WHY ROOMS, HOUSES ARE SCARCE HERE! SAYS BILLETING HEAD

Nearly 1,200 families are living in the Gatesville and Coryell county area according to estimates from the office of the Camp Hood billeting and construction officer Lieut. Col. E. A. Dunnam.

Also, you might bear in mind if you're wondering why there are no places for rent here, that this town was 3,125 during the last census, which means, there just ain't many places to stay. Too the FHA has held off until just recently and only 25 houses have been allowed, and that was postponed on account of new building regulations. There, you have the reason for so few accommodations here.

802 Thanks Us For Hospitality Big Time Here

Another grand outfit's gone! We ain't sayin' where, because well, you know why! But they left, they dropped into the News office.

Speaking for Company "A" in particular and for the entire battalion in general 1st Sgt. Frank Schlichtig of Company "A", said to thank everybody in Gatesville, the USO, School Authorities Coaches, and everybody that made their stay here enjoyable and for the good old Texas hospitality. Said they had just began to get acquainted and to like it, and here came an order to "get" and they got.

Now, those acquainted with this little burg all seem to be of just about the same mind, and we're not boasting, and haven't asked for it. They just bring it in. That's the kind of folks we're doing our durnest to be.

We're especially glad to have known the 802, and even if they are in a neighboring state, we'd like to see them come back sometime before the war's over, and if not, then, after it's over. The same good welcome will be here! And we wish 'em luck, very much luck!

Grand Jury Reports To Judge Bartlett With 13 Bills

Here's the results of the Grand Jury's work for hte past 4 days and the work has been discharged and so has the Grand Jury. Here is their report.

To the Hon. D. W. Bartlett, Special District Judge:

"Now comes the Grand Jury for the January 1943 term of the District Court for Coryell county and respectfully submits this report:

We have been in session 4 days and have examined 42 witnesses. We have found 13 True Bills of Indictment, 11 of which are felonies and 2 of which are misdemeanors. We wish to thank your Honor for the able charge with which this Grand Jury was empaneled and thank you for your service to Coryell county during the illness of our own able and distinguished Judge, the Hon. Bates Cross, whom we join with the other people of this District in wishing a speedy and complete recovery.

We are glad to report that no crimes of a serious nature have occurred since the last term of Court and not one homicide has occurred within Coryell county. Many of the offenses which have occurred have been of an imported nature due to the location of the State School for Boys and many of these offenses are committed by those under the felony age and can only be sent back to the school. We urge the strongest cooperation between the School Authorities and the citizenship in order that local losses and injuries may be reduced.

In view of the national effort to preserve rubber, we recommend the strict enforcement of the state statute against speeding in those cases where a few individuals are unable to slow down in cooveration with the war effort. The overwhelming majority of our citizenship is not to be excelled anywhere for its unity in the war effort and the selfish few should not be tolerated.

We wish to thank all of our officials and our bailiffs for the assistance they have given us and also the public for its cooperation.

Having completed our labors, we respectfully ask that we be discharged.

H. R. Haase, Foreman,
Berrie Brazzill, Secretary."

Army Billeting Officer To Be Here Today

Opening today in the City Hall will be a U. S. Army Billeting Officer Captain J. L. Denson, who will be in the Fireman's Office or hall of the city hall, just over the City Office.

Captain Denson is here under Lieut. Col. E. A. Dunnam, Billeting Officer for Camp Hood.

The Army will cooperate with the Gatesville Chamber of Commerce in an effort to house all defense workers, then the military personnel thru available quarters, and to build up a list of places for the 1,000 officers and their families when the camp is completed.

People within 15 miles of Gatesville who have a room, apartment or house to rent are asked to please phone the Gatesville Chamber of Commerce, 58, or the Billeting Office and Capt. Denson, which has no phone right now, but will very soon, if they have anything that they can let anybody stay in.

Construction personnel also will be taken care of in the Camp Hood area as soon as the barracks and apartments are completed there.

Remember, don't fail to phone 58, or the Billeting Office if you have anywhere a man or his family can hang their hats.

FOR VICTORY

Newspaper Man Stuff:

Down at the White House one of the staffers showed the President a mid-west paper's editorial attack.

"I want to show you how low some people can get," said the White Houseer.

"Oh," replied FDR brushing it aside, "those editorials aren't worth the paper they're written FOR."

H. R. Knickerbocker's bride returned by boat the other day from London . . . Two passengers were frightful bores, she was telling John Gunther, so she confided that before getting on the ship a fortune teller told her: "You'll never live to see your 30th birthday!"

"Ha!" said one of the bores.

"That's a good one."

"What's good about it?" groaned Mrs. Knickerbocker. "My 30th birthday is two days hence!" . . . The trick worked, all right . . . The bores stayed away for two days, but so did everyone! Including all the submarines.

Several Broadway characters were being discussed when in walked a communist.

"I wonder," someone wondered, "what his hobby is?"

"Collecting," retorted another, "dirty looks."

One of the New York gazettes sent a photographer down to Chinatown one morning. Of the 211 kidnap . . . which were handled before . . . to be a criminal industry, . . . only two remain to be solved and the G-men are still working on them . . . Only one perfect crime was ever reported to the FBI. Not much may be said of it, for the man and woman who did the killing are influential members of their community and would inevitably demand huge damages if their identity were hinted at . . . The bureau knows when the murder was committed and where and how. But the body was never found, and the evidence was not the kind that a court would listen to. But, even now the FBI agents have been "getting" up in the morning with them, and "putting" them to bed at night—for seven years!

It's always interesting to trace the origin of words. Maj. Paul Raborg reveals in "Mechanized Might" (Whittlesey) how the war tank got its name. The British built the first tanks during the last war in complete secrecy. Even the workmen who built them didn't know for what purpose they were being made. They were told the machines were to be used in Egypt for transporting large containers of water, and every record in connection with their manufacture was made under the heading "water-carrier." Eventually the men in the factories adopted the word "tank" for brevity. The name stuck and is now used by practically all countries.

F. Goebbels' arresting "This Is the Enemy" has this nifty . . . Goebbels' homoeing is so brazen, Germans whisper that if he ever wanted to hide, he could never be found—if he slept in his own bed!

It Takes Both, War Bonds and Taxes, to Win — Victory Tax Special Direct Levy Asked to Help Meet Heavy War Costs

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Approximately 50,000,000 American workers began to make an added contribution to the War cost this month in the form of a 5% Victory tax.

For many millions of Americans the Victory tax and the 1943 income tax are the first direct levies to be made by the Government to meet the staggering War costs. And it will take both . . . taxes and War Bonds . . . to provide the supplies and materials to win the War and the peace afterwards.

The Treasury Department estimates that the Victory tax will raise approximately $2,000,000,000. Every person receiving more than $12 per week must pay the Victory tax upon that part of his income over and above the $12. For example, a married man with a salary of $50 per week, with two dependents, would make only a net payment of $1.08 per week after allowance for post-war credit.

The Government has made every effort to make the impact of the new tax as light as possible. The law, in effect, provides that in the case of married persons whose sole income is from wages or salary, 40 percent of the Victory tax paid (up to a maximum of $1,000) plus 2 percent for each dependent (up to a maximum of $100) may be used as a credit against whatever Federal income taxes the individual may owe at the end of the year—provided he has purchased certain War Bonds, or paid old debts or paid life insurance premiums equal to the amount of this credit. In the case of single persons this credit will be 25 percent of the Victory tax paid (up to a maximum of $500). Should the Victory tax credit exceed the individual's Federal income tax, the unused portion of the credit may be refundable to the taxpayer.

Even with the Victory tax, the 1943 income tax, and all other taxes paid by individuals, the average American will have more money with which to buy War Bonds than he has ever had before. Here are the statistics which explain that statement:

In 1940 the total income payments made to the American people amounted to about 76 billion dollars. In that same year the total personal taxes paid, Federal, State and local, were roughly 2.5 billion dollars, leaving 73.5 billion dollars of disposable income. During 1943 total income payments are expected to rise to 125 billion dollars and total personal taxes under existing revenue legislation will be 15 billion dollars—leaving 110 billion dollars of income at our disposal as against only 73.5 billion dollars in 1940.

In 1943 Mr. Average American will still be carrying a much lighter tax load than his Canadian or English brothers-in-arms. In Great Britain total national and local taxes paid by individuals at present amount to 31 percent of the national income. In Canada, total individual taxes amount to 25 percent of the national income. In the United States, total personal taxes, Federal, state and local, will amount in 1943 to 18 percent of national income. Our English allies invest an additional 10 percent of national income in War savings. Our Canadian allies invest an additional 11 percent of national income in War savings. We Americans, to match the record of our Canadian neighbors, would have to invest this year 20 percent of our national income in War savings. To match the English record we would have to invest 23 percent of national income in War savings.

"Sausages for breakfast! Sausages for breakfast! I can smell 'em!" Small Joe came tumbling downstairs fastening the belt of his shorts as he came. He made a bee-line for the kitchen. Pop was already sitting at the table, reading the paper, while Mom held the handle of the frying-pan over the stove. Small Joe came close and sniffed the delicious smoke, wriggling all over with early-morning joy.

"Better be thankful for them while you can still get them." One glance at Mom's face told small Joe this was one of her tight-lipped days. "Not a drop of coffee in the house, and no sugar left to put in it if there was. Some war!" Small Joe kept still.

"Letter for you, son." Pop said in his quiet voice. Small Joe made a leap for his place at table. There it was, a private personal letter for him alone, propped against his milk glass.

"Hey, Pop! It's from brother!" Small Joe was pulling the envelope apart and diving into the contents. "Hey, look what he sent me." He passed over an oblong of thick, crinkly paper while he leaned over the sheet of writing-paper.

"A twenty-five dollar War Bond," Pop said slowly. Mom turned and looked at it over Pop's shoulder, with the frying-pan in her hand.

"Listen what he says. 'How are you doing, kid? Hurry and grow up so you can help me slap the Japs. Aren't you most big enough to get into the Army? Here's something for you in your name. Let's the whole family gang up and help to win this war.'"

Pop and Mom were silent. But small Joe didn't notice that. He was full of his letter and his War Bond.

"Gee, Pop, in six years I could get into the Army, couldn't I, Pop? Gee, Pop, I want to be a soldier like brother and fight in this war. Gee, isn't that bond nifty? Look, it was issued in Honolulu. It's mine."

But Pop was looking at Mom and Mom was looking at Pop. There were tears in Mom's eyes. She shook her head sharply. Pop reached out and patted her hand gently.

"Well, can't let our soldier boy beat us to buying War Bonds, can we, old lady?" was all he said.

She shook her head again. "I guess if he can give up his job and . . . and go off to war I can do some fighting back at home," she said in a queer voice. Small Joe looked up at her in surprise. She saw him looking at her and spoke sharply. "Well, Joe. We're about ready to eat. Say grace."

Small Joe folded his hands and bent his head as he had been taught. "Oh Lord, we thank thee for this food and all thy bountiful gifts . . ."

"Amen," Pop said. "Amen," Mom said. "Now eat your good sausages."

(Story from an actual report in the files of the Treasury Department.)

THUMBNAIL HISTORY OF U. S. ARMY DIVISIONS

TWENTY-NINTH DIVISION

The Twenty-ninth Division was organized in July, 1917, at Camp McClellan, Alabama. It was composed originally of National Guard units from the District of Columbia and the States of New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia. Later, however, the Delaware troops were withdrawn and organized into pioneer infantry units. The Division was sent overseas in June and July, 1918, and after a few weeks' training moved into a quiet front line sector. It was assigned to the American First Army in September and participated in the Meuse-Argonne offensive, continuing actively until the signing of the Armistice. The Twenty-ninth captured 2,187 prisoners and its casualties totalled 6,159. During its entire service it was commanded by Major General Charles G. Morton. Its insignia is a circle bisected by two half circles, reversed and joined one half of circle blue, the other half gray.

THIRTIETH DIVISION

The Thirtieth Division, composed of National Guard troops from Tennessee and North and South Carolina, was organized on October, 1917, at Camp Sevier, South Carolina. It moved overseas in May and June, 1918, and in July was assigned to an active sector in Belgium and participated in the Ypres-Lys offensive. In August its artillery units were transferred to the Toul sector and took part in the St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne offensives. The Division, less artillery, participated in the Somme offensive with the 4th British Army, its outstanding operations being the capture of Bellicourt and the breaking of the Hindenburg Line. It captured 3,848 prisoners and suffered 8,954 casualties. Its insignia is the monogram "OH" containing Roman numeral XXX in blue on a maroon field.

THIRTY-FIRST DIVISION

The Thirty-first Division was organized in October, 1917, at Camp Wheeler, Georgia, from National Guard troops of Georgia, Alabama and Florida, and National Army men drafted from Illinois and Michigan. It sailed overseas in September and October, 1918, and upon arrival in France was designated as a replacement division. The personnel of most of the units was withdrawn and sent to other organizations, leaving the Thirty-first skeletonized. It returned to the United States in December, 1918. Its insignia is a red circle enclosing the letters "D.D." in red.

THIRTY-SECOND DIVISION

The Thirty-second Division was organized in July, 1917, at Camp MacArthur, Texas, of National Guard troops from Wisconsin and Michigan, and went overseas early in the following year. In May, 1918, it was stationed in the central sector in Alsace, and late in July participated in the Aisne-Marne offensive, occupying the Fismes sector August 7. The Division was active in the Oise-Aisne operations and in the Meuse-Argonne offensive. It was commanded by Major General William G. Haan. Its insignia is an upright arrow piercing a crossbar in red.

THIRTY-THIRD DIVISION

The Thirty-third Division was formed of National Guard troops from Illinois at Camp Logan, Texas, in July, 1917. It arrived in France in May, 1918, and less artillery, trained with the British near Abbeville and experienced its first combat service in the Amiens sector early in July. It participated in the Soissons offensive and in the terrific fighting of Verdun. It fought through the Meuse-Argonne offensive and was on the Troyon sector at the signing of the Armistice. Its artillery units participated in the St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne offensives. The Division captured 3,987 prisoners and its casualties totalled 7,255. Major General George Bell, Jr. commanded the division throughout the World War. Its insignia is a yellow cross on a black circle.

AXIS VICTIM AT CASABLANCA DOCKS—Landing operations in North Africa were not as simple as some reports would indicate. Damage was heavy, as evidenced by the plight of this Italian merchant ship, blasted at its mooring in Casablanca harbor by U. S. warships.

CAPTURED GERMAN FLYERS—Swift, efficient and destructive, the American landing in Africa already is history. Here is pictured a touch of the human side of the campaign. Mr. Ward Burris,
Sports Editor, The Express,
San Antonio, Texas.

Dear Wardie:

A few years ago they was a big uproar about how a appropriation of one and half billion dollars to pay the soldier bonus would wreck the Treasury. Last week Uncle Sam asked his folks fer 109 billion. Tempus she fugits. What do we care fer expenses, we got lots of 'em.

I seen where Branch Rickey of the Brooklyns says baseball is a carrying on only fer the sake of morale and nothin' else. They wouldn't be a little matter of morael attached to the continuance of Mr. Rickey's salary with the Dodgers, would they? It I was a makin' as much money as Mr. Rickey, it would help my morale too. In fact, it would be substantially stimulated.

I seen too where the Giants are a goin' back to the hoss and buggy days in spring trainin', to get to and from the ball park. Now theplayers can really learn what a hoss collar is. I think I'll send Uncle Mort and all my burros up to join the Dodgers in spring trainin'. Then all the donkeys will be in one spot together.

Well, huntin' season is over and I got to check up on my live stock. At the price of beef steak now a calf is a calf and then some. Last year I found all my yearlings down in the lower pasture creek bed with their heads in the sand like ostriches, a watin' fer the hunters to go home.

I been a figgerin' my income tax. With such dependents as Uncle Tobias and Uncle Mort, and considerin' what I made last year, I figger Uncle Sam Owes me $13.40. But he won't figger it that way. I'll be seein' you, Pal. Keep 'em Firin'.

Yourn,
LOONEY LUCY.

The present constitution of the State of Texas was written by convention which convened at Austin, Sept. 6, 1875, and adjourned Nov. 4, 1875.

Since the state constitution of Texas was ratified in 1876, approximately 100 amendments have been adopted.

Texas' budget is handled by the State Board of Control, which submits to each session of the legislature an itemized statement of the various governmental departments' needs, as well as recommendations for appropriations to state educational and eleemosynary institutions.

The chief sources of revenue to the Texas State Government include: ad valorem tax; gross receipts tax; inheritance tax; franchise taxes; motor fuel tax; occupational taxes; wine, beer and liquor stamp taxes; and auto license fees.

Formerly one of the Texas State Government's chief sources of revenue, the ad valorem tax now contributes less than one fifth of the state's total revenues.

The credits may be taken currently or after the war. They amount to 40 percent of the tax for married persons, 25 percent for single persons, and 2 percent for each dependent. They may be taken currently and will be based on (a) payments of premiums on life insurance policies in force on September 1, 1942; (b) payments of old debts; (c) net purchase of War Bonds. U. S. They Stop the Flow of Electricity When Something Is Wrong

The fuse is a safety valve for the electric system. If the correct size is used, a thin strip of soft metal under the glass will melt or "blow" whenever a short circuit or overload causes more electricity to flow through the wires than they can safely carry. The melted fuse link stops the flow of current before damage to the wiring in the walls can result.

It's Easy to Replace Fuses
If you do not know how to replace a "blown" fuse, call us and we'll have a serviceman show you time he's in your vicinity.* It's almost as simple as replacing a light bulb and not only eliminates delay in restoring service, but also saves a trip for a service truck, thus conserving vital rubber.

Never Use Substitutes
Always keep a few spare fuses of correct size on hand, so you'll have them when needed. Never use pennies or other makeshift substitutes. They will not protect you and may cause a fire.

How to Locate a "Blown" Fuse

Notice thin metal strip under glass. If this strip or link has melted and shows a gap, or if glass is scorched and you cannot see link, fuse has blown and should be replaced with new fuse of correct size, usually 15 ampere for branch circuits. (Illustration shows type most commonly used. If your fuses are different, ask for specific instructions.)

COMMUNITY PUBLIC SERVICE CO.

*We can't make a special trip for this purpose because of the rubber shortage, but we'll answer your call as quickly as possible on a regular trip.

WITH THE COLORS

Robert Lawrence Gilmore, of Gatesville, has recently enrolled in the U. S. Navy Pre-Flight School at Athens, Ga., for three months intensive physical conditioning and ground work preliminary to further training in naval aviation. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gilmore of Route 2.

From Camp Wolters. It was announced at Camp Wolters that 1st Lt. Ralph B. Hartgraves has been promoted to the grade of Captain.

Captain Hartgraves, who has been on duty at Camp Wolters for 19 months is company commander in a rifle training battalion of this Infantry Replacement Training Center, and has held the position for six months.

Captain Hartgraves is a son of Mrs. Lula A. Hartgraves, of Jonesboro, Texas, and is 23 years of age. He was commissioned in 1941 and since that time, graduated from the Rifle and Heavy Weapons Course at Ft. Benning Ga., which he completed in February, 1942.

Byron Leaird Jr. and Miss. Verma Wolters are in Dallas and Ft. Worth for several days doing their Spring Marketing.

IN OUR

Now, from Pvt. Robert H. Melton, son of Mrs. W. A. Melton of Gatesville, who is in the U. S. Marines at San Diego writes as follows:

"Hello Mat,
"I just thought I would let you know that I was still alive, and furthermore, I plan to stay that way.

"How is everything in the little city? I guess it is plenty empty of boys, is it not?"

"Well, you can tell them one thing, they don't know what they are missing by not being in the Marine Corps. I've gained 25 pounds since I've been in. I'll be up for Pfc by February. You know, it's harder to make Pfc. in the Marine Corps than it is to make Sergeant in the Army. Now you can believe it or not, but it's the right dope.

"I'm in the 2nd — battalion, and in the worst place in the world. No lights, very little water and the chow, well, if it's not burnt, it's raw but we get by and love it. Most of our NCO's and Officers have been at Camp Hood going to school. Boy, would I like to go to school.

We were signed to our positions the other day. I'm a gunner on a 50 cal. machine gun.

"We go on maneuvers the 21st of this month.

"Mat, I would like to know where I could find "Red" White. I hear he is out here.
"Well, Mat, tell 'em all hello and to write me.
Pvt. Robert H. Melton, Camp Linda Vista, San Diego, Calif.
Red White is in Sacramento, or San Francisco, which is a fur piece from San Diego, and, if anybody wants Bobby Melton's address, we have it, but can't publish it.
