Bring Your Cream, Butter In To Sell Often

Action being taken now by the United States Government in the enforcement of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act is far reaching in effect. The activity will be keenly felt by Texas farmers, dairymen and manufacturers of dairy products who have not taken steps to correct sanitary conditions which might bring their products under the ban of the law.

The act is intended as a safeguard against adulterated food products. Under its provisions unfit milk and cream going into the manufacture of dairy products falls under the class of adulteration. Enforcement activities at this time, insofar as the dairy industry is concerned, are centered on butter made from old, mouldy, rancid or unclean cream. Under the law, butter made from such cream is subject to seizure and the manufacturer liable to a thousand dollar fine or one year in jail with stiffer penalties for those convicted after a prior offense. Federal inspectors have the right to enter and inspect any place where milk or cream is produced, received, held for shipment or manufactured.

Among remedial measures suggested are:

1. Get cream delivered from farm to plant at least twice a week or before it is four days old.
2. Cool cream to at least seventy degrees or lower.
3. Insist upon sanitation on the farm, in the plant and at the cream station.

Dan Weatherby was a guest in the R. D. Foster home over the week end, and Mrs. Weatherby and small son returned home to Corsicana with him.

It's Now 3,688 Checks, or a Sum of $113,021.52

Farmers' cotton parity checks to come, as we believe Mr. Roach of the AAA office total 3,688 checks with a total of $113,021.52.

These are the 4940 Cotton Parity Checks and, there are still more to come, as we believe Mr. Roach said there'd be some $250,000.00 when the last check had been received.

Cotton Report Is Still "Down" From Last Year

Census report by V. R. (Happy) Lee, Special Agent for the Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, in his cotton ginning report shows that 3,083 bales of cotton were ginned in Coryell county from the crop of 1940 prior to September 16, as compared with 9,594 bales for the crop of 1939.

Too, in this connection, an item in The Dallas Morning News reads as following with this heading "Cotton Income in Ellis Hits All-Time Low". "Losses from 1938-39 Due to Depression, Government Program". The story.

"Italy, Texas (Sept. 29)—Depression and federal acreage curtailment program combined to sink cotton income to an all-time low during the past decade of 1928-38 in Ellis county, always one of the top producing counties in Texas since cotton became the state's big money crop.

R. E. Sparkman, pioneer of the Blackland who collects cotton statistics, Sunday released the figures.

Mr. Sparkman continues, "The last decade, which includes the period of government programs, saw cotton income fall more than $1,000,000 from the first decade, 1899-1909. Incidentally, this loss is greater than all the government benefit payments made by the AAA in this county for all purposes, including funds for killing cattle, hogs not raised and other subsidies.

CORRECTION

In the advertisement for Alvis-Garner Co., in Friday's issue in the coupon, we made an error.

Here's the way it should have read, with the mistakes in quotes: This is to guarantee to the below named purchaser that in the event he is conscripted into the armed service prior to January 1, 1941 this certificate upon presentation, entitles him to return any and all purchases of suits and top coats made from us on this date for full refund, regardless of the "wear", provided such claim is made prior to Jan. 1, "1941".

The two quoted words were "year" and "1940". This, will, we believe straighten things out.

Big Business In Sheriff's Dept., This Week End

Sheriff J. H. Brown, and Deputy Ted Liljedahl have had a busy day, this past week end.

Friday, Sheriff Brown went to Coleman and picked up one C. B. Williams, alleged carnival man, on a charge of passing a hot check here, and he is in jail.

Saturday night he made a sashay out Ireland way and picked up 2 slot machines, and 4 cases of beer, and, one un-named man, who is a resident of the city now. The beer had just arrived.

Sunday night, Sheriff Brown, Ted, Frank, Pleas and two Highway Patrolmen stopped some 30 or 40 local motorists and warned them about lights, licenses, brakes etc., etc., and "popped it to" one youngster who didn't have his licenses, according to Sheriff Brown. This for the most part, was "warning night" and, it is reported, the next one won't be. We looked at our lights, and think it'd be a good idea for everyone.

Another item. Three ex-state boys who paid a visit here last week, entered three houses, Oliver Necessary's, Esteen Black's and another Black home, taking, it is said, a .22 shot gun, suit of clothes, and a radio. They were followed thru Pearl and Evant before the "trail" was lost as they headed south to Lampasas.

The yhad visited old chums in the "State" and told someone in jail, they'd be back Tuesday. Sheriff Brown has an idea now, they won't.

"Presidential Poll" Gave Wilkie First Vote: FDR More

Surprise! Wendell L. Wilkie, Republican candidate for President received the first, in fact, the first two votes in the Coryell County News Presidential Poll which only started last Friday morning.

Altho, so far (and it's not over) the voting was light. The totals are:

Roosevelt	8
Wilkie	6

The "poll box" will be there, and in this poll, you don't sign anything, and we don't want to know how you vote—just want you to vote. If you don't have a coupon when you pass the box, come in, and we'll give you a scrap of paper, and you can vote. The coupon in the paper is just to create interest, which, evidently, needs creating.

Come, on, VOTE!

Interested in Draft? We've Got The New Regulations

Monday, we received two pamphlets from Congressman W. R. Poage, outlining the Organization and Administration of the Selective Service Regulations, and Selective Service Regulations, Volume Two, Registration.

So far, we've not had time to look them over, but if you are sufficiently interested, they'll be at your disposal at the News office.

You've read more or less authoritative reports or heard them over the radio, but these two pamphlets are "the McCoy", since they were printed at the U. S. Government Printing Office.

Henry and Tally Yongue of Brownwood were visitors in Gatesville, Sunday.

Billy Weatherby of Austin and Mrs. Bryan Weatherby of Amarillo were visitors in this city Sunday.

IT'S NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK WITH THE NEWS, AND ALL PAPERS IN NATION

"OPEN HOUSE" AT NEWS OFFICE, AND YOU'RE INVITED

Thruout the United States, the period October 2 to 8 inclusive, will be celebrated as National Newspaper Week.

The News, too, is celebrating this event, and Wednesday we'll start having "open house", which means, "come to see us". We'll be glad to show you one of the best shops (we are told) between Waco and Brownwood. Anyhow, you can see what makes the wheels go around.

In our window, is a few of the thousands of newspapers thruout the United States—these we've picked up here and there.

One day after the closing of National Newspaper Week, the News will be host to our Community

Correspondents throughout the county and neighboring neighborhoods nearby. These important parts of the News will be "on the house" and will be taken to a movie and will have dinner at a local cafe.

Community Correspondents are the ones who are held responsible for "getting your name in the paper" and reporting events of interest in every community in the county. They do all this work cheerfully, and in most instances, impartially and thoroly.

To everyone else, big, little, old or young, you're cordially invited to "look the joint over" or just pay us a social call, whatever you'd like to entitle it.

Let us see YOU during National Newspaper Week! Or, anyother time!

GATESVILLE ON LIST TO GET $206,616 AIR PORT IF BILL PASSES SENATE

An INS story in Sunday's Fort Worth Star-Telegram places Gatesville on the list to receive $206,616 for an air port to be constructed here, if a civil airport construction program for Texas, totaling $38,461,873 is approved by the Senate of provisions of a House deficiency appropriation bill.

The program for the entire country totals $500,000,000 (millions)

The House, in the deficiency deficiency measure, allowed $30,000,000 cash and $50,000,000 construction authority to start the program.

Texas projects recommended by the Civil Aeronautics Board as necessary in the defense program included about 300 places in Texas.

"Goodbye, Rats" City Says: Campaign To Begin Today

Beginning today, the city will begin a campaign to exterminate rats.

With this campaign, will be a representative of the U. S. Fish and Wild Life Service, S. A. Armstrong, who will be in charge of the work. He, it is said, is a great rat catcher, and is well trained along this line, devoting his full time to the making of a detailed survey, preparing baits and supervising the poisoning.

It is said, there'll be no expense to the business men, and the only they they will be requested to do is to clean their premises and dispose of all garbage.

The city, it is said, will get movie trailers and show cards which will assist in publicizing the campaign.

Rats carry typhus and Gatesville has, in the past few months several cases of typhus, and the disease is more prevalent in this section in recent years, than ever before.

Typhus fever is an importation from tropical climates and is usually found in and around ports where ships from these countries tie up.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hinson and daughter, Sarah, of Fort Worth visited friends and relatives in this city during the week end. Mrs. Hinson remained for a longer visit.

Mrs. C. S. Tucker visited Mrs. Cecil Graham at Oglesby Sunday.

Will Rogers' Humorous Story

By WILL ROGERS

THE SCHOOLS are certainly teaching the kids a lot about brushing their teeth. Sometimes I think the little tykes don't spend so much time on two plus two as they used to, but they sure learn about toothbrushes and exercises and spinach. I don't know whether the kids actually use any of the tooth-brushes or exercises on spinach, but they learn all about them anyhow.

There was a teacher in a country school in Arkansas that was awful hot on the next to godliness idea, she was always preaching to the youngsters about tooth-brushes. One time she was telling the kids that she was afraid some of them didn't carry out her teachings when they got home, and little Lottie Blossom pipes up and says:

"Well, we do at our house, anyhow. Why, when you first told us about tooth-brushes, my Pa went to town and bought one, and you bet he makes us all use it every day, too! Pa's awful strict that-away!"

1941 AUTOMOBILES ON DISPLAY AT DEALERS

In selecting your car this year, consider all the new automobiles being shown in Gatesville before making your choice. Each dealer will be glad to show you the new features and advantages of his automobiles.

On display at the Manning Motor Company is the new FORD. 1941 brings a new and larger Ford with a new and larger body—a new Ford so beautifully finished and appointed, you'd naturally take it for a high priced car. The handsome new two-spoke wheel gives a clear view of all instruments, and the Super DeLuxe types have a handy new horn ring. There is a large curved one-piece rear window, and a new expanse of windshield gives you extra vision top, bottom and sides. The extra large luggage compartment is lined, lighted, and has a floor mat. These cars come in DeLuxe and Super DeLuxe. Manning Motor also handles the MERCURY.

Some of the many features of the new STUDEBAKERS, which are sold by A. H. (Red) McCoy, are: they are longer, lower, wider, and roomier. The torpedo-shaped tail lamps blend into rear deck and light up trunk interior at night; the doors shake tight instead of loose in the Studebaker Champion because of the unique rotary door latches that are standard equipment on all models. You don't have to slam doors to shut them securely. You can quickly clear the car of smoke and stale air by partly opening the non-draft vanes of the front door. Stretching clear across the car under the broad rear deck is a built in gavel deflector. You open the doors of these singularly beautiful new DeLuxe-tone models on the most attractive interiors—rich broadcloths in contrasting blue and grey, brown and beige, soft green and dark green blend harmoniously with five different two-ton exteriors!

Individuality in the new CHEVROLETS is the concealed entrance steps, totally shielded from snow and ice by the flared bottom edges of the doors and add safety and convenience to the owner. These are now on display at Powell Chevrolet Company. Double interlocking hood catches, with a handy lock release knob under the dash, and a safety catch at the front, which are on all models insure that the hood cannot be opened accidentally or by unauthorized persons. An added convenience in the Special De Luxe is an electric light, with automatic switch, to illuminate the interior of the compartment in the instrument panel. These 1941 models offer you thrilling new bigness, longer wheelbase, dashing new "Aristo-Style" design, longer, larger, wider Fisher bodies, de luxe Knee Action on all models, Chevrolet's original and exclusive vacuum-power gearshift, Safe-T-Special hydraulic brakes, crystal-clear Hi-Test safety plate glass, plus many more outstanding features.

The PLYMOUTH, being shown at the Shepherd Motor Company, gives you brilliant new styling exquisite new luxury of roominess, rich upholstery, smart appointments and the Luxury Ride. It gives you astonishing new ease of handling, a new sense of mastery, and you'll thrill to the new High Torque engine performance. In size and style, performance and safety, long life, economy and luxury, this car is a leader. Running boards are optional. When omitted, a stainless steel moulding is used with a protective rubber pad to guard against chipping by flying stones. All Plymouths have two tail lights. License light and stopping light are combined so when brakes are applied an extra red light flashes a clear warning to following motorists. The Special DeLuxe fashion-tone interior, a miracle in color, fabric and appointment, commands admiration. And here is a car that's easy to park. You'll discover new pleasure in putting this car in its place, as well as through its paces. Also in this car you'll find a new conception of comfort in the big seat cushions which come clear to the floor—room to stretch out and to ride in enjoyable comfort.

Designed, developed and introduced by OLDSMOBILE, sold by E. W. Jones & Son, is the Hydra-Matic drive with no clutch and no shift. To start your car you use to take 15 steps in doing so, but now twelve irritating in-between steps have been eliminated and now you have only three, start the engine, select your direction and step on the gas. As a result, you can drive farther and with less effort—end up the day refreshed and relaxed instead of being worn and tired. And your driving is better, because you can concentrate your energy on the essential requirements of driving. This new drive is optional on all Oldsmobile models. With it, performance is stepped up to glorious new highs, no chance to stall the engine, no jerking or bucking in starting, you can slow down to a crawl on hills, you can creep along in traffic without any shifting to do, and you cruise smoothly and quietly without annoying vibration. Oldsmobile is styled to lead and built to last.

WAR COVERAGE HIGH

The price paid by the American press for war coverage is enormous—and growing. The United Press has levied a 12½c per cent assessment on its clients, stating that more than $125,000 above normal has been spent since August. International News Service has imposed a 15 per cent levy, its war costs being $10,000 a week above normal.

Cable costs from Europe have risen as much as 300 per cent, and picture coverage expenses are stated to be up by 500 per cent. Most pictures from Great Britain cost $60, including transmission; from Berlin an average cost is $100 a picture.—New York Press.

INVENTED BY PRINTER

The standard keyboard used on all typewriters was invented by Christopher Latham Sholes, a Wisconsin printer, who in 1868 patented the first successful typewriter. It was about the size of a sewing machine, had lettered keys in four rows with letters engraved on the ends of steel bars, and had an inked ribbon. The bars were pivoted around a circle so each would strike a common central point and, at the same time, moving roller to next letter.—The Inland Printer.

THE GENTLER SEX?

Further proof that women are gaining a strong grasp on man's estate is contained in a recent report of a Hollywood casting office that a third of every prize fight arena near the film city is filled with feminine fans.

Alert to obtain authentic mobs for such pictures as "Golden Gloves," the new Paramount picture coming to the Palace Theatre on Thursday and Friday, Joe Egli, casting director, took a census of Hollywood arenas and discovered that approximately 33 out of every 100 boxing enthusiasts wear skirts, and he doesn't mean kilts.

This fact was brought to the attention of Edward Dmytryk, director of "Golden Gloves" in which Richard Denning and Jean Cagney are co-starred. He demanded that Egli give reasons for hiring 400 men and 200 women to work in scenes of what has always been a man's world.

P. S. He got it.
P. P. S. "No wonder I've got

THE COUNTRY WEEKLY

Editor A. S. Morris in a recent issue of his newspaper, the Littleton Courier under a heading, "It Puts on No Airs" says: "The country weekly is the most popular week-end visitor of the rural community, welcomed 52 times a year. In some families it has been a fixture for generations. The above two sentences open a chapter dealing with the country weekly and publicity in a book by Raymond C. Mayer, 'How to Do Publicity'. 'It is in most instances a tried and true friend,' Mr. Mayer goes on, 'arriving some time on Thursday or Friday. It puts on no airs, is as comfortable as an old shoe, talks the language of the people it visits, knows them well and understandingly, tells its news of the neighborhood simply and quickly in a spirit of good will, does not overstay its welcome and drops out of sight until another week rolls around. The country weekly has been for generations and still remains the sensitive news center of towns, villages and the widespread countryside. It is woven out of the fabric of the lives of the people who read it. It maintains close association and intimate contact with them. No other vehicle for carrying information is more personal in its relationship with its readers".

SCOTT'S FUNERAL HOME

August 7, 1940

Scott Funeral Home
Gatesville, Texas
Att: Mr. Morton Scott
Dear Mr. Scott:

As you are organizing your own burial association, we are withdrawing from Gatesville, and Gatesville territory.

We would suggest that you write all of the members of the Greater Texas Burial Association in your territory in your own association, as they will prefer to do business with you as a local undertaker and burial association.

We also wish to state that any policies which might remain in force with the Greater Texas Burial Association will be serviced by us as contract called for if you desire; the premiums on such policies to be mailed direct to our office in Waco or, if you desire to send them in for us, we will be glad to have it handled this way.

Wishing you and yours every success, we are,
Yours very truly,
GREATER TEXAS BURIAL ASS'N.
W. W. FALL, Sec'y-Treas.

The Above Letter is Self Explanatory.

We feel like a majority of Gatesville and Coryell County people who desired to carry a policy in a burial association would prefer to join one operated in their county, consequently, we have organized the MORTON SCOTT BURIAL ASSOCIATION.

We shall be glad to have those who are in the Greater Texas Burial Association to transfer to our association.

We have been writing these policies for only two and one-half months and have a membership now of 1200 or more and it is steadily growing. We do not have any high pressure agents writing this insurance. Most of our agents are your neighbors.

We have recently built a beautiful funeral home, for the use and convenience of Gatesville and Coryell County people, as well as others who wish to avail themselves of its use with no extra charge whatever. This home has a beautiful chapel, family room, music room, air cooled, and all other conveniences that go with an institution of this kind.

THREE-POWER PACT

Germany, Italy and Japan have entered into a formal tripartite agreement, the ultimate objective of which is to divide the world among the three. For the United States, the Soviet Union, and the British Empire, the new pact is of the utmost consequence.

The three bandit nations have assumed the obligation of destroying the status quo in all parts of the world. First, of course, they propose to dislodge the British from their spheres of influence in Africa, the near East and Asia, and to subjugate the 400,000,000 of Chinese to the will of Japan. These are their announced intentions.

Later, if they were able to fulfill these objectives, they undoubtedly would seek to "liberate" the peoples of the Western Hemisphere from the domination of American "imperialism".

There is no reason for the United States to become alarmed over the agreement. We simply should realize the full significance of this alignment of brigands upon our present and future policies.

Our government in Washington—and I refer specifically to the splendid officials of our State Department, Mr. Hull and Mrs. Welles—has assumed the sane tact in refusing to sell scrap iron to Japan and in preparing to increase aid to the British. These two actions should and undoubtedly will meet with the full approval of all who realize the extreme gravity of the present world situation in its relation to American security.

Wily Joe Stalin probably will be invited to join the dictator combination—but would he be permitted to partake of the spoils which Berlin, Rome and Tokio would divide?

Stalin certainly shares a natural affinity with the moronic cliques which control Germany, Italy and Japan. That is, the Russian form of government, though theoretically Communist, corresponds more closely with Fascist setups which dominate the other three states than with the governments of Great Britain and the United States.

But while Stalin personally may harbor comradeship with the Fascist leaders and totalitarian concepts of government and of economics, the natural interests of the Soviet Union lie with the democracies, with Britain and the United States.

As the malignant hand of Nazism creeps across the hunger-stricken continent of Europe, encompassing within its grasp millions of people who perhaps would embrace Communism if Hitler were destroyed, Stalin inevitably must turn to an alliance with nations whose every concept of life is antithetical to the Soviet concept but whose strategic interests correspond with his own.

Japan and Russia are historic enemies in the Far East. They fought one war at the beginning of this century and have been clashing on the Siberian frontier since the Japanese conquered Manchuria in 1931. If Russia consented to join hands with the new alliance, would Japan concede Soviet supremacy in the disputed areas?

The ethnic, geographical, strategic and economic interests of the Soviet Union on the one hand and Italy and Germany on the other hand clash in the Balkans and in the Near East. Does the astute Stalin believe that Russia would be granted control of the Dardanelles, or Istanbul and of the territories bordering on the Black Sea if he joined the Rome-Berlin-Tokio alliance and secured their victory?

The lifelines of the British Empire are further endangered by the new combination of totalitarian power. While Germany occupies the British in Europe, Italy can continue to pinch in Africa and in the Near East, perhaps with large-scale Nazi help that would permit a formidable attack upon the Suez Canal. Japan, in the meantime, can harass the British in China, at Singapore, and perhaps attack the Netherlands East Indies.

What is more natural than that the British and the Soviets should join hands to separate the Germans and Italians from their Asiatic friends? Neither the British Empire nor Russia will ever be safe from direct or possible attack so long as this alliance exists, so long as Japan retains a strong foothold upon the Asiatic continent and Hitler dominates central Europe.

If Joe Stalin is as smart as I think he is, he will take advantage of the co-operative spirit now guiding Anglo-American relations and will join what will be the winning combination in this war.

Announcing the big

NEW FORD 1941 FORD

In some years, some cars take a big jump ahead. The Ford does that for 1941.

It has jumped ahead in size. It's the biggest Ford we've ever built, inside and out. It's wider. It has a longer wheelbase. Its seating room is wider by as much as 7 inches. It has new wide doors and semi-concealed running boards.

You'll notice also a new beauty, achieved by a skilful blending of mass with longer flowing lines. Larger windshield and windows give better vision all around.

One of its biggest advantages is the new soft ride.

New, slower-action springs give a slow, gentle, gliding movement. A newly designed stabilizer helps absorb road shocks, and maintains balance on sharp curves and in cross winds.

More rapid acceleration to match its familiar speed and power makes this new Ford an even livelier car to drive.

These are only a few of this new car's outstanding features. It represents all the rich experience gained in building more than 28 million motor cars.

Any Ford dealer can give you many good reasons for making this your 1941 car.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1940

Today is Monday, and we or Wilson Brazzil, returned Sports Editor, haven't had time to look the Hornets over. We imagine Coach Pruitt did plenty of that, and didn't stop at that.

In case you didn't see it, V. Mills stopped Itasca 33 to 0; down at Hearne, Hearne walloped Marlin 13-0; not such a wallop; and Mart took Groesbeck's measure 26-12.

There's two teams worth watching in this class A: Mart and, more particularly, Valley Mills.

West in West, incidentally isn't going to be any pushover for GHS Hornets, with one game's experience in their belts. They're still what you might call "potential", however. Nobuddy knows.

In the SW Conference, of course the Aggies had a pushover in A & I; The Bears of Waco "fiddled" and like to have "fizzled" in their opener with Jack Sievo's NTSTC, it ending in 27-20, or something like that.

SMU barely got over with 9-6 with UCLA; TCU pushed Centenary all over the lot, 41-0. Arkansas had just about as much fun out of Central Teachers, and Texas smothered a "hot" Colorado team 39-7. Rice was at leisure. That is all, if correct.

Junior Hi's hereabouts have a pretentious schedule, and altho we haven't seen them, it looks like about 7 bad innings, as far as we can find out.

Altho, you're probably not much interested—seems nobody is much with both War and Football—Nashville so far has Houston's ears whipped down in the Dixie Series, and it's Detroit and Cincinnati in the big National classic.

Meridian High Pops Juveniles 7-6 On State Hill

Meridian's Yellow Jackets scored in the final stanza of their set on State Hill to down the Juveniles 7-6, Friday p. m.

After the locals had a six-point lead in the half, it looked good for them until the waning minutes of the final frame.

With only minutes left, the Yellowjackets started driving and Kilpatrick climaxed the drive by plunging for the touch. A pass to Brantley netted the extra point, and cinched the game.

Volume UP Price DOWN

IT HAS BEEN SAID that advertising increases the price of goods.

True, advertising is part of the manufacturer's and merchant's cost of doing business, all of which must be covered in the price of his goods if he is to stay in business.

But advertising helps boost sales and production. Bigger volume cuts cost per unit made and sold. To meet competition the saving is passed on to the public in the form of a lower price.

Think of the prices of radios, mechanical refrigerators and heating appliances, automobiles, light bulbs and other products when first introduced and sold in small volume. Compare with their prices today, after advertising won them enormous acceptance! Successful advertising decreases the price of goods.

CELEBRATING NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK OCT. 1-8th

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE NOT DUMB

We Americans have never, in the dictionary sense, been dumb. We are extremely vocal. When we don't like something, we say so. We tell our neighbors, we wire our Congressman, and, probably most significant, we write a letter to our newspaper—a good many million of us every year.

We are not dumb. We have never lost the use of our vocal chords. We know we're in the driver's seat, we know we run the country. We're awfully cranky and when something displeases us, we're quick to tell the world. That's why politicians shake the dust off their feet when we tell them to move. That's why we get things done.

In the good old U. S. A. slang sense, we Americans aren't dumb either. We know that the right to express ourselves didn't just happen. It was fought for. It was paid for in tears and in blood and we have guarded it jealously through the years.

We are not dumb. We know that our precious freedoms and liberties, the right to think, vote, travel, earn and worship as we please, are safe only so long as we Americans are free to read, write and publish what we please, through our newspapers. We know that of all our freedoms, the freedom of the press is the most important. We know that it guards every other liberty and that without it we would live in darkness, a prey to any demagogue's whim.

We Americans are not dumb. As long as we value our rights and our liberties we shall steadfastly resist any attempt by private interests or public authority to encroach upon our free newspapers. For the right to read is the right to know—to be informed. Because all our other rights depend on it, it is the one right most worth defending.

Jinx "13" Takes Opener From Hornets In M. E. Home Game

After pre-season dope had left local fans agast as to just what the yhad in the way of a football team, it was demonstrated, somewhat, Friday night, when the Methodist Home boys of Waco took the long end of the count against the GHS Hornets by the tune of 13 to 0.

Fans, of all walks of life, were wondering "how they look" and "what have we got this season." Now, all that isn't settled yet.

Remember, last year's game with the Home ended with the selfsame score, 0-13. All of which, means nothing. Let's get into big words, potentialities.

That's what Coach Pruitt has—potentially, a good squad. What that'll mean on the playing field, and in the games to come is still as much as a quandary as the opening game was. So, we're still just where we were, and what we'll see in the future, is a geometric problem, or is it, as what we've already experienced.

Criticising the Hornet's play, these untrained football eyes saw now terrible errors or bones. Only a few early season one.

There may have been some criticism on the quick-kick defense, but we think that Coach Pruitt's way to stop a couple of really hot, fast running, scat backs brought to the bowl by Coach Butter Lauderdale, meaning Compton and Terry. It is rumored, GHS backs are not too fast of foot, and for that reason, the secondary defense were told to play close in including the safety man.

In calling names, of Hornet stars, it looked like Sexton, Crow, Davis and Fry as ball luggers, and Walker as blocker. Gribble snatched a couple or three nice passes, and played well enough on defense.

All in all, we think the fans were pleased, and many are expecting better things, which may or may not happen.

But, here's the play by play, as carried first, and almost exclusive by the News:

GHS kicks to Home, ball going to Terry, who fumbled and brought down on the 21 yd. line. Compton picked up 2 over T. Compton hit RE and was downed by Sexton for 2 yds. loss. Hornets took a 5 yd. penalty for pushing. Terry hits LT for 1. Hornets off-side, 5 more lost. Morrison carried and loses 1 yd. Compton picks up 1 over RE. Shift causes Hornets to get off-side, 5 more. Compton fumbles, Frq recovers. Hornet's ball.

Sexton carries over LT for yard. Sexton over RE for 1. Sexton passes over Gribble at RE. Crow punts high, and it taken by Newman on 20, but pla ycalled. M. E. Home off-side. Fry picks up 3 over RT. Crow on left end run, loses 2, as line leaked. Sexton passes far over C intended for Gribble. Crow punts 40 yards to the 10, Terry fumbles an dis downed in tracks. Compton picks up 3 over LG. Compton hits S and picks up 5. Compton carries again thru C for 1st do. Daniels plunges LT for 1. Compton quick kicks, and ball is killed by Home. From 20 to 38.

Fry fails on RE run, losing 3. Sexton hits LG for 4. Sexton passes too long over C. intended for Gribble. Crow kicks to Home 47 from own 30. Home penalized 5 yds, roughing kicker. Davis for Fry. Davis fails to gain on long RE run. Sexton on criss-cross over C makes 1st D. First earned Hornet 1st Down. Davis picks up 3 at RT. Sexton jams thru LG for 5 yards. Sexton hits RG for another 1st D. Foster for Daniels. Crow makes 3 over RG. Davis slides, skids and rolls for 4 more. Sexton hits RG for inches from 1st down. Crow fakes kick and they measure again and it's 1st D. Sexton is thrown for 3 when left side of line fails. Davis picks up 8. Sexton hits RT for 4. Hardison out, Morrison in. Sexton hits RG for 4, they measure and it's another 1st D. Davis stumbles over interference, but picks up 3. Sexton makes it 3 more over RT. Sexton is stopped at line for 1-2 yard. Davis makes it first after ball knocked out of his hand, and he recovers. Davis carries again, and makes 3. Sexton finds hole over LG and makes 5. Davis makes 1st down on 1 foot line. Sexton is stopped at line as half ends, darn it!

THIRD QUARTER

Hornets receive, M. E. Home kicks, and ball goes to Sexton on 37, is stopped by Glass. Davis partially fumbles, but fails to gain or lose ball. Pass, Sexton to Gribble completed for 15 yards, and 1st down, Sexton makes 1 over LG. Crow over RT makes 2. Sexton is stopped over RT as line leaks. Crow kicks from 45 to 25, ball returned 10.

Home kicks, ball goes to Crow on 15, returns to 34. Sexton hits rt. side for 1 yd. Sexton finds hole over LT and makes 7. Sexton finds hole but fails to make 1st D. Crow punts from 40 to Home 35, returned to 30 by Terry. Manning for White. Compton makes 5 over RT. Terry quick kicks from 35 to 30 yard line where killed by Home.

Sexton to Gribble over C picks up 6, pass. Crow fails as taken back by Home from left side of line, hit RT. Sexton passes, intercepted by Home on 35, lateraled to Wood who ran about 30 yards for touchdown. Place kicks hits cross bar and goes over. M. E. Home 13, GHS 0.

Home reserves swarm in. Home talks and is penalized before kick-off, 15 yards. Sexton takes Compton's kick on 35 and returns to own 48. Sexton passes, intercepted by Terry on 40, returns to 45. Terry passes, no receiver there, and the Home boys really got the "not there" end told. Terry hits RT for 2 yds. Terry quick kicks, but Crow is back and it rolls over back line. Brought out to 20. Jimmie Allen

"The SKY PARADE"

Serialized by Wallace West from the Paramount Picture of the same name

SYNOPSIS

After the war, Scotty Allen, Speed Robertson and Casey Cameron, flying solo in France, form an air circus to barnstorm the country fairs. Jerry Croft, a beautiful parachute jumper, and Flash Lewis, a barber and mechanic, attach themselves to the troupe. When Cameron signs with Gat Billings, a gangster, to fly contraband across the border, the circus dissolves but Tommy Wade, a pal of the others in France, inherits money and backs them in an air line. Scotty's young son, Jimmie, celebrates his ninth birthday and is disappointed when his dad, who is flying the mail, fails to appear. Scotty finally arrives and informs Jerry that he is in love with her and that he is going to attempt the first transatlantic flight with Speed very soon.

CHAPTER IV.

JERRY hesitated when Scotty fired the question at her, then nodded.
"Yes, I do love Speed," she answered softly.

in the morning. And then we're going to Paris. You and Jerry are coming East to see us off and wave 'goodbye.'
"That's good," smiled the boy drowsily. "Guess maybe I can go to sleep now." He nestled under the covers with the football in his arms.
It was a brilliant summer day when Scotty and Speed tuned up their plane, the "American Fighter" for its trans-Atlantic hop. They were in a hurry to get off in order to beat Lindbergh to Paris—although they gravely doubted that one man could make such a flight. But their hurry did not prevent them from testing their ship down to the last bolt.
Jerry, Tommy Wade, Jimmie and Flash were at the airport, of course, to watch the take-off.
"I know what you'd like to say, way. The cabin rocked dangerously.

"Look out!" shouted Speed. "A wheel on the landing gear is going bad. Better jump." He reached forward to cut off the motors but before he could do so the ship lurched sideways. A wing hit the ground. The next moment the plane had ground-looped and the wreckage was a billowing mass of flames.
"What's going to become of Jimmie?" Speed Robertson murmured these half-delirious words as he lay, heavily bandaged, in a hospital bed and stared bitterly up at Jerry. "Lord, why did I have to come out alive instead of Scotty when the kid needs him so. We've got to make it up to him, Jerry. Give him parents—a home. . . ."

The ship lurched sideways. A wing hit the ground. The next moment the plane had ground-looped and the wreckage was a billowing mass of flames.

"I don't know why the chump doesn't realize it!" The pilot was doing his best not to notice his own crumbled air castles. "I've a good mind to tell him right now." Then, as the girl started to object he patted her arm and added. "All right. Tell you what, kid, I'll tell him just as we take off. It'll give him something to think of while we're over the ocean—something to come back to. But you see now, don't you, why I've got to see Jimmie tonight. He's the only one I've got."
"Oh, dad, I knew you'd come," cried Jimmie as his bedroom door opened. He received the gift of the football with a delighted whoop.
"Maybe I'd better be a football player when I grow up," he mused.
"Listen, feller," his father replied. "I don't care what you grow up to be—you can be a man on the flying trapeze if you want to. Just don't ever do anything you're ashamed of. Get me?"
"You sound as if you were saying goodbye."
"Well, I am. Speed and I are leaving for New York first thing Jerry," said Speed as the girl stood beside him near the plane.

"No you don't—yet," she smiled at him as he climbed into the cockpit.
"Well, so long, son," called Scotty as he prepared to open the engine throttle. "Keep your tail up. And remember, whatever happens, fly into the wind."
"All set, chief," cried a mechanic who had removed some blocks from in front of the landing gear wheels.
"Okay, Mike," answered the pilot. Then to his son. "So long, Jim."
"Be seein' ya," came the brave reply in an attempt to imitate his father's manner.
"Don't forget to tell him," called Jerry.
"I won't. Good-bye, Jerry." Scotty set the motors roaring and the heavily laden plane started to taxi down the field.
"What was that Jerry said about not forgetting?" asked Speed.
"Oh, she thinks you're the best-looking flier she knows and. . . ."
His words were cut short as the plane seemed to stagger on the run-

"I couldn't ask you before, Speed," said Jerry hesitantly. "Did—did Scotty give you a message for me?"
"Yes," Speed's voice broke at the recollection. "He was kidding and he gave me some silly message."
"I see." The girl misunderstood his tone and turned away, hurt. "You're thinking of Jimmie and Scotty, aren't you?" she asked finally.
"Yes, and myself." Speed painfully held out a bandaged hand. "Will you marry me, Jerry?"
"No, Speed. There's no need for it. I can take care of Jimmie."
"But. . ." The injured flier started to tell her of his love, but the picture of Scotty rose before him so that he stammered and stopped. "You must rest now," she said soothingly.
At that moment they heard the voice of a newsboy in the street outside the hospital.
"Wuxtry! Wuxtry!" he was yelling. "Lindburgh lands in Paris. Lone Eagle completes hop."

Ready to assist in finding a room, a job, a course of study, or the way to freshmen convocations and parties, the Freshman Orientation Committee began its program in the summer when upper-classmen wrote letters to boys and girls who planned to register this fall.

By ASN 6201081

Backs: The wind "backs" when it shifts in an anti-clock-wise direction, that is, S-E-N-W.

Balloon: A lighter than air aircraft having a gas bag and a car. It is sustained in the air by the buoyant effect of the lighter-than-air gas contained in the gas bag.

Balloon, Captive: A balloon attached to the earth by cables. Two types: (1) Kite, a cylindrical gas bag flying at an angle of 45 degrees; ascension assisted by the action of the wind; now obsolete. (2) Streamline, flying in a horizontal position and kept headed into the wind by a rudder and stabilizing fins.

Bank: to incline an airplane laterally, i. e., to rotate it about the fore-and-aft axis. Right and left bank are respectively an inclination of the airplane with the right and left wing down.

Banking rudders: See Aileron.

Barograph. A registering aneroid barometer.

Barometer: An instrument for measuring atmospheric pressure. There are two main types: (1) The mercurial, which consists of a vertical glass tube, the top end sealed and bottom end open, filled with mercury and inverted into a cup of the same metal, both attached to a graduated standard; (2) the aneroid, q. v.

Barrage Balloon: A small spherical captive balloon raised as a protection against airplanes.

Baton: Light pieces of wood used to stiffen the nose or other parts of the dirigible or captive balloons.

Bay: The cubical space enclosed by two pairs of struts and the spars or longerons to which they are attached; specifically, one section of a fuselage.

Beds, Engin: The metal or laminated wood members on which an airplane engine rests.

Bias: A line, cut or seam obliquely across the threads of a fabric.

Biplane: A machine built to carry two passengers; a "two-seater".

Biplane: An airplane composed of two superimposed main sustaining surfaces.

Blimp: A small, non-rigid dirigible, used chiefly for marine reconnaissance.

Body of an Airplane: A streamline housing or structure usually enclosed, in which the power plant fuel, passengers are contained. The wing and tail units are attached to this structure. Also known as the fuselage and the nacelle.

Boom: A spar or outrigger connecting the stabilizing and main lifting surfaces of a pusher.

Burble Point: The angle of incidence which give the maximum lift.

Cabane: A strut, or set of struts, with guy wires attached, used for bracing the overhang of a wing. Also known as wing-mast.

Babre: A flying attitude in which the angle of attack is greater than not normal; tail down; down by stern.
