COUNTY INTELLECTUAL MEET ATTRACT MANY

Two Die in Crash Near South Bosque Tuesday; One From Hamilton

Two men were killed in a car crash at South Bosque Tuesday morning, when a car driven by Elmore Harris Jr., 16, collided with a W. P. A. gravel truck. Elmore Harris Jr. died instantly, and J. G. Warren of South Bosque, driver of the truck, died en route to the hospital. Elmore Harris, Sr., 40, was in a Waco Sanitarium with a broken leg and other injuries. H. D. Short, also with the Hamilton party, was in the hospital with a fractured skull, and a man thought to be Wayne Jeffrey of Hamilton, is in the hospital with both legs and his collar bone fractured.

The tragedy near South Bosque occurred when the gravel truck, in which Warren was carrying material for a WPA lateral road job, emerged on the highway from a cross road 100 yards beyond the end of the concrete pavement near the Cement Plant. The Hamilton party was driving a light coach west on the highway.

Officers Selected For Centennial Celebration And Okehed Tuesday

Officers for Gatesville's Centennial Celebration were named by the committee appointed to nominate officers, and these were certified at the meeting held Tuesday night.

However, due to the uncertainty of some of the ones being able to act, and to the decision of the body to hold the celebration in the Fall, request has been made that the names of those to be the guiding members of the organization, cannot be divulged.

The set up for the organization includes, chairman or president, secretary-treasurer, and four directors.

Nothing else was done at the meeting, and attendance, according to reports, was very poor.

A seven ton stone monument, erected a year ago on grounds of the Velasco coast guard station, marks the site of the Battle of Velasco, historic Texas event to be commemorated in Centennial observances this year.

Tuesday Marked The Passing of Mrs. O. F. Wells of This City

Mrs. O. F. Wells, an early resident of Coryell County, passed away Tuesday afternoon, March 17, at 3:00 o'clock, at her home here. The sudden death of Mrs. Wells, who had been ill several days, came as a distinct shock to the entire community. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, March 18, at four o'clock at the First Methodist Church of this city with Rev. M. M. Chunn conducting the services. The choir of the church furnished the music. Interment was made in the City Cemetery.

The story of a life of radiant beauty characterized by the righteous spirit dominant is only briefly told in this biography of Sara Lou Taylor, who was born in Van Beuren, Arkansas, September 4, 1860. Some years later she moved to California, where she made her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sol White. In 1876, she was married to O. F. Wells of Gatesville, where they made their home. She was a member of the Methodist church having joined at an early age. A sainted mother, a noble friend and true, has passed on to that fair land at the journey's end.

In the closing chapter of such a life so fragrant in memory and so inspirational in influence, the mind picks out the beautiful sentiment expressed in these immortal lines: "You may break, you may shatter the vase if you will, but the scent of the roses lingers around it still."

She is survived by seven children; Mrs. Dave Culberson of Gatesville, Mrs. Pat Colgin of San Marcus, Bob F. Wells of Dallas, Mrs. John R. Colgin of Gatesville, Mrs. J. M. Stone of Houston, Mrs. E. W. Harrison of South Bend, and Raymond C. Wells of Dallas; twenty-one grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Relatives and friends who came from a distance to pay a last tribute of affection and esteem to one so loved in life, were Miss Mary Jane Colgin, who is attending school at Texas University in Austin, Andrew Colgin, Mrs. Pat Colgin and Mrs. Jack Wood of San Marcus; Billy Culberson, Miss Gladys Hinderson of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Schley and daughter, Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Erve Harrison and son, Erve Jr., of South Bend; Mrs. J. M. Stone of Houston; Bob Wells, Raymond Wells and George R. Smith of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Olin Culberson of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Smith and son, David, of Honey Grove; Mr. E. E. Roberts, and Mrs. Will Edmond of the Amicable Life Insurance Co. of Waco.

Natives of the island of Tonga are granted a homestead of eight acres on reaching the age of 16.

Annual School Census Being Taken by The School Officials in City

The annual school census, taken each year during the month of March, is now in the process of being taken in Gatesville. By the time this notice is read the town will have been covered one time, and all people found at home on the first visit will have been enumerated. A second and probably a third round will be made next week to pick up those families not contacted on the first round. Checks will then be made and all unenumerated children will be looked for.

Enumeration is being done by E. D. Shelton, Lonnie Briggs, Earle Worley and Frank L. Williams and children may be listed with any one of these men.

Many people are not entirely familiar with the rules of the census. According to school law, every child born after September 1, 1918, and before September 1, 1930, is to be taken on the census. This includes children of all races and colors and nationalities, married or single, crippled, mentally deficient and all other classifications. A child does not have to be attending school to be enumerated. He is to be enumerated whether in school or out, or whether or not the parents plan for him to attend school next year.

Scholastic age is six to eighteen years on the first day of September, 1936. Any child who will be six before the first day of September, is of school age and also any child who has not reached his eighteenth birthday before September 1, 1936. Any child who has not reached his sixth birthday before September 1, 1936, is not to be enumerated and consequently cannot attend school at the next session, since there is no provision for the attendance of unders.

The census means $17.50 to the Gatesville schools for each child taken, consequently the loss of a few children will cost this school considerable money on next year's State Per capita Apportionment of school funds. Any person knowing of any child who has not been taken on the school census should call the high school office and make a report. New families moving into town before April 1, 1936, should also be reported.

TWO FIRES DOING NO DAMAGE GETS OUT BOYS

Two small fires were answered this week, the first Cleffie Squires (colored) house, which was a flue fire, burning out only a few shingles in the roof. The second, a grass fire, at the Saunders home on 10th street, which was quickly put out.

Wooden spoons are said to be best for stirring cooking foods.

Looks like some of the old timers are going to have to take a back seat or something with the number of youngsters who were around the first day for Coryell County's Intellectual track meet.

Five hundred or more were in attendance last night and both school buildings were crammed and jammed in the assembly rooms, the halls overflowing, and cars were parked nearly to Leon street.

BOTTLE BANGS, BASHFUL BEAUTY BOUNDS BRISKLY

In the still of a springy afternoon, in the office of the County Attorney, the stenographer, dozing thoughtless, awaiting the gong from the town clock to cover up her typewriter and go slowly home, the still quiet solitude was rudely interrupted by a loud "Bang," a sort of spewing, bits of flying glass, the pling of a cap striking the ceiling.

It was a bottle of beer!

The illegal kind, absconded lately, legally, and paced in the office for safe keeping, but the yeast wouldn't be imprisoned, and with the combined efforts of a quintillion little particles, applied the pressure and escaped into the thin air, leaving said office one bottle shy.

So goes, one little bottle of beer!

Will Rogers' Humorous Story

By WILL ROGERS

SOME guys never quit hoping, no matter how tough the breaks are for them. There was a fellow like that by the name of Tom Kenedy, and he always smiled and said it might be worse. He was coming down the side of a mountain in the Ozarks in his old car one day, and the brakes wouldn't work. Something had gone wrong for fair. He couldn't get any lever to budge, and the car was making fast time.

When they got to the straightaway near the bottom of the mountain, the car was going faster than ever it did before, and then they saw that the bridge across the river in front of them was out and the river was all full of flood water.

His wife says, "Well, Tom, are we going to get killed?"

"Why, I don't think so. It looks pretty hopeful to me."

"But you can't stop the car, can you?"

"Well, that's the way it seems now. But we may run out of gas; I wouldn't be a bit surprised if we did."

WORLD COMMENT

By JOE BURNS

The increasingly prominent part women are playing in the Nation's political life is worthy of notice.

Appointment of Mrs. Huey P. Long to fill out the unexpired term in the Senate of her late husband called attention particularly to the seven legislative ladies who are helping in this session of Congress to guide the Nation's affairs.

Mrs. Hattie W. Caraway, Democratic Senator from Arkansas, heads the list. She was appointed to succeed her husband on his death in 1931 and, after filling the remaining twenty-eight months of his term, was elected on her own right to a full six-year term over six male opponents. Mrs. Caraway is homely and reticent. Horn-rimmed spectacles adorn her full face and plain, cotton clothes her ample frame.

Rose McConnell Long, wife of the tempestuous Kingfish, late dictator of Louisiana politics, was born on a farm near Greensburg, Ind., and was taken by her parents to Louisiana at 10. The tale is firmly embedded in U. S. legend of how the love of the Kingfish and Rose McConnell began when she won a cake-baking contest which he had sponsored at a 17-year-old salesman of cottonseed oil shortening. Mrs. Long's appointment came as a gesture of courtesy from Acting Governor James A. Noe, one of her late husband's chief political lieutenants.

Contrary to general belief, Mrs. Long was the third woman to be appointed to the United States Senate. As a gesture of chivalry, the late Mrs. Rebecca Latimer Folsom, "Grand Old Lady of Georgia," was appointed in 1922 to a Senate term which lasted 22 hours.

In the lower house of Congress, we find six women who have won as much honor and fame in this session of Congress as any male member.

Mrs. Florence P. Kahn, Representative from California, is a veteran of eleven sessions and the equal of any in shrewdness and intelligence. In 1925 Mrs. Kahn succeeded to the House seat left vacant by the death of her husband. She is a regular Republican.

Mary T. Norton, Democratic Representative from New Jersey, is often called "The Mayor of Washington," because she is chairman of the important Committee on District of Columbia Affairs.

Isabella Greenway hails from Arizona, one of those State's which send two Senators and only one Representative to Congress. A Democrat and personal friend of the President and his wife, she has nevertheless bitterly fought many Administration measures and policies.

Edith Nourse Rogers was elected to Congress to succeed her late husband as Representative from Massachusetts. A Republican, she is aggressive, energetic, and capable.

Caroline O'Day is a Democratic Representative-at-Large from New York State. Elected in 1934, she counted among her many supporters and campaigners Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Virginia E. Jenckes is a Democratic Representative from Indiana. She has been active in women's public work and politics since 1912.

Among the numerous women who stand out conspicuously are two that merit special attention.

Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross succeeded her husband as Governor of Wisconsin and became nationally known for her reform acts as chief executive of that state. She now holds a responsible position in the Post Office Department.

Miss Josephine Roche, owner of $3,000,000 of Colorado coal mines, is known as the "Fried of the Miners" as a result of her philanthropic work among the underpaid miners of her State. Last year she accepted a position as assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

Louisiana and Arkansas have their women Senators and Wyoming and Texas have placed women in their Governor's chairs so why, the feminine sex reasons, may not one of their number reach the President's chair?

With industry reaching the 1929 boom volume and corporations reporting greater earnings for 1935 than for any year of the depression, it is discouraging to note the continued huge outlays needed for relief.

Last spring Congress appropriated $4,880,000,000 for direct aid work relief. Up to January 31, Mr. Hopkins, the Relief Administrator, had spent nearly two billions of it, and expected $900,000,000 to be still untouched by July 1.

In his budget message to Congress early in January, President Roosevelt predicted that relief needs for next year would not exceed $2,136,000,000.

A total of 3,800,000 persons are now working on relief jobs, most of them on quick, light projects financed through the WPA (Works Progress Administration.) Better farm conditions, heavier projects of the Public Works Administration, and a seasonal upturn in private business are expected to cut that total to 3,000,000 persons next year. So far, however, for every person who has quit the relief rolls to enter private employment another has taken his place. Thus a never ending cycle is established, it seems.

In 1933, in the last days of the Hoover regime and first days of the Roosevelt administration, only 30 per cent of the obsolescent accepting assistance from public agencies. Today the figure is near 100 per cent.

New Deal fees continue to attack the relief administration—WPA and PWA—whose job it is to care for 20,000,000 men, women, and children on relief. Many believe that the Republicans will propose turning all relief back to the states, counties and municipalities, where Mr. Hoover said it belonged in the first place. Many Republicans believe the relief rolls would be cut in half if the unemployed were to be maintained with state, county and municipal funds.

DEATH OF C. V. BUSTER

Claude V. Buster, retired carrier of Turnersville, completed his last round and passed away on February 20th. The following tribute to his memory has been received:

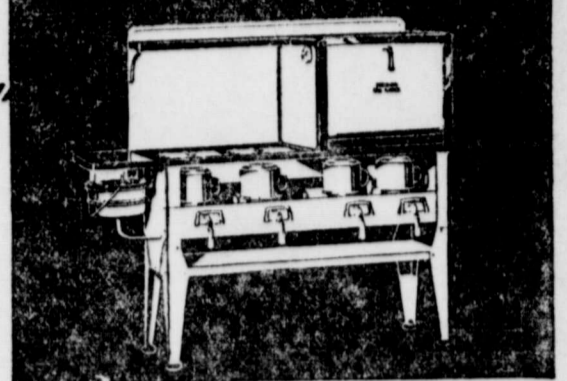

In MEMORIAM. Claude V. Buster, 1869-1936.

Another Buddy has "gone west"; an honored brother carrier, Claude V. Buster has finally "wrapped the draperies of his couch about him and peacefully laid down to pleasant dreams." He left us on February 20th and was laid to rest on the next day.

Mr. Buster entered the service as a rural carrier in 1906 and for almost a quarter of a century was an efficient, cheerful postman. Then he became paralyzed and was retired for disability. For the past six years he had fought a gallant but losing battle to regain his health. But his cheery disposition never wavered; indeed, a visit to his invalid chair was both an inspiration and a benediction. In health he whistled and sang; even as his body was borne from his home, one of his favorite songs, "Maggie," seemed to re-echo his spirit's farewell to friends and loved ones—especially his beloved companion, Mrs. Ollie Buster. At the Baptist Church five ministers from three different protestant churches honored his memory by their presence, prayers and words. A vast congregation and many flowers attested the love and esteem of his fellows. Neither was he forgotten by the postal service he had served so long and faithfully. Floral tributes came from Childress, Texas, where one son is a clerk; another wreath from Gatesville, Texas, where he was known and appreciated.

Brother Buster has "served his day and generation" very creditably and gone to his reward. May we emulate his sunny temperament and noble character.

Behold! ... the last mad days of a pagan world that laughed at impending doom!

Merian C. Cooper's
THE LAST DAYS OF POMPEII

A love story of 2,000 years ago, on a tremendous moving canvas!

"LAST DAYS OF POMPEII" RECONCILES ERUPTION DATE WITH CRUCIFIXION

In "The Last Days of Pompeii," two important events of the first century of the Christian Era, are brought to the screen. They are the crucifixion of Christ in Jerusalem, and the spectacular destruction of the classic city of Pompeii.

According to history, forty-six years separated these powerful destiny-shaping incidents. In the photoplay they are both re-enacted in the periods in which they occurred. The fidelity of their reproductions is as complete as intensive research could insure.

It is true that a dramatic license has been taken in the filming of the picture, but not with the dates or periods of the crucifixion or destruction. The indulgence that the producers ask of motion picture audiences is for the ages of the characters in the photoplay. It was considered wise, for dramatic power of theme and tightness of story, that the leading character, played by Preston Foster, witness both events and still be a man in the full flush of life when Vesuvius did its damage.

In playing the story in one lifetime, rather than two generations, the action is effectively condensed and the theme loses none of its great power. That riches and power avail a man nothing, for happiness can only be attained by the giving of one's self to other, is the theme unfolded in "The Last Days of Pompeii." The story concerns a man who, making wealth and power his twin aims in life, discovers this great Christian truth after he has made his way to empire over the sufferings and tragedies of his fellow men. The story, produced by Merian C. Cooper, is not an adaptation of the Bulwer Lytton novel of the same name, but was based upon an original by James Ashmore Creelman and Melville Baker. Coming to the Regal Theatre March 24, 25.

Anson's historic "Cowboys' Christmas Ball" will be repeated in December as a Centennial year celebration which will attract interest from far beyond the state's borders.

The Big Spring annual Cowboy reunion and rodeo will be staged this year on August 8 to 11 inclusive as a Centennial year celebration which will emphasize the spirit and atmosphere of the west of story and song.

YOUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

By Dr. ALLEN G. IRELAND
Director, Physical and Health Education
New Jersey State Department of Public Instruction

LUNCH AT SCHOOL

I have said it many times, the truth is worth repeating. No growing child will live properly on two meals a "paper bag" luncheon daily.

His real allotment, his need, if you would have him develop normally in mind and body, is three full meals, and in any instances an additional morning or mid-afternoon meal of milk and crackers needed.

The school lunch has come to be regarded as a regular feature of school organization. It is an obligation and a necessity, going with good roads and bus- it is a factor in bringing better educational facilities to the children.

It is the duty of parents to cooperate with the school system in every way possible to keep about a school lunch plan to maintain it, if one is in ration.

The child's noon meal should supply about a third of his daily food—and growing children need as much to eat as adults—sometimes more. Next week—The School Lunch

GARLON HARPER WINS 2ND. PRIZE ON PIG ENTERED IN FT. WORTH SHOW

Garlon Harper, 4-H Club member of the Flat Community, continued to uphold Coryell County Club honors by winning second place on his middle weight Hampshire barrow at Fort Worth. The only pig which placed higher than Garlon's pig was later judged grand champion of the Club show, also the same owner exhibited the grand champion pig of the entire show.

The judge, F. W. Bell of Manhattan, Kansas, took time out to compliment Garlon on his showmanship and excellent pig.

Coryell County boys have well represented the county in the Houston and Fort Worth shows this year. In addition to winning prizes the boys have realized a labor profit on their demonstrations. Each club member when he starts in 4-H Club work, is urged to base his activities upon a commercial profit and to let the show game be a secondary issue. Animals which show sufficient promise of showing well at the end of a feeding period should be entered in the better shows, however, a large number of the animals fed by boys in this county and other counties do not go to a show. The show business is a specialty game and not a commercial proposition.

Coryell county 4-H Club boys are now planning to take to the fall shows, which will be classed as Centennial shows, their best animals and crops. These boys need the support and encouragement of every man and woman in this county.

Starring Judith Anderson and Helen Menken, "The Old Maid," Soe Akins' dramatization of Edith Wharton's famous story will be the treat for anyone, and especially theatre-minded folk when it is presented at Waco Hall, Baylor University, Tuesday night, March 24, under the auspices of Dr. A. J. Armstrong.

"The Old Maid" is in the same class as such plays as "The Green Pastures," "Strange Interlude," "Street Scene," "Anna Christie," being a Pulitzer Prize Play, which is the annual award for the original American play which shall best represent the educational value and power of the stage in raising the standard of good morals, good taste and good manners," according to the will of Joseph Pulitzer.

Principals in this play are Judith Anderson, born in Sidney, Australia, making her debut there. "Cobra" was her first success here, playing later in the David Belasco production "The Dove," then "Strange Interlude," "Firebrand," "Come of Age" and "Divided by Three."

Also Helen Menken, who's first success was "Three Wise Fools," followed by her memorable performances in "Seventh Heaven," which established her definitely as one of half dozen most important young actresses on the American stage. She has also played in "The Captive," "Congai," and "Mary of Scotland."

Press reports are "An affecting work, beautifully played by Miss Anderson and Miss Menken. . . has moments so well written and truly played that they were interrupted by spontaneous applause."—N. Y. Herald Tribune.

Burns Mantle in N. Y. News says: "There is no more moving drama on Broadway."

Just another one of the very interesting and entertaining plays brought to Central Texas by Dr. A. J. Armstrong, during the theatre season.

EMERGENCY LOANS READY IN TEN DAYS

Emergency crop and feed loans for the year 1936, as authorized by the President's Executive Order of February 28, will be available within the next ten days, Governor W. I. Myers of the Farm Credit Administration stated here today. Regulations governing the loans have been issued.

Governor Myers said the loans will be made through the same channels used in previous years. Farmers eligible may obtain applications from the field supervisors or the local emergency crop loan committees already operating in most counties.

He said the loans will be limited to the minimum amount necessary to meet the immediate and actual cash needs of farmers who are unable to obtain credit from any other source, and in no instance exceed $200 to one farmer. Applicants who can get credit from any other source, including a production credit association, will not be eligible for emergency loans, he explained.

Loans will be made for the production, planting, cultivating, and harvesting of crops, for summer fallowing, for supplies where they are necessary for production of 1936 crops, or to produce necessary feed for livestock.

According to the Governor's statement, preference will be given to applications of farmers whose cash requirements are small, and no loans may be made for purchasing livestock or machinery or for payment of rents, debts or taxes.

The loans will bear interest at the rate of 5 1/2 per cent a year and be secured by a first lien, or an agreement to give a first lien, on all crops financed in whole or part with the proceeds of the emergency loan. Where loans are made for the production of feed for livestock, they will be secured by a first lien on the livestock to be fed.

Where farmers applying for emergency loans are the tenants of a private landowner or concern, the maximum amount of loans to the tenant of one landowner in one county may not exceed $500. The maximum amount of loans to members of one household who are occupants of the same farm is $200.

All disbursements will be made from the regional Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Offices located at Springfield, Mass., Baltimore, Columbia, S. C., Memphis, Dallas, St. Louis, St. Paul, Omaha, Wichita, Salt Lake City, and Spokane.

"TO THE LADIES"

This is no banquet or toast, it's just elucidating on this headline. Whatta you mean "To The Ladies?"

This week, March 16 to 21, is National Business and Professional Women's week. They're really breaking into business, whether you like it or not. They're breaking into Gatesville Business. Some of them are the so-called "career" women, some are working because it's a hobby, it's a necessity, or for other various reasons.

Listed right here in Gatesville, are Seamstresses, Chiropractors, Oil Agents, Hotel and Rooming House Operators, Florists, Teachers, Loan Librarians, Insurance Agents, Stenographers, Clerks, Waitresses, Grocery Store Operators, Dancers, Painters and Music Teachers, and many others.

The depression has brought many of them out to assist "the little runt" or "the big Bozo" in making a living and fighting off starvation. And, incidently, they all enjoy their work, and are quite as efficient as their colder-hearted copatriots.

STATE HIGHWAY DEPT. TO AWARD PRIZE TO MOST ATTRACTIVE HOME

The State Highway Department, through its Landscape Division, proposes to make an annual award of a handsomely designed emblem as a reward of merit to the most attractive Farm or Ranch Home located on a State or Federal Highway of Texas, provided that such home building does not exceed $5,000.00 in cost. It is not necessary that the resident be the owner of the home in order to enter.

The aim of the contest is to further a state-wide appreciation of beauty and cleanliness along the highways of the state. This in turn should inspire every home owner as well as tenant to do likewise with his premises, which will emphasize the interesting features for the travelers over the state. The same Farm or Ranch Home may win the award in successive years. Having won it for three years in succession, it will be entitled to retain the award permanently, so long as the high standard is maintained, but same will not be eligible to compete for two years after having lost the award.

Each Division Chairman and County Chairman of the Citizens' Organization for State Highway Beautification will appoint three judges for the highways through each respective county.

The points to be judged are as follows:

- (1) General appearance 20 points, (2) Cleanliness 10, (3) Orderliness of premises 10, (4) Trees, flowers, lawn, etc. 10, (5) Display of native trees, etc. 10, (6) Location of service buildings, etc. 10, (7) Appearance and state of repair of gates and fences 10, (8) Naming of property 10, and (9) Culverts where necessary, 10 Points.

The slogan, "Clear away all unsightliness in Texas," should encourage an improvement in real estate of all kinds. The householder can play an important part by setting an example in the community for cleanliness and beauty. Let beauty of premises become universal throughout Texas as an inspiration to those who visit this state.

WILD LIFE PRESERVATION MEETING IN AUSTIN MARCH 27-28

Governor James V. Allred, upon the suggestion of the Texas Wildlife Council has issued a call for a conference of representatives of every wildlife conservation organization, as well as of landowners, stockmen, County Agents, farm organizations, Junior Chambers of Commerce and individuals who are interested in the wildlife resources of Texas, to convene in the city of Austin, March the 27th and 28th, 1936.

In a proclamation issued February 14, Governor Allred states, "In no other state of the Union is there greater need for an awakened sentiment and effort for preservation of the lures of our out-of-doors, than in our great State of Texas. Never was a time more appropriate for Texas to give attention to its wildlife resources than during this, our Centennial Year, remembering as we must that it was the plentitude of game within our borders that made possible the achievements of our pioneer forebears."

In a letter from Governor Allred to County Agent Guy Powell, he especially urges that all persons who are vitally interested in wildlife conservation attend this conference as the success of such a meeting is dependent upon their attendance.

FIRST COOPERATION AGREED ON PROTECTION OF WILD LIFE SIGNED

The first cooperative agreement for the protection of wildlife to be reached between a Southern State and the U. S. Forest Service was signed in Atlanta on March 9 by Zack D. Cravey, Fish and Game Commissioner, and Joseph C. Kircher, Regional Forester in charge of the Southern Region of the Federal Forest Service.

The area affected by the agreement is a tract of nearly half million acres in North Georgia that constitutes portions of the Nantahala and Cherokee National Forests. Heretofore, the management of game on this area has been governed solely by the laws of the State except in areas set aside as Federal game refuges.

Under the Kircher-Cravey covenant, the Forest Service agrees to furnish the Georgia Fish and Game Department an annual game management plan, recommending the number of man-days fishing, number of fish to be taken per man-day, number of hunters and trappers, bag limits, seasons, hunting and trapping areas to be opened or Widespread interest has been shown in plans for the meet which is sponsored by the Texas Academy of Science and which will be directed by the Gonzales Palmetto Park board in cooperation with the Texas State Park board, the National Park service, and Fort Sam Houston officials.

Field trips and auditorium programs will be important features on the three day program.

NEW TRAFFIC WAY WAS OPENED ON MARCH FOURTH

Austin, March 19.—A new traffic artery, connecting Houston and Dallas, Texas' two largest cities, was opened to public travel March 4 when the final gap in the X-All highway was completed. Planned for opening during the early part of Texas Centennial year, the road will provide visitors to Texas with an alternate highway for travel from North to East and South Texas.

Governor Allred and other state officials attended the opening ceremony at a roadside park between Kosse and Thronton. The new route extends through Hempstead, Navasota, College Station, Bryan, Hearne, Mexia, Corsicana, and Ennis. It also passes through Fort Parker State park, historic frontier center and one of the Centennial celebration locations.

A solemn Pontifical field mass in memory of the martyrs of Goliad will be celebrated in the quadrangle of La Bahia mission, according to plans made by the Corpus Christi diocese of the Catholic church. In attendance will be six Bishops of the church, 10 Monsignori, and several hundred priests and nuns.

The mass in the morning will be followed that afternoon by a colorful parade of historical floats and military and school bands. Later, in Goliad State park, talks will be made by Governor Allred, L. A. Woods, state superintendent of education, and L. W. Kemp. Markers at Missions Espiritu Sante and San Rosario will be unveiled by the Rev. Father Folk of St. Edwards University.

EDITORIAL

WELCOME, STUDENTS!

With the opening of the second division of the Coryell County Meet, yesterday at noon, Gatesville has another chance to be the gracious host.

Hundreds of our friends from all sections of the county are going to be in here to see their boys and girls perform physical feats, some winning cups, some ribbons, and some will just have a good time trying. And,—, the trying is the part that will most improve most of us, and if they give their best for their respective schools, they have really WON, because if the best is given in any event, nothing else can be expected.

Gatesville should not have city limits, but the "limits" should be the Coryell County Line, north, south, east and west, cemeting the country and towns of the county in one big body, contiually pulling together, continually pushing forward to make this a "Centenial" county, in this and all other years.

So, in our small part, we believe the good citizens of Gatesville will join us in saying, Welcome to Gatesville, ALL Coryell County people, and, visitors too.

Play, "Ghosts," at Waco Hall April 6; Mme. Nazimova in Star Roll

April 6.

Her supporting company includes such well known players as McKay Morris, Harry Ellerbe, Beatrice de Neergaard and Raymond O'Brien. The play was produced under the direction of Mme. Nazimova, who has revised William Archer's translation of Norwegian's masterpiece, which threw all of Europe into an uproar when it was

A theatrical event of great importance to playgoers is the announcement that Mme. Nazimova, celebrated Theatre Guild star, will be seen in Henrik Ibsen's "Ghosts" at Waco Hall, Baylor University, in Waco, first played over fifty years ago.

Mme. Nazimova has recently been starred in the Theatre Guild production of "A Month in the Country," "Mourning Becomes Electra," "The Good Earth" and "The Simpleton of the Unexpected Isles." It was she who first popularized Ibsen in America, playing leading roles in "The Doll's House," "Hedda Gabler," "The Wilder" for two years in New York Duck' and "The Master Builder" and two more on the road to packed and appreciative houses. She made her Ibsen debut in this country in the role of Regina in "Ghosts", the play to which she now brings her delicately drawn and profoundly stirring interpretation of Mrs. Alving.

McKay Morris has for many seasons been one of the most distinguished leading men of the theatre, appearing with virtually every leading star. He has just completed an engagement with the New York Theatre Guild, in which he played the President of the United States in "If This Be Treason."

Harry Ellerbe has recently appeared on the West Coast where he played leading roles on the stage and screen, playing opposite Margaret Sullivan in his last film, "So Red The Rose."

Beatrice de Heergaard was for five years a member of Eva Le Gallienne's Repertory Company, and not long ago she had a principal role with Nazimova in "Dr. Monica." Her last engagement in New York was in the role of Ludmilla in "Squaring the Circle."

LaCrosse originated with the Canadian Indians.
