TEMPLE CITY OFFICIAL WANTS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FLOAT

Among the 10,000 people that were in Gatesville for the parade were some city officials from Temple, Texas. These men were what you might say "Carried away" with the Chamber of Commerce's float that was entered in the Rodeo Parade. They also stated that they would like very much to have this float entered in their celebration on the 28th, for on that day Temple will be celebrating their 60th birthday as a city.

A meeting will be called to decide if it will be sent or not. (We see no reason why it shouldn't go).

G. D. Nolte took his mother to Marlin Tuesday where she will undergo treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Arnold and son were visitors last week end in Tahoka.

Ted Liljedahl is in Dallas where he is undergoing treatment and examination for an eye trouble.

DAIRY MONTH

"Dairy Month" doesn't necessarily mean for dairies only. It means, dairy products, milk, butter, cream, ice cream, cheese, canned milk, pasturized, dried, and all kinds of milk and milk products.

This month, the National Dairy Products Association, composed of every branch of the dairying industry is calling your attention to dairy products, and giving them national publicity.

Coryell produces plenty of dairy products, and dairy products mean much to us all.

$40 For Half Hour! Better Than CIO-AFL Gal's Parade Pays

Well, we'd call it "ain't bad, ain't bad!"

Eighty bucks an hour is the rate paid Mrs. Weldon Mitchell of Adamsville, No. 13 when she and her horse paraded before some judges here yesterday. The judges, of course, will remain incognito, or else. Mrs. Mitchell was First Prize Winner in the parade sponsored by Gatesville Merchants as a second day feature of the fifth Rodeo and Frontier Celebration.

No. 18, Frankie Mae Blair, took second dough of $25. She's a Gatesville - Liberty girl.

No. 3, Mrs. Curtis Barron of Cameron, was third with $10.

Honorable mention went to this four: Mrs. Ted Powers, Gatesville; Mrs. Cecil Newton, Pidcoke; Mrs. Glenn Williamson, Pidcoke, and Virginia Burleson, "Box 417", that's the State Juvenile Training School.

Huddleston Says "I Wanna Come Home" In Wire

A telegram was received from State representative Earl Huddleston from Austin, advising he was ready for the Legislature to adjourn and come home.

Here's the telegram: Austin, Texas June 4, 1941

Earl Huddleston is in favor of adjourning the legislature as soon as possible. Please state in your paper that I am voting to adjourn the Legislature as soon as possible. Think this is for the best interest of the entire state.

Earl Huddleston.

PLAY PUT OFF AT SCHLEY: WILL BE PLAYED TONIGHT

Rain washed out the proposed play which was scheduled to be held at Schley School, according to W. T. Brumbalow, and will be presented tonight at Schley school. It is under the direction of Mrs. Esteen Williams.

A complete cast of Schley folks are in the play, and patrons and the general public are all urged to come. There'll be other items of special interest, including numbers by the rythm band.

10,000 ATTEND OPENING PARADE "FIRST NIGHTER" CROWD ENJOYS FASTER SHOW

Beautiful and cleverly dressed floats marked opening day parade. It was estimated that around 10,000 people attended the galor opening of Gatesville's Frontier Celebration. The local Red Cross float was awarded first prize of $12.50, Painter's second, and The National Bank third. Entry made by Chamber of Commerce was not eligible for prize but was among the nicest entered.

The "First Nighters" at the Rodeo really got a taste of the REAL OLD WEST as the action started off with a bang and the well planned and timed show entertained the nearly 4,000 people to the Nth degree. The turf still a little damp from Tuesday's rains did little in slowing up the herd of tough hombres that were competing for the juicy prizes offered. So fast were the field of performers that records and champions held little edge over the others.

Gatesville's own Mounted Quadrill was beautifully executed by its fancy garbed riders and spirited horses. More color was added to the drill by C. H. Wallace who cleverly called the old fashioned Square Dance. Gatesville should feel mighty proud of this group of people for they have done much in advertising the town and community since they have appeared in many shows throughout the state.

Mr. Colborn's famous rodeo stock seems to be wilder than ever and the show should get rougher as it progresses. Be sure and plan to attend this swell CLEAN show if you don't you'll be the looser—remember last performance is Saturday night.

METHODIST REVIVAL OPENS SUNDAY MORNING JUNE 8: REV. NEAL PREACHES

The Reverend T. Edgar Neal, pastor of Arlington Heights Methodist Church, and pastor of the Methodist Church here a few years ago, will be the visiting preacher at the revival which begins next Sunday morning, June 8, at the Methodist Church. Rev. Neal is most favorably thought of by the citizens of this town, and is in great demand for help in revivals; this church is very fortunate to be able to secure his service through the next two weeks.

Leading the choir in the music will be the Reverend W. C. Craig, pastor of the Lakeview Methodist Church of Waco. Rev. Mr. Craig is a pastor with much experience in leading music for revivals, and the church is fortunate again in being able to get him for this meeting. The Methodist choir, assisted by any singers of the town who will help, will furnish a most delightful musical program. This is an invitation to the singers of the other denominations to come into the choir and join in the singing during the meeting.

While this is a revival sponsored by the Methodist Church, is the purpose of this church to make it town and community wide in its influence and helpfulness. They are asking for and inviting the hearty cooperation and attendance of all the people of the town and surrounding communities. They want to be religiously helpful to any to whom they may minister, and invite you to call upon them for any spiritual help they may be able to give. They invite you to enter into this revival with the purpose of seeking God for your spiritual help, and to use all available help they can give you in it. Tell your friends, and bring them with you to the services.

Services will begin at 8:30 in the morning and will last not more than one hour. The evening services will begin at 7:45. Come early to the evening service and enjoy the music for twenty minutes.

"BEST MAY IN 43 YEARS" SAYS GATESVILLE MERCHANT

And that's something! That's something to even be in business 43 years, much less to have the best May in that many years.

That's the record for Byron Leaird Sr., according to his own statement yesterday morning.

Now, anybody that can say that, like Postom, "There must be a reason", and certainly, that record deserves congratulations, and here is ours for Mr. Leaird.

HIS STOCK HERE

EVERETT E. COLBORN

Everett E. Colborn, known in the rodeo world from Timbuctoo to Tin Pan Alley is in Gatesville with his rodeo stock which has played Madison Square Garden, New York, Boston, and all the other "big time" rodeo shows.

This means only, that you're not seeing a "jerk-water" town show, or one of the "tank town" shows, no Siree, it's really the McCoy.

No other Rodeo stock carries as much weight with it in the entire continent. If you've seen it once, don't stop, see it again. It changes each night, and again, it's the world's finest.

RITZ THEATRE NOW IS "SPANISHIZED": A RIOT OF COLOR!

The new and better Ritz Theatre in keeping with its name, is really putting on the "Ritz."

Under the direction of Mrs. Howard Key, the Ritz has taken on new life, new "hotcha" and new "sound". In fact, as has always been the case, The Ritz is a real reeler of good shows. And, too, it's air-conditioned.

Folks "in the biz" know, 'tis necessary to occasionally life the front of a show, and this just a "Brown" habit that has been long established.

If th' farmers ever do git back on their feet I'll bet they think twice 'fore they ask Congress fer relief agin.

A bathin' suit is a costume with no books on it but plinty o' eyes.

THEY ain't innu doubt but what this Feller boy, Bobby, o' th' Cleveland Indians is a pretty fair chunker. As a matter o' fact I wud go so fer as t' say he has th' best chance a pitcher has ever had t' go down in history along with th' best th' gain ever had.

— 00000 —

But, as good as Feller is, he has a long ways t' go yit 'fore he knocks sum other naims out o' th' record book. I don't figger he kin hope t' better Jack Chesbro's mark o' 41 gaims wun what has stood since 1904. Winnin' 41 gaims in one season is jist natchilly pitchin' that horsehide.

— 00000 —

Cy Young, Christy Mathewson, Walter Johnson an' Grover Cleveland Alexander captured 28 or more gaims three yeers hand runnin' an' they is toutin' Feller t' be th' fifth man t' turn th' trick. Odds favor him t' do this.

— 00000 —

But, there is Jack Coombs' record o' 13 shutout gaims in 1910, Doc White's five in a row an' Walter Johnson's 56 consecutive scoreless innings. An', Sir Walter led th' American League in strikeouts fer 12 long yeers. Feller has ten yeers yit t' go t' even tie this mark.

— 00000 —

Yep, this Indian fireball boy is good but th' publicity he gits maiks him 'peer lots better than he is. They didn't depind so much on publiciv back in Mathewson's day t' git folks out t' ball gaims.

— 00000 —

An', while I is on th' subject, Feller has sum other records standin' what'll be moughty tuff t' beat. Th' odds is 1,000 t' 1 he'll never pitch 26 innings in ONE gaim like Leon Cadore dune fer Brooklyn in 1920. I say th' odds is 1,000 t' 1. Gosh, ya kin maik it 10,000 t' 1 an' be saif. An' I don't figger Feller will pitch 464 innings in one season like Big Ed Walsh dune fer th' White Sox back in 1908. That's jist 'bout 52 full nine-innin' gaims o' pitchin'.

An', 'nother record Feller will have a tuff time breakin' will be win persantage o' .938 in one season what was set by Johnny Allen o' Cleveland in 1937 whin he wun 15 gaims an' lost only 1. But, I guess th' best record fer this was whin Bob Grove wun 31 an' lost 4 in 1931.

— 00000 —

Denton "Cy" Young pulled a stunt back in 1904 what ain't ever bin equalled an' will be 'nother task fer Feller. Cy pitched 23 consecutive innings without allowin' a single hit.

— 00000 —

Whin it cums t' earned run average fer a season Bobby will really have t' step on it t' beat a mark set by Ferdie Schupp o' th' Nue York Giants whin he allowed only 0.90 runs per gaim fer 30 gaims. That's really keepin' th' score down I'd say.

— 00000 —

An' John Vander Meer o' Cincinnati twirled two consecutive games in 1938 without allowin' a single hit. Two no-hit gaims in a row. That's a tuff one fer Feller t' knock over.

— 00000 —

Due t' th' lively ball we has now it'll be dern neer impossible fer Bobby t' do what Bill White dune fer Cincinnati back in 1879. He pitched 75 complete gaims in one season. Christy Mathewson twirled 56 complete gaims fer th' Giants in 1908.

— 00000 —

While Feller is yit a youngster, it's also very doubtful if he kin break th' record fer most yeers leadin' leag in gaims wun set by Grover Cleveland Alexander. Ole Pete dune it six yeers.

— 00000 —

Smokey Joe Wood wun sixteen consecutive gaims fer Boston in 1912, which is sumthin' else fer Bobby t' shoot at. An' whin it cums t' shutout gaims, Alexander pitched 16 in 1916 fer Philadelphia.

— 00000 —

Feller walks quite a fue batters, so I guess Mathew's record o' 68 innings without walkin' a single batter will still be safe fer awhile.

Yep, Bobby is a fine pitcher, but whin ya pick up th' ole record book you'll find he's got sum moughty great performances on th' mound t' beat 'fore we kin call him th' greatest.

Pidcoke-Cove Contest To Be At Cop. Cove

The Pidcoke Cokers will meet the strong Copperas Cove baseball nine Sunday on the latter's home field. In the last meeting of the two teams the Cove bested the Cokers on a mud field, but both teams will likely meet on a dry field Sunday.

Edd Fritz is likely to toe the mound for the Cove, while Manager Emmett Gotcher will make up the other end of the battery from behind the bat. Knox Trammell will probably go to the box for the Cokers, while either Porter or Mike Bratton will do the catching.

This game will have a great effect upon the league standing, and if the Cokers win, it will throw the league standing into a close three way race, whereas if the Cove wins they will still have full command of the league.

son, and has not played all games scheduled, but last week they defeated the State Training School team, and if they had this much power they will probably make it hot for the visiting Indians.

At the last meeting of these two teams the Indians won over the Cards, but both nines have greatly improved, and it will be a real test to see which has made the greater improvement.

Indians Take Game From Cokers 5-4

The Blackfoot Indians kept up their second place pace in the county league Sunday when they took a 5 to 4 decision over the Pidcoke Cokers at Pidcoke.

Going into the last inning the Cokers took the lead by scoring four runs, but the Indians came back in their half of the frame to win the game by the close score of 5 to 4.

The win kept the Indians out in front of the Cokers and also put them just one game behind the pace setting Copperas Cove nine.

The Indians will go to Ireland for their Sunday's contest, while the third place Cokers will go to Copperas Cove to tangle with the league leaders.

Indians-Cards Meet Sunday At Ireland

The Blackfoot Indians will travel to Ireland Sunday, where they will meet the Ireland Cards in a county league contest. The Indians had possession of the league earlier in the season, but when the Copperas Cove nine hit their stride they took over the lead by capturing a twin-bill from the Indians.

Jack Barton will do the hurling for the Indians, while Pierce Richards will be behind the bat for the Blackfoot nine. The Ireland nine has been on and off all sea-

The Pidcoke Cokers and the Copperas Cove baseball nine will play the feature game of the county league Sunday when they meet on the Cove diamond. The Cove nine is now leading the league by a one game margin over the 2nd place Blackfoot Indians.

If the Cokers win it will probably throw the league into a two way tie, but is the Cove wins it will leave the last issue to be decided between the Indians and the Cove.

The other game of the county league will take place at Ireland where the second place Blackfoot Indians meet the Cardinals in an important contest. If the Indians win they will tighten their hold on the second place position in the league standing, but if the Cards take the contest it will probably show the up coming strength of the Cards.

Beautiful roses were placed at vantage points about the rooms. In the dining room, the table was laid with a lovely lace cloth, and at one end of the table was the crystal punch bowl and at the opposite end was a beautiful arrangement of Queen Anne's lace and roses.

THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

Friend, are you interested in some good recipes? Here are some that have been tried and tested and proved to be workable by centuries of human experience. Try them!

To Be Forgiven
 The Alien Sinner: "Repent ye and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ, unto the remission of your sins." (Acts 2:38).

The Erring Child of God: "Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy heart be forgiven thee." (Acts 8:22).

To Cover Up Sin
 "If any among you err from the truth, and one convert him: let him know, that he who converteth a sinner from the error of his way, shall save a soul from death, and shall cover a multitude of sins." (James 5:19,20).

To Be A Disciple
 "Bear much fruit; and so shall ye be my disciples." (Jno. 15:8).

For a Long, Happy Life
 "He that would love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile: and let him turn away from evil, and do good; let him seek peace and pursue it." (1 Pet. 3:19,11).

"Honor thy father and mother—that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth." (Eph. 6:2).

Neighbor, we urge you to try these recipes for your own good. Don't you believe the word of God? Then give it a chance to make your life clean and acceptable to God who made you.

TURNERSVILLE AND PRAIRIE VIEW CHURCHES HAVE NEW MINISTER

Mr. J. Donald Norton, student in Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary, has taken up residence in Turnersville to devote full time leadership to the Unity Presbyterian Church of that community, and the Prairie View Community Church.

This arrangement is the result of the hopes and plans of a year or more, and the evidence of potential growth in the work. Mr. Norton has been secured for the summer months, but it is hoped that the arrangement can be made a permanent thing.

Plans for the summer for the two churches include an evangelistic meeting and a Vacation Bible School in both places. The School at Turnersville will be conducted in cooperation with the other denominations.

Mr. Norton will preach on the first and third Sundays, both morning and evening, at Turnersville; and on the second and fourth Sundays, morning and evening, at Prairie View. Sunday School meets at both churches every Sunday at 10:00 a. m., and mid-week worship as announced.

Washington, D. C.
BOMBER OUTPUT

Though not announced by the White House, two impelling factors were behind the President's sensational letter to Secretary Stimson asking for an immediate increase in the monthly output of bombers.

One was the obvious need of providing Britain with more and bigger planes to carry the offensive to Germany. Second, known only to inside authorities, was intelligence information that the Nazis are increasing the bomber force of their Luftwaffe. The reports are that the German air force now consists of the following:

Six main air fleets, each comprising 1,000 bombers, 625 fighters and 75 reconnaissance planes, a total of 10,200. Also there is an independent air unit of 2,750 planes, a naval air service of 1,000, an operational training unit of 650, and a transport organization of 3,500 planes. In addition to these first-line ships, is a reserve of 12,000 others, plus 5,000 trainers and transports.

Grand total: About 35,000 planes. German airplane production capacity is estimated at 3,000 planes a month, including about 500 bombers. However, except for bombers, Germany is not now using her full production capacity as she doesn't need that many new planes a month.

OUR DEMOCRACY ——— by Mat

AMERICAN SHIPBUILDING

SCHOONER

CLIPPER

FIRST STEAMBOAT

AMERICAN ACHIEVEMENTS ALL.

FIRST STEAMSHIP TO CROSS THE OCEAN

AS IN THE DAYS OF HAND-HEWING WITH THE ADZE, SO NOW IN THE TIME OF THE ACETYLENE WELDER — WHENEVER SHIPS HAVE BEEN NEEDED, AMERICANS HAVE UP AND BUILT THEM FAST AND WELL.

Nazi March production is estimated at 2,200 ships of all types, but only 1,600 in April. In May, however, Intelligence reports are that Nazi plane production is being stepped up to replace Balkan and North African losses.

Reports are vague about what the Nazis are doing with the nine government and eleven private aircraft plants in France, most of them located in the occupied zone; also regarding the eight Dutch factories, including the Fokker works, and the seventeen Belgian plants.

These plants have large potential producing capacity, but best information is that the Nazis are stripping them of their machine tools and other equipment. How much this will boost the Nazis' 3,000 planes a month is only a guess.

U. S. Goal.

Weakest link in German plane production is aluminum. From captured planes, the British estimate that the Nazis use about 500 pounds of this vital metal per ship. The American average is 5,000 pounds. The undisclosed bomber goal of 1941 to which Roosevelt referred in his letter to Stimson, is 600 a month.

The four new assembly plants in Omaha, Tulsa, Kansas City and Fort Worth should produce about 300 bombers a month. To double their output it will be necessary to build and equip at least as many new plants, plus taking over an increased ratio of automobile and other plant facilities to turn out the necessary parts.

The letter which OPM Director General Knudsen sent auto makers that they will have to hold down their 1942 car production to 78.5 per cent of this year's output, is considered only a beginning. Insiders predict that there will be another big cut soon.

LATIN ADMIRALS

The state department scored a ten-strike when it finally persuaded the navy to invite the chiefs of Latin American navies to visit the United States. The junket definitely carried weight. For the United States navy, without any ifs, ands or buts, is the most powerful in the world, and the thing that counts in South America today is the belief that this country can really ward off Nazi invasion.

Behind the scenes, the man who helped most to dress the stage for Latin American admirals was Johnny Thomason, better known for his prolific pen portraits of the marines (Red Pants, Fix Bayonets, Jeb Stuart, Salt Winds and Gobi Dust).

Thomason, now a colonel in the marines, had served in Latin America, knew the importance of the admirals' visit. Other U. S. brass hats didn't. Admiral Harold Stark, chief of naval operations, fumed and fretted, only wanted to show the Good Neighbors a few East coast stations. At this point Johnny Thomason remarked: "This visit is giving you a pain in the neck. How about letting me take it over?"

Thomason insisted that the trip was important enough to do it right, demanded more entertainment money from the White House and got it. At first he worked on the idea of meeting the admirals with U. S. cruisers at Barranquilla, Colombia, taking them out to the mid-Atlantic to view the U. S. naval patrol at work. This was given up as too long, and a coast-to-coast inspection of U. S. naval stations was substituted.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

The G.O.P.-controlled Kansas legislature hit Rep. Jack Houston, long Kansas Democrat, with everything but the waterbucket in gerrymandering his district, but he takes it philosophically. "When a salesman makes good on the job," he says with a grin, "his territory is increased."

U. S. military intelligence places the number of German panzer divisions at not over 20 out of a total of 260 divisions.

Chapter Four

When "The Marionette Man" closed, Claudette Colbert decided to seek acting experience in stock companies. She applied for a job to Jessie Bonstell, one of the most famous stock producers whose companies have been the school for many of the theatre's great.

Her eagerness made an impression and Miss Bonstell asked her what salary she expected. Claudette still laughs at the recollection of her answer "I had been told that stock players had to buy their own wardrobe. So I spoke right up.

"I want two hundred dollars a week" I said with a perfectly straight face.

"I have never heard anyone laugh more heartily than Miss Bonstell when she heard that. It was five minutes before she could control herself enough to explain that the usual salary for stock jobbing was thirty-five or forty dollars a week. She was nice about it though, and explained that she couldn't use me at any price."

In less than two weeks, however, Claudette received a phone call. It was from Miss Bonstell. Katherine Alexander was leaving the cast of "Leah Kleshna" and she could use Miss Colbert for the role. Could Miss Colbert come down to the office and talk it over?

Miss Colbert could. And she did. Claudette was walking on a r. She was going into a great company; Arnold Daly! William Faversham! Lowell Sherman! Helen Gahagan! Jose Rubin . . . and Claudette Colbert! One of the greatest thrills of her life came when she first saw her name on the billing in front of the theatre.

What did it matter that her name was the last on the list, and in type much smaller than anyone else? It was there. That was the important thing!

She played ten wonderful weeks with "Leah Kleshna." After the run in Detroit, they moved on to Chicago. It was during the Chicago engagement that Claudette met Leslie Howard who gave her a letter to Al Woods, then a noted New York producer.

Woods gave her a part in "The Cat Came Back" which opened and closed in Chicago. It ran long enough, though, to convince Woods that he had a potential star in the little French girl. He gave her the lead in "A Kiss in A Taxi" which came into New York with Claudette's name twinkling in lights in front of the theatre as the featured player. The critics praised her work and Woods promptly placed her under a five year contract.

There followed a rapid succession of plays which, while they left no lasting impression on the theatrical scene, did serve to establish Miss Colbert as a featured player of distinction.

The producer and his star almost came to an open break when he wanted her to play the lead in his new play, "Crime." Miss Colbert wanted to do a play for the Selwyns called, "The Barker." She had read both plays, liked "The Barker" and did not like "Crime." She told Woods she wouldn't play "Crime" because it was not a good part for her.

"You're crazy," Woods shouted. "It's a great part! A star-making part! Go ahead, play 'The Barker'! I'll take an unknown girl, put her in 'Crime' and make her famous!"

Woods found his unknown and placed her in the role. She was a sensation. Her name was Sylvia Sidney.

Claudette wasn't wrong though, about the merits of "The Barker."

It did as much for her as "Crime" did for Miss Sidney. It established her as a star. It was during the run of the play, too, that she met and married Norman Foster who was playing opposite her in "The Barker."

"The Barker" went to London and Claudette scored another triumph there. When she returned she was showered with motion picture contracts which she steadfastly refused. She had made one silent picture while working for Woods and didn't like it at all. It was called "For The Love Of Mike" and, by an odd coincidence, it was directed by a young man named Frank Capra, just then starting his career as a director.

Some years later it was in Frank Capra's Columbia picture, "It Happened One Night," that Miss Colbert's performance won the award of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

But back in 1929 the screen was just learning to talk. Claudette's interest was aroused. The new medium offered unlimited means of expression. So she listened to the offers of he movie magnates.

Lamesa, Texas—On the morning of May 6th in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hardie the death angel came and carried away the mother and sister, grandmother and aunt, Mrs. J. W. Bankston.

The funeral was conducted by the Methodist pastor and also assisted by the Baptist preacher, the Rev. A. Loper. Mrs. Ed Hardie was her only child. She was loved by all and will be greatly missed. She has made several visits to Dawson county for the last ten years to see her sister and niece, Mrs. J. H. Adkins and family, also Mrs. J. J. Childers. She was seventy-eight years old. Her husband preceded her in death 16 years. She was laid to rest by her husband at Turnersville cemetery.

Besides the Hardie family, those present were a brother, sister, niece and a nephew, Francis Adkins from Dawson county, also Donald Gene Adkins and many other nephews and nieces, and a great host of friends.

We know she has gone to be with Jesus and his loved ones. She had been a Christian for many years.
