In connection with the play there will be a baby contest to determine Jonesboro's most popular baby. Entrants in the contest are Tommy Lemmons, Charlene Weaver, Carl Schwalbe Jr., Myra Sue Watson, Horace Smith, and James Monroe Herring.

Leading roles in the play are played by Helen Young and Joe Henry Harvison.

Everyone is invited to attend.

Saturday night is "Cut-up" nite at Flat, and according to Doc Barnard one of the many "big-wigs" of this hot little amusement center, anything can happen and everything will happen before the final curtain drops on the evening's performance.

The boxing committee has four big boxing bouts lined up as part of the night's entertainment and indications are that these big bald-headed bruisers will bat each other on the button until their freckles rattle if their knock-out punches don't start clicking too soon.

Another highlight of the program will be a Brahma Bull riding contest held in the main street and all you ladies who would like a cowboy, just hold your apron for its liable to rain 'em.

As usual there will be plenty of music, dancing and singing and everybody is invited to be on hand for this promises to be a grand occasion.

E. LEON POULTRY & EGG CO. OPENS: GEO. HODGES

George Hodges, who has been in the poultry and egg business in and around Coryell county for the past 16 years, will open his business on East Leon Street, just east of the City Filling Station, next to Pat H. Potts Tin Shop.

George will not need introducing to Coryell county raisers. He says he'll be in the turkey market with all four feet, and with the usual high prices. Also, later he will handle feeds.

MRS. EDWARD HARTIN DISPLAYS HUGE CENTIPEDE

We don't know who deserves the credit for the capture, or rather the kill, but anyhow last Saturday we got a glimpse of a huge centipede incased in a glass jar as it was being shown by Mrs. Edward Hartin.

Though its head was complete severed from its body the seven-inch animal of the Myriapoda class still showed signs of life and old-timers said, "It's as big as they grow."

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Chesnut, Mrs. L. L. Pollard, Mrs. Ida Black, Mrs. Tom Davidson and small daughter, Lavetta Nell, visited Mrs. York Duncan and family of Killeen Sunday.

Guardian of Life and Health

A reserve of 44,000 Red Cross registered nurses stands ready to aid in preserving the life and health of the nation. Calvin Browning Injured in Wreck

Calvin Browning, of near Flat was dangerously cut by flying glass Saturday night about 8:00 o'clock, when the car he was in ran into a hole in a bridge a short distance west of Flat.

Accompanied by the two other boys, they went back to Flat for a doctor, and then came on to Gatesville to the hospital. The cuts on his face caused a serious loss of blood, and he was in a critical condition on his arrival here, it is said.

The other two boys were uninjured. The car was slightly damaged.

Mr. Wallace will be at the school at 11:45 Wednesday morning, and will speak at the luncheon that day at the First Methodist church to the Lions.

Hog Bit Boy Comes Home Sunday

Hershell Wilhelm, who's hog bit him while the hogs were being shown at the Brazos Valley Fair, returned to his home Sunday from a Waco hospital.

Hershell was severely bitten two places on his legs by the hog, his own, and is reported to be considerably better from the experience.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Davidson have just returned from an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin White in Beeville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hollingsworth were Brazos Valley Fair visitors Saturday, as were Mr. and Mrs. Curt Rogers.

Even the war news is scarce, lately, at least you can't tell news from propoganda. Therefore, we quote this, or, it is the substance of what is reported. We wouldn't swear to its authenticity.

Turkey and Allies make a pact, if that means anything.

The jockeying and crossing and double-crossing grabs the headlines instead of scraps. And these will probably be "scraps" of paper.

Four ships were reported sunk Sunday, the Este, 701 ton German with a loss of 71; a Roumanian Oltenia, 6,394 ton ship. Norwegian oil tanker, Deodata, 3,295 tons; the Swedish freighter Gustaf Adolph, 925 tons, north of Shetland Islands.

Berlin says Russia is likely to take action against Turkey, on account of Turkey not making an alliance with Russia.

Seems like the Finns have just about gotten Russia scared off, what with assistance (moral) from the U. S., Norway, Sweden and Denmark.

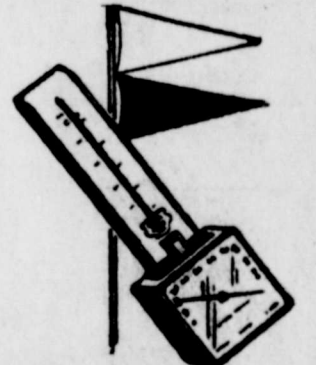

French artillery blasts Nazi headquarters at the castle of Thorn, where French aerial observers have reported the constant coming and going of officers and staff cars, presumably of the German high command.

The Maginot and Siegfried line seems to be throwing kisses, except for a few artillery blasts.

Mrs. Roy Hayes spent the week end in Lubbock with her daughter, Miss Linda Erle Hayes, who is attending Texas Tech. Miss Hayes was an honor student last year, and this year made the honor roll the first month and has been admitted to the Future Teachers Association, a national honorary society.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Brown, and Mrs. Howard Key were Dallas visitors early this week.

ANNUAL COLT SHOW HERE NOV. 6: MAJ. VOORHES COMING

On November 6, the Annual Colt show will be held in Gatesville, according to County Agent Guy Powell. As usual the animals will be paraded on the square, and they will also be judged probably on some gin lot, to be announced later.

An outstanding personality who probably will be here for the show, Major Marion Voorhes, a major in the Quartermaster corps who is in charge of the remount station in Fort Worth. This division of the army does the buying of horses and mules for the service.

In addition, two specialists from College Station, A. L. Smith and Roy Snyder have already intimated they would be here, and probably one other man.

County Agent Guy Powell asks that everyone with thorbred horses or colts, or half breeds bring them in, as this will make a good impression on Major Voorhes, who will someday "be looking for horses and mules."

In addition, many fine mules and mule colts are to be here. So far, no details as to prizes etc., have been announced, and complete plans for the show are not ready to be announced.

Gatesville and Coryell county have always made good showings with mules and horses, and this annual show brings out the best.

AMERICA'S WAR GUILT

History reveals that the isolationists are the most deluded of all loyal Americans in their conceptions of international relations.

To the small group of die-hard isolationists who blocked American membership in the League of Nations belong much of the blame for the dilemma now facing mankind as a result of the war.

For there is every reason to believe that had America collaborated diplomatically and economically with Europe in the first decade of post-war history, the economic crash of 1929 could have been averted or at least minimized in its intensity and world-wide effects.

Germany reacted on the diplomatic and military fronts only after her economy had reached a state of collapse in late 1932 and early 1933. Prior to that time—from the signing of the Treaty of Versailles—the Reich had been ruled by a conservative, republican form of government controlled by a group of moderates who protested against the injustices of the peace treaties but did not take up arms to effect their revision.

The German economic debacle—and the whole system of economic isolationism of the post-war era—was directly traceable to the isolationist and protectionist forces in this country, who blocked the first effort at world collective security in 1918 and 12 years later imposed the iniquitous Hawley-Smoot tariff law upon the statute books.

The refusal of the United States to join the League of Nations wrecked Europe's hopes of a just and lasting peace based upon the mutual respect, tolerance and cooperation of its heterogeneous peoples. The refusal of the U. S. to join in a cooperative effort whereby the rich powers of the world would extend aid to their weaker neighbors precipitated and accentuated the world-wide depression which was responsible for the rise of Hitlerism in Germany.

Following the enactment of the Hawley-Smoot tariff in 1930, the British dominions and Great Britain were forced by the exigencies of the economic disorder to draw together as a single and partially isolated economic bloc in order to protect their economic structures from complete collapse.

This unfortunate but necessary action deprived Germany and the newly created states of Central and Eastern Europe of desperately essential trade outlets, necessitating in the case of Austria a series of financial blood transfusions in order to prevent the government of that decimated country from collapse, and, in the case of Germany, the substitution of a democratic government which espoused free enterprise and the freedom of the individual by an autocratic totalitarian system which isolated the Reich and the German people from contact with the rest of the world.

The impotency of the League of Nations as a factor in international relations can not be rightly traced to the fiasco of the Ethiopian attack nor can it be traced to any event of this decade.

The League of Nations became little more than an empty symbol, a hollow fallacy, a diplomatic tool of the European "democracies" after the U. S. refused to take its seat in the Geneva body.

The League became a second rampart of defense for France—ever alert to means of preserving and fortifying its security—after the U. S. backed down from the lofty ideals and purposes of President Wilson. France proceeded to render financial and military aid to Poland and the Little Entente as a means of encircling and permanently rendering impotent the German state. Since that time power politics has ruled supreme in the world.

Post-war history points to many instances in which the U. S. declared in favor of a reduction of armaments. But we did nothing to bring about a feeling of economic and diplomatic security to the peoples of the world which alone could serve as a basis for world disarmament.

As a result of 15 years of post-war "isolationism"—which we are again being told is the best policy for the U. S. to pursue—Hitler arose as a revolutionary prophet declaiming against the established order and working to reconstruct the political and economic systems of Europe.

Since 1933—the date of the demise of German democracy—three of the products of the Versailles conference have been destroyed, namely, Poland, Austria and Czechoslovakia. These states perished as political entities through the lack of economic collaboration among the big and small states of Europe and of the Americas, and through the equally disastrous lack of effective machinery to protect smaller nations from attack by more powerful and aggressive ones.

In view of these facts, the question "What after Hitler?" logically arises. "What after Hitler?"

Ostensibly, the allies are fighting to destroy Hitlerism. They have no quarrel with the German people, they aver. But if Hitlerism is destroyed, what kind of peace can be established that will satisfy the war aims of the allies without creating a state of mind among the German people that will produce another Hitler in a few years?

This problem will be discussed at length in a succeeding article but a few pertinent observations should be made at this time.

If peace is to be brought to Europe—and we should remember that the Treaty of Versailles was a truce and not a peace, a truce which served to give Germany time to recover herself and renew the struggle of 1914-18—it must be a peace of collaboration in which Germany will participate as an equal along with her present adversaries and the United States and the principal neutral nations of the world.

It must be a peace in which full recognition is given to the role of Germany as a cultural, religious, ethnic and economic factor in the destinies of Europe. It must be a peace which recognizes the right of the German people to live in happiness and prosperity while exacting from them respect for the minorities within Germany and adjacent to her borders.

It must be a peace which establishes economic cooperation and collaboration on an international basis, making possible the free interchange of goods between peoples, and the opening of the sources of raw materials of the world to all peoples on a free and equal basis.

It must be a peace in which the U. S. recognizes and accepts its role as a predominant factor in the political and economic stabilization and the maintenance of world relations.

It must be a peace under which the peoples of the world can be freed of the ever-recurrent spectre of war and under which they can look forward to an era of several centuries of progress in the sciences, arts, law, religion and economic stability, a condition impossible for the world to envision under the darkening aura of war clouds.

It must be a peace in the true sense of the word, a peace of justice, of honor, of respect, of mutual concession, founded on principles enunciated over 1900 years ago by the Greatest of All Peace Advocates, Jesus Christ. It must not be another ephemeral truce!

THANKSGIVING, WHEN?

We've been asked, and are ourselves wondering when the official Thanksgiving for Gatesville and Coryell County will be.

Our idea, is, that it'll probably be November 23, as the traditional McGregor-Gatesville football game is slated for the 24th. But then, that in itself is not definite, since this game will be played on Friday, and not Thursday, as has been the case here-to-fore.

President Franklin Delano Roosevelt says November 30.

Many Chambers of Commerce have passed on their day, some one, and some another. We should get settled on some day. Poultrymen and turkey buyers say November 23, so they'll get a break between turkey markets.

Somebody or organization should SAY WHEN!

DO UNTO OTHERS—

Last summer, a nice big Waco Delegation came to our town to enjoy our rodeo, and to help increase the gate receipts, and to help put our show over.

For the past two weeks, Waco has had the Brazos Valley Fair. No organized delegation from Gatesville attended.

Wacoans attended the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show in a body; the Corsicana Rodeo; the Clifton Central Texas Fair.

All these three above mentioned "did to Waco like they liked Waco to do unto them". We didn't.

It seems to us, that if we expect favors from other communities, we too should give favors. It is our ingratitude, or is it?

We ought to be able to "dish it out, as well as to take it"

COMMISSION DISCHARGES OLIN CULBERSON OF GAS DIVISION

Three members of the Railroad Commission, Lon A. Smith, chairman, Jerry Sadler and Ernest O. Thompson, have signed an order to discharge Olin Culberson of Austin, director of the gas utilities division of the railroad commission since 1933. The order informed Culberson his services would be dispensed with effective November 1.

Culberson said in a written statement his discharge was in itself of no importance but should serve to demonstrate the need for removing utility regulation from politics. It also should be an indication of the urgent need for constant vigilance in protecting interests of the consuming public.

He declared that his experiences with the "giant utility interests" for five years had convinced him a state utility regulatory commission with authority to protect the public from unjust utility aggressions, and with adequate safeguards against political interference, should be created.

He is a brother of Dave H. Culberson of this city.

Cop. Cove Defeats Ireland, 14-12

Friday afternoon on their own gridiron, the Copperas Cove six-man football squad, top-ranking team of the six-man league, barely nosed out Coach Sivells' "fighting Irish" of Ireland, the final score being 14 to 12.

Edwards and Pearson starred for Ireland scoring one touchdown each while Miller scored twice for the Copperas Cove lads and Adams converted the extra points.

The results of this game goes to show that the Ireland team has made a vast improvement since the season started being the only team in the league who have been able to hold the Copperas Cove team in check and especially interesting is the fact that the Ireland touchdowns were made in the last 5 minutes of the play. According to our informer, all of the boys who participated in the game were stars but probably the brightest of all were Pearson and Edwards of Ireland who were responsible for the close score. Pearson played the best game of his career and proved his ability on more than one occasion during the afternoon. However, in saying this we are not overlooking the fact that the Cove boys had some stars of their own with Miller, out-shining the brilliant Faubian and Mathias and coming out of the game with two touchdowns to his credit.

From all indications this was a good clean football game, both teams displaying real sportsmanship and one that will be remembered a long time by those who were present.

Nancy Lengefeld of Hamilton Celebrates Birthday

Nancy Lengefeld celebrated her fifth birthday Saturday afternoon, October 14, when her mother, Mrs. Otto Lengefeld, honored her with a party at her home in Hamilton from 3 till 5 o'clock. The Hallowe'en theme was used in table decorations and favors. Refreshments of punch, devils food cake, and candy were served. Favors were Hallowe'en whistles.

Those from Gatesville who attended the party were: Dorothy Sue Ellis, Betty Bauman, Phyllis Jean Bauman, Mrs. A. W. Ellis, Mrs. W. W. Cayce, and Miss Wilhelmina Cayce.—Hamilton County News.

Weiner Roast Given By Methodist S. S. Class

Members of Mrs. Bailey Curry's Sunday School class of the Methodist Church enjoyed a no-host weiner roast at the home of Miss Lalla Rookh Martin near the State Training School last Thursday evening. The occasion was also a miscellaneous shower for one of the members, Mrs. Nick Chandler, the former Miss Clay Allen Vandiver.

After the roasting of weiners, several games were played. At the conclusion Mrs. Chandler was presented a number of lovely gifts.

Attending were: Misses Flogene Martin, Virginia Burleson, Anna Jo Sherwood, Maxine Dollins, Dorothy Swindall, Lalla Rookh Martin, the honoree, Mrs. Curry, Mrs. A. H. Vandiver, and Messrs. Bill Witt, Bob Thomas, G. C. Martin Jr., Marvin Franks, Weldon Campbell, and W. B. McBroom.

Jim McClellan Home Scene of Club Party

Complimenting members and additional guests of the Thursday Afternoon Bridge Club, Mrs. Jim McClellan entertained at her home on Bridge street on the appointed afternoon. Adorning the home thruout were bowls and vases of various fall flowers.

A series of bridge games terminated with Mrs. Doyle Baldridge holding high score and Mrs. Byron Leaird Jr. second high. After the presentation of awards, the hostess passed a delicious refreshment plate, which consisted of minced pie, topped with whipped cream, and olives, cheese, and coffee.

Those in attendance were: Mesdames Roger Miller, H. K. Jackson, L. K. Thomson, Chess Sadler, Francis Caruth, J. D. Brown, Byron Leaird Jr., Stewart Williams, Lewis Holmes, T. R. Mears, O. N. Hix, George Painter, Paul Hardy, Doyle Baldridge of Waco, Emmett Stewart and C. E. Gandy.

Mrs. Laura Rayford and Mrs. Dan McClellan called during the afternoon.

lost and 1-2 won, which make them have a .500 percentage.

Next week, a crippled Hornet club will take on the much trampled West team, which should increase the Hornet percentage.

McGregor is away out in front and seems to be the cream of the crop, but has only played 2 conference games, whereas, four members of the conference have played 4 games each. McGregor has worries ahead.

In the 6-Man, a close battle was evidently with the conference leader at the hands of Ireland, which team was barely nosed out by 12 to 14 score. Oglesby and Flat played fairly close, too, Oglesby coming out with the long end, 23 to 13. Pearl lost to Turnersville Saturday night 6 to 27.

In the SW Conference: The Ags beat the Frogs, 20 to 6; Baylor dropped to Nebraska, 20 to 0; Texas took Arkansas 14 to 13; SMU 16, Marquette 0; and Rice 8, and SHSTC 9.

A disappointing town crowd was down to see the Turnersville-Pearl 6-man game under the lites Saturday night. We don't know why.

Here's the standing in the 6-Man league.

Team	P	W	L	Pct
C. Cove	4	3	0	1.000
Ireland	4	1 1/2	2 1/2	.375
T'ville	3	2	1	.666
Pearl	3	1 1/2	1 1/2	.500
Flat	4	0	4	.000
Oglesby	4	2 1/2	1 1/2	.635

Copperas Cove seems to be the one team in the county that's hard to take, and inexperience accounts probably for more losses than anything else. Copperas Cove played 11-Man last year.

Springfield, Ill., was the first city designated for use of the food order stamp plan for distributing surplus foods since Secretary of Agriculture Wallace announced further expansion of the plan.

May be you missed it, but New Deal High School defeated Southland 49 to 6. It's been the same score in these parts since shortly after 1932.

Red Cross Nurse Reserve at Peak

Disaster Service, Home Nursing, Health Education, Keep Thousands Busy

Washington.—The Red Cross reserve of registered nurses qualified for immediate duty is stronger than ever before, Miss Mary Beard, director of the American Red Cross nursing services, announced.

"We now have a first reserve of 15,000 unmarried nurses under 40 years of age available for duty with the Army, Navy or government nursing services and subject to call by the Red Cross for disaster work," she said. "This is 700 more than any previous first reserve registration."

Miss Beard pointed out that the increase has been gradual and that only registered nurses meeting rigid requirements of training and physical fitness are enrolled. All classes of nurse reservists, including nurses now employed by the Red Cross, bring the reserve corps total to 44,283. During the World War of 1914-18 the American Red Cross mustered nearly 20,000 nurses for duty with Army, Navy and Red Cross hospitals, at home and overseas.

"Maintenance of the Nurses Reserve is provided by our charter and is in line with Red Cross policies of prevention and preparedness, but the peacetime work of our nurses is equally important," Miss Beard said.

The director explained that more than 2,000 nurses, chiefly home hygiene and care of the sick instructors, were regularly engaged in visiting the sick, aiding physicians in examining school children, conducting inoculation programs to stamp out contagious illness, launching trial nursing services in out-of-the-way communities, and carrying on important health education work to qualify family groups to care for sickness at home.

All nurses who are needed for Red Cross nursing activities are drawn from the Red Cross reserve of qualified nurses, Miss Beard said.

Last year Red Cross public health nurses made more than one million visits on behalf of the sick and gave skilled care to 272,729 persons. The majority of Red Cross nursing services cover entire counties to include both rural areas and industrial centers where nursing help is scarce.

Last year, in schools and clinics, nurses cooperated with physicians in examining 595,575 children, and aided in the task of correcting defects. Children examined were enrolled for the most part in rural schools where this type of preventive service is rare. There are 655 Red Cross nurses engaged in this work in 477 communities.

In the field of health education, Red Cross nurses have instructed more than 1,000,000 family members since 1914 in how to care for the sick at home and have set new standards of hygiene for the family. Last year the Nursing Service held 4,505 classes in home hygiene and care of the sick and awarded certificates to 61,296 persons who passed examinations.

This service to the public is supported by the men and women who join as members of the Red Cross, through their local Chapters, during the Roll Call, November 11 to 30.

Science Slashes Kitchen Mileage

A KITCHEN that takes the housewife out of the kitchen—

Sounds a bit paradoxical, doesn't it? But that's exactly the purpose behind the arrangement of the ultra-modern kitchen of the air-conditioned home in the Town of Tomorrow at the New York World's Fair.

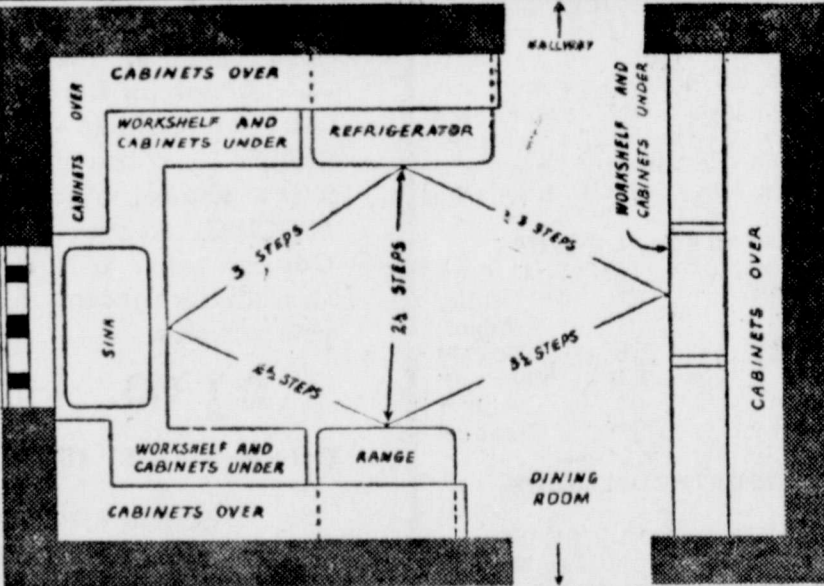

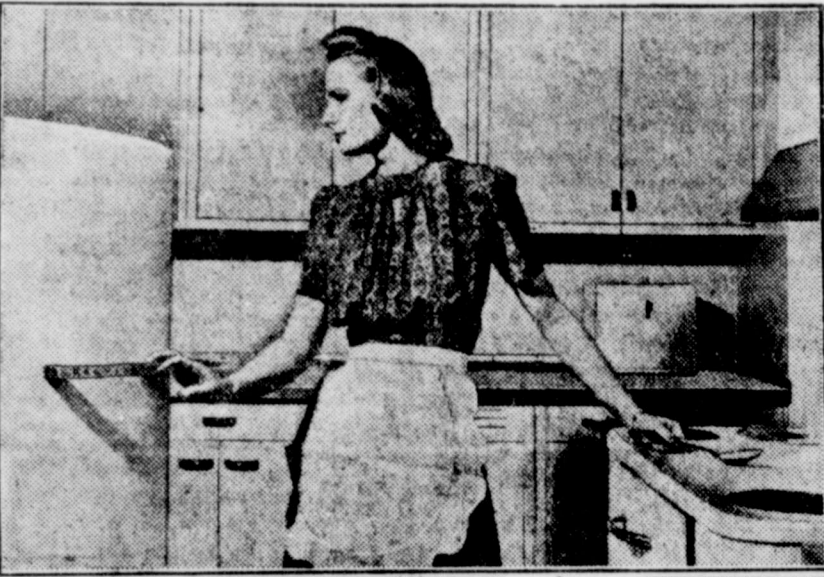

Scientifically planned and arranged, the kitchen—measuring 12 feet 4 inches long by 9 feet wide—was designed for "production line" cooking, which, as is the case with production line methods in the modern factory, saves needless steps and eliminates waste motion and resulting fatigue. "Production line" cooking reduces to an absolute minimum the amount of time the housewife has to spend in the kitchen.

According to engineers and home economists, who designed the kitchen of the World's Fair home and then equipped it with scientifically placed electric refrigerator, electric range, cupboards and built-in cabinets with work table tops, the arrangement results in a tremendous reduction of the number of steps the housewife has to take while carrying out her culinary duties.

Following the "production line" method, which in factories saves time and eliminates "back-tracking," the housewife using this kitchen cannot help but follow an efficient, planned route when preparing meals. She works around the kitchen in a counter-clockwise direction, starting at the electric refrigerator (where raw materials are stored); then proceeding to the sink (where materials are processed), and last arriving at the electric range (where the materials are finally prepared and from which they are served).

From the electric refrigerator to the sink, she has to take no more than three steps. She covers the distance from the sink to the electric range in only two and a half steps. And she has only to take two and a half steps from the electric range back to the refrigerator. From electric range to workshelf and cupboards at the opposite end of the kitchen, the distance is only slightly more than three steps and it's just three steps from the electric refrigerator to this point.

Further enhancing the efficiency of the kitchen is the new-type workshelf at the junction of the two main workshelves. This workshelf features outlets, to electrical appliances as mixers, toasters and irons can be handsly attached. This is a further step-saver, for the user of the kitchen can connect any electrical appliance at whatever point in the room she stands, without delay or getting mixed up in the cords.

Pedometer tests have shown that under old-fashioned conditions of work, where no heed was paid to convenient arrangement, the cook or housekeeper often traveled as much as five miles a day in carrying out her duties. Recently, a modern kitchen laboratory conducted an experiment in which a dessert was made in an awkwardly arranged kitchen and then in one that was "engineered" to save steps and motions. By proper routing, the operations were cut from 97 to 64 and the steps taken from 281 to 45—a notable difference, which means much in the course of a day's work.

NAGGING BACKACHE

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action—Don't Neglect It!

Modern life with its ceaseless hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking, exposure, contagion, whatnot, keeps doctors busy, hospitals crowded. The after effects are disturbing to the kidneys and oftentimes people suffer without knowing that disordered kidney action may cause the trouble.

After colds, fever and similar ills there is an increase of body impurities the kidneys must filter from the blood. If the kidneys are overtaxed and fail to remove excess acid and other harmful waste, there is poisoning of the whole system.

Symptoms of disturbed kidney function may be nagging backache, persistent headache, dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeeling of nervous anxiety and loss of strength and energy. Other signs of kidney or bladder disturbance sometimes are irritating, scanty or too frequent urination.

In such cases it is better to rely on a medicine that has won world-wide approval than on something less favorably known. Use Doan's Pills. They have been winning new friends for more than forty years. Be sure to get Doan's, sold at all drug stores.

THE REASON DOAN'S ARE FAMOUS

All over the country grateful people tell others: "Doan's have helped me; I recommend them to you." That is why we say, Ask your neighbor!

MORRIS FEDERATION TO SPONSOR MOVIE AT PALACE THEATRE

The Morris Federation, with a program on the Moving Picture, its production, its miracle workers and its literary background, selected George Bernard Shaw's famous stage success "Pygmalion" as an illustration of these arts in motion pictures.

What is claimed as one of the largest and most impressive sets ever built for a motion picture in England was constructed for the Covent Garden market place scenes of "Pygmalion". Covent Garden is widely known as the site of London's flower, fruit and vegetable market; it is also the site of a superb opera house. Even Shaw himself is reported to have registered amazement at the accuracy and realism of the set. Apart from the general vastness of the scene, two things appear to have made a very deep impression on the noted playwright. First, a reproduction of the facade of St. Paul's Church, complete with exact copies of its stained glass windows, its huge standard lamps and stone pillars.

But the veteran dramatist was even more impressed when he turned away from the church and looked across the roadway to the scores of carts and stalls all piled high with fruit, vegetable and flowers of every description. More than fifty tons of fruit and vegetables were purchased for these scenes, fresh vegetables being sent to the studio daily to replace shipments that had turned bad.

In order to insure an authentic "human background" fifty genuine Covent Garden coster men and women were engaged as extras to record for the cameras the jobs they do in everyday live. Since Covent Garden would not be complete without its pigeons, eight of these birds were brought to the studio to add the final touch of atmosphere. All were of the "homing" variety, and as soon as their services were no longer required the doors of the sound stages were opened and the birds flew back to their owners from whom they had been hired.

Cluttering up the long roadway which stretched from one end of the sound stage to the other, Shaw saw dozens of wagons and market carts drawn by horses—all brought from Covent Garden itself.

He saw a dozen lorries and motor vans moving about, bringing supplies. He saw men pushing rubbish containers labeled "City of Westminster Highways Department". They have been specially loaned for the occasion.

"This IS Covent Garden" declared Shaw.

This picture, sponsored by the Morris Federation, is being shown Thursday and Friday of this week at the Palace Theatre.

DAMAGED HORNET ELEVEN DROPS TO MART 6 TO 19

Demoralized by a 50 yard run by Walker, and an unfortunate penalty, Gatesville High School Hornets dropped their annual game to Mart High School Panthers, 6 to 19.

During the first quarter, 2nd, Mart was roundly outplayed by the young Gatesville team, but their inexperience, with the added psychological effect of Jackson, with a badly injured knee being on the sideline, and Foster with an injured ankle as handicaps, made for their downfall.

Kirkpatrick carried the brunt of the Hornet attack, aided by Jones' defense in backing up the fieldline and his splendid punting. Whigham, played again in the backfield helped measurably on this offence. Moore, was all that could be expected at end, and turned in the best game of his career. Wittie, proved his injuries didn't effect his play, and opposite Gribble played his usual consistent game. In the center position, Sexton, stopped most attacks at this position and helped "clear" for the Hornet thrusts. Hodges, altho not getting the chances Moore did filled his place satisfactorily for the most part. Ward was a warhorse at guard, and Capt. White, even after a nose injury bolstered up the lines mid sector. Foster did his best on a bad ankle, and was relief man for Culberson for the most part.

In Forsback, Smith, Walker and Warren, we'll pick the first for the ace Panther. Slavens at end also turned in a nice game. As long as there are Rogeres in Mart, they're going to have football teams, and it looks like that'll be from now on. The one in the game last night, although a substitute, didn't do anything to the discredit of this famous family of footballers.

And here's the play-by-play. Mart kicks to the Hornets, down hill, Walker kicking, the ball goes to Whigham on the 20, returned to 31. Culberson picked up 6 thru C. On end run, Moore failed to gain. Culberson stopped at line by Slavens. Jones punts from Mart 30 to Hornet 40.

Walker on LE run loses 1 yd. Forsback punts from 30, out on 45. Fish fails around RE as he is stopped by Slaven. Kirk passes from 30 to Moore on Hornet 20, and he is downed on the 10. Fish shovels to Whigham who makes 6. Jones spins for none. Jones picks up 3 more. Whigham fails over LT. Fish shovels to Whigham for 1 yd. Fish fails on 6 inch line and ball goes over.

Forsback replaced by Smith. Smith punts, ball goes to Fish who returned from 35 to 30.

Kirk passes over Moore, incomplete. Mart penalized 15, ruling was, passer roughed. Fish fails on LE run, dropping 1 yd. Fish shovels to Whigham, but Hornet line doesn't hold, Hornets lose 6. Foster for Culberson.

Bad pass from C loses 25 yards. Jones punts from 40 and ball is killed on the 2. Ball ruled out, and Mart takes over on 20.

Walker walks thru RT for 1st D. Warren make 6 over RT, Smith passes to Walker, incomplete. Walker make 2 over RT Smith punts to Foster on 35, returns to 43.

Kirk takes ball around RE for 6. Jones spins over C for 4 and 1st D. Kirk goes over L side for 4. Foster completes pass to Kirk for 1st D as quarter ends.

SECOND QUARTER

Kirk laterals to Foster, who picks up 8. Jones spins thru C. for 3 and 1st D. Kirk makes another 1st and 12 yds. around RE. Jones, cuts back between ends and picks up 1. Foster goes over LG for 1. Lateral pass, Foster to Kirk is knocked down by Forsback. Kirk passes incomplete, as ball goes over.

Forsback hit LG for 1. Walker over LE makes 3, stopped by Gribble. Smith, for Forsback. Smith passes over Walker, incomplete. Smith kicks to Forsback, 45 yds. from the 15, and Foster returns to the 50, stopped by Skillern.

Kirk makes 2 around RE. Foster to Kirk to Moore, carries to 25 yard line. Jones goes over RE for 6. Foster hands to Whigham who picks up 1. Jones spins over C for 1. Kirk plows LG for a 1st down. Foster completes to Whigham who is dropped in the 5. Kirk powers over C for touchdown. Jones fails over LT for extra point. Gatesville 6, Mart 0.

Hornet kick, ball goes to Warren on 20, returns to 40. Rogers for Clifton. Walker on LE run makes 3. Forsback passes, Foster intercepts and is tackled by a Hornet. Jones spins for 7 thru C. Kirk over L side makes 3. Kirk, thru big left side hole makes 5 and a 1st D, stopped by Rogers. Foster passes to Jones who makes 2. Kirk on LE run fumbles ball, recovered by Mart. Culberson for Foster.

Smith, attempting to pass was thrown by Ward for 15 yard loss. Walker on LE run loses 2 yards. Walkers passes, intercepted by Culberson who returns 10. Sydow for Ward. Kirk passes, incomplete. Kirk hits RT for 2 yards as the half ends. Hornet 6, Mart 0.

THIRD QUARTER

Hornets kick, ball goes to Warren on the 25, stopped on 38 by Wittie. Ward throws Walker for 3 yd. loss. Forsback passes short to for 9. White stopped him. Warren hits C for 1st D. Walker starts end run, cuts back over C and makes 9. Forsback makes 2 and 1st D. stopped by Jones. Warren fails over RT, stopped by Jones. Forsback passes to Walker who drops it. Forsback passes over C to Slavens who drops when hit by Kirk. Walker picks up 2 as ball goes over.

Kirk, over RT makes 5. Kirk passes to Moore, completed for 20 yards to the 50 but Hornets penalized 15 yards. Coleman goes in for Mart. Jones kicks from 15 to 50, Walker on a beautiful run, with nice blocking runs down the sideline for a touchdown. Place kick fails. Gv. 6, Mart 6.

Mart kicks, ball goes to Culberson on 5, returns to 21. Jones drops 2 at LE. Kirk passes long to Hodges, incomplete. Jones punts from 10 to 55 to Walker, who returns to the 45.

Walker over RT picks up 3, stopped by Jones, Forsback is smothered for 15 yard loss, trying to pass. Forsback punts to Culberson on 10, returns to 25.

Whigham on RE run picks up 7. Jones spins over C. a 1st D and 8 yds. stopped by Smith and Rogers. Kirk drops 1 on LE play. Kirk passes to Moore, who goes to 39 before being stopped. Kirk makes 3 on long end run. Slavens is injured on play. Fish hits C for a half. Kirk goes around RE for a 1st D. Whigham goes over RG for 3. Kirk on LE run makes another 1st D, and 8 yds. Moore on end around play make 4. Kirk makes 4 over C. Jones fails to gain on RT side. Kirk fails as ball goes over. Smith for Forsback. Ball goes over on 10 yd line as 3rd Quarter end. Gv. 6, Mart 6.

FOURTH QUARTER

Foster for Culberson. Walker picks up 3 around RE. Gabbert for Slavens. Forsback completes pass to Smith for 1st D. and 12 yds. Forsback picks up 4 at LE, stopped by Moore. Walker is stopped by Jones for 3 yds. Smith passes to Warren who takes it to the 35.

Oglesby Smothers Flat, 32 to 13

Friday afternoon playing on their home gridiron the Oglesby six-man football team moved up a step closer to the top of the 6-man league, by downing the Flat Yellow Jackets 32 to 13. Carter McKelvain, flashy Oglesby quarterback was the outstanding player of the game accounting for three of the Tiger's touchdowns while Halcomb, Harper and Blackshire played excellent football for the losers. The Flat team as usual played all over the field making huge gains but being unable to break up the Oglesby passing attacks proved to be their downfall.

The first touchdown of the game was made by Blackshire, Flat gridster who caught a pass from one of his team mates and crossed over after a long run around right end. Oglesby didn't score until late in the second quarter when McKelvain lugging the ball for the Tigers, broke through a ragged Flat defense and got away for a touchdown. The third quarter proved to be more less a passing duel between McKelvain and Griffin for the Tigers and Harper and Halcomb for the Yellow Jackets, each team scoring one touchdown in that period. In the last quarter the Flat Coach replaced most of his badly bruised regulars with reserves but was unable to stop the Tiger's passing attack before the final whistle.

Next Friday at Oglesby the Tiger will play the strong Copperas Cove squad who have already handed them one defeat this season, and Flat plays Turnersville at Flat.

B. Student Heads Broadway Show

Candles will flicker in the windows of each of the 36 members of the Baylor University Little Theatre Monday night, Oct. 23, when Woody Chambliss, first member of that organization to "make" Broadway, opens as the lead in Michael Chekhov's "Possessed" at the Lyceum Theatre, corner of 45th and Broadway New York.

The curtain goes up at 8:40 p. m. New York time (7:40 p. m. Waco time) and at that moment the candles will be lighted and placed in the windows.

The candle incantation is an old Chinese custom adapted by the Little Theatre. Whenever any former member of the thespian group faces a "crisis" in life he asks his old friends and the present members of the organization to perform this little ritual as a good luck "omen" and enchantment for his success.

Jr. Hornets Drop To Waco, 7-19

With Deaton and Holder, Deaton, principally, Waco's North Waco Junior High School footballers took not-so-easy from the Gatesville Junior High School Hornets. The game was closer than the score would indicate, and on two separate occasions, the Hornets held the Wacoans for downs within the 10 yard line.

Highlights of the game were Gandy's pass to White, which placed the Hornets close in and paved the way for Davis' run thru the center of the line for the first marker.

For Waco, it was Deaton, who for the first, on a cross back, ran 29 yards for a touch in the 1st quarter. The second was scoreless. In the third, Deaton on a spinner thru center raced 20 yards for a marker, and in the fourth, after Deaton intercepted a pass and made a run from one 45 to the other, a pass to the Waco end made the third counter.

For Gatesville, Gandy, White, Campbell, Davis and "Empire State" Bell, starred, Gandy playing a good safety, with the exception of once, when there was a bad pass. Campbell recovered the fumble that paved the way for the Hornet touchdown. Campbell and Davis carried the brunt of the Hornet offensive, and Morgan was heads up at center.

Officials for the game were Woodrow Wilson, Referee, John F. Post Jr., Umpire and Timekeeper, and Harry Jones, Headlinesman. The Hornets made 4 first downs to Waco's 3.

Pearl All-Stars Defeat Pottsville

Friday afternoon the Pearl All-Star six-man football team composed of Kelly, Stovall, Medart, Ballard, Nabors and Jones, last year's Champions journeyed to Pottsville and took the Pottsville squad into camp by a score of 33-6.

Ballard and Nabors, scored the touchdowns for the Ex-Dragons one of them occurring in the first minute of play. Pottsville scored in the second quarter on a long pass, Kautsch to Kemp, who went over for a touchdown. Probably the most sensational play of the game was a 35 yard pass, Kelly to Ballard, which accounted for one of the Dragon's touchdowns and proved that the last year's Champs still have plenty on the ball.

The two teams will meet again November 11th at Pottsville. The Pottsville lineup was not available.

PURMELA CLUB NOTES

Mattress handles are very convenient, and can be made by taking 30 inches of the 5 inch strip torn off at first for boxing. Double this and make a 2 inch band, cut in 6 pieces. Sew the handles on bottom of the tick, placing one at each end and two on each side 15 inches from the corner. This was demonstrated when the Club met in the home of Mrs. J. O. Winslar, October 18.

Mrs. Winslar had 50 lbs of fresh white cotton and 9 1/4 yards of best grade ticking, 36 inches wide, ready. In making the tick a strip 5 inches wide was torn off the entire length for boxing and handles. The remainder was cut in four strips 83 inches long and 31 inches wide. Stich each two strips together lengthwise. Make 3 1/4 inch ticks in each corner. Then the boxing strip and handles were sewed in on one side. The tick was placed on a large table in the yard and the top turned back. We began to fill it by placing layers of cotton crosswise making it as evenly as possible.

After placing about 25 lbs. this way we pinned the top and bottom together then taking sticks beat it thoroughly for felting and to see if the cotton was evenly distributed.

After seeing to this the top was thrown back and the balance of the cotton placed and pinned together and once more beaten using diagonal motion. After sewing together turn the mattress. Rolls were put in with a heavy cord. Start near a corner make a diagonal stitch 3/4 of an inch long across the seam and bring the needle out straight 3 inches above the seam. Then run the needle down diagonally.

This mattress should be sunned and beaten every day for two weeks before using Miss Gibson said.

Refreshments of lemonade, oatmeal and chocolate drop cookies were served by Mrs. Raymond Winslar to Mesdames Frank Haynes, J. N. Weeks, Herbert McCarter, Oran Hagen, Q. F. Adams, W. T. Laxon, and Misses Mary Baskin, and Sidney Gibson, and the hostesses, Mrs. J. O. and Raymond Winslar.

The next meeting is to be had with Mrs. Q. F. Adams, November 1. The subject to be studied is "Flower Arrangement and Reminders for Fall Planting.—Reporter, Mrs. Q. F. Adams.

NEW HIT "DAUGHTERS COURAGEOUS" HAS SAME FOUR DAUGHTERS

The first day of camera work on Warner Bros.' "Daughters Courageous" which opens next Saturday at the Regal Theatre, was a jolly reunion of the alumni of "Four Daughters," a First-Tenner among 1938's foremost pictures.

The "Daughters Courageous" cast includes every principal of the "Four Daughters" cast, its director, Michael Curtiz is the same, and the screen play was written by the same scenarists, Julius Epstein, with his brother, Phillip.

May Robson hurried back from an interrupted vacation with her son and grandson in New York in order to resume her film work with the rest of the cast. Lola Lane broke off a profitable personal appearance swing around the country. Jeffrey Lynn cancelled his trip to be guest of honor at a sports carnival in Maine.

Dick Foran postponed one of his cowboy pictures for another screen producer; Claude Rains wired his wife to come from Philadelphia and visit him, instead of going east as scheduled; and Frank McHugh unpacked the old black derby which he wears in his occasional

"SOULS AT SEA"

Paramount's Dramatic Thunderbolt of the Sea tragedy on the "William Brown" with GARY COOPER, GEORGE RAFT, FRANCES DEE and OLYMPE BRADNA directed by Henry Hathaway.

George Zucco, in Cooper's defense, relates his story as the scene shifts to a ship at sea. The Blackbird, a slaver with Cooper and George Raft, skipper and mate. Before the captain's death he tells Cooper to destroy the ship's log and papers if they are captured unless they can be turned over to Henry Wilcoxon, an English lieutenant.

The Blackbird is captured. The captain of the English warship is surprised to find no slaves aboard. Cooper and Raft are hung aloft by their thumbs to make them talk. Raft is terrified and agrees to tell all if they are cut down. Released they are ushered into the captain's quarters aboard the warship.

Raft reveals that Cooper is an honest merchant skipper on whom command of the Blackbird was forced against his will. He tells Capt. Emery that Cooper deliberately went off his course to allow the slaves to swim ashore. Henry Wilcoxon, lieutenant on the warship, fears the two know his illicit connection, urges Capt. Emery to throw them into the sea.

In Liverpool, Cooper and Raft are brought ashore in chains. As they head for the jail a carriage comes along and knocks them down. In the carriage is Frances Dee, Henry Wilcoxon's sister. She stops the carriage to apologize. Does Wilcoxon realize that Cooper knows his connection with the slave trade?

DEMONSTRATION AGENTS OFFICE

Many of you are canning and preserving pears at this time. You might like to try these recipes.

Most in evidence of fruits for canning now are the pears. Best canned pears are never tree ripened. Pears will have a less astringent taste and will be finer in texture if harvested when mature but still green and permitted to ripen in cool, dark, well ventilated room. Once ripened they must be used promptly or discoloration will develop.

Place the pieces of pared fruit immediately into a solution of 2 tablespoons each of salt and vinegar to one gallon of water to prevent discoloration and loss of vitamin C.

CANNED PEARS: Pare half and core ripe pears. Exhaust in boiling sirup for 4 to 8 minutes according to size and hardness of fruit. Seal immediately and process containers of all sizes 20 minutes in boiling water bath.

CANNED BAKED PEARS: The small sweet early pears found in many localities are delicious when baked in the oven just as apples are baked. Remove while hot from baking pan and pack into hot sterilized containers. Fill to overflowing with boiling medium sirup and seal.

PEAR HONEY: Cut ripe late pears into small pieces. Use a little less than half sugar by weight. Mix and cook the honey until consistency of honey. Seal in hot "sterilized" containers.

PEAR MARMALADE: Peel fresh pears, quarter and slice the long way. Cover with sugar using 3/4 pound sugar to one pound fruit. Let stand until it forms a sirup, boil slowly, until thick and fruit is clear. Seal in hot "sterilized" containers. A good addition when fruit is partially cooked add one-half cup grated pineapple to each pound of fruit.

SUMMER MINCE MEAT
7 1/2 lbs. pears (peeled and cored)
1 lb seedless raisins
1 orange, 1 lemon, 1 apple
3 lbs. sugar
1 Cup vinegar
1 Cup grape juice or other fruit juice, not too sweet.
Teaspoon salt

1 tablespoon each, cinnamon, mace cloves or other spice to taste.

Grind pears, orange, lemon and apple. Mix with all other ingredients and boil for two hours. Pack in jars and seal while hot.

This an excellent way to use hard pears.

PEAR BUTTER: Peel and core one gallon of late ripe pears; put in kettle and add two cups water, boil slowly; when done put thru a ricer or colander. To every four cups of pulp add 2 cups of sugar. Place on stove again and cook slowly until dark and very thick. Stir to prevent sticking. A few minutes before removing all juice of one lemon. "Sterilize" jars, rubbers and lids; fill and seal while hot.

TIRE USER GETS 4 NATION-WIDE TRIPS NO CHARGE

"Because in 10 years the average tire milage has practically doubled through improvements and refinements in manufacture, and since average tire prices remain about the same, on the basis of 1929 casts," declared "Red" Chamlee, local Goodyear dealer, "the motorist today gets enough free milage to make four trips from New York to San Francisco."

In the business of selling and servicing tires for many years, Mr. Chamlee has been a keen observer of the trends affecting the development and progress in the product he sells. Said he: "The car owner today doesn't stop to realize that in addition to long milage from present day tires, he has easier riding, easier steering and increased safety along with his saving."

"Of course he gets such long milages nowadays that he is often tempted to drive his tires over what I choose to call the safety line, meaning simply that, after a certain point in the life of the tire, when it has worn smooth and thin and is still faithfully doing its duty, the remaining milage left, with which the owner is really taking a chance when he drives, is so small that he might better trade in his tires on a new set and be safe and sure."

The proprietor of Chamlee's Garage, went on to say that he offered an inspection service on tires, at no obligation to the car owner, which would let him know what tires needed servicing or replacing.

"In this way we feel that we may do our small part in contributing to the safety of everyone who uses the highways locally, by putting tires in condition to meet present day high driving speeds," he counseled.

TWO GATESVILLE BOYS RECEIVE HONOR AT J.T.A.C.

Clovis King and Joe Ned Brown of Gatesville who are attending John Tarleton College, Stephenville, Texas, have received signal honor at that institution recently. They were elected to membership in the Honorary Corps of Cadets, the greatest honor the Military Department can confer upon a cadet. According to Major James D. Bender, Professor of Military Science and Tactics, about one-tenth of the Cadet Corps will be included in this organization.

There are many qualifications necessary for membership in this special company. First, the cadet must be outstanding in military work. There are Cadet Majors in the regular Cadet Corps who serve as Privates in this crack drill company. Second, his school work must be outstanding and his deportment excellent. Only those who can measure up to all these requirements are selected.

You Can't do BETTER
by your Car

That's a fact, mister—or Mrs., as the case may be. They just don't make an automotive motor fuel better than Humble's Esso. . . . A broad statement, we grant you, but Esso will back it up in the perfect performance it gives you in every-day use in your car. . . . But we don't ask you to take our word for it; rather, we suggest that you try Esso and see for yourself. We suggest that you check its anti-knock quality, its power, its easy starting, its cooler operation. And after you've used it regularly for a while, you'll notice that it leaves your motor in first class condition—an important point to the gentleman who pays repair bills. . . . Next time your gauge shows low, fill up with Esso at the nearest Humble sign. Test a tankful—you'll come back for another!

October 26, 1934
Mrs. R. M. Nichols of Waco, traveler and collector of antiques, will be the guest speaker when the Morris Federation holds its regular monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. J. P. Kendrick Saturday afternoon. The prominent Waco woman will lecture on "So You are Going to England", a travel talk, using as her background her travels in England.

Round the square: When you find a combination like Frances McCoy and Nell Goodall it is hard to beat; if you don't believe it try talking about one in the presence of the other. A younger pair with the same mutual affection is Helen Post Chamlee and Nettie Jane Thomson. Anyone who knows him wouldn't mistake that walk of Coach Ewing.

Gatesville was privileged to entertain the first part of the week Hon. O. H. Cross of Waco, United States Congressman from this district. The News was among others to enjoy a visit from one of Texas' outstanding statesmen prominent in Washington affairs.

A group of some twenty basketball enthusiasts attended the mass meeting in the district courtroom last Monday afternoon, where plans were discussed relative to the proposed local commercial league. Two representatives from Coryell county towns other than Gatesville were present to indicate their interest in joining the basketball league.

Among the "Wanted" criminals whose pictures and descriptions graced the pages of the "Modern Detective" magazine was one William Kessler, 32. The amazing part of this story is the fact that Kessler was in Gatesville all last week, publicity agent for a tent show, which came to this city last Monday. An the still more amazing thing is that the young man went about town unsuspected.

Coach Maurice Ewing will carry his grid squad to Mart today for the third district game, and one which the dope indicates will be just another game for the Hornets. The strong Mart team, serious contenders for the district championship, and tooted to be the best team in the running will attempt to annex another conference victory to their list.

C. E. Alvis Jr., director of the Little Theatre of Gatesville has announced the selection of his cast for "Sparkin'", a one-act play. Members for the play are: Hazen Ament, Louise Walton, Grace Barber and Penelope Hardin. Furniture making was not considered a craft until the end of the twelfth century.
