Coryell County veterans are called to meet in the District Court room February 11, Tuesday of next week at 7:30 p. m., at which time complete information will be given for those who will wish to make application for the bonus under the new bonus laws.

In conversation with Commander W. L. Lam yesterday, Mr. Lam stated that there were about 500 men in this county who would benefit from this new law, and he urged that each veteran notify his neighbor, so that they would all be present for the application explanation.

Drilling Is Resumed On Ireland Oil Well

Drilling is to be resumed on the Ireland test well located on the Doyle ranch, according to information given out by those in charge.

Dave Grubb of Ireland was in Gatesville Monday and informed the News that the driller, Tom O'Neal, said that operations were to start today.

The first job will be to remove a hung bit which will require but a short time, then regular drilling will begin and pushed to the end.

At present the hole is down 3746 feet and the hopes of gaining a paying well by those in charge have never waned. It appears that recent inactivities in drilling was for the purpose of shaping up some leases on adjoining acreage to make the promoters safe.

An encouraging factor in this promotion is that Dad Joiner of East Texas fame, is backing the new arrangement, according to word received here.

Mr. Grubb also stated that drilling in two or three other wells in Hamilton County is to be resumed, or has already started on some of them.

Leasing in other parts of this county in that section is also going on said Mr. Grubb.

Agent of Cotton Belt Killed in Accident On Trip to Tyler Sat.

W. C. Thorpe, 50, agent for the St. Louis-Southwestern railroad here, was killed near Corsicana Saturday afternoon when the car he was riding alone in struck a bridge rail.

No one witnessed the accident, and passing motorists brought his body to Corsicana.

Buck Taylor and his mother of Tyler were passing, and we understand were the first people to reach the scene of the wreck after the accident. Mr. Thorpe's body was so badly smashed some difficulty was experienced in identifying him.

Mr. Thorpe left here late Saturday morning to bring his family here to live, he recently having been appointed Cotton Belt agent here to succeed the late J. R. Curtis.

Texas Farmers En Masse Demand Justice, Equality at Waco Meeting

Two thousand farmers from every part of Texas met in Waco Saturday morning and in united strength were outspoken in their criticism of the Supreme Court's decision on the AAA and were vigorous in their demand for constitutional revision to insure equal rights for agriculture.

President Roosevelt and his administration as friends of the farmer were cheered, and the "special interests" were criticized without giving quarter.

Endorsing a seven-point program which was framed in Washington January 10, at this meeting, the farmer resolved as follows:

"We assert our continued faith in the president and his administration, and resent the subtle, unwarranted and un-American attacks being made on the administration, especially in view of the fact that it's constructive leadership has given agriculture for the first time in the history of the country the recognition it deserves, that of equal opportunity with other industries.

"We urge legislators in congress and the state legislature to support a constitutional amendment expressly authorizing congress to enact laws to equalize agricultural benefits with those received by industry under the tariff."

The other five points were: "We earnestly demand congress take definite and immediate action to enact laws to guarantee the proper uses of oil resources of the nation and bring about an orderly flow of agricultural commodities in trade channels and to re-establish and maintain farm purchasing power.

2. "We endorse the seven point program as agreed on in the farm conference called by Secretary Henry Wallace on January 10.

3. "We request congress to make immediate appropriation to make rental payments to farmers, who carried out their part of the bargain last year under contract with the government.

4. "We endorse without qualification the Jones commodity exchange bill, and insist upon passage at this session of congress.

5. "We appeal to the Texas congressional delegation to exert its fullest efforts toward the accomplishment and immediate adoption of the farm program in line with the above."

Among the principal speakers were Vernie Marshall of Hejdenheimer who sounded the keynote of the rally. Frank Briggs, editor of "Farm and Ranch," and Eugene Butler, editor of "Progressive Farmer."

Farmers were there from the Panhandle, coming thru the snow and ice. Coryell County sent approximately 50; Bell, 52; Williamson, 50; Miami, 60; Falls, 51; and Burleson, 11.

H. G. Lucas of Brownwood, president of the Texas Agricultural Association, presided at the rally, called the Supreme Court's decision, "a serious blow to all of our people."

528 City Polls Paid, 3,969 Polls in Co.; More to Come Yet

Announcement from Fred Penelope of the city office yesterday afternoon was to the effect that 528 polls have been paid in the city and the dead line has already been reached. As to the division as to boxes, no information was disclosed.

County polls, according to Dave & Co., of the Tax Assessor-Collector's office, 3,969 have been paid, this including 144 exemptions. Figures, after the opening of a mass of "taxes by mail," will, according to Mr. Culberson, amount to some 4,000 paid polls.

WORLD COMMENT

By JOE BURNS

TEXAS' Democratic State executive committee met Saturday at Austin and pledged unanimous support to Roosevelt, Garner, and Allred. Highlight of the meet was the address of Gov. Allred, who in characteristically vigorous language excofiated the Republican party generally and Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas particularly.

The meeting was called to consider party affairs in the State, and there was no discussion over a meeting place for the May 26 convention to elect delegates to the National Democratic Convention to nominate candidates for President and Vice-President.

State Chairman Myron G. Blalock of Marshall informed the committee that $35,000 of the quota of $50,000 assigned to Texas to pay off the national committee deficit has been raised and sent to the National Committee. Blalock will set up and direct whatever campaign is put on for the election of President Roosevelt. Garner delegations to the national convention and for raising money in Texas. His organization will co-operate with Congressman Sam Rayburn of Bonham as the representative of Garner as National Democratic executive committeeman.

THE RESOLUTION of the convention of United Mine Workers of America to "go forward with Roosevelt," assures the New Deal of about 1,500,000 miner votes.

Adopted at the suggestion of John L. Lewis, leader of the miners and ardent supporter of the New Deal, the resolution stated:

"The United Mine Workers of America pledge their united and wholehearted support to bring about continuance of the work of Franklin D. Roosevelt as President of the United States for another term.

"We are for Roosevelt, the greatest humanitarian of our time."

AN EASY way to pay the bonus is now being sought by Representatives and Senators who fear increased taxes to meet the payment in election year. Currency blocs are now being organized in both Houses and hope to drive through a program for controlled currency expansion to eliminate the need of new taxes.

The President has served notice on Congress that, in addition to the $2,500,000,000 needed to pay the bonus and $200,000,000 to refund processing taxes to rice growers, at least $500,000,000 annually is needed to meet the loss of revenue from the processing taxes and to finance the new farm program.

Inflationists want to issue more than $5,000,000,000 in new money. Sen. Elmer Thomas, Democrat of Oklahoma, will lead the fight for inflation in the Senate and co-operate with House inflation groups, now numbering over 50 Representatives. Thomas believes the $5,500,000,000 to $7,000,000,000 in new money which the idle gold and silver in the Treasury could be used to back is sufficient to cover needs of the Government and prevent any new taxes.

Co-incident to inflationary talk in Congress came a statement from Rep. Wright Patman of Texarkana, author of the Patman inflationary bonus bill which was vetoed last year, that he will fight for action on his original bill. This, if it could be forced to a House vote, could be amended simple to provide for issuance of new currency to pay off bonus costs.

VICE-PRESIDENT GARNER has reserved eighty rooms for the Texas' delegation to the Democratic national convention at Philadelphia beginning June 23. The State delegation will number 200 or more, including the five members from each congressional district and an advisory committee of fifty.

There is little doubt that the State convention will send a 100 per cent instructed delegation for Roosevelt and Garner. Mr. Garner will head the delegation and retain his post as member of the national committee from this State. The Vice-President was designated as vice-chairman of the national committee at the recent meeting of the committee in Washington. Mr. Garner is to be Mr. Roosevelt's running mate in the campaign and will personally receive the honors as vice-presidential nominee at Philadelphia.

ALF LONDON, the Kansas "Coolidge," made his bid for the G. O. P. nomination last week with a stirring address on national issues before Topeka Republicans.

The Governor's stand on a number of controversial issues was clarified and from now on he may be classed among the definite contenders for the plumb which Cleveland will hand out June 6 and following.

We find him standing for quite a number of things that President Roosevelt stands for. He is for AAA subsidies to farmers and is decidedly opposed to inflation.

According to Walter Davenport, writing in Collier's, he is "a Republican who doesn't think the Constitution is in dire peril, who believes that honest progress has been made by the Democratic Administration, who has no smart-cracks for Mr. Roosevelt nor trick names for flogging the Brain Trust."

One feature of Landon's Topeka speech that will soak into the American mind is that the average family spends one-fourth of its income for taxes whether the family knows it or not.

In considering the prospects of Governor Landon let us remember this: His praises are being sung by Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma Republicans but not by the Eastern group that usually chooses the nominee. He will be presented at the Cleveland convention as the farm belt candidate and his only chance of winning that nomination is to win the unified support of the farm belt delegates.

Senator Bill Borah recently pointed out that the rank and file of the Republican party have had no voice in the nomination of their national candidate in thirty years.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF TOM HOBIN

A great sorrow has come to this community and the county at large. On last Sunday at ten o'clock p. m. the Grim Reaper claimed the life of Tom Hobin. He was born at Turnersville and spent the most of his life here. All who knew him were his friends. Tom was man who was ever ready to render aid to those who needed help and always proved himself to be a neighbor to those in real need, though they be miles apart. The nights never got too dark or the weather too bad for him to go if called on. Man looketh on the outward appearance but God looketh on the heart, and when God looketh on the heart of this man, He could see there a burning desire to help mankind. The homes of this community are few that he has not visited in time of sickness and distress. He was a true Christian, a member of the Baptist Church at Evergreen, journeying there with his wife some months ago, and his last words to his loved ones around his bed side was, he would fight for his life, but if it was God's will for him to go, he was ready. Tom, had he lived until the twenty-seventh of June, would have been fifty-six years old. He leaves behind to mourn his going, his aged mother, Mrs. P. R. Hobin, two brothers, John Hobin of Turnersville, Garnet Hobin of Denver, one sister, Mrs. Olin Sydow of Gatesville, his wife, Mrs. Nellie Hobin, and one daughter, Mrs. Thelma Williams of Kilgore, Texas. We would say to the bereaved, we all know that life at its best is uncertain and are told in His word to watch and pray, for we know not when the Lord cometh, and are often reminded of the truth. Leaves have their time to fall, and flowers to wilt at the north winds breath. Stars have their time to set, but Thou hast all seasons for thine own, O Death.

A Friend.

"HAVE A CARE FOR YOUR HEALTH"

This is the admonition given us hundreds of times by a certain President of a Texas university! Better, we don't believe we have ever heard.

What brings this home to us is the fact that we've been trying to take the flu or worse for about a week—it must have been necessary for something to hit us before we thought about it.

In Texas, where the climate changes "twice in twenty-four hours" or more often, we put on, and then pull off our clothes, never knowing one minute what it's going to be the next.

There's no need for anyone to TELL you what to do to keep healthy and to avoid colds, etc, since it's been told over and over. Here's the warning, tho, and we can only say in closing, "Have a care for your health."

BAPTIST OF STATE HONOR SAM HOUSTON MARCH FIRST

Dallas, Jan. 31.—Baptists of the United States will join in a religious celebration of the birthday of General Sam Houston, Sunday, March 1. A call was issued today by the Texas Baptist Convention asking every Baptist church in America to join with them in memorializing the victor of San Jacinto who won independence and religious freedom for Texas.

Houston's birthday falls on Texas Independence Day, March 2nd but services will be held in all Baptist churches the preceding Sunday. In his letter to 2,000 Baptist congregations Rev. Howard Williams, secretary of the Texas Baptists, urges union services in every community where there are two or more Baptist churches.

Special services will be held in First Baptist Church, Washington, D. C. which Houston attended when he was United States Senator, at Baylor University in Waco, Texas, whose founder Dr. Rufus G. Burleson baptized General Houston and

- RESETTLEMENT AREA FOR FARM TENANTS

Surveys have been authorized in seventeen areas of Texas and Oklahoma, leading to development in some of these areas of land projects where tenant farmers and share-croppers will be given an opportunity to purchase homes.

Community projects, in which a single tract of land will be subdivided into 100 or more farms, are being considered for Oklahoma in Bryan County, in North Central Oklahoma and at Laverne. Texas community projects considered are in Delta County, the Wichita River Valley, Harris County, Hale County, Fannin County, and Central East Texas.

Area projects, in which individual farms are scattered over several adjoining counties, are under consideration in Oklahoma at Independence, Texas where he joined the church.

The Texas Centennial Exposition which is cooperating with the Texas Baptist Convention in plans for this religious observance announced today plans for a $50,000 Hall of Religion, a spacious and beautiful building for free exhibits by all denominations. In the Baptist section of the structure special stress will be laid on Houston's services to his state and to the Republic of Texas of which he was the first elected president.

How's Your Etiquette?

Should people stop at a table to talk to friends?

It depends on circumstances. Sometimes it is more considerate to speak and pass on, for if a woman is with them, the men at the table must stand as long as she is there, and when introductions have to be made, the meat may be unduly interrupted.

From Brown county come reports that soil conservation work was carried on affecting 417 acres on 11 farms in December. Road machinery built terraces 24 feet wide and 1 1/2 feet high on 8 farms at a cost of $1.57 per acre. A tour was arranged on which 83 farmers and 4-H club boys visited four of these soil conservation demonstrations.

In Comanche County there is a 207 acre pasture demonstration which has been in progress for 8 years, during which underbrush and weeds have been removed. A profit of $10 per acre from this pasture in 1935 was found after totaling the receipts from cattle, hogs, turkeys and pecans and deducting the cost of maintaining the pasture.

A 4-H club boy of Mills county produced 210 pounds of lint per acre on his 5 acre cotton demonstration. The average for his community in 1935 was 120 pounds of lint per acre.

Six terracing demonstrations totaling 110 acres were given in December in Palo Pinto county. Three of the terraced fields will be planted to orchards.

In Runnels county 4-H club boys are feeding 20 beef calves, 32 lambs, and 17 pigs for the March livestock shows. There are 150 club boys enrolled for 1936.

Franklin—"The best investment on my farm," is the term applied to a sweet potato curing house built by Frank James of the Camp Creek community in Robertson county, according to V. L. Sandlin, county agricultural agent.

James built the house of scrap lumber bought at a local sawmill and used one side of a barn for part of one wall and built a shed roof. The total cost of the shed was less than $10 and it holds 100 bushels of potatoes which James states have doubled in value from being cured.

Mount Vernon—Even a small flock of hens is worth keeping, according to Neil Peterson of the Cypress community in Franklin county.

"My 55 white leghorn hens made enough profit during three months of the year to feed themselves, 45 baby chicks, two mules and the four members of my family," he reported to W. N. Williamson, county agricultural agent. "I hope to have 100 producing hens next year," he added.

Cuero—More than 2,370 acres of land were terraced on 58 DeWitt county farms during 1935, according to J. A. Oswalt, county agricultural agent. Using the conservative figure of $8 per acre, the terraces constructed during the year are worth $18,960 to the farmers who did the terracing, Oswalt estimates. Since 1929, more than 400 farmers in the county have terraced 16,759 acres.

At present, 240 requests are on file in the agent's office for assistance in running terrace lines on approximately 20,000 acres of crop land. Through the efforts of the county farm demonstration council the commissioner's court has agreed to build terraces for the farmers at actual cost of operation of the road machinery. Requests for this service are so numerous that each applicant is limited to two days' work with the machinery.

Bastrop—From 103 chicks purchased from a hatchery on October 8, Wynona Schultz, Bastrop county 4-H club girl, raised the whole number to frying size, according to Miss Audette McDonald, home demonstration agent. These fryers were ready for the Christmas market.

Wynona attributes her success in raising poultry to the fact that she buys strong healthy chicks, feeds them properly, keeps houses and feeding utensils clean and gives the chicks regular care.

Baird—"On making my yearly report I found that I had canned 20,940 pints of food for myself and other people," says Mrs. H. S. Blalock, 4-H pantry demonstrator for the Clyde progressive home demonstration club in Callahan county.

In addition to canning more than 20,000 containers of food, Mrs. Blalock converted an unused room into a pantry by adding 160 feet of shelves and labeling each shelf, according to Miss Vida Moore, home demonstration agent.

The pantry contains 860 pints of food for home use, as the other canned food has been sold.

Groveton—Twenty-one buckets of fertilizer have been added to the cutting bed of Mrs. B. J. Faulkner, yard demonstrator of the Woodlake home demonstration club in Trinity county, as part of her yard improvement work, and the cutting bed has been spaded. She has also broken the plot for a rose garden, added 12 buckets of fertilizer and put out rose settings, according to her report to Miss Clara E. Rettiger, home demonstration agent.

Mrs. Faulkner went to the woods and gathered native shrubs and secured cutting of cultivated shrubs and roses from a nearby neighbor. She adds: "I have my yard sodded, my border beds and my screen plantings prepared."

France is buying more from the United States than from Germany.

SPELLING CONTEST—

Additional interest was added to the first, due to the fact that no one had come in with the correct answer up to the time for the second contest to come out.

One feature of the contest, was an answer from Bryan Arnold, received yesterday from West Point Military Academy in New York state, and by Air Mail. Other places represented by the entrants were Purlmela, Ireland, Leon Junction, Flat, Crawford, Mound, The Grove, Pidcoke and every other place in the county, besides the routes and star routes.

MEAL OF THE MONTH

Bacon Meat Roll with Olive Stuffing

By MARIE GIFFORD
Armour Food Economist

WINTER "budget menus" usually mean an array of stews, winter vegetables and cereal puddings, good nourishing food but strangely uninspiring. Here's an idea, however, for a brand new and economical dish from those old favorites, ground meat and bacon. It's called Bacon Meat Roll with Olive Stuffing, and it's the principal dish of the Meal of the Month for February.

Experience has taught you long since of the particular economy of ground meats, beef, pork, veal or lamb. I like to use a combination of some beef, pork and veal for finest flavor. You may emphasize whichever meat flavor you prefer.

And the bacon—there's the meat flavor that makes any meat dish. It adds its juicy fat, its delightful hickory smoke flavor and its appetizing bits of lean pink to give this special meat roll its company manners.

To prepare the meat roll, make a flat layer of your special selection of ground meats, using a piece of oiled paper underneath. Then you make a neat roll of a perfectly delicious olive bread stuffing to form a sort of core. The meat is lifted by means of the paper and shaped around the stuffing. The whole roll is given a bacon covering of some 8 or 9 slices laid crosswise of the roll and tucked in carefully at the sides.

In baking, the fat of the bacon bastes the meat and keeps it juicy. When you cut the roll you have a neat oval slice with a creamy center showing interesting bits of red and green of the olives. The 2 pounds of ground meat with the 1/2 pound of bacon used in this dish cuts into 10 generous servings. Here is the recipe for the dressing:

- 1 1/2 cups dry bread crumbs
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 8 stuffed olives
- 1 tablespoon chopped onion
- 1 egg
- 1/2 cup boiling water

Melt butter and add onion. Cook until onion is clear. Mix with bread crumbs and add salt, sliced olives and egg, slightly beaten. Add boiling water to moisten. Chopped pimiento or green pepper may be added.

"FORD ALMANAC" AVAILABLE FOR THOSE WHO WISH TO KEEP INFORMED

Publication of a "Farm Almanac and Facts Book" which will be distributed to the rural population in all parts of the country was announced today by the Ford Motor Company.

The book is of a convenient pocket size, containing 48 pages. It is unusual in makeup and content, presenting an extensive array of handy tables, statistics and charts for the assistance of the farmer and business man. Other sections are designed to aid the farm wife.

This first Ford Almanac is published for 1936 and is now being distributed. It carries a readily available calendar on the back cover and contains tables showing the time of rise and set of sun and moon in all parts of the country every day of the year. Other helpful and interesting astrological and astronomical information is included.

Among the other prominent sections of the book are: A list of memorable historic events for each day of the year, facts about the universe, explanations of physical phenomena, a list of important festivals and anniversaries for the year, rules for foretelling weather conditions, population statistics, facts and records on farming as an industry, discussion of the farm of the future, information on citizenship and naturalization, a brief review of the history and development of the United States, "do's and don'ts" for use in emergencies, be recounted in detail. Three hundred Texans will be in the table gardening, crop seed sowing instructions, a list of places of interest to the tourist, parcel post rules and regulations, temperature and rainfall chart, dates of killing frosts in all parts of the country, and a table of distances between the principal cities of the country.

Stories on the founding and development of the Ford Motor Company and about the Ford Rouge Plant, word pictures of famous Edison Institute Museum and quaint Greenfield Village, established within a few miles of the Rouge Plant, are other features of the Ford Farm Almanac.

$150,000 FOR HISTORY SPECTACLE AT OPENING OF CENTENNIAL

Dallas, Jan. 31.—The romantic history of Texas from the landing of the Spaniards 400 years ago until the present day will be portrayed in a Cavalcade of Texas at the Texas Centennial Exposition which opens here in June.

Exposition authorities have appropriated $150,000 for this spectacle which will be one of the feature events of the $25,000,000 World's Fair. On an artificial river in the Exposition grounds will float Spanish galleons, LaFitte's pirate ships and war boats of the Republic of Texas. A huge screen of spraying water tinted by varicolored lights, will curtain the shifting acts.

From conquistadore to cowboy, from the quest for gold to the history and development of the discovery of oil, the glamor of the United States, "do's and don'ts" for use in emergencies, be recounted in detail. Three hundred Texans will be in the scendants of the historical characters they impersonate. Cowboys, Franciscan friars, revolutionary and Confederate soldiers, trail drivers and rangers will sing in massed chorus. The dramatization of Texas history will be set to music with songs of various periods interwoven in its throne.

The Exposition's research department is searching the State for authentic properties for use in the show such as longhorn cattle, buffalo, stage coaches, ox teams, covered wagons, Spanish armor and the long rifles of the frontiersmen. Charles E. Turner, former West Texas cow puncher and recently mayor of Dallas is in charge of the spectacle with William M. Hamilton, playwright and composer as director. The script is written by Jan Isbell Fortune, Texas writer of note.

COLLECTORS WILL TREK TO GONZALES FOR SALE OF CENTENNIAL STAMPS

Gonzales, Jan. 31.—For the second time within four months Gonzales will be the scene of much Centennial activity, when several hundred stamp collectors flock here on March 2, the probable date for the sale of the first "Texas Centennial" stamp. Postoffice officials have indicated that March 2, Texas Independence Day, would be a fitting time to release the new issue, and it is likely that Gonzales, the "Lexington of Texas" will be the sale site.

The first stamp of the new issue will be sold to Governor James V. Allred, who will affix it to a letter from Postmaster James A. Farley addressed to the President. Incidentally, the President is a philatelist himself.

It is estimated that some 200,000 letters will be posted at Gonzales on the first day the stamps are put on sale. On the following day they will be on sale in other postoffices.

It is said by philatelists that the "first day cover" of a cancellation has from 10 to 20 times the value to stamp collectors of those mailed at later dates.

MANY THOUSANDS ASK ABOUT TEXAS

Dallas, Jan. 31.—Thousands of requests for information and literature on the State of Texas and its state-wide Centennial year celebrations have been pouring into the state department of information here, following the opening of the national Centennial advertising campaign.

Requests for information began flooding the office following publication of the first of a series of Centennial advertisements in the January 21 issue of the Saturday Evening Post. Other advertisements will be published in Time, Colliers, Fortune, and other newspapers and magazines with state and national circulation.

Prepared literature is being mailed persons who ask information about the Centennial celebrations or the state on coupons included on the advertisements.

Officials of the department pointed out that the present campaign is the most elaborate effort ever made by a state to "sell" itself to the nation.

SAN PATRICIO COUNTY CELEBRATION PLANNED

Sinton, Tex., Jan. 31.—Early days in historic San Patricio county will be recalled in a county-wide Centennial year celebration to be held at both Sinton and Taft on April 14, planned by the McMullen-McGloin Historical association and the Sinton and Taft chamber of commerce.

Dedication of a marker on the courthouse lawn at Sinton will be followed April 15 by a colorful historical parade. During the three days of the celebration, relics, trophies, and other mementoes of historical interest will be exhibited in store windows of Sinton business houses.

Each night of the celebration a pageant, depicting the true history of San Patricio county, will be given under lights on the baseball field at Taft. The pageant was written by Mrs. Vincent Bluntzer and Miss Lydia Dougherty, both descendants of early day South Texas settlers.

When people unload their troubles, tell them what you have to be thankful for.

He is a coward who imposes only on those who do not resist.

A person always pays for what he says when he is mad. You can't hitchhike your way to happiness.

Freedom laughs at him who is the servant of a slave.

Texas, celebrating this year her 100th anniversary of independence, has been under six flags, Spanish, French, Mexican, Texas Republic, Confederate, and the United States.

LET'S HAVE A MARSH-MALLOW TOAST

It's More Fun Than a Picnic!

This may be a challenge, this may be a guess—but could there be any nicer way to while away chill winter evenings than to gather 'round the fireplace and toast marshmallows? If the crowd is coming in for a party, or if the family just wants to "family," there's no cozier, no friendlier way to do it than to dangle fat, puffy marshmallows over a warm, glowing, crackling fire.

No doubt you fireplace will be the setting for many gay parties and gatherings this winter. At least, that will be the case if you like these simple, informal, "spur-of-the-momentish" affairs. However, if the fireplace is going to be the center of attraction, it's a pretty good idea to keep it looking its best.

Of course, everyone knows that a fireplace can appear to be a rather dirty "hole-in-the-wall"—with ashes to empty, hearths to clean, and irons to free of smoke stains. But, isn't all that forgotten when you start comparing the many good times which a fireplace affords with the little extra work which a fireplace makes?

Cleaning the hearth, the fireplace trim, the andirons, and the fireplace accessories can be turned into a simple easy trick by one and the same method, by using the cleanser made with seismotite because it polishes as it cleans. It makes no difference whether you're cleaning rough brick or highly polished bronze—the job can be safely, surely and quickly done; nor will it expect much from you in the way of energy expenditure. Simply sprinkle this safe cleanser over a damp cloth and rub it over the surface. When all smoke and ash stains are chased away, wipe with a damp cloth and dry. If the surface is capable of taking a polish—as in the case of metals, glazing brick, tile and stone—that you shall have without doing one thing extra. The surface will be polished as it is cleaned.

Sorry, but guess the ashes still have to be emptied every now and then; and, yes, the log basket still has to be filled perhaps a good many times a week. But with the cleaning problem under control, who could let those trite little details stand between you, a cheery fire in the fireplace, and a crowd of happy marshmallow toasters?

YOUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

By Dr. ALLEN G. IRELAND
Director, Physical and Health Education
New Jersey State Department of Public Instruction

MILK IN THE ANTARCTIC

Having last week introduced my ideal teacher, Miss Brown of the Four Corners School, I feel an obligation to share my joy with you. If I can do that successfully, you will thank me in the end.

Let us take an example, as when she read Russell Owen's South of the Sun. In this best of all stories of the first Byrd Antarctic Expedition, Mr. Owen tells of observing a mother seal suckling her young.

Always thinking of "her children," Miss Brown saw in this incident an opportunity to put across a bit of modern education. So she had one pupil read this particular description to the class. It was then her cue to stimulate the asking of questions, an art or skill with her and one every teacher should develop. True to form the children responded. "Was it milk?" they asked. "What do you think?" she responded. And the discussion was on, hot and heavy. Well, the story is obvious. It led to the listing of mammals and a discussion of the importance of milk. And knowing Miss Brown as I do, I am sure it led right down to the bottle of milk at your door in the early dawn. "What good is milk?" she probably asked, and stuck to it until every pupil knew the perfect answer.

How do children learn best? Through play, says Dr. Ireland, and in his next article he tells why.

THIS WEEK IN TEXAS HISTORY

1848—The Mexican War concluded Feb. 2 and the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo was signed in which Mexico gave up claim on Texas and agreed to the Rio Grande as the boundary.

1856—The Washington County Railroad was chartered Feb. 2 to be constructed from Hempbe located on the campus of the University of Texas at Austin and will house some of Texas' most precious relics and possessions. The imposing structure for which Congress has

CORYELL COUNTY ASSN. WELL ATTENDED

Notwithstanding the inclement weather Saturday the Teachers' Meeting was well attended.

Songs were directed by D. W. Diserens and Miss Kinsey. Invocation was by Weldon B. Teague.

C. D. Boyer was elected president, Virgil Jones vice-president and Miss Minnie Johnson secretary. Working committees will be announced at a later date.

Address from Fred P. Horn was a discussion of heating and lighting of school plants. His discussion brought vividly to the teachers' minds the necessity of having a practical knowledge of everything about the school room that fosters good health for the school children.

Mr. W. E. James of the State Department stated the citizenship requirements of teachers and emphasized the necessity of teachers and trustees being examples of good citizenship.

Superintendent Frank L. Williams stated that curriculum revision in Coryell County had developed to such an extent that units of work should be attempted by many of the schools.

Provident Heights school of Waco gave the teachers an excellent example of Unit production. This was Texas History developed. The children were natural in their action and seemed to live through the periods of time in their knowledge of facts.

Mr. S. Ozell Murdock from the State Department taught the teachers how to follow the state program in teaching centennial songs. His instruction made the handling of the music program seem possible in rural schools.

CENTENNIAL EXTENDS TO OLD-WASHINGTON

Brenham, Jan. 31.—As a special Texas Centennial event, Brenham and Washington county will hold an all-day celebration at Old Washington on March 2.

The observance is being sponsored by the Buddy Wright Post of the American Legion and will commemorate, on the same spot, the signing of the Texas Declaration of Independence 100 years ago.

Two other historical ties make the Brenham celebration of particular interest. It was also at Old Washington where Sam Houston was commissioned commander-in-chief of the Texas army, and where, in later years, the congress of the Republic of Texas voted to annex the independent sovereignty to the United States.

A pilgrimage in the form of a colorful parade will move from Brenham to what was formerly known as Washington-on-the-Brazos, where activities will continue, climaxing in an historical pageant.

French Aviation Leader Marvels At Our American Radio Progress

AVIATION owes much of its phenomenal development to the radio, so it is natural that M. Bleriot, pioneer French aviation leader, shown in insert, should have been interested during his visit here in the great development in American radios during the past few years. So great was his admiration that one of his hosts presented him with an American radio to take back with him on his return. His is only one of thousands of American radios in France today.

Of the various professional groups in touch with The Radio Institute of the Audible Arts, founded a year ago by Philco Radio & Television Corporation, none has been found more dependent on radio than aviation. In its list of occupations which use radio as an important industrial tool, the Institute places flying at the head and farming second. Both depend on the radio to keep them informed about weather conditions. Radio is the flier's equivalent of a sixth sense, enabling him to conquer the former menace of bad weather by flying blind with safety.

Today a flier needs at least four radios in his plane. He uses one reliable transmitter through which he can keep in touch with the world below him. Another receiving set is tuned to the wave length of the Department of Commerce beacons and broadcasts. The third radio consists of a receiver tuned for messages from the company's private stations. The fourth is an auxiliary receiver that can be tuned to receive from either wave length.
