LIONS ENTERTAINED BY SALESMANSHIP INSTRUCTOR

Five women furnished the Wednesday program for the Gatesville Lions Club this week, and included Miss Jean Redmon, instructor in Salesmanship and other classes at the high school, who outlined her work and its aims.

Also, present were the four "Misses Admiration" who, with their Lion Escorts, Roger Miller and Dr. Otis Carter Ray, presented in behalf of the Gatesville Fire Department the plan to refinance the "Fireman's Fund", and the program was given the okeh by the Lions.

Glenn "Reduced"! Tom L. In Charge: 11 Leave For Army

Glenn got "busted"! He was sent home to "reduce". He was "reduced" by the Local Selectee Board, and Tom L. Robinson Jr., was put in charge of the delegation of "future Generals" that left Thursday a. m. for the distribution center in Dallas.

Besides Glenn Andrew, or Andrew Glenn Hendrickson, ex-majordomo, "returnees" were Lester Hiram Williams, Alford Thurman Swindall, Vance Irvin Sellers and Andrew Watson Farris, who came home for "reconditioning" or something. They're up for a second "hitch" now.

Accompanying these old timers were the "rookies" Thomas Lloyd Robinson, Jr., Johnny Barnard Brown, Curtis Louie Chafin, Cleto Manriquez, James Doctor Franks and Adolph August Symank.

Four men were sent Tuesday: James Melvin Kelso, Burks Reed, Wilbur Lloyd Gallaway, Arthur Lee Cluck, but Arthur Lee's already back.

CAFE CHANGES HANDS: IS NOW BEL-AIR: ON SOUTH SIDE

Bel-Air Cafe, is Gatesville's newest "eaterie" and it's on the south side of the square, and is now operated by the U. Z. Touchstones.

The Bel-Air is located next to Walker & Summers Barber Shop, and, well, they put out the food, the way you like it.

Call on these folks, folks, and make 'em welcome.

Prisoner Pulls An "Al Smth": Takes a Walk

It was last week, during District Court trial, in which the "Walkee" Charles Skinner "took a walk". And, from all reports, he may be walking yet.

He was up by the State, charged with theft of over $50, and, during a recess or legal conference of the court and officials, just up and took a walk. He ain't been seen since.

Now, that's just a trustin' a feller too far, and we believe the next case up, the officials will probably put an anchor of some kind on the "defendant". You just can't be nice to some folks.

Another case was also settled this week, Mrs. Clyde Hurt et al vs. Morgan Construction Company, suit for damages, judgement for plaintiff, and $6,000.00 awarded.

CAR BURNS WHILE OWNER FISHES ON CORYELL CREEK

Troy Sheffield, unlike Caesar, "fished" instead of "fiddled" while Rome (his car) burned.

Troy got a yen for fresh fish, self caught, and with no taste of tin (if the canned ones do), so he drove the old bus out on Coryell Creek. The water was clear and fresh, and it looked good—the fishing. He wet his hooks. Whether he caught any fish, was not reported.

What he did do was to get his '37 Chevrolet car burned, and burned badly. How it hapened was also not reported. The car was partly covered by insurance.

Mrs. Mabel Gardner and mother, Mrs. S. B. Winters, are visiting in San Antonio this week.

"MISS ADMIRATION", TIMES FOUR TAKE FIREMEN IN: COFFEE DEAL GOES OVER

J. I. (Jess) YATES

Four young ladies, billed and registered (even at hotels) as "Miss Admiration" literally took Gatesville by storm, Wednesday of this week, when they presented the Gatesville Fire Department with a sales plan which will put coin in the "fire box".

It goes this way, in line with the policy of Duncan Coffee Company's policy, sales of Admiration and Bright & Early coffee for the next thirty days, will pay the Gatesville Fire Department a nickle-a-pound on Admiration, and 3c a pound on Bright & Early.

In addition, some 503 prizes each week will be given throughout the southwest, with a grand prize of $1,000.000 in this Admiration "Happiness" contest, featured in 150 picked newspapers and a number of radio stations throughout the southwest.

But, why go on?

Of course you have, or will see the advertisement of the contest in this issue of the News. And there, folks, is the whole thing in a nutshell.

Here with the "Misses Admiration" were high officials of Duncan Coffee Company including Clay W. Stephenson Jr, Advertising Director, D. M. Cummings, Assistant General Sales Manager, and one other company official.

One unusual feature of the contest, is that the prizes will be paid in "happiness certificates", which can only be spent in the "home town" and are redeemable at every store carrying a placard that they redeem these coupons. The store turns in the coupons to the Houston office of the company for full face value of each coupon.

Above, in the squared circle, is one "Jess" Yates, genial local salesman who has placed this contest with the Gatesville Fire Department and is looking forward to presenting them with a check at the end of the thirty-day period, of say, at least $1,000.00, he says.

NTSTC A Capella Choir Here February 18

Forty-five voices strong, the picturesque NTSTC from Denton, will be heard here in concert February 18 at 2:45 o'clock in the high school gym, sponsored by the Senior Class.

Proceeds from the concert will be used by the class for financing the high school annual.

The choir is said to be one of the most dramatic and colorful musical organizations in the Southwest, and includes 45 young men and women who will offer a musical program fitted to the trained music lover as well as the man on the street.

Dramatic color is added to the choir as it is dressed in purple velvet and white satin robes. Their opening selection, is colored by precision stage movements, as they open with Franz Lizst's beautiful "Benedictus."

This program, both for music lovers, and the general public will be a revelation to each in the new art of "voice symphony orchestra" and is a treat not to be missed.

HOMER SELLERS WAS SERIOUSLY INJURED IN B'WOOD LAST WEEK

Homer Sellers, formerly a local barber was seriously injured in Brownwood recently, when in moving his barber shop, the car on which he was riding on the running board, overturned in a ditch.

Mr. Sellers was pinned under the car and it is reported his pelvis bone was injured, and he was badly smashed. He is reported to be in a serious condition.

"WITH THE COLORS"

Most of these things about the boys, we hear, we "only heard". And, here's some more!

Sgt. Neal Hinsley has been transferred to Mineral Wells, where he will be Chief Clerk (or whatever the army calls 'em) for the 109th Division.

First Lieut. Dean B. Jones passed thru Gatesville Wednesday, enroute to Mineral Wells, where he, his wife and two children hope they'll be permanently located. Mrs. Jones and the little'uns stayed here until the "housing problem" is solved in the new home town.

CHAPTER EIGHT SYNOPSIS:
Dr. Bart Morgan, brilliant young surgeon, becomes a gangland doctor when he fails to make good in legal practice. Bank bandits headed by Eddie Krator, Public Enemy No. 1, are his best customers. On a tip from Margaret Hopkins, Morgan's nurse, G-Man raids Krator's hideout. They dig up clues connecting Morgan with the bandits. Bob Anders, personable young G-Man, decides to make a call on Morgan at his office.

CHAPTER IX

IN KINGSLEY'S office the local F.B.I. forces gathered to study and discuss the evidence consisting of the Acme Construction Company pencil, the empty anaesthetic can, a Federal reserve currency wrapper and the fishing reel—all collected by Bob and Tom at the Ace Inn.

Kingsley and Logan carefully checked their findings: Krator's fingerprints on the money wrapper and the fishing reel; Dizzy Warner's on the anaesthetic can. But unknown fingerprints on the pencil and more unknown prints, one of which contained a trace of rouge, on the ether container!

Bob Anders entered as the summation was reached. "Did any one call me after I left on the Cossgrove job?" he demanded.

"Not that I know of," Kingsley answered. "The only woman who called was the one who gave us the tip on the Ace Inn."

"That's what I was afraid of," Bob answered as he sprinkled the second sheet of memo paper with fingerprint powder. Central 3-1121 was plainly visible! "I found it in Dr. Bartley Morgan's office," Bob explained. He presented the bottle of liniment Margaret had given him. "And the handwriting of that number and the handwriting on this label are the same."

"What's this all about?" Kingsley demanded.

"Miss Hopkins is the nurse in Dr. Morgan's office. She insists she did not phone me yesterday. Yet I find our number on her memo pad. And a woman gave us the Ace Inn tip."

"Not forgetting that your scar and the scar on Johnny Franklin were almost identical," Tom Logan added. Bob was worried and exasperated by the turn of events. "All right! Bartley Morgan's a criminal doctor. But I can't figure the girl in it. If she is, why should she give us the tip and get herself ten to twenty years in Alcatraz?"

The telephone interrupted the discussion. One of the F.B.I. agents reported that the Acme Construction Company was owned by Elmer Porter. A quick check-up of the city's Who's Who told them nothing of value, but it did mention that Porter was famous as a stamp collector.

That chance line was enough. The following day Tom Logan, masquerading as a stamp dealer, succeeded in interviewing Elmer Porter. Tom didn't sell Porter any stamps—but he did get his fingerprints on an envelope. The prints matched with the prints on the pencil found at Ace Inn!

Meanwhile a careful check of the serial numbers on Krator's fishing reel disclosed the dealer who had sold it to the gangster. Two days later Bob, Tom, another F.B.I. agent and a couple of state troopers motored to Twin Lakes in the north woods. The storekeeper not only identified pictures of Krator as the man who had purchased the reel, but added that Krator and two friends were camping in a fishing shack on the lake at the moment! They had arrived only twenty-four hours before.

Led by the storekeeper, the F.B.I. and police officers speedily located and surrounded Krator's hangout. At a signal from Bob Anders they advanced simultaneously. All were armed with machine guns except Tom Logan, who carried a tear-gas gun.

"Eddie Krator!" Bob shouted. "We're Federal men. Come out with your hands in the air."

Inside the shack, Krator, with Dizzy Warner and Spats Edwards jumped to their feet in terror. Eddie peered through the window.

Bob leaped to his feet. "This cinches it," he shouted to Kingsley. "If he's so healthy, what's he doing visiting a doctor? I bumped into him twice in Dr. Morgan's office."

"The Ace Inn . . . An Acme Construction Company pencil with Porter's fingerprints. . . The anaesthetic container from Morgan's office," Kingsley mused aloud. "It all adds up." He turned to Bob. "Bring in Elmer Porter."

In Bart Morgan's office, the news of the capture of Krator and Warner and the arrest of Elmer Porter terrified Margaret. Surely they would implicate Bart! But Morgan was jauntily confident. He and Cynthia were planning their honeymoon

"I'm not coming out except to bury you! Krator screamed in reply. A blast of machine gun fire answered him.

"Last call, Eddie Krator," Bob recalled again. "You're under arrest. Are you coming out or . . ."

"I'm not coming out except to bury you!" Krator, now in a terrific rage, screamed in reply. A blast of machine gun fire answered his defiant speech.

The three flattened themselves on the floor as the barrage of machine gun bullets raked the shack from all sides. "Don't let's die in here like rats," Spats Edwards shouted. He scrambled to his feet and started to dash through the door. A burst of machine gun fire greeted him. He crumpled in the doorway. Krator and Warner shuddered and crouched closer to the floor.

Tom Logan raised his tear-gas gun and took careful aim at the window of the shack. The bomb landed and shattered beside Krator and Dizzy Warner. In a few seconds the shack was filled with the choking, white gas. Fighting for breath, Krator and Warner emerged, hands in the air.

In Kingsley's office following the capture of Krator and Warner, Bob picked up an afternoon paper and read the story of the raid. His eyes wandered to another story on the front page:

"To Be Healthy, Have Hobby," read the headlines. Below appeared a picture of Elmer Porter. Below it the caption said: "Noted Civic Leader Not Sick One Day in Twenty Years."

trip; tomorrow they were to rehearse their wedding ceremony.

"You're over-confident," Margaret insisted. "I'm afraid—for you." "Forget it, will you?" Bart snapped. "Krator's too smart to admit anything and Porter's lawyers will keep his mouth shut."

But even Bart's confidence dwindled when he read a late afternoon extra edition. Krator and Warner had seized a careless guard in the city jail, knocked him senseless with his own gun and escaped with the keys which they had forced the jailer to give to them at the point of the guard's gun!

News of the spectacular jail break brought Kingsley, Bob, Tom and the other special agents together at headquarters immediately. With the help of the local police a cordon was thrown around the city at once. Every road and exit was covered.

In the F.B.I. office, Kingsley studied a map of the city. Colored pins indicated patrols covering the traffic arteries. "If Krator shows his face at any of those spots," the field chief said, indicating the map, "he'll have to blast his way through."

Bob spoke softly. "If Krator had a new face, he could walk through."

Kingsley wheeled and faced Bob. "You mean if he got the idea a new face would pass him out of town, he'd try to get one?"

"Sure. And if Dr. Bartley Morgan happened to be his physician-in-waiting. . . ."

The house was beautifully decorated to carry out the Valentine motif and as the guests arrived, red hearts bearing the inscription, "Janice and Price", were pinned on their shoulders.

In the contests which were had, Mrs. E. D. Shelton and Mrs. Pete Patterson were winners, and the prizes were in turn given the honoree. A large basket, covered with hearts, was filled with many beautiful and useful gifts, and presented the bride-to-be.

Twenty-seven guests shared the courtesy.

Performed Thursday, Feb. 6.

Miss Bonnie Ruth Westerveld became the bride of Earl Schulz of Coryell City Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in a very impressive ceremony read at the St. John's Lutheran church by the Rev. A. Koerner.

Nuptial music was played by Miss Earline Schulz, sister of the groom.

The bride was becomingly attired in a powder blue redingote, with which she wore black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. For something old, she wore a brooch, belonging to her mother, for something borrowed, she wore a wrist watch, which belonged to her sister-in-law, and for something blue, she carried a blue handkerchief.

In keeping with the family tradition, following the ceremony, a delicious supper was served to about twenty guests at the home of the bride's parents. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, graced the table.

Mrs. Schulz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Westerveld of Crawford. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Schulz of Coryell City.

Calf Show Report Of February 3: Many Prizes

After 7 months feeding, a number of boys who were feeding-out calves showed them on the square, February 3, and Lloyd Brown, son of J. D. Brown Jr., showed the first prize winner, which was an 800 pounder and took first place, with $12.50 total prizes.

Frederick Green, Oglesby had 2nd winner, and took off $33.00 in total prizes. Burtice Ross, Oglesby 3rd with 4th; netting $4.50.

Gatesville Chamber of Commerce donated for 1st prize, $7.50;

2nd $5 and 3rd $2.50. Bayne Allen also donated $5, 1st; $3, 2nd; and $2, third. Charles Petty, a rancher, donated $25 to the 1st and 2nd calves they were bred by him. Mr. Petty's calves won 2nd and 3rd places and that's the reason for the difference in first and second money.

Other exhibitors were Harlan Wharton, Oglesby, Billie Parks Walker, Oglesby, Jim Voss, Jonesboro, Billy Charles Pollard, Oglesby, Rolin Johnson, Oglesby and Jack Morris, Oglesby.

The boys buy a calf at the beginning on the feeding period and feed them for so long, and weigh them to see how much "heft" they've put on. It's a scientific feeding and caretaking job. This period was for seven months.

Mrs. J. C. Byers of Coolidge returned to her home Thursday after an extended visit with Mrs. Ed McMordie. Mrs. C. W. Myers of Jonesboro is spending the remainder of the week with Mrs. McMordie.

Mrs. Ann Peterson of San Jose, California is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bigham and other relatives in this vicinity. Mrs. Peterson was the former Miss Annie Rivers Bigham.

HORNETTES WIN OVER JONESBORO, PIDCOKE AND WEST

The Hornets have rung up three more wins this week to their fine record. The first of these was Tuesday afternoon when the Jonesboro team tangled with them. In the first quarter the Hornets only gained a lead of two points, 9-7. Moore made two, Patterson five, and Perkins two. In the second they still kept their two point lead, the score at the half being 13-11. Perkins was the only counter for the Hornets, making three points. Coming back in the third, the locals pulled away from Jonesboro and gained a nice lead. Moore made two, Patterson two and Perkins 5 to the opponents' three points. In the last period Moore rang up two more points, Perkins three and Turner three. The game ended 30-16.

Those playing for the locals were Captain Moore, Patterson, Perkins, high point with fourteen, Turner, Captain Black, Lester, and Mueller. Lahman was high point for Jonesboro, making 12 tallies.

Tuesday evening the Hornets' B string clashed with the girls' team from Pidcoke. The locals had an easy win and all turned in a nice game. They gained an early lead and kept it throughout the game. Shoaf was high pointer with 24 points in her name. Scott, Turner, second with 16, Shoaf, Sims, and J. Featherston played on the Hornette squad.

In the game Wednesday night, the Hornets met the Trojan sextette from West. West had defeated Ennis and Ennis is the only team that has been able to win over Gatesville this season. The Hornets turned in one of the best games of the year, hustling, fighting and handling the ball like professionals from start until finish. The forwards made many crisp shots and slid past the West guards time and time again. The guards broke up West's pivot play, the play that they said would beat us.

The first score of the game was a free-toss made by Turner. Moore rang up three scores, and Turner and Patterson a free shot each. The quarter ended 6-5 in the Hornets' favor. In the second period Moore added up four shots, Turner a free shot and Patterson a goal to West's four points, making the score at the half 13-9. The locals came back with still more fight in the third and made 16 points. Four of these belong to Moore, six to Turner and six to Patterson. The third quarter ended 20-13. In the final period Perkins was the only scorer for the Hornets, making six. The game ended Gatesville 35, West 17. The locals who played were Captain Moore, high pointer with 11, Turner, with nine, Patterson, nine, Perkins, six, Captain Black, Lester, and Mueller. In this game the forwards sank more free tosses than usual. They made seven out of fifteen.

The Gatesville guards played their best defensive game; Mueller always got the ball off the backboard and Black, not only broke up the pivot shot, but kept the ball away from the pivot girl. Lester broke up play after play and kept the forwards from shooting many shots.

FURTHER FACTS CONCERNING BAPTIST WORK IN SOLDIER CAMPS

The Supervisor of Soldier Work has made an initial survey of fifteen of the twenty-two camps, posts, and stations in Texas. These facts and observations are based on this survey and personal interview with the Commanding Officer of each place visited.

Of the twenty-two locations in our state, fourteen of them are old posts and forts of the regular army units. The other eight are new establishments now under construction with a full authorized strength in men as follows: Camp Bowie, Brownwood, 35,000; Camp Barclay, Abilene, 25,000; Camp Wolters, Mineral Wells, 18,000; Camp Wallace, near Galveston, 9,500; Camp Hulon, Palacios, 12,000; Ellington Field, near Houston, 3,500; San Angelo Flying Field, 1,500; the Naval Station, Corpus Christi, 15,000. The total is 119,500. This represents the number of men that will ultimately be in these places if and when they are filled to capacity according to present plans. Other camps are proposed by the government like Victoria and Stamford; but these will not add large numbers to the above total. The additional number of men to be gathered into the other fourteen old places during the year, under present plans, will be about 80,000. This will bring the total to an approximate 200,000 men in the twenty-two military locations in Texas. This information is of date, January 25, 1941.

There are many reasons why we should do everything that we can for our soldier boys:

First, they are our boys. They are near and dear to our hearts. They are giving up positions, close friends, home, life-long associations, and are in training for your defense and mine. If they can do this for us, the least we can do for them is to make worthy provision for their highest and best interest. If you have a boy in the group, if there is one or more from your church, if you will but visualize what it means for these men, there will be no difficulty about your offering.

Second, it is a glorious opportunity. We are happy that Texas Baptists were alert to the opportunity to serve our men in khaki. As a demonstration we realize the tremendous opportunity that is ours. Just think of the privilege of building tabernacles and placing camp pastors in these camps for the purpose of strengthening, in every way, those of our bonnie-lads who are already Christians and seek to win to Christ those who are not Christians. Along with such program will be the purpose and privilege of carrying on a definite schedule of social activities. This will be of inestimable value to our men.

Third, it is a pressing obligation. Every opportunity brings its corresponding responsibilities. It is well for us to see, not only the golden opportunity that the defense program opens to us, but to accept the binding obligation it imposes. For Texas Baptists to be recreant to this obligation is for them to hesitate, falter, stumble in the gateway of a marvelous opportunity. If we have vision we will enter in through this door; if we have a keen sense of our responsibility, we will glory in our privilege; if we believe in our men, we will contribute to this cause. A thing that we love dearly, we will give to sacrificially.

Fourth, we should do this because of a happy response coming from every direction to the work that we are seeking to do. The people in the centers where the camps are, are responding heartily to the program that we have launched. The pastors along with their people, the citizens of the town and cities show gratitude for our efforts. The army officials are showing Doctor Miller, our supervisor, the pastors and laymen cooperating with him, unusual consideration.

Many of our people need to get it out of their thinking that when a man puts on a uniform, he lays his religion aside. Some of the finest examples of Christian fidelity and loyalty to the cause of Christ came out of the first world war.

Fifth, the carrying on of the outlined program of Texas Baptists is dependent upon our offering during February. Our 1,900 pastors, earnestly and effectively leading their churches will guarantee the necessary $50,000.

THE PRIVATE PAPERS OF A CUB REPORTER

George Baxter, one of the heroes of the recent midtown New York gun battle, consented to appear on the We, The People program with this provision: That the money be turned over to Leonard Weisberg, the cabbie, who was shot in the throat trying to help Patrolman Ed Maher, who was murdered. George, an apartment house doorman in the neighborhood, heard that the cabbies of the sector were do-pitalization—and he grabbed the radio opportunity to help along. Doormen, you might have heard, do not make what is called a salary. To me, it adds up something like this: A Jew risks his life for an Irishman and in turn receives financial aid from another Irishman. What a fine example it is of the bond between Americans. It should make the bigoted crawl back into the walls.

Morey Amsterdam tells about the agent who got a call at four o'clock one ayem. The ten-percenter was furious. "What's the idea waking me up at this hour?" he demanded. A British voice answered: "I just arrived from England, where I played before the King. I also appeared for two years at the Palladium, 20 months at Grosvenor House, and I need immediate representation."

The agent was awake by this time, and he didn't want to pass up a good thing. "What do you do?" he asked. "I talk," was the reply. "You talk?" screamed the agent. "You call me up at four o'clock in the morning to tell me that you talk! Well, what is so unusual about that?" "What's so unusual about it?" was the answer. "I'm a dog!"

Alton Cook, the radio reporter, quoted Kaltenborn's squawk about being misquoted. Kaltenborn said "Brevity is the curse of accuracy," because Cook was brief and omitted a few words. Critic Cook replied gracefully: "The poem was written, you know, about the day the great Casey struck out!"

THE NEW YORK SCENE
New York Novelette: Dick Condon and Joe Heppner of the New York Walt Disney staff wrote a skit which the producer of "Crazy With the Heat" accepted. They got the usual contract—which is for sell "7c hamburgers". The crowd gathered around Mario, the night cashier, at the 49th Street and 6th Subway station. They say he has a terrific operatic tenor voice. The icicles hanging from Ben Franklin's nose in City Hall Park.

Broadway Small-Talk: Mildred Dunnock, who plays a teacher in "Corn Is Green," is a schoolmarm during the daytime—private tutor. Grantland Rice's dghter may wed Dalies Frantz. Why don't the cops clean up 42nd Street at three ayem? Girls on their way to early Mass were manhandled by some bums there. Clever crack: The slogan at the Esquire, Miami: "Bartenders with mixperience". Peggy Joyce was congratulating the divorcing Ethel Merman on her looks. "You look swell!" exclaimed Peggy. "You ought to try marriage more often!"

Sally in Our Alley: Over at Rupan Bleu they told of the guy who was trying to get out of a woman's apartment with her husband at the doorknob. "Quick!" she whispered breathlessly. "The window!" "What!" exclaimed the chump. "Do you expect me to jump thirteen stories?" "Lissen, you," snapped the lady, "this is no time to be superstitious!"

Midtown Vignette: In one of the gambling houses in the 70s there always is tea and cake on a tray in the hall—directly after you close the door. If you drink the tea first and then nibble a hunk of devil's food cake, a servant ushers you upstairs to the roulette wheels and dice tables. If you drink the tea first and then pick up a hunk of chocolate cake—you are escorted to a dance floor where beautiful hostesses whisk you away. If you drink tea with the cake—you don't get in.

In order to have their collaboration used in the show they had to join the Dramatists' Guild. This cost them $8 each. The show lasted a week in Boston and less than that in New York. Yesterday the authors got their checks—for 50 cents. They lost $7.50 on the deal.

Manhattan Murals: The Spanish language place on Madison Avenue where a parrot greets you in Spanish as you enter. The Hindu-turban'd man on 5th Avenue, the other blustery ayem, with his long white whiskers kept in order by a hair-net. The swank Medical Arts Bldg., which is aghast over the planned hamburger shoppe for a neighbor next month. To cooperate with the sector atmosphere however—the firm, which usually gets a jitney for its product, will

OUR DEMOCRACY — by Mat

INVENTION AND DEVELOPMENT

WE ARE NOT ONLY INVENTORS — WE'RE DEVELOPERS.
FROM SPORTS TO ECONOMICS — WE'VE DEMOCRATIZED.

BASEBALL WE DEVELOPED FROM AN OBSCURE EUROPEAN GAME CALLED "ROUNDERS."

FOOTBALL WE MADE FROM RUGBY.

CHECKING ACCOUNTS, ENJOYED BY COMPARATIVELY FEW ABROAD, ARE USED BY MILLIONS IN THE U.S.A. LIFE INSURANCE, STARTED IN ENGLAND, IS ALMOST UNIVERSAL HERE. LOW COST EDUCATION IS THE MOST WIDESPREAD IN THE WORLD.

AND THROUGH DEVELOPMENT, MASS PRODUCTION AND EFFICIENCY, WE'VE BROUGHT OUR GREAT INVENTIONS TO ALL THE PEOPLE — MOTOR CAR — RADIO — TELEPHONE — MOVIES — ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER — FOR EXAMPLE.

ALL AMERICANS BENEFIT FROM AMERICAN ACHIEVEMENTS.

Ring through your Nose

By NORMAN CHANDLER
Chairman
Newspaper Publishers Committee

THERE'S something repugnant to me in the kind of leadership which makes you follow. I'd rather have the kind which inspires a following.

In America, to get a following a man must convince a group of people that his plan is good. Moreover, he must keep them convinced, because others, with different plans, are forever coming along, asking for — and getting — a hearing.

As a result of this American way we manage to stop short of the dictatorship and absolutism by which Hitler, Mussolini, Stalin enforce their leadership.

We even avoid business monopoly the same way. A metal concern, controlling its entire field, suddenly finds its business gone out the window—to a plastics maker who has a better idea. A better idea plus the means of spreading it.

And in that last phrase you have the whole secret of our protection against finding ourselves with rings through our noses.

There is a means, in America, of spreading news.

Let a public servant, no matter how sincere, be bested by a rank outsider with a better plan and the newspapers of America will tell you of it. The incumbent officeholder may want to stay in power. He may want to throttle his challenger, but he can't keep the news of the other fellow's plan from you!

Or let a self-satisfied manufacturer decide that you'll buy his brand and like it. A newcomer has the advertising columns of the newspapers open to him. If the newcomer's goods will stand the spotlight of comparison, the smug gentleman will soon hunt for a way to match or beat his new rival—to your advantage.

When you realize that it is your newspaper which stands between you and the loss of your right to know things, your paper takes on a new significance.

It is your newspaper which keeps all your leaders—in government, in education, in business—in direct competition with each other. It tells you what they're doing.

And may the best man win!

NOTE: The Newspaper Publishers Committee, composed of over 350 leading American Newspapers, publishes these messages simultaneously each week. The force which unites these newspapers is their recognition of their responsibility to you, the reader.

METHODIST CHURCH

E. L. Craig, Pastor
 The Sunday School at the Methodist Church begins each Sunday at 9:45 a. m. The Methodist Sunday School invites all of the town and community who are not in other Sunday Schools to attend with us. We offer you a most excellent opportunity to learn more about Christian living. At 10:50 the preaching service begins. The pastor will preach Sunday morning on the subject, "Sacrificial Christian Living". The public is cordially invited to hear this message. An excellent choir is bringing a fine musical feature of our services. Hear them and enjoy it. At 6:45 the Epworth League meets under the leadership of Mrs. J. C. Porter. At 7:30 p. m. the evening preaching service begins. At the evening hour the pastor will bring a message on this subject, "Beginning to Sink Spiritually."

Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Woman's Society of Christian Service meets. All women of the church are invited to attend this meeting and to work in this organization.

Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock the weekly prayer meeting begins. Promptly at 7:45 the choir rehearsal begins. All singers of the church are urged to come into the active choir work. You can thus contribute greatly to our services and at the same time get a good deal of helpful training in vocal music.

On Sunday, March 2, all Methodism will unite in making an emergency offering of $1,000,000.00 for emergency relief of these our sister nations' work in Europe, for relief of our sisters in England, and for religious work in the camps in the United States. Other denominations are in similar campaigns for the same purpose in our nation. The Baptist Church in Gatesville is preparing for such an offering in the near future. We who are so greatly blessed with peace and safety, certainly will be glad to make a sacrificial offering to our less fortunate brethren in war-torn Europe and Asia. Let us plan for a worthy offering from Gatesville Methodism.

THE METHODIST, JONESBORO

10.00 a. m. Sunday School.
 11:00 a. m. Preaching, Subject, "What Jesus Teaches About God".

Love." Illustrated with Stereopticon pictures. This is a part of our "Christ Centered Crusade". We hope you follow these footprints of Jesus all the way from Bethlehem to the ascension to his Father's throne, where he ever liveth to make intercession for the saints.

We appreciate the fine audience and attention at the evening service last Sunday at Ireland. The Stereopticon Pictures on the Life of Christ have been very much enjoyed by all. The pictures are to be shown in the churches but once, do not miss seeing them.
