Annual Colt Show to Offer New Classes; It's Here Monday

Speaks at YMCA Dinner

JUDGE H. E. BELL

Judge H. E. Bell, formerly District Judge of this district, and former resident of Gatesville, and now resident of Houston, was one of the principal speakers at the "bowl of rice" dinner at the YMCA Chinese civilian relief.

The keynote was sounded by Judge Bell, when he explained that there are 60,000,000 homeless, sick and hungry civilians in China. "Most of them are women and children," said Judge Bell. "Calls for help have gone out all over the world and we can not fail in Houston to do our share."

"Certainly it should not work a hardship on anybody to ask 50 cents for a good Chinese dinner served against a Chinese background, and with the Chinese motif carried out throughout, including entertainment."

"Of course, we have no objection to anybody paying more than 50 cents, and we feel as if a lot of the diners will want to pay more when the party is over. Moreover, we welcome contributions from those who can not attend the dinner. These should go to George A. Wilson, 707 1/2 Rusk, and should be made payable to Mr. Wilson as general chairman."

Sterling Edwards To Hillsboro

Sterling Edwards, who has been employed by The Gatesville Messenger for a number of years, leaves this week end for Hillsboro where he has accepted a position with a daily newspaper.

Mr. Edwards is well known in and around Gatesville, and will be joined by Mrs. Edwards in Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Dillashaw were visitors with Roland's father, Harry Dillashaw, last week end.

C. of C. Men in Hwy. 36 Meeting

In the recent meeting of the Highway 36 Association in Dallas, a committee from the Gatesville Chamber of Commerce attended, and included J. Hurl McClellan, H. K. Jackson, Judge Floyd Zeigler and Rufus Brown.

Reports from the meeting are that practically every county on the highway from Houston to Abilene was represented, and the total representatives was larger than any other delegation present. A very favorable hearing was held and continued work on this highway looks probable.

Thru the work of the chamber of commerce committee, the completion of the highway from Gatesville to Jonesboro and U. S. 84 from both county lines have been completed.

Field note on 36 from Gatesville to the Bell county line have been completed.

13,315 Bales Ginned Says 'Happy'

Up to October 18, in Coryell county, there have been ginned 13,315 bales of cotton, as compared to 8,896 at the same period last year.

Now, '39 should be better than '38, with this record before us. One Gatesville merchant told us yesterday his business this September was some 40 per cent over the same period last year.

In these days of "gripping" it's good to find someone who is pleased.

Gatesville and Coryell County has its annual Colt Show here Monday, at the Rock Gin Yard, according to information from County Agent Guy Powell's office.

Roy Snyder and A. L. Smith of College Station will be here to judge the show, and the judging will start promptly at ten in the morning.

Classes have been arranged for all ages of light horses, draft horses, and mules. The classes are as follows:

Light type horse or filly colt foaled in 1939.

Firestone Store Changes Hands

Effective Wednesday, sale of the Gatesville Auto Supply, local distributors of Firestone products, was sold by Tom V. Freeman to Fred Worley and Wade Sadler.

Both Mr. Sadler and Mr. Worley, who is a brother of Coach Earle Worley, are known in this vicinity. Mr. Sadler is a brother of C. C. Sadler, president of the Guaranty Bank & Trust Company, and needs no introduction in this vicinity.

Bus. & Prof. Men Meet: 9 a. m.

All business and professional men, whether or not they are members of the Gatesville Chamber of Commerce or not, are requested to be at the City Hall this morning at 9 a. m.

At this meeting, items of interest to every business in town will be discussed, and it is important that every business man and woman be there.

J. Hurl McClellan, President of the Chamber of Commerce has called the meeting and urges everyone to be there.

Governor's Wife Writes Britains

Mrs. W. Lee O'Daniel, wife of the Governor, has written the following letter to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Britain who celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday.

The letter is as follows:

"Dear Friends: Governor O'Daniel and I very much appreciate your thoughtfulness in extending us an invitation to be present at your Golden Wedding Anniversary Open House Celebration, October 29. We are indeed sorry that it was not possible for us to accept your invitation. It would have been a great pleasure for us to come, and I am sure the event was a big success."

I want to take this occasion to extend you congratulations and very best wishes, and we hope that you will enjoy many more years of happy wedded life.

Governor O'Daniel was hoping that it would be possible for us to come to Gatesville last Sunday and attend church, and also be present at your celebration, but it is quite a long drive to Gatesville and, of course, we cannot leave until after his Sunday morning broadcast, 8:30 to 9:00. We are hoping that you will sometime have occasion to come to Austin, and when you do we extend you an invitation to drop by the Mansion to see us.

With very best wishes and kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

MRS. W. LEE O'DANIEL

Closing: U. S. Post Office, AAA office, City Office, Express Office, the 2 banks, Wm Cameron Co. Inc.; W. F. & J. F. Barnes Lumber Co., and Home Lumber Co. and all offices in the Court House.

As far as we know, all other Gatesville firms including Drugs, Groceries, Varieties, Newspapers, Drygoods, Poultry & Eggs, Barber and Beauty Shops, Theatres, etc., etc.

As for Thanksgiving, a number of merchants have agreed that November 30 will be officially observed here as THE Thanksgiving.

FDR still clings to the 23; W. Lee O'D says both the 23rd and the 30th, and McGregor says Friday, November 24, when the Bulldogs and Hornets meet in that city.

Looks like somebody started something.

Britains Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Britain celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house for their children and friends on Sunday, October 29, at the home in Gatesville.

Edgar Britain, as many people know him, was born February 2, 1867 on a cattle ranch three miles south of Coryell City, Coryell County, the same cattle ranch on which he grew to manhood and engaged in stock raising. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Britain.

In 1889 he married Miss Neeley Candle, who came to Texas from Arkansas when a very small girl with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. U. Candle.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Britain are the parents of seven children, Les-

"Flying Fortress" Ace Known Here

Capt. Carl B. McDaniel, of Franklin has been selected to fly one of the seven huge B-17 army bombers, known as "flying fortresses" on a goodwill flight to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil on November 15.

This flight will be a part of the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the founding of the republic of Brazil.

Capt. McDaniel enlisted in the U. S. Air Service about the same time in 1919 as did some ten or more Coryell County boys, after a recruiting party from Rich Field stopped on the lot now occupied by Manning and Cummings Motor Company.

N. Lutterloh Sta. Burglarized

Monday night about 9 o'clock, the Gulf Station on North Lutterloh avenue was broken into and tobacco, cigarettes, bread, candy and hair oil were taken.

Access to the building was by breaking the front window, according to Sheriff J. H. Brown. J. C. Preston was apprehended and placed in the county jail, and is charged in the case.

HORNETS TAKE TO BUSESSES FOR CLIFTON BATTLE TONIGHT

WORLEY SAYS EVERYTHING'S ALRIGHT: NO INJURIES ON SQUAD

Some 30 or 35 will take a bus to Clifton for the Hornet's 1939 struggle with the Clifton High School football team.

Practice this past week on the local field has been confined to "wind getting" and there has been a lack of scrimmage due to the fact that some of the boys are on the "near-injured" list.

This one should be the Hornets, and it is expected a large number of fans will make the trip over and help the Hornets to bring back the Conference victory.

Here's the probable line-up for the two clubs.

Gatesville	Pos	Clifton
Whigham	LE	Goldkick
Ward	LG	Nelson
Sexton	C	Smith
White	RG	Holder
Gribble	RT	Diess
Hodges	RE	Ludwig
Culberson	Q	Hill
Kirkpatrick	HB	Stringfellow
Jackson	HB	Sombest
Jones	FB	Styker

As for the dope—it means anything. The Hornets have won 2 and lost 2 conference battles. They have beaten teams that have won from Clifton and they have lost to teams—well, you can twist it around anyway you like, and you won't get anywhere.

Clifton lost to VM 0 to 19; Marlin beat them 20 to 6; McGregor beat them 40 to 0; and they tied Mart.

The Hornets lost to VM 0 to 19; won from Itasca 13 to 0; dropped to Mart 6 to 19; and beat West 91-7. The dope, considering this, don't look so hot for the Hornets. There's just no way of knowing except to go over and see, just exactly what we're going to do.

So, you won't guess?

"Well, alright, Well Alright, Well alright."

And, if you're interested, and perhaps not, here's the Class B games for the week: The Hornets, of course, take on Clifton there; VM tries McGregor, and naturally there are 7 teams in this conference that are pulling for VM.

Also, Mart and Marlin meet, and West and Itasca.

In the 6-Man struggle, Oglesby is at T'ville; Ireland at Flat, and Pearl at Copperas Cove. Now we're not pulling for any one of these teams, but as everybody likes to see the leader toppled, they're hoping Copperas Cove will. We don't think, however, it'll happen this week-end.

In the SW conference: it's TCU-Baylor at Waco; Ark- A & M in Fayetteville; Rice, Fordham at New York City; SMU-Texas at Dallas. On these, we'll take Baylor, hope for ARK., Rice will lose some Owl feathers, and SMU will herd the Longhorns. We're not putting any money on our d'rathers, however.

Tuesday p. m. we saw the Hornets loosening up, and it looks like every one of them will be ready to go to Clifton. This game SHOULD be ours.

Last night, the Jr. Hornets had a game with Evant Reserves. The Evant regulars take on Alex, wherever that is, today.

Strikes & Spares

By THE BOWLERS

Things have changed in the bowling business. This "Crazy pin" is taking the play now, along with 3 and 5 pin. 10 pin seems to be the tournament game, and, nearly that only.

Another thing has changed in the league Coca-Cola is leading at this instant, and here are the standings.

Team	P	W	L	Pct
Coca-Cola	24	14	10	.583
Messenger	24	14	11	.541
Martin's	24	11	13	.458
Double Cola	24	10	14	.471

Also, Martin's which has had a lease on the bottom, has moved up to third place. Most of these moves, however, are not due to improved playing as much as it is the handicaps.

Monday night's session brought the following results.

The Home Economics Department of the Gatesville High School is collecting Admiration Coffee coupons with the hopes of securing a premium coffee urn, a very essential piece of equipment for the new department. Local residents are urged thru Miss Evelyn Robinson, head of the Home Economics department, to help in the endeavor by sending the coupons of this particular brand of coffee to the school.

Rev. M. M. Chunn, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Gatesville, will leave Wednesday morning for Fort Worth, where he will attend the annual Central Texas Conference. Mr. Leake Ayres, who is Treasurer of the Conference, will leave Thursday and so will Miss Minnie Lou Witt. Mrs. Pearl White and Mrs. Chunn will join the representatives from this section the latter part of the week.

Since November 11, Armistice Day comes on Sunday this year the business institutions of Gatesville have agreed by mutual consent to remain closed all day Monday, November 13.

Officers for the ensuing year were officially elected when the Roundtable Club convened in regular session last Monday evening in the district courtroom. W. T.

Hix was named to succeed Marion Burleson as president of the local young men's organization. Henry Yongue was elected to the vice-presidency and David Franks was named Sergeant-at-arms.

A punting duel in the 1st half of the game between the Gatesville Hornets and the Marlin Bulldogs here last Friday on a rain soaked field and played most of the time during a heavy downpour ended in a 20 to 0 victory for the heavier visiting team when the Bulldogs got the ball in the Hornet territory early in the third period.

Coryell County voters will be most interested in the eight proposed constitutional amendments to be voted upon at the polls today in the 1934 General Election since Texas and Coryell have a much larger number of Democrats than any other party. The Democratic party has gained a powerful grip in the halls of Congress and the election today will determine whether or not this grip will be strengthened or not.

LIBERTY H-D CLUB ACHIEVEMENT

A well filled pantry was seen by those who attended the Liberty Home Demonstration Club Achievement, in the home of Mrs. L. C. Perryman, on Friday afternoon, October 27.

Besides the pantry, Mrs. Perryman has built a frame garden for winter use.

Other exhibits were "Teaching Children Independence," "The Ladder to Health," and "Underpinning House Pays Dividends". The exhibits were those shown at the Brazos Valley Fair, in Waco by Liberty, Union, and Goar Valley H-D Clubs.

Teach Children Independence with self-help clothing. Children's clothing should be made so they can learn to dress themselves by daily practice.

The Ladder to Health. For 365 days one needs 91 gals milk, 30 doz. eggs, 175 lbs. meat (and fat for cooking), 200 lbs. potatoes, 200 lbs. green or yellow vegetables, 200 lbs. other vegetables, 10 lbs citrus or tomatoes, 200 lbs. other fruit, 170 lbs. grain products, 20 lbs. butter, 70 lbs. sweets, 15 lbs. dried peas and beans.

Underpinning House Pays Dividends by reducing: summer heat, winter fuel bill, fire hazard, doctor bill, cyclone hazard. It increases attractiveness of home, value of property, amount of storage space for tools and vegetables, family health, pleasure and pride, home sanitation.

SOMETHING has happened to HOSIERY!

You'll welcome the news that our new Phoenix Hosiery is treated for wear. The silk itself is processed in a new amazing way (exclusive with Phoenix) that TOUGHENS every strand. You can feel that extra elasticity and smoother texture of the silk. Resistant to snags in a new way that saves on hosiery bills.

Come in for at least one pair of these new Phoenix Stockings, 2, 3 and 4 threadweights. Featuring new American Personality shades.

85c TO $1.35

A silk thread in ordinary hosiery looks like this under the microscope - shaggy, irregular, apt to snap under sudden strain, practically inviting snags.

Phoenix silk after the Double Vita-Bloom Process looks like this - smooth and pliable as a cable! Made to stretch, and give, to endow silk with a new fortitude for longer wear.

Methodist Primary Dept. Entertained Tuesday

Mrs. George Painter, superintendent of the Primary Department of the Methodist Sunday School, entertained Tuesday afternoon with a Hallowe'en party in compliment to members of the department. The class room was appropriately decorated for the occasion, and the children were dressed in Hallowe'en costumes.

Several games and contests were enjoyed, and at the conclusion, apples and suckers were given each little guest. Approximately 22 members were present.

Mrs. Painter was assisted by the teachers of the department.

Mrs. Tackett Honors Daughter and Son

Honoring her little daughter and son, Alice Ann and Tommy, Mrs. T. P. Tackett entertained with a Hallowe'en party Tuesday evening at her home on east Main street. The home was decorated with pumpkins, witches, and black cats.

Concluding a joyous evening, the hostess served cookies, punch, and candy.

Little friends who enjoyed the affair were: Belva Jean Patterson, Charles Dickie, Patsy Painter, Nancy Franks, John Powell, Carol Gene Hix, Madge Washburn, Helen Joyce Thomas, Joe Bryan Lay, Joe Buie Brown of Hamilton, Chester Wayne Burchett, Virginia Nell Dowty, Roger, Bob and Ann Miller, John Elmo Routh, Kent Biffle, Barrie and Sue Braden, Charmayne Bellamy, Ruth and Cynthia Secrest, Maggie Nixon, Tommie Ray Wallace, Sandra Flentge, Cynthia Sadler, Betty Ann Rush of Waco, Ann and Tommy Neubauer of Hillsboro, and the two honorees.

Kathryn Ward Entertains With Hallowe'en Party

Monday evening at 7 o'clock in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ward, on south 7th street, Miss Kathryn Ward entertained one of the younger high school sets with a party. Hallowe'enland, with all of its mystical symbols and brilliant hues, were in evidence.

Contests of different kinds and games of witchcraft were played.

The Old Witch had a prophecy for everyone.

Refreshments consisted of orange and black all-day suckers, popcorn balls, and soda pop.

Those sharing the courtesies were Misses Marjorie Hall, Betty Jo Stewart, Margaret Ritchie, Mable Marion Brown, Juanita Yates, Johnnie Bell Coskrey, Frances Reesing, Jennie Kathryn Spalding, Betty Jo Hudson, Ann Melbern, Margaret Zeigler, the hostess and Messrs. Jack Jackson, Oce Lovejoy, Charles Sydow, Carl Floyd, John Frank Byrom, Bert Floyd, Cecil McMullen, Jimmy McClellan, Bobby Ward, Norris Graves, and Billy Mac Ritchie.

Callers during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Merle Carroll and son, Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ward and son, Johnny, and Mrs. Jim McMullen of McGregor.

Mrs. Lowrey Entertains Wednesday Bridge Club

At her home on College street, Mrs. Elworth Lowrey entertained members and guests of the Wednesday Contract Club at 2:30 on the appointed afternoon this week. Bowls of various fall flowers were placed advantageously about the rooms.

Players included: Mesdames Jim J. Brown, E. W. Jones Jr., Dean Jones, Peyton Morgan, Doyle Morgan, Johnnie Washburn, Eddie Gunn of Fort Worth, Floyd Zeigler, Rosser Sanders, Billy Nesbitt, and Misses Grace Richards and Beverly Chamlee. High score prize was awarded Mrs. Gunn, and second high was won by Mrs. Doyle Morgan.

Concluding the courtesy, the hostess served a delectable salad course.

Hallowe'en Theatre Party Given By Miss Lovejoy

Miss Patsy Ruth Lovejoy's party of friends gathered at her home on College street Tuesday evening. As they arrived, some dressed in costumes and others with masks as disguises, hats were given each of them. Games of table tennis, fortune telling, tasks to do, and biting apples off strings were played.

Refreshments of gingerbread, nuts, and apple punch were served. As they left the house for the theatre, they were given scare crows of jelly beans, candy corn and shucks.

When they arrived at the Regal, where a Hallowe'en picture was showing, and where seats had been reserved for them, peanuts and popcorn were given to: Jane McCowan, Mildred Kirkpatrick, Helen Johnson, Maxine Lovejoy, Grace Wiegand, Betty Jane Jones, Vivian McKelvy, Suzanne Sadler, Billy Clay McClellan, James Reid Powell, Charles Francis Caruth, Tommy Thompson, Jimmy Dick Thomas, Kenneth Wallace, and Robert Earl Ashby.

Jack and Countice Jean Pruner Entertain

Jack and Countice Jean entertained spooks at their home on College street Tuesday evening. As the spooks arrived, they were taken through a dark tunnel in the basement and then registered spook names on the ghost book, with a pencil with no lead on a book with no paper; the book was in spider's web. The spooks were given caps and hats.

They roasted weiners and marshmallows on an open fire place. The house was darkened and the skeleton served them salted peanuts, gingerbread, apples, doughnuts, and fruit punch. The favors were lolly-pop scare crows.

Then out to the "spook show", "The Old Dark House", at the Regal Theatre, where seats had been reserved for them. As they filed in, peanuts and popcorn were given to the following: Moody Farquhar, Billy Potts, Beverly Ann Wood, Bill Ike Manning, Martha Clare Brown, Seaborn Ashby, Wanda Ruth Stevens, Sam Morgan, Patsy Walker, Paul J. Ashby, Hallie Jo Jackson, Harvy Jean Hamilton, Bobby Jean Hudson, Milroy Powell, Don Burdette, Janet Sadler, Robert Warren, Patty Ashby, Pauline Martin, Harold Ray Weaver, Bobby Ward, the host and hostess.

Miss Dorothy Ayres spent the week end in Waco as a guest of her aunt, Mrs. John Cimo. Mrs.

Cimo returned home with her and spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. George Flowers.

PRESBYTERIANS BEGIN CHURCH TRAINING SCHOOL SUNDAY

A week's "Church Training School" begins Sunday in the First Presbyterian Church, Gatesville. Classes in Bible, missions, teaching methods, and church organization will be offered and the public, as well as the members, is cordially invited.
Assisting Rev. Ed. Bayless, pastor, in the teaching and the running of the school will be Miss Nell Block, Director of Religious Education in Central Texas Presbytery. Miss Block is well known in Coryell county, having taken active part in the Co-operative Leadership Training School in Gatesville last year; the Vacation Bible School in Turnersville last summer; and a training class at Prairie View, about a year ago.
Classes in the school meet for fifty minutes a night for six nites. There will be two classes available for each person in the school, in addition to the afternoon class in missions.
The missions class will meet each day after school, for children. Miss Block will teach and the class will be open to teachers and leaders as a training experience.
The Bible class to be taught by Mr. Bayless is a rapid survey of the New Testament. A class in Bible, offering stories, drill and memory work, will be given simultaneously for the children and taught by Miss Block.
The second hour offers a training course for officers and teachers of the Sunday School and a study of "the program of the church" for all who are not workers in the Sunday School or who may prefer this study to the training unit in teaching.

The Sunday School course, taught by Miss Block, will be one of general nature, using as a text a book entitled "How to Improve Our Sunday School."
The other course will be largely an informative course on the workings of the church, its organization, ways of carrying on work, etc.
There will be a fifteen minute interval between classes. This time will be given, at least part of the time, to presenting of model worship services such as may be used in Sunday School.
First class starts promptly at five o'clock Sunday, and the second class will close at 6:55. During the week, hours will be: Missions class, Monday thru Friday, 4:00 to 5:00. First class period, 7:00 to 7:50. Directed interval, 7:50 to 8:05. Second class period, 8:05 to 8:55.
While the school is making a special effort to reach everyone connected with the church, either as members of the church or of the Sunday School, it is open to everyone; and cordial invitations are extended to friends of other denominations to be present.

Misses Durham and Franks Co-Hostesses To Club

Five tables, each centered with lighted Jack-O-Lanterns and laid with Hallowe'en covers, were arranged in the Edgar Franks home on College Street Monday evening when Misses Leah Dale Franks and Ernestine Durham were co-hostesses to members and additional guests of the Ace High Bridge Club.

Misses Aurora Yongue, Sidney Gibson, and Maude Alyce Painter were recipients of the high, second high, and consolation prize awards, respectively. Other players included: Christine Moran, Linnie Fore, Minnie Lou Witt, Dorothy Culberson, Doris McGilvray, Valerie Tucker, Louise Hall, Bess Holmes, Wilhelmina Cayce, Lois Grantham, Thelma McGilvray, Mamie Sue Halbrook, Neva Parsons, and Mesdames E. W. Jones Jr., Elworth Lowrey, Ward McDowell, and George Painter.

An appetizing refreshment plate consisting of marshmallow pudding, chocolate cake, and olives was passed at the conclusion of the games.

Teinert-Taliaferro Nuptials Performed at Copperas Cove

The marriage of Miss Wanda Teinert and Warren Taliaferro took place Sunday afternoon October 22, at the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Copperas Cove. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Teinert of Copperas Cove, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Boon Taliaferro of Lampasas. The Rev. L. J. Werner performed the ceremony.

A. E. Koepsell played the wedding music and also accompanied Mrs. A. E. Koepsell, Misses Loreth and Norman Mickan, who sang preceding the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, made on princess lines. Her veil fell from a halo of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli.

Miss Clara Teinert of Houston, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mesdames Carl Herzog of Copperas Cove and Arthur Domasusk of Port Arthur, also sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore National blue and Burgandy satin gowns, respectively, fashioned with puffed sleeves and bustle back circular skirts. The maid of honor carried roses, and the bridesmaids carried yellow gladioli.

The bridegroom's attendants were Jimmie Magee and G. W. Asher, both of Lampasas.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Approximately 150 guests attended.

Hallowe'en Party Given By Charles Edgar Walker.

Charles Edgar Walker entertained a group of his little friends with a Hallowe'en party Tuesday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pleas Walker, on N. 10th street.

First in the evening's entertainment was a hay ride, after which the group returned to the home, where several games were played. Margaret Ann Jones won the prizes in the contests.

The Hallowe'en motif was featured in the decorations throughout the home, and was also carried out in the refreshments, which consisted of sandwiches, punch, and cake. Favors were horns and balloons.

Guests included the following: Patsy Ruth Schaub, Margaret Ann Jones, Neta Jean Rogers, Rae Juan Lee, Dorothy Ayres, Frankie Lou Chambers, Gene and Judy Gentry, Charles Thomas McGregor, Bruce Baize, Freddie Prewitt, Jimmie Shepherd, Joe Daniels, Maurice Ashby, and the host.

Tackett Home Scene Of Club Meeting

Members and additional guests of the Wednesday Bridge Club were entertained on the appointed afternoon by Mrs. T. P. Tackett at her home on east Main street. Lovely roses adorned the reception suite throughout.

A series of bridge games terminated with Mrs. Harry Flentge holding high score and Mrs. John Neubauer second high. After the presentation of the prizes, the hostess passed a delicious refreshment plate, which consisted of sandwiches, olives, cake, and coffee.

The guest personnel included: Mesdames E. C. Lay, C. B. Braden, Lee Secrest, Howard Franks, J. W. Laird, J. C. Porter, Paul Hardy, Ray Ealy, Chess Sadler, J. D. Brown Jr., B. K. Cooper, Harry Flentge, B. B. Garrett, Robert Scott, Frances Caruth, D. D. McCoy, Emmett Stewart, Tom Mears, George Painter, Hugh Saunders, Stewart Williams, Rufe Brown, John Neubauer of Hillsboro, and R. L. Rush of Waco.

There's plenty of room in the Army, and, as they say in the Army, "They'll be hunting the flag pole when the first cold weather hits."

Anyway, regardless of what they say, the army is looking for young men wanting to learn radio, telegraph and telephone trades—400 are wanted. They will be sent to schools for nine months.

Also, they're looking for "pill rollers", that is the Medical Corps and in the Dental and Veterinary Services. Too, they're looking for X-ray prospects. They'll go to school too.

NECROLOGY

Funeral services for Mrs. J. A. Lamb, 76, who died Monday, October 23, at her home in Copperas Cove, were held at the Copperas Cove Baptist Church the following Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Rev. Hinson officiating.

Surviving are three children Mrs. Sam Hinson of Killeen, A. Lamb of Temple, and Julius Lamb of Copperas Cove; three grandchildren, Decile, Wyemon and Erleen Lamb of Temple; and one brother, Dan Griffin of Wichita Falls, Texas.

Funeral services for Mrs. Minna Leonhard, 66, who died Friday, October 20, at Copperas Cove, Texas, were held at the Methodist Episcopal Church Saturday afternoon, October 21, at 3 o'clock with the Rev. Schmidt conducting. Interment was in the Copperas Cove cemetery.

She was born in Wanzleben, Germany and at the age of 20 was attracted by the opportunities of the new world, and she left the land of her birth and came to Texas. She had been an invalid since May 27, 1937.

She leaves to mourn her passing two sisters, Mrs. Fritz Reinhardt of Valley Mills, Mrs. Marie Schnak of Navasota; one brother, Gustav Wolt, who still resides in Germany; one son, Hans J. Leonhard; four daughters, Miss Louis Leonhard, Mrs. Chas. Fishgrabe, Mrs. Willie Groth, and Miss Selma Leonhard; nine grandchildren; and a host of friends.

PERRY BOYER HELD THURSDAY

Funeral services for Perry Franklin Boyer, who died at 5 p. m. Wednesday at his home in Waco after an extended illness, were held at 3 p. m. Thursday at Clark's drawing room in Waco, the Rev. A. N. Porter conducting.

Surviving are his widow; two sons, Joe C. Boyer of Waco and Francis Boyer of Austin; one brother, J. S. Boyer of Gatesville; one sister, Mrs. E. A. Davidson of Mound; and two grandchildren.

DR. A. G. BARSH MOVES FROM MINERAL WELLS TO STEPHENVILLE

Dr. A. G. Barsh, formerly of Mineral Wells, has moved to Stephenville to become associated with the Stephenville Hospital, operated by the two Dr. Terrells of that city.

Dr. Barsh stated that his desire to specialize, rather than do a general work, prompted his decision and the fact that the Terrells there are well known and that his addition to the group will make the group more complete from a specializing standpoint.

He opened his office in Mineral Wells on August 7, this year, going there direct from the Panama Canal Zone. He is, however, a native of Texas, his people living at Gatesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Britain have lived almost all of their lives in Coryell County, except a few years they lived in Jones County. All these years Mr. Britain has been engaged in stock farming. Although he is almost 73 years of age, he still has his stock and carries on his work.

They had a very enjoyable day Sunday, having all their children, grandchildren, and Mrs. Britain's mother, Mrs. M. U. Candle, with them on that day. More than 200 guests called during the afternoon and evening.

Centering the table were large gold chrysanthemums, and at one end was the huge wedding cake, and at the opposite end was the silver service. At either end gold tapers burned in crystal candelabra. Large bouquets of flowers, many of which were sent by friends, decorated the home throughout.

A large table in the center of the living room was loaded with many lovely gifts. Mrs. Willis Naler accompanied Mrs. B. J. Allen and Mrs. Edwin Rueter, who sang "When You and I Were Young Maggie" and "Silver Threads Among the Gold". Patty Lynn and Jane Britain played piano selections, and Jack Britain Jr. played a cornet solo. A. E. Scott, a son-in-law for 28 years, told in a short story of the life of Mr. and Mrs. Britain.

Out-of-town guests included: Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Barnett and daughters, Jo Jerreine and Jani Dell, Marlin; Gene Barnett, Galveston; Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Allen, Sara Jane and Howel Allen, McGregor; Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Herring, Bodcaw, Arkansas; Mrs. Tom Place, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. "SOULS AT SEA"

Paramount's Dramatic Thunderbolt of the Sea tragedy on the "William Brown" with GARY COOPER, GEORGE RAFT, FRANCES DEE and OLYMPE BRADNA directed by Henry Hathaway.

Wilcoxon is nervously pacing the floor of his cabin. Frances enters, she refuses to have her brother make this sacrifice for her. Wilcoxon tells her he is doing what he thinks is best and asks her to go home. Frances refuses and claims she is going to America with him. It is her life and she has a right to lead it as she wishes.

In the first-class companionway a steward is leading Gary Cooper to his cabin. The steward laughs as he opens Cooper's door and reveals George Raft. Raft boarded the boat earlier and saw Olympe Bradna with whom he fell in love on sight. As Cooper enters, Raft tells him all about her.

The William Brown sails with a motley human cargo. Cooper at once institutes courtship of Frances Dee while Raft is courting Olympe Bradna. Cooper meets Frances at the rail and prevents her from getting sick by pressing a small silver case to her mouth and nostrils. Just then Wilcoxon enters and it appears as though Cooper is trying to throttle his sister.

Cooper looks at Wilcoxon. It is evident that he is now fully aware of the serious problem that confronts him. Here is the girl he loves and there stands the man he is after—her brother. Later, for the sake of the girl he loves, Cooper warns Wilcoxon to get out of the slave business. Can Cooper keep Frances' love if he arrests her brother?

Read the final installment of "Souls At Sea" tomorrow.

A BASIS FOR PEACE

As reported by International News Service this week, movements are under way in London, Paris and Rome to restore the Hohenzollerns and the Hapsburgs to the throne of Germany and Austria once the allied war aim of destroying Hitlerism is achieved.

Prince Otto, pretender to the old Auto-Hungarian throne, has placed in the hands of the British Government and of Vatican officials a plan for an enlarged Austria which would include the Catholic sections of Germany proper, including Bavaria, and for economic and political collaboration among the states of the South-eastern Europe, we learn.

Those reports dovetail with unofficial but authoritative expressions of opinion from London and Paris relative to the basic war objectives of the allied powers.

Germany is not to be destroyed once the allies have crushed the Nazi war machine, according to present plans. Conversely, Germany is to share in the establishment of a collective peace which will recognize the right of the German state to exist on a free and equal basis with the other states of Europe, sharing the raw materials of the world, trading on a basis of equality, working with Britain, France and the smaller states of Europe in a united and peaceful effort toward general moral, spiritual, economic and political rehabilitation.

Prime Minister Chamberlain has publicly stated as one of the fundamental war aims of the allies the re-creation of the Czech and Polish states, but he has refrained from mentioning Austria.

There can be little doubt, however, that the Austrians—intensely patriotic, different in temperament though not in blood and language from the Germans, proud of their centuries-old history and tradition under the Hapsburg ruling house—would choose independence under a Hapsburg emperor to a continuation under German rule, even should the Hohenzollerns be returned to power in Berlin.

One of the significant aspects of the International News Service reports was the mention of Rome as one of the cities where the restoration movement was underway. Premier Mussolini, the news agency reported, favors the creation of an enlarged Austrian state should Hitler be defeated. Even mention of the possibility of the downfall of Hitler in Rome is surprising.

But Mussolini is doubtless wholly or partly reflecting the attitude of the Vatican, which looked with bitter misgivings upon "Anschluss" and the substitution of neoagan Nazism for Catholic spiritual domination.

The Vatican can be expected to exert all the pressure and influence at its command to support Prince Otto and his pretensions, both during the course of the war and in any peace negotiations wherein the boundaries of Europe would be altered.

Nor can it be assumed that Mussolini would look with disfavor up on the re-establishment on his northern frontier of a strong Catholic state friendly to Italy.

Mussolini, it will be recalled, threatened war with Hitler in 1934 at the time of the abortive Nazi "putsch" in Vienna which resulted in the shameless and cowardly assassination of Premier Engelbert Doolfuss by Nazi troopers. Later, Mussolini joined hands with Hitler in an alliance and made no protest when Germans goose-stepped into Vienna in March, 1938.

Possibility of reconstructing Austria as a monarchy and supplanting Hitlerism with the Hohenzollerns in Germany seems to this column to be the only settlement of an equitable nature and with any promise of permanence which can be effected at the termination of the war, assuming that the allies will emerge as victors.

Germany and Austria both tried republican governments after the fall of the old imperial regimes. Republicans failed to solve the post-war economic, social and political problems of the two decimated states. It is not likely, therefore, that these peoples will turn again to republicanism for a solution of their problems.

On the other hand, the re-establishment of the two monarchies would provide a basis for national unity, a focal point of allegiance for the Germans and Austrians.

The spirit of monarchism has never perished from the hearts of many Germans and Austrians, Republicanism failed to stamp out the memory of Hohenzollern and of Hapsburg; Hitlerism, with all its purges and suppressions and censorship, has failed to destroy devotion to the monarchistic cause.

In the reorientation of Europe which must follow the cessation of hostilities, Hohenzollern and Hapsburg can perform valuable services for Western civilization. For Hitlerism has opened Europe to the rapacious Communism of Asia, for in no sense can Russia be classified either as European or as an integral part of Western civilization. Russia—in its peoples, its leaders, its outlook, its mentality,

THIS IS THE HEART OF THE I. E. S. LAMP

The white glass diffusing bowl in every I. E. S. lamp conceals the bulb, sifts out harmful glare and provides a flood of soft, evenly-distributed light. Result: true eye comfort.

I. E. S. Better Sight Lamps provide an abundance of soft, pleasing light that acts as a balm to tired eyes. Glare is eliminated by a white glass diffusing bowl which provides both downward and upward light. The downward light is intensified and spread in a broad circle by a wide shade with a specially-treated lining. The upward light goes to the ceiling and is reflected throughout the room, dispelling harsh shadows. Only I. E. S. Lamps carry the I. E. its ideology, its culture—is Asiatic. Opening of the hitherto closed boundaries of Western Europe to Russian Communism constitutes a greater danger to the institutions of the West than the war itself. Europe endured one war and maintained intact its basic concepts of life and its fundamental institutions even after the advent of Hitlerism.

ant of the dangers of Naziism, recognized the far greater danger of Communism and for this reason sought to reach terms with Hitler. Now Germany, at least temporarily, has been removed as a bulwark against the infiltration of Communistic doctrines in Europe.

The Hohenzollerns can again bring Germany within the orbit of Western civilization; can re-establish communication between the German people and the rest of the world, which Hitler destroyed of German strength and ingenuity behind the effort for European reconstruction.

In the new order which is to be established, the old fears of Hohenzollern and Hapsburg territorial ambitions can have no basis.

Armies will be limited to police forces necessary only for the maintenance of internal order. The stress for external expansion will be allayed by cooperative effort in the fields of trade by the states of Europe.

The new Austria will be an integral part of a new Danubian federation voluntarily maintained for the furtherance of trade and for general economic collaboration.

Germany will be allied economically with both the economic confederation of states in South-eastern Europe and with the French and British empires in the new economic order which will be set up.

These are not the idle ruminations of an idealist but concrete plans which are currently accepted in responsible quarters as the basis for the establishment of lasting peace among the war-weary and disillusioned peoples of Europe.

This column accepts these plans as the best which have been propounded, as entirely feasible, workable and just.

I have just come from the Senate. It seems probable that within a few hours the Senate will finally pass the neutrality bill which they have been discussing so long. While the Senate debates have continued for approximately five weeks, and while it is doubtful whether the entire debate has changed the opinions of a half a dozen Senators, this extended discussion has, I hope, served a very useful purpose. It has given the people of the entire country an opportunity to understand our nation's foreign policy much better than would have been possible without the debate, and I think that that is essential if democracy is to succeed. I know that we have been able to see a distinct change in the character of mail that we have been receiving in regard to this legislation. A month or six weeks ago we were receiving dozens of letters and petitions, that showed that they were written by, or at least instigated by, someone other than the person who signed. Most of these communications simply stated conclusions without giving any reasons. Now most of the letters we receive give us some reason for the statements made by the writer. Not only are well reasoned letters much more effective, but they show that the American people are getting over the hysteria that seized them when war was first declared in Europe, and are again thinking for themselves. I am glad to see this change, and I believe that the thorough debate which the measure has received has done a great deal to bring it about.

When the bill reaches the House it seems probable that it will be sent to a conference committee, but if it is it will surely be brought back in a short time for very limited debate. There is no occasion for long debate in the House as the entire matter was thoroughly debated there last Summer. We may, therefore, finally pass the bill before the end of next week.—I say "pass" because it seems quite likely here that while the vote will be relatively close that the measure will get a majority in the House. This is not supposed to be a party measure, and surely it should not be. There will be a substantial number of Democrats who will vote against the bill, although I am sure a large majority of the Democrats will support it. On the other hand, I doubt if more than a dozen Republican members vote for the bill. I think that this is very fortunate. While I can understand that many good people sincerely oppose this measure, and I respect them in their opposition, I can not but feel that the peace of our country is too precious for any Member of Congress to vote on this bill as a party measure no matter to which party he belongs.

I am going to suggest that those of our friends who have been waiting until we get home to discuss matters of business probably would do well to write us here in Washington without further delay. It is evident that at best it will be the middle of November before we can get home. Then of course, to come back to the January session we have to get everything off before Christmas. It takes a full week or ten days to set up an office, and about the same time to close it up, so if I tried to bring all of our files and records home I would probably find that we could not use them more than a week or so, and during that very time I am sure I will be called upon to visit different parts of the district. Nor do we know that we will be able to leave here at the time mentioned. We are coming home just as soon as we can leave Washington, but it may be that the session will last until Christmas. It therefore seems to me that it would be advisable for all of those who have matters to take up with the Congressman or his office to write us here in Washington at once so we can attempt to handle your problems with all of the files and records before us. It is very probable that time will not permit us to open the Waco office in the short interval between sessions. I would rather talk with you, and I had planned to visit in different points in the district for this very purpose. However, we were forced to leave for Washington to attend this Special Session on the very first day that we had set aside for this purpose. When you write us it will help us to help you if you will give us all the details of the matter about which you write. And Please be sure to sign your name and put your address on the letter, not simply a return on the envelope. These seem simple things, but it is surprising how many people forget to sign their names. Many others don't give their address. I realize that you simply forget to do these things, but I don't want you to say that I didn't reply to your letter, and you don't want me to be unable to do so, yet I can't reply unless you give your name and address.

It has been quite beautiful here this Fall, but we all hope we can be back in Texas with our friends before long.

MAPLE CLUB NEWS

On Thursday, October 26, the Club met with Mrs. Gilbert Colvin as hostess. One quilt was almost finished and some embroidering done on tea towels. We had Mrs. Sanaford Graham and two daughters of Houston, Mrs. Bert Holt and Mrs. Conrad Powell as visitors. Mrs. W. T. Walker became a new member.

Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were passed to the following members: Mesdames W. W. Carroll, J. L. Brookshire, Sam Shults, R. T. Brookshire, Finnis Carroll, D. J. McBride, R. M. Phillips, and Misses Janie and Marie Brookshire and the visitors.

Our next meeting is with Mrs. R. T. Brookshire on November 9.
