Meeting Friday To Give Farmers Voting Information

Meetings will be held at points listed below on Friday night, March 11, at 7:30 to discuss "marketing quotas" according to cards being mailed out from County Agent Guy Powell's office.

Mr. Powell said it was very important that a large vote be cast so that the Administration would know what the farmers wanted in the way of Federal aid and other information asked.

Communities in which the meetings will be held are:

Plainview, Ewing, Coryell City; Oglesby; Copperas Cove; Antelope, Maple; Flat, The Grove, Leon Junction White Hall, Turnerville, Levita, Purnela, Evant, Harmon, Pearl and Pidcoke.

The card reads further: "Every eligible voter should vote on 'Cotton Marketing Quota Referendum' Saturday Mar. 12. This is your opportunity to express your opinion."

Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Lively motored to Waco Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harper of Marlin were in this city Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jones of Houston were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jameson of Meridian spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henson.

Dave Culberson, second year student in the University of Texas, was at his home here during the week end.

Misses Dorothy and Jerry Franks spent Friday night with Misses Margaret and Irene Rutherford of Jonesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Whitehead and sons were visitors in Hamilton Thursday and also visited her mother, Mrs. Pearl Bennett, of Olin.

Douglas White, first year student at A. and M. College, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon White in the Arnett community over the week end.

Jack Reesing, popular first year student at Baylor University, spent the latter part of the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jao. P. Reesing and sister, Frances.

Jack Thornton of Ft. Worth, arrived Friday to spend the remainder of the week with his parents in Leon Junction and with friends in this city.

Gatesville Automobile Dealers Cooperating In Nat'l Adv.

National Used Car Exchange week is being celebrated locally as well as nationally by the local automobile dealers in line with a national advertising campaign to sell used cars.

Information is that $1,250,000 is being spent in the entire United States for this special sales week March 5-12, which it is hoped will sell many used and new cars and enable factories to continue operation and the employing of countless thousands of men. Special emphasis is being placed on giving values and low prices.

Among those co-operating locally who are displaying advertising material furnished by the automotive industry are Coryell Motor Company; Powell Chevrolet Company; E. W. Jones and son; Shepherd Motor Co.; D. D. McCoy; and Scott Motor Co.

The motor car industry is generally credited with showing the way out of the last depression. The current drive to promote the sales of used cars is aimed to have the same effect on the alleged current recession.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron Rogers and little daughter, Nita Jean, Miss Mlda Schley Mrs. Travis Hestilow and son Roger were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thompson in Temple Sunday.

CORYELL COUNTY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION MEETS AT HOSPITAL

Featuring Dr. Leslie Sadler formerly of this city and now a prominent physician and surgeon of Waco as speaker, and also Dr. Howard Wells also of that city Coryell County Medical Association will hold a meeting at the Milton Powell Memorial Hospital this evening at 7:30.

Doctors from all parts of the country are invited and expected to attend this meeting.

Another Doctor of importance in central Texas who has been invited is Dr. H. F. Connally of Waco.

It is expected and planned that the association will elect officers at this meeting for the coming year.

NOTES FROM COUNTY SUPERINTENDANTS OFFICE

Blanks for entries in County Meet were mailed out Monday March 7. These should be returned to the office by March 12. The program will be completed by March 15th. This Program will be mailed to member schools. One late entry disturbs every entry. Make all entries on time this year. Date of County Meet begins at 1:00 P. M. Thursday March 24. The Coryell County Meet has been a potent factor in establishing a high level of school work in this county. There are about 40 member schools competing in this years meet. This is a larger number than usual.

County Supt's. Office
Census reports turned in to date have showed an increase in scholastics. This is partly due to the thoroughness of census takers.

Several of the larger schools of the county have re-elected their faculties for another year. These schools will be mentioned separately as information becomes authentic.

Election
Trustees election comes as usual on the first Saturday in April. An accurate census report is the first step in a good school program. Election of the proper persons as trustees is the second step. Then the choosing of good teachers is the final step in preparation. Good trustees a good faculty in a good community will have nothing less than a good school.

STRAWS MILL WOMAN FRACTURES HIP FALL

Mrs. G. W. (Grandma) Whitton, age 83 was critically injured last Monday morning when she fell while arising from her bed, at her home near Straws Mill. According to Dr. H. M. Haynes, she broke her hip when she fell, and her condition is critical.

After careful consideration of a number of accessible pastors, and upon innumerable recommendations and the recommendation of the Board of Deacons of the First Baptist Church, the congregation voted Sunday to call Reverend C. C. Spaulding, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Kerrville as pastor of the local church.

Reverend Spaulding who has accepted, will be here March 20th to guide the destinies of the local church.

Although information regarding Rev. Spaulding is meager, it is understood he has previously been pastor of Baptist churches at Del Rito and Kingsville before going to Kerrville.

Rev. Spaulding is married and has one child, a thirteen year-old daughter.

People of the vicinity will be pleased to see the pulpit of the First Baptist Church filled by a regular pastor again, altho Dr. J. B. Tidwell of Baylor University and Dr. B. O. Herring have been doing an admirable job as supply pastors, and have endeared themselves in the hearts of the local congregation.

Rev. C. A. Morton, former beloved pastor, left early in 1937 for Ballinger where he is now pastor.

Third Anniversary of Church

Last Sunday was the third anniversary of the First Baptist Church but no special program was given; and Dr. J. B. Tidwell, head of the Department of Bible of Baylor University, delivered inspiring messages at both the morning and evening hours, according to Dan E. Graves, Chairman of the Board of Deacons.

Makes Plea For Texas Cripples

Charles F. Ashcroft

Easter Seal sales for Texas crippled children commence April 1 and last until Easter Sunday. Charles F. Ashcroft, President of the Texas Society for Crippled Children urges that everyone wishing to help a crippled child, buy seals. Each Texas County is being organized for this humanitarian purpose. Funds will be spent in Texas.

TOM CHANEY IS INJURED WHEN FALLING FROM WAGON

Tom Chaney of near Gatesville was brought to Dr. Lowrey's office Saturday morning with several injuries after falling from his wagon on his farm near Gatesville. The horses being driven Mr. Chaney ran into a ditch knocking the driver off the wagon and was run over by a hind wheel knocking him unconscious. His right ear was severely cut and a shoulder injured. His hip was also injured.

According to Dr. Lowrey, Mr. Chaney is recovering satisfactorily although still confined to his bed.

TURNERSVILLE EX-STUDENTS TO PRESENT PLAY FRI.

Friday evening, March 11th, the Turnersville ex-students will stage a play in the High School Auditorium. The play is a three act comedy entitled "Hulabaloo". The small admission price will be used to finish paying for the rugs on the floor of the auditorium.

The general public is invited and promised an enjoyable evening.

MEMORIAL HOSPITAL NOTES

Patients in the Hospital are Mrs. Walter Jones, Miss Nan Evelyn Cole.

Ventriloquist and Speaker to Appear on C. of C. Program

Miss Lucille Elmore, impersonator and ventriloquist, will be one of the feature entertainers at the Chamber of Commerce banquet to be held Tuesday evening, March 22. She will be assisted by Musician Hartley.

In addition, or as the outstanding event of the evening, will appear G. H. Nelson, prominent speaker of the state.

With the general program committee, consisting of W. T. Hix, chairman; Charles Powell and E. W. Jones, and a program committee of H. K. Jackson, Leake Ayres and E. W. Brooks a big night is promised to all who attend this big event of the year.

Additional committees are: Ticket committee, Luke Walker, Elland Lovejoy and Francis Powell.

Reception: C. E. Alvis Jr., Floyd Zeigler, George Painter, and Dr. Kermit Jones.

Decorations: Cyril Hudson, Cam McGilvray and Bill Thomson. This is the first affair of this kind endeavored by the local Chamber of Commerce, but from all indications it will be THE social event of the year, and no stone will be left unturned to make those who attend feel at home and assure them of a remarkable program and a sumptuous dinner.

Further information will be given from time to time as the date nears, March 22.

IDEAL SOUTHERN HOME

This design should make an appeal to the home builder with an eye for the unusual. The roof lines and placement of the entrance are among the distinguishing features. A study of the floor plan will reveal an ideal arrangement of large rooms with well placed bath, plenty of closets and a large sun porch. The high ceilinged living room, attractive fireplace and numerous doors and windows are particularly attractive features of the living room. The closets and many built-in features are worth careful attention.

Muscular Rheumatic Pains

It takes more than "just a salve" to draw them out. It takes a "counter-irritant" like good old Musterole - soothing, warming, penetrating and helpful in drawing out the local congestion and pain when rubbed on the aching spots. Muscular lumbago, soreness and stiffness generally yield promptly. Better than the old-fashioned mustard plaster, Musterole has been used by millions for 30 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. All druggists. In three strengths: Regular Strength, Children's (mild), and Extra Strong.

PHOENIX Vita-Bloom HOSIERY

1 The Reason for Vita-Bloom
Raw silk is protected by a natural protein substance that gives the thread its amazing strength and vitality. This vital element is removed from the silk in the making of hosiery. Hosiery manufacturers have tried to overcome this for years.

2 What Vita-Bloom Is
Now Vita-Bloom, a new, secret method (patents pending), an extra manufacturing process used only by Phoenix, restores this life-giving protein. Vita-Bloom definitely improves Phoenix hosiery.

3 What Vita-Bloom Does
You can see the new depth and "bloom" of color. You can feel the smooth, soft, even texture. You can prove the longer life, the snag-and-wear-resistant quality by trying the new Phoenix Vita-Bloom.

Eight Champions Crowned In Boxing Tourney Friday Night

By DUB KING
Star-Telegram Sports Writer

(Special to the News):
Come 1939, Gatesville plans to send eight real leather pushers to the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's third annual Golden Glove classic.

And if the excellent showings made by the Gatesville scrappers Friday in the FFA-News finals count as a drop in the bucket—Gatesville may produce a champion or two.

Chandler Shines
Over a thousand enthusiastic fans, more than third of the population of Gatesville, saw Dick Chandler, a 19 year-old CCC middleweight with no expression in his face and real boxing ability in his athletic build, and a haymaker that sent Check Hale flying through the ropes and into a ringsider's lap. Dick said he would try for a place on the team in Fort Worth next year.

And they were eye-witnesses to over a dozen other good fights, which included Bobby Melton's close decision over J. D. Holman, Osage peewee, in the flyweight division; Bantam-weight Norman Basham's upset victory over Lloyd Woodson, and an exhibition bout between two previously eliminated welterweights, Jack Hearne and Glen Perryman.

Thompson Smooth
One of the smoothest scraps of the evening brought together boxers who should be able to hit in any amateur league. Light-Heavies Foy Wicker, Gatesville, and Hilton Southerland, a windmill swinger, who refused to give up until he had won the doubtful decision over opponent Wicker. They both connected with clean blows over the three regular rounds. So close it was that the judges demanded an ex-round, and so Southerland made the most of it, winning by a hair; there was boxing aplenty on this decision.

J. W. Thompson, a 22-year-old featherweight, as smooth as Fort Worth's Harry Flowers, decided Dewey Harrison.

Referee J. M. Roach, a former Texas A. and M. boxer, refereed and had to pull fighters apart after the round had ended on three occasions. Earle Worley, Gatesville football coach, who handled the fighters, hopes to send a strong team to Fort Worth next year.

County champions:
Flyweight—Bobby Melton, of Gatesville.

Bantamweight—Norman Basham, Gatesville.

Featherweight—J. W. Thompson, Gatesville.

Lightweight—George Vandiver, Turnersville.

Welterweight—Sydney Gregory, Gatesville.

Middleweight—Dick Chandler, Gatesville CCC.

Light-Heavy—Hilton Southerland, Turnersville.

Heavyweight—Lee Brown, Gatesville CCC.

GHS. BASKETBALL LETTERMEN ANNOUNCED

Monday, Coaches Worley and Schwarz announced the basketball lettermen, both Hornets and Hornettes. Following are those who will receive their "G's".

Hornets
Forwards: Loraine Turner, Zack Fore, and Neal Hinsley.
Center: Byron Gibrath.
Guards: Roy Adams, Felix Newlin, John Frank Post, and Pigg Leads Way as Rams Take Fort Worth All-Stars, 49-30.

The Texas Wesleyan Rams, champions of the Line Star Conference, won their twenty-first game here Saturday night by defeating a crew of Fort Worth All-stars 49 to 30, before a capacity crowd of 500 fans.

Milburn Pigg, captain and the looped nine field goals and one free shot to pace the collegian's scoring, while Lon Goldstein, all-star forward, tallied 13 to the scoring honors for the losers. Native sons of Coryell Co. accounted for 25 of the Rams' 49 markers, with Ward scoring 14, Edwards 8, and Walsh 3. Jack Thornton, lanky center from Leon Junction, didn't have the luck to scratch in this game.

Wayne Hillary, reserve guard, had the honor of scoring the 1000th point the Rams have scored this season when he sunk a long shot during the first few minutes of the second half. The Rams scored only eighteen points, the least they have scored in the first period of any game this season.

According to Dub King, the Rams' publicity agent, the collegians did not roll up more points because the All-Stars, made up of members of various independent teams, knew all of the Wesleyan plays, therefore making it impossible for the Rams work them to any advantage.

In the first game of the night the Hornets romped to a 31-15 win over the Jonesboro Eagles. Both teams used players who were not eligible this year, but who were still in school.

G. T. Moore, captain of last year's team, tallied 16 markers to lead the scoring parade. Gilbreath sunk three tip-in shots and a couple of long ones to bring up ten points. Ralph Walsh made three beautiful long ones for six points. Roy Adams, Hornet senior, played a grand defensive game, and looked better than any player on the court, besides Moore.

The Hornets' fast break enabled them to score 16 of their 34 points.

Bruce Weaver.

Hornettes
Forwards: Mary E. Eubanks, Ruth Rutherford, Madylene Patterson, Treva Davis, Leta Bell Shosf, and Zorada Thomason.

Guards: Sarah Hinson, Margaret Weaver, Odell James, and Flo Gene Martin.

HORNETTES LOSE IN IRENE TOURNEY

The Hornets were the victims of one of the most surprising upsets in Central Texas basketball tilts when a hustling Irene sextette handed them their second defeat of the season, 38 to 29, in the finals of the Irene invitational tournament. The Gatesville girls were heavy favorites to win the tournament but were not only up to their usual form in the championship game, and they let Irene slip up on them.

The Hornettes defeated Barry 63-39 in the second round, they having drawn a by in the first round. In the semi-finals they ran over Garrett 53-23.

"HAWAII CALLS" IS BOBBIE LATEST HAS ISLAND BACKGROUND

The semi-tropical beauty of the Hawaiian Islands forms the background for "Hawaii Calls," Bobby Breen's latest musical starring vehicle, which is shortly to be seen on our local screen.

With the exception of scenes taking place aboard a passenger liner on its trip from San Francisco to Honolulu, all the action of this colorful screenplay transpires amid the luxuriant settings of "the Islands." Many of the best known spots of this great Pacific empire are seen in the film including the famous Waikiki Beach, Honolulu's beautiful resort hotels its picturesque oriental quarter and the fern-covered areas of the island of Dahu. The latter are dominated by the Pali towering precipice 600 feet in height over which the ancient king Kamehameha once drove an opposing army to destruction on the rocks below.

Late in the story of this action filled picture the island of Maui is the scene of a luau, or native feast, with garlanded throngs of merry-makers partaking of a banquet consisting of a pig roasted underground and an assortment of purely Hawaiian delicacies, while dancing girls undulate to the music of native musicians.

During the progress of the screenplay the silvery voiced Bobby Breen sings half a dozen tuneful songs, including two written especially for the picture.

By acting as an assistant to a magician during the summer months James Stewart was able to help earn his way through Princeton.

WORLD COMMENT

Joe Burns

Nineteen hundred thirty-eight has witnessed the emergence of yet another dictator. King Carol of Rumania has placed the 19,000,000 people of his country under a dictatorship as complete and severe as those of Germany and Italy.

Dictatorial or semidictatorial regimes in the world now include the following:

Italy; Benito Mussolini.
Germany; Adolf Hitler.
Russia; Josef Stalin.
Rumania; King Carol II.
Greece; John Metaxes.
Turkey; Kemal Ataturk.
Brazil; Getulio Vargas.
Ecuador; Federico Paez.
Portugal; Gen. Antonio Carmona.

Nationalist (Insurgent) Spain Gen. Francisco Franco.
Bulgaria; George Kiosseivanov (under King Boris).

What other states will fall under the bludgeoning hands of a dictator during 1938?

If Washington press reports can be believed, there is an impelling reason why Great Britain wants to come to a friendly agreement with Italy and has refused to fight Japanese aggression in China.

These sources say that Dowling street is more worried about India than it is about European Near Eastern or Mediterranean complications.

India, long a seething caldron of revolt against British domination, has proved a fertile field to anti-British propaganda by both the Japanese and the Italians.

Such news as his is now heartening to the democracies. For the more Great Britain is involved outside Europe, the more Hitler and Mussolini are going to demand. If the lid blows off in India, it may also prove to be impossible to keep it steady in Europe.

To fight a World War and carry on the entire Federal government, here is what Woodrow Wilson spent during his eight years in office, according to the Dallas Journal:

1913	$724,511,963
1914	735,081,431
1915	760,586,802
1916	734,056,202
1917	1,977,691,751
1918	12,696,702,471
1919	18,514,879,955
1920	6,403,343,841
Total	$42,546,854,416

It may help to remind you that the fiscal year ends in the middle of the calendar year; the year 1933 for instance, is the last half of 1932 and the first half of 1933 and so on. Take the present administration. The figures, as given by Senator Byrd of Virginia, cover the years 1933 to 1937. The estimates for 1939 and 1940 are as given by the President's last budget message. The estimate for 1940 is based upon the President's statement of Jan. 3 to Congress that annual expenditures of the United States "cannot be cut much below $7,000,000,000 (billions) without destroying essential functions or letting people starve." The figures for 1933 to 1940, then, are:

Year	Expenditures
1933	$4,485,018,254
1934	$6,883,861,532
1935	$6,583,861,532
1936	$8,476,553,108

PRISCILLA CLUB NEWS

The ladies of the Priscilla Club entertained their husbands and families with a soup supper on Monday night, February 28.

After several games of 42, bingo was played, and prizes were awarded to the winners. Hot soup and crackers were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bunnell and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brewer and son, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Flentge, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Black, Ammon, Marion, R. C. Dyess Jr., and Misses Estelle Cooper and Mary Dyess.

Priscilla Club members were very highly entertained in the home of Mesdames J. J. and W. E. Hayes on Wednesday, March 2, with an all day meeting. A very pretty quilt was quilted and various kinds of hand work was done in the afternoon. A very appetizing meal was served to Mesdames J. D. Fegette, J. C. Bunnell, A. B. Chatham, J. M. Hair, O. R. Black, N. P. Cooper, Lonnie Flentge, R. C. Dyess, Miss Estelle Cooper and the hostesses.

At the close of the day's business session all business was disposed of and a committee was appointed for the next monthly gathering. Plans were again discussed for the April league.

The next meeting will be held with Mr. J. C. Bunnell, an all-day meeting, March 16th.

Those present in the afternoon were Mrs. A. B. Williamson, Miss Mina Exa Williamson. Visitors were Mrs. Nolan Balze and Mrs. Rodgers. All visitors are very welcome at our meetings.

JONESBORO B. T. U. ENJOY MARSHMALLOW ROAST

Friday evening members of the Jonesboro Baptist Training Union entertained a large group with an enjoyable outing near the Barney Morgan home.

Several large bonfires were built and various games were played in the open, which was followed by the marshmallow roast.

1937	$8,001,200,000
1938	$7,408,600,000
1939	$6,869,000,000
1940	$7,000,000,000
Total	$56,022,935,723

You will see that Mr. Roosevelt will have spent, comments The Journal, by the time he is through, 30 per cent more than Woodrow Wilson spent to fight the World War with eight years of Government included. Wilson left the public debt at 24,000,000,000 in 1920, at which time it was going down, while Roosevelt seems likely to push it up to 40 billions in 1940 at which time it may still be going up. (He says it will be 38 and one half billions next year.)

Did you know— That while Great Britain and France pose as democratic states and characterize Japan, Italy and Germany as aggressor states, only 46,000,000 out of the 487,000,000 people of the British Isles? Of this stupendous total, more than 350,000,000 are in Asia and have no self Government.

That there are 42,000,000 Frenchmen in Europe but 60,000,000 in the French colonies in Africa and Asia, a few of whom have any say-so about the conduct of their affairs in the colonies?

That Great Britain has gold reserves of 2,500,000,000; France $3,000,000,000; Russia; $839,000,000 and the U. S. $11,000,000,000 while Germany has only $27,000,000 in gold, Italy $208,000,000; and Japan $463,000,000?

BAPTIST WOMEN TO MEET IN CIRCLES

The Baptist women are to hold their circle meetings in the following homes: Circle 1 with Mrs. O. K. Lovejoy, circle 3 with Mrs. G. J. Morris, circle 4 with Mrs. Jess Hill, circle 5 with Mrs. Erzell Brooks, circle 6 with Mrs. Kirby Perryman. Circle 2 will be hostess to circle 7 at noon at the church. The Golden Jubilee chairmen are to make an important announcement.

Resolved: "Missionary work in Europe is worthwhile," is to be debated informally by Mrs. Wm. Wiegand, negative, and Mrs. Paul Marth, affirmative, in circle 5; Mrs. Erzell Brooks summing up the points for both sides. Startling but authentic facts will be brought out on both sides of the question. The three women have done extended research, using books and other material suggested by Dr. Her-ring, instructor of Bible in Baylor University.

WITH THE SHIP OF STATE

WASHINGTON, D. C. The whirligig of events in Europe has so usurped the front pages that our lawmakers have been able to sit back and relax and be themselves for the first time in years. Secure in the knowledge that they are momentarily out of the public eye. And because of this temporary lessening of domestic attention official Washington has found much to think about.

The dash of Philippine High Commissioner Paul V. McNutt from Manila to Washington to report to President Roosevelt has been variously labelled 'Paul Rides' and even 'John Gilpins Revere's Ride' and 'Sheridans Ride' for it openly hinted that it was the Commissioners desire to 'Report' himself available as a presidential candidate that caused the sprint.

It is said that Mr. Roosevelt has watched the proceedings with mild amusement and it is certain that the astute Mr. Farley would not be interested in attempting to explain to the homespun voters the antics of Mr. McNutt in Manila when the High Commissioner put on a very creditable imitation of a fascist Governor of Ethiopia.

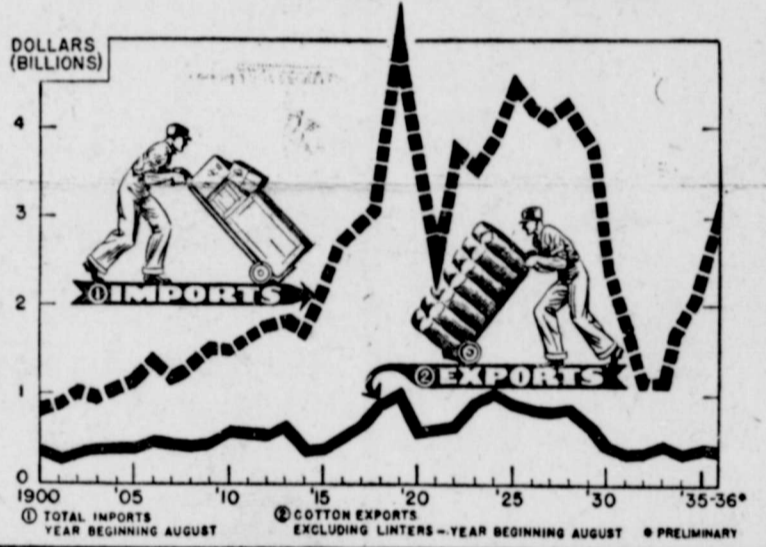

A new State products, battle has amused the Senators, who have at various times been asked to render judgment between Florida and California oranges, Maine and Idaho Potatoes, and Georgia and Delaware peaches. This time it is Chesapeake New York or Wisconsin and the apparently unlimited number of cheeses, hard and soft, cream and curd, have made peaches and potatoes and oranges seem very simple things indeed.

Dr. Briggs of the Bureau of standards has suddenly discovered that it is intolerable that our official inch should be one-two millionth longer than the British inch and proposes to change ours without ado. Staunch Americans suggest that Britain in her present mood might be willing to make the change. Always provided Rome approved.

It is no secret here that nearly every important official of whatever political party is disappointed but not surprised at the course of British affairs in the European mixup. There is scarcely an official who is not opposed, unofficial, of course, to the dictatorships whether they are Nazi, communist, Fascist or the half a dozen variations between Roumania and Japan.

The feeling, too, is that Britain has made a mistake in giving tacit approval to the land grabs of Hitler and Mussolini and the Mikado. Britain is, of course, playing for time. Hoping that the Fascist nations will tear themselves to pieces and collapse of their own centrifugal forces. And that, as one of our older and more cynical Senators confided the other day, is like the woman who marries a man to reform him and when he doesn't, keeps on living with him in hopes. And as the Senator concluded, it is usually the woman that is buried first.

COTTON EXPORTS ARE RELATED TO TOTAL IMPORTS

The general trend of cotton exports are closely related to our total imports, according to W. E. Morgan, economist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension service.

This means that an increase in total imports would tend to increase exports, and as cotton is our largest single export commodity, bigger imports usually result in larger exports of cotton.

The chart shows that from 1900 to 1919 the trend of both total imports and cotton exports was almost steadily upward. In 1920 and 1921 both fell sharply. Total imports recovered in 1922 and this was followed by an increase in cotton exports in 1923. The decline of total imports during the 1929-32 depression was accompanied by a corresponding drop in cotton exports.

Cotton exports have not risen, however, with total imports since 1934 because of exchange controls and trade restrictions in foreign countries and because of increased supplies of foreign Cotton.

On the whole it is readily apparent that in view of the relationship between cotton exports and total imports, any increase in trade, both export and import, help the cotton farmer.

Charlie Becomes Ambassador

Charlie McCarthy has a new job—ambassador at large for the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition, on Treasure Island in San Francisco Bay. Here Edgar Bergen is handing Charlie his ambassador's commission and the NBC star seems pleased, to say the least.

It is estimated that during the last 8 years more than 3,000,000 miles of road have been added to the maps of the world.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

An Outdoor Exposure Guide

Taken against a white garden wall, with puppies on a bench. Exposure 1/25 second, stop f.11 with folding camera.

WHAT kind of camera is yours? What do you want to photograph? Below is a dependable outdoor exposure guide for average picture subjects.

This guide is for days when the sun is shining. When the day is cloudy, the exposure should be about twice as long and when very dull, about four times as long.

For the chrome type, supersensitive and panatomic films, the guide is good from one hour after sunrise until one hour before sunset. For ordinary film, make the margin 2 1/2 hours.

Why not cut this valuable guide out and paste it in your hat, or something?

John van Guilder.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED BEFORE
 Young Bill Jordan is sent to prison for ten years when he accidentally kills a man during a night club brawl. For six years he works in the prison jute mill, his morale breaking down bit by bit. He is on the verge of collapse when Tom Mathews, the district attorney who sent him up, is appointed warden of the prison. On recommendation of the prison doctor, Mathews sees Bill and, recognizing him, Bill meanwhile, has seen Healy's daughter, Elizabeth, and fallen in love with her. Mathews transfers the boy from the jute mill and makes him the warden's chauffeur. Three months of association with Elizabeth work wonders on Bill and Mathews is quietly working to get him a pardon. There is a prison break, one of the convicts squeals and another is killed. Mathews takes the squealer into his office to protect him from the other prisoners. The men stage a riot and while it is in progress Runch, the squealer, is killed. Bill witnesses the murder but he refuses to talk, choosing rather to abide by the code of the convicts. Mathews pleads and cajoles to no avail and finally sends him to solitary for a week. Elizabeth, who has been away on a visit, returns and hears of Bill's plight. She asks her father to help him and, when the warden says he's through, she confesses that she is love with him.

Mathews sighed and patted her shoulder. "No, I guess you can't," he said. He smiled briefly. "I guess that's one thing the law doesn't cover."
 "What — what will you do?" Elizabeth asked.
 Mathews took her in his arms and hugged her. "Sweetheart," he said. "I'd turn the demons out of hell for you." He kissed her on the forehead and then he turned to the phone. "Find Captain Grady," he ordered. "Tell him to bring Jordan to my office right away."
 In the prison mess room one of the prisoners sidled up to Hawkins, the man who had killed Runch. "I'm scared about the Jordan kid," the prisoner whispered. "Chuck smuggled a knife to him in his bread an' water today. No tellin' what he might do with it."
 Hawkins' jaw set firmly. "The kid's up for parole," he muttered. "He's played square with me an' I ain't gonna let him take this rap." He turned, walked up to a guard and whirled him around. "I don't like you," he said, and he knocked the guard to the ground.
 Two other guards rushed up and grabbed him. "That means solitary for you, mister," one of them said.
 "That suits me," Hawkins grinned. "Let's go."
 A moment or two later the phone in the warden's office rang insistently. "Gun fight in the dungeon, sir," was the message. Mathews sprang from his desk and started for the door. "You stay here, honey," he said. "There's been some trouble. I'll be right back."

WHAT HAS HAPPENED BEFORE
 Young Bill Jordan is sent to prison for ten years when he accidentally kills a man in a night club brawl. For six years he works in the prison jute mill and he is on the verge of a breakdown when Mathews, the district attorney who sent him up, is made warden of the prison. Mathews takes Bill from the mill and makes him his chauffeur. Bill falls in love with the warden's daughter, Elizabeth. There is a prison break, one of the convicts squeals and another prisoner is killed. Later, when Elizabeth has gone away for a visit, Bill witnesses the murder of Runch, the "squealer", by another prisoner. Despite the fact that he is up for parole, Bill refuses to tell what he knows about the murder. Mathews sends him to solitary for a week while he tries to solve the murder. Elizabeth returns and hears about Bill. She tells her father she loves Bill and Mathews sends to solitary to have Jordan brought to his office. Hawkins, the prisoner who killed Runch, overpowers a guard, takes his pistol and gets into solitary to free Bill. He is holding the guards at bay when Mathews arrives.

Another guard came hurrying up with more guns. Mathews grabbed one. "This is your last chance, Hawkins," he cried. "I'm going to turn the tear gas loose."
 There was silence for a moment before Hawkins answered. "Okay," Hawkins called, "I'm coming."
 "Throw your gun out first," Grady ordered.
 "Yeah!" was the derisive answer, "an' get shot when I come out."
 "You won't get shot," Mathews said. "I promise, Hawkins."
 "Okay, Mathews, I trust you." A moment later he came out slowly, arms in the air. Grady advanced to handcuff him. He stooped to pick up the gun Hawkins had thrown out. In a flash, Hawkins disarmed him and held him as a shield from the guards' guns.
 "I've been waitin' to get this guy for a long time," Hawkins muttered. "Listen, Mathews, I killed Runch. I'll burn for that so I'm gonna make this a double-header. The Jordan kid didn't know nothing about the Runch killin' so don't hold it against him. But now I got a score to settle with Mister Grady here. He's the guy who sent me up here — framed me — twelve years ago, so he's gonna follow that other rat, Runch." There was a smothered pistol report and Grady slumped to the floor. Almost simultaneously, Mathews' gun barked out and Hawkins, too, crumpled.

"I'm gonna make this one a double-header, warden."

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
Chapter Six

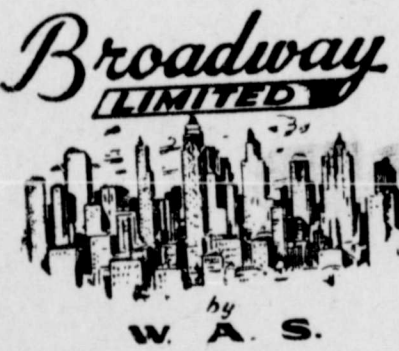

"Jordan wasn't in this," Captain Grady explained. "They were leading him out when it happened."
 Mathews sighed with relief. "Hawkins!" he yelled down the stairs. "You'd better come out. You can't get away with this."
 "Too bad, Mathews," the prisoner called back. "I'd like to for you, but it's too late now. And tell Grady not to get gay with his tommy gun. Remember Jordan's here, too. He didn't have anything to do with this."

A few moments later Mathews led Bill into his office. Elizabeth ran across the room and took Bill in her arms. "My dear," she murmured, "What have they done to you?"
 Bill kissed her. "I'm all right now," he said.
 Still holding Bill in her arms, Elizabeth turned to her father. "Dad," she said, "I'm so happy."
 He grinned at them. "Yeah," he said. "That's the way things break sometimes. You've got to play your cards the way they fall."
THE END.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
Chapter Five

"How long has this been going on?" Mathews asked.
 "It hasn't been going on at all," Elizabeth said. "He has never said a word to me — but I know he loves me, too, Dad."
 "That's one reason why I went away," Elizabeth continued, "to be sure I was right. Well, I am. I love him, Dad. I can't help it."

Down in the dungeon he found Grady and two guards armed with sub-machine guns. "What's the trouble?" Mathews demanded.
 "It's Hawkins," Grady reported. "He disarmed a guard. He's down there with a gun."
 There was a burst of gunfire from below stairs. The warden and the guards flattened against the wall.
 "What about Jordan?" Mathews asked.

New York. So let's sit down and wonder what the archeologists are going to think in 2938 when they dig up the record of a street called Broadway and find that its favorite movie star is a cartoon drawing of a dwarf called 'dopey'; from Snow White of course, its favorite radio star a cage full of wood made into a ventriloquist's dummy called 'Charlie McCarthy'; its favorite dance 'the Big Apple' and that night club patrons were entertained while they ate and drank by a eage full of performing tigers—See the Casa Manana. For all the talk of foreign dishes delectable Broadway is strictly American in its food favorites; ham and eggs are the best sellers twenty four hours a day from cafeteria to snooty supper clubs and from hotel to hash house—Turkey is a sell out any time it is on the bill of fare—but hamburger is always on top whether it's a nickle when sandwiched between a roll on sixth avenue or two dollars a portion on Park Ave. The I seen 'em Department—Mary Garden, who used to be Salme' herself at the Metropolitan Opera House for 'Salome' Lupe Velez whirling down from the twentieth Century limited at Grand Central and being mobbed while that other important passenger from California snuck out the side door almost unnoticed; Mr. H. Noover. Gary Cooper autographing with autographers lipstick because he hasn't a pencil; and Beatrice autographing with a pencil but no wrap—on the sidewalk on Forty eighth street the night was only ten above zero. The Cedric Gibbonses; Y'know Dolores Del Rio, on the way way to Africa and not talking about Hollywood if you'll excuse us. Another stage hit; and how the Legitimate Theatre does go in for religion and respectability this season. Dudley Digges in 'On Borrowed Time' The other kind have all flopped. William Anderson who plays that big part in 'Golden Boy' and this is the real name of Lief Ericson which is the screen name of the husband of Frances Farmer who plays the lead in 'Golden Boy' and this is where we come in. The sleuth seekers who club together to tell each other about topnotch detective stories didn't award their prize this year because they say there were no topnotch stories in the so-called 'Detective' magazines. and now that every body with the price of a pair of barrel staves has learned to ski—it doesn't snow here any more. Most popular poser for the lens lads of the press, Katherine Cornell who always says its no trouble. The floor shows at the hotel night clubs almost never have a chorus because there are always guds who wouldn't like the cuties chasing thru the halls. Three different groups with plenty of millions have tried to buy New York but none of the seven good ones will sell and nobody wants number eight. Best publicity of the year Alexander Woolcott's radio boost and Lynn Fontanne's curtain speech for 'A Doll's House' Harlem hotspots are down to two but they are good. Dickie Wells place and the plantation. and then there was the old grouch who trailed along with his giddy wife to one of those ultra-ultra Fifty second street 'jernts' where they are having fun by giving the patrons intelligence tests and he wouldn't play on the grounds that anybody with intelligence wouldn't be there!!!!

This Week In Oglesby

Featuring business this week insurance tops the program. It seems that all the insurance agencies in Texas turned loose their minions on Oglesby... Plenty of them... The Oglesby FFA in charge of Ag. teacher J. C. Fox went to Reisel and brought back a banner and a cup. They are keeping the tradition of their fathers who have long been noted as being the quickest on trigger of any set of farmers in Central Texas. Coming from the Post Office the other day we got both feet tangled in a baling wire. When we recovered a passer-by remarked that we looked like the new version of the Federal Farm Adjustment Act... The back lots in the business section are still covered with cord wood, but the smell of fresh spring soil and growing vegetation has almost replaced the fragrant aroms of wood smoke.

Down at Rock Spring the water cress has covered the pools of limpid clear water. There used to be a school house there. A big rock with a round hole thru it lay over the spring. The school house is gone. Only a pile of burnt stone marks where the fire place stood. The big stone is broken from over the spring. But to many of the elders about Oglesby a myriad of pleasant memories mingle with voices of the liveoaks and elms... Victor Horper setting and pruning shrubbery in his yard... Rev. Chadwick, Joel Shirley, Wood Graham and Rev. Raymond Sims leveling the Baptist Church lawn. Lawton Searcy and wife of Waco to see Mrs. W. C. Layne who is convalescing from an operation. Mrs. R. W. Alexander remains sick, her brother Rev. Jones of Titus county is visiting her... Garland Anderson of Gatesville here Friday... Rep. Earl Huddleston to Ft. Worth Friday. John Crouch our inimitable contable has been out after the law breakers again. Last week he landed four in the hoosgow and advised them to be good from now on... The other day we returned from Gatesville and ran into Capt. Harts band playing on the streets of Oglesby. For a while we felt just like a big town. Capt. Hart's shows entertained Oglesby folks for three nights...

Away back yonder an old pioneer told me that March freezes would not kill February blooms. If that works out this time we will have a good fruit crop this year. But there is that old "thunder in February, frost in April", saying.

Prof. Fox has had his FFA's out on several farms, including those of G. I. Green and P. E. Jones, judging the milk cows... Chas. Bunch and J. L. Sullins on the street... N. H. Holt of Coryell Church in town... Ruben Ross, a prominent farmer of the Leon River in Oglesby Friday... Tom Fowler selling a big can of cream.

Up at the gym a free for all basket ball tournament the latter part of the week... Mrs. Porter Adams shopping here Friday... Highway workers on No. 7 here for a number of laborers... Ol' Uncle Henry Fisher not well for a week... Mrs. George Griffin has proven herself a good news reporter... F. G. Collard one of the outstanding members of the FFAs also Bill Spradley and Fredric Green.

Bill Allen formerly District Attorney and of Hamilton was a pleasant caller in Oglesby Friday... W. R. Alexander in town... Alford Taylor came in from the River Country... C. R. Searcy and W. C. Johnson sitting by the Hot Sove club's stove as if Friday was a cold day... Force of habit effects most of us... Chas. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McMullen in for a short visit... Mrs. L. W. Stockburger came by... Mrs. Lloyd McMullen, a Gatesville visitor this week... Mrs. W. R.
