CITY CONSIDERING BUYING CCC CAMP LAND FOR CEMETERY

In this issue of the News in detail, is the explanation of a plan whereby the City of Gatesville intends to purchase the property occupied by the CCC camp for a city cemetery.

This property is for sale by the Coryell County Fair Association, and would make an ideal location for the cemetery.

Due to the limited space in the old city cemetery, it is imperative that something be done in the immediate future.

The City Council meets on Mar. 6, and will receive at this time, any objections to this purchase. Time warrants, is the plan with which to pay for the property.

Boyd Brown, brother of Sheriff J. H. Brown, is here from near Los Angeles for a two weeks visit with Sheriff and Mrs. J. H. Brown.

From Waco, Charles Mills has boys lined up, and in training, and as yet has not entered. From Coryell County, the home of the tournament, the entries are scarce as hen's teeth, but the boys have plenty of time yet, since the entries do not close until 3 p. m. February 1.

Physical equipment for the tourney has been arranged for with W. F. & J. F. Barnes Lumber Co. furnishing the lumber for the Arena, the FFA has rented the Association the ring, and W. T. They'll be in, and you can bet on that.

SHERIFF BROWN GETS ONE CHARGED WITH THEFT OF CAR

Ernest McClendon, of Brownwood was jailed by Sheriff J. H. Brown, charged with the theft of Otha Johnson's car, or that of a relative of his. The car was alleged to have been taken about 11 a. m. Monday and was recovered two days later.

After taking the car, the boy or boys, drove out Main street to Lovers Lane, then out old Highway 7, and on past Pidcoke where the car got hot, and stalled in a branch. It was abandoned in the branch where it was found by people of the neighborhood and the Sheriff was informed. The car was only slightly damaged by the wild ride.

Sheriff Brown indicated as yet he did not know definitely as to whether there was more than one boy implicated or not.

The boy arrested gave his age as 15.

This week, Sheriff J. H. Brown picked up a boy from Post who had hitch-hiked here and he was placed in jail. The boy had already been convicted of car theft, but broke jail in Post and hitch-hiked here.

Post officers were called, and they took him on to the State Juvenile Training school here.

There are 377 fishing boats plying Palestine waters, according to a government report.

PART OF CRIMINAL DOCKET KNOCKED-OUT: GRAND JURY STARTS MONDAY

This week, justice struck quickly in District Court and just about cleared the docket with other prospective cases for Monday, but nothing certain.

Monday, also, the Grand Jury starts back working again but of course, they ain't talkin'.

Here, finally, are the cases disposed of since "our last writing". The State of Texas vs. D. F. Burleson, charged with driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated; $50.00 fine, 5 days in jail and license suspended for 6 months, was the penalty assessed.

Marve Morton, charged with theft of over $50.00 was acquitted. J. C. Boling, charged with theft of over $50.00; entered plea of guilt; given 4 year suspended sentence.

Chas. Hamilton, Emmett Gotcher, Herbert Cox, Lem Jones Jr., and Odell Jones, all charged with burglary, entered pleas of guilt, and were each given 2 years suspended sentence.

W. R. Durrenberger, charged with burglary; entered a plea of guilt and was given a 3 year suspended sentence.

Nothing was done on the civil docket during the week.

LIEUT. COM. BAILEY AWES LIONS WITH VIEWS ON CRISES

Lieut. Commander Claude Bailey, speaking before the Gatesville Lions Club, Wednesday noon, awed and altered apinions on world event, and the attitude of the U. S. in reference to foreign powers and their danger to us.

Speaking briefly on national and European affairs, Lieut. Commander Bailey intimated that propogandists create hatred against Germany and Italy because of their particular rulers, and not the people. Our greatest folly would be war against either country. Dictators are not mean, but as a rule are beloved leaders. Hitler arose to meet a particular situation, in a country where there is now, no unemployment. Results have been made in that country. We should try to think of their problems and efforts to solve them and moderate our hate and beware of a useless war with those countries, which propoganda is building up hatred for. One million pounds is being spent by England for propoganda in the United States. British Empire is losing ground and disintegrating.

German populace most capable people in Europe and will not be kept down. The U. S. has too much of a missionary spirit.

These are short excerpts from Lieut. Commander Bailey's talk, and the entire time was linked up to prove that the U. S. should mind it's own business, and beware of propoganda which is put out by other countries, and especially, Jewish propoganda.

Visitors included Rev. Father L. A. Le Blanc of Lampasas, who spoke briefly on the work he was doing in the prevention of tuberculosis among Mexicans and underprivileged people in his district which includes this county; others were Lewis Holmes, Dr. M. W. Lowrey, Rufus Brown and Harry Flentge.

Businesses and members for the Lions to visit this week, include Frank Farguhar, Howard Franks, and R. D. Foster.

Lieut. Commander Bailey was a No. 1 booster of John Nance Garner for Texas for President, and stated the financial condition of the United States would clear up in about two weeks if he was elected.

Mrs. Porter Adams and daughter and Mrs. Hazel Pollard and daughter of Oglesby are guests in the George Miller home this week.

The Philadelphia postoffice is the only one that can be reached by air, water, land and rail.

"I WOULDN'T BE WITHOUT MY TELEPHONE"

"Yes sir, our family has had a telephone ever since the first line was put up around here, and I'm going to keep mine. When you start figuring out the dividends the telephone's paid, you can hardly do it—for there's the time when the barn caught fire—then when the herd was sick—my best horse broke a leg—those winters we were snowbound—the different times the kids caught this and that and we needed the doctor—the better prices I've had from the market—I could go on and on and tell you how the telephone has really helped me. No, I can't figure what the telephone is worth, but I do know it pays me a lot more than it costs."

A Telephone will work just as hard for you and it will also pay you dividends—the kind that will make you glad you have a telephone. Ask our business office how little it costs.

HORNET DRIBBLERS WIN OVER TURNERSVILLE BOYS 27-21

The Worley basketeers met with a tough set of ball tossers captained by Hilton Southerland in the Turnersville gym Tuesday nite. That was a classic of thrills and excitement for the score was close thruout the game. Coach Jones' Turnersville boys trailed the Worley men only two points at the half. As the third quarter rolled around the boys battled on to find a score of 17-17.

Weaver broke the tie when he dropped a counter to put the Hornets back in the lead 19-17. Turner broke up a lovely pass from Southerland to Brasher; the ball was fumbled and McDonald recovered to send the ball flying into the arm of Turner who made the tally. That made a score of 21-17 and the Hornets were out in front with a good four points. The Hornets maintained the lead thruout the game.

Post and Moore did some swell defensive work while other Hornets scored, as follows: McDonald 13; Turner 8, and Captain Weaver 6 points.

For the Turnersville boys, Capt. Southerland, Center, led the scoring with 10 points; Brasher and Jaques were also outstanding for Coach Jones' Quint. Raborn Balsh and Orville Jones were the officials for the evening.

The French army was beaten, demoralized and openly rebellious in May, 1917, but the Germans didn't know.

LOCAL SEXTETTE DEFEATS TURNERSVILLE SENIOR GIRLS 35-13

The Hornets took another victory Tuesday evening at Turnersville. Schwartz's girls did their usual work and at the end of the first quarter they led the Turnersville girls 11-2. A trio of scrub forwards took the floor in the second quarter for the locals. The Turnersville girls brought on a defense while the Hornette forwards played ring-around-a-rosy. The local cagers woke at the half to find they were ahead only by a couple of points, 11-9.

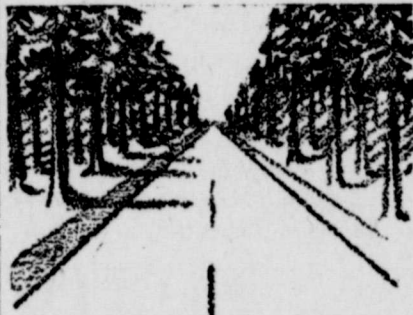

The Hornets then went back to work and started scoring to carry the game with ease and make a final score of 35-13.

There seemed to be only one girl that seemed to give the locals trouble and that was Capt. Weaver, of the Turnersville squad. She is a sharp-shooting little girl with more than one year left in school. Weaver and Humes scored 5 and 7 points respectively.

For the Hornets, Shoaf and Patterson led the scoring with 14 and 11 points and Rutherford and Davis trailed with 4 and 6.

Earlier in the evening the Gatesville Junior Girls defeated the Turnersville 20-5.

REP. GALBREATH AIRS HIS VIEWS ON O'DAN-IEL TAX SPEECH

The long awaited message from the Governor read at last, it is idle to say I am not only disappointed but sad. If he were right in what he claims was his idea on taxation, then all everyone who is a student of real taxation has learned is wrong.

If his ideas on old age assistance are carried out, every recipient of assistance will be required to render a statement every month as to their income for that month to determine the amount they are to receive before a check may be issued. And to do this thousands of new investigators must be employed to check the monthly income of all the old folks before legally determining just how much they shall receive. No mention at all was made in regard to the nearly three hundred (300) employees that constitute the personnel of the Liquor Board, or the same five hundred (500) employees in the Old Age Assistance Commission. These two Commissions absorb over a million dollars a year of the old folks money they should have and they should be trimmed down that much.

There are over two million dollars of the best taxable values in this State not on the tax rolls and never have been, everyone knows that. If this unrendered taxable property were placed on the tax rolls no new taxes whatever would be necessary. The owners of this vast unrendered property see the handwriting on the wall and are making a frantic endeavor to evade their just share of the burden of Governments.

If this unrendered property were placed on the tax rolls of this State every honest taxpayer would have his taxes reduced more than one half of the present amount that they are now forced to pay.

No mention was made of the many costly Board and Bureaus that should be abolished—absolutely abolished in the interest of economy and efficiency. They are a nuisance and unnecessary. In short, very little was touched only a valiant effort to let the tax robber of this State slide out from under.

Every type of sales tax, no matter what the name, is a serpent placed upon the breast of every poor person in this State including our old people as well.

MEXICO: OUSTER, SLAYING

During the past two years, in more than one instance, the Mexican government has shown evidence of emulating Fascist states while expropriating American and British farm lands and oil properties. Last week a new high in evidence along this line was reached when Frank L. Kluckhohn, New York Times correspondent, was expelled from Mexico on 24 hours notice.

Mexico laid the expulsion to Kluckhohn's malicious misinterpretation of Mexican policies. But from Brownsville, Texas, Kluckhohn declared he had been "made the butt of a general move to crack down on American press correspondents in Mexico"—because he had found out too much about Mexico's oil deals with Germany. Moreover, he revealed that Gen. Juan Azcarate, newly reappointed Mexican Minister to Berlin, was hurrying to the Nazi capital on a secret mission indicative of closer German relations.

Meanwhile, the Cardenas government's campaign against Gen. Saturnino Cedillo, one-time "boss" of San Luis Potosi State and leader of last May's abortive revolt against the government, ended in Cedillo's death. During the nearly eight months since the uprising, he and a few followers managed to find refuge from pursuing Federal troops in the rugged mountains of central Mexico.

But last fortnight the Rebel leader and his son, Elodio Cedillo, were slain in a skirmish with pursuing soldiers, the end coming near the little mountain town of Cardenas. While his remains were sent to his Las Palomas ranch for burial, photographs of the former provincial dictator's bullet-riddled body were distributed thruout San Luis Potosi to convince doubtful ex-followers that their one-time "strong man" was dead.

HORNETTES ANNEX CENTRAL TEXAS TITLE

In the last few minutes of play Schwartz's girls came to the front to turn the tide and defeat the Aquilla sextette 28-27 in the Abbott gym, a couple of nights ago. The locals had defeated the Abbott girls 30-18 and Aquilla defeated the same team 39-18. That meant nothing and the Gatesville cagers found Aquilla ahead by 4 points when there was only two minutes of playing time left. Two points were scored in the next minute to leave the locals trailing by 2 points. In that last minute of play the Hornets came forward to score 3 points to end the battle 28-27. Schoaf and Weaver scored for the Hornets 13 and 7 points respectively.

Boys' 4-H Club work is a part of the National Agricultural Extension Service System, and thru this work boys are taught good agricultural and home-making practices. 4-H Club boys may use any kind of livestock that they already have or purchase, crops or poultry for their demonstrations. Some of the many advantages of club work are: develops self-reliance and ambition; fosters individual ownership; develops leadership; community pride and spirit; teaches the boys to conduct meetings, keep farm records, judge livestock and crops. 4-H Club boys are also eligible to compete for various prizes and free trips.

To date 146 Coryell County boys have enrolled in club work for 1939, as compared with only 88 boys enrolled during 1938. The clubs which have organized thus far are as follows:

INTEREST SHOWN IN LAMB, PIG, CALF SHOW

Much interest is already being shown by boys and their fathers in the lamb, pig and calf show to be held in Coryell county this fall, which was announced last week, as is indicated by the numerous inquiries received at the County Agent's office this week regarding possible sources of securing animals suitable to feed for this show.

Boys desiring to show lambs, pigs, or calves at this show should remember that they must be a members of a FFA chapter or enrolled in 4-H Club work not later than February 20th, and that an entry consists of one steer calf, two barrows, or five wether lambs.

BILLIE MARLIN DID NOT LIKE TERRACES: BUT THINKS THEY ARE FINE NOW

"I did not like terraces until I saw them actually holding the water back during the recent rains," said Billie Marlin, a tenant on Mrs. Blanche Powell's farm four miles north of Gatesville.

Mr. Marlin was not very enthusiastic about farming the land as recommended by the SCS. He thought it would be impossible to cultivate the terraces, but he has found that this is not true. After seeing water backed up behind the terrace fills where he had seen the land washing away before, Mr. Marlin was well pleased with the entire program.

Water that once washed seed and soil down the slope and cut deep gullies in the field was carried slowly down the terrace channels and emptied into sodded waterways. Strip cropping, contour tillage, and crop rotation is to be practiced by Mr. Marlin. The fenced waterway and land retired from cultivation will afford more pasture for his livestock.

Mr. Marlin has been a tenant on Mrs. Powell's farm for twenty-five years and he believes he will benefit as much from the erosion control practices as the landlord. He will not lose the seed that once washed down the hill, and he can cross gullies that were too deep to cross before the terraces were built.

TOPSEY CLUB NEWS

The Topsey H-D Club met at the home of Miss Eva Durham Wednesday afternoon January 18. Mrs. Laura Cowan gave a talk on "Healing in Grape Cuttings".

The first thing in healing in grape cuttings is to take the cuttings in the Fall and put them into bunches with each cutting about 12 inches long. Bury each bunch in the ground about 6 inches with the butt end up. This is to make them take root. Let them stay until spring and then take them up. Set them out placing them up right with about 3 inches of the cutting above the ground.

A quilt was put together and a club social was decided to be had at the home of Mrs. Victor Fraise Friday night.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames E. E. Fowler, Alford Saegret, Vic McBride, C. C. Adam, Solon Vardiman, Laura Cowan, Laura Terry, Homer Scott, Howard Simpson, J. W. Krempin, Henry Courtney and Miss Eva Durham, and one visitor, Mrs. T. J. Durham.

THEY'RE IN MARKET THIS WEEK AGAIN: ALVIS. LEAIRD'S, PAINTER'S

Looks like the whole works went to market this week. There was George Painter who "bought" his time in Fort Worth and Dallas, of course, looking over and buying the new stock for Spring.

C. E. Alvis Sr., the paymaster at Alvis-Garner Co., accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Matthews and Mrs. Kitt Bridges also were looking them over, and buying in both Fort Worth and Dallas.

Add: Byron Leaird Jr., Mrs. Fred Smith, sojourned in the big wholesale district, and the hotel display rooms in Big D. They're all getting ready to deck us out in some colorful garb for the Spring, after a tough winter of dark, drab, lifeless colors.

It won't be long now, before the geese will be going back north, and the drygoods will be coming south, with the first sign of the greatest season in the year—Spring.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO COTTON FARMERS

All producers who operate farms which did not have cotton planted thereon in 1936, 1937 or 1938, and were not issued a 1939 cotton allotment, and who would like to plant cotton this year, must make application at the County Agent's office upon reading this notice, and not later than February 1, 1939.

AUCTION GOES OVER THE FIVE GRAND MARK TUESDAY

$5,000 spent in Gatesville in Tuesday's auction, is the report from Fred Inches, one of the principles in the Gatesville Commission Company's auction.

Included in these sales, according to Mr. Inches $3,500 worth of cattle, besides many horses, mules hogs, sheep and goats.

Previous to the sale, during the week, some 100 steers, 40 calves and 20 cows were sold.

Buyers who are now regularly attending the auction are from Marlin, Star, Waco, Lampasas, Hamilton and other points.

WEST-HORNET-PEARL AT MEET THIS WEEK END

First, tonight, the Hornets, Hornets—Dragons, Dragonettes meet in the local gym and it will be a dilly. The boys tied 27-27 last week in the Pearl gym. The Hornets fared very much better, outclassing the smaller and more inexperienced Dragonettes by a substantial score.

Saturday night, it's Hornet-Trojans, and Hornette-Trojanettes, in the gym. The Trojans are from West and have an enviable record, and these two games are going to be thrillers, both of them. We'd like to see you out to both of them, says Coaches Worley and Schwarz.

North Beach Airport, at the threshold of the New York World's Fair, 1939, will cost $15,000,000 to complete.

Because "we believe a uniform will give the worker more authority, let the kids know who is boss and increase the worker's pride in his job," Lieut. Col Brehon B. Somervell, New York City Progress Administration, is planning to have more than 5,000 WPA recreation teachers wear uniforms. The garment will be made in WPA sewing shops and supplied free to the teachers.

FASHION MAKES A GIRL WANT TO BE TWINS

Texas' Bluebonnet Girl of 1936 (Frances Nalle) right, offers a cigarette to her fashion twin, Frances Nalle. Miss Nalle, now one of New York's best-known photographer's models and "magazine cover girl," previewed the Spring fashion picture for the Southwest during a recent holiday visit with her family in Dallas. Finding that the twin leaders in Spring fashions are active and spectator sports, she was unable to choose between the two and had to make herself "twins" in order to wear both. At left she is in tennis shorts and blouse of Salyna cloth. At right she wears a spectator sports ensemble—three-quarters, full-swing striped top coat and a Stevens flannel suit in natural shade. The suit has a smart fitted coat. Both costumes will be among the new fashions featured in the Spring series of Southwestern Style Shows for retail merchants of the Southwest in Dallas January 24 and 31 and February 7.

TOM CONNALLY PROPOSES COTTON SURPLUS BE REDUCED THRU WPA

Washington, D. C.—U. S. Senator Tom Connally of Texas gave immediate attention on his arrival in Washington for the opening of Congress to a plan for reduction of the cotton surplus.

"The accumulation of the vast cotton surplus on account of government loans is a constant load that is keeping down the price of cotton," Senator Connally asserted, adding: "This surplus must be reduced. The government now has on hand more than eleven million bales of loan cotton and by August first will possibly have two additional million bales."

Continuing Senator Connally said:

"I propose that the government turn over to the Commodity Credit Corporation and the WPA three million bales of this cotton with directions that the same shall be manufactured into cotton mattresses and other cotton articles for home consumption and be distributed to families on relief and to indigent persons who can make a showing as to need for same."

Stressing this feature of the plan, Senator Connally observed:

"Many persons who spend their lives raising cotton are in need of many simple home necessities, which could be supplied by the utilization of cotton. Of course, the WPA or other distributing agent would establish a standard as to applicants who may be worthy so as not to disturb the market now supplied by manufacturers and dealers. To give a mattress to one who is not able to purchase one would not in any wise interfere with such market. The tremendous cotton surplus must be reduced. The government already has on hand this cotton for which it has paid. We are spending many hundred of millions for relief purposes. Why not spend some of this cotton and serve the double purpose of affording relief and also reduce the cotton surplus.

"The surplus must be reduced if we are to have any success with the cotton program," Senator Connally concluded.

Senator Connally's action was based on information and advice received from many sources while spending the last several months in Texas giving attention to various problems coming before Congress with especial reference to agriculture. He traveled over 14,000 miles, going into every section of the state and contacting thousands of people in an effort to be of aid.

FAMOUS HORSE JUDGE TO BE SHOW JUDGE AT FAT STOCK SHOW

Fort Worth, Jan. 27—Charles W. Green of Sedalia, Mo., secretary-manager of the Missouri State Fair, will be the horse show judge at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, March 10-19.

Green judged the show here three years ago and has officiated at every horse show in America. By popular vote, he recently won a plaque as the most popular horse judge in America. The contest was conducted by Saddle & Bridle, national magazine for horsemen.

Prizes in the horse show this year have been increased to $8,000 a $500 boost over prizes of 1938.

ROCKY REAGAN OF BEEVILLE LONGS FOR LONGHORN CATTLE

Fort Worth, Jan. 27.—Here's a man who mourns the passing of the longhorn cattle. He is Rocky Reagan of Beeville, well known in South Texas as a cattleman, who, oddly enough, is a leader in the improvement of range herds in South Texas. Yet he misses the glamour of the early-day longhorn—gamest animals that ever lived.

Reagan will attend the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show here March 10-19. He is the father of Miss Lucy Reagan, one of the ranch-girl honor guests invited to the stock show.

FEBRUARY 18 ANNOUNCED AS DEADLINE FOR ENTRY IN FAT STOCK SHOW

Fort Worth, Jan. 27—February 18 is the deadline for livestock entries in the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock show, Mar. 10-19, D. G. Talbot, general livestock superintendent announced today.

Entries are expected this year from more than a dozen States. From far-away Portland, Ore. has come an entry of 16 registered Rambouillet sheep, owned by the Glennwood Farm. More than 6 thousand individual show animals are expected to be entered.

COLLEEN MOORE'S DOLL HOUSE IN CENTRAL TEXAS

PROCEEDS TO HELP UNDERPRIVILEGED CHILDREN

An opportunity to do a good deed and receive enjoyment at the same time is provided the people of Central Texas with the showing in Waco next Tuesday night, January 31st thru to February 7th of that fabulous dream Doll House created by Colleen Moore.

The Doll House has shown in some 92 cities during the past 4 years, and generally only in larger communities.

However, thru the generosity of the Goldstein-Migel Company, that superb attraction has been brought to Waco for all Central Texas to enjoy. The entire net proceeds go to the Underprivileged Children's Charities of the Waco Community Chest. The Goldstein-Migel Company does not receive a single penny from this entertainment. They are happy to be able to contribute their effort to assist the worthy cause so dear to Miss Moore's heart when she conceived the idea of the Doll House as a means of helping unfortunate and crippled children.

The picture above gives only a faint idea of its entrancing beauty. It is 13 feet tall, 9 feet wide and 9 feet long. Set with precious jewels, exquisite handwork in gold and precious metals, it cost $435,000 to complete.

Everything in it is made on the scale of one foot for each inch. It contains treasures not to be found elsewhere in the world. Electric lights no larger than a grain of wheat. Floors of onyx. A weeping willow tree that sheds tears of joy into the fountain. A golden organ with more than 100 keys, each 1-16 of an inch wide, plays by remote control. Chandelier of crystal and diamonds. Many other delightful things, that to be seen are to be remembered for long years afterward.

A large group of prominent Waco and Central Texas citizens are patrons and patronesses of the Doll House. Admission to the Preview on January 31st from 8 to 10 p. m. will be 50c, of which a large part goes to the charitable agencies. After the Preview, the admission will be 25c for adults and 10c for children. It will be on display at Goldstein-Migel Company on the second floor.

This is probably the last time this Doll House will be presented in Central Texas for several years. School children are especially invited to see it, as its educational value is highly recommended.

Three young Plebes, or first year men at West Point, form a fast friendship on Registration Day and become roommates. They are Steve Early, Jack West and Robert Drew Early, outstanding among them, brings down the enmity of Yearling Corporal Strong upon his head by flirting with Strong's girl, Ann Porter. Early shines as football star of the Plebe team and leads it through an unbroken series of victories. But he risks his place on the team by breaking regulations to sneak out at night and make a birthday visit to Ann in town.

Chapter Four
It was a delightful little birthday party for Steve, who had brought the object of his devotion not only the absurd little phonograph record, but also gifts of flowers, of candy, and of his own sparkling company. But for Ann it was an anxious, alarmed evening—for she was fast discovering that she liked this bumptious youth far too much to be comfortable at the thought of his running to risk of possible expulsion from the Academy. She finally prevailed upon him to go; but not until he had extracted the reward of a kiss.
"This is the happiest birthday I ever had," Steve told her as he left. She looked after him, her face troubled, her eyes a bit misty. Nothing untoward happened during his trip back to barracks; but as he carefully tiptoed through the halls of the building on the way to his room, he caught sight of something that made him draw back hastily around a corner. Waiting patiently in the corridor outside his room was Corporal Strong, a look of pleasurable expectancy on his face.

Steve, who had half expected this trap, had a little plan. He had carried his bathrobe with him in a paper package during his expedition. Now he put it on, wrapped it closely around him, took off his shoes and socks and hid them under his robe, so that any one meeting him in the hall would think he had just come out of his room. Steve then took down a nearby fire extinguisher from its place on the wall, carried it some distance up the hall around the corner from the corridor in which Strong lay in ambush, set it down, and turned on the valve. As the contents of the extinguisher began to escape with a loud hissing sound, Steve scuttled away and slipped into a nearby room.
In a few seconds, according to plan, Strong raced around the corner to look into the cause of the disturbance; and dozens of Cadets, in hastily donned bathrobes, came out of their rooms and crowded around him. It was child's play for Steve to emerge casually from his hiding place and shuffle away to his own room, unnoticed among the multitude of other be-robed boys. In thirty seconds flat he was safe in bed; and when Strong entered the room shortly after, his inquisitive gaze found three boys all properly in their beds, sleeping the sleep of the just.
It was a few days before the last game of the season—the contest with the Harvard Freshmen. The Plebe team had gone through the season thus far undefeated; and their hopes of victory over Harvard, led by Early, rose still higher when fullback West surmounted the scholastic difficulties that might have kept him out of the game, by passing his math exams with a comfortable margin. The prospects looked rosy indeed for a unblemished season's record of victories.

Then came the letter. It was addressed to Jack West, and it bore the imprint of the little church in the Michigan town from which he hailed. Jack read the letter, drew a long breath, and sat down staring bewilderedly at it. Then at the anxious demands of his roommates, he read it aloud:
"My dear John:
"I write this with a heavy heart. Your mother never would forgive me. There are times, John, when the sense of personal duty becomes paramount, especially when that duty is to one's mother. This last year has been unkind to her. Her great courage has not been enough. The small business she counted upon has dwindled away to almost nothing. Having you back seems to be the only solution to her problem. I believe your first duty is to your mother."
"Sincerely,
It was a hard decision to make—but the boy could see no other choice. He proclaimed his intention of resigning immediately from the Academy and going home to help his mother in her financial struggles. Early and Drew argued and pleaded—there was the coming Harvard game—and besides, how did he know the letter wasn't a fake or a false alarm? Finally they prevailed upon him to send
