METHODISTS LOSE REVEREND SEYMOUR TO GEORGETOWN: DISTRICT HERE OUT

Methodists here are somewhat "bothered" about the outcome of the 72nd Annual Central Texas Conference which closed Sunday afternoon at the Austin Avenue Methodist Church in Waco.

The main reason is the pastor, Rev. L. W. Seymour, only here one short term, has been transferred to Georgetown.

Reason No. 2. The Presiding Elder's District, which it was thought might be re-assigned to Gatesville, making this a district, was denied.

Rev. S. L. Culwell, formerly pastor of the First Methodist Church of Stephenville, has been named as the new pastor here, replacing Reverend Seymour.

Other pastors of the county have been named as follows: Evant, Rev. Victor C. Dow; Gatesville Circuit, Rev. W. Vinsant; Ireland and Jonesboro, Rev. G. C. Smith; George Siler, supply; Oglesby, Rev. W. C. Taylor; Pearl, Rev. R. M. Studer, supply; Turnersville, Rev. G. C. Williams; Copperas Cove, Rev. B. C. Schmidt.

Other preachers known in this county and who have the following places are: Vernon Perry, Round Rock; Rev. W. W. Ward, to Polytechnic Church, Fort Worth; Rev. R. A. Langston of Corsicana was named conference missionary secretary and a member of the committee on evangelism; Rev. T. Edgar Neal to Arlington Heights; Rev. Gid J. Bryan, Hamilton; Rev. J. H. Baldrige, Ennis; Rev. E. W. Bridges, Graham; Rev. M. M. Chunn, Central, Fort Worth; and others whose names we did not recognize.

Gatesville district was not re-established. Coryell County and McLennan County, except Eddy, became part of Waco district. Hamilton and Bosque move to Georgetown district.

DISTRICT CHAMPS IN 6-MAN GAME HERE ON NOVEMBER 23, WED.

Wednesday week, November 23, two of the fastest stepping teams in Coryell County Six-man football league will meet in the Mule Bowl here, where the district championship will be definitely settled, according to the officials of the schools, Supt. S. V. Dickerson of Ireland and Peck Tharp of Pearl.

The game will be called at 7:45 under the lights, and right then, folks, you're going to see a first class demonstration of football, as she is played 6-man style.

The News has been telling you all the time, this is a real game, and the fans in town and out, want to mark their respective calendars for this big event.

Early season games gave Pearl the slight edge, but that edge has been smoothed off, and the last time these teams met the score was Pearl 20, Ireland 14, which seems about even.

MRS. HAUN AND MISS SWEIGERT TO READ FOR SCHOOL AND LIONS CLUB

Mrs. Martha Fowkes-Haun, teacher of expression in Waco, and her assistant, Miss Sweigert, will entertain the high school students Wednesday morning at 11:30 with a number of readings, both dramatic readings and costume impersonations. Mrs. Haun plans also to read one of Mark Twain's humorous selections.

They will also entertain the Lions at their weekly luncheon Wednesday. Mrs. Haun is to give a brief talk on psychology in business. As a speaker, she has the happy faculty of skillfully interspersing her talks with bits of wit and humor.

The members of the Lions Club voted to bring their wives and to extend the invitation to anyone who wishes to attend the program beginning at 12:45 o'clock.

LEAGUE OF ECONOMIC CLUBS MET AT PIDCOKE

The League of Economics Clubs met at Pidcoke November 9, with Pidcoke and Union Clubs as point hostesses.

The program began at 10:30 o'clock with a song. Mrs. Gip Waddill gave the opening prayer. Greetings were given by Mrs. Eugene Rogers. Mrs. Will Irving made the response. Mrs. Bailey Trammell gave a chalk talk accompanied by a reading by Miss Diltz with Miss Gibson at the piano.

At the noon hour a delicious basket lunch was enjoyed by all.

The project for the day was a stunt given by each club, a prize being given to the club having the most entertaining performance. Pearl won first place, Harmon second and Union third place.

The April meeting will be at the Priscilla Club house with Harmon Club as hostess.

Mrs. M. W. Lowrey, Mrs. B. S. Cook, Mrs. Pat Olsen and Bob Thomas were Austin visitors Sunday.

Misses Joyce Baker and Thelma Stout, and Bob Brown and Grady Dickie visited in Weatherford last Friday.

J. H. BROWN NAMED SHERIFF WHEN SHERIFF WHITE QUILTS FOR FBI SCHOOL

"WHO DAT GAL I SEEN YOU WIT LAS' NITE?"

That'll probably be the interlocutor's "lead off" line when the end men get into action in the Gatesville Lions Club's Dixie Blackbird Minstrel which gets underway Tuesday evening, November 22, at the City Auditorium.

With a cast of 60, which incidentally is being selected right now. The show is billed to be the laughiest hour or more of mirth wracking amusement in these parts in a decade.

You'll be in action, amateur action, some of the "naturals" you've probably always thought ought to be in a minstrel show, and others, you didn't believe had a joke in them, will be there "with the bells on."

Direction will be by Miss Louise Engebarth, who will have complete charge of the production.

The cast so far has not been released but, well, just follow the News, and you'll see for yourself that it'll be a screamie in the flesh.

RED CROSS DRIVE, ARMISTICE TO THANKSGIVING

NOV. 11 TO 24, INCLUSIVE

This week, or rather starting Armistice Day, the National Red Cross drive for membership began.

Workers have been named in all parts of Coryell County, and we understand there will be a concentrated drive here in a concentrated drive under the auspices of the Gatesville Business and Professional Women's Club, with Mrs. Turk Brown directing the entire campaign.

Reports from time to time will be carried in the News as to the results of the campaign.

PAUL AND OSCAR ARE TOGETHER AGAIN; CONSOLIDATED

Paul Pollard yesterday completed arrangements with Oscar Gloff and now is in "partnership" with Oscar in the new Pollard & Gloff Barber Shop on Main street just back of the new Guaranty Bank building.

Paul says this is nothing but a "clip joint" but they can also "get you out of the bushes," go over your chin, massage your face—they'll really work you over, and you're invited to come in.

EVETTS GIN BARBECUE COMES WEDNESDAY: STATE SPEAKERS

Well informed speakers on cooperative marketing and ginning will be the high lights of the celebration held at Evetts' new gin near Ewing and Ruth, in addition to the barbecue which will be served the "customers" on that day. That day being Wednesday, November 16th.

Beginning about 9:30 a. m. an enjoyable day is in store for all those who can make this celebration, according to Roy Evetts, and Mr. Evetts reiterates further that everybody is invited.

You've woke up this morning with a new Sheriff.

Sheriff Joe White tendered his resignation to the Commissioner's Court yesterday at their regular monthly meeting, and Sheriff-elect J. H. (Jim) Brown was immediately named sheriff for the county for the unexpired term.

Sheriff made the necessary bond yesterday afternoon after the meeting of the Court, and this morning is due to take the oath of office, and will be sheriff immediately thereafter.

As we are informed, Sheriff White plans to attend a Federal Bureau of Investigation school soon, after which time, he will become a member of the now world renown FBI.

Sheriff Brown stated yesterday afternoon that as soon as Mr. White moved out of the jail, which he will do in the next few days, he and his family would move to Gatesville from Turnersville and make their home in the jail.

It was also understood that for the time being, Deputy Sheriff Curtis Ritchie would remain the deputy to the sheriff's office.

This announcement comes as a surprise, and people of this county will be first to wish ex-sheriff Joe White the best of luck in his new and greater endeavor in the peace and law enforcement of the country.

CHERRY CLARY CUTS HAND DANGEROUSLY ON MILK BOTTLE

Cherry Clary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Clary, dangerously cut her hand yesterday afternoon on a milk bottle, when she fell from a curb in front of the Reid Powell home.

She was given immediate medical attention, and it was found that an artery had been severed, and in addition, all the ligaments in her hand also.

At a late hour she was reported resting easy.

LOOKIN' OVER THIS WORLD

By Anon E. Muss

SMALLPOX WILL GET YOU IF YOU DON'T WATCH OUT

Did you ever see a case of smallpox? The probability is that you have been here 50 years or so. If you have seen it you know what a frightful thing it can be; or if the cases that you have seen happened to be mild ones perhaps you do not know what it is really like.

Smallpox has been of rare occurrence for the last 2 or 3 decades and for one reason—vaccination. Previous to the time of vaccination smallpox in wide epidemic form killed dozens out of each thousand population. In the Phillipine Islands in the early 1900 period, shortly after the U. S. took charge of the islands smallpox was killing 1 million and better Filipinos annually. American trained doctors and public health methods introduced vaccination, and in a few years the pox was killing only a few hundred of the islanders yearly and these were among isolated and uncivilized tribes which could not be brought under control.

Vaccination, in a measure, has been practiced for a period of about 2000 years and its value has been more definitely established as the years have passed. China was the first to use vaccination about 200 years before the birth of Christ. They transferred the disease from one to the other by inoculation and caused it to develop in milder form than when contracted in the ordinary way. From China the practice spread across India and into Turkey and Persia. It was in Persia that an English lady of high rank discovered the practice and recommended it to the people of England and western Europe. Vaccination as we know it today, however, did not come until 1796 when Jenner made the discovery that milk maids whose hands became infected with cow pox did not under any circumstances develop smallpox. He took pus from the sores of cow pox and inoculated human beings. After a few days they developed a sore at the point of inoculation and ever after they were safe from the disease of smallpox. From this simple beginning we have today a safe, sure and easy method of preventing one of the most dread of all diseases.

The point I am getting at is this—we are getting careless about our vaccination. What about your family, how many of them have been successfully vaccinated and how many of these vaccinations are less than 6 years old? If there is a number of your family or even a friend who can not give a proper answer to these questions you should see to it that he is inoculated before another week has passed. You are probably thinking "why all this talk about protection from a disease that I have never seen?" Here is your reason, the disease germ or virus that causes smallpox is still with us and as soon as enough people fail to be vaccinated and become susceptible those bugs are going to take hold and spread through the unvaccinated like wild fire.

It is human nature to become careless about avoiding dangers that are not plainly in sight but please take warning that this disease that will kill many and scar the faces and bodies of many others will visit us again unless we keep our defenses prepared—and that means vaccination of all from early childhood on. Actually vaccination should be done to children when they reach the end of

DANIEL BAKER PLAYED ALEMEN HIGH AT IRELAND

Last night, pressaging a great basketball season, Daniel Baker Hillbillies took on the Aleman Hi School team at the new gym at Ireland.

Of necessity, these were just warm-up games for both teams, but this gives you an idea how the bounce and throw boys and girls are going to be going, as soon as we can finish this national game of Football.

The fireworks in this sport is gaining, and it's already beginning to look like a great season.

them twice each year. Standard Schools are required to use Standard tests for remedial purposes. The tests are usually given in the fall and again in the spring. The progress made by the school has much to do with its remaining a standard school. Schools applying for standardization for the first time should give the tests at once. It is reasonable to believe that any school will make better progress by using standard tests.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR DAVIS R. HALL

Funeral services were held Wednesday, November 9, for Davis R. Hall, former resident of this city, at the First Methodist Church in this city. Rev. Frank Turner of Ballinger conducted the services.

Mr. Hall, born in Utah, Alabama, in 1873, came to Gatesville at the age of 19. He spent most of his life here, having been editor of the Gatesville Messenger for many years. He was associated in publishing business with John Hill both becoming joint owners of the ice plant, coca cola plant and the Messenger.

While Mr. Hall lived in Gatesville, he was a member of the Methodist Church, Chairman of the board of Stewards, and a teacher of a Sunday School class. After moving to Abilene and living for ten years there, he remained an active member of the Methodist Church.

About one year ago Mr. Hall moved to Ballinger where he lived until his death, Tuesday morning, November 8. He had been ill for only a short time, his death being the result of a heart attack.

Mr. Hall is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth de Montmolin of Illinois; two sons, Van of Amarillo, and Tommy of Ballinger; three grand children, Frances de Montmolin, Tommy Hall Jr. of Killeen, Van Hall Jr. of Amarillo; two sisters, Mrs. R. B. Curry of Dallas, and Mrs. Margaret Borwell of Meridian, Mississippi.

Pallbearers were George Painter, John Reising, Robert Brown, Dave Culberson, J. H. McClellan, and J. O. Brown.

Interment was in the City Cemetery.

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages may be further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.

The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

Enroute to the home of his parents at Flat, the left rear wheel of his car ran off near Carden and completely rolled out of the picture.

Aided by several passing motorists, Wilson searched diligently for over an hour but no trace of the missing wheel and tire could be found.

Using a spare wheel and tire he returned to Gatesville and so far no trace has been found of the "run-away" wheel.

Traffic Engineer Warns of America's Fatal Streets

Inadequate Visibility Blamed for Night Fatalities on Town and City Streets.

NEW YORK—R. E. Simpson, nationally known traffic expert and formerly consulting engineer for the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, warned motorists, and town and city officials that their main traffic thoroughfares are America's Fatal Streets, and that the fatal record is due, in large part, to lack of adequate visibility for night driving. Most street lighting in operation today produces less than half the minimum visibility for safety and they must be modernized if night traffic death is to be reduced, Mr. Simpson says.

The facts about America's Fatal Streets were drawn from a two-year survey, by Mr. Simpson, of traffic accidents in 47 cities having 20,900 miles of streets and involving 7,279 automobile fatalities. The survey showed, though main thoroughfares represent only 10% of the total street mileage, that they account for 41% of all fatalities and 50% of all night fatalities. Three times as many people are killed on them at night as in the daytime, and all of this despite the fact that only one-fourth to one-fifth the traffic moves after dark.

Averaging his own estimates and those of the National Safety Council and Illuminating Engineering Society Mr. Simpson says that about 50% of all night accidents are due directly to the lack of adequate illumination. He estimates that excessive and preventable night fatalities on America's Fatal Streets cost about $2,444 per mile per year.

It is Mr. Simpson's prediction that authorities will come to realize the vital relation of light to safety and cites Detroit as the outstanding example of an American city that has saved both life and dollars through modernizing visibility. Detroit relighted 36 miles of its fatal streets and, as a result, cut the former ratio of 7 night deaths to 1 day death to 1.6 night deaths to 1 day death.

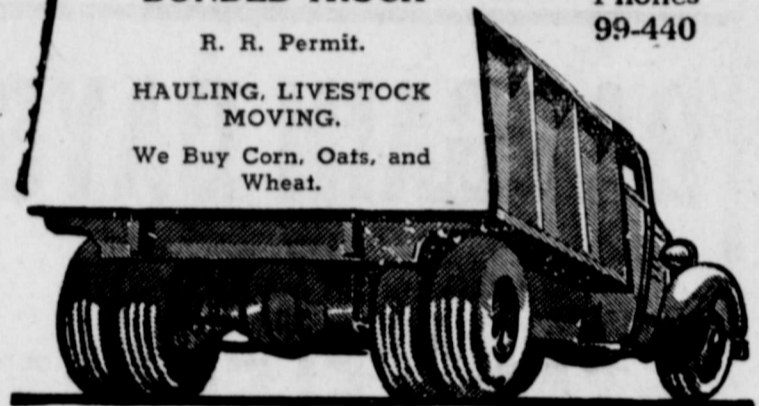

L. J. Schrenk, General Superintendent of Detroit's Public Lighting Commission said, "Had that ratio been maintained in 1934, 1935 and 1936 prior to improved lighting, more than 100 lives would have been saved."

Red Cross Volunteers Assist War Veterans

Red Cross workers in chapters, in hospitals and on posts of the Army, Navy, Coast Guard, and Marine Corps, assisted 122,355 active service men or veterans or their families during the past 12 months.

Red Cross service to these men included such personal help as letter-writing, shopping and recreational leadership, but it also included financial assistance to their dependents, help in locating missing members of their families, and assistance in filing necessary applications for pensions, disability pay, hospitalization, or for discharge from active service because of home needs.

The average number of men assisted by Red Cross workers each month was 18,790, according to a recent report.

Fleeing a tornado near Clyde, Texas, parents of these babies were killed, their automobile tossed a quarter-mile away. Hours later a telephone lineman heard a child's whimper in a roadside ditch. There he found 3-year-old Jesse Donald Rutledge, water up to his chin, holding his 3-month-old brother Daryl's head above water. Relatives being unable to care for the orphans, Red Cross workers arranged a maintenance fund to support them until they are 16. A Texas college promised scholarships and ranchmen started a herd of cattle for their benefit. The Red Cross will help the boys make adjustments as they grow older.

Red Cross Seeks Cut In Accident Toll

1,725,406 First Aiders Trained Since 1910

Cognizant of tremendous losses in human lives and of permanent injuries resulting from accidents in homes, on farms and highways, and around industrial plants as well as in the basement workshop, officials of the American Red Cross have been directing a systematic fight against what they term "this economic waste."

As part of this nation-wide effort to reduce deaths and permanent injuries from accidents, a recent statement from Red Cross headquarters in Washington reports that during the past 12 months certificates have been granted to 295,028 persons completing courses in the administration of Red Cross first aid.

Followers of these certificates have followed detailed courses of study, and have been taught how to splint fractured limbs, stop flow of blood, treat poison sufferers, care for victims of heat, electric shock, and handle other common emergency situations. The courses emphasize methods of caring for patients until professional medical aid can be summoned to scenes of accidents.

Since 1910, the report reveals, 1,725,406 persons have received this training from qualified Red Cross instructors, and at the present time 20,429 persons are qualified to give such instruction.

Bringing help nearer scenes of possible accident, 2,454 emergency first aid stations have been established in strategic locations on principal highways throughout the nation, operators of the stations receiving the prescribed Red Cross instructions and maintaining full first aid equipment on the spot. Conveniently placed, they also maintain up-to-date lists of available doctors and ambulance services pledged in advance to cooperate with Red Cross first aiders in preventing deaths and permanent injuries that so frequently result from automobile accidents.

Mobile first aid units also have been established in cooperation with state highway and police departments, operators of public utility vehicles and others frequenting highways, operators of such units also receiving the prescribed Red Cross courses in first aid.

To cut the number of persons losing their lives through drowning while swimming, the Red Cross has redoubled efforts to train as many persons as possible in life saving methods. During the past year 88,150 persons received certificates upon completion of courses. Since 1914, 884,649 persons have been trained in Red Cross life saving methods, including thousands of persons in CCC camps, beach patrolmen, camp instructors, and school boys and girls.

Carrying the fight onto farms and into homes, a campaign to eliminate accidents caused by careless habits and faulty equipment last year resulted in self-checks being made in 10,000,000 American homes through cooperation of children in school, women's clubs, farm organizations, and other groups. The 3,700 Red Cross chapters and their branches in every county are cooperating in this national effort to end needless pain and suffering resulting from such accidents.

These efforts to lessen such appalling tolls of human lives and usefulness are made possible through memberships in the Red Cross. The annual Roll Call will be held between November 11 and Thanksgiving Day, when all Americans are asked to join or renew their affiliation to ensure continuation of accident prevention measures.

Disasters Strike 41 States During Year

Red Cross Aids 420,000 Persons Following Catastrophes

That the past year has not been an easy one for the American Red Cross is shown in a recent report listing disasters necessitating Red Cross relief throughout the United States during the past twelve months.

The report reveals that 129 domestic disasters called for Red Cross aid in 247 counties of 41 states, and that assistance was given to 420,000 persons who were disaster victims.

"That this has been a very active year is obvious when one compares this year's operations with the average of 92 disasters requiring Red Cross aid annually for the past 15 years," Chairman Norman H. Davis said in commenting on the Red Cross Disaster Relief Service report.

These catastrophes included cloudbursts, cyclones, epidemics, fires, floods, forest fires, hailstorms, mine explosions, a school bus accident, a shipwreck, tornadoes, typhoons, and wind storms.

"Disaster relief was the first humanitarian work of the American Red Cross after its organization in 1881," Mr. Davis said. "In the ensuing 57 years the flag of the Red Cross has flown upon every scene of major disaster in the United States. The Red Cross has carried relief—food, clothing, shelter, medical aid, rehabilitation of homes and families—to more than 2,200 scenes of disaster at home and abroad, and has expended over $140,000,000 contributed by the American public in this work of mercy."

The Red Cross policies of relief, the national chairman pointed out, have been established over a period of years through actual experience of its workers in the field. Relief is given on the basis of need of sufferers—not of losses. Loans, he pointed out, are never made, but relief is a gift from the Red Cross in the name of its members and contributors to its work.

"It would not be possible for the Red Cross to carry out such wide-spread relief activities without the help of thousands of volunteer workers," Mr. Davis said. "Volunteers are the mainstay of the organization, and in the past year's work assistance from many cooperating agencies has made it possible for us to answer the many calls for help."

While relief was being given to victims of natural catastrophes, the Red Cross was not unmindful of the necessity for preparedness plans to meet emergencies that may arise in any American community. Red Cross chapters in hundreds of counties have organized disaster preparedness committees charged with responsibility to map relief plans in advance of need, and to organize resources of communities to prevent duplication of effort and waste of materials when calls for help are received.

These plans are proving especially advantageous in localities subject to frequent floods, tornadoes, or hurricanes, and actual tests of such planning have demonstrated the necessity for such measures.

"The administration of such relief for disaster victims is made possible by annual memberships of millions of Americans in all walks of life," Mr. Davis pointed out. "The extent of Red Cross aid to such sufferers is entirely dependent upon unselfish sharing on the part of all of us."

Red Cross Nurses Aid Million Sick

Red Cross public health nurses made more than one million visits to or on behalf of the sick during the fiscal year 1937-38.

The patients live in mountain communities, on islands off the coast, in isolated swamp regions, and in crowded industrial sections. During the same period the nurses inspected 559,187 school children for health defects in cooperation with local physicians, and gave instructions in home hygiene and care of the sick to 58,754 mothers and young girls.

Hornets Hammer Hamilton 20-13 Armistice Day

By Red Smith, with Statistics Compiled by Neil Kirkpatrick

It's a fact, there was no one outstanding player on the Harnet squad, for every man in his position functioned as smoothly as any Hornet squad ever did. The powerful, dynamic line of the High School Hornets was proclaimed "the best ever encountered," by the Bulldog coach. Schley, Blankenship, Edwards, Perryman, Morgan, and both ends, McDonald and Post, and all, played their best game of the season. On defense as well as offense, every Hornet did his best.

The Hornet backfield with the new arrangement of Weaver covering Kirk's position at blocking half, did very well, considering the fact that this was his first game ever to fill that slot. All the backfield men played heads-up and gave every measure toward the Hornet victory.

Lester never once lost his head and was always alert. Morgan and Foster prevented many passes being completed, and they got their share of tackles. Jones played his first 60 minutes of real football, and Weaver fitted in his position completely. Jackson's size made no difference, for you could see him gaining many yards.

The Grand stand was full, the open stand on the north side was full; everybody was yelling for his own team, and expecting a victory. The whistle blew, and the hottest Gatesville-Hamilton game of years was on.

First Half

To open this spectacular performance of the gridiron, Jackson holds while Morgan kicks to Boyd on Bulldog's 20 yard line and Boyd is downed on his 38 yard line. 1st and 10 to go, McCollum cuts over right tackle for 1 yd. McCollum is stopped at scrimmage by Perryman and Morgan. Last down Boyd kicks to Hornet 25 yd line and Jack returns to 44. Hornets ball, and time out for Hamilton. Jackson picks up 5 yds on reverse to right side of line. Jones charges center for 3 yds. Hornets off side, 5 penalty, ball now resting on Hornet 47 line. 3rd and 8 to go. Jackson sweeps right end for net gain of 8 yds and 1st down. Jackson to Lester for 9 more gain. Jackson sweeps left end but Schley off side and play called back. Jackson over right tackle for another 13 yd gain and 1st down. Ball on Bulldog 16 yd line. Jones advances to Bulldog 11 line. Lester piled up 10 for another 1st down, goal to go. Jackson round end to touchdown. Jones pounds heavily and good for extra point. Hornets 7, Bulldogs 0.

Jackson holds and Morgan kicks to 10 yd line, received by Seilheimer who returns to 30. Pass McCollum to Seilheimer complete and good for 36 yds. Time out for Hornets. 1st and 10 to go for the Bulldogs on Hornet 35. McCollum attempts to go over right but is stopped at scrimmage. McCollum fumbles and recovers to lose 5. McCollum thrown for one yd loss by Schley and McDonald. Last down, Boyd punts from Hornets 40 to 14 ball goes out of bounds. Hornets ball, Jackson picks two over left side. PPass Jackson to McDonald for 3 gain. 3rd down and 3 to go. Jones makes 1st down. Jackson sweeps end for one. Basket pass Jackson to Lester, no gain. 3rd down, Seilheimer intercepts pass on 50 and downed on Hornet 46. Bulldog's ball, 1st and 10 to go, McCollum is thrown for 3 yd loss by Blankenship, Edwards and McDonald. Boyd thru line for 4 gain. Ball on Hornet's 45, 3rd and 9 for Bulldogs as quarter ends.

Second Quarter

McCollum sweeps left end for 3, downed by Post. 4th down, and Boyd punts to Jackson, ball caught by high wind, tips Jack and recovered by Rost for Bulldogs. 1st D. McCollum, following interference cuts over right tackle and crosses goal for score. Extra kicked by Boyd. Hornets 7, Bulldogs 7.

McCullum kicks, received by Lester on 10 returned to 26. Jackson sweeps end (swell blocking by Blankenship and Weaver) good for 6 yds, tackled by Stamps. Jones takes 6 yds for 1st down. Ball on Hornet's 38, Jackson gains 2 as he plows through line. Hornets penalized 15 for holding. Ball on Hornet 29 yd line, 21 to go. Jackson sweeps end for 2, then left end for 1. Last down Jones punts to Seilheimer who returns to 35. McCollum loses 5 by fumble. McCollum on hand off to Boyd nets 1 yd. McCollum hit hard by Jones who makes tackle. Last down Boyd kicks 25 and out of bounds

Second Half

Seilheimer kicks McCollum holds, Lester receives on 11, returns to 35. Jackson on reverse to Lester good for 7 gain. Jackson sweeps end for no gain. Hornets penalized 5 for backfield in motion. (Note: the men in backfield may be in motion if moving horizontally or away from line of scrimmage, but he may not charge toward the line until the ball is snapped). Lester charges over Rt. tackle for 5. Jones is stopped at scrimmage. Jones punts to Stamps on 50 and Edwards gets the tackle on 37. Pass McCollum to Seilheimer incomplete, knocked down by Post. McCollum tackled by Post as he drives over right tackle for 1. 3rd down McCollum passes to Seilheimer incomplete. Ball on Hornet's 35. Boyd kicks out on Hornet 15. Ball snapped to Lester, smothered for loss of 2 yds. Jackson sweeps right end and is tackled by Earle. 6 yards picked up on the play. Swell blocking on the part of Hornets. Jackson fumbles and recovers on three yd line. Lester backs up and kicks to 35, ball taken by Seilheimer and Lester makes sensational tackle on the 18. Bulldog's ball. McCollum over left tackle nets a couple yds. pass McCollum to Seilheimer for touchdown (first time Bulldogs scored on pass this season). Boyd kicks for extra point, but Morgan blocks. Score Hornets 7, Bulldogs 13.

Subs: Foster for Weaver. Seilheimer kicks, McCollum holds, ball out of bounds and Hornets take over on 35 yd line. Lester over right tackle for 2, downed by Lowrey. Ball passed to McDonald, incomplete. 3rd down, Hornets lateral recovered by Bulldogs on Hornet 39. Bulldog's ball. McCollum over left tackle downed by Post. Quick pass McCollum to Seilheimer, knocked down by Foster and Morgan. McCollum passes and Morgan intercepts. Ball on Hornet's 42 line. Jones cuts over left tackle for 4. Jones makes 1st down with swell blocking on the part of Schley and Perryman. Ball on 43 line. Jackson spins and hands ball off to Lester who drives thru left side for 6 gain. Lester goes thru line for 2 1-2 yd gain. Beal, center for Bulldogs, injured on play. Few words from M. D. and Beal stays in game. Jackson round end—needs by 6 inches for first down. Jones makes foot and first down, ball resting on Bulldog 36. Jackson stopped by Bankston as he charges over right tackle for 2 yd gain. Bulldogs receive 15 penalty for roughing. Ball on the Bulldog 20. Jones makes 10 for another 1st down, and goal to go. Bulldogs run in a mob of subs. Jones picks up 1 over C. Lester good for 7 yds before stopped by Earle. Time out for Bulldogs. Lester drives over LT for 1 yd. Lester drives over for touchdown. Jackson is stopped six inches of extra point. Score: Hornets 13, Bulldogs 13. End third quarter.

Fourth Quarter

Morgan kicks, Jackson holds. Boyd receives on 10 and returns to 41 where he is stopped by trio of Hornets. McCollum drives off right tackle for gain of 3. McCollum stopped at scrimmage by Post and Blankenship. Boyd plunges but no good. Jackson knocks down pass intended for Bulldog end. Last down Boyd kicks 35 yards and out on Hornet 15. Lester takes ball on 1st down for short gain. Jackson makes swell fake to pass and cuts over right tackle for 8 gain. Jones plunges center to make 1st down. On Hornet 26 Jackson to Lester basket pass good for 12 and another 1st down. Jackson over right tackle for 3. Lester pounds a couple over right guard as Bankston makes tackle. Ball on Bulldog 48, Jackson sweeps end for 1st down while Perryman and Schley do good blocking. Jones adds 2 over left tackle. Jackson receives ball from Lester and charges to the Bulldog 35 line. Seeing the Bulldog squad half asleep, Lester calls the old Statue of Liberty play, and it is good for 15 yards to bring the ball to the Bulldog 20 line, from which point it is another 1st down and 10 for the Hornets. Time out for the Bulldogs to bark. Back to the battle, Jackson sweeps the left end for another 10 yds, with goal to go. Lester thru center for 3. Jones advances ball to 3 yd line. Lester plows heavily thru center but is short six inches. Lester plunges and makes the necessary inches. Jackson with ease sweeps right end for extra point—that puts the Hornets away out in front with a score of 20 to 13.

Subs: Thompson for Bankston. Four minutes to play in Bulldog vs. Hornet de luxe rivalry game.

Jackson holds, Morgan kicks to Earle on 30, who advances to the 40 line and is thrown off his feet by Foster and Morgan. First and 10 on their own 40, McCollum passes incomplete. Boyd throws for loss by powerful Hornet linemen. McCollum to Seilheimer and good for ten, Foster makes the tackle. 4th down and 4 to go, Boyd makes his best kick of the day, out on the Hornet 16, a kick of 40 yards. Hornets take over. Lester cuts over tackle for 2 gain. Jackson to Lester on reverse good for 4 yards as Boyd makes tackle. Jackson to Jones incomplete. Sub for bow-wow boys, Cash for Beall and Mikel for Rost. Ball on Hornet 22 line. 4th down, and Lester punts out on Hamilton 47 yard line. Bulldogs attempt a couple of passes to Seilheimer but Morgan and Foster knock them down. Attempt 3rd pass but it is knocked down by Post. 4th down McCollum attempts to pass but is smothered by McDonald and Perryman for loss of 8 yards. Game ends.

ESCAPE MYSTERIES FEATURE ORENDO & COMPANY HERE NOV. 16

Orendo & Company, Magicians will appear in Gatesville Public Schools, on Wednesday, November 16 at 3:00 p. m., according to an announcement made by Supt. Brooks.

Orendo has become one of America's outstanding magicians, and has been proclaimed by many to be the logical successor to Houdini, for he is truly the master of escapes and mysteries.

Orendo's program blends magic, mirth, and melody in such a masterly manner, and he presents it with such suavity and showmanship that audiences invariably show their pleasure with an almost continuous round of applause. Orendo's pleasing personality captivates every audience and his "patter" adds further enjoyment to the program.

There is an infinite variety in the show, including tricks with cards, coins, eggs, canes, magic water, Chinese prayer sticks, boomerangs and so on. The climax is the Arabian Tent Escape, originated by Orendo, one of the most spectacular illusions ever presented, and the most talked of illusion on the West Coast.

The program is given with special lighting effects. Settings and costumes made by Hollywood designers. Music is played on a specially built amplifier system.

At that time the radio audience will hear about our city, about the things we're proudest of, which of course, cannot all be told in one minute but only the most important.

LIFE STORY by RALPH HUSTON of
W. C. FIELDS star of
"POPPY"
 A Paramount Picture

CHAPTER IX

ANOTHER time Fields, at home, called a friend at the studio and invited him over for dinner and the fights. He called up the arena and reserved two seats. Immediately the phone rang. The friend wanted to know if he could bring a woman friend.

"Sure," said Bill, and made reservations for three. The phone rang. "I hear so-and-so is going to the fights with you," said a second friend. "I'm figuring on going. How about me coming out to your place and going with you?"

"Sure," said Fields and increased the reservation to four. The phone rang. It kept on ringing most of the afternoon. Various friends had heard that Fields was going to the fights and wanted to join him. Eventually Fields wearily called the arena.

"This is W. C. Fields," he said, cautiously.

"Yes Mr. Fields," said the ticket-taker. "I think you have called me before."

"I have," said Bill. "I'm afraid I'm going to have to change my reservations again."

"Look, Mr. Fields, I'll change your reservations. I've done nothing but change your reservations all afternoon. You started out with two tickets, and now you're up to 16. If you'll just tell me once and for all how many tickets you want I'll lay them aside and let's get this business over with. I don't know how you feel, but I'm getting pretty sick of the whole thing."

"No more," said Fields, than I am."

What started out as dinner and the fights for two people wound up as a banquet and a ringside section for 16—at Fields' expense. And he sent the ticket seller a nice present for her trouble.

In spare time Fields reads a lot. He subscribes to several magazines, reads all of the important books of the day, mostly non-fiction, and names a number of important authors among his friends. Gene Fowler dedicated "Father Goose"—the story of Mack Sennett—to Fields. Bill read it and sent Fowler a wire. The wording was something about "Thanks for waiting to dedicate to me the worst book you ever wrote."

Each year Fields buys four books

—two of the latest dictionaries and two copies of a popular and exhaustive thesaurus. One of each is kept at his home and others in his dressing room. And no one can fool Fields on pronunciation or definitions.

He wanted to use the word "Beelzebub" in "Poppy." He said it the way he knew it was pronounced. His pronunciation drew protests from writers and the director. Fields didn't argue. He merely sent Rod for the dictionary and proved he was right. Dozens of times Fields has settled questions—sometimes from other studios—for he is acknowledged one of the most widely read men in Hollywood.

He doesn't sleep much, being troubled with insomnia. Three or four hours of sleep a night is about his limit. While working, he sometimes manages to snatch a bit of rest at lunch hour. He lunches only on salads.

Sometimes at nights he goes for trusty cane, despite the fact that he knows they are only coyotes. He would carry it even for dogs because he has no great fondness for canines. Possibly it is a carry-over from his tramp days, when his posterior was assaulted frequently by dogs belonging to farmers who didn't trust itinerant strangers. At any rate Mr. Fields has no dogs at his houses.

At Toluca Lake he made pets of a quartet of swans which live there. Of course in public he made a great show of detesting the birds. He recited how, in offering one a bit of food, he almost lost a thumb and repiled with a terrific thwack over the head with a canoe paddle.

But it is a known fact that the four swans would come at his call eat out of his hand and follow him around his back yard. One of them—dubbed "Egbert" for no particular reason—even was permitted the run of the house.

At Encino he has a cage of birds and a pond of gold fish. It is reported that he once tried to bring one of the swans from Toluca to his Encino home, hoping to place it in the pond, but was dissuaded by a watchman.

There is supposed to be a cat somewhere about the Encino premises—a fact which Mr. Fields indignantly denies—but as far as mortal man knows it hasn't been seen.

He does, however, like children. He really likes Baby LeRoy, despite the much publicized "feud" between the comed-dian and the infant star.

It all started when Fields took a full page ad in one of the Hollywood trade papers—at about $150 a page—informing the world that if Baby LeRoy didn't quit stealing his bottles and throwing them away, he was going to call in n's barristers, the Messrs. Postlewhistle and Smunn, and take legal action. This was after the filming of "Tillie and Gus."

The "feud" took instant attention and gained Fields much publicity for himself and his pictures. It was intensely amusing, although some people actually took it seriously and wrote letters to the studio.

walks about his estate. Of late he carries a stout club. He was walking one evening listening to the chirping of crickets, the calls of night birds and the lowing of cattle. He met one of the night watchmen who guards the territory.

"Nice night," said Fields.
 "Nice," said the watchman.
 "Fine weather," said Fields.
 "Fine," said the watchman.
 "Those dogs," said Fields, after listening to a not-too-distant yelping, "seem to be making a lot of racket."
 "Them ain't dogs," said the watchman. "them's wolves."

Mr. Fields has since carried his
