District Court for the July Term 1939, is just about history, and will be finally concluded Saturday, according to District Clerk Carl McClendon.

Non-jury cases completed this week, were the State of Texas vs. Velmon (Bill) Allen, was charged with passing forged instruments, was given 2 years each on three counts, sentences to run concurrently.

The State of Texas vs. A. J. Squyers, charged with forgery; given 2 years suspended sentence.

The State of Texas vs. Gene Vick, charged with burglary, was given 2 years by the court.

The State of Texas vs. Doc Summers, charged with driving motor vehicle while intoxicated, was given five days in jail, $50.00 fine, and had his driver's license suspended for six months.

Tournament Goes Into 2nd Round

The majority of the first round matches in the city championship golf tournament have been played, only one first round match in the first flight and two in the lower bracket remaining.

In the first flight, Roger Miller now spread eagles the field, having copped two matches to advance right into the quarterfinals. In his first round match he won over Cooper 3 and 2, and then took Judge Cross, 1 up.

The closest match yet played was the one between Charley Sanderson, who shot the low qualifying score of 77, and Richard Dickie, Sanderson finally winning out, 1 up, on the twenty-first hole.

The feature match of the second flight was the Milner-Morgan bout, which Milner took only after two extra holes had been played, winning 1 up on the twentieth hole. This win advanced Milner into the quarterfinals ahead of the rest of the field, for he had beaten Bill Wiegand in his first round match, 2 up. Morgan had defeated Rosser Sanders 3 and 2 to go into the second round with Milner.

Other first flight results to date show Holmes winning over McClellan 3 and 2, Judge Cross, beating Sadler 2 up before losing to Miller. Stewart taking the measure of Hamilton, 2 and 1, Caruth winning from Dean Jones, four and three, and Troy Jones beating Worley 3-2. The Jackson-Walter Stewart match had not been played when these results came in.

In the second flight, Nesbitt won over Coward, five and four, Ray took an easy one from Bill Ament six and five. Wharton eliminated Painter, 3 and 2, while Kermit Jones beat Frank Farquhar, 7 and 6.

The Bradford-Shingle and E. W. Jones-Patterson matches have not been played.

4-H Girls to Be Given Pins

Eighty-one 4-H Girls were awarded 4-H Club pins in 1938 for completing the goals on the two demonstration of interior and exterior home improvement as outlined in their 1938 4-H Club Yearbook for Coryell County.

These safety clasp bronze pins with the clover leaf emblem, the four H's, the laurel leaf, and the word "Texas" will be awarded this year to all four-H Club girls in Coryell County who, in addition to completing the goals as outlined in their 1939 Coryell County 4-H Club Yearbook, exhibit two quarts of their canned products. One of the quarts must be an acid product, that is, it must be filled with fruit or tomatoes, and the other quart must be a non-acid product, meaning it must contain some vegetable such as greens, carrots, or corn, or other vegetable.

As acid products are processed in boiling water or the water bath alone and the non-acid products are processed in the steam pressure cooker, it is necessary for the girls to show both kinds of products as demonstrating their ability to do both types of canning.

As the demonstrators in the various clubs hold their achievement events this month and next, it is good time to exhibit the two jars and have the sponsors to check on how many girls are completing 1939 goals and will be eligible for 4-H pins.

Notice To All Wheat Growers

Farmers desiring to insure their 1940 wheat crop must make application for insurance at the County AAA office prior to the planting of wheat. Insurance can be written on the wheat acreage allotment only, any acreage planted in excess of the allotment cannot be insured. All producers, who have been issued a wheat allotment, will receive through the mail information concerning wheat insurance on their individual farm allotment. October 15 is the final date for accepting insurance applications.

Poage Says Sales Tax Not Needed

A sales tax in Texas would be unfair, unwise and unnecessary, Rep. W. R. Poage of Waco told the convention of the Texas Retail Grocers association here today.

Delegates rose and cheered when he said such a tax is but a reversion to the tax systems of European despots of 200 years ago. It is unjust, Congressman Poage continued, because it falls on those who are least able to pay.

Cross Quartette Please Lions

Both by sight and sound, Gatesville Lions were pleased with the appearance of the Cross Quartette at the Wednesday meeting of this civic club at the Methodist diner.

With spirituals or sacreds as their medium, the girls, Misses Marguerite and Violet Cross, Grace Clawson and Leola Webb, added a little "swing" to their versions of the songs, which pleased. Miss Clawson, alto, on their last number, sang in that "husky voice" which is so prevalent over the air lane now. They all, you might say, have "rhythm for their business"—anyhow, those mangy Lions thought so. Looks like these girls could form the basis of a jam-up musical, sister act, or, or—!

No other business of importance was taken up by the club.

Bible in School; Talked Mon. Nite

A meeting of interested citizens is planned for Monday night in the City Hall Auditorium in the interest of week-day Bible instruction. The time is eight o'clock.

The immediate matter for consideration is the possibility of placing a course in Bible in the local high school. A recent ruling of the Texas State Department of Education places Bible among the list of electives that may be taught in high school for credit, but in forbidden the use of state money for the teaching of such a course, throws the initiative on the churches or interested groups of citizens.

The meeting Monday night is planned to give opportunity for expression on the matter. The subject will be fully presented and explained. Questions will be answered. Then, if deemed wise, a "Citizens' Committee on Week Day Bible Instruction" will be formed, officially to back the movement.

A request for such a Bible course was signed by several patrons of the school and sent to the School Board a short while ago. The local ministers recently expressed their willingness for a course in Bible to be taught in the high school. The next step is the one proposed for Monday night.

In a letter being sent to a number of citizens this statement is made: "The Bible course is purely elective; in no case will any student be compelled to take it. Under no circumstance is the Bible placed in the schools to promote sectarianism or denominationalism. Indeed the rules forbid this. Rather, it is to give our young people the great fact of the Bible, together with their moral and spiritual values."

Only two years old, the movement for placing the Bible in the high school curriculum has grown rapidly throughout the state. 77 high schools offered the course last year, and many more are expected to join the number in September.—Contributed.

"Uncle Bud" Gets Six Here

"Uncle Bud" was an unpleasant caller here this week—he came here to decrease our population—and did, taking six folks to Huntsville, and other points in the state prison system.

Uncle Bud already had some with him when he arrived and added to his "one-way" bus line Julius Turley, Charles Renolds, Charles Mangum, R. L. Reneau, and David and Henry Wood.

FULL BACKING FOR SOIL DISTRICT EVIDENT AT MEETING HERE WEDNESDAY

V. C. MARSHALL, STATE CHIEF IS PRESENTED WITH FACTS

Some 350 farmers, landowners, business men and government officials met Wednesday at 3 o'clock in the City Hall for a hearing or presentation of the proposed Soil Conservation District, which includes all of Coryell, and parts of Bosque and McLennan county, and the general sentiment seemed 100 per cent for the district. V. C. Marshall, Chief of the Texas Soil Conservation Board, took part in the discussions.

There seemed to be no dissension as to the proposed district, and representatives from all the districts reported their particular parts of the district were "unanimously for it, as far as they knew."

Reporting for Precinct 1 was Lloyd Williamson; Precinct 2, George Fritz of Copperas Cove; R. H. Alexander, Oglesby, for Precinct 3; M. Blankenship, Gatesville, for Precinct 4; E. H. Namour for the part of Bosque Coun-

Water Pumps Are Installed

Contract has just been completed with the San Antonio Machine and Supply Company for the installation of two electric driven deep well pumps, and two centrifugal service pumps, capacity 500 gallons per hour, to replace the old pumping equipment at the water works, which has been used for the past 20 to 25 years, and is now obsolete. The outlay is around $5,000.

The new system will be entirely automatic, and when the water pressure drops, the pumps will automatically start, requiring no "pumper" to be present. This will keep the pressure constant.

Also, a six inch line from the wells to the water tower is being replaced with an eight inch line. The six inch line will be replaced in the water system elsewhere.

This new pumping system, will take 5c off the key insurance rate, and reduce the present rate from 45 to 40 cents.

School Heads Get "MA's"

Superintendent E. W. Brooks, and Principal E. D. Shelton, both have completed work on their Master of Arts degrees in Baylor University and A. and M. respectively, this summer according to reports.

As for this MA degree, or as it is sometimes reversed, and called an AM degree, it is necessary for the recipient to write a thesis, which is a long theme which requires considerable research. Mr. Brooks chose as his subject "County Unit System of Schools in Coryell County. Mr. Shelton chose as his subject, some feature on the State Juvenile Training School.

Rain Was .58 Last Spells

ty, and Roy Miller, for the part of McLennan County.

Others who lead in the discussions were Robert W. Brown, Gatesville, Program Chairman, Judge Floyd Zeigler, who acted as master of ceremonies for the meeting; J. C. Patterson, McLennan county County Agent, who spoke for the Extension Service; Bill Heiser of the Federal Soil Conservation Service of Dublin's area; M. G. Slade, Vocational Agriculture, Gatesville; Mr. Fox, Oglesby High School Vocational Agriculture teacher, Paul Hardy of the local SCS camp, M. Blankenship, of the National Farm Loan Association.

To give an idea of what the SCS camp at Gatesville had done since 1935, when it was established, Mr. Hardy said they had handled 155 farms, totaling approximately 36,000 acres in the five years the camp has been in Gatesville.

According to Judge Floyd Zeigler, equipment available for this work, that was furnished at cost by the Commissioner's Court consisted of 7 complete rigs, and that private parties owned three rigs for this work.

As each section or precinct was called on, Judge Zeigler, asked all those present from that section to stand if they approved the district; then, he asked those to stand that disapproved. There were no disapprovals.

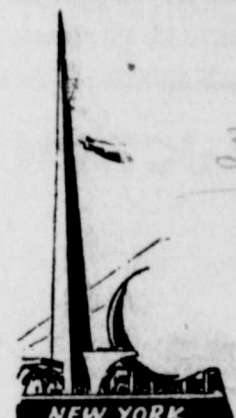

This meeting was for the primary purpose of presenting evidence to the State Board, so that they can pass on the desirability of having a district here. Then,

Notice To Farmers

Producers who have not yet completed the plowing under of green manure crops and the plowing under of crops planted in excess of their acreage allotments are urged to complete this work immediately. This request is being made so as to insure early benefit payments to all persons that have completed their 1939 farming operation with respect to the farm program. Please notify the County AAA Office as soon as this work is completed so that your 1939 benefit payments will not be unnecessarily delayed.

EARL HUDDLESTON STATES INTENTION TO RUN FOR LEGISLATURE NEXT YEAR

I have been asked by a large number of people in Hamilton and Coryell Counties since I returned from East Texas the last of June the question as to whether or not I intend to run for Representative from the 95th District next year. I will say without boasting that many have urged me to make the race. I have been over most of the district and after talking with the people have decided that I will in all probability be a candidate. I will have no new schemes to try to put over but will run on the record which I have made while serving the three terms in the past. I still think that what we need in the legislature are men who will give faithful and honest service to the masses of the people and who will endeavor to carry out the will of the people at all times. I am willing for the people to vote on any question which is vital to them and will act accordingly, if I am chosen as your Representative.

I have been asked as to why I don't run for State Senator, or some higher office. My answer is that I am not able to finance a campaign for an office like that, and, also, I am ambitious to serve again in legislature, as I feel that I am better qualified than ever before to serve my people to their advantage. I can make the race for Representative and be free from any outside influence and feel that I can render the same service, so this is the answer. I do not propose to try to put on a high pressure campaign but the people know the kind of service I endeavor to render and they are capable of deciding the question as to who shall represent them at Austin. I felt like I should give the many friends of mine an answer at this time.

Respectfully,
Earl Huddleston.

Soil District

the matter will have to be voted on in a regular called election.

Program Chairman Robert W. Brown also presented facts and evidences relating to the possibility of dams and other soil conservation data which had been worked up as a part of the Brazos Valley Reclamation, or Dam Project, and which had been furnished to Army Engineers in their study of soil and water conservation in this area.

Chairman Marshall told of land in Corsicana, no near there, that formerly raised three bales of cotton to the acre that had been depleted by erosion so much, that it now took 12 or more acres to raise one bale. He also related other facts which showed the necessity for this kind of work, and the advisability of establishing a district in this county.

Should there be a district formed here, five men would be named who receive the majority of their livelihood from farming to form a county board to coordinate the work, and they would receive $80.00 each a year for their work. Our information is, that this created district would in no way create more taxes or bond issues, nor would it be compulsory on the landowners of the county.

Present provisions under the proposed district will be limited to technical assistance, or surveys on the farms in the district, which would include soil analysis, study of physical features and conditions, and such other studies as would prove beneficial in planning proper land uses. Technical assistance would also include planning and mapping out the program of conservation for the farms. This assistance will be given by the department of agriculture thru its soil conservation service.

It is hoped that later, assistance may be given in actual construction of the conservation projects, such as terraces, dams, contouring and pasture work.

The state conservation board will meet early in September to give a decision on the hearing. If it deems it advisable, it will order an election for the county. If this is affirmed, the district will be set up, supervisors elected, and a land use program planned for the county.

Farmers may accept or reject the program. Nothing is compulsory about it, until 90 percent of the land owners vote to impose compulsory practice. Technical assistance is free to the cooperator.

EDDIE CANTOR WILL STAR IN FT. WORTH CASA MANANA FOR A WEEK

Fort Worth, August 24—Eddie Cantor, perhaps the greatest entertainer in the world, will be presented at the Fort Worth Casa Manana for one full week, beginning Friday night, August 25.

The pop-eyed comedian, a star of the stage for many ears, has been a tremendous success also in motion pictures and over the radio. That he can still "pack 'em in" was proved a few weeks ago when he made his first Broadway appearance in recent years and the crowds were so huge—many persons waiting for hours to buy tickets—that three sets of police had to be called out. Cantor set a record by playing to 115,038 persons in a week, total receipts exceeding $50,000.

It is understood that Cantor is receiving an amount in excess of $10,000 for his week's engagement in Fort Worth.

With him will be his own company, including his stooge, Mister Guffy, and the phenomenal little singer, Leni Lynn, hailed as another Deanna Durbin. On the bill also will be Ray Noble and his orchestra, who have been immensely popular the past week, with Larry Stewart and Elizabeth Tilton as vocalists; the Great Yacopis, the most sensational act in the four years' history of Casa Manana, and Herman Hyde, musical, as well as the 70 Texas Sweethearts in 4 beautiful scenes.

BLUEBONNET QUEEN TO BE CROWNED OCTOBER 7

Dallas, Aug. 23—More than 50 Tex. beauties, from every point of the compass, will participate in the gorgeous pageant opening day of the 51st State Fair of Texas, October 7. This announcement was made here by Alphonso Ragland Jr., members of the Pageant Committee, after a conference with Hal C. Worth, director.

Mr. Worth has just completed a tour of South and West Texas where he reported intense interest already in the event.

Plans for the stage setting for the coronation of the Queen of Queens in the massive Cotton Bowl at 7:30 p. m., all free to Fair visitors, was also announced. The setting is to be in silver and gold relief of the Oriental type. Thousands of feet of scenery will be built and flowers in profusion of varied foliage will enhance the garden setting.

A highlight of the coronation will be 150 girls representing a cellophane court with illuminated arches through which the Queens and their retinue will march. Floats, bearing the Queens which will pass in review through downtown Dallas at noon, will carry the royal beauty to the Cotton Bowl at night, depositing these in the royal setting where the Bluebonnet Queen will be crowned.

This highlight of opening day entertainment and pageantry will be free. A special musical score, synchronizing with the pageant play, will be interspersed with dancing numbers as the program progresses.

The Queen crowned at this ceremony is assured of a screen test in Hollywood.

U. S. Soil Chief Praises Course in Conservation Launched at North Texas State Teachers College

The farmer and ranchman have the cure for soil destruction by wind and water in the palms of their hands, but the voices of all citizens can determine the success or failure of a conservation program to save our soil heritage for future generations. Dr. H. H. Bennett, chief of the Soil Conservation Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, said in a statement just issued commending the value of courses in conservation given this summer at North Texas State Teachers College and nine other Texas institutions of higher learning.

The conservation course given last year at North Texas Teachers was the first college course of its kind ever offered in the United States. This year, NTSTC repeated the course and nine other Texas schools cooperated in giving the same instruction. Several other colleges used a number of the conservation lecturers.

The course indicates the important part that educational institutions can play "in bringing about conservation and wiser use of our land", Dr. Bennett said in a letter to the NTSTC director of public relations. The enactment of a State soil conservation district law in Texas this past year is an example of the concrete results that can come from an enlightened public opinion, he also stated.

"Schools and colleges," he added, "enjoy a unique opportunity to help develop that public opinion. If they can teach that cities, no less than crops, wither and die when the fertility of the land is exhausted, and that all of us will share in the success or failure of the conservation program, they will help greatly to make that program effective and sure."

Blackfoot Indians Advance To Finals Of League Playoff

GRID TRAINING TO OPEN SEPT. 4; PROSPECTS GOOD

According to an announcement recently made by Head Coach Earle Worley, the fall grid grind for about 30 or 40 Hornet footballers will start September 4 Labor Day. Worley originally intended to open the practice sessions on September 1, but since that date fell on Friday, he decided to only issue equipment on that day, and have everything ready to start the following Monday.

Worley is apt to put his young charges through some strenuous drills during the first few weeks of the fall exercises, for the experienced Hornet helmetsman has a green, inexperienced team with a hard game facing them after only three weeks of practice.

Gatesville's success in the 1939 conference struggle will depend largely upon the development of young linemen with little or no experience. A host of hefty, experienced backs will greet Worley when he steps onto the field for the initial workout. There are 7, count 'em, young ball-toters who are rearing to go, and these backs are the apple of Worley's eye.

Horace Jackson's little boy, Jackie, who set the district on fire the latter part of last year with his accurate passing and loose-hipped ball-carrying, will return for another year of competition. This little man, who has an ideal competitive spirit and observes training rules the year round, can thread a needle with his short passes just over the line of scrimmage, and is fairly accurate with his long ones, too. He has a Jesse Owens-like swiftness on end sweeps and an ability to closely follow his blockers, and has mastered the knack of keeping his feet as he swings past would-be tacklers. He should be a serious candidate for all-district honors.

The workhorse of the backfield will be hefty Duncan Kirkpatrick, who ran wild in Hornet battles last year before he broke his leg in a practice scrimmage just before the West game. Kirk is back in shape and is due to have another fine year, what with the experience gained last year. He is undoubtedly the best blocker on the squad. Always dependable, Kirkpatrick is the fellow to whom the Hornet will look when they need those last few tough yards. His wild running against Temple B. Valley Mills, Mart and Clifton last year were his standout performances.

There is another letterman whose name must resound in the great grey stadiums this fall unless fate comes charging across the scarred turf to nail him short of the All-District goal toward which nature seems to have steered his churning feet. Certainly there would be few mortals daring enough to challenge that fast-flying 165 pounds of muscle which make up the sturdy physique of Jan Jones.

A throwback to those days when 170 pound Buster Gough was spreading the fame of the Black and Gold is this Hornet fullback. A fine blocker and an excellent defensive man, Jones is at his best when the ball is tucked snugly under one arm and there is a first down that must be made. Sweeps around the wings, slants off hard-pressing tackles, headlong plunges when the lines draw close to the shadow of the goal, it is all the same to him. He surges on as irresistibly as the passage of time. Jones was a sensation in the spring sessions, and was one of the best fullbacks in the district during the latter part of last season. He played an outstanding game against the Hamilton Bulldogs. Jones is also a great kicker, sending long, lazy spirals for a distance of 40 to 50 yards consistently.

A boy that is apt to surprise Hornet fans this year is J. B. Whigham, who close fans will remember as the young guard who went out last year with an appendicitis operation just before the opening game, and returned during the last few games, seeing a little action in the West fray. This spring Worley shifted this husky youngster to the backfield, and overnight the boy became a sensation. He is a hard runner, and as fast as any back Worley has, being a star dash man on last year's track and field outfit. He gained yardage after yardage in the spring sessions, and Worley became sold on the boy. There are still a few rough spots in his work that must be smoothed off, but he is a fine blocker to lead those ground plays to the right side which form the basis of the Hornet attack. His presence in the backfield will eliminate the necessity of Worley playing two little men at the same time, which was the case after Kirk broke his leg last year.

Little Bobbie Foster, a letterman who turned in some fine work last year after he replaced the injured Kirkpatrick, also returns. Foster is a hustler and a fighter, and makes up for lack of weight with a fiery spirit. However, he twisted his back in track workouts last spring, and did not get in the spring sessions until the final two weeks. He is a fine defensive man, although he is a little short to play defensive halfback against a passing team. He is a teeth-rattling tackler, and a hard runner for such a little fellow.

Another pee-wee who is due to see a great deal of action this fall, is Fisher Culberson, fiery quarter back. Culberson is a snaky-hipped pigskin-packer, and also

PEARL AND PIDCOKE TANGLE AT PIDCOKE SUNDAY, 2:00 P. M.

The blazing Blackfoot Indians, the hottest baseball team in the county today, swept a two-game series with the Mound club last week end to waltz into the finals of the county league playoff.

BARTON HURLS WINS

Crafty Jack Barton, the Indians' veteran hurler, was the hero of Blackfoot's 12-5 win Monday. He held the heavy-hitting Mound lads well in check until his mates had run up a lead as big as the courthouse, and then he eased up, for Jack is not as young as he used to be and can't stand the nine-inning gaff like he did in his more youthful days.

But when the going was close Barton was invincible. His sharp-breaking hook completely handcuffed the Mound hitters, while the Indian batsmen hopped all over Father Whaley, who was attempting a comeback after being out all season with a broken wrist, for twelve tallies. Whaley left the box in the seventh frame, after his best offerings, his Sunday pitches, had been shot right back at him with a great deal more stuff on them. Joe Millsap finished up for the Mound nine, working the last two rounds in a capable fashion.

The entire Blackfoot nine turned in a fine performance, all playing hustling, heads-up ball and taking advantage of every break that came their way. The Indians had previously defeated the Mound club at Blackfoot, 13-11, and this game was not as close as the score indicates, for the Indians were always leading their ill-fated rivals.

PEARL-PIDCOKE SUNDAY

The Pidcoke Cokers and the Pearl Tigers now have to battle it out for the right to meet the Indians in the finals. There will be a double header on the Pidcoke grounds Sunday, and these contests are due to attract a large number of fans.

According to Manager Lockhart of the Cokers, Schoolboy Rutherford, his mound ace, and Lockhart himself will handle the hurling chores for the Cokers, with Eric Wiegand available for relief duty. For the Tigers, the Whately brothers, Theo and C. B., will hurl.

These two clubs are as evenly

PRE-GLOVE BOXING TOURNEY AT EVANT GYM TONIGHT

Sam White Game At Mound

Urged on by the success of the charity softball game held here, Mound baseball club officials have decided to stage a charity baseball game for Sam White, whose back was injured in the wreck two weeks ago.

The Mound club will meet the Blackfoot Indians on the Mound diamond Sunday, with the entire proceeds from the game going to help the White boy pay hospital expenses. The game should attract a large number of fans, as White is a resident of Mound and is well known in that section of the county, having played on the Mound baseball club for the past three years.

One-Variety Cotton Communities

There are 415 one-variety cotton community associations in operation in Texas during the current season, almost double the 1938 total. There were 62 such organizations in 1937 and 213 in 1938.

Following is the list of one-variety cotton communities in Coryell County, along with the number of growers who have adopted the variety and the total acreage in adopted variety: Arnett, 38 growers, 983 acres; Copperas Cove, 43 growers, 1,209 acres; Coryell City, 22 growers, 800 acres; Pearl, 25 growers, 669 acres; Plainview, 18 growers, 400 acres; and Purlmela, 7 growers, 122 acres.

matched as any clubs in the league, and it is an even bet that there will be two close, exciting ball games reeled off Sunday. The Cokers have a large number of supporting fans, as do the Tigers, so there is going to be a large crowd on hand. This has all the aspects of a colorful diamond attraction, for both clubs will be shooting the works at every move in an attempt to win both games and eliminate the necessity of a third game.

Tonight's the night for Coryell, Hamilton, and Lampasas County boxing enthusiasts. For they will get their first glimpse of amateur boxing, 1939 style, tonight in the Evant gym, where four bouts will be presented, the initial gong sounding at 8:30 p. m.

Extensive preparations have been made by all Evant to make this pre-Golden Glove tourney a huge success. Amateur fighting seems to have caught the fancy of all Central Texas, and the Evant sponsors feel that they are assured of a large crowd tonight, for the fights have been well advertised.

The winners of these bouts tonight will automatically advance into the big district Golden Gloves tournament to be held here in Gatesville sometime this fall, the winners from the district meets advancing directly to the state tournament in Fort Worth. Gatesville fans, therefore, can get a preview of this year's Golden Gloves by going to Evant and watching the boys work tonight.

Four evenly matched bouts have been arranged by the Four County Press, Evant newspaper which is sponsoring the fights tonight. The initial bout will pit Cleburne Chandler, 147-pound Oglesby boy who has performed in several shows here in Gatesville including the Golden Gloves tournament last winter, against Bid Fuqua, 149-pounder from Hamilton who fought in the Brownwood Golden Gloves tournament last year. Fuqua according to reports, is an experienced and tough fighter. Chandler is being sponsored by the Western Auto Store of Gatesville, while the Hamilton Chamber of Commerce is backing Fuqua.

Gerald Armstrong, an Evant boy who weighs in at 132, will meet Russell Parsley, a 147 pound bruiser, about whom little is known. Armstrong, however, fought in the Golden Gloves here and made a good showing. His fighting is sponsored by Dena's Coffee Shop of Evant, while Parsley's sponsor is the T. P. Oil Co. of Hamilton.

The next bout will be between two big light heavyweights, Floyd McGilvray, 175-pound Evant boxer who had experience in the Gatesville Golden Gloves and whose sponsor is the Evant I. C. Grocery, and J. M. Letherman, 170 pounds, who is another question mark and who is backed by the Rainbo Bakers.

The final bout of the evening is between two boys who, to our knowledge, have not shown their wares before in a Coryell County show. J. H. Thompson, 135 and O. S. Hoges, 135 are the two lads who will tangle in the closing match. Their sponsors are the Hamilton Mill and Elevator Company and the CCC Boys, respectively.

MAPLE CLUB NEWS

Eight members and four visitors were present Thursday evening when Mrs. J. L. Brookshire was hostess to the Club. One quilt was almost quilted and some cup-towels were embroidered. Pal gifts were exchanged, and new names were drawn. Mrs. James Manning will be hostess to the Club on Thursday, August 31.

Refreshments of sandwiches, cake, cookies, and punch were served.

Information from Washington states that Mrs. Joe Carter Kline has been named permanent postmistress at Coryell City; Mrs. Kline succeeds Mrs. Jennie Lee.

Due to the great amount of work on hand at College Station, it is believed that it will take at least a week before the original tax-exemption certificates will reach Gatesville headquarters. Interim certificates will be issued pending the arrival of the real certificates.

Washable House Lends Itself to Decoration

NO longer is the thrifty housewife limited in her choice of home furnishings to those that "won't show the dirt easily." Modern science has created the washable house.

This house is now on display in the International Building at Rockefeller Center, New York. For the first time, a series of rooms has been built around the washable idea. In the house, which includes a living room, dining room, bedroom, kitchen, laundry space and numerous closets, all wall coverings, draperies, curtains and fabrics are washable.

It is called the House Beautiful Ivory Washable House, the research facilities of the Proctor and Gamble laboratories having been used to test the furnishings. All materials included were tubbed, scrubbed, checked and tested for wearability, color-proof standards, fade-proof qualities and general appearance after washing.

In the development of this functional idea of easy cleaning with pure soap and water, decoration improved rather than suffered. It is now possible to use light and formerly fragile colors freely, with the assurance that they will stay fresh indefinitely and can be easily renewed. The colors in the house are especially arresting.

A convenience room is House Beautiful's special contribution to the housewife's peace of mind. The small room with its snowy white walls and blue flowered draperies is the homemaker's office. It houses her sewing machine in an attractive mahogany cabinet and has shelves for cookbooks, account books and other paraphernalia, as well as a large, subdivided, departmentalized closet with a place for all the awkward equipment requisite to home management, including garden tools.

The washable idea in decoration is certain to find immediate favor with all progressive homemakers and particularly in homes where there are children who are apt to take heavy toll of less practical decoration.

Decorators and housewives alike who have feared that washability would impart a clinical atmosphere to a home will be impressed by the beauty and liveability of all furnishings in the display. The House Beautiful Ivory Washable House is a functional working model, adaptable to any part of the country, all climates and geographical conditions and to a large range of incomes. The display will be open to the public until the close of September.

Thirty-five invitations were mailed out yesterday to prospective Gatesville high school gridmen to participate in the pre-season football training camp, according to word from the office of Supt. Frank L. Williams.

'round the square: I wish that I could wear a coat and look as comfortable as Clay Stinnett. Dorothy Culberson still recognizes her friends down town, even tho she is driving a new car. I have known her for a long time but yesterday for the first time I saw Mrs. Bailey Curry; she hasn't had that name long, you see.

It will be a big day tomorrow, an occasion which comes only once every two years in Texas, the day when Democrats of this state go to the polls to cast their final vote for the party nominees prior to the general election in November, when Democratic nominees will face the selections of other political parties.

DOIN' THE WORLD'S FAIR

By Byron M. Fisher

Under the sponsorship of W. D. Euler Canadian Minister of Trade and Commerce and Douglas S. Cole, Canadian Commissioner to the World's Fair, one hundred and seventy members of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Editors' Association were entertained at the World's Fair recently with a two-day program of tours, luncheons, conferences and amusements.

Speakers at a welcoming luncheon included Mr. Cole, J. C. Holmes, administrative assistant to Grover Whalen and V. Charters from the office of the Canadian Association in charge of the trip to the Fair. Mr. Cole expressed himself as being extremely gratified with the interest taken by the weekly newspaper editors in their trip to the World of Tomorrow and complimented them.

The Canadian editors had been expressly invited to attend the Fair by Leo Casey, popular new head of the Fair's Press Department, who assured them that they would find a ready welcome from Fair officials awaiting them at all times and that everything would be done to make this and future visits to the Fair as entertaining and comprehensive as possible.

The program included, in addition to the luncheons and addresses, sight-seeing tour of the Fair in busses provided by the Fair Corporation, more detailed inspections of some of the outstanding exhibits in the general exhibit areas, and entertainment at the Hot Mikado and Aquacade in the Amusement Area. A formal reception was tendered the visitors in the Canadian Pavilion.

The guests came from all parts of Canada with representatives as far west as British Columbia and as far east as Nova Scotia. One member of the Association, Mr. Barrett, editor of the "Western Star" travelled all the way from his home in Curling, Newfoundland. He expressed himself as highly pleased with the Fair, but believed that his own nation, the oldest colony of the British Empire, might have been fully represented with exhibits.

For the most part the visitors were highly pleased with the Canadian Pavilion. Editors from Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Quebec were particularly complimentary in their observations on the individual exhibits from their respective provinces, while the Dominion Travel Bureau, Railway Exhibits and others drew praise from editors representing Ontario and Western Canada papers for the manner in which these provinces were advertised. The designing, decorating and presentation of exhibits to give a complete general effect rather than a series of detailed impression drew special comment.

Reduced the Price of Crude

This statement is published as a paid advertisement by Humble Oil & Refining Company for the benefit of those who are interested and not acquainted with the facts.

On August 11 the Humble Company posted reductions in the prices at which it purchased crude oil in Texas and New Mexico by amounts ranging from 5c to 32c per barrel, and averaging 18.5c per barrel. In view of the fact that this action on our part has been severely criticized before the public, we outline below the facts and reasons on which it was based:

1. On August 1 the quantities of crude oil listed below, aggregating 218,920 barrels daily in Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas, were moving to market at prices substantially below the Humble's postings for similar crudes:

AREA	BBLs. DAY
Texas—
West Central .....	37,000
Gulf Coast .....	22,600
Southwest .....	16,900
East Central .....	12,800
East Texas Field .....	6,850
Panhandle .....	1,500
Total Texas .....	97,650
South Louisiana .....	81,920
North Louisiana and Arkansas .....	39,350
Total .....	218,920

2. The amount of crude moving below Humble's postings was greatly increased when on August 10 the Sinclair-Prairie Company posted a reduction of 20c per barrel affecting the oil produced and purchased by it in Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas, which action was followed immediately by reductions in the price made by a number of smaller purchasers. These reductions applied to more than 150,000 barrels of oil. This, added to that mentioned in the preceding paragraph, equals 368,000 barrels. In the three States in which Humble operates, Texas, New Mexico, and Louisiana, the aggregate volume of oil moving below Humble's prices approximated 17½% of the total current production in those States.

3. The movement of constantly increasing quantities over the past year or more of crude produced in the new Illinois fields, reaching a total of 300,000 barrels daily on August 1, on a price basis substantially lower than Humble's postings in its territory, exerted a progressively depressing effect on the crude oil market. The effect was felt in Texas; and actually since April 1 Humble has lost 10,000 barrels per day of business absorbed by Illinois crude. This loss of business was in addition to that lost by Humble as a result of the movement of crude at low prices in the territory where we operate.

4. On August 11, therefore, the total volume of oil moving at prices below those of the Humble was approximately 668,000 barrels.

5. The crude oil market has been under pressure for more than a year. The price adjustments made last October did not remove fully the disparity between Humble's prices and those of some oil moving in its markets. Since that time the volumes of crude moving below our prices have increased steadily, with the result that when the reductions of Sinclair-Prairie and others came on August 10, affecting approximately 150,000 barrels of crude per day, conditions were so bad that we were compelled to reduce our prices to meet this competition. In no case are our new postings lower than the Sinclair-Prairie postings for similar crudes.

6. The Humble Company is primarily a producer of oil. Its crude oil properties constitute its principal asset. Its net production averages 133,000 barrels a day. We are also crude oil merchants and purchase, at our posted prices, 251,000 barrels of crude oil daily in Texas and New Mexico. These prices also govern the price at which we sell the oil which we produce. Because of our large production we are vitally interested in the maintenance of fair prices.

Our refineries consume something near the amount of oil which we produce. As a consequence, with respect to our purchases we are in the same position as a merchant dealing in any commodity. To continue in business, we can not over a long period of time pay higher prices than our competitors. We are compelled to meet competition. The price of oil, like that of other commodities, is subject to change with market conditions. These are simple and fundamental business principles. We were reluctant to cut the price of crude, not alone because of its adverse effect on our own earnings, but also because of its effect on our customers and upon the industry and the state at large. Under these circumstances, we could not continue to pay the prices we had been paying.

7. As a matter of policy the Humble Company maintains stocks of crude oil very slightly in excess of the amount required as working stocks to carry on operations. We do not believe in storage of oil above ground but in production of oil currently as required for market. We do not speculate in oil. We have no desire to buy oil at any price to accumulate for storage.

8. We think the price for oil brought about by the competitive conditions above mentioned is lower than should be realized. In our opinion the flood of oil from Illinois and Louisiana, most of which is being produced wastefully, in violation of conservation principles, is primarily responsible for the market conditions which necessitated our price reductions. It is our hope that these conditions will be corrected and that the market will improve.

NAVASOT PHILOSOPHER DOPES OUT NATIONAL POLITICS AND SAYS THE SITUATION NEEDS SOME THINKING

(Editor's note: The Navasot Philosopher on his stump farm on the Navasota River has written us the following letter, which makes three letters in three weeks, which is unusual. It's published for what it's worth.)

Dear editor:

The way I see it is that too many people is busy neglectin the national situation, spendin their time on crops and local politics and pensions, when more thought ought to be devoted to the affairs of the whole government, the same as if a man spends all his tinne farmin he will shirk his thinkin duty.

I been meditatin on the Presidential election for next year and I believe them fellers who is been promotin Cactus Jack Garner for President is got something up their sleeves and it ain't Cactus Jack, who knows he ain't really Presidential timber, on account of the fact if he ever said anything yea or nea until it was clear which was the safe way to jump, I ain't read about it.

Ole Cactus Jack is a good politician, an dhe's a good conservative and he don't talk too much and he goes to bed early and he grows pecans and is against spendin, but Garner, like me, just ain't no Presidential timber. I don't think they will, but if they elected him and he had to face one of them grave international situations calling for a intimate knowledge of other countries, I calculate he would rattle like shot on a cow's hide and call for help, and from down here on the Navasot I am of the opinion he would get too much of the wrong kind.

Trustin that this clears up the situation, and you will see that Garner is a good fellow but is bein made the goat along with me and you, I will discontinue for the time bein.

Yours faithfully
J. A.

COTTON COUNCIL BEING RAPIDLY ORGANIZED

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 23—The County Units of the National Cotton Council are being rapidly organized in Texas according to J. R. McCreary of Calvert, chairman of the Texas unit, who visited in the state headquarters office in Dallas this week. Several Field Representatives are now organizing the County Committees in the cotton producing counties in Texas. A total of 850 of these National Cotton Council County Committees will be organized in the 19 cotton producing states.

The membership in the National Cotton Council is composed of the five primary cotton interests—cotton producers, ginners, merchants, crushers and warehousemen, however, chairman McCary stated, all citizens indirectly interested in cotton are invited to become associate members. Producers will be asked to pay dues at the rate of one cent per bale of cotton raised, and ginners one cent per bale ginned. Dues for merchants and warehousemen will be one-half cent per bale handled, and for crushers one cent per ton of seed purchased.

The finance plan has been adopted for the entire nation by the Cotton Council, which gives representation on an equal basis to producers, ginners, merchants, crushers and warehousemen. The first two groups are assessed one cent each bale, because they handle both lint and seed, while each of the last three groups is restricted either to lint or to seed only.

"The small assessments that we are asking," McCary said, "will give us the nucleus of a powerful central organization." "The funds, when collected on the production in 850 cotton producing counties, will finance a concentrated campaign in 1940 to halt some of the inroads of competition and push cotton back toward its rightful place in American and world market."

"At last," McCary said, "the millions of Americans who look to cotton as the direct or indirect source of their livelihood are organizing for united action in promoting their common interests.

"We have at last resolved to pool a small part of our resources to build cotton consumption by scientific research and carefully planned advertising and sales promotion. From Coast to Coast, in 19 cotton raising states, the cotton people of America are awakening to the great achievements they can make by working together to get rid of the surplus and provide a market for future production".

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE:
To satisfy a long tradition of military service in his family, Harry Faversham, scholarly and peace-loving English youth, becomes a Lieutenant in the Royal North Surrey Regiment.
But when his Regiment is ordered to Egypt to join Kitchener's army in quelling the natives, Harry resigns his commission. His three friends and brother officers, John Durrance, Arnold Willoughby and Peter Burroughs, send him each a white feather to express their opinion of his action. When Harry's fiancée Ethne, daughter of old General Burroughs, proves cold to his explanation of his motive, he plucks a fourth white feather from her fan and leaves her. He then goes to Egypt and submits to the torture of branding his forehead in order to disguise himself as a native of the mute
and branded Sengals tribe.

Chapter Three

Under the blazing sun of the Sudan desert, Captain John Durrance rode at the head of his Company, marching away from the camp of the English forces, inland toward the hills. To Burroughs and Willoughby, riding at his side, he explained their mission half proudly, half ruefully.
"We are the men that Kitchener has decided to gamble with, and I hope your bosoms are swelling stone blind—his optical nerves destroyed by the long exposure to the direct rays of the terrible desert sun!

When they reached the camp, night had fallen. Willoughby and Burroughs had spent an uneasy day, and were plainly glad to see him back. He resolved to conceal his tragedy from his men as long as he could.

"Spotted some Dervishes," he told his two subordinates, staring straight before him with sightless eyes, "and stayed on to keep watch. They must have spotted us all right, so we've done the first part of our job."

"I expect it was the same party of Dervishes that we saw from our post on the right," said Burroughs. "They stood watching us for a bit and then galloped off. I expect we shall hear from them properly in a day or two."

Durrance sent them off to double the guards, and felt his way to the tent. Then he lay down and weakened by his exposure to the sun, was soon in a deep sleep.

He was still asleep when the Dervishes attacked, soon after dawn. From three sides of the zareba the ghostly waves of white-clad figures surged forward, flinging their antiquated muskets and flinging their long deadly spears.

At sound of the first shots Durrance leaped from his cot, felt for his revolver, and rushed out of his tent—not without cracking against many obstacles that stood in his blind path. But no one noticed his pitiful progress, for

The Dervishes attacked, fling their muskets and flinging burning spears.

with pride! We're the decoys that are to lure the Mahdi's army away into the desert while Kitchener goes gently up the Nile and takes them by surprise."

"Heads they win and tails we lose," responded Willoughby with a grin. "If we lure the Mahdi into attacking us we get it bang in the neck from him. If we fail to lure him, we get it bang in the neck from Kitchener!"

After marching several miles into the Baynda desert they pitched camp, the men throwing up a "zareba," or protecting barrier of thornbush, all around the encampment. The sun still burned fiercely overhead, and Durrance issued repeated warnings to his men to keep their helmets on at all times, lest sunstroke overcome them before they realized it.

If only he had heeded his own advice! But when Durrance left the camp to climb some nearby hills and sweep the horizon for some sign of the Mahdi's men, his intentness on his errand made him careless of the sun's menace. He climbed higher and higher, grew more unbearably hot and shaky.
Then, just as he caught a glimpse of curling smoke and tiny moving dots far in the distance, he made a movement to mop his sweating forehead and in doing so knocked off his helmet.

It rolled far down the hill; and Durrance, loath to leave his point of vantage, remained for one last look at the enemy camp, while the sun beat fiercely down on his bare head. Suddenly the waves of heat seemed to close
over him; his knees gave way, and he sank to the ground and lay still on his back, his upturned eyes only half closed to the relentless sun.

They found him several hours later and helped him back to camp. Durrance felt weak and wobbly from the effects of the sun, but was able to walk with the assistance of the Sergeant's arm about his shoulders. In fact, he might have managed fairly well, but for one thing. Durrance was his men had their hands full and more. Heavily outnumbered, they had repelled the first attack with furious rifle fire; but the Dervishes kept coming back in wave upon wave of leaping, bowing warriors.

Now they were flinging burning spears into the tinder-like walls of the barrier; and in a few minutes the Tommies were falling back toward the center of the camp, surrounded on all sides by leaping flames.

Durrance felt his way into the rapidly dwindling huddle of his men, and fired his revolver blindly toward the sounds that came from the yelling Dervishes. Then the flames began to die down as quickly as they had leapt up, and the blacks were swarming over the smoldering remains of the barrier,
three to every one of the British.

As Durrance stood helplessly
while the hand-to-hand fighting swirled around him, a greasy, turbanned native with a vacant look in his eyes sprang upon his back and bore him to the ground. Durrance, still weak and feverish, lay unconscious where he fell.

A minute more and it was all over—the remains of the camp strewn with bodies black and white, and a pitiful handful of the Englishmen disarmed and taken prisoner by their assailants.
Among them were Burroughs, stunned by a blow from a musket butt, and Willoughby, helpless with a spear wound in his arm.

The few private soldiers taken prisoner by the natives were marched off across the desert. But a more brutal fate awaited their officers, who were bound to camels and dragged off prostrate, at a gallop, across the burning sands.

Half an hour passed, and nothing stirred in the wrecked, corpse-strewn camp—nothing but the slowly gathering vultures which cautiously drew nearer and nearer.
Then a white-clad figure arose from among the still bodies and went silently toward John Durrance. It was Harry Faversham, dressed in the guise of a halfwitted Sengal.

BESS FARIS RECEIVES M. A. DEGREE AT N'WESTERN

Ten students from Texas were among the 540 students to receive degrees from Northwestern university as the eight-week summer session in Evanston ended this week.

Features of the session, one of the largest in the history of the university, were the Institute of Democracy, a new unit in which distinguished professors united in an attempt to strengthen and preserve our democratic way of life; a series of public lectures in Contemporary Thought; and a new symposium course, taught by a staff of 20, in speech problems.

More than 4,200 students attended the session. Local graduates included Miss Bess Faris of Gatesville, who received her Master of Arts degree.

Grid Training—

a fair-to-middling passer. As a signal-caller, however, he is tops. He seems to drive the boys better than any other field general Worley had in the spring training grind, and this unusual ability may enable him to see plenty of action.

Now for the line. The situation in the front line of the Hornet eleven is not so rosy as the back-field outlook, but Worley has turned out consistently good lines ever since his arrival here four years ago. Jack Moore, Francis Hodges, and Gaddy McDonald are Worley's wingmen. This first one mentioned is a flashy sort of player, being a great pass snatcher. Hodges is the workhorse type, a fine blocker and capable on the defense, while McDonald has not had enough experience to show just exactly what he can do. Ben Owen Crow looked good in spring sessions, and once he obtains a little experience, he will give the first three mentioned a battle for their positions.

At the tackle posts Worley has two fine prospects. Big Nathan Wittie, a 200-pounder who saw service last year, returns for his final year. When Wittie is fired up, he cannot be handled, but he is a good-natured, easy-going boy. If Worley can solve this problem, he will not only be a great coach but also a great psychologist. Everett Gribble, a protege of junior high Coach Schwarz, will be the other tackle. Gribble was an outstanding on last year's junior high and scrub teams, and look consistently good during the spring drills, although his blocking was not up to standard. Worley, however, worked with him for a while on this fundamental, and Gribble seemed greatly improved.

The standout of the Hornet line will be the mighty Red White, who would have been a regular guard last year had he not flunked out. White worked out with the boys last year and participated in the scrub games so as to gain a lore of experience. Burly Red should weight in at about 190 when the campaign opens, but he is unusually active and fast for so large a boy. He can pull out of the line and lead the blocker's corps with the best of them, and on defense he is the Rock of Gibraltar personified.

Ray Ward, a hard-charging youngster, will probably fill the other guard slot. This boy was shifted to the guard position in the spring, and quickly showed his adeptness at a guard's duties. He stopped everything sent his way on defense, and was as devastating as an army tank on offense, his chilly blocks clearing the way for the fast stepping backs.

Charley Sydow and Billy Oldham, junior high graduates, will be around for relief duty.

Raymond Sexton, a bruising young man, seemingly solved the center problem to everybody's satisfaction during spring practice. Although the boy had had no experience whatever at this position, Worley spent long arduous hours with him, drilling into his play the finer points of the center's work. He came through in fine style, and looked like a veteran during the final two weeks. He is still lacking in actual game experience however. Dick Anderson, a rawboned youngster, will be right there to step in should Sexton falter.

So, Hornet fans, there you are! The situation summed up is as follows: prospects for a good team are better than they were for last year's squad, Worley has much more reserve strength if he needs to call upon it, there are fine let-termen returning but four of them are backs, and there is only one experienced veteran to carry the Hornet forward wall over the tough spots. The Methodist Home game may send the Hornet rooted into ecstasies of joy, or it may dash their fondest hopes. It remains to be seen.

You need this oil

Insulated Havoline is an oil that can "take it"—give peak performance winter and summer—in any car, new or old. Don't trust to old-fashioned oil that's likely to break down and form piston varnish that makes pistons drag and not give the lubricating protection your car needs. Havoline is not only Insulated—it's Distilled—clean and pure and won't deposit hard, injurious carbon. Havoline is waxfree, too, so it flows freely, quickly, even in cold winter weather. Why don't you drive in—change to Insulated and Distilled Havoline; it's a better oil in any weather—in any car.
