"PEOPLE HOLD A DIME SO CLOSE THEY CAN'T SEE THE DOLLARS" BOBBITT SAYS

400 ATTEND ANNUAL C. OF C. BANQUET IN GYM

Chairman Robert L. Bobbitt featured the Chamber of Commerce annual banquet which was held in the local gym at 7:45 Thursday evening of last week, and in his commenting on the usefulness of a chamber of commerce, said, "Don't hold a dime so close to your eyes you can't see a dollar at a distance."

Touching the highway situation lightly, Chairman Bobbitt told of the efforts of the highway commission to balance its program thruout the state. "Highways reflect your ways," he said, and closed his inspirational message with a reference to highway 36 which is so badly needed in this section.

Continuing on the chamber of commerce theme, which was the paramount theme in his address, Mr. Bobbitt said, "Working together in small towns, men can get more done than they could if they played a lone hand. Benefits derived from cooperation with our fellow man cannot be discounted."

"All live communities in Texas have chamber of commerce and they are non-political and non-secretarian organizations."

"In every town there are some folks who sit on the sidelines and watch the progressive men of the town work for its good. They are thinking that the community should be proud to have them in it when they aren't doing a thing to benefit it. They are willing to rake in the money which the chamber brings to a town but they won't get out and work. I would be ashamed to do this if I lived in a town where there was an up and coming chamber of commerce."

"Old 36" Prediction

"Chambers of commerce have put pressure on the highway commission and are making us who are members of this commission realize that the highways of this state have not always been allotted fairly. We are working to this end and there may be a day when 'old 36' will be completed."

Other features of the program included J. B. Carlisle and his "stooge" Red McGuffey, who couldn't get over a spree he was alleged to have had with "Hurl", and also kidded others including Johnny (Western Union) Reesing, Dr. J. T. Brown, and Dr. Otis Carter Ray.

Miss Janice Druer, and Miss Jacquelyne West, accompanied by Miss Mamie Sue Halbrook furnished other music, D. W. Diserens lead the "sing-song". R. D. Foster presided and Judge R. E. Cross introduced the speaker.

During the evening, officers for the new year were named by the Nominating Committee headed by Louis Thomson, Chairman, and were elected unanimously. They were: J. Hurl McClellan, president; vice-presidents, Floyd Zeigler, L. S. Holmes, E. W. Brooks; secretary Guy Powell; directors, W. T. Hix, Joe Walker, Dr. K. R. Jones, Jim McClellan, R. M. Arnold, Robert Brown, E. W. Jones, Dawson Cooper, Byron Leaird, Jr., and Howard Franks.

Out-of-town visitors included: T. S. Wyche, J. C. Clopton, Lee H. Powell, Dr. H. B. Mason, Irving McCreary, Guy Draper, Jack Childress, Bob Oglesby and Bill Durham, of Temple; L. D. Wilson, D. Foote, and Mr. Clary, Turnersville; Sam Harlick, Miss Rowena Wilford and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Gunn, Hamilton, Hilton Burks, Comanche; Will Sutton, Russell Smith, James Earl Barker, and Earl D. Massey, Killeen.

Dube Jr.; Jim Frazier, San Antonio, and Mr. Fee, Dallas Morning News representative who is located in Waco.

Menu was served by the Home Economics department of the high school, consisting of frozen fruit salad, baked chicken, dressing, English peas, giblet gravy, creamed potatoes, lettuce and tomatoes, rolls, coffee and strawberry short cake.

COUNTERFEITERS TAKEN TO WACO BY SECRET SERVICE MAN

W. T. Huff and J. B. Sims, arrested here near Cox's Spring Thursday morning, were named in federal court complaints filed in Waco charging them with counterfeiting money. The charges were lodged by United States Secret Service Agent L. M. Benavides who came here after the men. They were then transferred to Falls county jail, pending preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Woodie Zachry yesterday. Their bonds were set at $2500.

The arresting officers, Sheriff J. H. Brown and deputies, said the two men admitted passing bad money in Kerens, Jacksonville, McGregor, Corsicana and Waco, before the arrest at a relative's residence near here Wednesday night, had in their possession approximately 43 dollars in counterfeit money, 5, 10 25 and 50 cent pieces, and moulding materials and equipment.

Sheriff Brown said the pair admitted trying to pass a 25c piece in purchasing bananas on the city square in Waco about a week ago, but escaped arrest when the dealer refused to take the counterfeit piece. Brown quoted them as saying they had been operating only three weeks.

They were fingerprinted at police headquarters in Waco Friday afternoon.

They pushed Payne and his bag from the car when they found no money, and drove away in the car.

BOY BREAKS PLATE GLASS WINDOW BY LEANING: IT'S DANGEROUS

Last week, a boy leaning against a plate glass window at T. C. Potts Grocery on the East Side of the square, crashed in the window.

Fortunately, the boy was not hurt, but this is a dangerous habit, physically to the "leaner" and its "costly" to the merchant, since these only cost from $75 to $150. Moral: Don't lean on show windows.

GATESVILLE DAY?

Why not a Gatesville Day at the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth?

It's late, we'll admit, but the thing should have been done before, if for no other than selfish reasons.

Are we not wanting better markets and prices for wool and mohair, sheep, cattle, hogs, horses, mules?

Seems to us, Fort Worth is the logical place to get these, and possibly, by favoring, or at least "playing ball" with these very hospitable folks in Fort Worth, we might add to our benefits.

Probably, a suggestion that will be "dissipated on the thin air."

ANOTHER "LOST" OPPORTUNITY

Friday night, a certain company doing business here had a District Meeting. Their employees, managers and officials came from distances to meet here.

We, possibly, can't attract conventions here, but, could we not make some kind of "gesture" in welcoming these folks to our town.

We believe it's mutually good business both for Gatesville, and, for the District Meeters and the company they represent.

Opening the track season was Pearl's ten-man track team which went to Cameron over the week end to attend the Yoe High School Invitation Tournament held there. Petty bettered the record in the 440 yard dash as he sailed to victory in 52.1. The previous record was 53.3. Petty also won 4th place in 100 yd. dash in 10.5 sec. Other members of the squad were just a little short of places but looked good this early in the season.

Stevens of Mexia threw the javelin 182 ft. which is good anywhere. The shot record was broken, the new distance 50 ft 10 in.

Today at 1 p. m. at Pearl, Evant and Gatesville hi's meet in a triangular affair beginning at 1 p. m. Later in the week, Pearl stars are to enter the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show track meet. We'd like to have some results, please!

PURMELA SCHOOL NEWS

Teachers and students are working hard at this time on events for County Meet to be held soon. The declaimers and story-tellers went to Pearl Monday for their try-out and first places were won by Clayton Bell, Charlotte Bertrand, and Lawrence Smith.

All are well pleased with the hot lunches being served at school now. This is a new project but so far has been more than successful. At present about 80 students and teachers are partaking of the lunches but more will be added soon. We're hoping this will become a permanent part of our school system.

The boys are playing tennis, volley ball, and play ground ball, having forsaken basketball since the county tournament. All are proud of the record made by the senior boys at the county tournament finishing second being beaten only by the powerful Plainview team. The junior boys were not so lucky being beaten by the Belcher team in the opening of the tournament probably because Rolan Bell was unable to play as he had sprained his shoulder.

Two new students have been enrolled this week: Carel Brazzil and Bobby Joe Medlin both from Gatesville.

The next regular 4-square meeting will be Friday night, March 17. Everyone is invited to come. The program is under the supervision of the school.

The school was honored to have Mr. Davis and Miss Downripple from Waco to visit us Wednesday of this week. Their purpose was to see the hot lunch program in action and were high in their praise of its management and results. We hope they can visit us again soon.

THE BEACHCOMBER

A Story in Pictures of Charles Laughton's Great New Picture, "The Beachcomber" - Based on a Novel by W. Somerset Maugham

(CHAPTER ONE: Bad Boy of the Islands.) The biggest problem of the tiny island of Baru, in the Dutch East Indies, is Ginger Ted (Charles Laughton), English "remittance-man" who lives a beachcomber's life in an island shack. Loafing his life away, Ginger Ted comes to town only to receive his monthly check from England and then go off on another spree.

Ginger Ted's intimate, long-suffering friend on the island is the Controleur (Robert Newton), who sticks to him in spite of the objections of other white inhabitants. Time after time the Controleur gets Ted out of his difficulties because he finds him "the best company on the islands." And as soon as he does so, Ted gets right back into hot water again.

To the Controleur's office come Ginger Ted's two most vocal enemies, Martha Jones (Elsa Lancaster), the prim teacher of the mission-school, and her humorless brother, Owen Jones, M.D. (Tyronne Guthrie). They demand that the Controleur deport the beachcomber for the good of the natives. They cinch their argument with the report of Ted's latest escapade: the kidnap of a beautiful native girl from school!

The Controleur, forced to instigate a trial, watches the indignant brother and sister Jones storm at Ginger Ted with all the fury they can muster. Ted on his part replies to their diatribe with one of his own. When two native girls leap to their feet in protest, the Controleur realizes he must do something. He finds the way out!

Well-Planted Is Half Made

By T. C. RICHARDSON, Secretary

"Last call for breakfast in the dining car" sings the porter as he gongs the belated passengers into activity. They have only to weave their way to the tables and pay the price, to regale themselves on the fat of the land gathered from far and near and served by others—and what a price! Only farm folk can breakfast, dine and sup on the delectables of a daily menu cost of production, transportation, processing, preparation and service which compel the high prices on hotel and dining car bills of fare.

Do we need a gong to arouse us to our opportunities of high living at a low cost? Then let's "play like" (as children say) the gong is ringing for the last call—not only for breakfast, but for dinner and supper as well! It's that time of year when the good eats of summer, fall and winter are assured by planning and planting; or else are left to the uncertainties of accident and "cash income" from salable farm commodities. Too often we do without the best things in life on the mistake theory that "we can buy them cheaper than we can produce" them.

All the elements of a first-class diet are farm-grown, and most of them are ready to use without going to town for processing. Here's what every member of the family needs for a year's wholesome and satisfying diet. Multiply these figures by the number in the family and you have the requirements for which planning and planting must be done early in the year.

Milk, 91 gallons; eggs, 30 dozen; meat, 175 pounds (including fat for cooking); potatoes, 200 pounds; green and yellow vegetables, 200 pounds; other vegetables 200 pounds; citrus or tomatoes, 100 pounds; other fruits, 200 pounds; grain products (flour, meal, cereals) 170 pounds; butter, 20 pounds; sweets (sugar, syrup, preserves, etc) 70 pounds; dried peas and beans, 15 pounds.

There is not a farm in the Southwest which cannot produce every item in this list except the sugar and grain products. Fresh meat (chicken, turkey, beef, veal, lamb or mutton, fresh pork) should be served at least once a day for a wholesome, healthful and strength-giving diet, and dry beans or peas three times a week. They grow on the farm and go to the table without paying tribute to handlers and processors.

The United States as a whole eats nearly 70 pounds of beef, veal, lamb and mutton per capita per year. Ironically enough the people who have to buy it, eat more than those who grow it. Texas is a producer of great surpluses of all these fresh meats, yet her people consume only 15.5 pounds per capita or less than one-fifth the average for the whole United States. Arkansas farm people consume only about 8 pounds of beef per capita, though every pound of beef must grow on some farm or ranch, and there is enough waste on the average farm to produce all the meat the family can eat. It is no longer necessary to eat fresh meat only at killing time for either freezing or canning (or both) is within the reach of every family, making possible the daily meat service thruout the year.

There is no reason why we should buy navy beans from Michigan, limas and black-eyed peas from California, pinto beans from Colorado, when a few rows of each will provide a variety of these nourishing foods. The recommended menu calls for them three times a week, but a little forethought in planting will prevent the necessity of eating the same kind all the time.

To say nothing of the fact that garden vegetables are best when they go from garden direct to table, the money saved by producing and preserving the home supply of foods will buy something else which can't be raised on the farm—say a refrigerator, a washing machine, a radio, and a thousand other manufactures.

The spirit of Truth is the lever which elevates mankind.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Either be silent or speak words that are better than silence.—Pythagoras.

ZEKE SEZ

Austin—Here's some HOT news from the State insurance department! (Wonder who will be next life insurance commissioner!)

Honorable Marvin Hall, State fire insurance commissioner, this week sent us a lengthy letter, explaining why many fire loss records are not kept at the State department instead of in offices of a private "checking bureau" in a downtown office building. Quoting from Mr. Hall's letter:

"It is well known that we would be pleased if provision could be made to provide facilities within the Board of Insurance Commissioners for obtaining the necessary information by taking that information from the individual policies written and the individual losses paid, etc. . . . I am of the opinion that it would be well to have a checking office within the department to check all companies in the same manner that the 'checking office' checks the policies of its member companies. My position on this is well known.

Note further, quoting Mr. Hall's letter:

"Inasmuch as the Fire Insurance Division has never been provided with facilities for taking information as to premiums written and losses paid by the many companies doing business in this state directly from the books and records of those companies and has not been provided with facilities for checking individual policies as they are written and loss payments as they are made, to obtain the required information in that manner, and since the law REQUIRES that such information must be obtained, there is no way to obtain it other than by requiring the companies to submit under oath a statement of the premiums they have written and the losses paid."

The writer believes Mr. Hall is a fine man and an eminent politician. We wish to thank him for verifying a statement made in this column two weeks ago that fire loss records are kept in a private checking bureau where an ordinary person cannot demand information or get it. But we wish to call Mr. Hall's attention to the fact that Article 4878, Chapter 10, Statutes of Texas, says the Commission shall have authority to employ such clerical help, inspectors, experts, etc., to carry out the provisions of this law. This article, as Mr. Hall might point out, limits the total expenses of that department (in words) to exactly $130,000 for any fiscal year. But, now note this, please, the department's annual report as of last December showed a total expense in the last fiscal year as of and the same report, made by Mr. Hall to Governor Allred, shows such expenditures have been as high as $200,000 per year! On the other hand, the same state law allows a 1.25 percent assessment on premium collection for the purpose of paying said expenses of said department and, last year, as well as for several years past, this assessment has been set at more than six-tenths of one percent, less than half the amount which the law contemplated. (See Page 44 of the 63rd annual report of this department.)

Mr. Hall, why not use some more of this 1.25 per cent assessment, which the law plainly allows, so that you will have money for these "facilities" for keeping records, which you say you do not now have? Surely it couldn't be that you feel any hesitancy in assessing these premiums because of objections from the companies! Let's look at one town (and every town in Texas, almost without exception) and see what was paid out by the citizens for fire insurance premiums. The citizens of San Antonio, over the last five-year period, have paid exactly $4,416,682.00 in premiums to the companies. What was the total loss to those companies in that same period in San Antonio. The answer speaks for itself: a total of $795,292.00. Alright, then take a small town, Woodsboro, for instance. The citizens there paid a total of $23,131.00 in five years. The fire loss in the same period was the whole total of $41.00. No wonder the companies made, in many instances, as high as 20 to 75 per cent profit annually in the last five years. As Ralph Soape says: tax the insurance companies and get your 50 millions yearly to pay old age pensions. We say amen, brother.

The great cost of education to the State of Texas is brought forcibly to the fore by a statement this week by Dr. George W. Cox, head of the State Health Department, when he cited the fact that sickness causes 289,000 school children in Texas annually to fail to pass their work. The extra year in school for this many children costs the State an average of $45 each, or a total of about three millions annually. We believe, with Dr. Cox, that a few thousand dollars more for public health units would save millions in the end. Don't you agree with Dr. Cox? On the other hand, while the state of Louisiana recently appropriated $300,000 to put in co-operative county health units in that state, the State of Texas spent in actual total of only $5,500 for such work last year! Health means everything to a child. Let's back Dr. Cox on his program. Write your legislator about it.

Short shorts: Trucks vs. railroads. While the House committee voted 11 to 10 last week against a favorable report to increase the truck load limit, Homer Leonard of McAllen has served notice he will bring a bill out to the floor of the House next week. The Senate committee also will bring out a load increase bill next week.—Governor O'Daniel, still mighty popular with the masses everywhere, wore his pretty cow boy boots to the Washington on the Brazos celebration.—The preference legislation for war veterans has come out of committee in the House; it would require State departments to hire 20 percent of their employees who had served in some war, regardless of age, if they can qualify for said jobs.—The House passed 55 bills during the first three days last week, mostly local bills.

The fair-trade bill came out of both House committees the past week, with some amendments in the House. One speaker read a statement which we quote: "Secretary E. E. Weaver of the Oklahoma Press Association writes: 'most of our small town newspapers almost fell for this chain store propaganda—they sent telegrams against the fair-trade bill two years ago. Now, after the law has been in effect two years in Oklahoma, the advertising linage in these weeklies has increased 20 percent and they are all for the law. The merchants now can afford to pay for advertising!'"

A composite pension revenue bill of some sort will be brought out of the committee Tuesday, the committee promised.

The 7,000 pound load law may be tested in a case to be sent to the United States Supreme Court, it was indicated this week end. All other states have much greater load limits. Something's wrong somewhere.

BOY BREAKS PLATE GLASS WINDOW BY LEANING: IT'S DANGEROUS

Last week, a boy leaning against a plate glass window at T. C. Potts Grocery on the East Side of the square, crashed in the window.

Fortunately, the boy was not hurt, but this is a dangerous habit, physically to the "leaner" and its "costly" to the merchant, since these only cost from $75 to $150.

Moral: Don't lean on show windows.

BUCK HOOD

Austin—Still keenly interested in legislative drives against vacancy rackets he launched as a house member in 1937, Lieutenant Governor Coke Stevenson of Junction Saturday highly commended major corrective features of pending land law measures.

Stevenson remains a strong advocate of principles contained in bills designed to stamp out land chiseling in the name of school children and title clouding. These principles are embodied in a proposal advocated by the Texas Landowners association on which the house public lands committee has held discussions.

"Most alleged vacancies," Stevenson pointed out, "are based upon variations between old and new surveys."

"Now it happens that my grandfather was a surveyor. So was my father, and I've carried a chain many a mile and thus learned something of the problems involved in vacancy suits."

"In the old days the surveyor of state grants threw in for good measure a strip the width of the chain, 60 feet, which in a section of land amounts to several acres. That strip was not a vacancy but was given to the landowner, and it should not now be taken from him when disclosed by re-surveys."

Three main steps are set forth in pending legislation to protect the land owner and also to safeguard the state's interest. These are: Fixing venue in vacancy suits in the county where the land lies; removing the 5 mile ring around oil production, within which the land owner is barred by present law from obtaining a vacancy; giving the land owner preference rights to vacancy land he occupies.

A large group from this community attended the plays staged by the Sunny Club women at White Hall Friday night.

"Certainly," Stevenson declared, "the land owner ought to have the right to defend his land from the vacancy hunter in the home county where his land lies. It is a grossly unjust imposition to put him to the expense, and it is a very great expense, of coming to Austin for the trial. Few of them can afford it. Since the attorney general already has the option of trying vacancy suits in either the home county or Travis County, why not put them all in the home counties?"

The famous Pecos county case in which the state a few years ago collected $1,075,000 is a succinct answer. Stevenson believes, so some charges that the vacancy claimant cannot get a fair trial in the county of the asserted vacancy.

The present law's provision prohibiting the landowner from claiming a vacancy within five miles of a producing oil well is "sorely unjust to the land occupant", Stevenson said. "It deprives him of valuable rights. The provision should be repealed."

The lieutenant governor likewise favors preference rights for the landowner.

Where there are variations between ancient and new surveys, there is in most cases no way in the world to determine which survey is correct, he explained. Such conflicts cloud not only the landowner's title but often his neighbor's titles as well.

Not all the errors in old surveys were in the landowner's favor, Stevenson pointed out.

"The State also made mistakes sometimes with the old hit-or-miss surveying by giving the purchaser too little land instead of too much, but you never heard of the state reimbursing him. I bought a section in West Texas for $2 an acre, and later a survey disclosed less than 500 acres, and I had to pay $4 an acre more to buy it the second time."

"In many instances the surveyor has to begin with calls from a survey a mile or five miles away from the tract he wants to measure, to get the beginning point. The slightest variation from those first calls can throw him off enough from the beginning point he seeks to make a difference of many acres, and since in most cases the original markings have long since been obliterated, no one can say where the true point really is. In such cases the landowner who has occupied, improved and paid taxes on the land, considering it his own, should not be forced to bear the burden of proving that his markings are correct, but the vacancy hunter should be required to show that they are not."

The Safety Sensation of 1939!

THE NEW Firestone CHAMPION

The Only Tire Made with the NEW SAFETY-LOCK CORD BODY and NEW GEAR-GRIP TREAD...

NEVER before in our experience has a tire met with such instant and unanimous approval as the new Firestone Champion Tire. It's the Safety Sensation of 1939! Our customers have started a word-of-mouth campaign that is making this the biggest selling tire we've ever had. Motor car manufacturers have been so impressed by its superior performance that they have adopted it for their 1939 models.

Why? Because the Firestone Champion Tire is an entirely new achievement in safety engineering.

Stronger Cord Body. This is accomplished first, by the use of a completely new type of tire cord called "Safety-Lock," in which the cotton fibers are more compactly interwoven to assure cooler running and provide greater strength. Then the fibers in each individual cord, the cords in each ply and the plies themselves, are all securely locked together by a new and advanced Firestone process of Gum-Dipping which provides amazingly greater strength. And greater strength means greater safety.

More Non-Skid Mileage. The new Safety-Lock cord construction provides the extra strength needed for the use of the new, thicker, tougher, deeper Firestone Gear-Grip tread which delivers remarkably longer non-skid mileage. This sensational new tread is called "Gear-Grip" because of its unique design — it has more than 3,000 sharp-edged angles which grip the road with a sure-footed hold to protect against skidding and assure a safe stop.

Drive in today and equip your car with a new set of Firestone Champion Tires — the only tires made that are safety-proved on the speedway for your protection on the highway.

CHAMLEE'S GARAGE

Small fry, Small fry come and take your milk

By Dorothy Greig

WE all realize our young hopefuls should each have a quart of milk a day. The question is how to get it into them painlessly.

When one is very young, the tea party beverage is milk.

Most children like milk but that does not mean they want to have milk urged on them every time they turn round. (You wouldn't either.)

Fortunately, it is not necessary, for every dish made with milk counts on the daily milk quota. For instance, this luncheon dish has milk in it:

Quick Creamed Chicken and Vegetables

- 1 tablespoon butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 can condensed chicken soup
- ¼ cup milk
- ½ cup green peas, cooked
- ½ cup diced carrots, cooked

Melt the butter in a saucepan, add the flour and mix thoroughly. Then add the chicken soup and milk and cook until thickened. Add the cooked vegetables at the last. Serve on toast or over biscuits. Serves 4.

Then, too, it is possible to vary the flavor of milk and so avoid monotony. Tomato juice frozen into cubes and one or two dropped into a glass of milk gives a flavor change. Youngsters like it and they think the rosy cubes bobbing in the milk are fun.

Chocolate milk shakes are favorites, too. So are drinks made of milk with fruit syrups; milk with ginger ale.

Cream soups also help along the good work of getting more milk into little Johnny. To condensed celery, pea, asparagus and tomato soups just add milk instead of water.

These soups, too, are interesting for a change:

Cream of Chicken Soup

- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 can milk (using soup can for a measure)

1 can condensed chicken soup
Melt the butter in a saucepan, add the flour and cook until frothy. Then add 1 can of milk and cook until thickened. Add the chicken soup and cook 3-4 minutes to blend the flavors. Garnish with chopped parsley. Serves 3.

Easy Peanut Butter Soup

- 1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
- 1-½ cans milk, using soup can for measure
- 3 tablespoons peanut butter

Empty the cream of mushroom soup into a saucepan and mix well. Then add the milk and peanut butter. Heat and beat with a rotary egg beater so as to mix thoroughly. Serves 3.

Vegetable-Cheese Soup (the cheese counts on the milk quota, too)

- ½ tablespoon butter
- ½ tablespoon flour
- 1 cup milk
- ¼ cup grated mild cheese
- 1 can condensed vegetable soup

Melt the butter in a saucepan, add the flour and cook until frothy. Then add the milk and cook until thickened. Add the grated cheese and let it melt in the sauce. Add the vegetable soup and heat thoroughly to blend the flavors. Serves 3.

When it comes to desserts the opportunities are endless! Ice cream, a dessert all small fry will vote for; cream pies, custards, milk puddings, and fruits served with top milk

HOUSTON FAT STOCK SHOW FEATURES CORYELL HOGS

Gayle Franks exhibited the first place pen of three heavy weight barrows, fifth and sixth place individual heavy weight barrows, and fifth place pen of three light weight barrows. The heavy weight barrow developed and exhibited by Bruce Hollingsworth placed third. Fourth and fifth place light weight Club barrows were exhibited by C. J. Powell. Elmo King's pen of three light weight barrows placed fourth. The Poland China heavy weight Club pig exhibited by Eddie Wiegand placed seventh. Marshall Jackson exhibited the sixth place light weight Hampshire barrow. Elmer Franks exhibited eighth place heavy weight Club pigs. James Shults, the only Coryell County adult having a display at the show, placed 3rd and 4th on heavy weight barrows. In addition to the individual placings Coryell County exhibited the first place county carload of Club pigs. The forty-one Coryell County hogs constituted the largest county group on display. The hogs were all sold at auction for very satisfactory prices, with 9c per pound as the top prices received.

In addition to the entries in the exhibited a mutton type lamb, which placed second. This lamb was sold at the excellent price of 14½c per pound.

The boys who attended the show state that their only criticism was the length of the show, which was very tiresome for those attending as well as hard on the animals on display.

Coryell County boys should realize the wonderful opportunity which they have for producing and disposing of good quality, well developed hogs.

Inquires for such animals are received almost daily from various parts of the state, and due to the very limited supply only a few of these can be filled. However, it must be kept in mind that good breeding alone will not produce the quality hogs which the public demands. In order to produce the desired type hogs, as well as other livestock, good quality foundation animals must be used and their off-springs must be well developed.

The trip to the Houston Fat Stock show was indeed a success from the standpoint of winnings and sales. The quality of the livestock producing counties, as well as stimulate interest in livestock production of individuals within the county.
