COUNTY MEET SWINGS INTO THIRD DAY THIS MORNING

C. H. WALLACE JR. GETS ALTERNATE APPOINTMENT TO ANNAPOLIS

C. H. Wallace, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wallace of Gatesville has just received an alternate appointment to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland, according to information received here this week.

C. H. is now a student of South East Texas State Teacher's College at Huntsville, and was graduated from Gatesville High School with the class of 1938, of which he was one of the most popular boys, being Editor of The Present, school annual, a star member of the football squad, playing center, and was an all-around student.

C. H. received his appointment thru Congressman W. R. (Bob) Poage, and will go to Dallas on April 1 for the entrance examination. It is understood an "alternate" is in line for a place on the student body of the service schools, whether or not he gets the first appointment or not.

Boys who have received appointments heretofore from Gatesville nold, who went to West Point, and John Bailey who went to the Naval Academy.

To many, an appointment to either of these institutions is considered the most coveted honor that can be given to a young man in the entire United States, and we are certain all of C. H.'s friends will be delighted to learn of this fortunate opportunity given him by Congressman Poage.

At the "Twin Convention" held in Waco, at which time the famous Key and Pericone quads were due to attend, our own twins, Representative Weldon Burney and his brother Woody Burney attended. Also the Senator and Representative twins, the Hardin boys.

After the "twin convention" sponsored by Baylor University, the "quads" will go to Galveston, where they will have a "quad" convention in Galveston. There is also another set of quads in north or east, but as far as is known, these will not attend the Galveston convention.

CORYELL JERSEYS TO BE EXHIBITED AT WACO SHOW

Continuing the dairy development work in Central Texas arrangements have been made to again hold a Dairy Day for Coryell and other nearby counties. This exhibit will be held in Waco on April 10th. It will be remembered that this new type of dairy exhibit was held in Gatesville last year and that cattle from this and adjoining counties were displayed. We have promised those in charge to have some Coryell County cattle on exhibit, and those interested in exhibiting cattle should contact the county agent's office for details.

REVIVAL SERVICES TO BE HELD AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

A two weeks meeting will be in progress at the First Baptist Church beginning Sunday, April 16. Reverend O. M. Thompson, pastor of the Beacon Hill Baptist Church of San Antonio will be the visiting preacher during the meeting.

BERNARD BRADFORD DIES IN NEW BRAUNFELS

Surviving are his widow and three sons, Johnnie and Hershel of Gatesville, and Velda of Goldthwaite.

Welcome! County Meeters

Gatesville's latchstring is on the outside—it was Wednesday and Thursday, and will continue to be, Friday and Saturday!

We, all of Gatesville extend to each and every contestant, their parents, teachers, trustees, friends, and everyone interested, a hearty welcome to our little town.

We urge you to make yourselves AT HOME collectively and individually. We know, this is going to be the BEST county meet in the history of Coryell county, and we want YOU to thoroely enjoy it.

Sincerely,
ALL OF GATESVILLE

TEMPLE DELEGATION AT LIONS LUNCHEON WEDNESDAY

Temple Lions, headed by F. A. Thomson, formerly of Gatesville, were here Wednesday in the interest of a member of their club as the next District 2-X Governor in the next Lions election.

Besides the Temple folk, the club was entertained by the GHS Choral Club, and also, S. M. Melton, Regional Wild Life Manager spoke briefly outlining the plans for this county which is one of 23 which he "manages". He urged, after giving the background of the conservation practices, the cooperation with the game department of the Extension Service and landowners in the county.

COTTON REPORT FOR '38 AS GIVEN BY COTTON SPECIALIST

Coryell county this year, ginned 9,834 bales, counting round round as half bales, during 1938 as compared with 16,271 bales from the crop of 1937. These figures were given out by J. B. Graves, Cotton Specialist, Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, for Coryell county.

This shows a terrible shortage over the corresponding number of bales ginned in '37, and accounts, probably for the noticeable shortage in "cash" hereabouts.

B. & P. W. CLUB TO HONOR STATE CHAMPS MAR. 30

Women know how to entertain women, and only at 2 p. m. yesterday afternoon, the Business and Professional Women's Club decided they would sponsor a banquet honoring the Gatesville High School Basket Ball Team, State Champions of Texas for 1939.

Tickets will be on sale soon, and a program will be announced in Tuesday's issue of the News.

The banquet will be held in the gym, and will be open to everyone in the county, that is, ticket holders—and WHO shouldn't want a ticket to that banquet.

Mrs. J. C. Ward spent a few days recently with friends and relatives in Sweetwater.

PURMELA HAD ONE-VARIETY COTTON MEETING MON. NIGHT

In a community meeting held Monday night Purmela farmers organized a one-variety cotton community with J. B. Sanders as president, R. A. Bertrand as vice president and W. T. Laxson as Secretary. The organization followed a discussion on soil conservation work, high quality seed and community organization as essential steps in improving the cotton situation of our locality. This discussion was held by County Agent Guy Powell and farmers of this community. In order for one-variety cotton communities to receive the most benefits the farmers of the respective community must be sufficiently interested to call and attend the necessary meetings, and must cooperate with other members of the organization. This interest and cooperation was exhibited in the Purmela meeting in that the farmers of the community made all arrangements for this, their first, meeting at which the community was well represented.

LIEUT. J. K. WALKER IS NOW 2ND IN COMMAND AT CCC CAMP

Lieut. J. K. Walker, formerly of the CCC Camp at Brownwood, has just been transferred to the CCC camp here, where he will be second in command.

Lieut. Walker stated yesterday he had been in Brownwood nine months, and the enrollees there were "seniors" or older men.

C. O. GUYTON LIKES SCS WORK

In less than three years a complete conservation farming system has repaid its original cost of installation on the 172 acre C. O. Guyton farm near Levita.

"Increased crop yields brought about by terracing and strip cropping during the past three years have been more than enough to pay for the whole program on my farm," Guyton said. "During this period no noticeable erosion occurred on my farm and all of the old gullies which were crossed by the terraces are filling up and disappearing."

Mr. Guyton also pointed out that formerly there were several seepy areas in his field which stayed too wet to plow most of the spring. Now the moisture is evenly distributed making it possible to plow the entire field at one time.

On the Guyton farm the program, which was installed with the assistance of technicians from the Gatesville Soil Conservation Service CCC camp, includes contour tillage with strip cropping and terracing on the cultivated land, protection of all terrace outlets with sodded waterways and the proper utilization of every acre.

Interested visitor to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Resource and Museum Institute in Abilene recently was the nation's first lady, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. Making a thorough inspection, Mrs. Roosevelt thought the exhibits were "wonderful" and was much impressed with West Texas' resources, both developed and undeveloped. "We should get the East's unemployed men and women and West Texas' unemployed resources together," she told WTCC Manager D. A. Bandeen, seen talking with her in the top photo as they inspected the Wool & Mohair Booth. In the lower photo, Mrs. Roosevelt is seen at the Cattle Booth. Before her visit to the WTCC exhibit hall, Mrs. Roosevelt spoke at Hardin-Simmons University, later granted a press conference to West Texas newspaper men and women in the WTCC directors' conference room.

COMING FROM FAR AND NEAR

Monday next in Waco Hall there will be a concert such as Texas has never heard. Several years ago Caruso sang in Fort Worth and carried away as his share of the proceeds $19,000.00, while the management received $7,000.00 for its trouble and expense. That is the high water mark financially of Texas Concertizing. Yet Stokowski, the greatest musical critic in the world, says Marian Anderson has a greater voice.

People are coming from Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Prairie View and from most of the smaller cities within fifty or seventy-five miles of Waco. Although Marian Anderson sings in Dallas and Fort Worth, the concerts there are closed and those who didn't buy the entire ticket are not eligible to attend.

Her program will include some of her finest pieces both classical and popular and she has promised to sing some of the encores for which she is famous. Marian Anderson has sung for many of the crown heads of Europe; she has toured the world and has received many ovations. In South America at Buenos Aires, she sang 12 concerts.

She has appealed to the greatest musicians. Stokowski says she has no equal in this generation; Toscanini corroborates the statement by saying she has the greatest voice in the world today; Jan Sibelius, Europe's outstanding composer dedicated a song to her.

Her popularity is evidence by the fact that she is booked up until Christmas of 1940 and what seems unbelievable is contained in these blazing headlines of the New York Times, Police called out to handle crowd at Marian Anderson Concert; All traffic hopelessly snarled in vicinity of Carnegie Hall! Brilliant Concert causes season's worst traffic jam!

Gatesville is so close to Waco that it should turn out en masse for such a wonderful opportunity. Tickets are on sale at Dr. A. J. Armstrong's office Science Hall Baylor. See ad elsewhere.

THIS WEEK IN AUSTIN

THE MEXICAN SITUATION

San Antonio—Mexico, now in the grip of a critical economic depression, is plugging into its bitterest presidential campaign since the revolution of 1910-17, according to Mexican business leaders and objective American observers arriving here from below the border.

Widespread opposition to the radical policies of President Cardenas has found aggressive leadership and is being organized to make the 1940 election the first in which the government party's candidate has not been assured of election, these observers say.

CARDENAS'S CRITIC RUNS

Spotlighting among anti-government leaders at the moment is General Joaquin Amaro, former secretary of war and builder of the modern Mexican army, who, announcing his own candidacy, has charged the Cardenas government with bankrupting the country thru its socialistic policies of seizing privately owned lands and industries and turning them over to peasant and workers who are failing to operate them succesfully.

An even stronger conservative candidate, however, is General Juan Andreu Almazan of Monterey, builder of Mexico's first modern highways, who is widely known in Texas as a constant friend of the United States. While Almazan has made no formal announcement of policy, his supporters are active thruout the northern states as well as in Mexico City.

NEW PARTY FORMS

The real threat to the government party and the nucleus of support for the conservative candidate is the organization of middle class groups now being formed thruout Mexico. These regional parties of business and professional men expect to get strong support from the 2,000,000 small land owners and employees of business who have not yet been drawn into the government's socialistic system.

The policy of these middle class groups is summed up in the manifesto signed in Mexico City by 1,000 doctors, lawyers, engineers, university professors and other members of the newly formed National Front of Professional and Intellectual Workers. The manifesto, summarized in translation here, calls on all professional men to work in the coming campaign for a governmental program which will "end the present demagogu and eliminate professional agitators; fight against communism and Mexico's real danger, fascism; complete individual distribution of land; defent the workers against their leaders; abolish socialistic education; grant a greater religious tolerance, and constitute a government that will abide by the law!"

CORYELL CITY 4-H CLUB BOY MAKES GOOD RECORD WITH HEREFORDS

Last November Ira Golke, Coryell City 4-H Club member, purchased two well bred Hereford calves weighing a total of 960 pounds. These calves were placed in the feed lot where they were developed on home grown feeds. The calves were fed a ration consisting of ground corn, ground oats, ground roughage (dwarf milo maize heads and forage) and baled sudan grass hay, on which they made the exceptional average gain of approximately 4½ pounds per day. Ira and his father are thoroughly convinced, by this demonstration, that the feeding of good quality calves on home ground feeds on a strictly commercial basis is most practical, and Ira has secured two more calves which he is feeding for the fall markets.

AT C.I.O. AND A.F.L. MEETING—A group of American Federation of Labor Men attending a joint meeting with representatives of the Congress of Industrial Organizations at the Hotel Biltmore, New York. L. to R. Matthew Woll, Vice President of the A.F.L.; T. A. Rickert, Daniel J. Tobin, Pres. of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, and Harry C. Bates.

HITLER FORCED RESIGNATION—Dr. Rudolf Beran (hat in hand) Czechoslovakia's Premier, who with his Cabinet was forced to resign by Chancellor Adolph Hitler, thus formally dissolving the Czecho-Slovak Federal State.

TWO THOUSAND YEARS OLD and still in good condition, a section of lead pipe found beneath the streets of modern Rome is displayed by Director R. P. Shaw in New York's Museum of Science and Industry. It formed part of the ancient city's water distribution system. Lead pipe is widely used today for this purpose.

ALL CHAMPS—Country Home Magazine, now conducting its fifth annual contest for country newspaper writers, points with pride to the four previous national winners, shown above; Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Mahnkey of Oasis, Mo.; Fin Petrie of Opal, Wyo.; Mrs. Edna Eaton Wilson of Ripley, Okla., and Mrs. Susan Frawley Eisele of Blue Earth, Minn. This year's contest has classes for editors and staff reporters, as well as country correspondents.

A HARNESS-BROKEN ELK—The New York State Police claims to have the only harness-broken elk in the United States. Jargo, a yearling steer, was born at the Troop Barracks at Binghamton and although he is still a baby, is well-harness-broken and fairly tractable.

Planting Livestock Profits

By T. C. RICHARDSON, Secretary
Breeder-Feeder Association

Improved permanent pastures are of course the key to permanent success in livestock. More than is generally realized this is just as true of hogs and poultry (including turkeys) as it is of cattle, sheep or beef cattle. Anything that can be done this spring, therefore, which will make the permanent pasture better either next summer or a year from now is a step in the right direction. There is still time to sow lepedeza, sod bermuda grass, and run contour furrows to hold the rainfall in the pastures. Temporary pastures, such as sudan grass, are equally importhat. The permanent pasture sometimes runs short in the summer drouth and it always needs an occasional rest to that the grass and clovers can mature seed, fill in the sparse spots, and maintain such a dense sod that weeds are held down. An over-grazed pasture usually soon becomes a weedy pasture, and the mower must be brought into play to control them.

Not only to help improve the permanent pasture, but of more immediate moment, is the need of temporary summer pastures to keep an ample supply of green grazing for all the livestock and poultry on the farm. A comparatively small acreage in sudan will keep the milk flow up when the permanent pasture is short or dry, it will keep the hens and turkeys healthy, it will supply an essential vitamin to all manner of animal life.

A good many successful farmers plant cowpeas or soy beans in the corn and turn livestock in to do the harvesting. In the western portions of Texas and Oklahoma the best practice is to plant the corn or grain sorghums "two rows and skip one" with the beans or peas planted in the vacant row. Farther east there is usually enough summer rainfall to support both crops in the same row, but on thin land alternate rows of corn and peas or soy beans is more generally the practice. The point is to use some legume crop, according to its best adaptation, because legumes are needed in a good ration, and they add to the productive value of the carbonaceous feeds, either grain or forage.

There remain the one sure-shot, twelve-month, source of succulent feed—the silo. Of all the "pastures," permanent or temporary, it is the only one which neither drouth nor waterspout, fire nor flood, heat nor cold, affects. It can be used any day in the year when needed, or it can be left indefinitely without deterioration. Many thousands of farmers in the Southwest have already proven the trench silo as a cheap and efficient method of storing feed as an insurance against shortages. Many more thousands will this spring plant for the silo, and those who do not will go on taking the risks of weather and fire.

What shall we plant? Whatever will grow best on your farm! Grain or sweet sorghums usually make the heavier yields in the Southwest, and where they "head out" well are equally as good, ton for ton, as corn. Corn and soy beans make an ideal silage, but it takes good land and ample rainfall to produce a good crop where they are drilled together in the row. A good many farmers like popcorn as a silage crop, planted thickly. Plant whatever you think best on your farm, but plant silage of some sort!

It is pretty hard for a Southwestern farmer to ensilage a corn crop which is making a good yield of grain. Those who know it value by experience do not hesitate to put a forty-bushel corn crop in the silo, as Troy Fenner did last year. But Troy had been feeding silage and knew that forty bushels of grain in the silo is worth more than the same amount of dry grain.

For those whose heart might fail on a promising corn crop, it is probably better to plant something else for silage; but by all means plant something for the silo!

ZEKE SEZ

Austin—There were exactly 22 members of the House of Representatives who joined that mythical club, known vicariously as the "Dodo-Birds," on Thursday of last week when they changed, over-night, their vote for the proposed income tax amendment by Leighton Cornett of Red River County. The overnight switch brought about defeat of the income tax resolution after it had been passed on Wednesday. Gov. O'Daniel's influence was said to have been the deciding factor! One member of the House was seen to carry four different groups of his fellow members into the governor's office Wednesday afternoon! Yet some folks still say the governor doesn't know his politics!

Yes, the fighting over the pension tax measure gets hotter day by day. The 66-day rule became effective Monday of this week when it is no longer necessary to have a two-thirds majority to get a tax measure passed. Last week, it was necessary to have a two-thirds majority, or 100 votes. Parliamentary maneuvering is the order of the day from now on. And it is really an interesting fight. But the great majority of the members want to provide revenue for the old folks, for dependent children, the adult blind and for the teacher retirement act. The transaction tax, as advocated by the governor, is far from dead, as it will be offered this week as an amendment. Neither is the income tax amendment exactly dead.

Anent the revelations concerning lobbying methods employed by some of the officials charged with administration of the Old Age Assistance Commission, carried in this column last week, we wish to thank Mr. Ben Harigel of the LaGrange Journal, Mr. H. D. Meister of the Yoakum Herald, Mr. Carl Rust of the Texas

City Sun, and Mr. J. C. Estlack of the Donley County Leader for extra copies of their fine papers which were placed on desks of the House members where the contents were read with avid interest. The movement, started by Representative Albert Derden of Marlin and others to bring about a much needed change in the administration of the Old Age set-up, is really under way. Representatives Russell of Johnsan, Roach of Kaufman, Harrell of Lamar, Brown of Nacogdoches, Dowell of Caldwell, Isacks of El Paso, Bundy of Wichita, Pace of Cooke, Reader of Erath, Westbrook of Sabine, Clark of Stephens, Bailey of Wood, Cleveland of Hays, Petsch of Gillespie, Alsop of Panola, Newell of Young, Harrell of Bastrop, Lock of Angelina, Ferguson of Rusk, Kersey of Wise, Galbraith of Wharton and scores of others, too numerous to list here, are really gearing themselves for a fight to the finish to see that the old folks in Texas get justice from that Old Age set-up, now dominated by hold-over politicians of the liquor-drinking, poker-playing crowd. More on this next week.

One of the most badly needed pieces of legislation now facing this legislature is an effective law to curb the invidious loan shark racket in Texas. Small towns are not yet infested with these buzzards as much as the cities where they prey on the laboring man and the small salary men and women. Representative Mason D. Harrell of Bastrop is author of a bill that seeks to limit the interest rate within the legal 10 per cent, with certain service charges allowed. A bill by Representative Homer Leonard is along the same line. A compromise measure is expected to come out of the subcommittee this week. The Better Business Bureau of Dallas reports that 50,000 persons in Dallas alone are in the grips of these up-stairs loan sharks who charge all the way from 40 to 200 per cent interest. A law is needed to put these leeches under the State banking department, it is pointed out by supporters. Victims of these loan sharks should write to their representatives now to support one of these bills.

Faced with a decisive defeat of one of their bill, the Leonard bill to raise the truck load limit to 20,000 pounds, the board of directors of the Texas Motor Transport association, which group has backed the fight for trucks, this last week went on record to continue the fight against the 7,000-pound law without compromise or abatement. Senators Rogers Kelly of Edinburg secured approval by the Senate highway committee, 9 to 6, of his bill allowing the highway department to issue special licenses to trucks hauling fruit, vegetables, livestock and livestock food just as special licenses are now issued to trucks hauling heavy commodities not easily dismantled such as oil well machine and pipe.

A special lobbying committee has been named by Speaker Morse, composed of Salty Hull of Fort Worth, Magus Smith of Pearsall and Eugene F. Harrell of Lamar. This committee is charged with investigating lobby activities of all kinds, including time being spent with legislators by paid employees of various state departments. A Travis County grand jury was charged last month by Judge Ralph Yarborough with investigating lobbying activities at the Capitol, and it reported from an unimpeachable source that some of the lobbyists were so bold they even approached some members of this grand jury individually in an attempt to learn "if they meant business". On the other hand, there are many legitimate lobbyists who deal in a fair and just manner, so this is not an indictment against all of them. For instance, Chairman Ely Thornton of the appropriations committee revealed a day or so ago that "everytime I open my files, I see certain teachers college president at my elbow"! Believe it or not!

Officials of the State Livestock Sanitary Commission were in Austin this week from their headquarters in Fort Worth in support of their plea for an emergency appropriation of $107,000. Records show this department was allowed $635,484 by the 45th Legislature and an additional sum of $376,865 at the last special session, making $1,012,349 for the 2 year period, yet they seeks $107,000 more to carry them until next September 1st. Representative Albert Derden of Marlin and Alsop of Panola are fighting against this emergency appropriation, both pointing out that the federal government recently allocated $324,000 to Texas for the same work—tick eradication. Representatives Derden charges that Chairman J. L. Wardlaw of the Commission draws $3,000 salary and, being an attorney, cannot possibly qualify as the right man for the job; also, that Wardlaw's private secretary (who works in his legal firm and not in the commission's office) draws $15000 yearly of state funds. In other words, Representative Derden's contention is that the livestock sanitary commission's program is costing the state millions when it could be administered by the federal government without cost to the state. "Why not give half of this money to our state parks board and maintain our parks with it instead of carrying a lot of unnecessary supervisors and tick inspectors on our rolls at great cost to the state?", he asks.

The horses came up for the race one day last week, then were carried back to the stables for an indefinite stay!

VOLUME VII

GATESVILLE, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1939

NUMBER 27

The House has spent practically all week on the Interior Department Appropriation Bill. This bill covers a great number of activities, including Indian Affairs, National Park Service, Coal Commission, Geological Survey, Reclamation Bureau, etc. It has some of the most controversial items of any of the appropriation bills. One of these has long been a choice subject of demagoguery. There are about 25,000 natives in Alaska who are the wards of the United States. They formerly lived on Carabao meat. The white men have killed the Carabao. We have had several committees investigate the matter and all agree that the cheapest way to handle it is to buy reindeer and let the natives raise them as we do cattle. From the deer the natives get both food and clothing. Yet this provision has been discussed longer than any other one item in the bill, and will probably be taken out just because the members are afraid that folk will say that the Government is now buying reindeer for Santa Claus. I think it is the cheapest way to handle the Alaskan situation and I think we should go ahead in spite of the ridicule. People from other sections laugh when we ask for funds to fight pink boll worms, but we know that these pests are serious, and this is a matter of life or death for Alaska.

Next week we will probably take up the Agricultural Appropriation Bill and possibly the President's request for a second supplemental WPA appropriation. I seriously doubt if the extra $150,000,000 that is asked for WPA will be voted. Congress does not want to cause any suffering, but we know that the present WPA policy is wasteful. It seems that we can not get Col. Harrington to even try to cut out many of the needless items of expense. If he would but reduce the expensive projects like the New York Art and Theatre Projects and cut all workers pay to the same basis that is paid in Central Texas, plus and differential that exists by reason of higher costs of living elsewhere, he would have more than enough money already appropriated to keep everyone now on the rolls and to add thousands who are now certified but not employed. If anyone tells you differently, figure it yourself. There are less than 3,000,000 people on WPA rolls. Congress has already appropriated $725,000,000 to run the WPA for four and three fourth months. If three million people were paid $32.00 per month each for four and three fourths months it would take $4,560,000,000. This leaves $269,000,000 for materials, extra pay, and administration.

On the other hand, I am convinced that there should be substantial increases in the Agricultural Appropriation Bill. The committee will not make their draft of the bill public until the day it comes up for consideration (a practice which I consider very bad), but I feel sure that it contains no appropriation for any price adjustment or subsidy payment on the 1938 cotton crop. I think this subsidy should be paid, and I am afraid that many of our people have expected it and made plans based on the belief that such a payment would be made. There is lots of confusion about this, but as a matter of fact $130,000,000 was paid last Fall on the 1937 crop—$85,000,000 is available for payment this Fall on the 1939 crop. No provision has ever been made and the Department of Agriculture has never planned to pay any subsidy on the 1938 crop. Of course, the Soil Conservation payments are being made on each year, but there is a definite skip in the price adjustment or subsidy payments. I shall support an amendment to provide money for such payment on the 1938 crop.

If we can get enough money we can make most any farm program a success as long as the money lasts—and I am convinced that we can never restore prosperity to the rest of the country until we restore buying power to agriculture. We may get sweeping changes in our agricultural program in the years to come, but I do not think that we will or should have any fundamental program changes this year. It is too late in the season. Therefore, for this year the only way to stimulate farm buying power, and with it national recovery, is to subsidize farm production. It would take about $1,750,000,000 to pay parity on the five crops covered by the present farm bill. This is a tremendous sum, but it is only one half as much as we are spending for relief this year. I believe that if we would pay it, it would save both the farmers and the rest of the country. I am for it. I had planned to offer an amendment to this effect, but I have talked it over with members of the Agricultural Committee and they assure me that an amendment will be offered by a committee member. (under the rules, committee members have the first right to offer amendments and an amendment has a better chance of passing if offered by a member of the committee) I shall do all I can to put it over. If some such subsidy is not paid—look for a price fixing bill next year.

M. BLANKENSHIP GIVES APPROVAL TO SCS WORK

Resting permanent pastures during the growing and seeding season of the native grasses will greatly improve their carrying capacity and provide a much more effective cover for erosion control according to Monroe Blankenship, local landowner and secretary of the Gatesville Farm Loan Association.

"Every farmer should plant enough temporary pasture to carry his livestock during May, June and July", Mr. Blankenship stated. "This will give grasses on the permanent pasture a chance to grow and reseed."

Mr. Blankenship has, during the past two years, established complete erosion control programs on two of his farms with the assistance of local Soil Conservation Service technicians and CCC enrollees. In the installation of these programs all badly eroded cultivated land was retired to permanent pasture. Most of these areas were also used as waterways to provide a controlled outlet for terrace water from the adjoining cultivated fields. The emptying of large amount of terrace water on these areas made it most important that they furnish effective erosion control. By a plan of deferred grazing during the 3 months of early summer. Mr. Blankenship has been able to produce and maintain a good cover of grasses on all his pasture areas. This has enabled him to effectively control erosion on his farms and, at the same time, profitably utilize land which produced no income in the past.

THE BEACHCOMBER

A Story in Pictures of Charles Laughton's Great New Picture, "The Beachcomber" - Based on a Novel by W. Somerset Maugham

(CHAPTER FOUR: The Plague Fighters.) Roused from a sick-bed by an urgent call from the Controleur, Dr. Jones, accompanied by his sister, learns that a horrible epidemic has broken out on one of the islands; help is dispatched immediately. Realizing that her brother is too ill to make the trip, Miss Jones desperately thinks of Ginger as a substitute.

Ginger turns a deaf ear to her pleas for aid. He isn't anxious, he tells her, to leave his pleasant life and plunge into the fever-infested jungles, where he may be killed by the superstitious natives. But something in the girl's voice makes it impossible for Ginger to maintain his opposition. Finally he weakens and grudgingly consents to accompany her on her trip.

The reception Miss Jones and Ginger get from the natives does nothing to allay their fear. Believing the epidemic to be punishment meted out to them for forsaking their native gods for those of the white man, the natives refuse to have anything further to do with the outsiders. But, backed up by Ginger and his guns, Miss Jones forges ahead with her plans to help them, no matter how she or Ginger may be treated in result.

Ginger's eloquence and threats of force cow the natives sufficiently so that they consent to submit to vaccination. Ginger keeps them in line while Miss Jones administers the needle. The two outsiders realize the peril of their situation—especially when Miss Jones takes the chief's dying baby under her care in defiance of the chief's will.

Il Duce Celebrates

With a new message for the world, Italy's Premier Mussolini had a big day Thursday. The new chamber of asces and corporations was inaugurated, succeeding the Italian chamber of deputies. The date also marked the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the first "Fascio di Combattimento," Mussolini's storm troopers.

RURAL SCHOOL PROBLEM

Although half the nation's school children attend classes in rural areas it has become increasingly apparent in recent years that country schools are failing more and more to meet the needs of 20th century civilization.

Surveys have shown that country children have an average of 134.5 days in school each year, compared to 156.5 days for city children; that only half the rural school have libraries; that in the United States there are still 138,000 one-room schools, all eight grades of which are taught by one teacher.

Although the seriousness of this situation is known, analyses of the causes have been few. Last week, just such a study was winning the attention of many schoolmen. Recently published in the annual education yearbook of the International Institute of Teachers College, Columbia University, it was compiled by Prof. Edmund deS. Brunner. Among the causes of the rural school problem, as he saw them were these:

Lack of adequate monetary support. The total yearly expense for rural education is only $548,000,000, compared to $1,000,000,000 in urban American schools.

The shifting farm population. Of the estimated 1,500,000 farm laborers, 1,000,000 are migrants, who follow crops seasonally thru different areas. This seriously interrupts the schooling of their children.

The poor quality of rural teachers. The chief reason for this is their low pay. "One half of those serving were paid less than $750 annual salary in the low year of the depression."

In the fact that old type district schools are declining at the rate of seven a day, the Brunner report saw some cause for satisfaction. But to speed the whole solution of the rural education problem, it urged "Federal aid without Federal control."

BRIEFS

Because she was "compelled to perform such fantastic and perilous antics" as the head-stand in her school gymnastic class a New York court awarded 14 year old Elizabeth Garner $3,000 damages for a dislocated vertebra suffered during the school course. The court declared it "absurd" to consider the head-stand "a necessary part of education".

When 9,000 University of California students milled around his home to dissuade him from accepting an offer to become a bank president Robert Gordon Sproul, president of the school, announced to them his "psychological and instinctive" decision not to change jobs. The bank position carried a salary of $50,000 a year; the university pays Dr. Sproul $13,500.

HOLLYWOOD NEWSLETTERS

By IRVING PARKER

Quite an upheaval has taken place on Radio Row since this column last made its appearance!

Sponsors of the Jack Haley fun-fest have decided to take it off the air April 7, and the Joe Penner program will mute, March 30, to be replaced by Joe E. Brown and his troupe the following Thursday. The awning-lipped comedian now broadcasts on Saturdays.

And here are two more interesting shifts: Amos 'n' Andy, for eleven years headliners on NBC, will begin airing their humor via CBS April 3, and the Robert Benchley show, now heard on CBS, will move to the NBC-Blue network, May 21.

Andre Kostelanetz's vocal arrangement of "The Lost Chord" is used by well known church organizations throughout the country.

JEAN RAUVEROL, who plays the role of Betty in that popular series, "One Man's Family," was a coed at Stanford University at the same time Page Gilman, her radio husband, was attending the California institution. But they didn't meet until they were teamed in Carlton E. Morse's drama of American home life.

Lyle Talbot, handsome screen leading man, has recovered from the severe burns he suffered when his Hollywood home burned to the ground recently, and he'll return to the flickers in Sonja Henie's "When Winter Comes."

Ray Block and his "Swing Fourteen," heard on the "Johnny Presents" programs, have signed for a series of twelve recordings.

Rumor has it that Carole Lombard won't become Mrs. Clark Gable until after his present picture is finished. Don't hold your breath because Clark is playing Rhett Butler in "G.W.T.W.," which won't be finished for many months.

Presenting that Byronesque air-lane personality, KEN NILES, who masters the ceremonies on Jesse L. Lasky's "Gateway to Hollywood" broadcasts (Sunday, CBS). Beginning April 9, Ken will introduce unknown vocalists to the listeners, and Music Director Wilbur Hatch will give the embryonic artists fine support with his own musical compositions.

There is an honest man! When Dick Powell signed an autograph after a rehearsal of his Tuesday soap show, he absent-mindedly gave the autograph and his pencil to the signature seeker. The writing implement was a gold one that had been sent him by a fan club in Chicago. Next day the pencil came back to Dick in the mail.

Humphrey Bogart, Warner Bros. film meanie, is going soft. There isn't a single sneer in the script of "The Old Maid," in which he appears with Bette Davis and Miriam Hopkins.

Music plays an extremely important part in a radio dramatic program, as any dialer of "Big Town" can appreciate. FRAN FREY, formerly vocalist with George Olsen's band, writes an original score for each Edward G. Robinson broadcast and conducts an orchestra composed of Hollywood's finest instrumentalists.

THIS WEEK IN AUSTIN

Austin—Reflecting the utter confusion in the minds of many members of the Legislature, the House of Representatives after a week of debate upon the taxation problem, like the King's soldiers in the old song, marched up the hill and then marche right down again. The House, considering the proposed constitutional amendment written by its revenue committee, which is an omnibus measure including a two and one half percent sales tax, plus levies on natural resources and utility bills voted by a scant majority, to take out the sales tax, and substitute a net income tax provision, with rates and exemptions similar to the Federal income tax law. After passing the substitute to engrossment, the House reversed itself under terrific pressure from the special interest lobby which is working for a sales tax and killed the income tax. It also voted to increase the proposed tax on natural gas slightly, and was considering increases in the levy on oil and sulphur, when adjournment was taken for the weekend.

LOBBY WORKS TOGETHER

The present tax fight present one of the strangest anomalies in legislative annuals in Austin. The special interests which have advocated a sales tax for years, and have fought all other tax plans, have united behind the committee constitutional amendment, which was largely authored by Alfred Petsch. The reason for this is that the amendment will place by far the major part of the proposed $42,000,000 burden for social security purposes—including pensions, for the aged, for teachers, and aid for dependent children—upon the backs of the poor, through the imposition of a sales tax. The concessions made by the natural resource group to take slight increases are made with the hope that by freezing the rates into the Constitution, they will be safe there from future levies, and the pension burden will be taken care of, with the poor folks bearing three fourths of the cost. This situation has brought about the strange sight of the lobbyists for utilities, sulphur, amusements, oil, gas, railroads, and corporations lying down in the same bed together, whereas they are usually fighting among themselves like cats and dogs, to shunt the tax burden onto each other. Only they aren't lying down this time, but are working night and day to push thru the sales tax, in the most highly concerted drive seen in Austin since the days of the big fight over control of the East Texas oil field.

SENATE TO BE HEARD FROM

Opinion of the most experienced observers here is that whatever the House does on the present constitutional amendment will make little difference in the long run. So far, the sales taxers have mustered a maximum of 90 votes for their program, on various test votes, which is 10 less than necessary. Under the terrific pressure from the united special interest lobby, it appears likely the House committee amendment may be adopted.

But adoption by the House means little, since the Senate is certain to make radical changes in the amendment, if the House should adopt it. That means, if a two thirds vote can be mustered in the House for any kind of a tax amendment, it will be rewritten by the Senate, and then will go to a conference committee. The last 48 hours of the session probably will see the legislators confronted with the choice of taking a conference committee's report, or nothing. Best guessers here believe that it will be a strait sales tax, with perhaps small imposts—much smaller than those proposed in the House—on natural resources. Whether the legislators then will take such an amendment, in preference to rejecting it and passing no tax program at all, will depend largely upon the pressure from the lobbyists and the old folks. Most observers here believe they will take the sale tax plan, rather than go home without adopting any tax program, unless the folks back home make it clear during the next few weeks that they do not want any tax program that will extort another $45,000,000 a year from the pockets of the small taxpayers, to put into the pockets of the aged.

In the Senate, Clint Small has a constitutional amendment, providing for a 2 per cent sales tax, and writing a constitutional limitation of $15,000,000 for old age pensions, as the maximum for all time, from State funds. This Small plan may well be the one finally adopted, and there is a strong sentiment in both house in favor of that part of it, at least, which would put some kind of ceiling on old age pensions payments.

Food for Health

Today vitamins are no longer clouded in mystery. Man is finding out what vitamins do for the body. A diet extremely low in any one vitamin leads to a characteristic deficiency disease. Pellagra may be the result of more than one deficiency. It now appears that an insufficient amount of the pellagra-preventing factor is the chief cause.

Nutrition workers are more convinced than ever that people do not get enough vitamins. Pellagra still claims far too many victims in Coryell county. The early symptoms of pellagra are loss of appetite, loss of weight, and general weakness. The more acute symptoms are sore mouth, digestive and nervous disturbances, and skin eruptions, particularly on the hands, arms, feet and legs.

Best sources of the pellagra-preventing factor are lean meat, chicken, liver, leafy and green vegetables, and green or dried peas and beans. For growing a supply of these foods at home for a family of five the following is suggested: 1/2 acre garden supplemented by frame garden planting, 50 laying hens and 150 baby chicks, two 250 pound hogs, one 500 pound beef, a few sheep, two 500 gallon dairy cows, 2 acres of field crops including peas.

Vitamin requirements will be best assured if foods are used as fresh as possible, if some are served raw and some are "quick cooked", and if all vegetable and fruit juices drawn out in preparation are served in one way or another.

Plans are being made for the fourth annual 4-H Girls County Encampment June 6th and 7th this year. Goals for attendance eligibility will be based on the fruit plot and bedroom improvement demonstrations.

May 13th, 4-H girls will exhibit article made this year in improving their bedrooms.

Replanted and new frame gardens are showing up at their best now. This form of planting is a convenient way to supply fresh vegetables for the table.

SCRIP FOR FOOD

The depression era has hatched no problem more vexing than that of poverty in the midst of plenty. While farmers pile up huge stores of unsaleable grains and fibers, the unemployed suffer for want of food and clothing.

To move surpluses from producers to the needy, The New Deal has tried several schemes. The Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation now buy up annually 50 million dollars worth of goods for free distribution to the poor. But such steps antagonize distributors and merchants who see Federal competition cutting into their markets.

Last week, after talks in Washington between the Agriculture Department and 19 representatives of the National Food and Grocery Conference, Agriculture Secretary Wallace announced an experiment designed to utilize the farmer's surpluses, guarantee the merchant's profits and feed the hungry all at the same time.

In six selected cities of from 50,000 to 200,000 population relievers and WPA workers will be allowed to take that portion of their income which they spend on food in a special government scrip instead of in cash. This scrip will be good for any and all foodstuffs at all stores. As a bonus, those who cooperate will also get a second type of scrip worth half the amount of the first type and exchangeable at any store only for foodstuffs designated by the FSCC as surpluses. Grocers will cash both types of scrip, perhaps at postoffices, for full face value.

A WPA worker making $50 a month, for example, who spent $14 for food, could, if he chose, take $14 in red scrip and spend it for any food he wanted. In addition he would get $7 in blue scrip with which he could buy, say, butter and oranges. This would create a demand for surplus butter and oranges, increase the grocer's income and fatten the WPA worker's larder. The government would foot the bill.

With the scrip scheme still in its infancy last week, many questions about it remained to be answered. How much would the program cost if adopted nationally? Would fraudulent use of the scrip—such as selling it at a discount to non-relievers or grocers—create a heavy lay enforcement problem? These and other questions Wallace's six-city experiment was designed to answer. It would be continued the Secretary indicated.

for two or three months. If successful, he added, the scrip plan might be applied nationally, and even extended from foodstuffs to several other heavy surpluses as, for example, cotton.

The Safety Sensation of 1939!

Firestone CHAMPION

The Only Tire Made with the
NEW SAFETY-LOCK CORD BODY and NEW GEAR-GRIP TREAD...

NEVER before in our experience has a tire met with such instant and unanimous approval as the new Firestone Champion Tire. It's the Safety Sensation of 1939! Our customers have started a word-of-mouth campaign that is making this the biggest selling tire we've ever had. Motor car manufacturers have been so impressed by its superior performance that they have adopted it for their 1939 models.

Why? Because the Firestone Champion Tire is an entirely new achievement in safety engineering.

Stronger Cord Body. This is accomplished first, by the use of a completely new type of tire cord called "Safety-Lock," in which the cotton fibers are more compactly interwoven to assure cooler running and provide greater strength. Then, the fibers in each individual cord, the cords in each ply and the plies themselves, are all securely locked together by a new and advanced Firestone process of Gum-Dipping which provides amazingly greater strength. And greater strength means greater safety.

More Non-Skid Mileage. The new Safety-Lock cord construction provides the extra strength needed for the use of the new, thicker, tougher, deeper Firestone Gear-Grip tread which delivers remarkably longer non-skid mileage. This sensational new tread is called "Gear-Grip" because of its unique design — it has more than 3,000 sharp-edged angles which grip the road with a sure-footed hold to protect against skidding and assure a safe stop.

Drive in today and equip your car with a new set of Firestone Champion Tires — the only tires made that are safety-proved on the speedway for your protection on the highway.

Mansfield Tires are 3 Ways Safer because they are built three ways differently from other tires.

Mansfield Cord-Lock construction puts more tough cord fabric into the sidewall. Their wide, flat treads are made of Duro-mix rubber that wears longer in grinding service. Their high tensile piano wire beads are seven times stronger than actually needed.

Mansfield Tires equip thousands and thousands of cars and trucks in every part of the country today because wise motorists wanted Mansfields and bought Mansfields—they did not get them as equipment tires.
