Spring fever is caused by th' iron in yer blood turnin' t' lead in yer pants.

'Bout th' only birds what ain't never criticized fer what they do is th' ones what never do innytthing.

I WINT over t' th' nashunal golf tournamint bizniss in Ft. Wurth last week an' run int' a ole friend I ain't seen in several years. He is th' greatest baishball player Texas ever sint t' th' major leags an' besides bein' one o' th' gaim's finest players, has bin a credit t' baishball by his conduct on an' off th' field durin' his entire career.

I refer t' one Tristram E. Speaker, born at Hubbard City, Texas, April 4, 1888, makin' th' Grey Eagle now 53 years ole. Tris is now connected with th' Rotary Electric Steel Company o' Cleveland, Ohio, an' cum down t' Texas t' see th' golfers perform an' visit his friends in Texas.

Spoke is quite a golfer. It's a funny thing that he is left-handed in all other sports he has took up 'cept golf. He sed whin he first played th' gaim in Little Rock, Ark., they wasn't inny left-handed clubs 'round so he used a right-handed set an' has bin playin' that way ever since.

Tris is one o' th' fue ball players elected t' th' Hall o' Fame. He received th' Chalmers Award in 1912. He led th' American Leag in battin' in 1916. He played in 100 or more gaims 19 consecutive years. Holds recurd fer two-base hits American Leag with 793. He maid 35 assists as outfielder in 1909 an' 1912.

Tris started his professional baishball career for Cleburne in th' North Texas Leag back in 1906. He 'wusn't so hot as a hitter down in Johnson County, but he fielded fer .979 an' Houston o' th' Texas Leag signed him up in 1907. He got so hot at Houston that th' Boston Red Sox took him 'fore th' 1907 season closed. He played in 7 gaims fer Boston an' was a big flop. Batted .158. Boston sint him t' Little Rock.

Things looked kinda bad fer th' Hill County boy at this stage o' th' gaim, but Spoke bowed his neck an' batted .350 an' fielded .967 in th' Southern Leag town an' Boston took him back 'fore th' 1908 season closed an' kept him fer seven years whin he was sold t' Cleveland in 1915 fer $50,000 an' two players. He played with Cleveland until 1927. He was manager o' th' Indians from 1919 t' 1926 an' wun th' world serious in 1920.

Tris ended his baishball career as manager o' Newark in 1930 an' th' recurd books show he batted .419 that year, th' best he ever dune. But, th' recurd book also shows Spoke played in only 11 gaims, wint t' bat 31 times an' got 13 safeties. Not bad at that fer a ole boy 42 years ole.

Yep, Tris was th' greatest outfielder th' gaim has ever had. It was uncanny like th' way he jidged fly balls. He started with th' crack o' th' bat an' was generally right there on th' spot whin th' ball cum down. Durin' his 25 years playin' ball he only maid 224 errors. His lifetime fieldin' average was .970 an' he maid 6,751 put outs. His lifetime battin' average was .345.

Yep, ole Tris was quite a ball player. We set there in th' clubhouse at Ft. Wurth an' talked 'bout th' good ole days. We talked 'bout th' party Tris throwed in his Cleveland hotel rooms after th' last gaim o' th' 1920 world serious. After I telegraphed my story t' th' Dallas Nues, we celebrated. I bet I drunk four glasses o' champagne water. Tris was also very much in love then an' in 1925 he married Frances Cudahy, a swell gal.

T'day Tris is still popular wherever he goes. Th' nuespaper boys all like him. He was never high hat. He loves boys an' dogs an' horses. He is always a gentleman. Texas kin well be proud o' Tristram E. Speaker from Hill County.

Why not join the ranks of "freed" Hydra-Matic drivers! Hydra-Matic, remember, is been with L. B. Brown of the Regal Theatre here.

Last Sunday at Copperas Cove the one and only, Ed Fritz really got down to business and pitched his mates to a 3-0 win over the strong Pidcoke Cokers. Not only did Mr. Fritz pitch a great game but did as much hitting as any of his mates. It is very seldom that you will find a great pitcher that is also a great hitter but this Ed Fritz is one. Bub Adams and Leroy Fritz also helped greatly with their timely hitting and the whole team was clicking for it was their day to win.

Don't let it be said that Pidcoke didn't try for they had a swell team on the field and played hard behind the effective pitching of Gatesville's Sonny Hair. The score indicates that the game was a thriller and quite a number of people greatly enjoyed the afternoon and are looking forward to the next meeting of these two teams.

There has been a number of inquiries as to whether there will be a Softball league in Gatesville or not this year. As far as I know there has nothing definite decided as to whether there will or won't be. I think there are two or three teams ready to get going now especially mgr. Red White.

He has already got most of his team lined up and is rearing to get started. The NYA and local CCC camp have also stated that they would like to enter such a league and of course the Fireboys would probably enter as would many others. We see no reason why Gatesville shouldn't have this league as it would supply the people of the city with good, clean entertainment.

Any comment for or against this issue would be appreciated by the News office.

Life of
CLAUDETTE COLBERT STAR OF
The Married Her Boss
by AL DUFFY
BY ARRANGEMENT WITH COLUMBIA PICTURES

Chapter Six

With her star in the ascendancy, Claudette Colbert has definitely transferred her affections from New York to California. She has only recently completed a beautiful new home in Beverly Hills and she is making her plans to stay in California.

"Do I miss New York?" Claudette gazes out through the french windows in the living room of her new home. "Ye-e-es. Sometimes I have a great yearning to be back there. I become terribly lonesome for Broadway. Then I'll pick up my morning newspaper and read 'Blizzard Grips New York.' I look out here and see the flowers in bloom and the sunshine streaming down from

Mrs. Paul Lukas and Mrs. Samuel Goldwyn.

On the set Miss Colbert works terrifically hard and usually loses weight before a picture is finished. Also, she has a penchant for worrying about every phase of any picture she is working in. It was this habit of worrying that won for her the nickname, "The Frantic Frog." Gregory LaCava christened her and it has stuck. "You'll even find it painted on the back of the studio chair that is reserved for her when she is working on the set."

Directors claim she is one of the easiest of all stars to direct and many of them will tell you that she has many a sound suggestion to a cloudless sky then I'm glad I'm in California."

Claudette plans to arrange her work so that she can make two trips a year to New York to see the new plays, shop, visit with old friends and do all of the things that she cannot do in Hollywood. In that way she is sure that her nostalgia for old, familiar scenes will be entirely dissipated.

Swimming is not an enthusiasm of Miss Colbert's. She does like golf, although she will readily confess that her game is not so good. Tennis is her favorite sport and she has a love of motoring that amounts almost to a passion. "I can relax completely in a car," she explains.

Her philosophy is a simple one. "Be yourself" expresses it succinctly. "Don't pretend; do not be affected in anything; be sincere. To have a friend, be a friend."

Claudette herself has many friends of long standing. In Hollywood her intimates are the two Joans — Crawford and Blondell, make when they are shooting a picture. Her long experience and the obstacles that cluttered her path to the top have given her two precious gifts of understanding and tolerance and no one has ever detected a trace of "high-hat" in her makeup.

Her capacity for hard work was demonstrated during the filming of "The Married Her Boss" when she carried on for days suffering from an infected throat. It was not until her physician ordered her to take a rest that she consented to take two days off while Director LaCava shot scenes in which she did not figure.

It has been a long and an arduous journey from a Paris suburb and Lexington Avenue, New York, to Hollywood; from a New York dress shop to the topmost honors that her chosen profession can award her. In between there has been infinite work, infinite patience and more than one headache before Claudette Colbert achieved stardom.

EARL HUDDLESTON WRITES ABOUT INTERESTING LEGISLATION

I am sure most of you know that the Legislature passed a Tax Bill which will raise something like twenty-three million dollars. This Bill has been signed by the Govern- or and has recently gone into ef- fect. I stated in the last article I wrote that I was going to vote for the best plan which we could get through the Legislature and I feel that this was the best proposition we could get through under the circumstances, and I feel after consulting with the Governor, and other officials who are interested in taking care of the Social Secur- ity Problem along with our other Institutions, that this will take care of the situation fairly well. Of course, as you know, the last legislature did not appropriate any extra money to take care of the Social Security problem, so you can see that this legislature has really accomplished something along this line.

I regret that pensions will be cut this month. I have just been down and talked with the Welfare Department and they say that it will have to be done. The House passed a Bill which provided to borrow over one million dollars so that this cut would be prevented; however, the Senate failed to act on this measure, and I think I can say that Senator Karl Lovelady is not to blame because he has tried in every way possible to take care of the Social Security Prob- lem; however, there are thirty-one Senators in the Senate. Of course, I am not condemning the Senate for this action, but I do feel that this bill should have passed the Senate. The Director of the Wel- fare Department informed me that by June some of the money which will be provided for by Tax Bill No. 8, will be available. I do think pension checks should be raised and I am doing all I can to assist the old people in this matter. We did state that it would take until about September before the pro- gram will be working as it should under the new tax bill.

I am glad to give you these facts with which I have served. I do think, however, that before we leave we should attend to all the business that needs to be attended to.

There is some farm legislation which is not complete at present. There is a bill known as the Cotton Laboratory Bill which I think, should be passed by the Legisla- ture, because I believe this will stimulate the price of cotton and be of great benefit to the people of Texas. This bill has passed the Senate but has not come to the House as yet, then there is a Con- stitutional Amendment which would give the legislature a right to set up a State Land Bank whereby citizens could purchase homes on a long time rate of inter- est. This amendment has passed the House but has not passed the Senate. I am doing all I can to as- sist in the passage of this legisla- tion.

I really feel like the Legislature has accomplished something for the people. I have worked hard to do my part as I promised the peo- ple when they elected me, and I appreciate the cooperation of the people of my district in this mat- ter. I feel like all of us together have really accomplished some- thing worth while.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. FAYTHE KATHERINE TRAMMELL

Mrs. Faythe Katherine Trammell passed away Sunday morning, May 18, 1941 at The Confederate Woman's Home in Austin, Texas. Mrs. Trammell was born September 16, 1845 at Meridian, Mississippi. She came to Texas about 1895 and lived in Gatesville for a few years, later moving to Turnersville, where she lived until 1925. From there she moved to Clifton to live with her nephew, J. S. Ledlow. In 1931 she moved to The Confederate Woman's Home in Austin, where she lived until her death.

Mrs. Trammell joined the Baptist church at the age of 20 years and later joined the Methodist Church.

In 1870 she was married to William Duck. To this union one child was born, Jimmy Duck, who died at the age of three years. Mr. Duck passed away, and on December 24, 1874 she was married to M. M. Trammell. To this union one child, Lula Trammell, was born. Mr. Trammell passed away in June, 1926.

Mrs. Trammell was blind from 1935 until the time of her death. The fine and sincere quality of her Christian personality constantly radiated into the lives of all who knew her. She has fought a good fight and has won her eternal goal through faith in her Lord Jesus Christ.

Those surviving are: six grandchildren, twenty-five great grandchildren, and a host of friends.

IN MEMORY OF NOBLE WATTS

ed by the Rev. A. J. Armstrong of Levita, assisted by the Rev. C. M. Spalding of Gatesville. He was laid to rest in the Bethel cemetery, with Scott's in charge.

Surviving are: his widow; six children, Dal, Billy Dean, Hilton Flar, Jimmie Dave, Georgia Sue, and Jerry Lynn; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Watts of Abilene; one brother, Ralph Watts; and a niece, Virginia Ann Watts, of Abilene. He was preceded in death by one brother and one sister.

Noble was a kind husband and a devoted father and will be greatly missed by his family as well as his friends.

Pallbearers were his former classmates and friends: Virgil Jones, Carl Brown, Jewel Ludwig, Winifred Powell, Paul and Frank Blanchard.

Naturally, the idea of the fleet withdrawing from the Pacific is enough to raise the hair on the heads of most people on the West coast. However, the navy has worked out a plan whereby it is confident that the West coast would be in no real danger.

The plan is extremely important, because it illustrates the new type of warfare made possible by the long distance bomber. Also it gives the key to Roosevelt's convoy plans. Finally it illustrates what the Nazis could do to the United States if the plan were reversed in the Atlantic.

Key to the plan is Hawaii and the Aleutian islands. The admiral is reasonably confident that long distance patrol planes ranging out from Hawaii in the mid-Pacific and from the Aleutians in the north Pacific would be sufficient to spot any Japanese ship approaching American waters. And air torpedoes of the type which crippled the Bismarck could do the rest. In fact, the entire Bismarck incident has been a striking demonstration that long-distance bombers plus island bases have revolutionized warfare in both oceans.

Azores and Canaries.

Now if you transpose the map of the Pacific onto the map of the Atlantic, you will also get an idea of why Roosevelt bore down so heavily on the importance of the Azores, the Canary and Cape Verde islands in his fireside chat. For the Azores are the Hawaii of the mid-Atlantic, while the Canaries and Cape Verdes might be compared to the Aleutians—in reverse position.

Whoever holds these stepping-stones across the Atlantic can sweep that ocean with naval patrol planes and bombers, just as the U. S. fleet can sweep the Pacific from Hawaii and the Aleutians.

If we hold these Atlantic islands, then we hold the gateway to the Atlantic. If Hitler holds them, he controls the first step toward Brazil—and the rest of the way is easy. These were some of the things Roosevelt studied on the large-scale maps of the navy department before he made his broadcast.

Another vital point he studied was not mentioned in his broadcast; because no one is talking publicly about the fact that the British may have to withdraw from Gibraltar, even from the Mediterranean altogether. But in case of such a withdrawal, a glance at the map will show that these three sets of islands—the Azores, Canaries and Cape Verdes—could help to replace Gibraltar.

They sit astride the entrance to the Mediterranean, and long-range bombing planes based on those islands could make it hot for any expeditionary force heading out of the Mediterranean for the Americas.

All of these are reasons why you can expect vital action regarding the Atlantic islands.

OLD GLORY CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY PRIDE OF NATION FOR 164 YEARS

Flag and their regimental standard. At right are Pine Tree, Grand Union and Rattlesnake

flags, used before the Stars and Stripes design was adopted by the Continental Congress June 14, 1777

OUR FLAG GIRDLES THE GLOBE

Old Glory, proud symbol of our country, will celebrate its 164th anniversary on June 14, the date of its official adoption in 1777. Like the British Empire, which takes pride in the fact that the sun never sets on its flag, we Americans may also claim that in some part of the world our National Flag is always floating in the breeze.

We may have fewer far-flung possessions than some of the older nations, yet Old Glory is known in every clime and place. For example, it is the custom of the U.S.

Marines to raise our flag every morning at eight o'clock. It remains flying until sunset.

Three hours after the Marines at naval stations along our eastern seaboard have raised the flag, their comrades at other posts along the west coast salute the colors as they are hauled briskly to the top of the flagstaff.

About two and a half hours later the ceremony is repeated in the Hawaiian Islands. More than five hours will have elapsed before the flag is raised by the sea soldiers in the Philippines. At virtually the same hour, the Marines hoist the flag in China, at Peiping, Tientsin or Shanghai.

Several hours later the westward march of daylight catches the fluttering folds of the Star-Spangled Banner flying over American Consulates and Embassies in Europe, and soon after the sun has passed its zenith in the Old World it is again flung to the breeze on the Atlantic seaboard.

Thus the Stars and Stripes, beloved standard of a free nation, makes its appearance in the early morning hours and remains flying until the sun disappears over the horizon.

Notice Egg Shortage!

We look for a good price on eggs this coming year. We understand the Government has asked the packers to hold the price of hens down to reduce the flow on the market of laying hens that should be kept in the laying yard.

Large amount of eggs are being consumed by the Government as well as the general consumption is good also. You are passing up a good opportunity of making some money on poultry this year if you do not feed them on an egg producing laying mash. We know of no feeds balanced to better perfection in Minerals, Proteins and Vitamins than DITTLINGER'S BEST LAYING MASHES to give maximum results at a minimum cost. And the growing demand has doubly convinced us that it is doing the job.

PIONEER RESIDENT OF CORYELL COUNTY PASSES AWAY

One of Coryell County's well known and beloved pioneer settlers, Mrs. Thomas Berry Austin, passed away at 2 a. m. Tuesday, June 3, at her home in Ireland.

Mrs. Lockie Gordon Austin was born at Lagrange, Fayette county, Texas December 25, 1857. She was married to Thomas Berry Austin at Caldwell, Texas 64 years ago. The young couple moved to this section shortly after their marriage and settled near what is known now as the town of Ireland. They lived at their ranch home in Hamilton county 18 years, then moved to Evant to educate their children. After eighteen years they returned again to build a home in Ireland, where they resided until their respective deaths.

To this union were born nine children. An infant son, Samuel Render Austin, passed away at the age of six months, and another son, R. G. (Pete) Austin, passed away at the age of 32.

The surviving children are: Mrs. S. B. Winters of Evant, Tom F. Austin of Ireland, Mrs. P. H. Howell of San Marcos, W. H. Austin of San Antonio, Miss Hattie Austin of Ireland, Mrs. Lillie Saunders of Belton, and Mrs. Boyd Bunnell of Ireland. Also surviving are: one adopted daughter, Mrs. R. B. Preston of Midland, 27 grandchildren; 8 great grandchildren; one brother, W. A. Gordon, of Hamilton; and a half-sister, Mrs. Ed Ellis, of Caldwell.

Mrs. Austin was a devout Christian, having been converted and joined the Methodist Church when a child. She loved her church and was very active in her religious duties until her health would no longer permit which has only been a few years.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Church in Ireland at 5 p. m. Wednesday by Dr. D. K. Porter, District Superintendent of the Gatesville District, whose father performed the marriage ceremony of Mr. and Mrs. Austin, and who was also present at their marriage. The Rev. A. R. Corn, her local pastor, paid a beautiful tribute to the life of Mrs. Austin, and spoke comforting words to bereaved relatives and friends. The Rev. Hayden Edwards of Fort Worth sang a solo, "He Cares", an old favorite of the deceased.

The following grandsons acted as pallbearers, James Preston, Travis Austin, Henry Howell, and G. T. Saunders, all of San Antonio, Tommie Winters of Evant, Robert Austin of Dallas, W. A. Saunders of Houston, and Dr. John Thomas Brown of Gatesville.

Mrs. Austin passed her 83rd birthday on December 25, and her useful life was one any young man or woman should feel proud to emulate.
