Camp Hood

The Third War Loan Drive is ended with the goal of $15,000,000,000 in sight. But the "little men"—those of us who can buy Bonds only in the $25 denominations—are not doing our part.

The soldiers at North Camp Hood are putting the civilians to shame; they not only have authorized deductions from their pay for the monthly purchase of bonds, but each payday the post offices and fiscal agencies are jammed, with block-long lines of military personnel waiting to make cash purchases of additional bonds.

Outstanding purchases made at the North Camp Hood-Camp Hood Bond Rally last night at South Camp were: a master sergeant, $1,000; a corporal, $1,400, and a private, $750. Soldiers not only are fighting the war—they are also helping to pay for it!

A soldier at North Camp has written the following appeal as a spur to civilians to get behind the Third War Loan Drive.

Somewhere out there on Guadalcanal, or at Buna, or perhaps in North Africa—wherever our servicemen have fought—there is a little mound of earth, grown over now with grass and lying under the peaceful rays of the setting sun.

No longer do rifles speak their requiem, nor do tramping feet pause imperceptibly as their owners march by with faces flushing for a moment as they catch sight of this last resting place of one of their buddies.

For the tide of warfare has surged on to new shores, leaving only this lonesome grave to mark the scene of furious battle.

There's Been A Little Entering: Recently

Wood Jewelry Company was "entered" by some means, at least their window was, and three watches were taken, Mr. Wood says two of his best ones. The plate glass was broken by some "blunt instrument" or other.

Two soldiers were seen by night watchman Clara hurrying away from the scene, but so far, have not been apprehended. The time was 1:45 a. m. Thursday, Sept. 30. Short time ago, some person or persons broke into Campbell Cleaners and took a little cash out of the drawer and 2 suits of clothing, and haven't been found yet. They got in the back way.

And, the same happened at the Re-Nu Cleaners, and they got in thru a window they broke. What they got is not known.

LIFE CAN SEND 'EM AS 'GIFTS' WITHOUT LETTER: US, TOO!

Reading "Life" Sunday night, we found this, and, since Life and the News both operate on the 2nd class permit, it must be for us, too. It reads, in response to a "letter from the readers", as follows: "For members of the armed forces on duty at home or overseas LIFE costs . . . per year. Overseas gift subscriptions to members of the Army must be accompanied by a written request for Life from the giftee. This regulation has been waived for the gift subscriptions entered between Sept. 15 and Oct. 15, 1943. ED."

Now, what's good for the goose is good for the gander, and since we're one or the other, we'll take your "gift" subscription for your boy, friend or sweetheart overseas without the letter, but only thru October 15, this year.

Mrs. Helen (Allison) Smith who had been working in Dallas for the past few months was hit by a car last Thursday and is in a Dallas hospital. She is reported doing nicely.

Miss Annie Cathern Gatlin visited in the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. Gatlin of Osage.

Miss Ruth Ada Scott attended a singing at Keener Chapel Sunday.

DRIVERS LICENSE EXPIRE OR EXPIRED: LOOK AT YOUR DATE

You'd better look at that driver's license. It may be out. If it is, you'll have to take an examination. If not, dig up four-bits and get an application from some auto supply store or the State Highway Department, fill it out, and send it to Austin. Send half of your old license to Austin with it, the top half.

Keep the bottom half and the money-order receipt so if you're picked up, you'll have something to show.

COUNTY BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEETS: REGULAR BUSINESS

BILLETING OFFICE STILL GETTING APPLICATIONS

No, the housing situation isn't over, and they're still getting applications, an average of 20 a day for places to live. During the last period, a month, there were 285 applications for rooms and 255 for dwelling units, despite North Camp Hood Village, and the other federal housing at South Camp Hood.

But, during April 20 to May 21, there were requests for 1,340 apartments or houses, and 1,117 for rooms, or an average of 90 per day. It has fallen off a little, but Mrs. Tom Mears, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce says it's picking up a lot.

Miss Jane Honeycutt who has been employed in Pecos for the past few months is back in this city with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dyer and little daughter, Glenda, visited in the home of Mrs. C. O. Gartman.

Mrs. Eva Pruitt, Pvt. and Mrs. Clyde Pruitt visited in the home of E. T. Rogers.

Miss Glenda Dyer is spending the week with her grandmother and grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gartman of Purlmela.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Edwards spent the week end in San Angelo.

TO: Edith Iannuzzi Defendant,
Greetings:

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court of Coryell County at the Court House thereof, in Gatesville, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 25 day of October, A. D. 1943, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 9th day of September A. D. 1943, in this cause, numbered 5184 on the docket of said court and styled William Iannuzzi, Plaintiff, vs. Edith Iannuzzi Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit: That on or about the 3rd day of April 1941 the plaintiff lawfully married to the defendant and they continued to live together until on or about July 12, 1941 when by reason of the cruel and harsh treatment and improper conduct of the Defendant toward the Plaintiff he was forced and compelled to abandon her and since which time, they have not lived together as husband and wife.

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays the court that the Defendant be cited to appear and answer herein and for judgment dissolving said marriage relations, for cost of suit, and for such other and further relief special and general, in law and in equity, which he may show himself justly entitled to receive. As is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Gatesville, Texas this the 10th day of September A. D. 1943.

Attest: Carl McClelland, Clerk, District Court, Coryell County, Texas.

CAMP HOOD NEWS . . .

Somewhere here in our beloved America—perhaps right here in Central—a gray haired couple sits in a darkened room remembering as the tears course down their cheeks, the clatter of boyish feet, the houts of a hungry, zestful lad, as he stormed in from school. Every moment of his so-brief life is fresh in their memories as they gaze at his picture before them. His mother holds close to her heart his old, torn sweater which he loved to fling toward any handy chair as he dashed through the house. His father fondles the medals an appreciative government has awarded his only son, meanwhile smoothing over and over again the tear-stained slip of paper bearing the fateful words, "The War Department deeply regrets—"

The hours pass in this little home, so quiet now, so lonesome. A shimmering 'something' that seems to flow from that grave in a far-off land, to gather in a corner of the room. The elderly couple's tear filled eyes make out, dimly, the face of their loved one and a gentle whisper to their ears. "Don't cry, Mother and Dad," the whisper comes. "Don't cry for me. I did my best. I gave everything I had, and I died proud that I had this much to give for my country and for you. Don't cry for me; cry instead for all the people still there at home — for those who are not doing their part. Cry for them in their blindness, for their stupidity in not helping to keep us supplied with the weapons we need. I need not have died if Mr. Smith, our neighbor down the street, had gone without that new fishing tackle he bought this summer. I would not have died if he had spent that money for the War Bond which have supplied me with the bullets I didn't have when I needed them most.

"Cry for Mrs. Jones, who could not get that steak she wanted from her butcher yesterday and so patronized a black market. Because she didn't accept things as they must be during war, my buddy Joe, who helped to bury me, is now being buried by his buddies.

"Cry for Mr. and Mrs. Brown, up the street a ways, who still believe in 'business as usual', with usual profits for themselves. Cry for them, because the extra profits they put away in their bank vault should have been spent for bonds; for the bonds which would have supplied that extra bomb at Salerno, the bomb which would have saved their son Steve. Yes, Mom, Steve Brown was killed there because an airplane didn't have a bomb left to wipe out the big gun which blew him to pieces.

"Cry, Mother and Dad, for all the people there at home who have let us down. Go out and cry in the streets; get up on the rooftop and cry it out loud so all can hear: 'Before it is too late, go out now and buy bonds. Get behind our boys; keep them supplied with everything they need; help them to protect us!

"Because I tell you, Mom and Dad, we have to depend on the folks back home—and they have let us down! Every time someone there says 'Oh yes, I intend to buy a bond—sometime', a soldier dies! And if we die, and our enemies win, then you all will begin to pay the price of your selfishness! Then you will know the horror of war as we know it. Back us to the limit; spend every cent you can, and more, and we will win. I can never return to you, but others need not die needlessly, as I did, if you folks at home back the attack by buying bonds!"
