ROBT. W. CALVERT SPOKE MONDAY

Speaking here Monday, afternoon in behalf of his candidacy for the office of Attorney General of Texas, Robt. W. Calvert of Hill County declared that he was the only man in the race for the office that had made a record of friendship for the old people of Texas. "As a member of the Legislature" he said, "I voted to submit the old age amendment to the people, went home and made speeches for its adoption and voted for it, served as a member of the first conference committee that wrote the first legal law, and was one of those forty five members of the House that until the very end voted against the so-called de liberation of the law."

He further pointed out that he had made a good record of friendship for the laboring classes of people.

Calvert was reared in the State Orphan's Home at Corsicana, of Texas where he worked his way thru school, and it at the present practicing law at Hillsboro. He was elected to the House of Representatives from Hill and Navarro Counties in 1932, reelected in 1934 and 1936 without opposition, and was unanimously elected Speaker of the House in January 1937.

Billy Treadway of Hillsboro accompanied Mr. Calvert.

AUSTIN DOOLITTLE "GETS HOME" AFTER "RANCHIN" IN W. TEX.

With the sent of the sage in his clothes and the sand of the range land still in his whiskers, Austin Doolittle arrived home Saturday to prepare for his Ninth Annual Rodeo at The Grove, which will be held August 3-4.

Doolittle has gone a long way to keep this show going. No matter where the drifting cowboy is when rodeo time rolls around, he returns to the "big corral".

For the past three years, he has traveled more than 500 miles each year to stage this event. He arrived here Saturday a shade battered, owing to the fact that he was kicked in the ribs by a horse three weeks ago, but is fast recovering this injury. However, he has that gleam in his eyes which is familiar to his many friends.

He has been with the Bar JJ Ranch on the South Plains in Midland County since the last rodeo at The Grove.

Arrangements are fast taking shape for this well known Coryell County rodeo, the "old original," and the fans of leather, sweat, dust and horse-hide are eagerly awaiting this announcement.

Bar-B-Q Is Blaze of Beauty With Block

In the trend to a bright new world of architecture, even the once lowly hamburger and "Bar-B-Q" stand is a thing of beauty, thanks to such structural materials as insulux glass block. Translucent but not transparent, they provide privacy and striking illumination possibilities and, the hollow units being partially evacuated, assure good insulation. By day they permit a flood of well-diffused daylight within. This view shows an architectural creation in Washington, D. C. Near Federal Route 1, it has attracted the eyes of many motorists from numerous states.

To My Friends

As the time of election draws near I find that it will be impossible to see and talk with all of the voters in Commission Beat 2 personally, but I am doing my best to meet everyone. I already am well acquainted with many of the people and conditions in this beat, if elected, I propose to put on a beat wide road program that will help road conditions in every part of Beat 2. This can be done if the Commissioner will take hold in the right way. County funds and P. W. A. labor should be used to ring the best roads in the most economical manner to the taxpayer.

I want to thank my friends who have said so many nice things about me and will try to justify their faith in me, if elected.

Again ELECTRIC RATES GO DOWN!

Residential Rates Reduced 6th Time in Ten Years

Electricity for Home Use now Costs the Average Gatesville Customer Only 43 per cent of what it would have cost if figured at the 1928 rate.

Another reduction in residential and commercial lighting rates in Gatesville goes into effect with billing for the current month. The reduction in residential rates is the sixth since 1928. Previous reductions have been made in May, 1938; August, 1935; July, 1933; March, 1931; and March, 1928. Electricity for home use in Gatesville now costs the average user only 43 per cent of what it cost in 1928.

Community Public Service Company has consistently followed a policy of reducing rates as rapidly as increased use and operating economies have permitted. The chart left shows graphically how residential electric rates have come down—in spite of two depressions.

The current reduction, which makes electricity cheaper than ever, comes at a time when other living costs are generally higher.

SEE HOW THE COST OF RESIDENTIAL ELECTRIC SERVICE HAS COME DOWN SINCE 1928

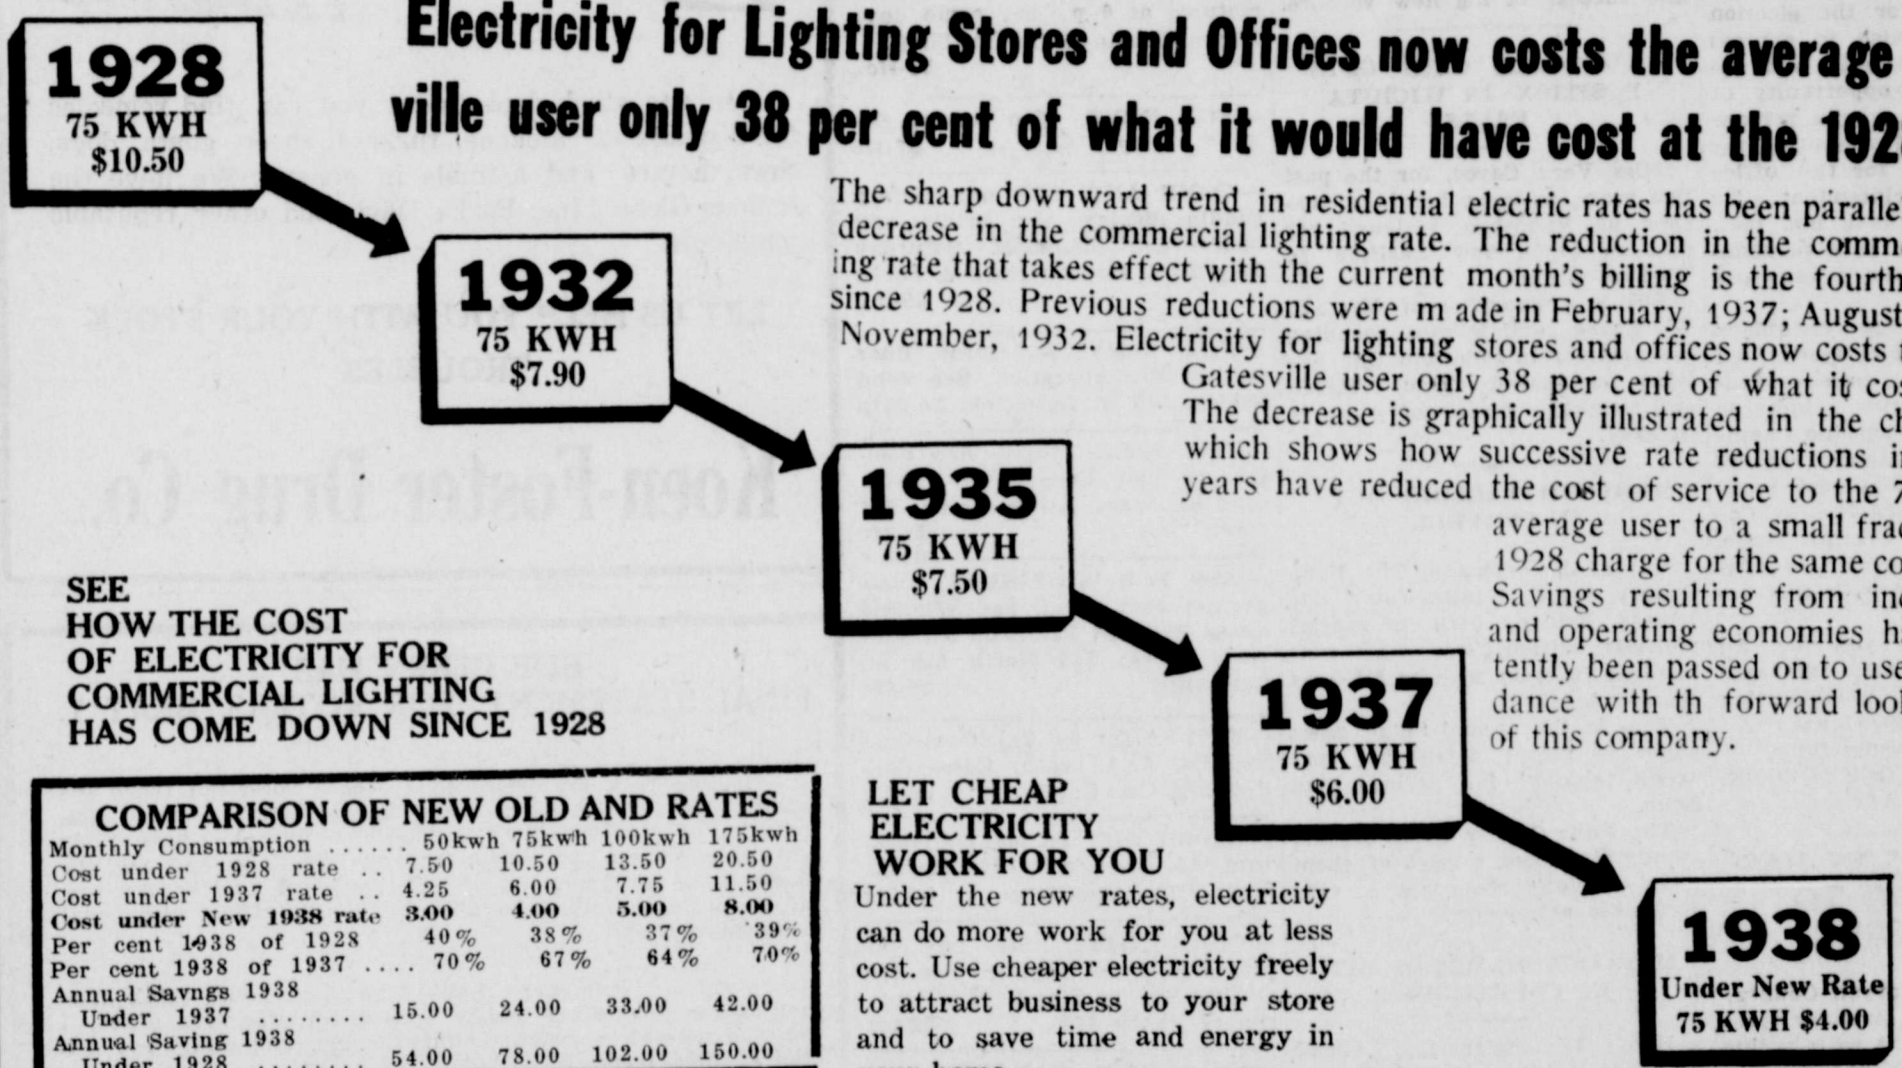

Monthly Consumption	25kwh	40kwh	100kwh
Cost Under 1928 Rate	3.75	6.00	13.50
Cost Under 1937 Rate	2.50	3.10	5.50
Cost Under Previous 1938 Rate	2.00	3.00	5.40
Cost Under New 1938 Rate	2.00	2.60	4.50
Per cent 1938 of 1928	53%	43%	33%
Per cent 1938 of 1937	80%	84%	81%
Annual Saving 1938 under 1937	6.00	6.00	12.00
Annual Saving 1938 under 1928	21.00	40.00	108.00

CHEAP ELECTRICITY NOW CHEAPER THAN EVER

Under the new residential rates, the average Gatesville user pays less than 9c a day for electric service—less than the cost of a shoe shine or a Chocolate Soda. Electricity is cheap in Gatesville.

Commercial Lighting Rate Cut 4th Time In 10 Years

Electricity for Lighting Stores and Offices now costs the average Gatesville user only 38 per cent of what it would have cost at the 1928 rate.

The sharp downward trend in residential electric rates has been paralleled by the decrease in the commercial lighting rate. The reduction in the commercial lighting rate that takes effect with the current month's billing is the fourth reduction since 1928. Previous reductions were made in February, 1937; August, 1935, and November, 1932. Electricity for lighting stores and offices now costs the average Gatesville user only 38 per cent of what it cost in 1928.

The decrease is graphically illustrated in the chart at left which shows how successive rate reductions in 10 short years have reduced the cost of service to the 75 KWH or average user to a small fraction of the 1928 charge for the same consumption. Savings resulting from increased use and operating economies have consistently been passed on to users in accordance with the forward looking policy of this company.

SEE HOW THE COST OF ELECTRICITY FOR COMMERCIAL LIGHTING HAS COME DOWN SINCE 1928

Monthly Consumption	50kwh	75kwh	100kwh	175kwh
Cost under 1928 rate	7.50	10.50	13.50	20.50
Cost under 1937 rate	4.25	6.00	7.75	11.50
Cost under New 1938 rate	3.00	4.00	5.00	8.00
Per cent 1938 of 1928	40%	38%	37%	39%
Per cent 1938 of 1937	70%	67%	64%	70%
Annual Savings 1938 Under 1937	15.00	24.00	33.00	42.00
Annual Saving 1938 Under 1928	54.00	78.00	102.00	150.00

LET CHEAP ELECTRICITY WORK FOR YOU

Under the new rates, electricity can do more work for you at less cost. Use cheaper electricity freely to attract business to your store and to save time and energy in your home.

We are pleased to announce this reduction, which will be reflected in service statements mailed on July 31st. It is the desire of this company to provide Gatesville electricity users with the lowest rates commensurate with good service so that the benefits of electric service may be enjoyed to the fullest extent and the advantages of cheap electricity to community growth may be fully realized. We pledge ourselves to a continuing policy of dependable service at low cost.

W. D. STOCKBURGER
HAS STATEMENT IN CO. SUPT. RACE

To the voters of Coryell County:
As the time for the election draws near I wish to express my most sincere thanks and appreciation for the opportunity of meeting as many of you personally as I have and presenting my candidacy to you for the office of County Superintendent. To those whom I have not met, please accept this as a personal solicitation for your vote and influence.

I am basing my candidacy strictly upon my own merits and qualifications. As a college graduate with my major subject in the field of education and a number of years of teaching experience in some of the best rural and small town schools of Coryell County and central Texas. I believe I can serve you efficiently if intrusted with this responsible position.

Again thanking you for all courtesies shown me, and asking for a careful consideration in the next election, I am

Yours respectfully,
W. D. STOCKBURGER.

IVY EDMONDSON HAS A FINAL WORD TO
TO THE VOTERS

To the people of Coryell County:
With the first primary just one week off I want to take this opportunity through the press to thank the people of Coryell County for the many courtesies that have been shown me and words of encouragement during this campaign.

As you know, I served you one term as Tax Assessor in 1933 and 1934. I promised the people a fair and economical administration as a servant of that office and I believe the people of this county will bear me out in saying that this pledge was carried out to the fullest extent.

In 1934 the office of Tax Assessor and Collector were combined. I entered the race in 1935 for the combined office. I was defeated, but not discouraged nor disgruntled, but went into other fields of labor, feeling proud of the nice vote that was given me. I lacked only about 250 votes receiving one-half of the votes cast in that primary.

Having full confidence in the people of this county and believing in the principles of old time Democracy of two terms in office, I have waited for four years to again enter the race for this office.

When I entered the race last January, it was not for the purpose to beat someone, for it is not my desire to harm or hurt anybody. But as a matter of fact, that I might have the honor of serving the people of this county more than one term in office, and the compensation I would receive for my service.

Thanking you in advance for every deed and act done in my behalf in this race, and promising you that same service of 1933 and 1934, a fair and economical administration to all of the people, and on July 23rd when you come to vote, if you cast your vote for me, you can say, "this vote will be appreciated."

Yours sincerely,
IVY EDMONDSON.

BUB BERRY HAS
FINAL STATEMENT FOR VOTERS, BEAT 1.

It has been my desire to see each voter but there are some I have failed to see, and this is YOUR personal solicitation of your vote for Commissioner, Beat 1. I have made this race on my own merits and qualifications, and not the demerits of my opponents. I have promised no jobs. If elected, I would therefore, be able to fill this office with equal patronage to all.

I am a "commoner". I think no man should think himself better than other people who honor him with office. I am a democrat in practice and principle, and would not ask for a third term.

My experience includes, 9 year with road and bridge construction companies. I finished 11 grades in school. I believe in being commissioner for the entire beat and would not take the money that was paid in to the road and bridge funds from Topsey and Harmon and apply them on roads at Levita, and visa-versa.

I was project superintendent on three different WPA road jobs in this beat and was foreman on two of these jobs also.

I hope my qualifications will meet with your approval, and if you can give me your vote July 23, for Commissioner of Beat 1, I will be deeply grateful. If elected, I will discharge the duties of that office in such a way that you will always be glad you gave me your support.

Yours truly,

GATESVILLE, TEXAS, TUESDAY JULY 19, 1938

stumpin' the state

BY BRACK CURRY

Have you, the individual voter taken time to study the past records, qualifications and platforms of the twelve candidates for governor of Texas? Do you know what each of the contestants promises to do in order to better the conditions in this State if elected is chief executive?

Have you thought how many of the promises made by the gubernatorial entrants may be typical political talks which will be forgotten after the stress of campaign days has passed? Or how many of these promises may be totally impractical of application?

If you have made a choice for governor, have you made it on the basis of calm deliberation and study of the promises, qualifications and past achievements of the candidates? Or do you favor some candidate because you dislike some other candidate, or because a particular candidate is your friend, or because of a candidate's brilliant personality or fluent speech, Do you believe personality can solve the problems of Texas?

In this issue of the News the writer will present in this column and in WORLD COMMENT the most prominent and active candidates for governor with a brief resume of the platforms, qualifications and past records of these candidates. The writer believes that these three criteria constitutes a proper and sane basis upon which the voter should make his choice in the July 23 primary election.

Four of the candidates are not conducting active campaigns and according to the best political observers of the State, stand no chance of entering the run-off primary. These four are Thomas Self of Crockett, Joseph King of Houston, S. T. Brogdon of Stephenville and Marvin P. McCoy. For these reasons, and for lack of space, these candidates will not be discussed.

Four of the remaining candidates will be discussed in this column. They are Karl A. Crowley of Ft. Worth, William McCraw of Dallas, Ernest O. Thompson of Amarillo and P. D. Renfro of Beaumont.

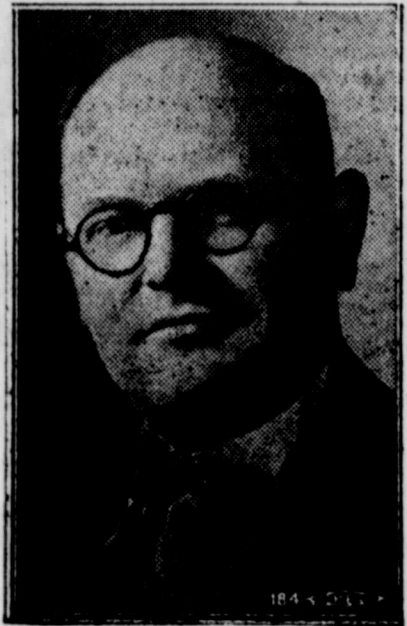

The other four candidates will receive space in WORLD COMMENT in this issue of the News. Turn to that column after reading this column. The candidates discussed in WORLD COMMENT in this issue of the News are James A. Ferguson of Belton, Clarence E. Farmer of Fort Worth, W. Lee O'Daniel of Fort Worth and Tom F. Hunter of Wichita Falls.

The names are listed in the order in which they will appear on the ballot in Coryell County.

Karl Crowley, 44, is a family man with a son 11 and a daughter 18. Born in the Tennessee hills he came to Texas 21 years ago. He has lived in Eastland and practiced law in Fort Worth from whence he move when appointed Solicitor General of the Post Office Department, April 15 1933.

He resigned his $9,000 a year post as legal head of the Post Office Department after an even must choose one course or the to Fort Worth, announced his candidacy and has since launched into an aggressive campaign that has earned for him the diverse description of being the 'fiery' and 'Snow White' candidate for governor.

KARL A. CROWLEY

Crowley states: 'The issues in this campaign are clear cut, positive an of vital importance to every man woman and child in Texas. There can be no compromise or middle ground. We must choose one course or the other—we must either continue drifting helplessly toward destruction or we must face the facts and fight our way back to prosperity, independence and governmental self respect.'

Crowley's platform includes the following provisions:

"I believe in the soundness of American government and that local affairs should be administered by local officials.

"Candidates should not campaign at public expense and the influence they are now attempting to exert is disgraceful.

"Pensions should be paid to the old people, teachers, and the blind and dependent children.

"Monopolies should be either controlled or driven out of business. Our independent business must be protected.

"Poll tax should be abolished as a condition for permitting our citizens to vote.

"Our farmers must be relieved from oppressive debt as well as taxes. Hard roads should be built to their homes that is now going to New York and London.

"A unicameral or one house legislative with three members from each congressional district will solve many of our present problems".

WILLIAM McCRAW

William McCraw is basing his campaign for the governorship upon his record of public service as district attorney of Dallas county and as Attorney General of Texas, and upon a sane program for bettering conditions in this State.

During his administration as Attorney General more than $6,000,000 has been brought into the public treasury from varied litigation. He has restored to the State the anti-trust law under which honest business may be protected from the viciousness of trusts and monopolies.

The Attorney General states his program in these words: "The people of Texas are confronted with the problem of obtaining the kind of leadership in the governor's office that will enable them to effect sufficient economies to permit the fulfillment of or social security program with the least possible disturbance to the business interests, both large and small, of Texas.

"My concern as governor will be largely in the interest of the average citizen. The small taxpayer, first of all, must have relief. The authority to recommend real economy—to stop waste—is written into our laws. Waste can be stopped. I will do it.

"I propose to ask the legislature to make the appointment of the auditor a legislative one. He will then be independent to audit my appointees and be responsible to those who make the appropriations rather than to those who spend them. From administrative activities we may confidently expect an annual saving of from $3,000,000 to $7,000,000. This will come from reduction of expenses and costs in all departments.

"Our savings and our increases in revenue should meet the bill for social security and start the State on the way to wiping out the deficit. There will be no increases in departmental activities except in the matter of the State Auditor. If additional revenues are needed—and I do not think they will be—I propose that they shall come from slightly increased levies on our natural resources and the pipe lines of Texas.

"Our savings and our increases in revenue should meet the bill for social security and start the State on the way to wiping out the deficit. There will be no increases in departmental activities except in the matter of the State Auditor. If additional revenues are needed—and I do not think they will be—I propose that they shall come from slightly increased levies on our natural resources and the pipe lines of Texas.

"The greatest challenge before us today" he said "is that of unemployment. As your governor I propose to meet this challenge through a program of attracting and encouraging legitimate industry, large and small, to come to Texas and develop to the end that we will have more jobs

WORLD COMMENT

BRACK CURRY

In this issue of the News, the writer is presenting a brief resume of the platforms, qualifications and past records of the 8 leading candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor of Texas.

For candidates receive space in this column They are James A. Ferguson of Belton, Clarence E. Farmer of Fort Worth, W. Lee O'Daniel of Fort Worth and Tom F. Hunter of Wichita Falls.

In the column STUMPIN' THE STATE of this issue, the four remaining candidates are discussed. They are Karl A. McCraw of Dallas, Ernest O. Thompson of Amarillo and P. D. Renfro of Beaumont. Turn to STUMPIN' THE STATE after reading this column.

James A. Ferguson of Belton, a cousin of the former Gov. James E. Ferguson, advocates as his main platform home ownership, economical administration of government with the abolishment of unnecessary boards and departments, consideration of labor payment of full pensions to those over 65 qualified to receive the aid, removal of insane from jails and other issues.

He stresses carrying out the constitutional provisions for the blind and helpless children favors a return to local self-government.

One of his planks is the raising of the truck load limit from 7000 to 14,000 pounds so the truck operators can make a living. He favors a reduction in taxes 25 per cent and the abolishment of the payment of poll taxes. He proposes a 10 per cent registering fee for the right to vote.

Ferguson says his heart is with the common people of the State, "the kind of people who respect the law of the land and who would not take any unfair advantage of anyone. Should I be elected governor I will make these political pirates and buccaneers who have robbed these people so many years obey our laws the same as the citizens in the ranks."

Clarence E. Farmer, serving his third term as a member of the Texas house of representatives from Fort Worth, proposes to amend the old age assistance law so that there will be economy and efficiency in its administration, "to the end that justice shall prevail, and that our aged citizens may have speedy action in their applications."

Farmer advocates a tax-free homestead of a value not ex that provisions be made by the State, in co-operation with the federal government, for homes for the homeless.

He declares that the poll tax is a prerequisite for voting should be abolished in order that each and every citizen over 21 will have a voice in government.

Farmer advocates economy in government and the abolishment of useless commissions, bureaus and positions. "I believe in no further centralization government at Austin. There is too much there now for the protection of the liberties of the people" he says.

As governor he would raise the truck load limit from 7,000 pounds, body load to 10,000 lbs. and 15,000 trailer load.

With no platform other than the Ten Commandments, W. Lee O'Daniel, Fort Worth flour merchant, is creating political history in his race for governor by basing his appeal for election on sound business principles, as practiced by legitimate industry.

From the Stump, O'Daniel, speaking to the biggest crowds ever to turn out to greet either a State or a national candidate in Texas refuses to bind himself to definite pledges, because he says no one knows what complications or circumstances may arise in the future. Nevertheless, he has a specific plan for effecting certain reforms in government and solutions of the States' governmental problems and definite issues which he advocates.

O'Daniel believes in a State tax revision which he says will relieve much of the excessive present burden from this source. "I favor a gigantic campaign to bring new industries to Texas," he declares. "If we had ten industries in place of each one we now have in the state, the reduce tax load would automatically reduce one tenth." He favors a big advertising campaign for Texas because, he says, Texas has vast natural resources and great potential possibilities that should be placed before the people of the world.

His campaign slogan, the Golden Rule, inevitably leads to a declaration for adequate pensions for the Texas people over 65 years of age. Here he is different from all other advocates in that he favors flat payment of the financial circumstances of the applicant.

O'Daniel strikes out on an entirely new phase of State government in his advocacy of a 'business cabinet'. He declares that if he is elected governor, he will devote a spacious room in the governors mansion as a board of directors room for meetings of leader of every representative business in the state.

The SPORT SCROLL

In the opinion of Mound manager Buddy Whigham, the addition of Sonny Hair to his infield will make his team more defeat proof than ever. Hair first broke into action against Pidcoke at the Ewing picnic game, and Whigham stated he looked better than any shortstop in the league. Hair is a very graceful fielder, can go to his right or left with equal ease, and in the bargain is a fine clutch hitter. At the plate, he is hard to fool, and when runs are needed and men on bases, that is when he is most liable to hit.

Although not old enough to vote Hair has been gallivanting over the diamonds of this county for the past five or six years, and has picked up plenty of valuable experience. He will do the Mound teams lots of good in these closing league games, and in the play off.

The event which diamond fans have been waiting for for three months is here. Tomorrow night in Katy Park, Waco, the colorful Grand Prize Brewers will meet the fine Seven-Up Bottlers of Austin in the curtain raising contest of the third annual State semi-pro tournament. A full bracket of sixteen of the strongest semi-pro teams in the southwest will be battling toe to toe for the coveted first place prize money, and fans will be treated to fast diamond action.

In the second game Wednesday the Temple Surgeons will meet an unknown Cushing team, while the Waco Dons, the pride of Central Texas, will square off with Hart's Furniture Co. of Dallas in the feature contest Thursday night.

The Mound team has finally been beaten. But it was not in the league game. Last Friday at Ewing those fighting Pidcoke Corkers rose up and slammed the Mound pitcher, a young kid picked up at Flat for seventeen

MANN TAKES FIGHT TO STUMP

JACKSONVILLE, Texas.—Climaxing the first day of a six weeks' speaking tour that will take him into every section of the state, Gerald C. Mann, Dallas attorney and candidate for attorney general, is shown above addressing night workers at one of Jacksonville's large shipping sheds where the East Texas tomato season is at its peak. Mann had thirty-eight speeches scheduled in east and southeast Texas for the first week of his tour. Here he pledged a finish fight on political racketeers and strict enforcement of the laws of Texas as attorney general.

hits and fourteen runs to give the Mound nine an artistic trimming. While conversing with Buddy Whigham, Mound manager, Saturday, the latter told ye scribe that the Mound team had become overconfident, and it had reached the point where they just loafed along during the early innings, and then in the late part of the game, say the sixth or seventh frames, the would come to life, score enough runs to give them selves a sure lead, and then slip back in their lackadaisical attitude.

In this writer's opinion, the Mound boys are going to have snap out of it if they expect to win the Sunday League playoff. Those Eagles from Jonesboro are after Mound's scalp, and if the latter team doesn't snap out of its lethargy, they are liable to wake up and find themselves in a tough hole.

The softball all star squad went to Lampasas Friday night and played a great brand of ball to run roughshod over the Lampasas ten, 17-1. Truman Blanton hurled his usual steady game, while his mates gave him great backing. The all star squad is composed of real softball stars and is feared thruout Central Texas. It is only natural that one of the outstanding teams of this section should come from Gates ville, for this is the hot bed of Central Texas softball.

The all powerful Coca-Cola team is leading the league by a wide margin, and it begins to look as if they are going to breeze right on thru their schedule. They have not yet had a really hard time defeating any of their opponents, and with Wilson in the box and such star slugers as Hair, Thornton, Wiegand, Lockhart and Ward socking the old apple high wide and handsome the Bottlers seem invincible. . . .

The surprise of the league has been the hustling little Arnold Electric team, who have already won two games, one more than critics said they would win all season. They won both these contests by staging sensational last inning rallies. The team is still expected to finish in the league cellar, although the Thomas and Ratliff Bridge gang may deprive them of enjoying that dubious honor.

The Firemen have been playing great ball since being upset by the CCC camp and last week turned in a sparkling three to one win over the Highway team. This contest saw Strongarm Blanton and the veteran Doc Ray hook up in a magnificent hurling duel, with Ray coming out on top Ray by the way, is playing the best ball in his five year career this season. He has hurled some great games, and in the bargain has slammed the old apple to the far corners of the lot. He is strictly a slugger, and when he connects he really gives the ball a ride.

The Highway team has the best catcher, the best pitcher and the best third sacker in the league. That is about all you can say for that outfit. Kirby, Blanton and Tackett have been the chief factors in the Highways three victories. With these three in top form, the Highway team will be up there battling for a place in the first division and a shot at the Saughnessy play-off.

The CCC club has been making great strides of improvement and will have to be reconed with in their last three outings they have shown that they will be hard to deal with.

The Merchants have had bad breaks all season. On paper they have one of the foremost teams in the league, but they have utterly failed to live up to expectations.

When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.

EDISON HOOSER HAS A STATEMENT FOR COUNTY VOTERS

My father, Alec Hooser was born in Perry county, Tennessee, May 21, 1846. His parents came to Upshur county in 1851, moved to Coryell county in 1857, when he was 11 years old. He served as a Texas Ranger here in 1864-65, on the frontier. He drove cattle from here to Kansas and Nebraska. In 1872 he married Pinkney Hawkins daughter of Bell county and lived in the Ewing community until his death in 1904.

Our family has lived in this community 66 years. There has never been anybody killed in this community since the county was settled.

We believe in law enforcement. I was born in 1881. Graduated at the Gatesville High School in 1901. The best people in the world live in Gatesville and Coryell county. I taught school a long time. I attended Baylor University, the University of Texas at Austin. Was admitted to the practice of law in the Supreme Court at Austin in January 1910. I have weekly read and digested the Southwestern Reporter which contains the decisions of all cases in the different county courts of Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee and Texas.

I served you as County Attorney in 1927-28. I solicit your vote and influence upon my record ask you for your vote. As I will not see you all, I invite you to take this letter as a personal solicitation for your vote. I promise, when not Providence hindered, to be on the job every day, and invite the cooperation of all the voters. My door will always be open for you, and I will impartially enforce the laws. I ask all my friends to help me.

I am not financially able to announce in the newspapers in Coryell county, because my money is as scarce as hen's teeth.

To those who do not see me, look on page 85, volume 15, Wharten's History of Texas, and you will see my picture.

Statement to the Voters Comes from Oad Painter

To the voters of Beat No. 4:

I am asking your support for a second term as your County Commissioner. Will say that we have worked hard to keep the roads open and passable at all times. During some six of eight months of continuous rainfall and some very damaging rains it has impossible to keep them all passable. However, we have done our best.

The finances of Beat 4 are in good condition and we will endeavor to keep them that way.

It has been impossible for me to find time to make a close canvass of the entire beat as we have been very busy. To those of you whom I do not see personally, please consider this a collection of your vote.

Thank each of you for favors shown me in the past and your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated in the Primary July 23rd.

C. C. (LUM) HUBBARD HAS STATEMENT FOR COUNTY VOTERS

In announcing for Commissioner, Beat 2, I wish to thank each and everyone for every word or act of kindness shown me.

And if elected I feel like that I could handle the County affairs just as I would my own, and protect the tax payers from wasting of the funds that might come into my hands, and at the same time build better roads and give the laborers that wanted work a better opportunity to help earn a living.

I feel that I understand the duties of a Commissioner, having served in that capacity in 1921-22. I did not ask for the office again at that time, as there were problems at home in rearing my family, and I felt it my duty to give that my time and attention. But at this time I could give the public my time, and would like an opportunity to serve as your commissioner.

I thank you one and all.

C. C. "Lum" Hubbard.

GEORGE STRICKLAND HAS STATEMENT IN BEAT 4 COM. RACE

To the voters of Beat 4 Coryell County:

On June 2nd I placed my name before you as candidate for Commissioner of Beat No. 4 consisting of Precinct one and Precinct Eight. It has been my aim to see every voter in this Beat personally, but to those I don't get to see due to the short time I had to canvass the Beat, I will ask you to consider me closely.

I am in favor of equal distribution of road and bridge funds in each precinct. Also think the same of distribution of all Government projects. I have had experience with present day road equipment and maintenance and operation of same.

I will say that I am not much of a believer in promises due to the fact it looks like you are taking advantage of the voter to make offers or promises what you will do if elected. So after close study and consideration in regards to the commissioners office from all viewpoints, I will appreciate very much your Vote and influence.

Yours respectively
George Strickland

Mollie Campaigns for Father

FENCE INCREASES THE FEED SUPPLY

It is easy to see an extra stack of hay in the barnyard, but many a potential extra stack escapes notice because it is scattered over the farm, in fence corners, along the branch, or grows up in crop fields after they are laid by. No farmer would let it burn or blow away if he could see it all in one pile he would reach for his shotgun if anyone threatened to take it away without paying for it. There is only one way to save such odds and ends of grain or forage, which is to let livestock do the harvesting. Whether it is crab grass in the cornfield, bermuda or native grass in unplowed nooks and crannies, it is meat, milk or wool in the raw.

A stock-tight fence around a single field so that it can be grazed may easily be worth more than an extra stack of hay in the barnyard. Not only is the feed worth more if grazed when green; not only is feed saved that can not otherwise be used; not only is the labor of harvesting avoided; the humus is left on the land in the manure; every day that the animals feed themselves is one less day of serving it to them on a pitchfork. The time it takes to build a fence will shorten the chores for many a year.

The division of the farm into 3 or 4 sections for systematic rotation of crops is the first essential of good farm management in designating "soil depleting" and soil conserving crops, leaving permanent pastures and the remainder of the cultivated land in a different category. But crop rotations cannot be fully utilized to the best advantage without livestock and poultry; livestock cannot be kept efficiently and economically unless they have access to each part of the farm whenever it supplied feed which they can harvest for themselves; and every field and pasture can be grazed only when it is properly fenced.

It would be highly desirable to fence the entire farm at once after carefully planning for convenience and permanency, but not every farmer can do this. Since we must set up a new rotation system, however, to receive the benefits of the national farm act, and good business judgement requires that we make the most of the rotation both in the interest of immediate income and of permanent productivity, we can begin by fencing at least one field a year until the entire farm is sub-divided.

A few years ago Jack Shelton added a farm flock of sheep to Luling Foundation Farm's productive capacity by the simple expedient of fencing in a creek which wound its way through the cultivated fields. Enough grass grew on its sloping banks and in the sharp bends to keep the sheep, and incidentally they kept down weeds which formerly served only to seed the near by plow land.

Not only the land is benefited by rotation and livestock grazing but livestock itself especially hogs, sheep and poultry, thrive better when they can be shifted from place to place. This calls for hog-tight wire and sheep proof fence which may either be full cattle-high woven wire or woven wire 25 to 35 inches high with barbed wire above. There is not much difference in the cost if the barbed wire must be bought new.

Before building permanent fences it is well worth while to sit down and plot the farm on paper. It is important that when the plan is completed every field will have access to water, and that they center as nearly as practicable to the homestead and barnyard in order to save time in cultural and harvesting operations.

Let's fence at least one field this year. Get that extra stack of hay.

AGRICULTURE EXPORTS

"A century ago agricultural products normally accounted for out of every five dollars worth of exports that the United States sent to foreign countries," states W. E. Morgan, economist of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service.

"Last year however, only one dollar's worth of agricultural products was exported for every 3 dollars worth of non-agricultural commodities.

"This situation did not come about over night, it is the kind of thing one would normally expect in a country that started out as a producer of raw materials and then developed into an important manufacturing nation."

The importance of agricultural products in or foreign trade has declined steadily for over half a century, Morgan explained. After the Civil war, American manufacturers began to export large amounts of their goods. This was possible because many of our industries are efficient enough to produce commodities cheaper than they can be made elsewhere in spite of the fact that the prices paid here for raw materials, such as steel and aluminum, are unduly high because this material is tariff protected.

"This increasing share of industrial products in the dollar value of our exports is important to American farmers because the total amount of money that foreigners are able to spend here is held down by mandates imposed by many foreign governments. The tariff policy of our own government has aggravated the situation. Declining exports make it doubly hard on farmers," Morgan pointed out.

"To put it another way, farmers have more reason than ever to push for an expansion of foreign trade."

TWO GATESVILLE GIRLS ON DEAN'S LIST AT TSCW

Denton, July 14—High academic standing has placed the names of two Coryell County girls, Misses Mary Ruth of Gatesville and Helen Hamilton of Jonesboro, on the dean's special Honor Roll at Texas State College for Women. Grades were based on work done during the second term of the 1937-38 school year.

Ranking scholastically with the upper fifteen percent of the TSCW student body, Miss Ruth was a sophomore majoring in vocational home economics and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Ruth. Miss Hamilton, a freshman studying history, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hamilton.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE:
Tom Sawyer, St. Petersburg, Missouri's most lovable bad boy is in real trouble. He and Huck Finn have witnessed the graveyard murder during a wart-curing expedition. When Muff Potter is arrested for the crime they dare not protest for fear of Injun Joe's vengeance. Tom's light o'love, Becky Thatcher, has deserted him too, shocked by his confidences about her predecessor. In desperation, Tom resolves to run away and persuades Huck Finn and Joe Harper to join him. They start out on their career as river pirates, sailing down the Mississippi on a raft of river logs with the determination never to return until they were old men and had made their fortunes.

Joe followed next. Tom lay upon his elbow motionless, for some time watching the others intently. At last he got up, tiptoed cautiously until out of hearing, then ran for the river. He waded into the shoal water, then struck out confidently to swim the remaining hundred yards to shore. He walked to the ferry, and hooked a ride across to town.

Back in St. Petersburg, Tom dashed through alleys and shortly found himself at his aunt's back fence. He climbed over, approached the ell and looked in at the sitting room window, for a light was burning there. There sat Aunt Polly, Sid, Mary and Joe Harper's mother, grouped together talking.

As Tom listened, he gradually formed a higher opinion of himself, and his boyish virtues. He learned also, that hope for himself and his companions had been lost when their raft had been found stranded five or six miles below the village, and a magnificent funeral service would be held in their memory the following Sunday.

Tom hurried back to the camp, and life there went on in happy, carefree fashion until Sunday, but there was no corresponding hilarity in St. Petersburg. The Harpers

Chapter Five

"Shove off, pirates bold"
It was Tom Sawyer speaking. He had aided in the "capture" of a small log raft, and, like Joe Harper, had raided the family larder. Huck had brought a few useful articles, and the raft was well loaded. About 2 o'clock in the morning, the raft grounded on the bar at the head of the island.

"Boys, I know who's drowned. It's us!"

Tom woke first the next dawn, stirred up the other pirates, and they all tumbled into the river for a swim. The raft had drifted away, but that was only a minor misfortune, as it had been unloaded the night before. They fished and swam all morning, and in the afternoon, drowned in the shade. They were awakened by a deep, sullen boom. They sprang to their feet, and hastened over to the Missouri side of the island, screening themselves in the bushes.

There drifted the ferry boat, about a mile below the village, and presently a great jet of white smoke arose from the boat's side, and as it expanded in a lazy cloud, that same dull throb of sound boomed again.

"I know now," exclaimed Tom, "somebody's drowned."
"That's it," said Huck, "last summer when Bill Turner got drowned they shot a cannon over the water to make him come up to the top."

Presently a revealing thought flashed thru Tom's mind, and he exclaimed: "Boys, I know who's drowned, it's us."
They felt like heroes in an instant. They were jubilant with vanity over their new grandeur and the illustrious trouble they were making.

But when the shadows of night closed in, the pirates bold grew silent. Gazing into the fire, Tom and Joe thought of their folks at home, sad, because their boys were lost. Only Huck, with more company than he was accustomed to, seemed at ease.

As the night deepened, Huck began to nod and presently to snore.

and Aunt Polly's family prepared for a season of mourning, with voluble grief, and many tears. The climax came Sunday morning.

None could remember when the little church had been so full. There was finally a waiting pause, an expected dumbness, and then Aunt Polly entered, followed by Sid and Mary. Then came the Harper family, all in deep black, and the whole congregation, the old minister as well, rose reverently and stood until the mourners were seated in the front row.

"Dear friends," said the minister, "we are gathered here to pay solemn and loving tribute to the memory of three fine and beautiful young boys, cut off in the fullness of life's morn."

"They have sailed away from life's tempestuous sea into the harbor of the best before the harsh chisel of experience could brush off the dew still clinging to the petals of their spirit."

The minister spoke on and on. He paused, blew his nose and let a tear slide down his face. Then his jaw dropped and hung wide open as he stared down the aisle.

First one and then another pair of eyes followed the minister's and then almost with one impulse the congregation rose and stared while the three dead boys came marching up the aisle, Tom in the lead, Joe next, and Huck, a ruin of drooping rags, sneaking sheepishly in the rear. They had been hidden in the unused gallery listening to their own funeral sermon!!

This had been Tom's great secret — the scheme to return home with his brother pirates to attend their own funerals.

L. A. WOODS for STATE SUPINTENDENT

Dr. L. A. Woods has been a friend to the schools of Texas thruout their most trying years, and with his experience and his understanding of their present needs, he is prepared to render an even more valuable service in the future. He has served in the past with credit and distinction, and by virtue of his long years of experience plus his academic training including a B. A. Degree, an M. A. Degree and an Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws from Baylor University, he is well qualified for the high office of State Superintendent.

Dr. Woods believes that the public free school system belongs to the people who support it; that it draws its support from the people; and that it should be administered for the benefit of all the people; therefore the election of the State Superintendent by direct vote of the people.

The highest percapita apportionment ever paid was made during Mr. Wood's administration. Through his program of equal educational opportunities, the gap between urban and rural schools has been narrowed. His program is being administered by well trained men on the field whose recommendations are base on the needs of the schools as they find them.

Mr. Woods should be re-elected on the basis of his service in the past, and on the merits of his progressive, definite, and worthwhile program for the future.

RE-ELECT C. E. ALVIS JR. AS YOUR COUNTY ATTORNEY

ALVIS IS THE MAN!

C. E. (Eugene) Alvis, Jr, is and has been in a Temple hospital and it is very probable he will not be in the county on July 23, Election day.

Mr. Alvis has made a very worthy official in the office of County Attorney and is now asking for his FIRST SECOND TERM.

He is an upstanding young man of the county, a member of the First Methodist Church of Gatesville, a member of the Gatesville Lions Club, and the Chamber of Commerce, and has figured prominently in every movement for the good of Coryell county and Gatesville. He is a graduate of The University of Texas, and is now serving his first elected term, having been appointed as county attorney, when Former County Judge Robert W. Brown resigned.

Democratically, C. E. Alvis, Jr. is entitled to RE-ELECTION AND A SECOND TERM.

LET'S RE-ELECT "GENE" ALVIS

(This advertisement paid for by a friend of C. E. Alvis Jr.)

H. J. LEONHARD HAS STATEMENT FOR VOTERS OF BEAT 2

It has been my privilege serving you as commissioner. This is my first term, I have filled out a portion under appointment.

I am very thankful for what you have done for me by giving me your support I have at all times tried to do what was right and fair, and honest with each one of you. It will be impossible for me to go from house to house and ask you for your vote and support as it keeps me very busy trying to do my duty which I am now trying to do as best as I know how.

If each of you would stop and think and check my record, and knowing in what condition the roads and machinery were in 1936 and compare them now, you must see the difference. We have one of the largest PWA projects in our beat at present. These projects cost a lot of money to appropriate and are not as easy to get as you think. It takes you and me to work one out. Some say it costs the county nothing to work PWA. They are wrong, it costs lots. But we must take care of our men and will do so.

My dear friends after you checked my record it is for you to say whether I stay or go. I know that I have tried to do what was right, and promise to do regardless. I have got one crew of men of each side of the Beat, ready to serve you. If I have done what is right, and I believe I have, then, I am asking you in a kind way to give me a second term. I promise you that I will be fair and square with you at all times. I am for Beat 2 and will do my best.

Yours truly,
H. J. Leonhard.

CHARLIE MOUNCE HAS A STATEMENT FOR THE COUNTY VOTERS

TO THE VOTERS OF CORYELL COUNTY, TEXAS:

In these closing days of my campaign for re-election to the office of County Clerk, I take this method of publicly expressing my appreciation of the many nice things that you have done for me in the past; and my thanks to you for the many courtesies which you have shown me in this campaign.

I have not made as close a personal campaign as I would like to have made; but that was due in part to the fact that I am not able to get around as rapidly as others and because of the fact, that in staying close to the office I have had the opportunity to repay in a small way, some of the favors which you have shown me in electing me your Clerk.

It has been my policy to keep an accurate and efficient record of all work in this office for the benefit of the public as well as the Commissioner's Court and other officials, and at all times I have tried to conduct the affairs of this office to the greatest advantage of the people of Coryell County.

I will greatly appreciate your vote in the coming election or any kind word that you can speak in behalf of my candidacy, and Hundreds of Texas citizens are taking a personal part in W. Lee O'Daniel's campaign for governor by contributing nickels, dimes and quarters toward his campaign expense. This pile of contributions which Mrs. O'Daniel, campaign manager for her husband, is pouring out to H. C. Southard, radio executive, will pay for one of O'Daniel's noon broadcasts in which he pledges a business administration for Texas. The coins are collected in little red barrels at O'Daniel's political rallies over the state.

A Canning Report
Mrs. A. A. Stoll, Mountain H-D Club member reports canning

533 cans and jars of pineapple, tomatoe juice, and corn within 10 days time.

She describes canning each. Of the Cream style corn she says, "The corn was brought in from the field, a small amount at a time and put under a big shade tree. The ears were made easier to shuck by cutting off both ends of them with an ax. The shucked corn was put into a clean tub of water and washed. Then the tips of the grains were cut off and the cobs scraped. This cut off and scrape off corn was put on the stove and heated to boiling and packed hot into cans which were sealed and processed at 15 lbs. pressure for 70 minutes. After the cans were taken out of the cooker they were plunged into a cold tub of water to hasten cooling. They were then dried off, labelled and stored."

One teaspoon of salt and 2 teaspoons sugar could have been added to each quart.

Mrs. Stoll adds that she enjoyed the work and that refreshment of lemonade, candy, angel food cake and jello lended a pleasant variety to it.

FEDERAL LOANS TO BE MADE TO PURCHASE FIVE FARMS HERE

Coryell county has been designated as one of the 56 in Texas where Federal loans will be made to tenant farmers for purchase of land, it was announced by Sloan Baker, county supervisor of the Farm Security Administration. Only five to ten loans will be made in the county, the supervisor or said.

Applications will be received at the Farm Security Administration office in Gatesville, Texas from August 10 to September 10. A committee of three farmers actually living upon the land will select those to receive loans and will appraise arms to be bought.

All tenants or farm laborers are eligible, if actually engaged in farming at this time, and if they are not able to obtain purchase loans on reasonable terms from other agencies.

Farms to be bought must be "family-size". Acreage will depend upon type of farming, nature of the land, and size of the family.

No down payment will be required, and payments will be extended over forty years with three percent interest. Annual installments on purchase price will in most cases be no more than the amount which has usually been paid as rent. Value of the land to be bought will be appraised strictly upon the basis of crops it has produced in the past.

HARRY FLENTGE'S RECORD

Two years ago the citizens of the 52nd Judicial District of Texas elected me to the office of District Attorney. In soliciting your vote for re-election, I think it proper to emphasize the fact that I seek a SECOND TERM. It has been a time honored democratic custom for many years to accord a second term to an officer who is seeking re-election. I make no extravagant claims concerning my record but do assert that I have represented the district in the prosecution of crime. According to the records and reports of the grand juries of some of the counties crime is on the decrease.

RECORD IN 1937

In the year 1937, my first year in office, I obtained 73 convictions through pleas of guilty and not guilty in the three counties. Only three persons were acquitted in Comanche County; two in Coryell County and none in Hamilton County. All cases that were appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeals at Austin, Texas during the year 1937 and disposed of, were affirmed.

In accordance with my promise of two years ago, I have prosecuted all cases without fear or favor and made no distinction between creed, color, wealth or poverty. The records will show that by following this principle, I have prosecuted parties for offenses that occurred in 1933 long before I was your District Attorney. The District Attorney's office is important and should be represented by some attorney who has attained some measure of success in the private practice of law and who is able to fearlessly prosecute crime without the aid of private prosecutors. Whether my record in the private practice of law and as your official will meet this requirement is for the voters of this district to decide.

COURT CONVENED JULY 11TH

Court convened in Coryell County in the 11th day of July and during the last two weeks of the campaign, I shall not neglect the duties of the District Attorney's office to electioneer. However, I feel that my friends in the District will not censure me for doing my duty and will not be changed by any last minute political talk.

INSTRUCTED VERDICTS

During the time that I have been your District Attorney there were two instructed verdicts. One where the testimony of an accomplice witness developed to be insufficient as a matter of law and the other was given when the witness completely changed the former testimony made before the County Attorney. These instructed verdicts were given on my motion but were given by the Court and were sanctioned and authorized by law.

I make no prior claims to the office and am very grateful to the people for the many courtesies shown me in the past. It is in this spirit and in the spirit of a time honored custom that I ask your support for a SECOND DEMOCRATIC TERM OF OFFICE.

Upon my record both as a citizen and an official, I submit to you my candidacy for re-election. My promise for the future is to fairly and impartially enforce the law without fear or favor.

Harry Flentge

Candidate for District Attorney, Second Term.

WORLD COMMENT—

would veto any appropriations that does not show a saving in the operation of the state government to help effect an annual saving of $15,000,000 or more exclusive of old age assistance, teachers' retirement benefits and benefits for the blind and for dependent children, as provided by the constitution.
"I would abolish the State Liquor Control Board and the State Pension Board at an annual saving to the State of more than $2,000,000. Except for self supporting boards (not affecting a tax on citizens) we should place all State tax collections in one office, co-ordinate control in auditing and budgeting the expenditures of all State departments.
"Old age assistance is constitutional mandate and must be paid. Many should be added to the rolls and many of the rolls should have their payments increased.
"With legislative co-operative the savings in cost of government operations would pay pensions. Whatever additional revenue is necessary, if any, to meet old age assistance demands I would seek to raise by a tax on luxuries.
"As your governor, I pledge myself to give Texas a business administration that will keep expenditures well within the income of the state".
The Corpus Christi Daily Chronical endorsed Hunter in these words:
"It is refreshing to have a successful business man of Hunter's calibre come forward with a document of public expression that is stripped of vaguely couched phrases and so carved in lucidity as to give to a public that is weary of political bilge a platform so souled with brevity that the voters can see eye to eye with Tom Hunter.
NOTE: Clarence R. Miller, Dallas textile manufacturer, withdrew from the gubernatorial race last week and announced he would support the candidacy of Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson. Although Miller's name may appear on your ballot, he is not a candidate.

STUMPIN' THE STATE—
for our people and more markets for our products.
"Prosperity of working people and of our farmers goes hand in hand. The welfare of all Texas' people in inseparably bound up together.
The former mayor of Amarillo and present member of the railroad commission pledges to the needy aged that he will seek helpful revision of the old age assistance law. He would repeal that portion of the law which says the applicant's opportunity to obtain support from other sources must be considered.
Thompson attacks unfair chain store competition and lashes chain store combines which attempt to control the prices of Texas farm products.

We can and must economize in or State Government", Thompson declares. "There are many places in the operation of our State government where unnecessary expenses can be cut out and where wasteful extravagance can be eliminated".

P. D. RENFRO

P. D. (Pete) Renfro is offering to the people of Texas a business administration, economy in government and no extra taxes. What Texas needs, he says, is less politics and more business principles in the operation of government, and thereby less taxes and more money in the treasury.
This can be done, he maintains, and as evidence he offers his record as Mayor of Beaumont from 1934 to 1938. When Renfro went out of office tax valuations in Beaumont were the lowest in 10 years; the tax rate was cut 10 cents on the $100 valuation; the city was out of debt and on a cash basis for the first time in history; he left $93,212.34 in the treasury. This record was accomplished by strict economy and sound business methods, Renfro states.
He favors as large pensions as fair taxation with economy in collection and distribution will pay to the old folks.
"I believe in the enforcement of our laws", he says.
"There is greater need for amending, repealing and clarifying our laws and making them more livable than there is need for amending, repealing and for more laws.

"The taxpayers of Texas should demand legislation to control public spending. We need:

1. An effective state budget law.
 2. Tax collection by one department of the state government.
- Abolition of more than 100 special funds and placing of public moneys in the State Treasury to be paid out only by legislative appropriations.

The State Auditor should be named by the legislature and be responsible to that body".
