DEDICATION OF NEW BAPTIST CHURCH SUN.

Baptist Church Is An Outstanding Edifice For Central Texas

Surrounding towns and cities will long look upon the new First Baptist Church, as one of the architectural highlights of this part of the great State of Texas.

Built of interlocking tile and brick, 140,000 in number, and over 100,000 tons of building stone, the amount of lumber and other materials used has not been estimated, but are certainly equally astounding.

Besides the main auditorium which will seat 1,000 people, the church has a church office, pastor's study, modern kitchen, banquet hall and social parlors. There are four secondary auditoriums and with Sunday School rooms and all the others, they reach an astounding total of 60 rooms in all.

Indirect lighting, a feature found in only two buildings by the pastor in visiting more than 100 churches of all sizes in cities and towns thruout the southwest and south central states. The Planning Committee for the church also visited some 30-odd churches in deciding on the plans for the new one.

Capacity for the total Sunday School rooms is put at 1,000 people, the majority of the rooms being reached without disturbing some other class, the majority having from one to five windows, insuring plenty of ventilation.

For the very young and very old, an interesting fact is that there are no high steps or stairways to the main auditorium.

The main auditorium is heated by gas-steam radiators and the other parts of the church by the regular gas stoves.

Baptist Church history extends back some 80 years, the first church in Gatesville being a wooden structure near where the post office now stands. During the erection of the second church building on the present site, services were held in the Gatesville Ice Company's present building. The second structure was also wooden, and was the first to have the familiar church bell, which is now in the new church.

Erection of the third building, the one torn down to make way for the present one, was built in 1902.

The present church was started with the ceremony of breaking the dirt on Wednesday morning, May 15, 1935, with an impressive ceremony and those honored were Mrs. A. H. Gregory, oldest living member present and J. C. Hood, oldest living member among the men.

Dan E. Graves, head of the Building Committee, replaced Rev. C. A. Morton and delivered an inspiring address on the occasion which followed by a scripture reading by Mrs. C. A. Morton. Music was furnished by the school band, and Edgar Franks acted as Master of Ceremonies.

A poem to the church by Mrs. A. D. Honeycutt was read by Mrs. Otha Gilder and a short talk was made by C. C. Ramsey, contractor. Approximately 350 people were present, that memorable rainy morning.

Seventeen pastors have guided the destinies of this church, and the present pastor has been here six years.

Co-incidentally, on March 1, 1924, a new Baptist Church was opened and officially dedicated in Hamilton.

Decoration for the dedicatory services will be furnished by Mrs. A. D. Honeycutt's Sunday School Class.

County Agricultural Board and H. D. Met At Courthouse Sat.

At the conference of the Coryell County Agricultural Board and the Home Demonstration Council Saturday afternoon, plans were discussed for Coryell County Agriculture in 1936, according to County Agent, Guy Powell.

Requests were made for those attending to fill out blanks specifying the amount of crops to be raised. A representative from each community is to call a meeting at his community to decide how much of each crop should be raised to maintain soil fertility, correct standards of living, and proper conditions in that community.

These representatives are to figure the productions according to a percentage, then have another meeting Saturday of this week to make out a plan for Coryell County in general, using the information received

WACO SCRIBE WRITES TO "POUR IT ON" FOR WACO-GV. HWY

Fred B. Robinson, scribe on the Waco News-Tribune, is a booster of the Waco-Gatesville Highway, No. 7, and frequently comments having this to say, in a recent issue: "Hurrah for Coryell County, going after good roads. The road from McGregor to Gatesville should be the first one handled. On with good roads, concrete, and not three-ply."

Nearly every week, Mr. Robinson has something to say about the construction of Hwy. 7. Here's another quote: "When the last strip of McLennan county road is concreted from near McGregor to Gatesville, then Gatesvillites will have a good road to McGregor and Waco. On with the concreting!"

Other people besides ourselves are interested in this construction, and, are keeping up the fight.

from the respective communities.

Since the plan was requested by Washington, a representative could be sent from Coryell county to any kind of a meeting and be fully recognized.

Wild Life Meeting to Be Held at CCC Camp Thursday, 27, 2 p. m.

Wm. J. Tucker, Secretary of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission of Texas, will be here at 2 p. m. Thursday afternoon to discuss conservation of game in this section with those interested in preserving wild life of the county. This meeting will be held at the CCC Camp Recreation Hall.

Farmers, ranchers and citizens all over the county are invited to the meeting.

A proposition for stocking farms in Coryell county with quail and other birds for hunting will be brought up at this meeting.

VARIOUS AILMENTS TAKE OUT MEMBERS OF PRINTING TRADE

Looks like an epidemic has struck the printing trade in Gatesville. First to fall was Mrs. Bill Thomson, Society Editor of the News. Following quickly was George Witt, also of the News who too flew with the "flu" making two.

Now, for Blue Monday, comes the report, that Elaine Cross, has some ailment, Sterling Edwards, also some ailment, and Pat Holt has sinus trouble, just about eliminating the local "newshounds" altogether, especially the Messenger. We're just waiting to see who's next, and—hoping to miss, ourselves.

REBECCA CLEMONS LEADS AND WINS $1.00 IN POLITICAL SCRAMBLE

Rebecca Clemons, Route 1, wins the second Political Scramble contest, run in the News, Tuesday, February 18. She won out of a field of a large number of entries from Spring Hill, Tama Star, Valley Mills, Route 2, Purmela, Flat, Moody, Rt. 1, and Copperas Cove, Rt. 1. Answers for this week's Political Scramble, also must come from outside the city limits.

This time, the last three letters of the candidates' names are used, so, look closely and get your answers in early. They are dated, timed and filed. Winners will be announced next Tuesday.

Services Thruout Day; Open House in P. M. History Made Mar. 1

Sunday morning March 1, has been designated by members of the First Baptist Church of Gatesville as the Official Dedication and Corner Stone Laying Service, beginning at 9:00 a. m., according to the Pastor, Rev. C. A. Morton.

During the ceremony of laying the corner stone the Western Panagraph Company will take panoramic pictures of the ceremonies, the interior of the building audiences, and church officials and visitors, making a record, which we understand will be carried in connection with the Texas Centennial Historical and State Displays in Dallas.

Sermons will be delivered by the pastor at both services and all of the churches of the city and county have been invited to attend the ceremonies, most of them dismissing their services for the occasion.

Open house, or an invitation for the general public to see the church thruout, the 60-odd rooms, the construction, indirect lighting and all the other interesting features that are going to be a revelation to the visitors.

History, church history, will be made with this crowning event of Baptist history in Gatesville. It is an extraordinary achievement by the citizens of this city, which, for its size outshines anything ever attempted thusfar. Such a memorable day has not been witnessed by people of this vicinity in ages.

NEW SUBURBAN GROCERY STORE OPENED

B. E. McCoy has opened a new grocery store out in that beautiful new residential addition just north of town on highway No. 36. The new store opened for business first of this week, however, the formal opening will not be held until Saturday, at which time the new owners plan to put on some attractions, advertising the different line of products they will carry. A filling station will be operated in connection with the grocery business.

This store is located in a new 25-acre addition recently opened by Mr. McCoy. It is cut into one-acre and half-acre blocks, a number of which have already been sold to local people. Mr. and Mrs. Kay Ament's new home is out there.

GEORGE DEWALD RESIGNS AS PROJECT SUPT. OF ATHLETIC FIELD

Mr. George Dewald has resigned his commission with the Works Progress Administration as project superintendent of project No. 1643, which is the construction of the local athletic field. Mr. Elland Lovejoy, who has been associated with the Texas Relief Commission, will replace Mr. Dewald as superintendent of the project.

It is reported that Mr. Dewald has accepted a position in Hill County with the State Highway Department.

is worthy of investigation by the Congress of the United States. In the fact of insistent opinion for neutrality, no bill was passed this session. The old stop-gap measure was extended for two years. It is well known that it is active as a neutrality meaty-six to twenty and 267 is the way the vote stood in the two Houses on the soil conservation bill to replace the AAA.

The measure amends the Conservation Act of 1935, giving the Secretary of Agriculture power for two years to farmers not only for preventing erosion but for conserving fertility by growing soil-enriching crops (e. g., clover) and of various cash crops (e. g., Cotton, corn, wheat). The price Congress wants to set. The bill limits the amount that the Secretary may spend for this purpose to $1,000,000 a year.

Not imposing any taxes to get this money, the AAA subsidy reduces to a minimum the chance of any taxpayer suit being brought in which the new law might be declared unconstitutional.

A man little known to the public but one valued by the people passed on to his reward last week. Colonel Henry L. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy and cousin of the President, unexpectedly succumbed to intestinal influenza while at the Navy Hospital in Washington.

Colonel Roosevelt spent the greater portion of his life in the navy. Entering the Naval Academy in 1900, he later saw service in Cuba, Haiti and on the battlefields of Europe. The country and the Nation mourn the passing of an officer and a gentleman.

IN THE REALM of politics comes the announcement by Oklahoma's Governor, E. W. Marland, that he will oppose blind Senator Thomas P. Gore for his senate seat in the Democratic primary. Marland, a strong proponent of Roosevelt and his policies, outlined his platform which includes a public works program to employ all not needed in industry, a $15 a month pension for the old, and reformation of the state penal systems.

Two other distinguished Oklahomans have been mentioned as possible opponents of Gore, uncompromising foe of the Administration, namely, former Governor William H. ("Alfalfa Bill") Murray and Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, former boss of NRA.

Governor Marland should make the Sooner State an able representative in the Senate. Formerly a millionaire oil producer, the depression swept away his holdings to the last penny, but with indomitable determination he came back, was elected to Congress, redeemed his fortune, and then in 1934 was chosen chief executive of the Sooner State.

TURKEYS ON PARADE

One of the most unusual scenes to be found in Texas during Centennial year will be the one presented when thousands of turkeys, headed for market, actually march to the strains of band music in the world famous Cuero Turkey Trot next November. Thousands of gobbling turkeys form sections in the parade which is a feature of the Trot, an event to be repeated as a Centennial year celebration.

Klaus Abegg who for years was connected with the Field Museum in Chicago as a preparator of Habitat groups has been appointed to the staff of the Texas University Centennial Exposition and will assist in the preparation of exhibits for the Division of Zoology. All exhibits for the University Centennial Exposition will be prepared with a view to placing them in the Texas Memorial

ROOSEVELT FAVORS A WIDE EXTENSION OF CIVIL SERVICE

Washington, Feb. 21.—President Roosevelt said today he hoped there would be legislation placing all postmasterships under the civil service.

While not specifying at this session, the president told his press conference he expects to continue conferences on the subject.

He remarked that he advocated such a proposition as far back as 1913.

First, second and third class postmasters do not come under the civil service now.

As various emergency agencies of the government become permanent, Mr. Roosevelt said he expected their employees to be covered by civil service regulations.

The president did not designate which agencies he had in mind. In his budget message to congress, however, he said that the success of the AAA and civilian conservation corps warranted their designation as "regular activities" of the government.

The AAA was killed that same day by the supreme court but the pending soil conservation-subsidy farm bill would set up a permanent state aid system.

GALVESTON IS RESORT

Galveston, one of the Texas Centennial celebration cities this year, was named for Count Bernardo de Galvez. It is located on Galveston island, sometimes called Treasure Island, and is Texas' largest coast resort. Jean LaFitte once used Galveston Island as a base for his piratical expeditions into the Gulf of Mexico.

VICTORIA CELEBRATES

The city of Victoria, center of a widespread cattle industry, will join the Texas Centennial celebration parade on April 15 when it will review its colorful history with a field mass and pageant. The mass will commemorate a mass held on the banks of the Guadalupe river on April 15, 1869, which was presided over by Alonzo de Leon, who was searching for La Salle's settlement.

ROSES AND OIL

Tyler, planning a great Centennial year celebration for this coming October, is the center of one of the world's greatest rose producing sections. It also is in the same section with the world's greatest oil field. Smith county, of which Tyler is the county seat, produces one-third of the world's commercial supply of roses.

MILLION DOLLAR MUSEUM

The million dollar Texas Memorial museum to be constructed on the Texas university campus as a Centennial year project will be one of the great museums of the world when it is opened later this year. Both the federal and the state governments cooperated to finance construction of the building.

20,000 DERRICKS

More than 20,000 derricks surmount that many wells in the great East Texas oil field which is eight miles wide and 60 miles long. The field, one of the most interesting industrial sights in North America, will attract thousands of Centennial year visitors in Texas.

SHOTS AT THE BASKET

The most surprising things during the A. A. U. tournament held here the past week-end was the play of the Gatesville and Turnersville teams. The local lassies drew Bédias, a pre-tournament favorite, for their first opponent. Fans were merely wondering how bad the Hornets would be beaten and what their chances were of winning consolation honors when the girls had a brain storm and won the game by playing better basket ball than they knew how to play. We say brain storm because the Hornets pulled a boner when they won this first game. They had no chance whatsoever to win the main division and by winning this first game lost a chance to win the consolation. However, the girls played a good floor game in both their games, but their attempts at hitting the basket were pitiful.

Turnersville played in a style that they had not displayed before, and in their first game won over the fine Blum sextette by a 26-22 score. They were beaten in their second appearance by Rockdale 29-26, after leading at the half. Cathey looped them in from all over the court in both games and it was because lady luck frowned on her efforts the second half of the Rockdale game that Turnersville lost. Cathey scored 34 points in the two games and it was a difficult matter to keep her off the first all tournament team.

Pearl after looking like a million dollars in defeating Lott in the first round, looked like a bunch of old ladies against Cranfills Gap. Preston scored 20 points in the first game, but was absolutely pitiful in the second game and this performance kept her off the best team selection.

Plainview played good basket ball but were just a bit too small to compete with the leaders. The same as true of Flat and Ewing.

Had Jonesboro had another Weaver on their roster big things might have been heard from the sextette. Weaver was equally as good at a guard position as she was at her forward position and that was plenty good.

Barnes of Rockdale emerged the meets high scorer by marking up 88 points in the four games she played. She made some most remarkable shots and by duplicating them in each game, proved that they were not altogether luck. Scarabrough of the same team, along with Apel of Plainview and Rutherford of Gatesville were the defensive stars in each of their games.

Menefee of Lott came in for lots of applause with her ability of parting the draperies while Holliman of Rockdale, Morris of Bédias and Marwitz of Indian Gap were all deadly shots under the basket because of their height.

Blum presented two fine forwards in Taylor and Morrison. Taylor though rather small, had a remarkable eye while Morrison, a tall girl, was used under the hoop and used the pivot and black about as well as any one we have seen. As a matter of fact, the Blum team was one of the best coached teams in the tournament and was kept out of the championship play by their lack of size.

The Buffalo team played two good games then had a let down and was swamped by Rockdale in the semi-finals. Because of the long trip home, the team forfeited their game to Cranfills Gap for third place honors.

CLUB NEWS

Priscilla Club News

On account of illness, the Priscilla club members did not meet with Mrs. J. C. Bunnell as announced, but enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon Wednesday, Feb. 19, in the home of Mrs. Parker Hirsch.

Despite the inclement weather, there was a good attendance, and quite a bit of hand work disposed of. Banana-nut ice cream and coconut cake were served to 12 members. Mrs. Ab Williamson, an old club member, who withdrew her membership when she moved to Piddoke, added her name to the list of members after moving back into our community.

The next meet date will be March 4 with Mrs. J. C. Bunnell in an all day meeting.

Friendship Dramatic Club

The Friendship Dramatic Club met with Mrs. Ralph Weaver Feb. 14. The party was carried out in a valentine motif. The business in order was the discussion of what play we are to present soon. We decided on, "Here Comes Charlie." We are to begin our practicing right away. We did not decide to meet next time as we will be busy with the play.

The hostess served hot chocolate, marshmallows and cookies to eighteen young people. We hope more will be with us next time.

Miss Margaret Gilder, who is attending Baylor University, spent the week-end in the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. O. G. Gilder.

HORNETS' NEST—

their showing in the contest last week.

The fray between Evant and Jonesboro was one of the fastest played in the Gatesville Gym this season.

Preston, forward of the Pearl Dragons, was a thorn in the side of the Hornets last Monday night. She also proved a headache to the lassies from Plainview.

Asa Lee Whisehunt will be on the girl's basketball team next year.

In the last half of the game with Rosebud, G. T. Moore made more shots than the entire Rosebud quint.

Francis Rutherford will not be eligible for track this year. He won the mile last year and went to the regional meet.

Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club held their weekly meeting in room five Wednesday morning. The play, "A Message to Khuku," has been ordered and as soon as it arrives, a cast will be chosen and rehearsals will start immediately for the presentation of this production at the district meet.

Pearl Wins Championship

After winning the Gatesville sextette Monday night, 9-17, the Pearl Dragonettes nosed out the girls from Plainview by the narrow margin of one point, the game ending 25-26.

Pearl's sharpshooting forward, Preston, led the way in both games and was largely responsible for Pearl's winning the championship.

Typing Team

Last Monday, Mr. Briggs, the typing instructor of Gatesville High School, selected ten persons to try out for the typing team to represent the school. When the team is chosen, the team will probably accept an invitation to a tournament at Temple and a tournament may be held here.

Jim Welch, Milton Coward, Frankie Mae Blair, Claydene Strickland, James Hair, Donald Weaver, Dorothy Franks, Edwin Wilhelm and Weldon Jones were the ones selected.

Gville Grammar School

In the assembly program on Monday, Feb. 18, Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Thomas, representing the Morris Federation made two very interesting talks.

In the assembly program on Thursday, Feb. 21, Miss Painter's Dramatic Club presented three very interesting skits, "The Census Taker," "Pacifist," and "Adopting An Orphan."

Home Economics Department

The Home Economics Department is located in the east end of the gymnasium. There are three rooms to the department. These are the clothing laboratory, foods laboratory, and a living room. Miss Ruthe Grimes is head of the department.

The walls and floors are alike in all three rooms. The walls are light ivory plaster, and the floors are varnished a light golden oak.

The equipment in the clothing laboratory consists of twelve drop-leaf tables, which are used for cutting, four sewing machines, a built-in ironing board, an electric iron, a closet containing drawers, or lockers for each pupil, and a fitting department. The fitting department is formed by the closet doors having full length mirrors. These doors open in such a way that a person can stand between them and see all around the garment being fitted. The room is conveniently arranged in every respect.

The foods laboratory is equipped with built-in cabinets, work tables, six modern gas stoves, hot and cold water, electric lights, closet space for linen and for the students' aprons. The only thing that keeps the laboratory from being perfect is the fact that there is no refrigerator in it. We hope to have one some time, however.

The living room is furnished with a studio couch, dining table, two dining room chairs, one cushioned arm chair, a radio, an end table, a back stand and two crocketed rugs. There is a fireplace in the room which gives it a very home-like air.

All in all the Home Economics department is very cheerful in appearance, and the students enjoy working in there very much.

Valentine Tea

Friday, the fourteenth, the Home Economics girls entertained with a Valentine tea from two until four o'clock. Table decorations were red sweet peas given by Mrs. J. B. Graves and red candles. During this time many parents, members of the faculty, and wives of the board members attended.

Last week the boys of the General Home Economics Class learned to iron their shirts and press their pants. This week they are learning to darn their socks and sew on buttons. It seems as if they are preparing to be bachelors.

Senior Class Meeting

At a special called meeting of the Senior Class Tuesday several important business matters were discussed and acted upon.

Mr. Williams asked all Seniors who expect to graduate at the spring or summer exercises to hand in their names to be printed upon the diplomas. Caps and gowns, which can be obtained at a nominal charge, will be worn again this year. Invitations will be ordered next month.

Mrs. Reesing, class sponsor, announced that the gift committee, composed of Fred Byrom, Brack Curry, Albert Dickie, and the class president, Erle Powell, had selected the grade of banquetware which will be presented to the school by the Class of 1936. The gift will consist of a complete set of ware which can be used at school entertainment. "Seniors of 1936" will be engraved on each piece. This gift was chosen by the vote of the class.

In addition the class voted to use surplus funds to purchase a Texas flag which will be placed on the stage of the High School auditorium with the American flag which was presented by the Press Club of 1936, publishers of "The Hornets' Nest."

Superintendent Williams complimented the class for its splendid work during the year and for the success of the Senior Play. "Hold Everything," presented in January, from which the money derived to make the gift of banquetware to the school.

A rising vote of thanks was made to Miss Worthy, associate sponsor of the class, for her work as director of the Senior Play and in behalf of the welfare of the class. In response Miss Worthy complimented the Class in general for its attitude and the cast of the Senior Play for its splendid work. More money was realized from the two productions of the play this year than ever before.

Hornets Win Tournament

In the invitational tournament sponsored by the Temple Daily Telegram in Temple, the Gatesville Hornets were crowned champions of Central Texas after winning their final game from the Rosebud quint 23-18. Rosebud was hoped to win this affair without much trouble, but the scrappy Hornets stole the cup from the Falls County five.

In the first round, the Hornets had difficulty in winning from a fast Red Ranger team, but finally emerged victorious 17-23. In the afternoon, Gatesville breezed through the smaller Nolanville crew 47-12, and this victory earned them their chance to meet the strong Rosebud team in the finals to be played at eight o'clock.

Rosebud gained an early lead and the half ended twelve and eight against the Hornets, but a scoring spree in the last half led by Moore was the turning point of the game and the Hornets became the champions of Central Texas.

Choral Club Program

The pupils were entertained by the Choral Club Friday morning.

"Buzz" Colgin held the audience spell-bound as he sang "Rhythm in My Nurse's Rimes" and "How Can You Say No." Belva McCoy and Helon Chamlee sang "Down By the Old Mill Stream." M. H. Shephard played on the guitar "Song of the Islands." Also he and Royce Davis played on their instruments "El Rancho Grande."

Everyone seemed to enjoy Harold Chamlee singing, "Tonight You Belong to Me." Seven boys, J. W. Clark, John Rufus Colgin, Sonny Hair, Dave Culbertson, Harold Chamlee, Donald Weaver and Pete Martin sang "Angry."

Jane Thomson and C. H. Wallace entertained with a tap routine.

A short skit was prepared by Miss Kinsey, but since two of the characters were ill, they were unable to present it.

Member of Byrd Expedition Lectures

Eagle Scout Joe Hill, Jr., who accompanied Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd on his second expedition to Antarctica, lectured before a combined assembly of the High School and Elementary School students Thursday morning.

From over 10,500 applications submitted to Admiral Byrd, Mr. Hill was chosen with fifty-five others to make the trip to the South Polar regions.

"Neki," his husky dog, who was born in a knapsack at Little America, was introduced to the assemblage at the beginning of the program and extended greetings with several barks. "Neki" weighs seventy pounds and is capable of pulling a load three times his weight, according to Mr. Hill.

The lecture consisted principally of descriptions of and information about the slides of Little America and the expedition which were shown.

The expedition left New York City with two vessels, the "Bear of Oakland," and the "Jacob Rupert," for the long trip through the Panama Canal and to New Zealand, from where the ships proceeded to Antarctica.

Slides of the giant ice barrier which covers the land and sea of the South Polar regions and on which Little America, headquarters of the expedition, was established were shown. According to tests made by members of the expedition, in which Mr. Hill participated, the thickness of the ice barrier varies from three feet to three thousand feet.

As stated above, headquarters were established at Little America, which has been constructed by the first Byrd expedition of 1928-29. Here were complete living quarters for the men, underground hangars for the planes, and storehouses for the mechanical equipment and other supplies. Radio towers were built for communication with the outside world, and during the winter of 1933 programs from Little America were broadcast to the world.

Among the 150 tons of supplies taken along were three planes, including an autogiro for camp reconnaissance, and six sled tractors. The giant tri-motored Ford in which Admiral Byrd and three companions flew over the South Pole in 1929 was recovered from its ice cache and reconditioned for use.

Mr. Hill was a tractor driver and mechanic.

The lecturer told of Admiral Byrd's lonely vigil in a hut 130 miles south of Little America for seven months for the purpose of gathering data on climatic conditions there. During the nine months he was there Byrd narrowly escaped death from carbon monoxide escaping from a kerosene stove. Mr. Hill participated in the construction of Byrd's hut at the farthest outpost of civilization and was with the tractor-party that rescued the Admiral after his illness.

Joe Hill, Jr. was, at one time, the youngest Eagle Scout in the United States. His interesting and instructing lecture was enjoyed by 500 or more students and a group of town people.

Well, anyway, Pearl didn't keep us from winning the tournament at Temple. Sonny Hair forgot his own phone number while in Temple Saturday. . . . We bet he spent most of his time looking for Sara McCall. Elaine Wiggins has been seen lately with a CCC lad, and then someone tells us that BaBa Holt is fast—we wouldn't know. Miss Worthy suggests that a collection be taken up to get Perry Hale's jacket cleaned. Fred Byrom had a call from Temple Friday. (It's nothing unusual). Anita (She's a Latin) Lowrey, has three reliant admirers, John Frank Post, Jack Hearn and Jimmie Weaver. Mr. Thompson will be hard to replace. The members of the typing team have to hand in only one lesson while the rest of the class has to peck out three. J. B. Martin had a date with Blanche Clemons the past week end. (She'll soon be eighteen). Edwin Wilhelm does not have a study hall. Grady Dickie and Ruth Hamilton will sever their four years romance on March 1st, take a tip—it won't last. Norman Painter wrote a short story. We wonder how Bert Stewart made Neal Chapman blush Saturday night. Tom L. Robinson had another swellegant party Saturday night. What's this we hear about Jerry Schloeman and "Hot Man" Chamlee. Where did all of these new lids come from that Joe Hal English, Neal Chapman and Perry Hale are sporting? While driving in town one night, Alton Quicksall bumped into another car and the rear fender was pretty badly crumpled. He jumped from his car and ran back to the damaged fender, and gasped: "Gosh, did I do that?"

The new science teacher, Mr. McLaughlin, arrived Monday, February 24. According to previous reports, he was to arrive last Monday, February 17. The delay was because it took him longer to fix up his business at Louisville, Texas, where he is now teaching, than was expected. Louisville is located between Dallas and Denton. He graduated from Mardin-Simmons University of Abilene, Texas.

Rockdale Wins Cen. Tex. A. A. U. Basketball Meet

INDIAN GAP DEFEATED IN FINALS 33-27; BLUM DEFEATS LOTT FOR CONSOLATION HONORS.

By TRUMAN BLANTON
News' Sports Staff

The fine Rockdale sextette, Saturday night, won the second Central Texas A. A. U. girls' basketball championship by defeating the strong Indian Gap team 33-27. The Milam county lassies came to the tournament with a record of 17 wins without a loss and proved throughout the three day's play that all that had been said of them was true.

To win top honors, the blue clad crew trounced Flat in the opening round, won over Turnersville in their second engagement and swamped Buffalo in the semifinals. Outstanding in all their victories was their sensational Captain, Barnes, who hit the bucket from all angles and emerged from the four games played with a total of 58 points.

Cranfills Gap, a plucky little team from Bosque County, won third place in the main division by virtue of a forfeit from Buffalo. The Cranfills Gap crew, one of the smallest teams in the tournament, proved somewhat of a surprise and in their second engagement beat Pearl, Coryell County champs, in a rather easy manner and lost by a single point to Indian Gap in the semi-finals.

Indian Gap, winners of the runner up position, presented a fine team, with a record of 126 out of 140 starts during the last three years, but were declared to be handicapped by sickness. If such was the case then all their opponents were indeed fortunate that the Indians were not in top shape. To win their way to the finals, the Gap crew won over Plainview in the first round, defeated Highland the second day, and then won over Cranfills Gap in the semi-finals.

Blum, a Hill County team, won consolation honors by defeating Lott in the final game 34-32. The Green and White sextette as a club, was one of the best in the meet and their defeat at the hands of Turnersville came as somewhat of an upset. They seemed unable to get started, but once they did, played a good brand of basketball. So well coached and evenly balanced was the entire team, that it was impossible to pick out one outstanding player for a berth on the all tournament team, and we hope that this will be taken as a compliment to the team and the coach and not as an alibi. With a few breaks, the team could have been one of the finalists, although they were handicapped by lack of size.

Lott, Blum's opponent in the consolation finals, caught Pearl in fine form the first round and was defeated. Led by Menfee, all tournament forward, the Lott team played on a par with the leaders in the championship division.

Bedias, one of the pre-tournament favorites, was the victims of a sensational upset in the first round when they lost to Gatesville. The Hornets were playing so far over their heads that the most ardent fans were struck dumbfounded. The Bedias team only played in spots and one of their winning moods left Plainview a very badly beaten club in the game for third place in the consolation division. The Bedias club, only third place winners in the consolation division, placed two stars on the all tournament team.

What we have been trying to tell you in the above is that winners in each division are as follows: Rockdale, Indian Gap and Cranfills Gap won cups for first, second and third places, respectively, in the championship division, while Blum, Lott and Bedias won like awards for consolation play.

Prior to the championship game a beauty contest was held with Miss Richie Ripley of Blum winning the cup for the most beautiful blonde. Miss Mary Evelyn Eubanks of Ewing took honors among the "red heads," while Miss Ethel Wiegand of Gatesville was the most beautiful brunette.

After the final game an all tournament team of eight players was selected with gold basketball balls as awards. This team was as follows: Forwards, Barnes of Rockdale, Menfee of Lott, Morris of Bedias and Marwitz of Indian Gap; Guards, Scarabrough of Rockdale, Apel of Plainview, Rutherford of Gatesville and Snow of Bedias.

Rockdale placed two and could have easily placed another, Bedias placed two and these two were practically the Bedias team. Lott had one representative as did Indian Gap, Gatesville and Plainview.

Players receiving honorable mention and who could have very easily been placed on the first team were, Holliman of Rockdale, Adams of Cranfills Gap, Taylor and Morrison of Blum, Cathey of Turnersville, Weaver of Jonesboro, Preston of Pearl, Shoaf of Plainview, Johnson of Watt, Ritchie of Buffalo, Roberts of Indian Gap and Fulp of Highland, all forwards. Brannan of Buffalo, Hughs of Cranfills Gap, Harris of Indian Gap, McDearman of Blum, Williams of Turnersville, Wolfe of Flat, Mosely and Hampton of Pearl, Sellers of Gatesville and Lemley of Lott, all guards.

All in all the tournament was a splendid success from all angles. The teams were as evenly matched as sixteen teams could be. The teams and coaches were splendid in their attitude and are credits to their schools. There were several close games, but not once were the officials in any way questioned about their decisions. Of-disappointed if one of the six-ficals and fans will be sorely teen schools fail to return next year.

Last, but not least Superintendent Williams of the local schools and R. H. Shultz of the Waco Recreation Department are again complimented on their fine achievements in making this tournament possible and its success.

SPORTS

By TED HARRIS

We quote Jinx Tucker, Waco News-Tribune scribe, regarding the local Hornets:

"Gatesville is always strong in basket ball, and would probably have been well represented without the eligible player. It is a shame the ineligibility was not learned sooner. For years Gatesville has been one of the strong basket ball centers of the section and the little Coryell county city has turned out many star players."

The above was the answer to a local fan's letter. It fell this writers lot to call the News-Tribune during the local County Tournament, giving them information. They wanted to know what teams were going to play for the County Championship. I told them Evant and Jonesboro. They also wanted to know what team was the strongest in the county. I informed them, in my opinion, it was Gatesville, but they were thrown out on account of an ineligible player. A "tee-hee, oh, yeah," came over the wire, and I informed them to pay particular attention to the Central Texas Tournament to be played in Temple, which was one week from day. Jinx had already stated Rosebud was favored to win the tourney. Sure enough they didn't.

To say the least, we appreciate the remarks Jinx made about Gatesville. Who wouldn't, his complimentary remarks toward Gatesville and Coryell!

County are few and far between.

... This writer was in a deep conflag Saturday afternoon with P. T. Lemmons, Jonesboro basket ball Coach. As you know, his team lost to Waco in the first round of the District Tournament in Waco last Friday. Lemmons stated he had no alibis to make, but he had seen his boys play better basket ball. In regard to the fracas after the game, Lemmons, down-hearted as if he had committed a crime, stated he deeply regretted having the disturbance to take place. This fracas cannot be blamed on the Jonesboro team nor the Coach. These things will happen. In this case, as in most cases, these disturbances start from an outsider. Broad minded basket ball fans of this county will not blame this on the Jonesboro Coach nor the team. To the outsiders, if you are wagering on a team, take into consideration a few errors made by the referee or umpire, they are like you, not perfect. As for the fighting, remember, no game, after lost, is won by a fight, and you accomplish nothing to show except several bruises and probably a black eye or two.

... As the spring days creep into these winter months, we are reminded of the County Baseball organization, that will get underway within a few months. We have looked forward to this, and have chats from time to time with players from over the county regarding this wonderful organization.

... Within a few months the softball league is due to get underway. This organization was started a few years ago by the local Volunteer Fire Department. This amusement, in the opinion of this writer, is the best for local people ever organized. At present the boys are in trouble, trying to find a place for a diamond. This detail will be worked out, however, and things will get further underway, probably next month.

... We'll throw more flowers to the local Hornet Club. Thru them, Gatesville played host to the Girls' A. A. U. Meet held here the past week end. The club is composed of former Gatesville students, sports minded fans, and business men of Gatesville. Also the school officials are to be commended for handling the A. A. U. in such a business like manner. Last year the Hornet Club donated the trophies, this year, trophies were bought from the proceeds of the meet.

Requirements of Old Age Pension Seekers

Austin, Feb. 24.—Applicants should be able to prove their yearly income because the old-age assistance law provides that $360 yearly for single persons and $720 yearly for married couples must be the total of revenues received by applicants from all sources including the State Aid, Orville S. Carpenter, executive director-designate of the Old Age Assistance Commission said today about the new law.

"Applicants should be prepared to make a full and complete statement of all earnings for the two years immediately preceding application," Mr. Carpenter declared.

"The cash or security clause in the new law necessitates that applicants be able to tell the exact amount of money they have in the bank. They should be prepared to give a description of all securities owned, serial numbers, from whom purchased, etc.," he explained. "If securities were sold, the name of the purchaser must be known. Full details about all securities handled, bought, or sold during the last two years must be provided."

"Not only does the requirement concern income, but aid received from any sources must be listed," Carpenter stated.

Section 7, subsection (e) of the new law reads that the application shall contain the following information:

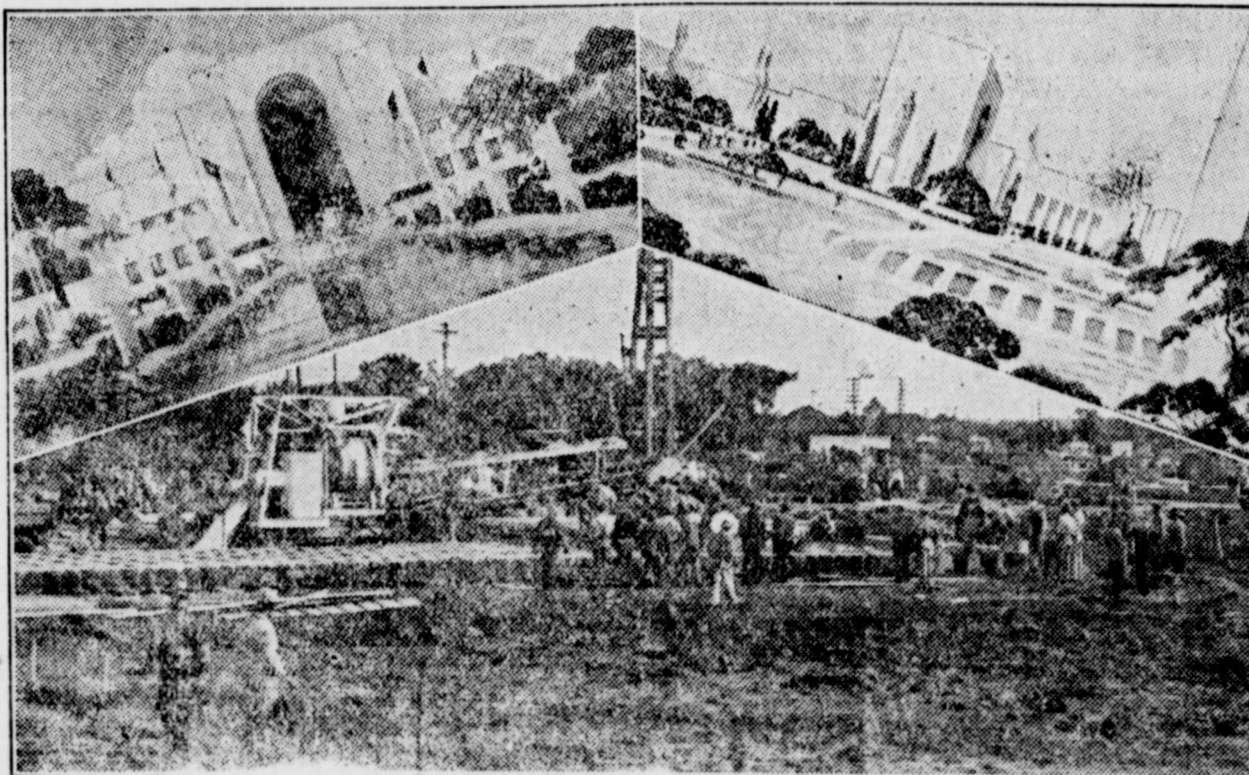

If receiving aid from any source, the amount received and from whom, or if such aid be not in cash money, then a description of such aid tendered, together with the name of the source of such aid and from whom the amount received from the United States Government, State or County, public or private charitable organizations, corporations, or private individuals.

Applicants will be able to get blanks in their own locality February 14. These forms may be filed as soon as filled out by applicants.

G. D. Camp, pictured above, is supervisor of district number eight of the Texas Old Age Assistance Commission. He lived in Hillsboro for a number of years and formerly came from Blum where he was a retail grocer. Orville S. Carpenter, executive director, appointed Camp recently. District headquarters are at Waco.

WHAT $10,000,000 WILL DO BEFORE JUNE 6

Here are two extremes—below the Texas Centennial Exposition grounds in Dallas as it looks to day; above, artists' conceptions of the Petroleum

Products Building, right, and the Administration Building, left, both permanent structures, costing together approximately $625,000, which will arise on this rough site. Exposition heads are rushing work on projects which call for the expenditure of $10,000,000 before the opening date, June 6.

100 CITIES JOIN CENTENNIAL YEAR PARADE IN TEXAS

Austin, Feb. 24.—The Texas Centennial, with celebrations of varied nature planned in more than 100 cities, has developed into the greatest state-wide observance in the nation's history.

The celebrations not only reflect the glorious history of the state but they also serve to focus world wide attention on the agricultural, mineral, industrial, and recreational resources of the Lone Star State.

Texas is on parade in 1936 with scores of historical celebrations, Centennial pageants, harvest festivals, fairs and stock shows, jubilees and fiestas. Dallas with its great Central exposition will entertain millions of visitors and other expositions will be staged in Fort Worth and Austin.

Historical observances center in San Antonio and Houston with interesting events also planned at Washington-on-Brazos, Sinton and Taft, El Paso, Kingsville, Del Rio, Marshall, Beeville, Groesbeck and Mexia, D'Hanis, San Augustine, Jasper, Kerrville, Cotulla, Coleman, West Columbia, and Graham. Historical episodes will be commemorated also in Huntsville, Crockett, Goliad, Victoria, Belton, and Freeport.

Gay and colorful harvest festivals will be held at Crystal City, Plainview, Raymondville, Jacksonville, Yoakum, Mt. Pleasant, Weatherford, Tyler, Gilmer, Cuero, Mission, Weslaco and Center. Fairs and stock shows planned with Centennial spirit will be held at San Angelo, Fort Worth, Rock Springs, Boerne, Tyler, Ennis, Mt. Pleasant, Marfa, Wharton, Yorktown, Pearsall, and Beaumont.

Celebrations centering around aquatic events will be staged at Brownsville, Port Lavaca, Corpus Christi, Port Aransas, Fort Stockton, Brownwood, and Sweetwater. Events of varied nature are slated for Gonzales, Austin, Seguin, Georgetown, Belton, Edna, Paris, Kilgore, Bowie, Big Spring, Crockett, Vernon, San Marcos, Fredericksburg, Slaton, Brady, Bastrop, Eagle Pass, Colorado, Perryton, Henderson, and Anson.

Of interest far beyond the borders of Texas will be the western celebrations—pioneer days, roundups and rodeos—planned at Plainview, Floydada, Midland, Canadian, Stamford, Pecos, Falfurrias, Borger, Bowie, Clarendon, Belton, Comfort, Tulia, Big Spring and San Angelo.

The Centennial observance was opened last November with a celebration at Gonzales which has been followed by celebrations at San Antonio, El Paso, Livingston, Brownwood, Dallas, Putman, and Galveston.

FORMER GATESVILLE MAN IN JUSTICE RACE AT WACO

McKie Walker of Waco, and formerly of Gatesville, has announced for Justice of the Peace in Waco, according to an article in Sunday's Waco News-Tribune.

McKie was formerly a citizen of Gatesville, a student at the high school. He took his law degree at Baylor, and has been practicing law in Waco since. He has worked as assistant to Clint Allen now Justice of the Peace, and has been a member of the Waco Bar Association.

Other candidates who announced are Frank Tirey, who offers for Congress, replacing Congressman O. H. Cross, who has not announced so far for re-election.

Tirey's platform summarized is as follows: supports President Roosevelt, agriculture is solution for prosperity, and a plan should be worked out that will increase the annual farm income, labor entitled to a living wage, social economic, religious and industrial freedom, adequate old age pension, against any European war, country to be governed for the benefit of humanity, and believes in co-operation to work out the country's future.

She Pays Her Expenses With Prizes

Earning one's way through college is no longer a new idea, but winning one's way by means of contest prizes is certainly a new method of accomplishing this. The contest winnings of Miss Margaret Simpson, Denton, have been sufficient to cover the entire cost of her education at Texas State College for Women (CIA) where she is a junior in the department of journalism. She is pictured above with her latest award—a five passenger automobile which she received as first prize in a national essay contest.

CENTL. OBSERVANCE OF MARCH 2 TO EXTEND OVER STATE

Austin, Feb. 24.—Texas on next Monday, March 2, will observe the 100th anniversary of the signing of its Declaration of Independence. The Centennial of the stirring historical event will be widely observed throughout the state.

Added significance is given to March 2 inasmuch as it is the birth anniversary of Sam Houston, great Texas hero and patriot who is being honored throughout the State during Centennial year.

Six official Centennial celebrations are scheduled for March 2. They will be at San Antonio, Houston, Huntsville, Brenham and Washington-on-the-Brazos, Gonzales, and Crockett. In addition there will be a large number of school and club programs.

Of special interest because of their historical significance will be the events planned at Huntsville and Brenham. Huntsville, old home of Sam Houston, has made elaborate plans for the day which will see the governors of three states meeting with thousands of Texas citizens to honor the Lone Star State. Ceremonies, to be held at the home of Gen. Sam Houston, will be participated in by Governor Alfred of Texas, Governor Phil LaFollette of Wisconsin, and Governor Hill McAlister of Tennessee. A pilgrimage to the grave of Houston Monday morning will be followed by the ceremonies in the afternoon during which the Steam-boat house, once the home of Houston, will be presented to the state.

History will be re-enacted at Washington-on-the-Brazos in a pageant which will feature the Centennial celebrations planned by the Brenham Chamber of Commerce and the Buddy Wright post No. 48 of the American Legion. The pageant will depict the actual signing of the Declaration of Independence on the same spot 100 years ago. It will follow an elaborate parade in which will march ten high school bands and 5,000 school children. Many state dignitaries are expected to be present.

Commemorative ceremonies in honor of the memory of Sam Houston will be held at Crockett. Appropriate ceremonies also are planned at Houston and San Antonio.

The first day sale of the Texas Centennial stamp at Gonzales will attract nation-wide attention to that South Texas city on March 2. United States General Karl Crowley and Clinton A. Eilenberger, third assistant postmaster general, both of Washington, will be present as will be Lieutenant Governor Walter Woodul and a number of other state officials. The sale of stamps is expected to break all former first day stamp sales.

Crowley will sell the first stamp to Lieutenant Governor Woodul who will place it on a specially prepared letter to be mailed to President Roosevelt.

THE INJURY RACKETT

Dr. Samuel Harmon was not the only leader of a fake accident ring whose greed led to his downfall because he appropriated too much of the "take" himself. But Dr. Harmon's case sheds interesting light upon the lack of honor among thieves.

Dr. Harmon first got into the business of faking accidents when he sprained his ankle while playing golf. He made it appear that the ankle had been injured when he was struck by an auto and through collusion collected damages.

This was only a small beginning for one as ambitious as Dr. Harmon. He didn't need to have himself "hurt" again. As a doctor he was in a position to suggest to poor patients who had received injuries in their homes or elsewhere, that they could translate those injuries into cash. For instance, one lady fell on a rug in her house, tearing the ligaments in her shoulder. When Dr. Harmon treated her, he told her she could have the shoulder fixed without its costing a cent. In fact, he said, she could make some money.

That night, according to arrangement, the woman fell beside a car as it backed out of driveway. Under the doctor's guidance and with the help of a shyster lawyer, she sued for damages. Three months later, Dr. Harmon brought her some papers to sign and gave her a few dollars. He didn't tell her about the much larger sum which he had kept.

In this way the doctor's activities expanded steadily. Soon he was directing a ring which at one time or another numbered 50 men and women. Later, when they added up the money which the doctor and his accomplices had succeeded in extorting through fake claims from honest victims, it totaled nearly $50,000.

Unfortunately for the doctor, fake claim practices are becoming harder and harder to get away with. Inevitably the time came when those who paid the damages found the chance to fight back. Aided by the vigilant work of the Index Bureau System maintained by the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, they closed in. An investigator showed them how the doctor had kept from his associates all but a fraction of the damages collected. They became so angry upon learning of the doctor's duplicity that they told everything.

The doctor, faced with an array of incontrovertible evidence, pleaded guilty, and went to the penitentiary along with dozens of his duped accomplices.

YOUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

By Dr. ALLEN G. IRELAND
Director, Physical and Health Education
New Jersey State Department of Public Instruction

EDUCATION FOR LIVING

Nothing makes me happier than to find a teacher putting life into practice. It is one thing, you know, to talk to children about what they ought to do, but it is an entirely different thing to have them do it.

Just recently I visited a school where a kindred soul had adopted my theory. Instead of merely talking food, she explained, the children went to an improvised kitchen and cooked their noonday meals. How much more practical!

So I went to see for myself. Sure enough, here was a group of upper grade girls preparing and cooking a midday luncheon for the needy children of the school. This is laboratory work though instead of being in chemistry or physics, it was in an activity of everyday life. Meals were planned in advance, drawing upon a knowledge of food essentials. There was milk, of course, and a dessert also requiring milk. The hot dish was creamed chipped beef and the vegetable was broccoli. Tomato juice opened the ceremony. And I felt that education, at least here, was on the right track.

What to do about the alcohol problem is Dr. Ireland's subject next week.

WAS HOUSTON'S HOME

of his life there. Thousands of persons will visit his old home during Texas Centennial year.

IS SPINACH CENTER

One farm in Zapata county, Texas, alone produces more spinach each year than is grown in any other one state in the Union. Zapata county is in the rich Winter Garden district of Southwest Texas. Crystal City, county seat and active shipping center is a Centennial celebration city with its Spinach festival planned for March 17.

"Is that why you cut yourself?"
"Sure." Her voice was hard. "Pull it so it won't curl up. We're goin' to need it when the Matron locks the doors tonight."
Patiently the girls went through their deadly routine of dishwashing and returned to their cells that evening to put their plot into effect. Finally the lights went off. Soon after that they heard the Chief Matron walking from cell door to cell door, pausing at each just long enough to listen and see that everything was quiet. Finally she approached their cell. Both girls crept to the door and waited tensely. Soon a key was inserted and turned. The Matron thrust her head into the cell for inspection. As she did so Goldie gripped her by the arms and jerked her inside. Immediately Mary clapped a hand over her mouth. There was a brief, brisk struggle. Then the Matron, trussed up with adhesive tape, was rolled under the bed.

A beam of light from a searchlight on the wall just missed them, but they reached the protection of the stone barrier undetected.

Goldie next unrolled her mysterious knitting and showed that it really was a rope ladder. Soon she had loosened enough chair-rungs to be inserted between the strands of the knitted rope.
A few minutes later the girls emerged from their cell block and started stealthily across the prison yard in the darkness. A beam of light from a searchlight on the wall just missed them, but they reached the protection of the stone barrier undetected.
Once there, Goldie dug with her hands into the loose earth of the garden until she dragged forth a long-handled rake. The girls tied the two strands of knitted rope to either end of the metal part of the rake and hooked the latter over the edge of the wall.

Quickly they climbed up the rope ladder, Mary first. She gained the top of the wall, lay down and aided Goldie to negotiate the swaying rungs. Then, just as they started to pull up the ladder, intending to use it for descent, they were highlighted by the searchlight which had missed them before. They stood transfixed.
The wail of a siren split the darkness. It was followed by a rattle of rifle fire. In a panic, Mary kept on trying to pull up the ladder. But their position was becoming untenable. Goldie glanced over the outside of the wall. The waters of the bay lapped against it—but numerous dangerous rocks could be seen.

"No time for that," snapped Goldie, jerking Mary away from the ladder. "Jump."
Mary nerved herself—and jumped. Goldie followed immediately.
Mary came up first and looked around for her friend—in vain. It was only after she had decided that Goldie had hit a rock that she saw the yellow head floundering wildly some distance away. She swam to the rescue and succeeded in grasping the drowning girl.
"Quit struggling," she commanded. "I'll hold you. Why didn't you tell me you couldn't swim?"
As she spoke a powerful black motorboat swept down upon them, and stopped.
"Who's this, Goldie?" asked a red-haired man, leaning over the side and pointing to Mary.
"A friend of mine," panted Goldie as she scrambled aboard. "It's all right, Red. Help her in. Then get goin' before the guards pot us."
