GATESVILLE HIGH SCHOOL OPENS SESSION: GENERAL ASSEMBLY SAT

Saturday morning South 10th and all the streets leading toward "College Hill" will be covered with Johnnies and Marys, starting toward the first General Assembly of the 1938-39 school session of Gatesville High School. School opens Monday! Saturday morning, the Band will be on hand in their uniforms and will play a short concert as a part of the program. Books will be issued, after the short opening, and short classes will be held, and assignments will be made for the real beginning Monday. Teachers will have a meeting Friday, today, getting ready for the influx of students on the following day. Teachers for this year's work include Charles B. Breedlove, Jr.,

Sally Coryn Britain, Lois Coleman, Rebekah Wilcox, C. A. Barton, Elizabeth Bigham, Chloe Youngue, are the new ones, who will probably be introduced at the assembly. Others who are already known are: Supt. Ercell W. Brooks, Earle Worley, D. W. Diserens, Ernestine Durham, Linnie Fore, Mamie Sue Halbrook, W. E. Laster, Mrs. John Milner, Mrs. John Reesing, Fred G. Schwarz, Lois Scott, E. D. Shelton, Louise Hall, Edna Murray, Sidney Pruitt, L. D. Young, Maude Alyce Painter, Wilhelmina Cayce, Janice Duerer, Lois Grantham, Bess Holmes, Lizzie Lockhard, Helen Odom, Aurora Youngue and Mrs. L. D. Young. In the colored school are T. T. Jermany and Mrs. T. T. Jermany.

FIREMEN GET THREE CALLS ALL GRASS IN WEEK

Gatesville firemen failed to get much work done Tuesday when the siren rang three times. The first call was answered Tuesday morning when Rev. Vinsant's grass caught fire for the second time in one week. At 6:00 o'clock the firemen had their regular practice call. Several lots, including Cliff Rankin's and Andrew Kendrick's were burned by firemen who were at practice that afternoon. About eight o'clock Tuesday night when the firemen were attending a meeting, another call was answered. Mrs. R. H. Youngue garage caught fire, but by the time the firemen arrived the fire was out.

Once more let us warn you about going to fires, and getting in the way of the fire truck. It was whispered that next time this happened, Chief of Police Frank Farquhar is going to issue little red tickets, so don't say we didn't warn you!

SCOUTS REPORT DANDY TIME ON SCOUT HIKE

Although they are already back a card from Scoutmaster J. M. Witcher is to the effect that the scouts really had a dandy time. Here it is: Marble Falls, Texas, September 4, 7:00 a. m. The scouts have visited Lampasas, Burnett, San Gabriel, Cedar Park, Austin, San Antonio, Marble Falls and Granite Mountain. Not a boy has missed a meal yet, we eat and sleep regularly. We see much in daytime and enjoy the water, but we sleep when night comes.

Yours truly,
J. M. Witcher

TWO NEW BUSINESSES ARE HERE: BOWLING ALLEY AND CAFE

Already open is the Geme Cafe on the west side of the square now operated by Mrs. R. R. Harrison. Mr. Harrison will devote his time to insurance, as he has in the past.

Down on "automobile row" something else will be "rolling" soon. That'll be balls, bowling balls, since Meek's Bowling Alley is being installed in the building next to the new Gatesville Auto Supply As to its opening date, we have not yet been advised, but it looks as if they will be ready soon.

W. T. (DUB) HAILEY IS TAKEN IN FT. WORTH ON FEDERAL CHARGE

W. T. (Dub) Hailey alleged bold bandit, who was one of those in the Perry Hale Grocery and Coca-Cola Bottling Company burglary some time ago was arrested recently in Fort Worth by a city detective and is held there, charged with robbing a post office by the Federal officers.

Hailey, it is reported, stated he was wanted in at least 25 counties on different charges. It was also he was leading a Pekinese dog on a Fort Worth lawn, when arrested. The sissy!

SLATER IS ANOTHER SCHOOL TO BEGIN 12TH

According to our Slater informer that school will begin their work September 12th. The faculty will be the same this year, with O. L. Turner, Principal, Mrs. O. L. Turner and Mrs. J. W. Scott assistant teachers.

Slater is among the standardized schools of the county. The building is a well equipped rock structure containing three class rooms and a large auditorium.

GOVERNMENT COTTON ESTIMATE IS 11,825,000 BALES, SEPT. 8

Yesterday, the agriculture department estimated the 1938 cotton crop at 11,825,000 bales, a decrease of 163,000 from the August forecast of 11,988,000 bales.

The condition of the crop on September 1 was reported as 65 per cent normal. Acreage left for harvest on that date was 26,499,000. Average per acre estimate was 214.1 lbs. of lint cotton, the largest on record except 1937.

3,200,000 in Texas

Estimated production in Texas was set at 3,200,000 bales, Mississippi, 1,543,000; Arkansas, 1,275,000; and Alabama, 1,025,000.

So far, no reports of Coryell county production or ginnings have been received.

MORRIS FEDERATION HAS 25th ANNIVERSARY MEETING

The members of the Morris Federation reassembled in the home of Mrs. W. C. Guggolz, the president, Saturday afternoon of September 3rd. Response was made to roll call with vacation dividends. Greetings were given by the officers: President, Mrs. W. C. Guggolz; vice-president, Mrs. Ercell Brooks; secretary, Mrs. H. T. Chapman; treasurer, Miss Miriam Raby; parliamentarian, Miss Edna Murray; and reporter, Miss Maude Alice Painter. Mrs. J. O. Brown, chairman of the program committee, presented the club with the 1938-39 Year Books on Diversified Subjects: Widening Horizons, Music, The Psychology of Personality and Character, The Drama, The Old South Lives Again, Review of a Book Reflecting the Trend of American Life, and Art. The president commended the work of Mrs. J. O. Brown and her committee: Mrs. M. W. Lowrey, Mrs. C. E. Alvis, Jr., and Mrs. Ercell Brooks; assisted by the supervisors: Miss Orpa Mayo, Mrs. John Milner and Mrs. C. E. Alvis, Sr. Recognition was given to Mrs. Elworth Lowrey, Miss Willie Claxton, and Mrs. Edward F. yless, new members.

Following the reading of the constitution, the president called attention to the Club's Silver Anniversary, a time for retrospect as well as for appraisal. With the aid of Mrs. M. W. Lowrey, a charter member, and of other members of many years' standing, the women turned through the leaves of twenty-five years' Morris Federation work.

The first Silver Anniversary meeting was climaxed with a social hour in which the birthday cake with its stately silver candle was cut and served with punch to those present. The table appointments were in crystal and silver.

Information has been received that Rev. Roy Clayton will conduct preaching services Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at the Priscilla Club House, west of Gatesville.

The general public is cordially invited.

Visitors in the Jack Bankhead home Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Travis Masters and son of Waco; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bates and family of Oglesby, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Adams of Turnersville, Mrs. Earl Adams and son also of Turnersville; Mr. and Mrs. Louie Clemmons and daughter of Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Fisk and son of McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Meriott and daughter of Osage, Elbert Bankhead and wife, Otis Bankhead and children all of Gatesville.

SPECIAL FEATURIST HAS GATESVILLE STORY IN TEMP-TELE

Harry Blanding Telegram Staff Writer of the Temple Daily Telegram, in a recent edition, gave the city-county quite a nice "blow" with a 2-line three column head. He was here recently with another member of the Telegram staff Bill Durham of the Farm Department.

He goes on to say: "Downtown Gatesville, even on a week day, is humming with activity. People on the street don't drag along—they walk briskly, as if they were going somewhere."

In addition, he reviewed recent improvement, stressing the city has the civic advantages of one of 20,000 souls, whereas the population is only 3,000 or about it.

THE TEXAS PRISON ECHO COMMEDABLE PAPER OF HUNTSVILLE

"The Texas Prison Echo" publication of the prisoners at the Texas State Prison at Huntsville was given us by Sheriff Joe White and is a very commendable publication, published in tabloid form.

The feature of this paper is columnists from the different prison farms, and the utter lack of advertisement. Also they play up considerably, the Greater Eighth Annual Prison Rodeo, October 2, 9, 16, and 23 at the Prison Stadium, which feature the stock used in the June Gatesville Rodeo and Frontier Celebration.

GREEN AND BROWN "TEA"

We like tea, and are not Englishmen!
We like to buy OUR tea from Tax Paying Grocermen!
We see two "Tea Wagons" (not the parlor kind) in Gatesville pretty regular that are signed "Blank Tea Co" That's a blind.

These men, representing their companies, call on house wives here, and sell groceries, giving premiums on certain items, and compete with local Tax Paying Merchants. Mayor C. E. Gandy says a yearly tax of $25.00 can be assessed on these "tea wagons" which won't near add up to the tax ANY local grocerman is paying.

Not only, people who are not in business here, but we have also seen these tea wagons stopped at MERCHANTS homes.

Is this justice to your HOME TAX-PAYING GROCERY MERCHANT!

We think that you, with us, will think not!

WINDOW SHADES

These items are designed to cover the human anatomy when not otherwise covered!

Near here, about 7 in the evening is, for all practical purposes, a nudist colony. No Shades!

However, with all their cleanliness, there is no secrecy.

Time after time, we have passed, for no particular reason, except joy riding, and have seen, well—too much.

We appreciate the cleanliness which is self evident, and, the other wouldn't bother, if we were alone. However, we're usually not! Green paint, or any other shade could be substituted for the shades.

SHOP THE STORES

This is Fall! New Merchandise is arriving daily at all stores, not only drygoods, but others.

Now! Your money is your money to spend where you please. Of course!

Shop the stores! At times, we've known of Gatesville ladies who have ankled up and down certain "main stems" (not here), and tried on every dress, shoe, hat and what not.

Now, again. If you must go elsewhere, you've got less anking to do right here in Gatesville, than elsewhere, and, since Gatesville Merchants have practically the same as in any other trade center, well you'll at least save gas.

These are the merchants that pay school, street and what-not taxes. They're your friends, and if they don't have it, they'll be glad to order it for you. Give them your FIRST consideration. Then, if they cannot fit you, they'll be glad to have you go elsewhere. Read the advertisements in the News. Practically every nationally known and advertised product is sold right here in Gatesville!

SOCIETY

Mrs. Peyton Morgan Hostess to Club

Wednesday afternoon the pleasant home of Mrs. Peyton Morgan was the scene of the regular meeting of the Wednesday Contract Club.

The Club high score prize was awarded to Mrs. Clark Jensen and second high to Mrs. Jim Brown. Following the presentation of awards, Mrs. Morgan served a delicious salad plate.

The guest personnel included the following members: Mesdames Kermit Jones, Dean Jones, Elmo White, Johnnie Washburn, Bill Thomson, Floyd Zeigler, Charles Powell, E. W. Jones, Jr., Clark Jensen, Jim Brown, and Miss Dorothy Culberson.

Mrs. Jack Wollard and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson called during the afternoon.

B. & P. Women Open Year With Business Meeting.

Last Tuesday afternoon in the Raby Park the popular organization composed of local business and professional women, headed by Miss Sydney Gale Gibson, as president, resumed their semi-monthly meetings, and opened the new year with a business meeting. The hour was composed of a general discussion concerning the years program, which has its national topic this year, "My Business and Yours," with the first subject, being "My Job and Yours," which will be used for the following business meeting.

Various committees and their chairmen were appointed as follows: Education, Mrs. Lucille Brown; Finance, Louise Hall; Health, Anne Hill, Legislation, Mamie Sue Halbrook; International Relations, Ernestine Durham; Membership, Lou Witt; Program Co-ordination, Maude Alyce Painter; Public Affairs, Aurora Yongue; Publication, Truie Pearl McGilvray; and Publicity, Panice Duerer.

Those attending Tuesday were: Minnie Lou Witt, Anne Hill, Maude Alyce Painter, Louise Hall, Mrs. Pearl White, and Sydney G. Gibson.

Wedding Ceremony Performed For Westerfield-Mueller.

Miss Gladys June Westerfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Westerfield, became the bride of Ervin C. Mueller of Coryell City, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Mueller of Prairie Chapel, last Thursday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the Lutheran Church at Coryell City in a simple ring ceremony, performed by the Rev. Koerner.

Nuptial music was furnished by the bride's sister, Miss Louise Westerfield.

The bride wore a lovely navy blue with the blue accessories. For the traditional "Something Old" she wore a locket belonging to the groom's mother.

The couple left immediately following the ceremony for a short wedding trip to South Texas.

Mrs. Joyce Touchstone Honored on Birthday

On Sunday evening, a group gathered in the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. Z. Touchstone of the Buster community and motored to Coryell Creek where a delicious supper was spread and served picnic style. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Touchstone's birthday.

W. D. STOCKBURGER HAS THANKS FOR VOTERS OF COUNTY.

To the Citizens of Coryell Co:
 I wish to extend to you my most sincere thanks and appreciation for the splendid vote given me on August 27 for the office of County School Superintendent. I shall always be grateful to you and ever mindful of the duties of the office. If I can be of any service to you, don't fail to call on me. Again, thanking you, I am,

Yours respectfully,
 W. D. STOCKBURGER.
 (Political Adv.-74-1tc.)

SO YOU'D LIKE TO BE IN PRIMO CARNERA'S SHOES?

If you've had this wish, to be in Primo Carnera's shoes, even that can be done in Gatesville! There are other things that can be done in Gatesville and Coryell county—if you'll just look around. Anyway, to go on with the story, down at Painter's they have a pair of Florsheim Shoes "constructed", for Primo Carnera, Da Big Wop from Mussoliniland. You can try them on, and don't even have to pull off your shoes. They're so long!

On the other side they've also got a midget pair, which would really make your "dogs bark" if you squeezed those no. 7's in these. They show these to the ladies; the large ones to the men. It is estimated 10 hides are in the large ones, more or less.

CARD OF THANKS

To all who are concerned, we hope each of you who rendered us assistance during my long illness, will accept this as our personal thanks for all you did for us.

May God's richest blessings be a comfort to you. Thanks agin.

COCA-COLA BOTTLERS CITY SOFTBALL CHAMPIONS

Those steady Coca-Cola Bottlers, after finishing three games on top in the regular softball schedule, swept through the league's Saughnessy playoff with the loss of only one game to become official champions and cop the News trophy. Woody Wilson, the Bottler's one-man pitching staff who hurled every one of the regular league games, including one no-hitter during the early part of the season, hurled four of the five play-off games, Joe Ricketts hurling during the second engagement with the Firemen.

The Bottlers lost their initial play-off encounter with the smoke eaters 9-8, but came back to whip them twice, 14-4 and 10-3, to advance into the finals with the Highway.

In their first engagement with the Engineers, who defeated the Merchants, who finished the regular season in a deadlock with the Firemen for third place, the Bottlers edged out, 7-5, with early inning scoring splurges accounting for most of their tallies. Then in the final game of the year, the Bottlers took the Highway, 9-2.

MANAGER'S OFFICIAL ALL-STAR SOFTBALL TEAM

At a recent meeting of the Team Managers of the City Soft Ball League, named their choice of the All-Star aggregation from all the players of the teams. Hazen Ward, short fielder of the Coca-Cola team, the champions, was the only one named unanimously. Tabulations in the outfield were so close that the Managers were unable to select a utility outfielder because there were seven players who tied in votes cast for the fourth place.

Anyway, here's the favored ones:

Place	Player	Team
Catcher	Olsen	Arnold
Pitcher	Blanton	Highway
Pitcher	Holt	Merchants
1st Base	Thornton	Coca-Cola
2nd Base	Morgan	Firemen
3rd Base	Tackett	Highway
Short Stop	Hair	Coca-Cola
Left F	Ward	Coca-Cola
Center F	Wallace	CCC
Right F	Bowman	Merchants
Right F	Ray	Firemen
Short F	Barton	Coca-Cola
Utility	Newton	Merchants

This is as handed to us, and since some of these players are not in their regular playing positions, they are placed as above on their batting ability.

OGLESBY SCHOOL NAME FRIDAY FOR OPENING DATE

The Oglesby school will open the new term with a general assembly of all pupils in the gymnasium Monday morning, September 12th at 9:00 o'clock. At this time there will be a brief opening exercise preceding the registration and classification of pupils and their assignment to their respective rooms. Regular class work will begin the following day.

As a whole the bus routes will be the same as last year. The only changes effective Monday will be, Pupils living on the road south of Oglesby via. Fred Walter's to W. T. Bannister gate will ride Bus No. 1 which makes the river route an board this bus on its southward trip as it leaves town. Eagle Springs route will service its pupils in the Davis Ranch territory on its outward trip, otherwise remaining the same as last year except that it will service those living on the road from J. R. Feggett's via Alexander's to town on its return trip. Buses will leave Oglesby at seven o'clock Monday morning in order that more time may be allowed pupils in reaching the buses during their first operations of the year.

PLANS FOR IRELAND SCHOOL OPENING MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 12

An orchestra composed of Paul Russell, Jenus and Claud Hampton and Vernon Maxwell will play for the school opening. Mrs. Floyd Edwards, the music teacher, a graduate of S. M. U. School of Music will sing a solo. Other interesting features have been arranged for the opening exercises.

The new members of the Ireland faculty are: Thurman Smith, former principal of the Aleman School; Mrs. R. C. Riggin, former Home Economics teacher at Era High School, Kaufman County and H. C. Sivells, former head of the Science Department at Bowie High School and Sweetwater High School. Other members of the faculty are: S. V. Dickenson, superintendent; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stiles and Miss Ora Mae Ellis.

PLANS FOR IRELAND SCHOOL OPENING, MONDAY, SEPT. 12.

The Ireland High School has eighteen units of affiliations. Application for a unit in bookkeeping will be made this year. With a new building a faculty composed of experienced degree teachers, and a good system of transportation the Ireland School should have the best year in its history.

All students are urged to register the first day. School will dismiss at noon Monday.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR SCHOOLS FROM COUNTY SUP'T.

Teachers' contracts should be filed in the office at once.

Transcripts of each teachers College credits and years of experience must be filed with the County Superintendent before contracts are approved. It is impossible to fill out correctly State Aid Applications without the above information.

Please help arrange the salary schedule by complying with the above request at once.

State aid applications are in the County Superintendent's office. The law requires that these be filled out at once and that they must be filed with the state department, October 1.

SLATER SCHOOL OPENS 26TH: TRUSTEES CHANGE DATE

Trustees of the Slater school have changed the date of their opening until September 26, according to O. L. Turner, principal who gave us this information Wednesday.

Slater, a standardized school, is equal to any affiliated school up to and including the 8th grade and this year, will apply for 9th grade standardization, according to Mr. Turner.

Faculty for this session also includes Mrs. O. L. Turner and Mrs. J. W. Scott.

TIRES FOR EVERY SERVICE

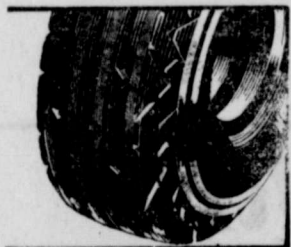

The extra mileage that Mansfield Tire users have received during the past twenty-five years has been responsible for the fact that the Company has grown steadily until it is now one of the six largest producers in the tire industry. Mansfield distributors dot the continent from coast to coast.

Mansfield Mudders

Designed and built to do just what their name implies — take you through the mud, slush, snow on any type of road, on their wide angled, heavy cleated treads.

Mansfield Cushion Balloons

Today's cars — built for small diameter wheels and low air-pressures — need special tires for high speed service. Mansfield Cushion Balloons bring out all the sparkling performance built into modern cars.

● There's a Mansfield Tire built to give extra mileage and extra safety on any make car or truck you drive — on any kind of work, in any season of the year, over all kinds of roads. That's the reason we are stocking them, yes, and selling them to your friends and neighbors who already have had the opportunity to see the extra safety, economy and performance of Mansfield Tires.

THREE WAYS SAFER

Mansfield Tires are three ways safer because they are built three ways differently from other tires. For instance, Cord-Lock construction puts 31% more full weight cord fabric into the sidewalls, reinforcing the tire against flexing strains. The high tensile, steel piano wire beads are seven times as strong as actually needed. Mansfield treads are made of tougher Duro-mix rubber, today still more resistant to high speed wear and pavement "burn" from fast starts and quick stops. Every Mansfield Tire gives you more mileage than you pay for.

Aubrey (Spud) Walker

... MANSFIELD Tires EXTRA MILEAGE

Miss Waldine Wharton, a National Bank of Gatesville employee, has been confined to her home this week with tonsillitis.

Miss Louise Sadler has returned to Waco to resume her work as teacher in the Waco public school system. Miss Estelle Sadler has gone to Taylor where she is an instructor in the Taylor school. The Misses Sadlers are daughters of Mrs. Harvey Sadler of this city.

A distinguished visitor in this county is R. M. Grubb of Hamlin, who is a guest of his mother and other relatives in Ireland. Mr. Grubb called in the News office one day this week, and was an interested visitor in the mechanical part of the office. He formerly lived in Coryell County, and stated that this is his first visit here in 20 years.

ORANGE BOWL GAME . . .

This is the first of a series of six outstanding diagram plays by leading college coaches from Grantland Rice's new Cities Service Football Guide.

NO Southern team had made a score in the Orange Bowl in the four years the New Year's Day game had been played. Our squad felt that they had to beat the jinks as well as the powerful Michigan State team, led by Johnny Pringel, fast and hard hitting halfback. Auburn went into the game with the odds against them. Michigan outweighed Auburn ten pounds to the man. From the snap of the first ball our team played heads up football. Our line charged hard and refused to give ground when on the defensive. Fenton and Kelly lead the attack and before the first quarter was over we had the ball on Michigan State's twelve yard line. This deep penetration of the opponent's territory, with the ability to stop Pringel, seemed to be the turning point of the game.

Late in the second quarter we were deep in Michigan State's territory where we sustained a penalty which placed us on the Michigan 30 yard line. Kenmore received the ball and dropped back and threw a pass to O'Gwynne, who carried it to the two yard line before he was brought down.

After two unsuccessful attempts to cross the Michigan goal line the play diagrammed above was called. It is an End Run from Notre Dame T Formation, which usually precedes the shift into the Notre Dame Box. The defensive set-up is the normal strong defensive arrangement against this formation.

The play is an end run from the T Formation and is optional, either inside or outside the defensive end. Like every other good play the success of this one will depend largely upon the effect other plays, immediately preceding it, have made upon the defense. It has the maximum interference ahead of the ball carrier; it develops fast and tends to catch the defense off balance.

Quick opening plays from the same formation, or plays after the shift into the Notre Dame formation, usually precede this play to get the best effect. It is a good weapon inside the ten-yard line of an opponent.

Auburn used the play on the Michigan State two-yard line on third down for a score. Quick opening plays had been used with our full-back Sitz taking the ball inside tackle on the first and second down. Marion Walker, our quarterback, called on little Ralph O'Gwynne, right halfback, and he carried the ball over for the only score of the Orange Bowl game at Miami.

Auburn piled up 12 first downs to Michigan State's 2, made 197 yards to 40 on the ground and 81 to 25 through the air.

World Comment—

the trend toward centralization of power in Washington can never be reversed and that if the trend continues under which states and cities sacrifice their powers and rights for federal handouts, the local governmental divisions will become mere satraps controlled by the new deal commissars at Washington.

The American people fear that the new deal administration intends to render the opposition impotent and the legislative branch of government innocuous thru centralization of power in the hands of the executive, "purging" the party of those God-fearing statesmen who dare oppose the executive and thru the buying of votes with tax payer's funds.

The American people will continue to fear personalities and the economic future so long as the Roosevelt administration injects into our economic and social system those policies which breed fear.

THE VIRGINIA JUDGE

NOVELIZATION OF THE PARAMOUNT PICTURE OF THE SAME NAME

SYNOPSIS
 Judge Calhoun Davis of the circuit court in the sleepy little town of Tidewater, Virginia is hated by his stepson, Jim. Jim is in love with Mary Lee, the girl next door who prefers Bob Stuart. Jim borrows a neighbor's car and wrecks it in order to pay the garage bill and to avoid arrest. He takes a shotgun which he found on the rear seat of the car and sells it to Bob. Bob finds out from Mary that the gun did not belong to Jim. Mary refuses to go to a carnival with Jim that night, preferring Bob's company. Seeing Jim alone at the carnival, the Judge tells him about it. Jim flies into a rage.

CHAPTER VII

As Plato and the Judge wandered along the midway, the hoarse voice of a barker caused them to halt in front of the hula hula concession where three attractive girls in grass skirts were giving a few undulating movements as samples of what went on inside the tent.

 "They sway like the palm trees in the breeze, ladies and gentlemen," shouted the barker. "Step a little closer."
 "Quit lookin', Cal. You're a married man," grinned Plato.
 "I can still see, can't I," answered his friend as he pointed to one of the girls. "I think I'll take that middle one home to Martha."
 "Want me to lead you out of temptation?"
 "No." The Judge took Plato's arm and turned to the ticket seller. "Gimme two tickets."
 In the meantime Jim, having found nothing better to do, was trying to regain his self-respect by showing his prowess at the shooting gallery. Soon a curious crowd collected as he knocked over target after target.
 "Say, you're some shot, young feller," said the concessionaire.
 "Load it up again," answered Jim with a curt nod.
 As he waited he looked down the midway and his face clouded. Not ten feet away Bob and Mary Lee, loaded with prizes, were listening to the Fortune Teller, a swarthy woman attired in a gypsy costume.

 "I'm going to have my fortune told," the girl exclaimed.
 "Sure. Come on," answered Bob. The gypsy pulled aside the tent flap and Mary Lee went in. Bob started to follow, but the fortune teller held up her hand.
 "One at a time, please," she said. "My readings are private."
 An idea came to Bob. He laid a restraining hand on the Gypsy's arm, placed his fingers to his lips and in pantomime indicated that he was in love with Mary Lee and for the Fortune Teller to say that the girl and Bob are meant for each other. Then he handed over a small coin and stood idly watching the crowd as the tent flap closed.

 As the result of witnessing this incident, Jim lost all of his poise, and missed the bull's eye repeatedly.
 "What's the matter, young feller... eyes gone bad?" puzzled the concessionaire as he saw the crowd drifting away.
 "Guess so," grunted his customer. He started to fire again, then laid down the rifle as he saw Bob coming toward him.
 "Jim," said the latter sharply, "I want to talk to you."
 "I'm busy," Jim started to pick up the gun again, but Bob placed a hand on it. "What's the idea?"
 "I want you to hear what I've got to say."
 "I'm not interested."
 "Oh, yes, you are," Bob stepped closer to him. "That was a pretty dirty trick, stealing that shotgun and selling it to me."
 "Why... I... I..." Jim sparred for time.
 "It won't do you any good to lie about it. I found out the gun belongs to Old Man Higgins."
 "Who told you?"
 "This afternoon Mary Lee..." Bob began, then stopped as he realized that he was betraying a confidence.

 "Oh, Mary Lee!" This was the last straw for Jim. "That little two timing..."
 "Keep her name out of it," snapped Bob.
 But there was no stopping Jim's pent-up venom. "Why, that dirty little double-crossing..."
 Bob drew back his arm and lashed out with his fist to Jim's jaw. He staggered back, then, with a snarl leaped at his enemy. Bob feinted and threw another stiff punch. Jim dropped to the ground.
 A crowd quickly gathered in a circle about the combatants as Jim rose to his feet and went into a clinch. The two swayed back and forth and finally fell back against the counter of the shooting gallery. At the impact the flimsy structure broke and the boys fell to the ground with the weapons all around them. They rolled back and forth in their struggle for supremacy. Finally Jim managed to hurl Bob from him and started to rise. As he did so his hand rested on a pistol. Automatically his fingers went about it and he rose, holding the weapon by the barrel.

 As Bob also jumped up and rushed him, Jim raised the pistol, intending to bring the butt down on his opponent's head. Bob reached up and gripped his arm. Then began a desperate struggle for the weapon. Slowly Bob's superior strength brought it down until it was between their bodies. An instant later there was a shot. Several women screamed and a man yelled hoarsely as Bob crumpled to the ground, unconscious.
 "What's happened?" cried someone.
 "The Judge's son just killed Bob Stuart," answered a big fellow as he leaped in Jim's direction, followed by several other men.

WORLD COMMENT

BRACK CURRY

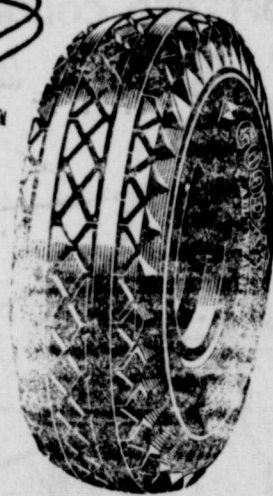

JESSE JONES COMMENTS

There is too much fear in America today, too much fear of war of personalities and of the economic future. What the American people need is a little more faith in themselves and their country.
 These views were expressed by Jesse Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, in an interview with International News Service in London.
 Mr. Jones professes to believe that the American people should manifest no fear when the cherished institutions of democratic government which they and their forefathers labored so long to erect and to protect are the subject of insidious attack under the guise of liberal government.
 Let us analyze the situation and see what the American people fear today and what are the events of the last two years which have engendered this fear.
 Not long after Mr. Roosevelt's inauguration for a second term there began that series of actions which so sharply differentiate his second term from his first term. The difference lies in this: That in the first term the program of the president whether well conceived or badly, was concerned with recovery, relief and reform, whereas in the second term the program is devoted to the establishment of an overwhelming and centralized governmental power resting on a new bureaucracy, allied with organized class interests.
 Since the 1936 election there has been a revolution within the new deal administration itself, and in the course of this revolution there is a purge of those Democrats who cannot be counted upon.
 The last Congress was urged by the chief executive to pass a series of bills which if they had been enacted would have changed radically the entire structure of government in the United States. These bills were not isolated measures, but added up to a consistent picture and the picture was of a tremendously centralized government with a power and authority vested in the president not far from equal to the power and authority vested in Stalin or in Mussolini.

 Four bills which were introduced in Congress were aimed definitely at achieving these results. They were the bill for reorganization of the executive department, the wages and hours bill, the seemingly innocuous water and flood control plan, and the Supreme Court enlargement bill.
 Fortunately for the preservation of our free and democratic institutions, these bills (all of which have been analyzed in the past in this space) were either not passed or were so amended as to render them harmless.
 But what other factors are responsible for the fear so widespread and so general among the American people today, even when economic conditions are admittedly improving. Obviously the fear of which Mr. Jesse Jones speaks is politically inspired, for none of the conditions which creates fear in Europe today—such as the threat of invasion or of social revolution—is imminent in the United States.
 The American people fear that a continuation of the huge federal spending program will wreck the credit of the federal government, upon which the entire credit structure of our nation is based.
 Nation wide economic chaos would ensue from the collapse of the credit of the federal government. Banks, insurance companies, state and municipal bonds—in all of our people have invested their savings would go on the rocks.
 The American people fear that the morale of the nation will be undermined by a continuation of government handouts. Heretofore the conception that the people should support the government has prevailed. Now the people believe the government should support them.
