CITY-COUNTY BUY LIGHT STANDARDS FOR LIGHTING SQUARE AND STREETS

EIGHT WILL BE USED ON COURTHOUSE LAWN OTHERS ELSEWHERE

Announcement has just been made that, the county, in cooperation with the city, has just bought twenty-five light standards to be placed, around the square, and down Main street as far as possible. Eight of the standards which were bought by the county will be placed on the Courthouse lawn, the other seventeen will be distributed around the square in front of the business houses, and on down East Main street as far as they will go, according to J. O. Brown, member of the City Council. Judge Floyd Zeigler cooperated with the city in the purchase of this equipment.

Mr. Brown also said, this is just the beginning, and as fast as can be done, other lights will probably be installed continuing Gatesville's "Great White Way".

For some time, this improvement has been underfoot, and in the minds of the business men of Gatesville, and a special committee of the Chamber of Commerce has been appointed to help solve this difficulty. This, however, is the first step in its fulfillment.

NOTICE TO FARMERS

Any farmer who can assemble authentic gin records such as authentic gin tickets or sales receipts for any or all years from 1934 to 1937, inclusive, should present them to the County Committee at once.

This means that a farmer can plant general crops on the cotton allotted acreage and receive the cotton pay, even though no cotton is planted. However, the neutral or government land acreage, as previously issued, must be in non-depleting crops; such as, sudan, cane, millet, etc.

THIRTY CENTRAL TEX. COUNTIES TO MEET FOR CEN. TEX. C. OF C.

Representatives of cities and towns in about 30 Central Texas counties will meet at 10 a. m., Friday, April 21, at the Raleigh Hotel in Waco, to consider the formation of a Central Chamber of Commerce, it was announced by W. D. McDermott, of Waco.

McDermott, who is chairman of a committee of the Waco Chamber that was named to assist in sounding out sentiment of the region on the matter, said 42 cities and towns have announced they will send delegations to the meeting and that many others also are expected to be represented. Attendance of about 400 business men is anticipated.

The movement was initiated by business men in a group of Central Texas towns and cities who asked Waco to join in determining the views of the region as a whole, McDermott said. A survey revealed so much interest that it was deemed advisable to hold the meeting without delay, he said. Waco was chosen as the place for the meeting, as the suggestion of the other towns and cities of the region, McDermott announced.

WARNING!!!

Here's one that might save you $14.75. A traveling man out of Gatesville, W. C. Bradley, who handles potato chips, candy and other eatables manufactured here in Gatesville was in Lampasas one day last week.

Also, there was a member of the State Health Department, taking up these fines, $14.75 a piece. . . .

Anyone who handles anything to eat or drink, such as soda water at a filling station, according to the law, must have a health certificate—and many Lampasas people paid off.

It's just a tip that might save YOU something!

Featured entertainers will be the Rythm Boys, of KTEM and WACO fame, a Hillbilly aggregation, who will open the show Thursday evening, and for the grand finale, Al Ritchie, the ORIGINAL Popeye will be the second-night's feature.

Due to the fact, revival meetings are in progress in Gatesville, the entertainment part of the show will be put on after the services at the church close.

In addition to the entire free show FREE refreshments will be given to the visitors to the show, and arrangements have been made with the Duncan Coffee Company, manufacturers of Admiration and Bright & Early Coffees to assist in this feature, and tentative arrangements have been made with the Brown Cracker & Candy Co., also.

MANSFIELD TIRES

● Mansfield Tires are 3 Ways Safer because they are built three ways differently from other tires.

Mansfield Cord-Lock construction puts more tough cord fabric into the sidewall. Their wide, flat treads are made of Duro-mix rubber that wears longer in grinding service. Their high tensile piano wire beads are seven times stronger than actually needed.

Mansfield Tires equip thousands and thousands of cars and trucks in every part of the country today because wise motorists wanted Mansfields and bought Mansfields—they did not get them as equipment tires.

The major measures before the House this week have been additional appropriations for Naval work and the continuation of the FHA (Federal Housing Authority). Yesterday, the House voted an additional $50,000,000 for the Navy—$45,000,000 was for the construction and improvement of naval bases, chiefly on the Pacific coast, and $5,000,000 was to reconstruction and modernize certain smaller vessels of the fleet, especially submarines.

Earlier in the week we had extended the life of the FHA and had given it authority to greatly increase the volume of insurance it could issue. The greatest work of the FHA is to guarantee loans made by private agencies on homes. In this way our people are able to get money for home construction thru the regular channels and the outlay by the Government is relatively small. An amendment was adopted prohibiting the use of any value on the land in excess of its actual value at the time of the loan. I supported the amendment. I think that the FHA is a very useful agency, but it must be kept on a sound financial basis.

There have been two gatherings of members of Congress, the Supreme Court, Cabinet members, and the President this week. The first was the sad occasion of the funeral of Hon. J. Hamilton Lewis, late a Senator from Illinois. The services were held in the Senate chamber where he had served so long. Senator Lewis was a very colorful and beloved man. His death was entirely unexpected. His funeral was simple but impressive. On very few occasions are the heads of all the branches of Government gathered in one group as on last Wednesday, but by strange coincidence most of these same officials were gathered this afternoon on the lawn of Mt. Vernon were Pres. Roosevelt made a short talk in connection with the 150th anniversary of the notification of President Washington of his election as President of the United States. While it was a dark day, threatening rain all the time, one could not look down on the beautiful Potomac and over the spacious grounds of the estate without being profoundly impressed with President Roosevelt's statement that it was doubtless with many misgivings that General Washington left this beautiful home to assume the responsibilities of his office.

This week also witnessed the final approval of the second additional appropriation of $100,000,000 for WPA. With the passage of this bill Congress had provided a total of $825,000,000 since the first of the year, with which to carry on the WPA—this in addition to the regular annual appropriation, and there should be no excuse for the widespread cuts that the Washington offices are ordering. There are only two possible explanations of their action. First, they have tried to forget that WPA is a RELIEF agency, they want to make of it a great construction agency doing the work of the PWA, and everybody knows that a construction agency is more expensive than a relief agency.

In the second place, they want to mislead the people into believing that they must have more and more millions for overhead, office force, construction jobs, and finally, such foolishness as WPA plays and exhibits at the World's Fairs. In order to do this they are willing to reduce the number of needy people employed. In this way they apparently hope to intimidate Congress. The know Congress don't want anybody to suffer because of the inability to get a job. We in Congress know that the American people who have an income are willing to pay all that is necessary to care for those of four people who have no income, but they are not willing and they should not be expected to pay for a second construction agency. The PWA was created to build needed public improvement, like dams, sewers, school buildings, jails, courthouses, etc. It is properly interested first in getting construction done, but WPA was created for the primary purpose of giving needy people a chance to help themselves. It should be more interested in feeding six hungry mouths than in seeing that some frail mother is able to turn out six shirts in a sewing room, or than that some poor father is able to move six yards of gravel. And yet, we find that right now the WPA is discharging people without regard to need and solely on the basis of supposed efficiency. Often this results in the discharge of the very person who needs the work the most. This policy is not right or fair. Congress has appropriated enough money that it should not be necessary to discharge any needy worker, but when cuts have to be made NEED should be the first consideration, and there can be no justification for a cut in personnel of relief workers with no cut in the full paid supervisory personnel, and I have heard of no such cut. I realize and I hope our people realize that the local officials did not establish these rules. They were established by the "High Command" of WPA, and for that reason Congress has appointed a committee to investigate the WPA and its practices. I sincerely hope that this investigation may help turn it back to its proper and original purpose of helping needy people.

BEAR-AGGIE TUSSELL IN WACO TODAY: LAST TIME

Waco—The Baylor Bears will be battling for second place in the Southwest conference baseball race here Tuesday when they go up against the Texas Aggies in the season finale between the two clubs.

In their first two games, played in College Station two weeks ago, the Cadets eked out a one run win in both of the tilts to take an early jump on the Bears.

Since that time, the Bears have played for more loop games and have come thru with three wins in their four starts. The Bruins took a 7 to 1 decision from the Rice Owls in Houston and then handed T.C.U. a double loss in Waco.

In their last league start against the league leading Texas Longhorns, the Bears were humiliated with a 17 to 2 loss, but should be ready to bounce back into the win column in their A. and M. encounter.

JOB OF DUCHESS NOTHING NEW TO NTSTC CO-ED

Denton—The role of royalty is nothing new to charming Miss Ayune Mackey, junior from Denton at the North Texas State Teachers College, who has been selected to represent North Texas at the annual Cotton Style Show, pageant, and Ball to be held at College Station on April 21. Miss Mackey will act as one of several duchesses to the Cotton King, Beal Hargrove, who will select the style show queen.

Last year Miss Mackey was a Teachers College duchess at the Gilmer sweet potato festival. Now she's thinking of establishing an official order of college royalty for fair duchesses and queens of goodwill who travel about the country representing their colleges at various functions.

"At least it's an idea," she says.

THIS WEEK IN AUSTIN

San Antonio, Texas,—Failure of the Mexican federal and state governments to meet their payrolls is chiefly responsible for the increasing number of strikes and protest demonstrations in the southern republic, according to dispatches reaching Le Prensa, Spanish-language daily published here and information arriving from other sources in Mexico.

Teachers in eight states of the republic have staged strikes since the first of the year either to collect back salaries or demand pay higher than two pesos (40c) a day which most of them are receiving now. While most of these have been compromised, other government workers have not fared so well. Lack of funds has forced the government to discontinue several minor departments, notably the Social Medical Service in Mexico City from which 130 doctors and nurses were discharged.

According to a dispatch from El Popular, Mexico City, 2,000 highway workers in Veracruz are protesting that many of their number have not been paid for more than three months, while several similar instances are reported among road workers, dock laborers and others dependent upon government payrolls in scattered parts of the country.

Equally serious, according to the reports, is the situation in many of the government-supported agrarian communities. Mexico City papers of the past week report nine instances in which agrarian groups, failing to receive promised federal aid, have resorted to banditry and the looting of nearby village stores.

CAGNEY AS "THE OKLAHOMA KID" FILM CAVALCADE OF THE WEST

An action packed drama of America's great westward surge, "The Oklahoma Kid," with James Cagney as the title character, has been scheduled as the next feature picture at the Regal Theatre starting Saturday. A stirring cavalcade of the opening of the great southwest, it is one of the year's largest productions, and numbers over 3,000 people in its huge outdoor scenes.

Though he wears the sombrero, buckskin jacket and high-heeled riding boots of the frontier gun-fighter of the nineteenth century, though he carries a brace of old Colt six-shooters on his hips instead of a modern automatic shoulder holster, though he discloses that he is a real hell-for-leather horseman, Cagney is fundamentally the same sort of fellow as thrilled the crowds in such memorable productions as "Angels With Dirty Faces," "G-Men" and "Public Enemy."

At the outset of the story he is a bandit but not just a conscienceless robber and killer. He is an adventurous youth who has become a sort of Robin Hood of the Southwest. Eventually he is, in effect enlisted on the side of law and order, although he has really taken the law into his own hands. However, he performs a necessary service of public vengeance so bravely and so completely that he is forgiven all his past misdeeds.

Rosemary Lane plays the romantic lead opposite Cagney, and it is no milk and sugar heroine that this flashing-eyed member of the acting Lane family plays, but a real girl of the old West. Humphrey Bogart, furthers his screen reputation, playing the leader of a band of "Sooners" who are really a gang of treacherous gunmen. In the story he is a deadly foe of the 'Oklahoma Kid'. Among the many stirring scenes in "The Oklahoma Kid" is the land rush with which the picture opens. Land-hungry pioneers are lined up for miles waiting for the Federal Troops to give the signal that the new territory in Oklahoma is opened for settlement. They camp for the night, and to wile away the hours they have a big square dance, a huge colorful scene that will cause the years to roll back for many folks.

MARLIN PHOTO FIESTA AND FLOWER SHOW 22-23

Camera fans from all over the great Southwest will gather in Marlin, April 22-23 for the second annual Texas Blue Bonnet Photo Fiesta which in its first year, 1938, attracted "photo-hobbyists" from Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Arkansas and as far away as New York and Missouri.

The photo fiesta, the second ever to be staged in the southwest, is open to all amateur camera folks whether they use the small box camera of the beginner or the more expensive color and movie machine, of the most experienced amateur. While the event is meant mainly for the amateur, professional and news photographers will also attend.

In addition to the active taking of pictures in the fields with models, there will be clinics at which time experts will discuss subjects of interest to both professional and amateur. Bad, cold or rainy weather will not put a crimp in the fiesta as plans have been completed for indoor photo sessions with models and professionals aiding the amateurs in obtaining the best results from their efforts.

Marlin Camera Club in cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary and Lions Clubs are sponsors of the Fiesta, and the entire citizenship will become hosts to the visitors for the two days during which the occasion lasts.

In addition to the opportunity for taking pictures of some of the most attractive spots in central Texas, the visitors will see more than 50 salon prints from the Photographic Society of America, that is internationally famous. The Zeiss flower picture salon will be an outstanding feature on exhibit and leading manufacturers of photographic supplies will be represented with displays. Prints from photographers and camera clubs in the Southwest will also be shown.

The wild flower show of District 9 of the Texas Highway Department will be on display concurrently with the date of the Fiesta and will have an unusual appeal to wild flower admirers. This will contain some 200 varieties of wild flowers found in the eight counties of the district.

The Southwestern Association of Camera Clubs formed at the 1938 Fiesta will hold its annual convention here on the same dates and officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

Prizes will be awarded for the best picture taken during the Fiesta. Awards will be made for the best character, scenic shots, bluebonnets, water scenes and others. Clubs and individuals are offering prizes amounting to sizable sums.

The annual banquet on Saturday night, April 22, will be followed by an excursion into a negro night club where chances for flashlight shots of the Brazos bottom negro at play will be provided for the photofans. This event proved to be most popular in the former year.

Hundreds of acres of Bluebonnets, live oaks, Indian paint brush and pecan trees will be background for the visitors efforts to compose good photographs.

Officers of the Marlin Camera Club, sponsors of the Fiesta, are Dr. H. H. Robertson, President; Mrs. A. C. Hornbeck and E. L. Griffin, vice presidents; Miss Jacie Linthicum, secretary-treasurer; Maynard Brewer, critic, and Geo. S. Buchanan, Director, Blue Bonnet Fiesta.

Officers of the Southwestern Association of Camera Clubs are Holt Massey, Waco; President Pierre J. LeDoux, Shreveport, Adelle Herring, Dallas, Secretary.

Louisiana and G. S. Buchanan, Marlin, vice presidents, and Miss treasurer.

The Fiesta is an affair where the visitor will not be charged any registration fee and there will be no admission charge to any of the exhibits or lectures. It is presented annually at Marlin for those interested in the photo hobby and admirers of wild flowers.

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The Answer Box today carries another series of questions and answers on the new unemployment compensation law which became operative April 1st and affects a million covered workers and some 15,000 employers.)

Q. 1. What is the total amount that an eligible claimant may receive during a benefit year?

A. The maximum amount is still $240, the same as under the old law.

Q. 2. Does a claimant who is denied benefits have the right to appeal the decision and, if so, to whom does he appeal?

A. A claimant has a right to appeal from the determination made in his case just as he did under the old law. The claimant should direct his appeal thru the claims examiner in the field or take it up directly with the Unemployment Compensation Commission at Austin.

Q. 3. Where must a claimant go to file a claim for benefits?

A. To an office of the Texas State Employment Service.

Q. 4. Can he file a claim immediately?

A. No. The law requires a claimant to register for work and serve a one-week waiting period first. The old law provided for a two-week waiting period.

Q. 5. How long will it be before a claimant hears from the Commission after he files his first claim?

A. In about ten days.

Q. 6. How long will benefits keep coming?

A. That will be based on the claimant's past earnings. His notice from Austin will tell him exactly. No man may receive more than eight benefit checks, covering sixteen week of total unemployment, in a benefit year.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE:
When Cosmo Topper follows his divorce-minded wife to Paris, his lovely young friend Marion Kerby comes along. Marion is no ordinary girl; in fact, she is a departed spirit anxious to do Topper a good turn and thus makes her place in the hereafter secure. But having a lively sense of humor mixed in with her good intentions, she gets him into repeated scrapes, finally causing him to be thrown out of a hotel dining room and into jail. Meanwhile Mrs. Topper, though she still loves her husband, is egged on by her friend Mrs. Parkhurst to accept the attentions of the phony Baron de Rossi.

Chapter Six

Topper, pondering life at leisure, could think of many worse places to be in than this nice, safe French jail where Marion couldn't get at him to bedevil his days. He was thinking of this with a feeling almost akin to pleasure when a couple of outer doors of the jail opened and shut themselves, a filched warden's key floated grandly through the air, Topper's cell door opened, and Marion chummily joined him. She bade him name the moment he lapsed into stunned silence, not daring to offend either of them. "You must forgive the Baron," Marion addressed Mrs. Topper, putting a possessive arm around de Rossi. "He often forgets he has a home. I sometimes find it hard to forgive him — but then he is all I have." "Why, you mean man, you," wailed Mrs. Topper, casting the anguished glance of the betrayed toward the Baron. "If I had believed you I'd be heartbroken now!" Saying which, she sailed out. And when the Baron turned to surrender to the rich, lonesome girl's possessive nature, he found his pajamas on the floor — and the rich, lonesome girl nowhere to be seen!

Having done her work so well, all that now remained for Marion was to return to the jail and release Topper. This was simplicity itself. She had nothing to do but steal the guard's key, open all the cells, start a wild riot among all the prisoners, and convey Topper out into the street in the midst of all the excitement. They hopped onto two bicycles that were parked on the sidewalk, and Topper pedaled furiously back to the hotel, followed just as furiously by a bicycle which no one seemed to be pedalling at all! Topper dashed madly up the stairs to Mrs. Topper's suite, to when he wanted to escape, and she would arrange it. But when Topper begged her almost tearfully to leave him alone in his nice quiet jail, she paused and took thought. "Maybe you're right, Toppie. Maybe I'm working this thing from the wrong end. I'm going back to the hotel and if my idea works out, your wife will come to you on bended knee before long!" Saying which, she was gone.

Mrs. Topper was apologizing to the Baron de Rossi for her husband's scandalous conduct toward him. She could not find it in her heart to be angry at Topper, and in fact had thought he was rather cute, pummeling the Baron like a cave man; but still she felt bound to apologize.

Sailing into the Baron's suite, she cried: "Oh, Baron, I want you to know how terribly I feel about Cosmo beating you up..." "My precious Madame — I mean my precious darling," cooed His Highness. "We will forget all that. We will forget everything — it is only you that count."

The Baron was weaving in for the clinch when a lovely slip of a girl sauntered into the room, wearing a pair of his pajamas, and wearing them most fetchingly. It was Marion Kerby — visible and enchanting.

"Oh, there you are darling," she said softly. "Oh, pardon me — am I interrupting something?"

"What does this mean, please?" asked the Baron, not too imperiously. For Marion had let him see her around the hotel before, and had vouchsafed to him the news that she was a lonely American girl whose father was something in the steel industry, thus making her sacrosanct to the Baron.

"Yes, what does this mean, please?" returned Marion indignantly, pointing to Mrs. Topper.

"Who is this woman?" demanded Mrs. Topper.

"She is a very wealthy girl who is lonesome. I can explain everything." And, while she waited for find the Baron de Rossi making impassioned love to Mrs. Parkhurst. Here was the Baron's chance for vengeance; and it might have gone ill with Mr. Topper indeed had not the invisible Atlas followed him from the jail. Atlas now sank his invisible teeth into the Baron's very tangible leg just as the Baron was aiming a haymaker at Topper; and while the Baron sprawled on the floor and exchanged barks with Atlas, Topper ran into the inner room of the suite and flew into the arms of his wife.

"Oh, Cosmo!" "I'm sorry, Clara, to break in this way," gasped Topper, "but I'm in great difficulty. France is after me!"

There was a loud rapping on the door as Monsieur Louis and a cloud of gendarmes filled the corridor. "If you're looking for Mr. Topper," called Clara, putting a protective arm around her husband, "he's not here — but I'll be glad to take a message!"

The firmly reunited Toppers were taking off in the passenger plane, bound homeward for a new start at marital felicity without benefit (Topper hoped) of ectoplasm.

"Cosmo dear," crooned Mrs. Topper, "you're such a dear, sweet person and I'll never, never distrust you again as long as I live."

"And Clara dear, as long as I live I'll never give you another opportunity to distrust me."

Out on a wing of the plane, as it climbed upward through the skies, Marion and Atlas sat pensively watching the touching scene through a window.

"Atlas," observed Marion softly, "it looks as if our Good Deed is completed!"

"Arf!" agreed Atlas. She waved ruefully toward the happy couple inside the cabin. "So long, Toppie — we won't be seeing you any more!"

"Woof!" woofed Atlas. Then they both stepped onto a passing cloud, and vanished.

How much do your lambs weigh? We hear a lot of discussion now about the weights of pigs, calves and lambs. What should a lamb weigh at 2 months of age? E. W. Jones, Jr. in answering this question states that he has a registered Hampshire ram lamb which weighed 60 pounds at 60 days of age.

The organization of a purebred hog breeder's association for Coryell County was most appropriate and timely. Approximately 35 owners of purebred hogs met in the District Court Room Saturday afternoon and organized Coryell County Purebred Hog Breeders' Association. This association has as its chief objective the improvement of the quality of hogs on Coryell County farms, and in so doing make the "mortgage lifter" take its rightful place in diversified farming. This group will cooperate with the forth coming appreciation meeting for the 4-H Club boys, who won the 1938 Texas Swine Breeders' Association Pig Improvement Contest. Officers elected were: Byrd King, President; A. T. Quicksall, Vice-President; Guy Powell, Secretary-Treasurer. A canvass of the purebred hogs of breeding age in the county indicate the following: Duroc Jerseys, 60, Poland Chinas 14, Hampshires 10, Berkshire 6. The number of the other breeds are not known.

The annual wool and mohair show date has been tentively set for June 2nd. At this show it is planned to have two classes for commercial wool, fine French combing and fine staple wool.

Breeders of purebred sheep expressed a desire to have classes for wool from registered sheep, as follows:

C type Delaine ewe fleeces; C type Delaine ram fleece; B type Delaine ewe fleece; B type Delaine ram fleece; C type Rambouillet ewe fleece; C type Rambouillet ram fleece.

All fleeces to be taken from sheep previously shorn and to be of 12 months growth.

The wool division will be based on kid hair and aged hair. The aged hair will be divided into three classes, both B and C type showing.

Coryell County 4-H Club boys are sponsoring an appreciation meeting for the 4-H Pig Club Boys who won the 1938 Pig Production Contest, sponsored by the Texas Swine Breeders' Association. At this meeting is to be held Saturday afternoon April 22nd, 2:00 o'clock in the Gatesville City Hall. It is especially urged that the people of the entire county show their appreciation to these boys, for winning this contest, by attending this meeting.

The Safety Sensation of 1939!

THE NEW Firestone CHAMPION

The Only Tire Made with the NEW SAFETY-LOCK CORD BODY and NEW GEAR-GRIP TREAD...

NEVER before in our experience has a tire met with such instant and unanimous approval as the new Firestone Champion Tire. It's the Safety Sensation of 1939! Our customers have started a word-of-mouth campaign that is making this the biggest selling tire we've ever had. Motor car manufacturers have been so impressed by its superior performance that they have adopted it for their 1939 models.

Why? Because the Firestone Champion Tire is an entirely new achievement in safety engineering.

Stronger Cord Body. This is accomplished first, by the use of a completely new type of tire cord called "Safety-Lock," in which the cotton fibers are more compactly interwoven to assure cooler running and provide greater strength. Then, the fibers in each individual cord, the cords in each ply and the plies themselves, are all securely locked together by a new and advanced Firestone process of Gum-Dipping which provides amazingly greater strength. And greater strength means greater safety.

More Non-Skid Mileage. The new Safety-Lock cord construction provides the extra strength needed for the use of the new, thicker, tougher, deeper Firestone Gear-Grip tread which delivers remarkably longer non-skid mileage. This sensational new tread is called "Gear-Grip" because of its unique design — it has more than 3,000 sharp-edged angles which grip the road with a sure-footed hold to protect against skidding and assure a safe stop.

Drive in today and equip your car with a new set of Firestone Champion Tires — the only tires made that are safety-proved on the speedway for your protection on the highway.
