Mrs. Harry Flentge Requests Funds For Democratic Party

March 10, 1941
I have recently received a letter from the Hon. George A. Butler, Chairman of the Jackson Day Committee of Texas, requesting that I undertake to aid in the annual drive for funds to pay off the deficit of the National Democratic Committee. The quota set for Texas is $50,000.00. All parties desiring to contribute in this Democratic Drive please leave their donations at the Gatesville Messenger or the Coryell County News.

It is my sincere hope that all good Democrats will contribute to this cause especially those who as democrats are now employed in some department of either the State or National Government. Let us as Texans raise our quota.

Mrs. Harry W. Flentge
Democratic National Committee-woman, 21st Senatorial District.

Educational Talks On ACP Program To Be Held

Educational meetings on the 1941 ACP Program, the Cotton Stamp Program and other phases of the Farm and Ranch Program will be held at the following school houses at 7:30 p. m. on the dates below:

Turnersville, Purnela and Maple, March 13; Coryell City, Harman, 14th; Oglesby and Levita, 17th; Ewing, Flat, 18th; The Grove Longview, Copperas Cove, 19th, Pearl and Plainview 20th.

WE "MIGHT" GET AN ARMY CAMP HERE IN CORYELL COUNTY: COMMITTEE WORKS

A possibility that Coryell County might get a big hunk of the defense program, if plans of authorities here, at Waco, San Antonio and Washington materialize. It's just that far away.

The story is: Waco Chamber of Commerce officials conferred with Gatesville Chamber of Commerce officials Saturday or Sunday after Army or War department officials had looked over a site in Coryell county and also in Bosque.

Local officials, including the City Council immediately got interested, and Joe Walker, H. K. Jackson, George Painter, Floyd Zeigler, Louis Thomson and Earl Nesbitt went to Waco to confer with the Chamber of Commerce there.

Yesterday morning, a mass meeting was called by the Chamber of Commerce of citizens of Gatesville and others who were in town, and it was voted unanimously to try to get the camp for this county if possible.

At a later meeting, called following the mass meeting Directors of the Chamber of Commerce named a committee composed of Dan McClellan, H. K. Jackson, Eiland Lovejoy and George Painter to contact officers in San Antonio for further details on the proposed camp, and its relation to Coryell county and Gatesville.

Briefly, as far as is known now, here's the lay-out for the camp. The War Department will require 75,000 to 100,000 acres of land, 3,000 level, presumably for the camp site, 5,000 to 8,000 broken territory and the remainder, might be called "various".

Land would be leased for as long as 25 years, with an option to buy. What the lease fee per acre would be is unknown. They'd like the camp adjacent to a railroad, with available water (underground) sufficient to furnish 3,000,000 gallons a day, 6-inch gas line, and power lines capable of furnishing 3,000 kilowatts of electricity.

The camp "would" be for mechanized units, and would carry approximately 30,000 men and be equal or better to Camp Bowie.

IT'S ALL A QUESTION

It is proposed, if Hitler continues his successes in Europe 15 similar camps will be built throughout the USA, and will be started by June 1, unless Adolf begins to have tough luck.

The site considered, would be in the vicinity of Coryell Creek, on both sides, in the rough country in and around there. Possibly some of it would be south of the highway, but the main part would be north. It would extend practically to Oglesby and within a few miles of Gatesville, Turnersville and other parts of the county.

City Secretary Eiland Lovejoy yesterday called Gordon Shook in San Antonio in an effort to arrange an appointment for the committee with Lieut. Col. E. E. Patrick, and Col. Finch, relative to the matter, but was unable to arrange the meeting for yesterday. It is possible some contact will be made with the officials before Thursday, and more news of interest will then be available.

FIRE DEMOLISHES MELBERN'S MILL: BURNS TWO TRUCKS FRIDAY NIGHT

Deadline for ACP Payment Applications Is March 31

March 31 has been set as the final date for application for payment under the 1940 Agricultural Conservation Program, and these must be signed and in the county offices by that date, according to the College Station AAA office.

This applies to payments for soil-building and range improvement work as well as regular payments under the conservation program.

No extension will be made and applicants who fail to meet the deadline will not receive payment.

Mrs. J. T. Warren of Dallas has been visiting her brother, J. K. Sasse, and family.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed almost completely Melbern's Mill, one block off the square on South 7th street Friday night about eleven o'clock, with damage or loss variously estimated at from $8,000 to $20,000.

When the fire alarm sounded, the building and contents were burning full blast, and, with a high wind, the entire structure was a seething mass of flame.

Good work by the fire boys prevented spread of the flames, and, with a slight change in the wind, a shower of rain, some of the contents were saved. The fact that the building was sheet iron, both confined the flames and made it a difficult fire to fight. Too, there were high voltage lines near the building which made it dangerous too.

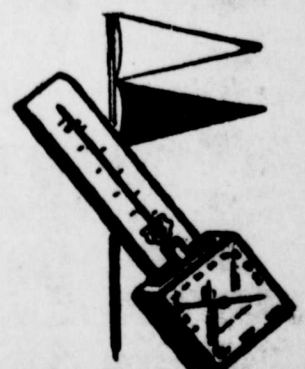

When the fire first started the doors were closed, and the two trucks that were inside the house burned partially, as it was impossible to remove them.

Mr. Melbern is a dealer in lumber, wool, mohair, farm implements, poultry, cream and eggs.

Salvage operations were underway soon after the fire was out, and no estimate has been made of the salvage recovery. No insurance was carried, it is said.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Bradford, Misses Maxine Dollins and Ruth Bradford spent Sunday in Mineral Wells.

Heres To All Baseball Managers

If your manager of one of the baseball teams of the county or was one last year here is some information for you. At the meeting Saturday very few showed up, but several entries have been sent in. If you have not come to the News office and given us your entry then come by any time during the next few days and give us your entry, and a few hints on how you think the league should be run. This is all very important because by the time we organize, and adopt a constitution it will be nearly time to start the league. In another week or two we will again call a special meeting and then adopt a constitution, elect officers, and make out a schedule. We would especially like to hear from baseball fans from the following places: Coryell City, Turnersville, Mound, Pearl, Pidcoke, Plainview, White Hall, Blackfoot, Jonesboro, Moshem and Flat. We have heard from managers of the Copperas Cove and Ireland teams.

The basketball season is over, and the County Meet is due to get in full swing at the end of this week. After then baseball will grab the spotlight. The entries in the Coryell County Baseball League are slowly coming in.

There are several towns in the county that should be able to support a baseball team that would be a winner. Such places as Ireland, Turnersville, Flat, Copperas Cove, Jonesboro, and Pearl should be able to have some fine teams. Jonesboro, Pearl and Turnersville were in the league last year and had some very impressive teams. Copperas Cove has sent in its entry for the league race. This is the first year that that team has entered.

Pidcoke, Blackfoot and Mound are three teams that have always been up at the top of the league standings. For the last two seasons the Pidcoke Cokers have won the title, and are expected to put another strong team on the field this year, but each season the Blackfoot and Mound teams have pressed the Cokers for the title. The Jonesboro Eagles captured the league championship with flying colors in '38.

The Baylor Bears open their Southwest Conference baseball season on March 27, in Houston by playing the Rice Owls. The Owls are scheduled to be one of the top teams in the race this year. The Texas Longhorns will be back to try and defend their title which they have held for many seasons in the past.

Golf, which is another sport which will find its way into this county, will also get under way soon. Track and softball are the other sports which will draw large crowds when they officially open.

This Happy Family Trades At Painter's. The Modern Store

They go straight to Painter's for everything they desire in a drygoods store. They always find what they want. They pay prices lower than elsewhere with quality considered. They saved enough money last year to pay their taxes and license on their car by paying cash at Painter's.

They did not take chances on buying from pictures and after receiving the merchandise it did not fit, they also saved the postage, neither did they get in their car and make a long trip to other towns, because they took one trip and they found prices higher, also had to pay for parking their car plus gasoline and other expenses that always cost extra.

And too, they enjoy trading at Painter's the modern store. Things are out where they can see and examine them with each item priced in plain figures, and they know Painter's only has one price.

They are served in the store by efficient and courteous salespeople who are citizens of Coryell County and Gatesville, they see them at church, school entertainments, picture shows and other social functions. This happy family knows the money they spend at Painter's goes back into the county and town to help pay the taxes for the future generation. Dear Wardie:

I been a practicin' ropin' all week. I'm a takin' Hitler and Mussolini, the two onneriest burros I got, down to that there Crystal C. Rodeo a Thursday, to show the boys a buckin' act. In between times, I'm a goin' to get some of that ropin' prize money.

Them spinach eaters is a havin' a rodeo both day and night. I done a lot of night ropin', but I didn't have any lights, and I was perty good even in the dark. They's been a lot of night ropin' in these parts in days gone by.

I'm a goin' to pile in with Doc Turk from Dryden when he comes through. He's a goin' to let my onnery burros ride in a trailer. Some of the neighbor boys from Comstock is a goin' too, and what I can't reach with a rope, they can. I'll meet you down there a Thursday mornin' jest before the peera-de and tell you where to lay yer foldin' money. I'm a goin' to be a bookie when that match ropin' starts. If I can corral a bunch of long green, I might ketch me a cowboy runnin' mate. I'm shore a goin' to leave the boy friend at home. He's jest too durn slow in that kind of company.

I'll be a seein' you at Crystal City, Pal.

Yourn,

LOONY LUCY

P. S.—Ever thing I hear is strikes. If Uncle Sam don't start to hit some of them pitches his defense program is a goin' to be called out on strikes. Lookin' at that $17,000,000,000 budget reminds me of a few years ago when F. D. R. said that raising a couple of billion to pay the soldier bonus would bankrupt the government. (L. L.)

Fire over England

An ALEXANDER KORDA Production

THE STORY TO DATE
Queen Elizabeth, threatened by the vast Armada, which King Philip of Spain is building to wipe England's fleet from the sea, is informed of a conspiracy against her in her own court. She sends young Michael Ingolby to Spain to learn the names of the conspirators by impersonating one of them who has been killed. Michael, eager to avenge his father's burning at the stake by the Inquisition, tears himself away from his sweetheart Cynthia, one of the Queen's maids-in-waiting, and sails for Spain.

Chapter Four

King Philip of Spain, the cold cunning, basilisk-like ruler of Europe's most powerful state, sat working in his chamber in the Escorial. Tonelessly, expressionless, he dictated dispatches and from time to time shivered under his ermine-trimmed cape.

Two suppliants for an audience were announced. One was Admiral Valdez, commander of the Armada. The other was a secret agent from England—Mr. Hilary Vane.

The King, having received the Admiral's report on the progress of preparations for the great onslaugt against the English, announced his decision.

"We are ready! The Armada sails a month from this day . . . if the Englishman confirms our hopes Admit Mr. Vane."

Michael entered and knelt before the King, the suave composure of his face hiding the wild uncertainty in his heart as he faced his crucial test.

"Get up, Mr. Vane, and deliver me your letters," growled His Majesty.

Michael's thoughts flew fast—faster than the beating of his heart. He knew that he was treading on ice paper-thin. The slightest misstep meant apprehension and horrible death.

"I am the letters, Sire. We dared not commit our plan to paper."

The King continued his interrogation; Michael answered, groping his way, parrying every question, striving desperately to say neither too little nor too much. Finally, asked point-blank as to the conspirators' plans for striking at England from behind, he improvised this plot: They would spirit away the Queen through a secret passage in the Palace, hold her prisoner in an empty house on the Essex marshes; and immediately the Armada was to attack.

Philip, in his grudging, crabbed way, indicated that he was satisfied with the report for the time being. He delivered the English emissary to the hospitality of Count Emanuel de Colmenar, Governor of the Palace, to await his return despatches to the conspirators in England.

Greeting Michael cordially, de Colmenar showed him about the sumptuous palace and grounds. He then presented his English guest to his wife, Michael looked at her and started in amazement. It was Elena, the lovely Spanish girl who had befriended him, nursed him back to health, and grown fond of him during his previous sojourn in Spain.

Elena greeted him coldly, giving no sign of recognition. Michael soon learned why Her beloved father, Don Miguel, had recently been killed by English privateersmen.

At dinner that evening Michael sat beside Elena as de Colmenar's guest. The company, which included many Spanish lords and ladies, was in high spirits, anticipating the imminent attack by the great Armada and the crushing of the English menace. Count de Vargas struck up a Spanish ballad, to the appreciation of every one except Michael.

"Your Spanish melodies," he remarked—"I find them disturbing. Our English songs are lighter."

"More heartless?" Elena asked meaningfully.

"That's a challenge," cried de Vargas gaily.

Spectacles designed primarily for night driving have now been placed on the market.

Comfort and Health New Shoes or Worn?

It has been estimated that most illness can be traced to one's feet, especially of late years when we walk very little and wear so many new shoes . . .

instead of having our well broken-in and worn ones repaired.

Don't swap that hard-earned comfort in your worn shoes for pinching pain and corn-growing new shoes. Let us repair that worn pair like new and YOU retain the broken-in comfort, insuring your health. No one will know they've been repaired but you, your feet and us.

PROHIBITION LOBBY ACTIVE

Prohibition, after being in the limbo for eight years, again has a potent lobby on Capitol Hill. The Women's Christian Temperance Union and other Dry organizations have launched their most intensive campaign since the one that put over the Eighteenth amendment during the last war.

And they are using the same tactics. Congress is being barraged with appeals to "protect" soldiers and sailors by prohibiting the sale of alcoholic beverages near military reservations. Simultaneously, the heat is being put on state legislatures to enact "local option" statutes.

The only thing new in the drive is its slogan. This time it's "Defend the Defenders."

The Dry campaign is well organized. In the last few weeks thousands of letters have poured in on congress. Some are written on W.C.T.U. stationery, but most are form letters signed by individuals obviously connected with Dry organizations.

FOREIGN PROPAGANDA

Postmaster General Frank Walker said nothing in his report to congress, but he has quietly taken steps to plug up the inflow of foreign propaganda via first-class mail.

Postal officials were able to seize and burn 15 tons of illegal literature under the authority that permits inspection of second and third-class matter without a search warrant. First-class mail, however, is immune from direct investigation, can be examined only on a search warrant.

Ordinarily this is a laborious proceeding. But thanks to the mass of matter that was seized, Walker found a way to simplify the job. From the seized material were obtained the names of hundreds of persons in all parts of the country who apparently are on Nazi, Fascist and Japanese propaganda lists.

Henceforth, under an order quietly issued by Walker, all foreign mail addressed to these individuals will be subject to a search warrant examination, and if found illegal will be destroyed.

Note—Walker wants congress to require that both the senders and receivers of foreign propaganda register their names. A considerable portion of the literature seized advocated violent overthrow of the government.

Vice President Henry Wallace has engaged a Spanish-speaking secretary to help him practice his Spanish. Wallace wanted someone who would be available at any moment—in the office, in the restaurant, in the handball court. So he turned down a handsome feminine applicant from the Mexican embassy, took a man instead.

ORATOR VANDENBERG

Genial Sen. Arthur Vandenberg is one of the most effective orators in the senate. His mind is alert, and he has a command of phrases that makes the galleries lean forward to hear him.

When he had delivered his major effort against the lease-lend bill, he retired to the cloak room, lit a cigar, and leaned back in an upholstered chair. One of his colleagues congratulated him on the speech.

With a mischievous twinkle, Vandenberg replied: "I could have delivered just as strong a speech on the other side."

Senatorial loungers looked up, and Vandenberg added: "I could recite 50 unanswerable reasons why the bill should be passed."

TENANT FARMERS

The President is not losing sight of domestic problems in the welter of foreign affairs—and recently kept his very precise undersecretary of state, Sumner Welles, waiting an hour while he threshed out a farm relief problem.

Representatives John Tolan of California and John Sparkman of Alabama had called to protest against a $25,000,000 cut in farm rehabilitation loans, a cut made by the budget bureau in the agriculture department appropriation.

The conference was supposed to last 15 minutes, but Roosevelt forgot all about the time, became completely engrossed in the "economic shock" to be felt by tenant farmers and migrants after defense spending has tapered off. Meanwhile Welles cooled his heels in an outer office.

Finally the two congressmen emerged. They were beaming about the President's promise to have the farm relief cut restored.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

Able young Rep. Charley Halleck of Indiana, who nominated Wendell Willkie at Philadelphia, broke with him on the lend-lease bill, voting against it.

Minnesota's husky Gov. Harold Stassen is finding no support among friends of District Attorney Tom Dewey for his presidential ambitions. They claim Stassen had committed himself to Dewey before the Philadelphia convention, and nurse a grudge because of his flop to Willkie.

No news is BAD news

NORMAN CHANDLER

SUPPOSE for twenty years you were walled off from the world. Hearing no news, seeing no change, feeling no beat of the public pulse.

Suppose, then, that you were released into the world of 1941. And you were suddenly asked to decide which make of streamlined car to buy, what make of radio or refrigerator to choose. Suppose you were asked to vote for Jones or Brown; to support or oppose some social-security measure.

I know of such a pitiful case. It is the case of a young man raised in Communist Russia, who found himself a prisoner of war in Finland and, later, an escapee to America.

You can imagine his confusion of mind, his mistakes and then his delights in his new-found freedom.

Do you think it was Russia which had imprisoned his mind for all those years? Nothing of the sort. It was lack of news. His own country's newspapers did not consider him capable of making decisions for himself. Therefore, since the Russian government could not afford cars and refrigerators and the luxury of free elections, he was never told that such things existed!

Almost as common as "How are you?" is the expression "What's new?" in America. We take news—all kinds of news—for granted. Because we have it, we place no great value on it. It is all around us, on every newsstand, in every mailbox. It is even broadcast by newspapers and others who use the radio to give us a flash a few minutes or hours before the substance of the news can get into type and into our hands.

True, Russia, Germany and defeated France have news—of a sort. But it is not the sort which is calculated to make a free man capable of thinking and acting for himself. It's the hearts-and-flowers kind of news; phony, sticky, lying propaganda. Coldly calculated to fan hates, curb thoughts, make men into docile oxen.

We want no such "news" in America. We want no heavy-handed government controlling our news, feeding us what some official thinks is good for us or for himself.

My Russian friend told me once: "I heard, a long time ago, that there were places in the world where people voted for whomever they pleased, where there were two or more political parties and many stores offering their wares in competition. I wondered then why such things were allowed because I knew they weren't good—only communism was good. That is what our papers all said: only communism was good."

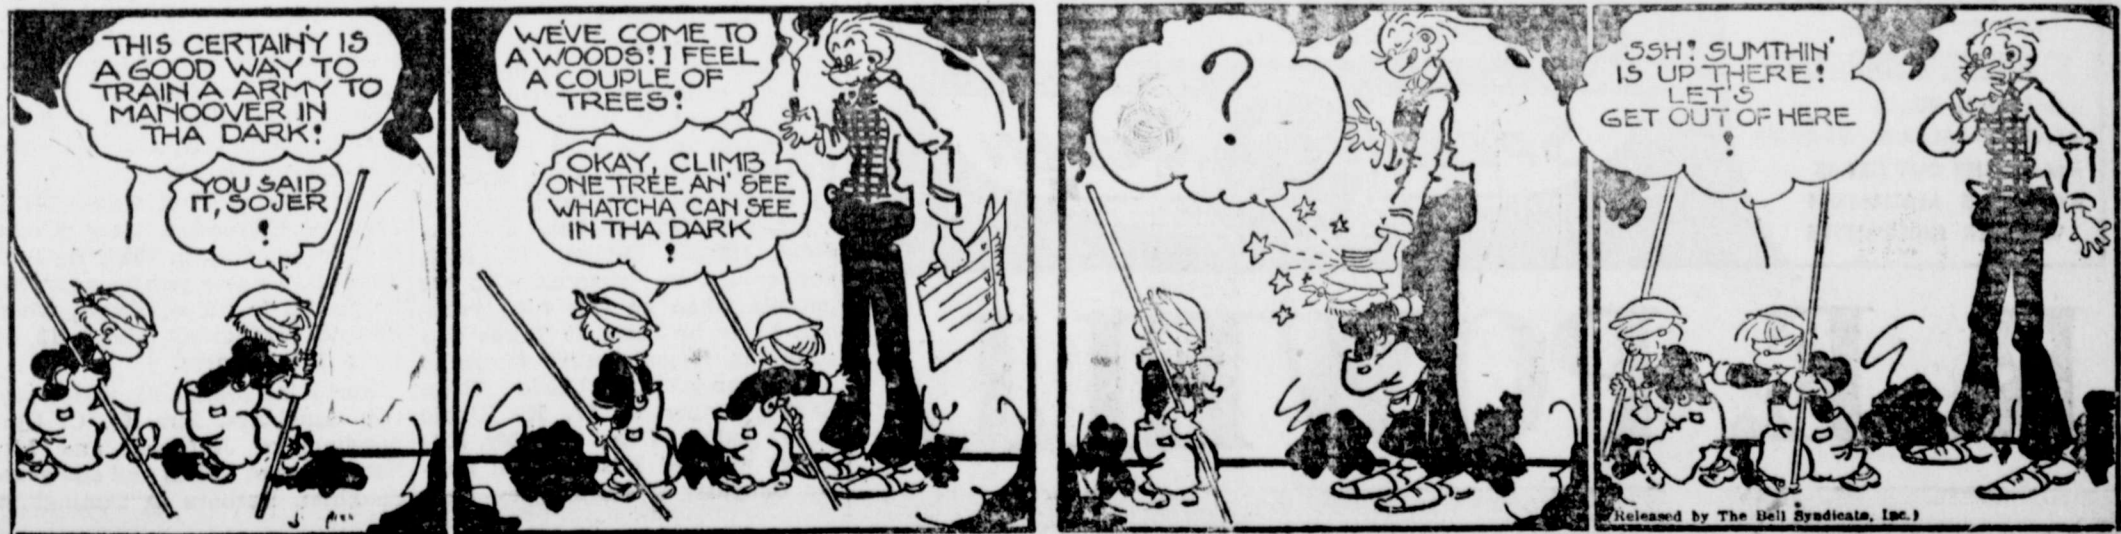

I hope you and I never live to see that sort of newspapers in America.

"Julie (with the Great VIRGIL) was a positive sensation. Whether she really reads minds or not I cannot say, nor can anyone else, but, she collected no questions. She is the first mentalist I have ever seen who could while blindfolded and without any previous contact or information call people throuth the audience by name, describe them, answer their questions, and apparently tell them their exact thoughts at the moment of mental contact with them."

The entire show will go on at the city auditorium Saturday nite, March 22. It's a show you should not miss.
