Hornettes Romp Over 'Meadow' on a Lark' and Annex Girl State Basket B. Championship in Waco

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PRESENT DIST. CHAMPS, TROPHIES

With a delightful program presented by the student body of Evant High School, and featuring the school band, rythmn band, a girls quartet and other features, Evant High School Boys Basket Ball Team, District Champions and finalists in the Regional meet, were presented Friday morning, with gold basket balls.

These were engraved with the proper inscription and presented to the team, and Coach McFadden by representatives of the Gatesville Chamber of Commerce.

Included in those who made the trip to Evant for the presentation, from Gatesville, were: George Painter, E. W. Jones, R. D. Foster, H. K. Jackson, L. S. Holmes, County Judge Floyd Zeigler, J. Hurl McClellan, postmaster, and Superintendent Ercell W. Brooks, of the Gatesville Public Schools.

Included in the team were: Parrish, Kelm, Lindsay, Sheldon, Jones, McGilvray, C. Armstrong, G. Armstrong, and others whose names we do not have. Twelve basketballs were presented in all.

"DIXIE GRILL" NEW, AT COR. LUTTERLOH AND MAIN

With a slogan, "Every Bite Guaranteed" Kay Ament, well known cafeman hereabouts has just opened the Dixie Grill, one of the better "drive-out" places, out of the traffic, and where you can get all sorts of refreshments.

You can either stay in your "motor" or go in, since there is room for some eighteen "on the inside", and parking space for some 50 or more cars outside.

The service is "curb" or otherwise. Drive out, and drive in" Kay, says.

HERE'S ANOTHER REQUEST FROM AAU, DALLAS, TO BOXERS

Who's interested? Saturday a letter came in from J. C. Massenburg, Secretary-Treasurer of the Southwestern Association Amateur Athletic Union, Dallas, suggesting a tournament be held here and that eight boxers be sent to the Southwestern A.A.U. Tournament in Dallas, April 12, 13, and 14.

Rules, entries, we believe, would be the same as in the Golden Gloves District and State Tournament which were held in February, and sponsored by the News Amateur Athletic Association.

COUNTY MEET OPENS WEDNESDAY: THAN WHICH THERE IS NO GREATER EVENT HERE

IT'S THE HIGH LIGHT OF ANY SCHOOL YEAR IN COUNTY

Literally, and actually, thousands are expected in Gatesville, during the coming four days of this week, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, because, on those dates, Coryell County's greatest annual event starts, "The County Meet."

Already, programs have been carried in the newspapers, and Mrs. D. I. Campbell of the County Superintendent W. D. Stockburger's office says the entries—well, she wouldn't even estimate them—there are so many.

Besides all these folks who have those hundreds of "sports spectators," fond mother and fathers, teachers, sisters, brothers, and well just about everybody.

The opening events will be the one-act-plays under the direction of Miss Maude Alyce Painter, which will start in the gym at 10:00 a. m. Wednesday. The meet will close, with declamations of all grades which will start at 7:30 p. m. in the respective places. Points and cup winners will probably not be announced before Monday or later next week.

Coryell County has had many county meet, and each and every one is a thriller to the students of school age, the same as it was to us "old folks" when we were younger kids.

GATESVILLE BASEBALL NINE TAKES ONE FROM BLACKFOOT

Gatesville Baseball nine downed Blackfoot Sunday in a hectic game, when they routed the losers with a count of 8-1.

Next Sunday, the locals take on the Belton W. O. W. team in Belton, and will probably have their hands more than full, since this team is the Central Texas Champions of Class D baseoall. A return game is expected from this team later.

So far during the three pre-season games, Gatesville has scored 42 runs to their opponents 5, which, makes it look like the local boys may have something.

NEVER WERE IN HURRY AFTER OPENING SECONDS OF GAME

Gatesville High School Hornettes, Girl's Basket Ball Team of the local high school, brought home a collection of trophies, basket balls, and, in addition, the love and affection of every citizen of Coryell county, by their sterling victory 52 to 25 Saturday evening in Waco in the magnificent new Rena Marrs McLean gymnasium at Baylor University, making them 1939 Stat eGirls Basket Ball Champions.

At no time in the history of Coryell county or Gatesville, has a team of any sort, flying the colors of any high school of the county, ever won a "State Title" until this good year, 1939.

Here's the story of how it happened, as told by John Frank Post, Jr., Sports Editor of the News.

G'ville's Golden Hornettes staged a brilliant third quarter scoring spree that swept a cocky, dangerous Meadow sextette off its feet and out of the tournament to cop the girls state basketball championship for the good year of 1939. For one quarter the Gatesville girls looked the part of professionals. Their swift passing and uncanny shooting left the Meadow girls in a bewildered state, and proved that the Hornettes had by far the best team in the state. This last-half rally enabled the Hornettes to turn the game into a rout, 52-25.

Margaret Weaver, whose great shooting has won many close games for the Hornettes this season, peppered the bucket for a grand total of 29 points, 26 of these points coming via the field goal route. She shot from every angle of the floor, and tossed shot after shot that was impossible for the Meadow defense to guard. Her wheeling one-handed shot couldn't miss.

Zorida Thomasson, by far the best guard of the tournament, held Miss Decker, Meadow forward who had run wild in three previous games, to a low score, Decker, the Meadow offense fell apart. They began shooting wildly, and the Hornette guards took these wild throws off the backboard with amazing regularity. James and Hinson played the greatest games of their respective careers. In fact, the defensive play of the Hornettes throughout the entire tournament was magnificent. Tournament officials and critics unanimously agreed that the Hornettes had the best set of guards of any entry.

The Hornettes started slowly, and missed many good shots in the opening moments of the battle. Meadow sunk eight tallies before the Hornetes scratched, but about three minutes after the opening whistle, Coach Schwarz sent Ruth Rutherford into the fray. This girl was hot as a firecracker and the first time she fired at the goal, it touched nothing but the net for Gatesville's opening tallies. She scored three (Continued on last page)

CORYELL RETAINS "MULE CHAMPIONSHIP" TITLE AT FORT WORTH FAT STOCK SHOW

Coryell county, noted for its finer mules, and quality as well as quantity production of them, retain the title in a special Added Attraction, the "Mule Show" at the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show.

Six mules were taken to the show, part of them by Luther Scott of Gatesville, stock buyer, and W. J. Watson of Jonesboro, breeder.

Bring back to this county, three first places, three seconds, and one third, is some prize winning with six animals, and that's just what was done.

Included in the competition were such well known firms as C. B. Teams Mule Co., one of the leading mule companies of the south; Bluff Valley Farm of Tehucana, a mule breeding farm; Brandts' Breeding Farm of Fort Worth, which was plenty tough competition.

In the show, the mules are classified by age; under year old, 2nd place was taken; under 2 years of age, 1st and 3rd prizes were taken; under 3 years old, 1st and 2nd prizes were taken, and 1st and 2nd mule team under 3 years old.

We maintain, that's keeping the records straight.

TWO SONS, NOT TWINS BORN SAME DAY, SAME MONTH

You don't say! It happened right here in Gatesville. It happens, also, that there is three years difference in their ages.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Webb have two sons, Lorraine and Wesley Webb—only two, and no daughters in the family. Both boys were born in January 14.

All of which, is one for the Ripley crowd.

At least, "It don't happen often."

PLAN REORGANIZATION OF FOOTBALL IN LEAGUE FOR 1939

Austin, Tex.—Reorganization "to provide more evenly matched competition" will bring 21 new high school teams and a new State grid district into schoolboy football ranks next fall, R. J. Kidd, athletic director of the University of Texas Interscholastic League, said here today. He believed more than 628 squads will compete next fall.

Mr. Kidd pointed out that the 628 grid teams playing next fall under League sponsorship will not include the newly established six-man football loop. There are 150 teams divided into fifteen districts awaiting the starter's gun in that division next fall, he said.

Rev. W. H. Barsch, pastor of the Lockhart Baptist Church of Lockhart, was visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Barsch recently. Mrs. Barsch accompanied him here while on the visit.

STATE SCHOOL SUPT'S WIFE RECOVERS $75 RING

Mrs. E. H. Nesbitt has her ring back! a $75.00 ring!

Here's how it happened, according to a story in The Houston Chronicle, last Wednesday.

"A $75 diamond ring, brought in the toe of a sock from the negro division of the Gatesville State School for Boys, turned up in Houston wrapped in a handkerchief and tacked to an ironing board.

"The ring belongs to the wife of the superintendent of the institution. Chief County Probation Officer W. E. Robertson said he will return it Wednesday.

"The wife of the superintendent had sent the ring to a Waco jeweler to be repaired. When it was returned, one of the boys working in the mailing department opened the package and took the ring. He sold it to another inmate, age 17, for 10 cents as the latter was being released. The purchaser placed it in the toe of his sock and walked out of the school.

"Checking up with the jewelry company to ascertain why the ring had not been returned, the superintendent's wife was surprised to learn it had been mailed three months earlier. By questioning boys working in the mailing room she found the name of the boy who stole the ring and also the name of the boy who had bought it for a dime.

"County Probation Officer Paul White went to the home of the latter boy Tuesday, and after a long search and threats to file charges against the boy, found the ring under the ironing board."

STILL A-1 IN MULES

Coryell County lead the world in the production of mules in 1935—isn't that the year?

Now, still leading, in 1939, is Coryell County, which in the recent Special Added Feature of the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show, W. J. Watson, Jonesboro, breeder, and Luther Scott, Gatesville, buyer, took the majority of the prizes in the "Mule Show" in that Exposition.

All of which means, Coryell county is the Army's, ours and other armies favorite place to get the old reliable, "The Old Army Mule."

Some towns boast of this and that, much of which, to the least lacks the usefulness of the old reliable Mule. Coryell, it's breeders and buyers, are to be congratulated for this speciality which now, as in the past, has identified Coryell County thruout the universe.

OUR BEST PRODUCT, "GIRLS"

Mr. Mule may have his day, but the premier product (if you want to call them "products") are Coryell County Girls.

Witness (we hope you did) their recent recognition in Waco at the State Girls High School Basket Ball Tournament.

These Girls of Gatesville High School, and also Ireland High School, have brought an honor to Gatesville never before attained. "GIRLS HIGH SCHOOL BASKET BALL CHAMPIONSHIP OF TEXAS."

To them, their coach, their parents and families, and the school authorities, We salute and honor you!

But—let's don't stop there—and we are certain, there is already a movement underway to further laud you for the distinct honor which you have brought to Gatesville and Coryell County!

Writer Finds Daily Newspapers Greatest Source of Inspiration

THE daily newspaper is the greatest source of inspiration for Rita Weiman, popular short story writer. At least ninety percent of the stories she has written drew their first breath somewhere on a newspaper page. This is the method she employs to bring her stories to life: a certain item in a paper strikes a chord in her imagination; she clips it, pastes it on a sheet of paper, and immediately sets down her "fictioneer's" reactions. If the reactions are all-powerful she begins drafting a story on the spot; if not, she files the item away for possible future material.

Rather than the headline itself, Miss Weiman is primarily interested in the human motives back of the news. That is, what prompted certain characters to act the way they did; what was the psychology behind all their actions and movements. This, for Miss Weiman, is her story, what she calls "the unwritten story behind the news."

RITA WEIMAN

In final form, her story may be totally unlike the original item that struck the first spark, for, as she says, some of the actual happenings of the day would be labeled "fantastic" if they were reproduced fictionally. A good example of this would be the Musica story. "Impossible," "too fabulous," "not a grain of possible authenticity," "too unreal to have any bearing on humanity," might well have been some of the complaints thrown at a fiction writer's head had the story ever been written in the past.

Characters are real only when they create their own situations, Miss Weiman says. They are perfectly clear to her when she sits down to write, but she lets them run their own course, rather than force them to things against their own will, figuratively speaking.

Miss Weiman, who has contributed to such magazines as Good Housekeeping, Cosmopolitan, Collier's, the Saturday Evening Post, and the late Pictorial Review, writes her stories in longhand. There is something about the typewriter that frightens her. She usually writes a story only twice, the original version (which she corrects as she goes along) and the final one. A story of 5,000 words takes her about three weeks; one of 15,000 words about six weeks.

Miss Weiman is married and lives in the country in a house "so conducive to work." Six hours a day she puts in at her work, three in the morning and three in the afternoon. She loves writing, one reason being it's essential for her disposition. As her husband puts it, "she's impossible to live with when not working."

As for advice to the young writer, Miss Weiman says get all the learning you can about the arts—not for the information or factual knowledge itself, but for the love of rhythm and symmetry one acquires, so essential when putting words down on paper. As for further advice, well—read the newspapers and try hiding away in the country, if you're from the city, or vice versa: a fireplace and green fields for the city-folk and the roar of a subway and bustling Times Square for those from out yonder.

FAMOUS DOG DIES— CONTRIBUTED MUCH TO FEEDING SCIENCE

"Red" Spent Twelve Years as Aid to Scientists in Nutritional Work.

A noble dog is dead! His pedigree was unknown—he could never boast of a purebred background—he never saw the inside of a show ring—he never entered a field trial nor won a blue ribbon. Since early puppyhood he was never outside his small pen, yet thousands of visitors came each year to pay tribute to him and his work.

His name was "Red." No one knew anything about his mother or father. Twelve years ago he was brought to the newly founded dog kennels of the Purina Experimental Farm at Gray Summit, Missouri, to become a first-line "hunger fighter" in dog nutrition. For twelve years Red served as a laboratory to verify the opinion of scientists on what should be in a complete dog food.

Helps Find Dog Health

Until his recent death, Red's condition was fine. His rich red-brown coat was glossy and smooth, although gray hairs were beginning to appear. His gums and teeth were sound and clean and his eyes sparkled like a young puppy's. He never tasted any feed but Purina Dog Chow and water from the day he was brought to the farm. Year after year this dog, who could neither read, write nor speak, worked alongside scientists, nutritional specialists and dog experts, verifying their theories of what should be in a complete dog food.

His Work Will Live

Red is gone—but the work he did in dog nutrition will live after him. He did what the scientists could not do. He ate, digested, and through his health and condition reported his findings. He never whined nor complained of his lot. Isolated and apart from other dogs, he served faithfully and well. He is keenly missed by those who worked with him. He will continue to be asked for by his friends visiting the Purina Kennels.

BOY SCIENTIST "X" IN FORT WORTH, FORMERLY AT "STATE"

Quite a furor has been raised about a certain "X", a 14-year-old boy thief who may either be an embryonic Floyd Hamilton or a budding scientist, destined to gain immortality.

"X" broke into a high school laboratory and stole a microscope, chemicals, retorts, tubes and other equipment of physicists. He was a former inmate of the State Juvenile Training School here where he was known to be interested in science.

When found, he was squatting on the bathroom floor at his home in Fort Worth squinting one eye over the microscope lens.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure.

When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feet tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages may be further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.

The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

was well illustrated one day on the set of "Going Places", the Warner Bros. picture opening at the Regal Theatre next Saturday.

Dick Powell was about to sing a love ballad to Anita Louise. The stage wasn't closed, the members of the troupe were not talking in awed whispers and there wasn't an atomizer or throat lotion in sight.

Seated at a baby grand piano Powell was running scales and burlesquing an opera aria. Miss Louise amused herself by tickling his ribs to make him choke when he reached for a high note.

A couple of pipe-smoking electricians adjusted a light a few feet from his head and Powell didn't so much as wince. The cameraman loosed a blast of cigarette smoke said everything was ready to go and Director Ray Enright announced "we'll take it."

Powell struck a couple of notes on the piano and at Enright's nod, launched into the song, "Say It With A Kiss". He went thru it as easily as though he had been singing in the bath tub at home instead of on a film stage.

When the scene had been recorded, Powell walked off the set humming, "Say It With A Kiss."

'em in from all angles to turn the game into a rout. They scored ten points before Meadow could tally, and after Meadow sunk a field goal, the Hornetses counted fourteen points in quick succession. During this time the Hornetses were passing with faultless precision, and they were making every shot count.

The Hornetses received their hardest contest from a classy Bullard entry. They barely eked out a win by a two point margin 23-21. This game was close all the way through. The score was tied 8-8 at the end of the first period, but the Hornetses held a one-point lead at halftime. The Bullard team was leading at the end of the third quarter, and with only three minutes of playing time remaining, The Bullard team was in the van by a seemingly comfortable margin of five points, and the Gatesville rooters had just about given up hope. Shoaf, classy Hornette forward who played consistently good throughout the tournament, really went to town when the heat was on. She sunk a crip from a difficult angle and a few seconds later hit a beautiful long one. Weaver, after some adroit passing by her mates, broke in the clear and sunk a crip to give the Hornetses a one-point lead. This lead was short-lived, however, as Bullard came back to sink a quick field goal, and regain the lead. Rutherford sunk a free throw to knot the score, and with a minute to play, Shoaf tallies a field goal to put the Hornetses ahead, 23-21. From then until the final gun, the Hornetses just played keepaway with the fine East Texas entry.

Thomasson's defensive play during this battle was marvelous, and her good work was the chief reason for the Hornette victory. Always on top of the ball, she covered the ball like a blanket, and held the fast-passing Bullard forwards well in check. The Hornetses played fine basketball, except for the fact that the forwards missed a great many shots that they usually make.

When the Hornetses made their tournament debut against the large Courtney team, which won the consolation championship, they played the worst ball they displayed during the entire tournament. They started very slowly, but ran up a six-point lead in the first quarter. The Courtney club came back and took a one-point lead during the second quarter; and when the Hornetses saw that it was necessary, they opened up and scored five field goals in quick succession to take a 20-11 lead at the half. During the last half they loafed to an easy win. Weaver amassed 18 tallies to lead the scorers, although she played only a little over a quarter at forward.

The Hornetses met the Rising Star team in the semi-finals, and after the first string had run up an eighteen point lead, Coach Schwarz sent in his reserves to keep the score down and to allow his regulars to rest up for the championship battle. Weaver again lead the scoring parade with 11 points, although she played only about half the game.

Gatesville's two outstanding performers won themselves places on the mythical all state team, Margaret Weaver at forward and Zoriada Thomasson at guard. Weaver scored a grand total of sixty points during the tournament, an average of fifteen points a game. In addition her passing was flawless, and she played a hustling floor game.

Much has already been written about "Ollie", as Thomasson is called by her admiring mates and close fans, but she can not be given too much praise. She played a consistently great game, time after time making phenomenal interceptions and blocking shots. It was her shackling of the opposing team's "hot-shot" that was responsible for the Hornette wins. These two girls received gold basketball with "all-state, 1939" inscribed on them.

Sarah Hinson also received a loving cup for being the prettiest brunette in the tournament, and Nannie Katherine Bunnell of Ireland received a like award for being the prettiest red-head.

The complete all-state team as picked by the tournament officials, was as follows: Forwards, Weaver, Gatesville; Crain, Mesquite; and Decker, Meadow; guards Thomasson, Gatesville; Clyburn, Bullard; and Davis, Ireland. Mary Davis, fans of this county will remember her as the fiery No. 14 on the Ireland team, richly deserve the honor she received. He play during the tournament was outstanding, and she hustles every minute of every ball game. She has delt the Hornetses more misery this season than any other guard.

After the final contest, the Hornetses were awarded with a beautiful large trophy emblematic of the fact that they were state champions. Also, the twelve members of the team won miniature basketballs with a white star and the words "Champions, 1939" on them.

The Hornetses were a fine team. They passed with faultless precision, and their team work was machine-like. They showed the effects of the splendid coaching they have received.

So, in conclusion, we salute the Hornetses and their splendid coach Mr. Fred Schwarz, state champions of 1939!

THE BEACHCOMBER

A Story in Pictures of Charles Laughton's Great New Picture, "The Beachcomber" - Based on a Novel by W. Somerset Maugham

(CHAPTER THREE: Ginger Turns Knight.) Knowing Ginger's reputation throughout the islands, Miss Jones spends a night of terror, crouching in a musty cave watching the beachcomber loitering near the fire, she wonders what schemes are taking form in his mind. From her work-kit she takes a big scissors and holds it ready against the possibility of his annoying her.

The advances expected by Miss Jones fail to materialize! She awakens early the next morning to find only one change—a blanket has been thrown over her during the night by Ginger. When she compliments him on his new-found chivalry he replies by grunting and offering her some bananas for her breakfast. He warns her not to bother him any further. She is troubled. This man seemingly is completely disinterested in her. Or is he?

Back in the settlement, the Controleur invites Ginger to dinner at the Residency, where he is profusely thanked by Dr. Jones. The doctor tells the beachcomber he can become a real man if he wants to. Disgusted at the preaching, Ginger turns on him and tells him he wouldn't touch Miss Jones with a barge pole! This proof that his friend has not changed pleases the Controleur. Jokingly he says, "It must be love, Ginger!"

Miss Jones goes even further than her brother to win the confidence of the beachcomber. While he is away, she goes to his shack, and with a few feminine touches, turns it into a habitable cottage. When Ginger returns he is angered at her interference, but lets her take a thorn from his foot.

THIS WEEK IN AUSTIN

By Julian Capers, Jr.

Austin—Oil, a subject in which Texas is always interested, has brought our neighbor, Mexico, to the most critical pass since its violent revolution of a generation ago, according to Michael Scully, noted Texas newspaper man and author, who has just completed a 3,000-mile Mexican trip for a national news syndicate. In 12 states of the southern republic he talked to hundreds of people of all classes to get a cross-section of Mexican opinion on the country's problems.

"Mexicans generally feel that unless the oil controversy is settled soon anything can happen," Scully says. "The cost of living has jumped 35 to 50 per cent over the republic in two years. The government has just rewritten its banking laws to pave the way, if necessary, for inflation of the currency. As for possible violence, nobody wants it, but I can only report what I saw, and that is the building of more than 30 new army posts in spots where their only purpose would be to quell internal trouble."

Trouble is Brewing

"Seizure of American and other foreign-owned oil properties a year ago is not at the bottom of the problem. It is only the fabled last straw, about to break the camel's back when piled on top of troubles that have been building up since President Cardenas took office four years ago.

"Considering world depression, Mexico then was in good shape. Foreign trade and internal business were active. The United States was paying high prices for Mexico's chief export, silver. Tourist traffic was just beginning to boom and American travelers were bringing $20,000,000 and more a year into the country. President Rodriguez, Cardenas' predecessor, had got under way a stable program of school and public works building, redistribution of land to landless peasants and government development of new industry, all on a moderate scale in proportion to the government's ability to finance it.

Labor Trouble Grows

"But Cardenas' idea seems to have been that all these things, because they are called for in the constitution, must be accomplished overnight, or at least within his six-year term. He doubled, then trebled former government expenditures. He obligated the government to finance 1,600,000 peasants and their families on expropriated lands, most of whom are not making expenses today. Egged on by Lombardo Tolendano, the labor chief, he encouraged union demands for higher and higher wages which resulted in 833 strikes in 1937 and greater number, still uncounted, last year. This, together with heavy new taxes on industry, drained the bank account of business and frightened off new capital.

"The country was in a bad way a year ago, so bad that the government tried to borrow $5,000,000 from the oil companies as an advance on taxes in order to keep its other activities going. The companies' refusal was, among other things a factor in expropriation.

"When expropriation came, capital stampeded to get out of the country. Some $25,000,000 is known to have disappeared from circulation. The peso fell from 28 to 20 to the loddar. Business went into a coma. Living costs took another jump.

Pile on Taxes

"In the past year, the government has continued to pile on taxes, finding money wherever possible, even mortgaging its Laguna cotton crop with an American capitalist for a $2,000,000 loan.

"It has moved a lot of oil, about 14,000,000 barrels, in deals with Germany, Italy and Japan, and contracted to sell another 12,000,000 barrels. But not more than a fifth of this is paid for in cash. The rest represent trade between two moneyless individuals. In the meantime oil production has fallen, according to the best figures obtainable, from 3,600,000 barrels a month to about 2,700,000.

"To date, few business men can see where the government has made a profit on oil exports. On the other hand, it has lost during the year about $16,000,000 which the companies formerly paid in taxes, $5,000,000 on increased production which the British Shell company had guaranteed it, and at least another $5,000,000 through decrease of former normal production.

"Barring inflation, the government has about reached its credit limit. Together with its dependent institutions, it now owes the Bank of Mexico about $40,000,000. Its credit to the 1,600,000 communal peasants and their families therefore is being spread thinner and thinner, and the peasants are becoming more and more restless.

"The most fortunate thing that could happen to the country, according to most business men, would be an oil settlement whereby the companies would advance funds necessary to see the country through what looks like an inevitable crisis."

STRAWBERRY PRESERVES

At this season the two recipes for strawberry preserves given here may be found useful:

Recipe No. 1:

- 1 quart of sugar
- 1 1/2 quarts strawberries, (Never double this).

Wash and grade the strawberries into two classes, large and medium sized. If there are any over ripe berries these may be used for making jam. After the berries have been thoroughly washed in the colander, then remove stems with a stainless paring knife or a small ice cream spoon.

After removing stems from berries, place in colander and let water run over them lightly to remove any grit.

Place layers of berries and sugar alternately in an enameled lined or extra heavy aluminum kettle. Heat slowly and stir gently until the sugar melts. Cook very rapidly for 15 or 20 minutes or until the syrup sheets from the spoon.

Remove any skim with a silver spoon. Allow to cool; when cool and before jelly stage is reached, pack in fruit jars. Wipe surplus from jars. Close.

Allow to stand over night and process for 15 minutes in hot water keeping water just below boiling point. Remove lid at once and pour hot paraffin 1-16 inch thick over surface. Seal at once.

Recipe No. 2:

Take 2 cups sugar and 1 cup water and boil them until it begins to form a thread. Add 1 pint of strawberries and cook 10 minutes and 1 cup of sugar sprinkled over the top; keep this continuously boiling and boil about 10 minutes, or until it reaches a jelly stage. Remove from fire and shake until the foam form in the center of the kettle and it can be easily skimmed off. Then pour into a flat container and let cool before putting into the jars and place in hot sterilized containers, cover with wax and seal at once.

Cockle-burs produce seeds capable of germination in both the year following and the second year. This accounts for the inability to exterminate this pest by plowing up the plants as soon as they show up in the spring.

The Safety Sensation of 1939!

Firestone CHAMPION

The Only Tire Made with the
NEW SAFETY-LOCK CORD BODY
and NEW GEAR-GRIP TREAD...

NEVER before in our experience has a tire met with such instant and unanimous approval as the new Firestone Champion Tire. It's the Safety Sensation of 1939! Our customers have started a word-of-mouth campaign that is making this the biggest selling tire we've ever had. Motor car manufacturers have been so impressed by its superior performance that they have adopted it for their 1939 models.

Why? Because the Firestone Champion Tire is an entirely new achievement in safety engineering.

Stronger Cord Body. This is accomplished first, by the use of a completely new type of tire cord called "Safety-Lock," in which the cotton fibers are more compactly interwoven to assure cooler running and provide greater strength. Then the fibers in each individual cord, the cords in each ply and the plies themselves, are all securely locked together by a new and advanced Firestone process of Gum-Dipping which provides amazingly greater strength. And greater strength means greater safety.

More Non-Skid Mileage. The new Safety-Lock cord construction provides the extra strength needed for the use of the new, thicker, tougher, deeper Firestone Gear-Grip tread which delivers remarkably longer non-skid mileage. This sensational new tread is called "Gear-Grip" because of its unique design — it has more than 3,000 sharp-edged angles which grip the road with a sure-footed hold to protect against skidding and assure a safe stop.

Drive in today and equip your car with a new set of Firestone Champion Tires — the only tires made that are safety-proved on the speedway for your protection on the highway.

LOUIS MEYER

Champion race drivers, whose lives and chances of victory depend on tire safety, know tire construction and that is why they select and buy Firestone Tires for their cars.

This amazing new Firestone development makes a blowout as harmless as a slow leak.

Should a blowout occur the exclusive Firestone Safety-Valve holds sufficient air in the inner compartment to support the car until it is brought to a safe stop.

THE AWFUL PRICE YOU PAY FOR BEING NERVOUS

Quivering nerves can make you old and cranky and hard to live with. You can keep you awake nights and ruin your good health, good times and good looks.

What you may need is a particularly good woman's tonic—and could you ask for anything whose benefits are better proved than famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Let its wholesome herbs and roots help Nature build up more physical resistance and thus help calm your shrieking nerves, give you more energy and make life worth living again.

More than a million women have reported benefit—why not let Pinkham's Compound help YOU, too, to go "smiling thru" trying times like it has other grateful women for the past 3 generations? IT MUST BE GOOD!

KEEP THE HORSE IN FRONT

By T. C. RICHARDSON, Secretary
Breeder-Feeder Association

There ought to be some sort of livestock and poultry on every farm in the Southwest. It offers means of increasing farm income, besides distributing both labor and income throughout the year. "A farm is not a farm without its barnyard noises," said some wise man. The whole theme of these articles is to encourage and in some small degree to point the way to a balanced farming system in the Southwest which will relieve the uncertainties of crop-farming. But—

And it is a great big "but"—we must be careful to not get the cart before the horse. Farm livestock and poultry are primarily a means of manufacturing raw materials—feed and pasturage—into more useable and salable forms. If the farm hasn't the feed—at least a large part of it—it is not ready for livestock. We have all seen the tragedy of feed shortages, forcing the sale of animals at a sacrifice or keeping them at an excessive cost by purchasing feed.

What the farm flock and herds live and thrive on next winter depends on the kind of feed and pasturage available, the facilities for taking care of them, and above all, the amount of feed to keep the growing and producing twelve months of the year. The feed must precede stocking the farm with feed-consuming fowls or animals, and now is the time to start producing the feed.

"Livestock without feed is a farm tragedy" says Sam A. McMillian, who ought to know, for he has, like many of us, seen too many tragedies of "going into" the livestock business without the fortification of feed supplies to avoid having to "go out" under pressure.

We Americans are constitutionally inclined to "bore with a big auger," to think a business beneath consideration if it isn't a big business. It is mighty easy to over estimate the carrying capacity of a pasture, to "guess" we have feed enough for twenty cows or a hundred hen and find out, too late, that we have feed enough for only half as many. It is not only a matter of safety, but a matter of profits, to have more than enough rather than less.

Livestock and poultry are not like annual crops—they grow and require feed 365 days in the year. The very fact that they go on producing when crops are not growing is what makes them valuable in the farm set-up. But a few well-fed every day are better from every standpoint than many half-fed, or well-fed for a few months and half starved the rest of the year.

There is just now a sort of "boom psychology" in certain types of livestock, especially beef cattle, sheep and hogs. The prices of these animals have held up better than most other farm and ranch products, which is always a temptation to over-stocking. "In at the top and out at the bottom" is the sad history of many business enterprises, including every sort of farming enterprise. It is scarcely necessary to say that the "in-and-out" is seldom the winner in any line of business.

But Southwestern farms must have livestock and poultry, each in proportion to the size and type of farm. It is essential to the present as well as the future of farming in this favored region. All I am trying to say here is that we must "grow into" rather than "go into" that phase of sound farm management, and "growing into" it means growing the feed ahead of the consuming needs of the livestock.

As we plant feed at this season we plant the eggs for the Christmas market, the cream for every day after summer pastures fail, the fat hogs and beeves of next winter and spring, the fat turkeys for Thanksgiving. Let's not get the cart in front of the horse.

● Mansfield Tires are 3 Ways Safer because they are built three ways differently from other tires.

Mansfield Cord-Lock construction puts more tough cord fabric into the sidewall. Their wide, flat treads are made of Duro-mix rubber that wears longer in grinding service. Their high tensile piano wire beads are seven times stronger than actually needed.

Mansfield Tires equip thousands and thousands of cars and trucks in every part of the country today because wise motorists wanted Mansfields and bought Mansfields—they did not get them as equipment tires.
