, and dynamite, these holes are "shot", and recordings and instruments in one of the trucks indicate how deep the oil is if there is any. Shocks by the dynamite act on the seismograph the same as earthquakes, traveling to the oil pool and back, since the oil deflects the shock. This shock is timed and the distance figured from the time the sound takes to make half the round trip.

This service is used by all the larger oil companies and a crew of this kind is usually referred to as a "Seismograph Crew."

Alvis, Sr.; Invocation, Supt. F. L. Williams; Presentation of Education Committee, Mrs. Dan Graves; Greetings, Mrs. O. G. Gilder; Response, Durward Taylor; Duet, "One Fleeting Hour" by Mesdames C. A. Morton and Ermon Chamlee; Tenor Solo, "The Desert Song," from the operetta, "Romberg," by Clinton Chamlee; Address, Pat M. Neff, President of Baylor University; Benediction, Professor N. S. Foster.

SOIL EROSION CAMP PROJECT HALTED

Several local men who are trying to promote a soil erosion camp for this county made a trip to Temple to see the District authorities, but nothing was accomplished except that it was definitely decided that nothing could be done for them at the present time.

Some 100 applications have been made for these camps by different sections of the state, and each one has to be considered before allocating any camps. Too, they found, the district authorities could not locate a camp here and that they would have to confer with officials at the state headquarters.

Consideration for the location of these camps comes up in October, and nothing definite can be accomplished at this time.

WEEVIL PATENT WILL SAVE FARMERS MONEY

College Station—Weevil infestation has been the direct cause of huge losses to grain and lentil producers for many years.

A patent was issued April 2 from the United States Patent Office to R. R. Reppert, entomologist for the Texas Extension Service, for a mechanical device by which heat may be applied grains and lentils to destroy weevil infestation in preparation for storage.

A machine, invented by R. R. Peppert, was built in the prison shop at Huntsville and has been used for two years at the central farm. The lentils are treated and stored successfully in the prison warehouse.

TO OUR MOTHERS

Millions of lines have been written on Mother's Day, but there is still something to say about this day of days which is more deeply set in the hearts and minds of peoples of the civilized world than ever.

Mother—even the word affects us all. Close association with her thru early childhood; even closer than with Dad; she moulds the young life, instilling her ideas, her ideals and her aspirations into the youngster as no other one person has the opportunity to do. She takes the young sprout, from infancy and with her infinite care, she shapes the destiny of the young offspring, most of the time, unwittingly and unknowingly until when the youngster leaves her apron string, her character aspirations and ideals are indelibly cast into the future of the youngster that there is no erasing of the influences she has given. They say "A chip off the old block," referring to Dad, but he she may have his or her Dad's physical characteristics, but the mental and moral traits point directly to Mother. Mothers, yours is some responsibility, or may we say privilege.

Mother's Day, this time the 12th, is highly commercialized, they say, however, we don't think so. We think that with every good and gracious gift, there is behind each, a deep set appreciation and love that will never be erased or obliterated. No matter how bad Mother may be, or her children, there is a beautiful love between the two which crime, immorality, aich-e-double-ell and high water won't change.

So, summing it all up, and de-personalizing Mother, this is a great day. By all means go and see your Mother, and carry her some little token of love and affection. If it is impossible to see her, write her a loving letter, and send a wire and propose to her telling her what you think of the grandest person in the world to you. By all means wear some kind of flower for her and attend church Mothers Day morning as she would certainly like for you to. Do something for your Mother on this, her day, May 12.

TO THE GRADUATE

We like to refer to Webster when we are referring to anything. "Graduate" according to Webster means: "One on whom an academical degree has been conferred; to mark with degrees or a scale; temper; change by degrees, etc."

Well, graduates, the school has taken care of the first part: you have your diplomas. Now, "you're marked with degrees or a scale, you're tempered, you're changed by degrees." The thing about this part is, and we're handing you the actual facts, you are graded or scaled by being graduated; meaning MORE is going to be expected from you than if you hadn't graduated. Now listen, whether you stand or fall in the world of hard knocks, is your own funeral. Boys and Girls, it's your fight from here on out, and all that baloney about the World looking for the graduate is the bunk. They simply don't ask you what school you've graduated from—No! No; my pets, No! they'll ask you, "What do you know?" and "What can you DO? Get that into your heads and you've learned, well, you've learned a lot.

Too, you can't beat the game. There's one word you must know everything about, and not be scared of—it's that terrible old word: "W O R K". The simplest key we know to success, the key to everything. Advice is always free and unwelcomed, but here it is, find your niche or place in this old game of fighting off starvation and GET TO WORK! That's the best possible send off we can give you; of course, wishing you the best of luck and success.

GRADUATES, Adios, and more power to you!

World Comment

By JOE BURNS

Four hundred and fifty million people living under the Union Jack are this week celebrating the Silver Jubilee of George Windsor's accession to the throne of Britain. Twenty-five years ago, May 6, 1910, King George V succeeded to the Crown on the death of King Edward VII, his father.

Thousands of Canadians, Australians, New Zealanders, Indians and Africans are this week in London honoring their King and Emperor, for George V is King to the English, Scot, and a few of the Irish, and Emperor to the Indians. To those of other dominions he is King George V of England, and not their ruler.

It is interesting to note the changes that have occurred since 1910, when King George was crowned. King Edward VII was escorted to his grave by 48 Kings and Princes. Today, twenty-five years later, only four sovereigns who were crowns in Europe then still wear them: King Emanuele III of Italy, Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, King Haakon VII of Norway, and King Gustav V of Sweden—the four other crowned rulers of Europe that have no political power in their respective countries.

The German daylight bombings of London during the War caused His Majesty to declare all German titles held by his family and subjects relinquished, to proclaim on July 25, 1916: "We, having taken into consideration the name and title of Our Royal House and Family, Saxe-Coburg-and-Gotha, have determined that henceforth our House and Family shall be styled and known as the House and Family of Windsor." And thus the British ruling family acquired the name of Windsor.

King George and Queen Mary endeared themselves to the British peoples by their conduct during the trying days of the World War. Naturally the King at once became the rallying point of national feeling within the Empire, but the example of quiet courage and strict economy set by the Royal Family won for it a place in the hearts of all true Englishmen.

George V is perhaps the best beloved and the most democratic of kings. No bill can become law in England until it receives the Royal Assent. This, however, is given not on the ruler's initiative, but on ministerial advice. The Prime Minister, as spokesman for the Cabinet, draws up the King's speech at the opening of Parliament. The King has to sign all the State papers, and the Government is carried on, and appointments made, in the name of the Crown but the practical authority is the Cabinet.

It is our wish that George Windsor V might rule Britannia another twenty-five years. The Prince of Wales stands first in the order of succession and, should he die, or leave no heirs, next would come the Duke of York; after him, the Princess Elizabeth, his elder daughter.

THE LEGISLATURE will adjourn tomorrow (May 11,) leaving 1,000 or more bills to die on calendar. The Senate concurred to the desire of the House to continue four days more than the prescribed session, which would ordinarily end May 8, the present regular session starting January 8 and its 129th day at $10 a day expiring last Tuesday.

A special session now seems inevitable, but the consensus of opinion is that Governor Allred will wait until about Sept. 1, following the referendum of Aug. 24 on dry law repeal and thus be able to submit a profitable source of taxation if prohibition is ended.

A GENERAL ARMS RACE in Europe seems imminent as Britain joins the rapidly increasing list of nations feverishly arming or rearming. Because of Adolf Hitler's boast that Germany is as strong in the air as Great Britain, the House of Commons has appropriated an additional $25,000,000 to the air appropriations of $125,000,000 already provided. As the Cabinet considered sending a formal protest to Berlin as a result of the Reich's intention to build submarines, Prime Minister Ramsey MacDnald assured the Commons that Britain is taking adequate measures to keep its defenses equal to Germany's.

British defense expenditures will total $489,000,000 for the current year with the additional air appropriations.

Sees "Boon To Farmers"

Raymond News Service

FORMER Ambassador James W. Gerard today praised the Farm Credit Administration for suggesting recently that crop loan borrowers buy American-made supplies. The noted diplomat, whose interest in America has been the very driving force of his private and public life said: "This will mean increased activity in American industries so vital to the welfare and prosperity of the American people, particularly producers of nitrate of soda and sulphate of ammonia. Such activity in turn will increase the home market for farm products. Many farmers, whether or not they are Crop Loan borrowers, will see this and accordingly act in their own and the country's interest by purchasing American goods."

But it isn't producing much precious metal.—Wichita (Kan.) Eagle.

Texas sold 100,000 square miles of land, comprising portions of Oklahoma, Kansas, Wyoming, Colorado, and New Mexico, to the United States government for $10,000,000.

The last meeting of the Reporters Club held Wednesday was devoted to making awards for the year's work. For individual reporting Harold Diserens and John Frank Post, Jr. received rewards for the first semester, and Josephine Clary and James Brady received rewards for the second semester.

The club has been divided in two groups and each group was responsible for the publication of the school paper, "The Broadcaster," which was printed once each month. One group was responsible one month, and the other group, the next month. The best copy of the paper was selected, and each member of the side that was responsible for that copy was given a small award. Josephine Clary's side was the winner in the contest.

Assembly Program

An interesting program was presented for the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades in assembly Monday morning by the junior band under the direction of Mr. Diserens. The program included several numbers by the entire band, a cornet trio by Billie McBride, Harold Diserens and John Frank Byrom, a saxophone duet by Gerry Davis and Frances Reesing, and a saxophone duet by Joe Boone and Danny McClellan.

Everyone enjoyed the program very much and we are looking forward to a junior band composed entirely of grammar school students next year.

Joan Blondell in Brilliant Comedy Coming to Regal

Joan Blondell, the blonde paper box, returns to screen after an interval of several months, in the hilarious First National comedy romance, "Traveling Saleslady," which comes to the Regal Theatre Saturday night at 10:30, also showing Sunday and Monday.

Her last previous picture was "Kansas City Princess," after which she retired for a "blessed event," which proved to be a lusty boy.

The story, by Frank Howard Clark, is a snappy comedy drama with surprising and stirring situations, sparkling dialogue and fast moving action.

Miss Blondell portrays the daughter of a tooth paste manufacturer, who had monopolized the field so long that he had grown conservative in his methods.

His daughter wants to enter the business, but he thinks a woman knows nothing of trade and her place is in the home. An inebriated inventor tries to sell the manufacturer a tooth-paste of different cocktail flavors, but he will not listen to him. The daughter, however, sees the possibilities of the new idea and sells it to her father's rival under a year's contract.

She steals her father's customers from his star salesman in a series of the most amusing episodes imaginable, the while making love to the man after eight o'clock in the evening when they call all business dealings off.

William Gargan has the role of Miss Blondell's rival salesman who hates her for getting the best of him and yet can't help loving her.

Glenda Farrell has the role of a drug store proprietress in love with Gargan. Hugh Herbert is the inebriated inventor.

Pecan budding is under way in Texas. Thousands of native pecans up and down the creeks and rivers are serving as kindly foster mothers to buds of highly improved varieties of this popular nut.

Whenever people start to doing things they start to planning ways to use what they have on hand for the dual purpose of doing it better and doing it cheaper. Now comes a man named Joe Shinn who lives in Collin county and buds pecan trees with the help of five inch strips—one-fourth inch wide—cut from discarded inner tubes.

No wax is used with the rubber strips which are put on in an overlapping spiral tightly enough to exclude the air, and self sealing as the end of the strip is slipped under the last lap.

J. F. Rosborough, Extension horticulturist, points out that last year when small native pecans were selling at seven and eight cents a pound the improved nuts were bringing in 20 and 25 cents a pound.

He thinks the difference in price makes it worth the farmer's while to take time in May to bud that young strippling pecan that came up "volunteer" out in the middle of the field.

He says that budding is no sleight of hand affair of great skill. The first person known to have budded a pecan tree was a Negro slave in Louisiana. All that is needed is care and patience.

Jasper—In a three month's campaign ending March 30, Jasper county farmers immunized 4000 pigs against hog cholera and checked a disease that had been raging in approximately 10 communities for six months, according to S. W. Monroe, county agricultural agent. Seventeen practical farmers trained in the work participated in this campaign. According to reliable estimate of farmers, 3500 pigs died with the disease before it was brought under control. The campaign was conducted in connection with the farm meat supply program, the purpose of which is to insure an adequate meat supply for every farm home.

Seguin—Forty-two terraces, which if strung out would measure more than 10 miles in length, have been constructed this spring on the farm of Walter Dreibrodt, Guadalupe county farmer, according to S. Whittett, county agricultural agent. Dreibrodt started terracing work three years ago and has utilized his spare time of his men and teams in this construction. The terraces have been built in heavy black flint rock land with a grader, ditcher, Fresno, and riding plow.

Crockett—Twenty Houston county farmers have blocked 1700 acres of land west of Crockett in a cooperative war on gophers, according to C. E. Bowles, county agricultural agent. Gullies across fields, broken terraces, ruined orchards and damaged pastures and crops are among the injuries caused by these gophers. More and more farms have been added to the block, as every farmer who cleans his own premises is anxious to have his neighbors join in the fight. After the first poisoning, the block will be covered a second time and wherever a new mound is found, fresh poison bait will be put out.

Beaumont—Lack of enough space for a garden failed to interfere with the gardening plans of Mrs. C. D. Williams, member of the Groves Home Demonstration Club in Jefferson county, according to Miss Jessie V. Murdock, home demonstration agent. Mrs. Williams was so determined that she would have a plot of growing vegetables that she arranged to garden on shares with a neighbor for the use of the neighbor's land. She has already canned greens from her garden to supply her family's needs. Nineteen varieties of vegetables are growing in the garden.

Belton—Seven Bell county 4-H club girls and their sponsor each constructed hotbeds this spring to start slow maturing plant such as tomatoes, peppers and cabbage for their spring gardens, according to Miss Lorena Dry, home demonstration agent.

Margaret Malacoat, 4-H club girl, reports making a hotbed six by six feet and covering it with a white duck top. The pit was dug the dimensions of the hotbed and 18 inches deep. Manure was thrown into the pit and tramped down well. Then about four inches of soil was placed over the manure. The cover was put on and the manure allowed to heat for a day or two before the seeds were sown.

Paducah—A closet large enough to hold the family wardrobe has been constructed at a cash expense of only 55 cents by Mrs. John Henderson, Cottle county wardrobe demonstrator, according to Miss Louie Simpson, home demonstration agent.

Mrs. Henderson made the frame for her closet from discarded lumber on the farm; the rod she made from an old broom handle; and the walls were made from pasteboard boxes. She put the boxes on the outside wall to make it sand proof. After the walls were finished, white wrapping paper was used for papering to reflect the light. Paint for the shelves and calcimine for the outside walls were the only cash expenditure.

RELATIVITIS

Another has "relativitis," the world's newest disease. Having four great grandfathers, W. S. Glass, A. H. Gregory, C. C. Rattan and B. F. Miller.

Also, grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Rattan and Mrs. Maggie Gregory.

All these folks lived in Gatesville at some time and are the distant relatives of Little Mamie Rattan, age 8. This is a third of a series of articles we have had to come to us on people who have a great many grandparents as well as other relatives. Just showing that there are many interesting facts about Coryell county people and that it is a good place to live a long time.

The original of the Constitution of Texas was lost in Tennessee. Only the newspaper reports were ratified, and in the archives of the State today, a copy of the document, as printed in the Texas Telegraph, replaces.

Sam Houston, Mare Anthony, and Napoleon Bonaparte stand out as the three general in history who have captured the combined head of an army and a government in the same battle.

The "New Orleans Grays," organized in 1835, was the first military unit organized on American soil to go to the aid of the settlers who had decided to throw off the yoke of Mexican tyranny. Adolphe Stern, former alcalde of Nacogdoches, outfitted the company of fifty men.

THE HORNET'S NEST—

Such students as Clarence Bauman, Charlie Ray Hinesley, Grady Dickey, Curtis Holcomb, Thomas Bone, Ralph McDowell, R. D. Myers, John Moore, Herbert Nance, Seth McLarty, Eldon Morgan, Clyde Perry, Joe Powell, James Scott, and Hazen Ward have represented G. H. S. in all lines of boys' athletics. Clarence Bauman is a three-year football letterman, Ralph McDowell was captain of the 1934 eleven, Herbert Nance has two stripes on his basketball sweater to prove he is an asset to any quint, and Joe Powell is one of the better known athletes, having two years of football to his credit, three years of basketball and has been on the track team. In his first year in G. H. S. Hazen Ward earned two sweaters and was on the track team. Seth McLarty is one of the best liked members of the Senior Class. His power on the gridiron, his uncanny goal shooting, his efforts on the track, and his general personality has made him probably the best known lad in Gatesville. Durward Taylor is president of the Senior Class of '35, a member of the Dramatic Club two years, and has taken active parts in other phases of school life.

Harold Goolsby is editor of the "Black and Gold." Edwin Prewitt has been active in school work and was a member of the '35 debating team that won the county championship. Jack (Sky-scraper) Thornton is known and well liked by all the student body. James Evans has been a member of the choral club two years and took important parts in the operettas presented this year and last.

Winne Bell Davis captain of the Gatesville Hi Basketball team of '35 and other members from the class are Lillie Mae Morris, Hazel Laxson, Bessie Voss, Alcinia Walsh, and Freda Wood, who was also the girls' extemporaneous speaker at the county meet this year.

Guinivere Whisenhunt was the best forward on the girls' team this year, and she played in the orchestra. Rebecca Clemmons was a member of the basketball team and the typing class. Hazel Mayberry was on the basketball sextette and was awarded a cup for her beauty.

Jacqueline West has great tennis ability. She is in the orchestra and on the staff of the "Black and Gold." Waldine Wharton has been active in several clubs and had the feminine lead in the last operetta of the choral club.

As A Senior Looks Back

By Margaret Swindall
Hornets' Nest Poetess
In the Gatesville High School building,
Where each fond old desk still stays,
With "A-B-C" scratched on the gilding,
And drawings all over the glaze,
With Garland's gum just where he left it,
And Joyce's land marks everywhere,
And Thomas now sits thoughtfully and wonders
"Does the good old school room care?"
Rosalie, in her turn, has puzzled, fretting
O'er algebraic sum,
While Clarence sat here betting
He heard the river moaning,
"Come."
"Now a greater river flowing,"
Says Grady "That our valley past our town,
Calls each student to go a-rowing,
On its surface, up or down."
Beverly glances back with looks half yearning,

And Mona's heart more swiftly beats
As they know there'll be no more returning
To the school room and the old oak seats,
And they thought of their dearest teachers each day,
Since the night they graduated in the month of May,
And they've always felt that it's great to be alive,
Since they were the Seniors of 1935;
And when they have grown very, very old,
They will never forget the good old "Black and Gold."

Junior-Senior Banquet

By Pat Holt
Tuesday night of this week the Junior class entertained the Senior class with a banquet in the form of a Japanese night club. On the program were Beverly Ann Borber, who tapped and sang "The Object of My Affection," and "The Good Ship Lollypop," and Clinton Chamlee sang several numbers, including "June in January" dedicated to Beverly Chamlee and Fred Byrom, and "When I Grow Too Old to Dream."

Another feature on the program was a "History of the Seniors Class of '35," a novelty skit beginning with the senior's first day at school, which they unwillingly attend. From here the plot skipped seven years and they were shown as grammar school seniors. The next year they were shown as freshmen shining upperclassmen's shoes. But the worm turned and they were shown having their first date, and finally, seniors in caps and gowns. Those taking part in the skit were Fred Byrom, Brack Hanna, Albert Dickie, Bob Thomas, Neal Chapman, Leah Dale Franks, and Wendell Lowrey. Erle Powell was the narrator. Rob Thomas, representing Father Time, read prophecies for the seniors telling what they would be doing in 1965. E. T. Mayes Jr., M. H. Shepherd and Royce Davis played several hill-billy tunes, ending with "You Get a Line and I'll Get a Pole" dedicated to Coach Ewing and Mr. Boldridge. Miss Worthy read two numbers.

The banquet was opened with a welcome to the seniors by Dave Culberson, junior class president. Mr. Williams closed the banquet with a short talk.

The dinner consisted of three courses, a salad, the main course of creamed potatoes, English peas, tuna salad with lettuce, and buttered biscuits, and the dessert made of congealed marshmallows and bananas with whipped cream.

The seniors and faculty were presented with fake diplomas bearing a good will inscription.

Commencement Sermon

By Lena Mae McCoy
The Senior Class Commencement services will be held in the gymnasium building on Sunday morning, May 19. The address will be given by Reverend Marcus M. Chunn of the First Methodist Church of Gatesville.

Senior Class Officers

Durward Taylor, president of the Senior Class of 1935, was also president of the Junior Class last year, and has been an outstanding member of the High School Dramatic Club for the last two years. This year he is business manager and has the leading part in the senior play which will be presented tonight.
After four years in G. H. S., Joe Powell is graduating with a commendable record. He has served as class officer of several classes, being vice president this year, and is one of Gatesville High's outstanding athletes.

Margaret Gilder has been very popular in High School, being a class officer every year. She was secretary-treasurer of the freshman class of '32, president of the sophomore class in '33, vice president of the junior class of '34. She holds the office of secretary-treasurer this year. In addition to this, she has been in the choral club three years, omitting her junior year. Last year she was in the dramatic club and held the office of secretary-treasurer. During the football season, she was leader of the pep squad. She has had one of the fullest extra-curricular careers of any one in the senior class.

Mr. Ralph McDowell has been an important figure in Gatesville High School for four years. After being outstanding on the 1933 football team as a center, he was elected captain of the '34 team. His services being needed at a tackle position, he put his team before his own preference and shifted from center to right tackle. He made a very capable tackle and above all, kept the respect of his teammates for the entire football year. Not only in athletics did Ralph attract attention. In social activities he was always dependable and works hard at anything he tries. He was elected reporter of the senior class of '35 because of his ability and also of his reputation for making a success of that he tries.

Miss Villa Holmes has acted as sponsor for the class of '35. In this capacity, it has been her duty to be present at class meetings. She arranged for the class party which was given shortly before Christmas, and worked with Mr. Williams in making preparations for Senior Day last Wednesday. As sponsor of the class she also helped plan for all commencement activities.

The class play, "Honor Bright," which is being given tonight, is being directed by Miss Holmes.

Miss Holmes, who is a graduate of North Texas State Teachers College, has held the position of Spanish teacher in the high school for the past four years. In addition to her work with the senior class, she is also sponsor of the Dramatic Club.

The County Baseball League will open tomorrow. The list of men on each team with the schedule will be found elsewhere in this issue of the News. The Arbitrary Committee has adopted to kinds of balls, the Worth and the Hoyt 1-C ball.

The Firemen won 9-0 from the Round Table Tuesday night by forfeit, as did the Independent crew from the Oilers by forfeit. Heretofore when two teams were scheduled to play a game and neither had enough men to play, it was understood to play the game at another date, however, from now on this will count a half game won and half game loss.

There will be no games tonight due to the fact the Senior play will be presented in the gymnasium. The games that were rained out Friday night, May 3, will be played Monday night, May 13.

The Softball League up to the present time has been running more or less loose. The reason we give for this is the weather conditions and the different activities at the school. Weather conditions are due to improve and the activities at the school will soon terminate, and the League is to improve in interest.

Monday night the Independent team is to meet the Oilers. The Independents are due to win by a narrow margin. The Bachelors play the Firemen the second game, and will probably lick the Round Table to a fare-you-well.

TAX-FREE TAGS

which intends to sell any cotton tax-free. Farmers are urged and informed that they must make their application with the community committee according to the schedule outlined below.

There is a penalty on any landlord who fails to report any tenant or tenants on the prescribed farm. This list of tenants with the acreage of each must be posted by the landlord on the farm and any tenant may demand to see this list from the landlord. Every tenant if there exists a mistake must make his appeal at the County office to the County Committee not later than May 25.

Although it is to the farmers advantage and for the welfare of the program for all applications to be made through the community committee on the above three days, if it is absolutely impossible for an application to be made the 15, 16 and 17 of May farmers must make application in the County office the 18 and 20 of May. It is the farmers responsibility both tenant and landlord to see to it that an application for tax-exempt tags has been made for that farm in which he is interested. Although cards bearing the schedule of application days was sent to all producers which names were in the county office it will be the responsibility of the producer whether he received a card or not to make application at the designated places. Farmers are urged to inform their neighbors as to this point. It is certainly a desire of the one in charge of the program that no farm which will grow any cotton in 1935 to fail to get tax-exempt tags. The absolute dead line date for the producer to get all completed Bankhead applications signed and in the county agent's office is May 25, Saturday.

Producers are urged to read closely and abide by the following schedules of communities sign up locations and dates. Each day 8 A. M. to 5 P. M.
