Fiftieth Anniversary of German Baptist Church Celebrated Sunday 11

With the Reverend Wm. Kuhn, D. D., delivering the Jubilee sermon, the German Bethel Baptist Church, under the pastorate of Rev. W. H. Buening, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the establishing of the church, and the twenty-fifth year of Rev. Buening's work in the ministry, Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

Due to the rains of the past week, the crowds were considerably diminished, but the morning service Sunday numbered some 350 members and visitors.

Thruout the week since last Wednesday, this church has had a program which was climaxed with the Sunday morning services.

Dr. Kuhn is General Secretary of German Baptist of the United States and Canada.

VISITING DAY HELD AT DAVIDSON KINDERGARTEN

On Tuesday, Nov. 24, the Davidson Kindergarten had Visiting Day. For the past two weeks the class has been studying the Pilgrims and the early Indians. Many interesting things were on display at the studio. Eight mothers and 11 fathers called.

Outstanding in clay modeling for the age group was a model of Indian on a Horse by Charles Dickey. Others modeled Indian pottery, dishes, spoons, vases and jars. Three Indian camps were made showing the arrival of the Pilgrim families. The camps consisted of wigwams made of brown paper, tall trees of colored paper, Indian chiefs and their paper, Indian chiefs little papooses. The canoes were anchored around the camp and the Pilgrim families were placed facing the Indian camp.

Cedar, pine and autumn leaves furnished a background for the camps. All work on display was made by the class and showed remarkable ability for so young a group.

UNCLE BILL TAYLOR, AGE 71 BURIED HERE TODAY

W. A. Taylor, better known to his host of friends as Uncle Bill, passed away at his home on West Riverside at 3 a. m. Monday following a month's illness.

He was born in Jefferson County, Illinois, March 25, 1855 and came to Texas at the age of 11. On January 3, 1884, at Burnet, he was married to Miss Laura Paralee Harper.

Uncle Bill was very active in public life, having owned and operated gins at Flat and in this city and was superintendent of the Oil Mill of this city for twelve years. He also served as public weigher for two terms. He was among Coryell County's oldest settlers, having been a resident in this county for 46 years.

Funeral service will be held today, Tuesday, at 10:00 a. m. at the cemetery. Rev. James M. McLean, pastor of the Presbyterian Church will conduct the rites.

Deceased is survived by the following children: five sons, E. L. O. L., of this city, Ed Taylor of Lampasas, Jack Taylor of Brionesmith, J. W. Taylor of Waco; two daughters: Mrs. Ella Huggins of Lampasas, and Mrs. May Valles of Waco; one brother, Tom Bird Taylor of Burnet and one sister, Mrs. Rodie Wolf of Seattle; thirteen grandchildren and six great-grandchildren, all of whom were present in his last moments.

TRUCKS COLLIDE ON SQUARE WITH SLIGHT DAMAGE

Trucks owned by Aaron Roberts and the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. crashed at the southwest corner of the public square Monday morning about 11. No one was injured.

Glass on the cab of Roberts' truck was broken and the radiator caved in, with other slight damage. The other had a bent fender and right front wheel damaged.

At that time the city will be decorated, the stores will be decorated, the floats, bringing Santa Claus, the grand old man of this season of the year, will be here—and the lights in a myriad of hues will light the dome and fixtures of the prettiest county courthouse in the world, the Coryell County courthouse!

About 6:30 the main switch will be thrown, Santa Claus and his entourage will enter the downtown section, led by Sheriff Joe White, an official County car, an official City car, Gatesville Fire Department, the Gatesville High School Band, the High School pep squad, the Boy Scouts in torch parade, and climaxed the whole wonderful show will be a gaily decorated float bearing His Majesty, Santa Claus.

Santa Claus, in correspondence with the News from the North Pole, has asked us to tell every child in Coryell County to be on hand, as he will have his ear handy, so that they may tell him what they want him to bring them on Christmas Eve Night, and he will also have candy to give to all the kiddies.

Folks, there is nothing else to do but to be here to greet Santa on his first appearance in Gatesville during 1936!

WHEN: Thursday of this week, December 3, at 6 to 8 p. m.

WHERE: At Gatesville!
HOW: In a blaze of Holiday Glory.

WORLD COMMENT

By JOE BURNS

Financial leaders of the administration are frankly concerned over the 7½ billions of foreign investments in this country. The concern emanates from the possibility that the condition might be the basis for a dangerous credit expansion and that the abrupt withdrawal of the investments might precipitate another stock exchange crisis.

The flow of capital to this country is the direct result of the war fears which now permeate the people of every European nation. The war and post-war inflation wiped out investments and destroyed the credit structure of many of the victorious and defeated nations. Today, America beckons as the only safe refuge for capital, and the efforts of both this government and the governments of the affected European nations have proved unavailable in the checking of the steady flow of gold to these shores.

Federal Reserve authorities have contemplated a measure that would prohibit foreign investments in American securities beyond a small amount, but such action has fortunately not been taken, due largely to the fact that Americans have 14½ billions in investments abroad. Even in such nations as France investments of American citizens could be wiped out due to extraordinary financial powers vested in government officials, and in such dictatorships as Italy and Germany the stroke of a pen could accomplish the confiscation of these investments.

The first step toward a solution of these vexing problems was taken with the gentleman's agreement among France, Britain, and the United States, seeking to bring about a stabilization of the moneys of the three nations. With a return to normal trade and fiscal relations among the nations of the world and the alleviation of the war scares only will come a final and complete solution of the economic problems of America and the European nations.

The conviction is growing among the British and French that the United States, Britain and France must unite if the world democracy is to be preserved.

Conclusion of the long-rumored alliance between Germany and Japan, in its published form ostensibly directed against the evils of Communism, provoked a distinctly unfavorable reaction in Great Britain where considerable wooing has been in progress by German diplomats since Hitler assumed the chancellorship in 1933.

The British foreign office is said to believe that the Berlin-Tokyo accord is a screen seeking to hide the expansionist aims of the two powers in the direction of the Ukraine and Siberia, respectively. Under the veil of attacking Communism and posing as the leaders of a world wide crusade against Internationalism, Germany and Japan, aided and abetted to the fullest extent by a sympathetic Fascist regime in Italy and possibly Spain, are expected to launch a concerted attack against the U. S. S. R.

London and Paris have unquestionably been drawn closer together by the conflict in Spain and by the Berlin-Tokyo hookup. France, with a Fascist triumph in Spain imminent, foresees itself surrounded on three sides by strong, militaristic dictatorships with no sympathy for its democratic system of government. London does not contemplate such a condition with complacency, for France would thus be placed in the position of being the last bulwark in Europe against dictatorship—either Communism or Fascism. Either, in France or Britain, would mean the destruction of the prevailing system of government.

Britain, France, Belgium, Switzerland, The Netherlands, and the Scandinavian countries alone have escaped dictatorship in the eighteen years since the Armistice. With the exception of the first two these countries are impotent as factors in the European scale of diplomacy and armaments.

British friendship for Germany resulted in Hitler's virtually going mad—scrapping the Versailles Treaty and re-arming to 1914 strength. An alliance of Germany and Italy and several smaller powers now threatens to engulf all central and southeastern Europe within its political and economic grasp.

In Spain, it has been demonstrated to the consternation of the London and Paris Chancelleries that the governments of Italy and Germany are quite willing and ready to meddle in the international affairs of other nations to establish regimes favorable to their systems and theories of government.

What proof has France that it can withstand even the peaceful onslaught of Fascism directed from three directions? If France succumbs, what chance has Britain to defy the united challenge of Europe's dictators?

These are the questions which ominously confront the statesmen of those two powers today. As in the 1914-1918 period, they look to the United States to help them solve a situation which they provoked by their own machinations and intrigue. What will be the response?

In 1917 it was said that America could not afford a German victory, that with the fall of France and Britain and their allies America would be next on the German roster of conquest.

No entangling alliances, economic embargoes and the like will keep us out of the next war we are promised. Yet, if that war is the choice between democracy and dictatorship, as the last one was a choice between autoocracy and democracy, will the American people respond to protect their system of government, as they did in 1917 to protect the honor of the American flag?

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Guggolz spent the Thanksgiving holidays visiting her brother, Watt L. Saunders and family in Austin. They also visited their son, Leslie and his wife, in Temple.

Hornets Defeat Bulldogs in Final Game Here

In a razzle-dazzle exhibition of wide open football the Gatesville High Hornets came from behind in the second half to defeat the McGregor Bulldogs 12 to 7 in the annual Thanksgiving Day Clash.

Opening up in the second half with a frenzied passing attack the Hornets filled the air with successful heaves that completely bewildered McGregor and accounted for the deciding touchdown of the game. The game from start to finish kept the fans on their feet as the tide of battle swayed first to one side and then to the other.

First Quarter

McGregor received the initial kick off on their own 35 and began a slow advance down the field. With the Bulldog fullback, Tubbs carrying the most of the shock McGregor crashed the Hornet 11 yard line in five first downs. Powerless against the short deadly tackle and center thrusts the Gatesville line gave way grudgingly and a Bulldog score seemed assured. On the next play, however, Tubbs fumbled and Gilbreth, alert Hornet end recovered to give Gatesville possession of the ball on their own 11 yard line. The Hornets unable to gain began a punting duel that successfully pulled them out of their perilous position. Baker kicked out to his own 45 and the Hornets dug in and held McGregor powerless. A weak Bulldog punt went only to the local's 30 and in return Baker got off a beautiful kick that went over the safety man's head and rolled to the Bulldog's 12 yard marker. McGregor kicked out to midfield and in exchange Baker's punt rolled over the goal line, giving the visitors the ball on their own 20. The quarter ended a few plays later with the Hornets in possession of the ball on the 50 yard stripe.

Second Quarter

A pass from Hinesly to Byrom was good for eight yards and White hit the line for a first down on the Bulldog 45. In an exchange of punts Gatesville took the ball to their own 30 and opened up the best football they have played all season, with the line holding like a brick wall. Badger Hinesly began to toss perfect passes to Wicker and Gilbreth, who made remarkable catches in spite of the Bulldog defense. In five consecutive passes, four of which were complete, the Hornets advanced to the Bulldog 30. White then hit center for five yards, and Wicker made a beautiful catch on the next play to put the ball on the five yard line. On the third play, Baker, behind perfect blocking, skidded across the fatal line to put the Hornets ahead 6 to 0. The try for the extra point failed.

In spite of the headsup playing of the Hornet line led by Cotton Davis and Williams, McGregor scored in the last minute of the first half. Kittrell, speedy Bulldog back, returned Baker's Hornet 19 yard line, and after two power plays, Tubbs tossed a perfect pass to Robinett, rangy left end, who went across standing up. W. James went across center for the extra point to put the Bulldogs in the lead 7 to 6.

Third Quarter

Badger Hinesly and crew went town in the third period with sizzling slings that steadily drove the Bulldogs back and back, with neither team able to advance by the land route, Gatesville took to the air with quick results. A pass to Wicker was good for 15 yards, but the next three plays failed and Baker was forced to kick. McGregor made a brief rally when Tubbs got off a 15 yard run, but the fighting (no sarcasm) Hornet line quickly put a stop to their flare up and the quarter ended a few plays later.

Fourth Quarter

The Hornets, showing their first real fight of the season, deluged McGregor territory with an aerial barrage that left both the Bulldogs and spectators goggle-eyed.

Starting on their own 45 yard line Hinesly started throwing pass after pass that connected with his receivers. With perfect protection from his blockers he completed five out of eight passes to Gilbreth, Colgin and Wicker to place the ball on McGregor's two yard line. Deserting the aerial game, the Hornets were unable to put the ball across and the Bulldogs downs on their own two yard marker. Tubbs punted out to his own 36 stripe and McGregor fans breathed easier, but not for long. Play by play the account reads, "Hinesly to Gilbreth good for first down on 25; Hinesly to Colgin to 20; Hinesly to Wicker on 5, beautiful catch by Wicker; Hinesly to Colgin for touchdown." The game ended with the Hornets on the Bulldog nine yard marker and headed for another score.

Gatesville has completed a perfect season, by "perfect season" we mean the defeat of McGregor. No matter what the former games were, all is forgiven and their sins washed away. The best part of it is that they actually deserved the victory over the Bulldogs. They played the best brand of football they have exhibited all year, and should be properly lauded.

The game was a good clean battle with every Hornet man playing his heart out. To Wicker and Gilbreth goes credit for some of the best pass receiving ever witnessed in a Hornet team (and coming from an ex-Hornet this is said sincerely). Williams and the Davis brothers, Adams and Satterfield did splendid defensive work and fine blocking, resulting in the success of the winning aerial attack. Colgin, Baker and White played their best game of the season and Hinesly came thru in a pinch to pass the Hornets to their 12 to 7 victory. Such a game leaves a good taste in the spectator's mouth and everyone will be looking forward to next September.

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC

In these accounts of the 1936 Hornet football season, I have presented my own personal opinions, and have cared little for the Adverse criticism they have caused. I have doubted neither the boys' courage or characters but rather their energy and aptitude. If I have made any enemies I can not truthfully say I am sorry, because I am not. Those who have taken offense have misinterpreted my journalistic attempts, because I have presented the facts as I saw them and not disguised with any sugar-coated partisanship. As a graduate of Gatesville High School and a regular end for the team of '32 no one would have liked to have seen the team win more than I. For the games they have lost, I am regretful; for the games they have won I am glad.
