Congressman Bob Poage Being Boosted to Fill House Committee Job

Congressman-elect R. W. (Bob) Poage is being boosted for a place on the House Appropriation Committee, one of the most important committees in the House of Representatives, according to a news story in The Waco News-Tribune of yesterday.

The appointment is to fill the vacancy which will be caused by the retirement of Congressman Thomas L. Blanton of Abilene.

Congressman J. P. Buchanan of the Austin district is chairman of the appropriations committee. Texas is the only State besides New York and Kentucky that in recent years has had two majority members on this committee, and because of this precedent, will seek to keep the second membership.

POOCHES, SEE YOUR DOCTOR. GET VACCINATED!

That's the law! That's the order! Both of them coming from the City Hall. Get the favorite pooch of yours vaccinated for rabies, or other ailments.

Authorities say the dog population of the city is being watched, and should any of them show signs of "getting mad" about anything, proper steps will be taken to take care of them. "Have a care for your dog."

Funeral Services Held For Mrs. J. P. Weaver In Corsicana Monday

One of the present day poets wrote beautifully of death, expressing the separation from earth's companions somewhat in this fashion, that "God loves the beautiful roses and gathers them unto Himself to bloom in the gardens above", and this is eminently true in the death of Mrs. J. P. Weaver, perhaps better known as "Grandma Weaver."

Mrs. Weaver, who before her marriage was Miss Katherine Bryant, was born October 13, 1848 in Missouri and came to Texas with her parents at the age of three. In 1865 she was married to James Polk Weaver in Corsicana, where they lived together until 1915 which was the time of Mr. Weaver's death.

After the death of Mr. Weaver, Mrs. Weaver has been living with her daughters, Mrs. A. Kelley and Mrs. Steve Winfield principally. She was living with Mrs. Winfield at the time of her passing away.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Steve Winfield, Mrs. A. Kelley of Gatesville, Mrs. Maggie Ross of near Corsicana, and one son, E. N. Weaver, of the Trinidad Islands. She is also survived by a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in the Corsicana Cemetery with Rev. Mr. Alman conducting.

Mrs. Weaver, or Grandma Weaver, as she was called by all her friends, was a kind mother and grandmother, and a true Christian character and met all the duties and obligations of life with courage and cheerfulness.

Every sponsor, president, and council delegate of each 4-H Club in the County is urged to be present at the next meeting, which will be held, October 10.

J. S. TORBETT HONORED AT MEETING SUNDAY IN ARLINGTON

J. S. Torbett, who has contributed the words and music to many of the sacred songs used over the radio programs and in many of the popular books of sacred songs, was given a place of honor in the State-wide Music Convention held in Arlington, Saturday and Sunday. Virgil Stamps of Dallas, radio star and president of the convention, presided over the meeting.

Mr. Torbett was born in the State of Tennessee, and moved to Texas at the age of four. As early as the age of 15 he taught singing, and in the past fifty years has taught and sung in many of the Southern states.

Mr. Torbett, now 68, has lived in Gatesville the past forty years, and during this time has composed many songs that have been used extensively in sacred services, and he has sung throughout this state as well as other states. He has been actively engaged in business in Gatesville for the past 35 years, and has been a citizen who always believes in and works for the betterment of his community. One of his most popular songs is "The Glory Land Way."

Gatesville and Coryell County are proud to claim this good citizen, and rejoice at the recognition given him in the recent State Singing Convention.

ASSOCIATIONAL BTU RALLY IS SUCCESS

More than 200 Baptists, including eight pastors, from 12 churches in the Leon River Association assembled at the First Baptist Church, Gatesville, Sunday afternoon for an Associational BTU Rally. An interesting inspirational program was concluded by the presentation of a BYPU Missionary Playlet, "The Color Line," presented by the Gatesville Senior BYPU. Immediately after the program, Mrs. Melvin Watson, acting as moderator in the absence of the director, called the Union into a regular business meeting for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. The three general officers were elected unanimously as follows: Doyle Singleton, president of the Gatesville Senior BYPU was elected Associational Director to succeed Rev. Clyde Childers, who resigned recently to accept a pastorate at Westbrook, Texas. Mrs. Melvin Watson of Jonesboro was reelected vice president. Curt Lengefeld, president of the German Bethel Senior BYPU was elected Secretary.

Much interest and enthusiasm was manifested by those present and a very successful year is anticipated for this organization. The next meeting will be held at the Ireland Baptist Church, October 18.

95% OF U. S. POPULATION ARE NEWSPAPER READERS

New York. Only half of the adult population is able to read with ease but still 95 per cent of the total population reads newspapers. This is the finding of a nation-wide survey by Columbia university, the University of Chicago and the American Library association.

Mrs. A. L. Pennington has been ill this week.

Pidcoke Schools Open October Fifth; Kids to Register Sat. Oct. 3

Authorities of the Pidcoke public schools ask that it be announced that their school will open on October 5, but that students who intend to enroll, should catch the buses, which will be running October 3, and bring their credit cards, book cards and other information that is required to register.

The same, we suppose, will apply to the other schools which open on this date, and which are: Mountain, Plainview, Slater, Newland, Eagle Springs, The Grove, and Davidson.

He and his mother are living at 606 Andrews street.

THAT'S NOT A TRENCH, AND WE DO NOT HAVE WAR. IT'S GAS!

Civil war has not started in Gatesville, as some might expect! That's a gas main. As if there wasn't enough "gas" in the court house already.

Anyway, "they're putting on the heat," changing from coal to gas in the court house. It saves backs, and probably is cheaper—anyway, it's closer to the Panhandle gas fields than it is to the Pennsylvania coal fields, and "truckin' and freightin'" is high on this coal stuff.

NEW HIGHWAY IS PLANNED TO MOTHER NEFF PARK

From the Dallas Morning News of yesterday comes the report that President Pat M. Neff of Baylor University has been advised by the State Highway Commission that that body has designated a new highway from Moody to Mother Neff Park and across the Leon River, to intersect Highway No. 36 north into Gatesville. The new road will be by way of Moody and The Grove for twenty-five miles. A new bridge will be built across the Leon River.

The new highway will skirt the park, but will not pass through it.

REVS. FLOYD JOHNSON AND M. M. CHUNN SPEAKERS AT SCHOOL

Rev. Floyd Johnson of the Clay Avenue Methodist Church of Waco, who has this week been holding services at the First Methodist Church of this city, was the chapel speaker at the high school Thursday morning. Rev. Johnson chose as his subject, "Goals in Life."

Rev. M. M. Chunn, pastor of the First Methodist church, was also an interesting speaker at the same chapel hour.

COUNTY WIDE TURNOUT IS EXPECTED WHEN HORNETS AND THE MOODY BEAR-CATS CLASH ON OUR NEW GRIDIRON TONIGHT.

Everything is set! Lights up! Teams primed. Pep Squad Trained! Band tuned! Fans Talking!

It'll be a historic event in the life and history of Gatesville, Coryell County, and last but not least, not by any means, to members of the Gatesville High School Hornets football of 1936, when time is called by the referee tonight in the new "Blank" Athletic Field. This dream of years and years of athletes, students, teachers, trustees and just plain citizens, has been focused in this one grand opening, dedication football game tonight between the Gatesville Hornets and the Moody Bearcats.

Opening the festivities will be a speech of dedication by Judge R. B. Cross, followed by Mayor C. E. Gandy and Superintendent Ercell W. Brooks. H. K. Jackson will then explain for the uninitiated enough of the fundamentals of football so the "fan" who has never seen the game may enjoy the main event. Introductions will be made by Pat Holt.

At the instant the ceremonies are over, it is probable the high school band, under the direction of D. W. Diserens will strike up the school song, after which the captain of the respective teams will be called for a conference by the referees, judges, umpires, timekeepers, coaches. Then with the teams lined up for the kick-off, the whistle will blow, and citizens of the county will be set for one of the most exciting sports of the century, between two snappy high schools putting forth a great effort to make the first game of the season, the first game in the new athletic field, the sensation that it should be.

Linemen have worked the entire week putting up the lights, others have been rigging a sound system, practice was staged on Wednesday night with the local team in an effort to get them used to the lights, and last night, the pep squad had their final workout, with their two diminutive macots.

Busses are to be run on their respective routes and free for the students, but a small charge of 10 cents will be made for any and all adults who will come to the game—and all are invited. Twenty-five cents is being charged for this opening game, so that people may learn how really great this game is.

On the Sports page of the News, the fans may find, in a box display, the names, numbers, positions, weights and probable starting lineup of the two teams.

SAN ANGELO FLOOD SHOTS LOANED BY BOONE GORDON

In our front window are a series of pictures of the recent San Angelo flood which show in detail the desolation and terror which the good citizens of San Angelo experienced.

Mr. Boone Gordon of Gatesville received these from Frank Hale of San Angelo, a former citizen of Gatesville, and we are indebted to these gentlemen for this display, which you will be interested in seeing.

MEADOWS AND PASTURE STRIPS USED HERE FOR TERRACES

The use of meadow and pasture strips as permanent vegetated waterways for outletting terraces and taking care of runoff water from outside drainage areas, according to the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, is being widely used by farmers cooperating with the Service Camp in Coryell County and elsewhere.

Since most of the cultivated land is gently rolling to rolling numerous natural drainage-ways occur. Many farmers hasten erosion by cultivating close to and across these natural drainage ways causing severe erosion on the steep slopes and silting on the lower and more gentle slopes. This silting is so great in numerous cases that farmers have resorted to V-type ditches in an effort to drain the water off the farm.

An economical and practical solution to this problem is to establish meadow or pasture strips along these drainage-ways. On farms cooperating with the amp, pasture and meadow strips are planned on engineered locations. These not only serve as permanent vegetated waterways but also serve as border and filter strips along cultivated fields and produce a return to the farmer either in pasture or hay. Bermuda is the most prominent grass used in pasture strips in this area although some Buffalo grass and Dallas grass will be used. On the meadow strips Little Bluestem, Big Bluestem and Indian Grass will be the principal grasses used. Clovers will be added in some cases and in seeps or wet areas Dallas Grass will be used.

On farms cooperating with the Camp, twenty meadow and pasture strips are planned as permanent vegetated waterways. Three of these were on the farms when the agreements were written, three were sodded and fenced last spring, and the remaining fourteen will be seeded and sodded this fall.

Many outlet channels are eliminated by using pasture and meadow strips and farmers interested in soil conservation can very economically duplicate this method.

Will Rogers' Humorous Story

By WILL ROGERS

THERE'S always a lot of argument about marrying widows and widowers. Some says they are the best sort of companions because they've had the experience that the younger folks need, and others says they are always thinking about the one they was married to last.

Anyhow, there was a fellow thinking about marrying a widow, and a mean old dad of his was advising him against it.

"Why, son," says the dad, "that here woman is a widow, and that's enough to know about her. She'll always be comparing you to her first old man, and she'll be intimating that anything that was his is much too good for you."

RADIO BRINGS SUMMER MUSIC TO MILLIONS

THE above scene, photographed in Manhattan's Lewisohn Stadium, is being re-enacted nightly in a constantly increasing number of cities throughout the country, where outdoor performances of both symphonic and operatic music have been made available to local music lovers. In Philadelphia's Robin Hood Dell, Los Angeles' Hollywood Bowl, Chicago's Ravinia Park, and Boston's Charles River Esplanade, as well as other cities in all parts of the country, thousands of listeners are taking their music together with fresh air and cool breezes.

But even these huge audiences are dwarfed by the great radio audience listening in on these same concerts from coast to coast. For this summer, Philco's Radio Institute of the Audible Arts reports, many of these outdoor concert series are being broadcast regularly by the major networks as well as local stations for the benefit of radio listeners everywhere.

Thousands may listen in Lewisohn Stadium as a world-famous conductor, leads the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra. But millions can sit by their loudspeakers in America's 23,000,000 radio equipped homes, or park beneath the stars on some quiet hill-top, comfortably seated in one of America's 3,000,000 radio-equipped automobiles . . . a potential audience of almost 90,000,000 for every note broadcast by the country's leading orchestras via radio!

More than 16,000 tests of soil have been made in Kern County,

California, to determine the best crops to grow.

If you have something to sell, you have something to advertise!

There are 1,701 Indian children of the Kiowa reservation at Anadarko, Oklahoma, enrolled in schools and colleges, agency figures show.

The beef cattle industry is second only to the petroleum industry in size in California.

Presbyterian Church

The Presbyterian Church in the United States has been observing this year as our Diamond Jubilee. Our program for our 75th anniversary calls for the months of October to be observed as LOYALTY MONTH, with particular emphasis on church attendance. Loyalty is a virtue within the reach of the humblest and the lowliest. You do not need talent, position, wealth, fame, or influence to be a loyal follower of Christ and a member of this church. There are ways and methods of indicating our loyalty; one of the most significant is church attendance. There is value in its very publicness. The benefits received far outweigh the effort required. Let every member plan NOW to show his loyalty to his Christ and his church by making special plans and efforts to be present at every public worship during the month of October.

The pastor will speak at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m., next Sunday.

Sunday School at the usual hour. The public is most cordially invited to worship with us.

Hornets Pledge To Dedicate Field By Winning

Blasting the lid off the new local gridiron campaign, the Gatesville High Hornets engage Moody tonight in the initial battle of the 1936 district race.

Fifty-four strong, the squad bars the hopes of an entire county for winning Gatesville High's first district title.

They possess all the qualifications of champions — speed, weight, and superior coaching. If they fail to deliver they have only themselves to blame, but by all pre-game indications they will not fail to deliver.

With two excellent teams, with little to choose between them, Worley and Schwarz will have enough reserves to wear down the strongest of opposition.

Gatesville has been cursed in the past with mediocre teams. Teams that start with a flash and turned out to be merely flashes in the pan. If history repeats itself this season, then the fans might as well give up. If the present Hornet squad does not sweep the field and come up with the pennant in its teeth, then Gatesville will never win a title.

The new stadium will be opened with full honors tonight. The time-honored procedure of speeches by prominent men will be observed, and the fans, as usual, will loiter back in their seats and wait patiently for the game to start. Bring a sack of peanuts to fill in this painful interim, or if you wish to be original you can actually listen to the speeches. For a colorful dedication ceremony we can think of nothing more thrilling than several awe-inspiring speeches.

This is something of an introduction sale, to give the fans a look at the Hornets at cut-rate prices. If you wish to economize, purchase a regular season ticket. The price is only $2 and entitles you to six games at a saving of forty cents. Tickets may be purchased at the High School office and downtown at Arnold's drug store.

Some Stadium Statistics

For those interested in the financial side of the new stadium, we present a few figures.

Federal funds:
Labor and Supervision $5,657.28
Material 3,128.72
$8,786.00

City Funds:
Labor and supervision $ 900.00
Material $2,502.00

$3,402.00
Total cost of stadium $12,188.00

The lighting system alone for the field cost $1,700.00, and is considered one of the best in the State.

The stadium has a seating capacity accommodating 3,500 people and is expected to be filled tonight at the first football game. Prices have been lowered, busses are being run to the rural communities, and everything else possible is being done to insure a capacity crowd.

This first night should be something of a combination of Saturday night at the Silver Dollar Saloon and Christians vs. the Gauls, in the Roman arena of Nero's day.

Looking over the roster of the Hornet club, we find that more than half the boys come from the rural communities, of the County. Mound, Purnela, Ewing, Arnett and nearly every other community in Coryell County is represented. On the starting lineup, seven out of the eleven players come from communities outside of Gatesville. It can be truthfully said Coryell County now has a football team, where it used to be Gatesville's team.

Likewise, Gatesville is not the only town in the county boasting of a football club. Copperas Cove, for the first time will be represented on the gridiron. Under Coach John O Rogers, 20 men have been working out daily in preparation for their first game with Killeen today.

Class C teams have a hard go of it sometimes, so we say more power to these boys.

Virginia farmers have been urged for the State Department of Agriculture to harvest red clover seed, because of a shortage in the supply resulting from the drought.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY BEGAN NEW STUDY TUESDAY

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church began a new mission study Tuesday with an unusually fine attendance. The study, "A Preface Toward Racial Understanding," was directed by Mesdames J. H. Hamilton and C. R. Bailey. As a special feature, a group of negro girls sang several songs. This study course will continue for the next few weeks and the ladies are urged to be present for each lesson.

"It's A Small World"

SMOKING is part of the regular athletic training of Bevil Rudd, British 400 and 800 meter runner. At the Olympic preliminaries in Belgium, he gave up smoking and lost the 800-meter race. "I'm all fagged without fags," said Rudd, so they handed him back his cigarettes and he went right out and won the 400, winning by 6 yards from his strictly-trained opponents. "Now I'm back in the rudding," said Rudd hoarsely at the finish.

THE FAMILIAR DITTY sung by small boys a dozen or so years ago — "In Flew Enza" — wasn't so far wrong. Harvard scientists have discovered that influenza germs hang in the air like tobacco smoke after a person who has the disease has sneezed, and these germs practically will not settle, but drift around on air currents from room to room. So if you get "the flu" it's very possible it flew through the air to hit you.

THE U. S. may go back to its century-old policy, abandoned in 1929, of maintaining a fleet in European waters, just in case of trouble, says Secretary of State Hull. This is a good plan as it will give us Hulls abroad as well as at home.

JOE PENNER, the radio favorite, went to Hollywood with his pockets full of paper cut-outs of black sheep. Seems his new radio series this Fall will feature him as the black sheep of a highbrow family, and he'll be in disgrace most of the time. It won't be a wisecrack program any more, and Joe doesn't know whether he can resist the temptation to let out a good "gag" once in awhile, but he'll try to Penner up, he says.

PENNSYLVANIA hunger marchers "camping" in Harrisburg, bathed their babies in the Capitol rotunda and hung their wash to dry on marble statues of Pennsylvania's famed Senators Boies Penrose and Matthew Quay. A special session of the Legislature is deadlocked over relief funds, and payments have stopped. The "hunger army" wants $100,000,000 and probably won't get it, although it's some distinction to be able to say you hung out your wash on a monument to a U. S. Senator.

THE U.S. GOVERNMENT is counting its chickens. The Department of Agriculture is taking a national census of poultry. Farmers don't see much sense in it so far because chickens cross the road so often it's practically impossible for the Dep't. boys to keep track of 'em, but the Government promises systematic information.

HENRY FORD recently prophesied that meat would not be used so much in the future, for food. Judging by some of the hot dogs and barbecues you get along the road (which seem to be made entirely out of old rubber tires,) the use of meat is already well on its way out.

NOW, isn't this a mess? Governor Landon some time ago signed a law in Kansas trying to protect the soil from drought and erosion, and the Kansas Supreme Court calls it unconstitutional. President Roosevelt's trying to do the same thing, only he pays the farmers if they protect their land—while Landon's law taxed them if they didn't. While all this is going on, a lot of the land is blowing and washing away, because of the drought. So the election this Fall may very well be a landslide, one way or the other.

LEDERER APPEARS IN GAY COMEDY

What happens when a handsome young man kisses the wrong girl in a darkened movie theatre "One Rainy afternoon", is depicted in hilarious fashion in Pickford-Lasky's gay Parisian romantic comedy of that title which brings dashing Francis Lederer to the Regal theatre two days beginning Saturday night at 10:30.

The first offering of the newly organized producing company headed by Mary Pickford and Jesse Lasky, "One Rainy Afternoon," presents pert Ida Lupino opposite the star, and in the comedy are Hugh Herbert, Roland Young, Erik Rhodes and Joseph Cawthorn.

The screen play which Stephen Morehouse Avery adapted from Ward McDowell returned last week from San Antonio where he visited his mother and brother, Mrs. M. L. McDowell and Ralph.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. F. Moore of Kerrville and nephew, La Gette Yelvington, of Schreiner Institute, visited with Mrs. A. D. Honeycut for a few hours Sunday on their return from the Texas Centennial.

the French story, "Monsieur Sans Gene", centers around a frantic adventure of a struggling Paris actor who is carrying on a clandestine flirtation. He and the lady invariably meet in darkened movie theatres, and it is at one such rendezvous that Phillippe is directed to the wrong seat and inadvertently kisses the beautiful stranger beside him.

A shriek! A resounding slap! A scandal! Phillippe is brought to trial. But a case of love at first sight develops between him and his beautiful "victim", Monique Pelerin, with the result that his fine is paid and he goes free. A hectic romance carried on chiefly in ice-skating palaces, develops between Phillippe and Monique, and the romantic publicity growing out of the trial makes him the toast of Paris.

The popular Czechoslovakian star sings on the screen for the first time in "One Rainy Afternoon".

WORLD'S MIGHTIEST CIRCUS COMING SOON

Great Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined, with pigmy elephants and pongurs from Africa, Col. Tim McCoy and hundreds of new foreign features offers epochal program.

With the most impressive and brilliant seven ring and stage program in its history, the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus, which will exhibit in Waco, Wednesday, Sept 30, offers this season, as a sensational superfeature, a herd of African pigmy elephants the first ever to set foot on this continent. These tiny tuskers are not babies, but full-grown, middle-aged midget elephants, the rarest animals on the face of the earth. Accompanying them is a herd of miniature African pongurs, the world's smallest beasts of burden. The pigmy elephants have proven the greatest attraction the Big Show has ever placed before the public, not even excepting its presentations in the past of the disciplined Ubangis, the giraffe-necked women from Burma, the sacred white elephant of Siam, Jumbo, Tom Thumb and Goliath the sea elephant.

Among the score of new features, to say nothing of the new importations from Europe and Asia, including the incredible Naitto troupe, the Royal Bokara troupe, the Imperial Viennese equestrian troupe, the great Frederico and a free running horse, pony and elephant act of sixty members. Is Col. Tim McCoy, the screens most outstanding western star, at the head of his rough riders of the world—Cossacks, cowboys, cow-girls, vaqueros, Sioux and Black-foot warriors and Australian bushrangers. Col. McCoy, plainsman, cavalry officer in the U. S. Army reserve and friend of the Indian, is the idol of American boys and girls, and may be seen in both the main performance and the Wild West.

The Greatest Show on Earth heads into this territory on four long railroad trains of 100 cars, with 1600 people, 7 herds of full-sized elephant actors, 1009 menagerie animals and 700 hundred horses. Its tented city covers 14 acres of ground, including the world's largest big top, seating 16,000 persons.

This is the peak season for youth and beauty among the 800 world famous arenic artist with the show. In the air, in the three rings, on the four stages and on the quarter-mile hippodrome track will be seen hundreds of pretty girls. In the sixty girl aerial ballet, the most beautiful mid-air display ever produced, there are beauties that evoke columns of newspaper comment wherever the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus exhibits.

SAFETY SLACKERS

I know a man who violated a traffic ordinance—who got a ticket—and who got it "fixed".

In my opinion, that man is worse than any Grover Bergdoll who ever lived.

Under certain circumstances there may be such a thing as conscientious objection to war. There may be people who have such deep-seated fervor for peace that they will die for their pacifistic ideals. They may be silly sentimentalists, but they are not cowards.

There is, however, no such thing as justifiable conscientious objection to the war on automobile accidents.

There is no excuse for sympathy with our common national enemy, Carelessness, which kills and maims more of our people than War. (From 1922 through 1935, deaths from automobile accidents have, according to The Travelers Insurance Company, aggregated 380,000, which exceeds by 55 per cent the record of those killed in action, or who died of wounds in all the wars in which this country participated.)

A man who regards a traffic ticket as a scrap of paper is a modern Benedict Arnold.

Even if there may be a slight measure of injustice in his ticket (and we always feel that there is, don't we?) he should be glad to lean over backwards TO TAKE HIS MEDICINE.

Traffic discipline may not always be fair, but traffic discipline has been established for your own good, and for the safety of your children.

Submit to this discipline graciously. Take what's coming to you. Don't try to beat the traffic game. (It's your game.) Don't cheat or fudge. Don't try to get your ticket "fixed".

In short, don't be a Safety Slacker.

Jonesboro School Is to Open Monday, Sep. 28 With Four-Year Work

The Jonesboro school will begin the 1936-1937 school term on Monday, September 28. This year the school will operate as a four-year high school, seeking classification and accrediting. Two buses will be used in transporting about 80 pupils to school.

It is important that all pupils who plan to enter school be present Monday to secure books and go over the schedule even though they may not be able to be regular in attendance for the first few days.

Much work has been done during the summer to regain eleven grades, and several hundred dollars worth of new equipment has been added in order to make the work meet the State requirements. One additional room has been built to take care of the increased enrollment.

Three new teachers have been added to the faculty. They are Mrs. Mable Hatte, B. A. degree from Baylor University, who will teach Spanish and English; Miss Bertha Clyde Seat, B. A. degree from Baylor University, who will teach English and history; and Mrs. Jewell Woodhouse B. A. degree, who will teach the fifth and sixth grades.

In addition to the new teachers, the following are retained from last year: Menlo Holloway, Delphia Farquhar, and Georgia Franks.

With a hard year ahead, and realizing that no school can accomplish much without the support of the community, the school is asking for the same loyal support as the people gave it last year.

To all parents of children coming to Jonesboro from neighboring schools, an invitation to make this school their school is extended to them by the faculty, trustees and the people of Jonesboro.

AMONG THE LITERATI

by Margaret Langston

James Fenimore Cooper, an American novelist, was born at Burlington, New Jersey, in 1789.

The family moved to an estate near Otsego Lake, New York, when Cooper was in his second year, and the boy spent his boyhood days in a home surrounded by forests and in a locality where Indian raids were imminent. Here he found material for his famous "Leather Stocking Tales."

Sent to Yale in 1803, he was expelled in his third year for neglecting his work, then entered merchant service, spending three years at this work. He finally settled on a farm in Westchester County, but did not begin his literary career for nearly ten years later. His first novel "Precaution," written in 1820, had little success. "The Spy," which soon followed was the first of a large number of popular tales.

The years between 1826 and 1833 were spent abroad; thereafter he lived for the most part on his estate at Cooperstown. Later years were marred by quarrels and law suits brought about by his inability to bear criticism and his peculiarity of temper.

Cooper is sometimes called "The American Scott." The chief resemblance was the fact that the best fiction of both writers was colored with the romantic past of their respective countries. He is admired among his own countrymen as the author of wholesome stories of forest and sea. His plots are somewhat conventional, but are skillfully put together and hold the reader's interest, and the treatment of extremely dramatic episodes are most vivid.

TEACHERS MUST FILE THEIR CREDITS AND CONTRACTS WITH COUNTY SUPT.

Teachers holding positions in Coryell County must file the list of their credits and contracts in the office of County Superintendent J. M. Witcher before teaching can legally begin, according to Superintendent J. M. Witcher.

Mr. Witcher further stated that it is a finable offense for a county superintendent or trustee to sign vouchers unless the teacher's papers are filed with the County Superintendent.

His most popular novels are "The Deerslayer," "The Last of the Mohicans," "The Pioneer," "The Prairie," "The Pilot," and "The Red Rover."

He died in 1851.

LOUIS WOODALL ACCEPTS POSITION WITH STORE IN HAMILTON

Louis Woodall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Woodall of the State Training School, who has for the past few years been employed by the Alvis-Garner Co. of this city, has accepted a position in the Alvis-Garner Co. store at Hamilton, where he will be manager of credits.

He left Tuesday to assume his new duties there. He is an estimable young man, has made good here, and is deserving of the recognition the company is giving him. His many friends here wish him well in his new location.

BUS AND SCHOOL CONTRACTS MUST BE IN OFFICE BY OCTOBER 1

Information from the County Superintendent's office is to the effect that all bus contracts and the contracts from contract schools should be in the office of the County Superintendent J. M. Witcher by October 1, so that they will be ready to be passed on by the County Board of Trustees at their meeting, early in October.

IRELAND SCHOOL NOTES

The Ireland High School opened on Monday, Sept. 21, with a large number of students, present and a number of patrons out to give the teachers a warm welcome.

Arthur Sharp, the janitor, has everything in good shape, while Bill Richardson, who is the bus driver from Oadon, Ater and Levita, has a bus full of students that the Ireland people were glad to welcome, and hope they will each enjoy their school work.

Ireland will have six teachers and will teach eleven grades, with nine credits of affiliated work to start with. The best school work is expected of the teachers and pupils this year.

Following are the teachers: Mrs. Dee L. Ferguson has her B. A. degree from Texas Tech of Lubbock. She has had six years' experience in teaching. This is her first year in Ireland and she will teach the first and second grades.

Miss Alta Moss, who holds a B. S. degree from the East Texas State Teachers College of Commerce, has had nine years' experience in teaching; she will teach the third and fourth grades, and will also teach piano.

Miss Bessie Mitchell has an A. B. degree from Baylor University, has had ten years' experience, five of which have been in the Ireland school; and will teach the fifth and sixth grades.

Gerald Dwight Kennedy has a B. A. degree from Trinity University, and will teach in the seventh grade.

Miss Lola Campbell has a B. S. degree from Texas State Teachers College of Denton, has had eleven years' teaching experience, with three in Ireland. She will teach history, government, and economics in the high school.

M. L. Bannister, Superintendent of Ireland schools, has an A. B. degree from Baylor University. He has been working on his M. A. degree this summer. He has had sixteen years' experience, with this his third year in Ireland. He will teach mathematics.

World Comment—

tion. Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts will be the scene of vigorous drive on the part of local Democratic machines to carry these states for Roosevelt but their efforts will be unavailing.

Score so far: Roosevelt, 124; Landon, 41.

Out of the Pacific coast, Herbert Hoover piled huge majorities in the eventful year of 1928, but was repudiated by Oregon, Washington and his home state of California four years later. Today few Republicans base much hope on carrying these states which have a total of 35 electoral votes. California (22), Oregon (5), Washington (8).

Score: Roosevelt, 159; Landon, 41.

In the East—formerly the solid Republican East—are four states thereof which are classed as doubtful territory by many prophets. Of the four, Delaware (3), Pennsylvania (36), and New Jersey (16) we place in the Landon column we also list as "doubtful."

New Jersey gave Roosevelt a plurality of 31,000 out of 1,500,000 votes cast in 1932 but all indications point to a reversal this year with a majority of about 30,000 for Landon. Hoover won Delaware by the narrowest of margins in 1932—2,754 to be exact—and Landon will repeat by a larger margin. Pennsylvania, scene of the greatest concerted drive by Democrats in any state, will again give the Republican nominee its 1936 electoral votes, leaving an unblemished record, we believe. New York is one of the four states we list as doubtful. Perhaps between now and November it will cease to be in this classification but right now neither candidate has much of an edge. Landon is stronger in upstate New York, Roosevelt in New York City and the question is, which candidate will get a majority in his favored section sufficient to offset his opponent's majority in the other section.

Score: Roosevelt, 159; Landon, 96; doubtful, 47.

And so we come to the border states, the states bordering the solid South. Seven states we place in this category, six going to Roosevelt and one to Landon. Oklahoma (11), Kentucky (11), Missouri (15), Maryland (8), Arizona (3) and New Mexico (3) go in the Democratic column; West Virginia (8) alone goes to the G. O. P.

We may be challenged in the Missouri and Maryland prediction, due to the fact that Missouri is adjacent to Governor Landon's home state and to the recalcitrant attitude of various Democratic leaders of conservative tendencies in Maryland. Missouri gave Roosevelt a plurality vote of 460,000 in 1932, elected a Democratic Senator and twelve representatives in 1934, and records a heavy Democratic registration this year. These factors, coupled with the heavy vote Democratic leaders expect Boss Tom Pendergast to turn out in his Kansas City balliwick, will swing Missouri to Roosevelt. Maryland has turned her back to New England and is looking toward the South. John Lewis' United Mine Workers have been instructed to vote for Roosevelt but there is no assurance that they will do so. As Maine has turned to the Democratic South, so is West Virginia looking to the Republican North.

Score: Roosevelt, 210; Landon, 104; doubtful, 47.

The six states comprising the Mid-Western form and industrial belt are denied Roosevelt, three going into the doubtful column, three to Landon. Illinois (29), Indiana (14) and Ohio (26) show registration is pretty evenly balanced. The Republicans have put forth strong state tickets in these states and coupled with the fact that all three states gave Roosevelt comparatively small majorities over Hoover in 1932 you have the basic reasons why they are classified as doubtful. Kansas, Iowa and Michigan seem definitely for Landon.

Score: Roosevelt, 210; Landon, 143; doubtful, 116.

Nebraska (7), South Dakota (4), North Dakota (4), Minnesota (11), and Wisconsin (12) have reacted favorably to the Administrations farm policies and demonstrate decided Democratic leanings at this time. In the Mountain states Utah (4), Nevada (3), Idaho (4) and Montana (4) have shown little tendency to return to the G. O. P. fold. Two other Mountain states, Colorado (6) and Wyoming (3) look Republican. So we have the final score: Roosevelt, 263; Landon 152; doubtful, 116.

(Figures represent votes in the electoral college. Total number of votes in the college is 531. Number necessary for election, 266. Amount needed for election according to writer's computation: Roosevelt 3 or the vote of any one of the states classified as doubtful; Landon, 114, requiring the vote of each of the states classified as doubtful).

An October rating on the candidates will be published in this column and will include the election possibilities of William Lemke, embodying the third party threat in the election. Again in the last issue of the Coryell County News preceding the November balloting, a final computation will be made on the basis of figures and facts available at that time.

TIPS FOR THE HOME

By HOUS N. HOM

HALLS CONVEY HOSPITALITY TO THE HOME

A hall can easily indicate the character of the building owner. Its appearance can either indicate an invitation, or it can discourage entrance. Correct lighting is essential in affording an atmosphere of hospitality. Dark halls are stumbling blocks esthetically and physically to the stranger who enters the portals of a home.

To add character, impressiveness and impart an air of warm hospitality to the reception hall, mirrored niches are very effective. These niches not only add to the spacious effect of the entrance, but make an ideal location for a vase of flowers, which not only lend color to the hall but a welcoming gesture of hospitality to the guest. . . . a foretaste of the charm that he will find within the home.

Plenty of natural light should be available with artificial and mirrored light being used wherever necessary to make a cheerful appearance. Wall and floor coverings should be selected carefully, and with taste. A stairway rising from the hallway painted in light tones to harmonize with wall and floor coverings, with a dark wood bannister, makes a pleasant contrast, offering a cordial welcome.

In houses where there are children, special arrangements should be made for them in the entrance off the hall. A lavatory encourages a presentable appearance at meals and all times. Built-in cupboards and closets for the hanging of coats and wraps, umbrellas, skates, rubbers, tennis rackets and other equipment used so much by the younger people contribute to good order and avoid confusion.

YOUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

By Dr. ALLEN G. IERLAND
 Director, Physical and Health Education
 New Jersey State Department of Public Instruction

SUNSHINE IS GOOD, BUT—
 "You say sunshine is good," said my friend, a school teacher, "but now you tell me to use the window shades to shut it out. I don't understand."

"Sunshine IS good," I replied, "but there is a right way to use it. In the first place, all or most of the health-giving sun rays do not pass through ordinary window glass.

We're not sure how much comes through; perhaps none. Then light rays come through without change."

But in this instance," I continued, "my objection concerns the eyesight of your pupils." At this point I went to one of the seats and opened a book. Across the page a narrow streak of sunlight appeared. "Now that sunlight," I said, "brings not one whit of good to a child sitting here, but it may do harm."

Seeing that explanations were necessary, I reviewed briefly the working of the eye in order to let in just the right amount of light. It is muscle work which if excessive, can be very tiring. In his case, the eye sees words on the shaded part of the page then in the streak of light, and so on back and forth every second. All the time the eye is forced to work harder than it should.

"To prevent that," I went on, "we use shades, preferably thin, translucent shades which admit and diffuse light evenly over the child's work, thus saving his eyes from strain."

LOCAL FFA BOYS ATTEND MEETING IN WACO SUNDAY

The Future Farmers of America officers of the Gatesville chapter and their sponsor, W. E. Lasseter, went to Waco Saturday, Sept. 19, to attend a Future Farmer officers' training school. The meeting was held in the Waco High School building.

There were F. F. A. officers there from several towns and communities. The purpose of this meeting was to instruct each officer how to carry on his work more efficiently during the coming year.

The officers assembled themselves in different rooms for instruction in their particular sphere of work. Capable instructors appeared before each group of officers and explained their work and responsibilities.

The officers attending from Gatesville high school were: Clyde Boyd, president; Clara Patterson, vice president; Douglas White, secretary; Joe Reece Robinson, treasurer; Ruby Alford, reporter.

Each declared his meeting had been very profitable, and resolved to put more zeal in his work during 1936, and give Gatesville High School a chapter of Future Farmers of which to be proud.

The Virginia Chamber of Commerce estimates tourists in the State spend 81 millions dollars annually.

"Where Flour is Proved"

SPANISH SMOTHERED CAKE
One cup butter, 4 egg yolks, 2 egg whites, 2 1/2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 cups brown sugar, 1 cup sour milk, 2-3 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon baking powder 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon allspice.

Cream butter and sugar. Add beaten yolks and whites. Add milk in which soda has been dissolved, alternately with dry ingredients which have been sifted together four times. Add vanilla. Pour into oblong buttered pan and spread with Spanish icing and sprinkle top with 1/2 cup chopped nuts and bake 45 minutes in moderate oven 375 degrees F. Serve by cutting in squares.

SCOTCH SHORTBREAD
One pound butter, 3 eggs, 1/2 cup sugar, 7 cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder.
Wash butter well in cold water using the hand, then roll in a clean cloth and pat with hands until butter is dry. Place in a large bowl and knead in sugar, then knead in slightly beaten eggs. Sift flour and baking powder together and knead it in gradually which will make a smooth stiff paste. With the hands press the paste down into a straight sided baking pan, large enough so as to leave the paste only 1 inch thick when patted smoothly over the bottom of pan, or you may use two pans if necessary. Take a fork and stab all over the top and especially around the edges to prevent the paste from rising. Bake in moderate oven 45 minutes. Remove from pan and dust with powdered sugar.

SUGAR SYRUP SPONGE CAKE
One and a half cups sugar, 1 lemon juice and grated rind, 1 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1 cup flour, 1/2 cup water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 6 eggs, whites and yolks beaten separately.

Sift flour once, measure and sift four more times with the cream of tartar. Dissolve sugar in water and boil until it threads when dropped from the tip of a spoon. Add the salt to egg whites and beat until stiff. Pour the boiling syrup slowly over the whites, beating constantly until all the syrup is added. Beat egg yolks until very light and creamy, add lemon juice and rind and combine with the whites. Cut in flour carefully and pour into ungreased tube pan. Bake in a slow oven 325 degrees F. about 55 to 60 minutes. Raise temperature of oven when cake has risen to top of pan. When done remove from oven, invert pan and let stand until cool.

powder 1-2 cup chopped nut kernels, 1 cup seedless raisins.
Wash raisins and drain. Beat egg add milk and sugar and mix together. Combine with flour sifted with baking powder and salt. Add nuts and raisins and beat well. Pour into greased paperlined pan. Bake 1 1/2 hour in moderate oven.
Almond Bisquies
Cream 1-2 cup shortening, add gradually 10 tablespoons powdered sugar, 1 well beaten egg and 1 1/2 tablespoons milk. Sift 2 cups flour, 1-4 teaspoon cinnamon, 1-4 cup clove and 1 cup finely chopped blanched almonds and blend in with the creamed mixture. Knead well, roll in thin sheets, cut in fancy shapes and place on a greased pan. Brush with lightly beaten eggs and cinnamon. Bake in a moderate oven.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

The lurking cold germ is waiting for your defenses to be lowered. Leading doctors tell us that fifty per cent of all disabling diseases start with a "common cold." America's Public Health Enemy Number One, the common cold germ, strikes with such viciousness that sixty per cent of the population has three or more "colds" each year. Think of this startling total of over two hundred million illnesses—many of which could be avoided with adequate heat and proper ventilation throughout the home.
