C. of C. Sponsors Colt Show in Athletic Field Mon.

It's "Stop, Stop, Stop, You're—" Well, Stop For All School Busses

In the archives, or the many legal tomes, comes this news from the offices of Sheriff Joe White and C. E. Alvis Jr., County Attorney, in a letter addressed to the News:

Oct. 26, 1937.

Coryell County News,
Gatesville, Texas.

Dear Sirs:

A necessary fiction in our law is that every citizen is "presumed to know the law," and ignorance with respect to the provisions of a law will not excuse its violation.

This rule seems harsh considering the fact that there are thousands of volumes of effective law, many of which not even competent members of the legal profession are familiar with. However, as a practical matter this is the only theory upon which legal liability can be successfully based.

It therefore devolves upon each individual to inform himself as to the rules of law governing his own conduct in order that he may avoid the penalties of violation.

For the purpose of informing citizens of the provisions of a little known and poorly observed law; one which we feel is vital to the safety of the school children of our county who are of tender years, we solicit your co-operation in the publication of the following law.

Article 301 of our penal code provides that "school busses" shall display signs on the front, rear, and each side, reading "School Bus", the letters are not to be less than six inches in height. The law further provides that, "When any such "School Bus" vehicle stops, every operator of a motor vehicle or motor cycle approaching the same from any direction shall bring such motor vehicle or motorcycle to a full stop before proceeding in any direction; and in event such "School Bus" vehicle is receiving or discharging its passengers, the said operator of such motor vehicle or motorcycle shall not start up or attempt to pass in any direction until said "School Bus" vehicle has finished receiving and/or discharging its passengers." The penalty for a violation of this provision is a fine of not less than Ten ($10.00) Dollars nor more than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, or confinement in the county jail not to exceed ninety (90) days, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Thank you for your kind as-

Clovis King Gets Trip to Livestock Show in Chicago

Clovis King, a member of the 4-H Club of the county is Coryell County's "No. 2. Lucky Boy". He won a trip to Chicago in the Santa Fe Contest, his destination being the International Livestock Exhibition. Dates of the show are not known at this time.

Last year Fred Koch, had this honor and gave a resume of his trip on his return.

Clovis won the trip as announced from College Station on his pig demonstration. His show animal was a registered Duroc Sow which has farrowed two litters of pigs this year, and from which a very nice return has been realized.

Gatesville, or rather Coryell County boys are forging to the front in the livestock world, and it is going to mean much to the county in the future, due to the improvement of the stock, and the prices which will be received for produce.

Purmela, Topsey Win in H-D Club Contest Saturday

Purmela came out on top in the Coryell county H. D. Club Exhibits held last Saturday in the City Hall, with the Topsey club running them a close second. First Prize was $2.00, Second was $1.50.

The exhibits opened early Saturday with many visitors besides the members of the clubs which had exhibits. Exhibits were judged as to completeness attractiveness and quality.

Pideoke Club won third prize of $1.00 and had an outstanding exhibit.

Eight clubs were represented and besides the winners were Four Corners, Hood Springs and also the girls of the 4-H clubs had exhibits of their achievements.

Quilts made by individuals of the H. D. Club; canned fruits, vegetables, educational exhibits and accomplishments of Club Co-operators during the year.

Judging was done by Miss Sally Jones of Hamilton County, and Miss Euphie Bowman of Burnett County, in which counties they are H. D. agents.

Color Line Rubbed Out in Amateur Night Nov. 12th

Be you light, medium, dark or double-dark, if you can strut your stuff, do the "Big Apple", or some other Harlem favorite, there's no ban on you, that's the word from the "powers that be" who are directing the multitudinous entries clamoring for a place on the Gatesville Hornet Club Amateur Night to be staged in the city auditorium, Friday night November 12.

By "grapevine" we get it that there is a Negro act in the offing, and a Mexican Orchestra angling for position on the program, which will lend color and spice to the program.

Other acts are coming in and the warning is now, that them as want to, better hurry, and get the name of their act or solo in and then get busy practicing, cause theres going to be plenty of good acts, and a big show is in store for the "customers" who are going to turn out by gobs and gobs for this one big night, following Armistice Day.

If you think you've an act that can take that "quarter century note" that's the first money, get your entry blank, fill it out and do some strenuous rehearsing.

Competition will be keen, prizes nice, and fun a plenty!

BIGHAM SCHOOL IS ON CONTRACT FOR '37-38 WITH LOCAL SCHOOL

Beginning today, Bigham School Students will be students of the local schools, according to announcement received from Supt. Ercell W. Brooks, as the result of contracting for the year with the local school. Two teachers and approximately 35 students will be added to the growing local total. The grades include the first 7.

Mrs. John Milner Principal of Bigham school will be teacher of English and Math in the Junior and Senior high schools. She is a College graduate with a number of years experience.

Miss Iris Sales, also a College graduate, and an experienced teacher. She will teach one of the fourth grade rooms, and this will make two fourth grade "home rooms".

Miss Helen Odum, former fourth grade teacher will confine her time to the teaching of music in which she specializes.

Transportation will be furnished by the Gatesville school buses.

MEMBERS OF KANSAS FOOTBALL ELEVEN IN NEWS WINDOW

If you have been wondering how Blanton, The Wiggins Boys Baker and Wilson look in College uniform, then you need no longer wonder, because their pictures may now be seen in the Window of the news office. On receiving this picture we were informed that Blanton will play no more this season due to a foot injury. Sonny Hair will replace him at the quarter-back position.

istance in this matter.

Yours truly,

Joe White, Sheriff

DIST. STATE SUPERVISOR E. M. TATE TO BE BACK WED.

Deputy State Superintendent E. M. Tate will complete his work this week in the county, but will return to the county Wednesday of next week for miscellaneous visits, according to Thursday reports from County Superintendent J. M. Witcher's office.

Due to the good weather of the past week, Mr. Tate has been able to make a better schedule of visits that was planned and will finish up earlier than was expected. He is now running ahead of schedule and the schools yet to be visited may expect him any time.

FUTURE FARMERS

The future farmers held an election for Chapter Sweetheart last Thursday, October 21, 1937. The candidates were: Anita Lowrey, Mildred Moore, Dorothy Nell Baker and Nancy Martin. The run off election will be held at the next meeting between Mildred and Anita.

President Raby Alford, Vice-President, Truman McCorkle Reporter Craig Davidson, Sec. Johnnie Schiebman and Treas. Byron Glibreath, attended the Waco District Future Farmers Officers Training School at Waco High School Sat. 10 a. m. Oct. 23, 1937 for the purpose of learning how to serve their offices successfully.

The Waco District Future Farmers Association is composed of the following schools: Gatesville; Oglesby; McGreer; Moody; Marlin; Mart; Coolidge; Whitney; West; Hillboro; Itasca; Clifton; Axtel; Crawford; Bynum and Riesel.

Raby Alford of Gatesville is President of the Waco District.

SANTA CLAUS AND HIS ENTOURAGE HERE ON DECEMBER 4

Plans are being formulated for Old St. Nick, who is billed to arrive here, we don't know yet but he'll be here on December 4, according to arrangements just put underway with his business manager, the Gatesville Chamber of Commerce.

Included in the festivities, will be floats, free souvenirs, candy and—who knows what else, since the preliminary plans are just being made.

Information we have, is to the effect that any merchants or businesses may enter if they make donations toward welcoming Mr. Santa here.

All schools of the county are urged to represent their districts with some sort of suitable representation.

Tuesday of this week, the committees formulating final plans met, and were the Civic Improvement Committee, Byron Leaird, Jr., Dr. Dean B. Jones and W. T. Hix, and the Good-Will Committee, composed of George B. Painter, Wm. Wiegand and C. H. Wallace.

Howard Franks, a member of the Membership Committee stated yesterday that a drive will be made shortly for more members for the Chamber of Commerce, and it is probable that that donations from the merchants will be counteracted if the drive is a success.

The latest report on Mr. Arthur McMordie, who was suddenly stricken with paralysis Wednesday, although still seriously ill has improved some since.

First Monday, Monday November 1, is also Colt Show Day in Gatesville and Coryell County, with the Show this year sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce who are offering substantial prizes for the best colts shown in the different classifications. The show will be at the Athletic Field, starting as soon as the animals are brought in Monday.

Included in this Colt Show will be animals shown by the boys of the Vocational Agriculture Classes of the local high school.

Co-operating also, will be W. E. Lasseter, Vocational Agricultural Instructor for the local high school, and County Agent Guy Powell. Judging will begin at 10:30 Monday morning, and the judges will be from A. & M.

Prizes to be offered are as follows:

1936 Mule Colts: (Prizes and amounts named in order). $4; $3; $2; $1 and $1.
1937 Mule Colts: $4; $3; $2; $1 and $1.

1936 Light Weight Horse Colts (Only 4 prizes) $2.50; $2; $1 and $1.

1936 Heavy Weight Horse Colts (4 prizes) $2.50; $2; $1 and $1.

1937 Light Weight Horse Colts (4 prizes) $2.50; $2; $1 and $1.

1937 Heavy Weight Horse Colts (4 prizes) $2.50; $2; $1 and $1.

As indicated, Cash prizes will be offered only on colts foaled in 1936 and 1937. The committee in charge requests that every colt which is shown for premium be shown at halter.

Indications, based on interest shown, are that this will be the largest show held to date. Many farmers have been grooming their colts for many weeks for this show.

Outstanding among the colts shown will be the twin mule colts shown by Rufus Brown.

THREE INJURED IN ROAD ACCIDENT NEAR OGLESBY

While riding in a gravel truck seven miles west of Oglesby on old hwy. 7, Clem Perkins, Joel Evetts and Carl Sims were injured when the steering gear of the truck locked and the truck ran off the road and turned over several times.

Carl Sims was rushed to a Waco hospital, the two other men receiving only minor injuries, returned to their homes. The truck was completely wrecked.

Major O. J. Keatinge, head of the foreign division of governmental participation for the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition, commanded the international police force of 15,000 during the plebiscite in Upper Silesia a post war days.

SHIP OF STATE

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29. What the coming Special session of Congress is expected to do is no mystery. Farm legislation, a new name for the AAA idea and wages and hours legislation. — A new name for the NRA idea are the outstanding considerations. Governmental reorganization, measures to check monopoly (a new name for antitrust laws) and region planing (federal bodies concerned with soil erosion, flood control and water power production) are secondary.

What Congress will actually do not even members can foretell.

Only a short time ago the legislators dusted off their hands and hitched up their pants and went home to what they obviously considered a well-earned rest for work well done. They are coming back after having had ample opportunity for getting instructions from the folks back home and for digesting the results of the November elections. Presumably in their support of or opposition to the administration measures they will be on certain ground.

Certainly 1937 will go down in history as a year when Congress put in an astonishing amount of time at the Capitol—if not at work. It may even foreshadow the time when legislators work fifty weeks in the year, just like the people who pay the bills.

The question of neutrality and entanglement in foreign wars is bound to crop up. However, seasoned observers are almost unanimous in declaring that any general European war is highly improbable. They maintain that Germany and Italy can accomplish all their objectives even to the restoration of certain German colonies if they keep up a bold front and make no overt attack.

England, it is pointed out, has never in modern times, engaged in a major war without first making sure of sufficient allies to bear the brunt of the fighting. Now, with Hindu India demanding independence; with her Moslem possessions aroused by her pro-Jew, anti-Arab policy in Palestine and with the Dominions no longer at her beck and call, Great Britain is reduced to that status of being "too proud to fight" which she found so contemptible in us twenty years ago.

The Supreme Court's refusal to review the securities and exchange commission's acts was a blow to Wall Street coming, as it did, on the heels of the widely publicized speech of Waldrop W. Aldrich, chairman of the Chase National Bank in which he blamed the stock market break on the S. E. C. However, at least one portion amused rather than dismayed official Washington. It was his statement that "...liquidation estates... might easily bring in less than enough cash to pay the taxes, not to speak of the fact that nothing whatever would be left for the heirs." Presumably Mr. Aldrich believes that all estates consist almost entirely of Wall Street stocks, whereas the average American dies with only two shares of stock in his possession and one of them is already worthless.

GENE HODGES HONORED ON SIXTY-EIGHTH BIRTHDAY

Sunday, October 24, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hodges gathered at their home and gave Mr. Hodges and a little grandson, Zachie Hall, a surprise birthday dinner. Mr. Hodges was 68, and Zackie was 3. October 23, a daughter, Mrs. Robert Hall, had come home on a visit, it being the first time she had been home in five years. family was gathering at his Mr. Hodges thought his large home in honor of their guest, Mrs. Hall. The surprise came when all the boxes of good things to eat were brought in and placed on the table; the dinner being served picnic-style.

In the afternoon the young folks played games while the older ones talked over old times.

List of those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hodges and son Clyde; Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hodges and children, Lula Frances, George R. Jr., and James Eugene; Mrs. L. A. Smith and sons, Claudie and Nelson; Mrs. Robert Hall and children, Mary Dell, and Zackie of Colorado Texas; Mrs. Walter Miller and Cavett; Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Polk and daughter, Shirley Deen; Misses Mary Pope, Geneva Whitt; Frances and Dub Hodges.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodges have 7 sons and four daughters, all four daughters were present, but only the oldest and youngest sons were present. All eleven of their children are living. At the conclusion of the enjoyable day all left wishing Mr. Hodges and little Zackie many more happy birthdays. —One Present

After the program the stage will be arranged as a store. It will be decorated with Halloween streamers, swings, black humped cats, bats and owls of black and orange crepe paper. Real pumpkin Jack-o-Lanterns will smile at you. Apples and popcorn balls will swing about over the stage by strings.

There will be popped corn (in sacks) peanuts, candy, and chewing gum for sale.

A comedian dressed in clownish costumes will entertain and serve you at the counter.

January Floods Reveal Strength of Red Cross

Aid Given 1,062,000 Persons Through Set-Up By Agency

The elasticity and scope of Red Cross disaster work is shown in a recent report on Red Cross relief measures during the unparalleled Ohio-Mississippi Valley flood of this year.

At the height of the emergency Red Cross relief offices were established in 182 inundated counties and in 146 counties where refugees were cared for, the report stated. Eight regional headquarters offices controlled the 328 county offices, and were in turn supervised by the National Red Cross in Washington, D. C.

A statistical summary of persons aided by the organization indicates that the floods constituted the greatest peace-time emergency ever faced by the nation. The Red Cross gave some form of assistance to 1,062,000 men, women and children. From January to August hundreds of trained workers helped by thousands of volunteers administered to the sufferers.

A Red Cross rescue fleet of 5400 boats was organized, according to the report. Emergency hospitals established totaled 300 and 3600 nurses were assigned to flood duty. In more than 1,000 refugee centers the victims of the flood were sheltered, clothed and fed. Through the Red Cross medical-health program and the work of public health agencies sickness was kept to normal for the time of year in all inundated areas.

Because of its disaster experience the Red Cross was directed by the President of the United States, who is also president of the Red Cross, to coordinate the effort of all federal flood relief groups. Government and Red Cross officials met daily at the Red Cross headquarters building in Washington to plan relief measures and prevent duplication of effort.

"We were fortunate in having 56 years of disaster relief experience to call upon in meeting the emergency," Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman of the Red Cross, said.

It was found that 97,000 families composed of 436,000 persons had to have their resources supplemented or an entirely new start provided by the Red Cross, the report stated. Red Cross emergency and rehabilitation assistance was as follows: rescue, transportation and shelter for 62,000 families; food, clothing and other maintenance for 193,000 families; building and repair for 27,000 families; household goods for 90,000 families; medical, nursing and sanitation help for 15,000 families; agricultural rehabilitation for 10,000 families; other occupational aid for 3,000 families and other types of relief for 4,000 families.

"Credit for this largest peace-time relief operation in the history of the nation must go to the American people who contributed a Red Cross relief fund of more than $25,000,000," Admiral Grayson said.

During the year the Red Cross gave aid to the victims of 105 other disasters in 36 states, Alaska and the District of Columbia. The Red Cross financed the majority of these relief operations from money contributed through memberships during the annual Roll Call last November, since it is only in case of large-scale disasters that a national drive for relief funds is made.

This year the Roll Call is from November 11th to the 25th. The Red Cross seeks a greater membership to meet its disaster relief and other service obligations during 1938.

Last year Red Cross Chapters gave vital help to 120,000 needy families.

After the sale you will eat lots if the women and young ladies will bring pies and boxes and if the men and boys will buy the supplies. Don't be afraid to spend your money for we will try to give you your money's worth of eats and fun and with the money we will buy the youngsters a basket ball, volley ball and a playground ball and bat.

Everybody is invited to come and take part!

IN OUR MAIL BOX

Mr. W. Mat Jones,
Gatesville, Texas.
Dear Mat:
Thought I would avail myself of this opportunity to acquaint you with a bit of good luck that has befallen me in the journalistic field. Last week I was pledged to Sigma Delta Chi, the national journalistic fraternity.
My journalism teacher, Lester Jorahn, (who married a former Gatesville girl, Miss Katherine
Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
George Clark) proposed me to the S. M. U. chapter and I was one of two sophomores pledged.
Only eight out of 108 Journalism students in school received bids.
The initiate body numbers about seven.

Membership in an organization of this nature will affme a splendid opportunity to come in contact with the "big shots" of the four Dallas newspapers, most of whom are Sigma Delta Chi members. They hold a weekly luncheon down town and any S. M. U. member may attend and listen to the addresses which should prove both interesting and enlightening.

Wednesday, Oct. 26, twenty-six journalism students ventured to Waxahachie and edited the Daily Light, the afternoon paper there. I was asked to go but was unable to do so on account of previous commitments.
However, they printed in the regular editorial column my World
Comment column, which appeared in the Aug. 31 issue of the Coryell County News, entitled "Neutrality, A Myth."

Any time you are in or about Dallas, Mat, drop in on me either at home or school. I would be more than happy to introduce you around the journalism department, who are interested both in Gatesville and in your paper.

And, as I have said before,
"keep up the good work!"
Yours sincerely,
BRACK CURRY.

P. S.—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week I shall be initiated into Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity, to which the editor of the
The Campus, the vice president of the student body, and the sports editor of The Campus belong. So you see I am a
"very" busy boy.

GATESVILLE, TEXAS, FRIDAY, OCT. 29 1937

NUMBER 88

YOUR CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE 20 Section One

The terms of the President and Vice-President shall end at noon on the twentieth day of January, and the terms of Senators and Representatives at noon on the third day of January, of the years in which such terms would have ended if this article had not been ratified; and the terms of their successors shall then begin.

Section Two

The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall begin at noon on the third day of January, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

Section Three

If at the time fixed for the beginning of the term of the President, the President shall have died - the Vice-President shall become President. If a President shall not have chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the President-elect failed to qualify, then the Vice-President-elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified; and the Congress may by law provided for the case wherein neither a President-elect nor a Vice-President-elect shall have qualified, declaring who shall then act as President, or the manner in which one who is to act shall be selected, and such person shall act accordingly until a President or a Vice-President shall have qualified.

Section Four

The Congress may by law provide for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the House of Representatives may choose a President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them, and for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the Senate may choose a Vice-President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them.

Section Five

Sections 1 and 2 shall take effect on the fifteenth day of October following the ratification of this article.

Section Six

This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission. (Proposed by Congress on March 2, 1932, declared ratified on February 6, 1933.)

ARTICLE 21 Section One

The eighteenth article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States is hereby repealed.

Section Two

The transportation or importation into any state, territory, or possession of the United States for delivery or use therein of intoxicating liquors, in violation of the laws there of, is hereby prohibited.

Section Three

This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by conventions in the several states, as provided in the Constitution, within seven years from the date of submission therefore to the states by the Congress. (Proposed by Congress on February 20, 1933; declared ratified on December 5, 1933.)

HALLOWEEN

Hallowe'en Night, this comes Sunday night, much to the sorrow of the fun loving kids of the section, and about nine-tenths of the older kids.

However, the Hallowe'en spirit has been prevailing all the week since spooks ghosts and goblins galore have been plentiful along the highways and byways during the week.

It is conservatively expected that there will be any number of these cavorting monstrosities out Sunday night, and especially, a lot of practical jokers who will handle your loose items in their own way.

Our simple suggestion is this, whatever you've got, regardless of the fact that this dark mysterious day comes on Sunday, you'd better put it where the spooks can't get it.

Broadway LIMITED

W. A. S.

New York, N. Y. Saturday night in the nightclubs varies with the seasons. Wintertime - college fraternities, wahoo social clubs, deb on the louse from Park Avenue parties, the six stringers from Gussert and Gore making whops without benefit of boy friends. Attendance: swell. Receipts: $100. Springtime young lads holding hands under the table, middle age love, all kinds of five. Attendance: fair. Receipts low. Because they're too sappy to eat or drink. Summertime, tourists, left at home, husbands, buyers and butter and egg men with lonely local ladies. Attendance: good. Receipts: fair, but sometimes there has to be a kick. At the H'l ladies for bringing in the suckers. Fall; after the football game crowds. Attendance tops. Receipts: swell. Damage, terrific. because all the grandstand quarterbacks want to demonstrate just how Oblotky should have tackled Blivitch on the five yard line. Floor show craze of the moment, voodoo dancers. Let your name painted on the back of a tiny turtle and parcel posting it to your friends; this column's pet shudder. The tabloids present practice of putting photos of corpses on the front page. And pet peeve. So called socialites running wild for instance the one who tried to commander a taxi and throw out the passenger only the passenger happened to be a plain clothes cop and the socialite landed in the hospital and in jail. And the big name who bopped a waiter with a bottle and landed before a judge, very very indignant, silly simultaneous the stock market hitting new lows and theatre tickets hitting new highs. Story of the week, home town boy that came to New York and made good, so good that his name was known all over the country, even in the home town, but the H. T. was not impressed, for forty year the H. T. boy tried to make a deal he gave an organ to the church, a library to the high school, a bell to the firehouse, no cent. So at last he bought a big tract of land, and made it a memorial park with a statue of himself on a pedestal in the center. This time he seemed to have dented, he was invited to dedicate the park. With bands and fireworks and the mayo declared a civic holiday and went to the railroad station with the city council, and the police, and firemen and fellow citizens and small boys and the H. T. boy climbed down from his private car with his family and friends and others and the band played "Hail The Conquering Hero Comes!" and painted on the base drum was the legend "Welcome State Insane Asylum."

CORRECTION

Our informer was misinformed as to an accident which included little Helen Gooch, according to advices we received later.

Mr. Cantrell was not the driver of the bus we understand, and also, we now understand, that the bus had not yet arrived at the scene of the accident.

We are sorry we made this unintentional "bust".

A freight train 200 miles long would be required to transport material required in building of sun spots, these are favorite exhibits of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

WORLD COMMENT

Joe Burns

The Stock Market Debacle

For the first time since the inauguration of President Roosevelt early in 1933, there is genuine fear of another depression gripping the American people as a result of the twenty-seven billion dollar loss in the stock market last week.

The nation's economists and financial experts are baffled by the declines which represent a loss of seventy-two points since the middle of August, when the high was at 118.

Certain salient facts appear as at least a partial explanation of the crash which has shaken the nation's financial structure to a far greater extent than the layman realizes.

Since the war control of the economic system in most of the leading states has been in the hands of soldiers, diplomats, demagogues, politicians, none of whom was capable of dealing with the intricacies of economics and finance.

Not only in the dictatorships of the European continent, but also in the democracies of Britain, France, and the United States the economic process has been closely regulated, supervised and controlled by the government. The result in large measure, has been a dislocation of the economic system involved to the extent that five systems, those of France, Italy, Germany, Russia and, in Asia, Japan, are in a state of virtual collapse today.

In the United States, as well as in the European states, natural recovery which rescued the capitalistic system from innumerable small and great depressions during the nineteenth century, is restrained and in some cases prevented by an attempt on the part of government authorities to administer recovery.

Real recovery since 1935 has been prevented by these factors. We've been suffering under the illusion that the temporary prosperity engendered by the orgy of government spending of the period 1933-37 was genuine prosperity which was here to stay. This artificial prosperity has now collapsed with the cessation of government spending and from the continual tampering with the economic process by the government.

What caused the 1939 collapse in the price of stocks which supposedly brought on the euphemistically termed 'depression'?

Ask an economist and he'll enumerate a dozen factors as being responsible. He will hedge when you ask for an explanation of these factors, and one can not but reach the conclusion that no one knows definitely what did cause the panic of 1929. If one dominating factor were responsible for the crash, it would follow that this evil could be corrected and that danger of another depression would be removed forever.

The economist and the layman will give you the same answers as to what caused the 1929 debacle. The Republicans, the bankers, the loans to bankrupt Latin American republics, the holding companies, the failure of the European governments to pay their war debts, collapse of the Kreuger match empire and the material required in building of sun spots, these are favorite exhibits of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

FREE TYPING FOR ALL
MAY BE HAD SOON
AT G. H. S.

Those people of Gatesville who would like to know how to type but have not had the opportunity to learn how will now have that opportunity.

Beginning Monday, November 1, there will be a typing class at the High School from 5 to 9 o'clock in the afternoon. There will be no charge for the course; a small fee for the use of the typewriter will be the only expense to those in the class. If they use their own typewriter even this small charge will not be made.

Any person not in school this year may take the course, regardless of his or her age. There are no requirements of any kind either educational or other wise. Those interested in taking the typing course are asked to meet Lonnie Briggs at the high school between 5 and 6 o'clock Monday afternoon, Nov. 1. If anyone is interested but cannot be there at that time, he should call someone at the high school building and give his name. Mr. Briggs, the high school instructor will teach the class.

FLAT COUPLE ENTERTAIN WITH GAME SUPPER

A number of friends enjoyed a game supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clawson on Friday evening. The squirrels and birds were secured by G. F. Russ and Carl Clawson and were prepared for the table abundantly spread with bread, relishes, cake, salads and coffee.

Those enjoying the hospitality of the Clawsons and the sumptuous feast were Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGee, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Humphries, Mr. and Mrs. Doc Brazzil, Mrs. Emmett Barnard, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kanuth and family of Bastrop, Misses Aileen Yett, Violet Blester, Minnie Ray McGee, Messrs. Doc Barnard, G. M. Russo, Morris Bell, and Miss Agnes Marie Anderson of Liberty Hill, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clawson and Polly Ann Clawson.

FLAT P. T.-A. CARNIVAL

About $30 was realized as income on last Friday night when the patrons, teachers, and pupils of Flat presented a carnival. The fun program included pie eating contests, cake walks and auctions. Mrs. Brumalow presented a one act play, "The Telegram." The characters were Glee Clawson, Charles Odom, Rebel Edwards, Grace Clawson, and Kelly Donaldson.

In the popularity contest Miss Viola Hoppson received the most votes.

The Flat girls team defeated the outsiders basketball team by a score of 7 to 8. The Flat boys played the CCC boys in a spirited game on the well lighted court.

A large number of patrons from The Grove attended as well as visitors from other districts.

YOU CAN THROW CARDS IN HIS FACE ONCE TOO OFTEN

WHEN you have those awful cramps; when your nerves are all on edge—don't take it out on the man you love.

Your husband can't possibly know how you feel for the simple reason that he is a man.

A three-quarter wife may be no wife at all if she nags her husband seven days out of every month.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and Go "Smiling Through."

PRESENTS
DEAD END

The play that thrilled the nation becomes an even greater film, starring SYLVIA SIDNEY and JOEL McCREA, with Humphrey Bogart. ... Released through United Artists ...

Fictionized by VIRGINIA WARREN HASTINGS

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE:
Dave recognizes one of the two strangers who come to Dead End. He is "Baby Face" Martin, notorious gangster and killer. His face transformed by plastic surgery, he has returned after many years to see his mother and his childhood sweetheart, Francey. Meanwhile Tommy and his gang of young hoodlums, Angel, Spit, T. E., Dippy and Milt, plan a gang fight with the Second Avenue boys. They also meet Philip Griswald, son of a wealthy tenant of the East River Apartments, and decide to muss him up. Dave discovers Martin teaching Tommy the fine points of knife-throwing and warns him to get out of Dead End.

Chapter Three

In his heart Dave Connell knew that his love for Kay — if love it was — was hopeless. Kay was accustomed to soft living, to the pent-houses and yachts the other man provided for her, and he had nothing to offer but poverty and hardship. True, after a long stretch of unemployment, he had landed a job in an architect's office at $20 a week, but what was twenty a week to a girl like that? And then there was his mother. He wondered if Kay's love could withstand the test, and his doubts were soon confirmed when he saw Kay go into the tenement in which he lived, evidently in search of him. She had walked up two flights, seen the garbage-strewn halls, the damp and crackling walls, the ugliness and filth, to come running down again with horror written on her face. She hadn't seen Dave, luckily. But in that moment, as he watched her from the darkness of the hallway, he knew, unmistakably and wretchedly, that their love didn't stand a chance.

The six boys were playing, as usual, on the wharf that afternoon. Milt, the new kid, anxious to ingratiate himself with Tommy, had presented him with a pocketknife which he bought from Angel for eleven cents. Suddenly Milt spied Philip Griswald, for whom the gang had been lying in wait. T. E. whistled a signal. With a great show of nonchalance the other boys dispersed in different directions.

"Gee, that's a swell watch," T. E. said to Philip. "What time you got?" Philip expanded visibly. "A minute and a quarter past half past four."

"Huh," T. E. searched for something to match the boast. He coughed and tapped his chest. "T. E.," he explained proudly, "I got T. E."

From up the street Tommy yelled at them. "Hey, fellows, come on. I got something great to show you. Come on, T. E."

"You want to come?" T. E. inquired of Philip.

"No," called Tommy. "He can't come. This is only for the gang." Philip looked wistful and after a great deal of persuasion Tommy magnanimously gave his permission for him to see "something great." The ruse worked perfectly. Philip followed T. E. into the narrow alley of the warehouse.

Meanwhile 'Baby Face' Martin and Hunk had been standing on the waterfront idly smoking cigarettes. Martin saw an old woman coming down the street. He recognized her at once and ran after her into the hallway of one of the tenements. He stopped her on the stairs, breathless and boyishly eager.

"Mom, Mom." She regarded him stonily, with no sign of recognition. "How are you, Mom? Mom, it's me. It's me. I only had my face fixed."

Her faded, tired eyes stared at him dully. "You no good tramp."

"Mom — Mom — ain't you glad to see me?"

For answer, the old woman raised her hand and slapped him sharply across the face. "That's how glad I am," she said.

Martin recoiled, rubbing his cheek. "That's a great hello."

"You dog. You rotten yellow dog, you." There was deep hatred in her voice. "Don't call me Mom. You ain't no son of mine. What do you want from me now?" Martin shook his head, staring at her unbelievably. "Then get out of here. Before I kill you. Get out of here." "I killed a guy for looking at me the way you are now," he flared. "Yeah," she answered in the same lifeless monotone. "You're a killer all right. You're a murderer and a butcher. Sure. Why don't you leave me forget you? Ain't I got troubles enough with the cops and the newspapers bothering me? Leave us alone, you hear? And die. But leave us alone."

"Do you need any money?" "Keep your blood money. You'll be needing it. They'll get you soon enough."

"Me? Huh. They won't get me. Not 'Baby Face' Martin."

Mrs. Martin repeated dully, "Baby Face." Her voice rose hysterically, "I ought to be killed for giving you life. Murderer! Murderer!"

She turned, and weeping softly, went up the stairs. Martin stood looking after her for a moment, then walked out of the house, past Hunk, who had been watching, across the street to Pascagali's.

Outside Philip Griswald came running down the street towards the East River Apartments, sobbing as though his heart would break. He was covered with dirt and as he ran his clothes were torn almost to tatters. The six hoodlums swaggered from the warehouse boisterously. Tommy held up a gold watch.

"Maybe we better beat it," he suggested nervously.

"Not me," said Spit. "I want a swim. What's matter with ya? Scared?" He spat.

With a defiant gesture, Tommy tore off his shirt. "Last one in's a stinking rotten egg," he yelled, and splashed into the river first.

Drina watched him from where she sat in the shadow of the sand-hepper. Soon Dave joined her. He seemed dejected and more remote than usual.

"Hello, Drina. You're home early. Any news?"

Her greenish eyes smiled at him. "Uh huh. Maybe good news. Today the boss said our committee should come in and talk things over and maybe — but just maybe —" She sighed. "Oh, that raise would mean so much! I could get Tommy away from here."

"Far enough away?" asked Dave absently. Then, feeling he must reassure her, "You'll be all right. Drina. You'll always be all right."

Drina said bitterly, "I'll be all right. Sure. Drina will always be all right. Drina's good to her brother. Drina works and cooks and cleans and goes to bed to have enough sleep to work the next day." Her voice rose sharply. "I've heard that since I was ten years old. I'm tired of hearing it. Don't say it again."

Dave was startled by her passionate outburst. He felt ashamed. "Yes," he said quietly. "I know, Drina. You want something for yourself now."

"That's right. Maybe I'll go away." Seeing his surprise and anxiety, she continued, "Uh huh. You see, I know a man, and he's very rich and he likes me. I met him in the subway. It was hot in the train and when I got out I felt dizzy and he got me a glass of water and we started talking and he looked so clean and nice. Well, it wasn't right, but I didn't care, so he took me to dinner. The kind of dinner you can have anything you like." She paused, staring dreamily into space. "He's very rich. He's got a house in New York and a wonderful house in the country. And — and — he likes me."

Her voice trailed off. Dave said, "Do you like him?"

"I don't know. I made it all up. Not now. Years ago. When I was a kid." She turned away to hide the tears that were in her eyes.

"I wish," said Dave, and he leaned over and touched her arm, "I wish I could buy you those things, Drina. I even wish I could find him for you."

"Do you?" said Drina.

She longed to say, "I don't want those things, really. It's you I want, Dave. I love you — I always have." But she could not say it.

2 CARS, NEW TRUCK
IN 1938 FORD LINE

New York, Oct. 27—A advance showing of 1938 Ford V-8 cars and trucks opened this afternoon at the Ford Metropolitan show rooms at 1710 Broadway.

Two distinct Ford V-8 cars differing in appearance, appointments and price were presented. One was the de luxe Ford V-8, the other the standard Ford V-8.

The standard car is designed for owners to whom economy in first cost and operating cost is paramount. The de luxe car provides added luxury and style for those who desire them.

Both cars have the same V-8 chassis. The eight de luxe types are available only with the 85 horsepower V-8 engine, the three standard types with either the 85 horsepower or the 60 horsepower engine.

The de luxe car is a stylish sister of the standard, it is entirely new in appearance. The radiator grille is of new design, appearance of the hood is longer and more sweeping. Fenders are massive interior appointments are in keeping with the styling of the exterior. Substantially more room in the closed sedans a greater passenger comfort and much larger luggage space are provided for.

The standard V-8 cars reveal new styling, with a different radiator design, long hood and flowing contours. The spacious interiors are roomy and attractively upholstered and appointed.

In addition to the two passenger cars, Ford is to present an expanded line of V-8 trucks and commercial cars. Both are newly styled to lend "eye appeal" in commercial transportation.

A new group of "one-tonner" trucks also is offered, in addition to the 112-inch and 157 inch wheelbase trucks.

The new "one-tonner" is designed specifically to bridge the gap between the commercial cars and truck groups. Available with either 85 horse or 65 horsepower it is expected to make the economies of the latter engine more widely available in commercial transportation. Other advances for the 1938 year are the new 134-inch wheelbase truck, replacing the 13 and one-half wheelbase in the big truck line, a new frame width for the 134-inch and 157-inch wheelbase units, improved brakes and easier steering and stronger construction throughout.

MARINES OFFER VARIOUS COURSES FOR THOSE WHO ENLIST

Courses offered by the U. S. Marines to several hundred men who will be accepted for service during the next few months include: Automotive engineering, drafting, electricity, diesel engine, steamfitting, radio and many others, in addition to the regular duties of the Corps.

Major Peter Conarhy, is in charge of the recruiting station in Dallas, and receives applications there.

Illumination of the 1939 World Fair in San Francisco will cost about $1,000,000.

World Comment—

Analysis of the recent break in the stock market values reveals that none of the conditions prevailing in 1929 was present and therefore can not be held accountable.

Brokers' loans and bank security loans were only a small fraction of what they were in 1929. Plenty of credit was available, and there were no large loans abroad. Corporate financing has been only 10 or 15 per cent of what it was in 1929. Yet for the first time in our entire history securities have suffered an uninterrupted decline for two months, with a fall of 67 per cent in 100 major stocks.

Then what factors were accountable?

In the first instance, none of the elements which in 1929 were able temporarily to stave off the collapse of a fundamentally unsound financial structure could act in the present emergency.

Rockefeller, Morgan, and the other so-called economic royalists formed pools in 1929 to support the market. Their actions served as temporary palliatives. They could not act this time because of the capital gains and the un-

YOUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL
BY Dr. ALLEN G. IRELAND
"Big Ears"

I am often puzzled by the rashness of parents in speaking before children. What makes it worse is then to say "Now don't repeat that." Such is the way we get our first lessons in gossip and deceit. The same parents admit jokingly that a child's ears miss nothing. Of course they don't, if they're normal; nor do his eyes miss anything. Childhood is the developmental age; it is the time when learning is quick and easy and the tools of learning are alert and sharp.

Now children tend to have faith in their parents. They believe Dad and Mumsy are pretty fine and right. Would that we were! But why are we so clumsy about living up to the child's ideal? Perhaps we would do better if we trained ourselves to stop frequently to think "what effect will this word or act have on my child?"

Be one-faced before the child. Let him hear within the family circle the same nice things he heard you say to a neighbor. When you don't, the word is hypocrisy. The child doesn't understand it, but he soon catches on to the act and then begins to practice it himself. Think of lying, deception, slang, and veiled meanings in the same way. Hearing is a tool of learning, and children's ears are very, very large.

Next week Dr. Ireland tells how parents can insure good bodily resistance for their children during the coming months.

distributed profits tax.

The market can not at present support itself because of the restrictions imposed upon it by the Securities and Exchange Commission (Sec). The banks can not support the market with the burden of government bonds they are forced to carry.

As further accountable factors these must be included:

1. Overproduction both in industry and in agriculture.
2. International political uncertainty.
3. Almost complete cessation of building, which in Britain has supplied the stimulus of the new recovery.
4. Deflationist policy of the Federal Reserve Board, whereby Federal Reserve requirements were increased three times, and a billion and a quarter of Government bonds were placed on the open market.
5. Failure of industry to raise new capital by bonds, due to the steady influx of Government bonds upon the market.
6. Halting of the development of new industries and restricting of the expansion of old industries by the capital gains tax and the undistributed profits tax.

7. Natural recession of stock prices because of a rise in values at a faster rate during the bull market of the Coolidge administration.

8. Increased prices in the basis industries and of basis commodities resulting from the strikes and increased costs of labor.

JONESBORO BAPTIST W. M. S.

Thirty Seven women registered at the Jonesboro W. M. S. at the home of Mrs. Sallie Farquhar Tuesday afternoon.

A splendid program was presented with the program chairman, Mrs. Mable Jones in charge. Reports of Baptist Mission work in China were given by Mrs. Hattie Berrey and Mrs. Mable Jones; followed by a prayer by Mrs. J. O. Brown. Special music was rendered by Mrs. Jim Painter and Mrs. Winnie Morgan.

The President then introduced Mrs. J. O. Brown and Mrs. D. R. Boone of Gatesville who brought very inspiring messages. We wish to thank these women for these words of endearment as they proved an inspiration to all present.

We make special mention of our enlistment chairman, Mrs. Hattie Berrey who called thirty-four men and invited them to our meeting. Hats off to Mrs. Berrey; she is working at the job of enlisting the unlisted. If you are a member of any church it is your duty to find your place, and help those less fortunate than you find their place in His Work.

Come to our next meeting Nov. 2. Time two o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. H. Hanes and help an unlisted neighbor with you. Do not come alone.

SOCIETY

Baptist Training Union
 Have Wiener Roast

A large group of boys and girls gathered at the Baptist Church about 7:00 for a delightful wiener roast which was held at the City Park on Monday night.

Following the roast the food was spread on the long table and enjoyed by the crowd.

Those present were Misses Margaret Rutherford, Elaine and Pauline Smith, Myrtle Henry, Margaret Ewetts, Inez Rogers, Fern Cooper, Milda Schley, Clara Bakke, and Nettie McClure. Messrs. Carl Drake, M. E. Singleton, Robert Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Singleton.

Future Farmers Complimented With Merry Barn Party

Tuesday evening the Gatesville School gym was the scene of much merriment when the Future Homemakers entertained the Future Farmers with a barn party.

After all the guests, dressed in costumes of all kinds, had assembled in the gym, several exciting games were played and with the Future Farmer Orchestra playing, the boys and girls danced the once popular "Virginia Reel." Not only this, a mock wedding was also enacted by the Homemakers which proved to be very clever and entertaining.

The gym decorated in the Hallo'een motif, and large balloons hung from black and orange streamers extending from the rafters.

During the evening punch, candy and apples were served to the Future Farmers and members of the Home Economics class.

Morris Federation to Meet Saturday

Mrs. M. W. Lowrey will be hostess to the monthly meeting of Morris Federation club which meets Saturday afternoon at three o'clock.

Following the call to order, roll call, reading and approving the minutes, reports and attending to unfinished and new business, then the following program will be had:

"Simon Bolivar, the National Hero," Mrs. W. C. Bradley.
 "Christ of the Andes," poem, story and picture, Mrs. Crawford Scott.

"O Aleijadinho, the Little Cripple Minas Geraes, Mrs. J. P. Kendrick.

"Folk Songs and Stories of the Americas," Miss Edna Murray.

Selected music by Miss Mamie Sue Halbrook.

Mrs. Mary Sellers Marries in San Antonio

Word was received last week of the marriage of Mrs. Mary Sellers and Otto Rayburn of Corpus Christ, in San Antonio Friday evening.

Mrs. Rayburn has been employed in this city for several years and was co-manager of the Gatesville Beauty Shoppe. For the past several months, Mrs. Rayburn, her little son and her mother have had an apartment at the Hollingsworth room-in house.

Mr. and Mrs. Rayburn will make their home in Corpus Christi, where he is employed with the Humble Oil Company.

Mrs. Geo. Painter
 Entertains Club

As a courtesy to the Contract Club, Mrs. George Painter, using the popular Hallo'een motif, entertained with four tables of contract at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Games terminated with high scores falling to Mrs. Laura Rayford and second to Mrs. Robert W. Brown.

Those enjoying the hospitality were Mesdames Roger Miller, Robert W. Brown, B. K. Cooper, Francis Caruth, Tom Mears, Harry Flentgs, D. D. McCoy, Bob Saunders, Stewart Williams, Clay Stinnett, Laura Rayfor, and H. K. Henry.

Mrs. Carolyn Harwood Marries San Antonio Man

The following announcement is reprinted from the Dallas Morning News, issue first of this week:

Mrs. Carolyn Harwood, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schley of Gatesville, was married to C. B. McCollum, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McCollum of Waco, Monday, October 25.

The marriage took place in the study of the Central Christian Church in San Antonio.

The couple will make their home in San Antonio.

Sunday School Class Have Hallo'een Party

About twenty-five members of the Baptist Young Matron's Class met at the Baptist church Tuesday evening, dressed in Hallo'een costumes, for a well-planned and entertaining Hallo'een party.

The social hour was delightful in the reception room in which clever hallo'een decorations and ideas were used. The outstanding feature of the evening was the grand march thru the Chamber of Horrors.

At the conclusion of the party apple cider and doughnuts were served the guests.

Regular Meeting of Study Club Held

Monday afternoon members of the Study Club met, and had their worthwhile program at the home of Mrs. Clyde Bailey.

Part of the hour was devoted to correct speech with Mrs. Roger Miller giving the leader's talk, "Overcoming Monotony", followed by "Confusing Words", Mrs. Lee Colwick.

Mrs. C. H. Wallace presented an interesting talk on "Books" the Mirrors of Our Time. Mrs. Eugene Alvis reviewed for the club and Old English Story "And So Victoria."

Miss Faye Jones Celebrates Halloween

At her home near Gatesville Miss Faye Jones entertained many of her friends with a Halloween party Wednesday evening.

After the guest had entered the room, all masked some in costumes, their fortunes were told.

Following several interesting contests prizes being awarded to the winners, the guest were shown to the dining room by the hostess. The large table was laid with a Halloween cloth, centered with a huge bowl of pop corn balls wrapped in blue cellophane.

Hot chocolate and nut cookies were served to the twenty-five guest, favors being miniature horns.

Wednesday Club Entertained
 By Miss Grace Richards

Bridge tables were arranged in the party room adorned with autumn flowers at the home of Miss Grace Richards.

Following the games in which Mrs. Billy Nesbitt received high scores and Mrs. Peyton Morgan second, high a delectable dessert was served to the guest.

Seated at the tables were: Mesdames Dean Jones, Jim Brown, Johnnie Bradford, Charles Powell, Billy Thomson, Johnnie Washburn, Billy Nesbitt and Peyton Joyce Baker and Luth Dale Morgan, Meses D. H. Farmer, Franks.

A freight train 200 miles long would be required to transport material required in building of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

Four thousand trees 70,000 shrubs and 700,000 flowering plants will be planted on Treasure Island in San Francisco Bay for the 1939 World's Fair.

Extra markets for milk products

The nation's use of milk in fluid form is increasing steadily, but it falls far short of the approximately 100 billion pounds of milk produced yearly by America's 25,000,000 milk cows.

Research and salesmanship have found and made other markets for 60 billion pounds of milk that consumers don't drink every year.

Since 1857 Borden, through research and selling, has played a leading part in developing extra markets for both milk and manufactured milk products.

It is these extra markets that have helped dairying become the nation's biggest source of farm cash.

GATESVILLE, TEXAS

Hornets vs. Trojans Here Tonite Under Lites at 8

Tonite the Gatesville Hornets are ready for the West Trojans after their loss last week to the Mart team, fine spirit has been manifested and they are ready. Some changes will be made in the lineup. Voss is still suffering from a bad ankle but may play. Davis will not see service due to a shoulder injury at Mart. Adams is still ailing but should see some service tonite.

Coach Worley has run the boys thru some tough scrimmage this week and has been successful in holding down other casualties. Penryman from Harmon, making his debut in football this year is showing the Mentor how to do some plain and fancy sack-leing. Fore is also doing some fancy ball carrying in scrimmage this week.

Come out tonite folks and see some great improvements over last week. You may get to see Taylor (Coaches' old, faithful) go into action, and can he hold that line. Go, Hornets, Go! We're all behind you.

After suffering a defeat at the hands of the strong Mart eleven last week, the Hornets are hard at work, and are in top shape for the West game this week.

Mart proved to much for the local boys last Friday night. Rogers, Beavers, Grochoske and Garrett were all in the Mart lineup, and did some nice yard gaining, with Rogers doing most of the dangerous ball carrying. The Gatesville lads were in there fighting all the way, but were unsuccessful in stopping Rogers.

In talking to one of the Mart players after the struggle he said, "Gee I am really glad that game is over, cause one can never tell when one of Hinsleys long passes is going to click. That is by far the hardest game we have played this year and may be the hardest one we will have".

We believe too that it was one of their hardest games. It would have been double that hard had it not been for the officials. We take it that the game was tossed to Mart on a platter. We do believe that Mart could have beaten Gatesville, but it would not have been over one point. The Hornets were missed out of two touchdowns just as cute as you please. We mean that!

A well known Waco scribe guessed the score to be 7-6 in favor of Mart. He would have been very nearly right had it not been for the uncanny parts.

West comes to us this year, as a weak team. It has had difficulty in all of its games heretofore. The Methodist Home which the Hornets nosed out 12 to 7, won easily from the Trojans by a fairly large score. West however has improved and are coming after the locals with fire in their eyes. There will be strong competition, but Gatesville will beat them by three touchdowns.

Don't let your spirits drop folks. Keep your spirits high and fight with the Hornets. Remember we have lost only one game—And That must be all.

This week's guesses.
