IT'S "GOODWIN" AND "GOODWIN", ETC. IN THE SERVICE!

Just listen!
In a V-Mail letter of May 30, Sgt. Gayland G. Goodwin who has been in North Africa since last November states it is very hot there but he is alright.
Sgt. John K. Goodwin, in the U. S. Marines stationed somewhere in the Pacific has recently been promoted to Staff Sgt. after 15 months service.
Pvt. Carl C. Goodwin who has just completed his basic training at Ft. Belvoir, Va., was promoted to Pfc. after 9 weeks of training. He is now stationed at Staten Island, N. Y., where he is taking a special 3 months course in auto mechanics.
These three are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Goodwin of the Plainview community, and, then there's son-in-law, S/Sgt. G. B. Stinson, and Mrs. Carl Goodwin is out in Yuma, Ariz., visiting them.
That's "four-in" and lots of love, but we're going to tell you soon about one family in Coryell County that has "six-in"

35 Family Housing Units Approved For Gatesville

In an Associated Press story in the dailies the 18th, the following story appeared. That's all we know.
"The national housing agency today approved housing programs for war workers including:
"Gatesville, Texas, 35 privately financed new family units."
Also, today, representatives of Gatesville meet with others in McGregor, regarding the use of trailer houses at the Bluebonnet Ordnance Plant as home for defense workers from Gatesville. The BOP is partially closed or shut down.

A little from you... means a lot to them

Fashion Show, June 22

USO is presenting a Fashion Show and Bazaar Tuesday (today) June 22 at 3 p. m. in Green Room. Clothes will be modeled that the wives of soldiers have made on the USO sewing machine. A dramatic skit on the value of buying the right thing is being written and directed by Mrs. R. Levy and Mrs. R. W. Palmatier. Also assisting the members of the Enlisted Men's Wives Club, sponsors, are Mrs. E. B. McMordie, Mrs. J. P. Kendrick, Mrs. Jan McMurray, Miss Jean Stinnett, Mrs. L. M. Stinnett, and Mrs. Rufe Brown. Mrs. Nicholas Robilotto, secretary of the Enlisted Wives Club is acting as chairman of the show. The public is invited and there is no admission and refreshments will be served.

Cecil Weir has been added to the staff of the USO. He is serving with Mr. Gilchrist and does much for the welfare of the club.

Canteen girls working in USO don't get much publicity. They don't need it, as they're doing a grand job anyway. They even hear soldiers stories, and act as the "other side of conversation" not to mention, ornamenting the place no limit.

Mrs. F. J. Battle, Mrs. Ora Davidson and Mrs. McDavid are rendering a valuable service by sewing and mending dozens of shirts and other clothing each week. Each Tuesday night is set aside for this service and mending is done in a more conservative way each day.

Information Service is also functioning, and the men appreciate talking with the mothers of Gatesville mothers.

There are nearly 1,500 operat-

Two Kinds of New Rackets "Clip" Soldiers

Two kinds of "chisels" are now operating in a neighboring settlement, Waco, according to "these newspapers", and the operation is on serve men, and others. Some of these operations, the "hauling" is carried on in another settlement 36 miles west of Waco by some more outstanding citizens.

The first "chisel" mentioned on page 1 of Sunday edition was county officials for serving will be weds to the marrying justices and other officers.

The one most effecting service men is the "hauling" from Gatesville to the metropolis (?), in which the boys are stuck from $1.50 per each up. One trucker, hauled 100 down, and stopp'd in McGregor and had 'em anti-up another buck before he'd take 'em on to Waco.

State Highway patrolmen are working on this one, and it'll probably stop. It's just a little bit detestable.

"Juneteenth" Week-End Is Deadly Quiet

Sheriff Joe White and City Secretary Eiland Lovejoy, Highway Patrolman Edwin Majors all said Monday morning, flatly, "Nothing!"

That's just about the entire thing for the "Juneteenth" week-end.

They, the colored folks, did have a little scrap about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, but after that was cooled off, it was as quiet as a church.

Only other troubles reported was an Evant man losing two front tires off his tractor, and a car stolen in Waco, we believe, they said was picked up.

ing agencies and nearly 1,000 Clubs, about one-tenth are overseas. USO Camp Show Units have made appearances in England, North Ireland, North Africa, Iceland, Newfoundland, Panama, the Caribbean, and Alaska. Several unit members have been injured or killed.

A mobile service unit will soon be assigned to this district to bring movies and other USO services from a truck to the men camped in the woods near Gatesville.

Noted Judge Dies In Houston: Was Born Here

Editorials commemorating the life of Judge Norman Atkinson in both The Houston Chronicle and The Houston Post, attest to the esteem in which Judge Norman Atkinson, who died there Monday, is held in Texas' greatest city, as a public servant, both in and out of public office.

Quoting The Chronicle Editorial, "Judge Norman Atkinson, who died suddenly Monday, left behind him a splendid record of public service, both in and out of public office.

"As a private citizen he gave freely of his time and talents to civic affairs. As a public official he simplified procedure and won the confidence and respect of the people who dealt with his office.

"Judge Atkinson was born in Gatesville, September 24, 1885. He moved to Houston in 1904 and was admitted to the bar in 1907. He was a member of the law firm of Boyles, Scott, Fahey and Atkinson for many years. Since 1926 he had continuously held public office.

"It was in 1926 that he was elected county judge, an office he held for three terms. He served the Harris County School for Boys Independent School District in 1931 and 1932, and as a member of the Houston Independent School District from 1932 to 1936 when he resigned.

"When the late District Judge Charles E. Ashe resigned in 1936, Judge Atkinson ran for the office and won it. He held that office until his death.

"Judge Atkinson was dignified, but democratic; courteous and courageous. If he knew of anyone in need and he could help, that aid was forthcoming without fanfare or ostentation".
