TWELVE PLACES IN CITY ARE ENTERED: CULPRITS CAUGHT

Quite a week for the "enterers." Yes, they made it in twelve Gatesville businesses, and quite a nice stock of things were taken. The alleged culprits are in custody of the officers.

Entered Sunday night or early Monday morning was Poston's Feed Mill, Daniel's Produce Co., W. F. and J. F. Barnes Lumber Co., where they got about $3.50, Jones-Miller Motor Co., $3, gas stamps and keys were the toll.

Tuesday night they got in Byrom & Walker's twice, and took officer's clothes, pennies and hats. Jones-Miller, again, keys; Mahan Cafe pried open jute boxes and marble table, about $6.90 in money; Gaston Alleys, $45.50 was recovered from four marble machines and a jute box; Bailey's Wrecking Shop, 13 packs of cigarettes, cigars, and gas stamps; Coach Mitchell's Athletic house, stop watches, candy and; gum ohn Graham's, on Monday, flashlight; Humble Oil & Refining Co., flashlights and cigarettes; The Texaco Co., nothing.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Teague, formerly of Coryell County and now of San Angelo were visitors in Gatesville this week. He's in the welding business there.

POLIO MOVES TOWARD COUNTY: MRS. BROWN WARNS, SUGGESTS

"Polio" the short name for poliomyelitis (?) or infantile paralysis is moving our way, according to the Texas State Office in Dallas, which phoned Mrs. Turk Brown, Chairman of the Coryell County Infantile Paralysis Association.

Two hundred 8 cases of polio are in Texas this year so far as compared to 65 the same period last year. It broke out in the south and east sections of the state, and is now in McLennan and Bell counties.

Mrs. Brown addresses her appeal to all to avoid flies, mosquitoes, rats and any possible carrier on your premises. See that all vegetables, fruits etc., used are thoroly clean when put in your home for use. Keep garbage covered, and scraps of food picked up.

For the town, the alleys should be cleaned, garbage picked up and covered while waiting for the truck. Avoid watermelon scraps and hulls, rotten tomatoes and other exposed fruits and vegetables.

CITY COUNCIL URGES CITIZENS TO CLEAN UP PREMISES

"To the Citizens of Gatesville: We are all aware of the rapid spread of Polio thruout the State of Texas and medical authorities tell us that this germ is carried by mosquitoes and flies, and we are making this plea to every citizen of our community to put forth every effort possible to dispose of their garbage immediately and to clean up any premises where mosquitoes or flies might breed.

"It will be of much assistance to the Garbage Collection Department if this garbage will be placed in containers where they can readily be picked up by the City trucks.

City Council
City of Gatesville."

CITY-WIDE RAT CAMPAIGN BEGINS MONDAY

"Beginning Monday, July 2, a city-wide rat poisoning campaign will begin in Gatesville and we urge every property owner in the business section to lend their cooperation to the State Wild Life Rodent Eradication Department and the State Health Department in carrying out this program. There will also be available, free of charge, to any resident owner in the city of Gatesville, a poison that is harmless to persons or dogs and is effective only on rodents. This campaign is being carried on by the City of Gatesville at their expense, and the poison is free to any resident of our City. We will

AMERICAN HEROES

by WOODY COWAN

COAST GUARD officers every day are proving how effectively the smaller naval vessels purchased with the help of War Bonds can clear the seas of enemy submarines. Comdr. David H. Bartlett of San Diego, Calif., recently was awarded a Navy medal for maneuvering his Patrol Frigate in such a manner that it brought about the destruction of a Jap undersea attacker. Other commanders of small vessels are doing highly efficient work.

AMERICAN HEROES

by WOODY COWAN

DURING the amphibious invasion of Southern France, Lieut. Ray Hamilton Allen, U.S.N.R., led his unit close to an enemy held beach and delivered withering rocket fire against hostile defenses. By his cool courage and inspiring leadership under fire, he contributed materially to the effective neutralization of enemy defenses. For this heroic service he received the Bronze Star. Amphibious warfare requires scores of ships and it takes War Bonds to provide them.

HOW YOUR FAMILY CAN EAT WELL ALL WINTER WITHOUT BLUE POINTS!

- 1 Commercially-canned goods for civilians will be scarcer this winter, even though the European war has ended.
- 2 Home canning must make up the difference for civilians. (Last year, half the canned vegetables and two-thirds of the canned fruits that civilians ate came from this source.)
- 3 This year, military requirements for commercially-canned goods are higher and will leave a larger gap to be filled by home canners.
- 4 Preserving food at home is the only way to be sure your family gets enough nourishing vegetables and fruits all year.
- 5 To learn the best ways to dry, freeze, pickle, brine, or store foods—and for free official home canning information write to your State Agricultural College, or Home Canning, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

WASHINGTON NEWS

FROM OUR CONGRESSMAN

W. R. POAGE

June 22, 1945.

Dear Friends:

For the past several days the House has been debating the bill to extend the life of the O. P. A., for another year. An amendment to reduce the time to six months was defeated as have been several other amendments. I am, however, convinced that before the bill is passed that several amendments will be adopted. I expect to support a number of amendments which are yet to be offered and which will limit the arbitrary power of O. P. A. I am one of those who believe that we should try to hold down the cost of living. I realize that inflation endangers everyone of us and must be prevented even if it means smaller incomes, less profits, and serious personal inconvenience. I have, therefore, consistently opposed every action that would raise the cost of production. At the same time I believe in being fair to all people. We have allowed the coal miners to increase their wages. We have allowed Congressmen certain expenses (I voted "no".) We have increased the salaries of all Government workers. It is inevitable that all wages are going to advance. It is not fair to allow wages to go up and to try to hold the price of farm products stationary. These prices are the farmer's wages. He is entitled to the same treatment that other groups get. I, therefore, expect to vote to allow him the same kind of treatment.

Much of the trouble of the O. P. A. has come from a refusal to recognize that if the farmer is to produce the food products we all want that he must have a chance of making enough above his expenses to pay him a wage that will justify him in staying on the farm and not going to a shipyard or other war plant. If O. P. A. will let our farmers make as much as war workers, they will produce all the meat, milk and eggs we can eat. I think that price control should and will be continued, but I hope O. P. A. can be made to realize that abundant production will do more to stop "black markets" and reduce prices than all the enforcement officials that the Government can hire. Every farmer knows this. I can't see why the O. P. A. officials don't realize it.

Monday (June 18th) was a great day here. Everyone knows that it was the day that General "Ike" came home. I think that he received the most enthusiastic reception ever accorded anyone since I have been in Washington. Many people commented on the similarity between the General and the President—not, of course, a similarity of looks, but of actions and attitude. They are both entirely human. They are informal. They are pleasant and friendly. Incidentally, they are both small town boys from the Southwest who have come up the hard way. They both made good in rather inconspicuous positions and were suddenly promoted to the very top. Four years ago General Eisenhower was an unknown Lieutenant Colonel. President Truman was an unheard of junior Senator from Missouri, but they both had intelligence, ability, and honesty and willingness to work. The Nation is fortunate to have such men.

Before the General reached Washington last Monday, the Agriculture Committee had given a favorable report to my bill, authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to take any surplus soil conserving equipment that he feels would be useful and make it available for the use of Soil Conservation Districts and other similar public agencies. I feel that this bill will mean a great deal in our efforts to check the ravages of erosion which is doing so much to destroy our best farm lands. There is, however, lots of opposition to the bill coming from those who want to retain the present system of disposing of surplus material. Personally, I did not vote for the present Surplus Property Bill, and I am convinced that it is sure to result in a major scandal if not amended soon.

Yours for Victory,
"W. R. POAGE"

CANNING CENTER READY TO HELP AT LOCAL SCHOOL.

Inasmuch as the food problem is growing more and more acute, it appears the more expedient that families can food that they expect to use next winter.

Fruits, vegetables, and meats can be skillfully processed for future use at the canning center made available by the Public School. Your needs are our concern.

Fruits can be canned without sugar. Later they can be converted into jams and jellies as the need arises. Acid and non-acid fruits, alike, can be processed in this way.

Old roosters, fat hens of the non layer type, and even broilers and fryers can be converted into delicate and palatable foods for future use. Vats for dressing and preparing these foods are available at the canning center.

If you will see or call 523, I shall book orders for tomatoes, pineapples, peaches or anything else you may desire and do my best to make these available.

Cans for the above service are available at the local dealers. Of course you furnish your own materials for the job, but the services are absolutely free, including a supervisor. Retorts of ample capacity will facilitate the job for you.

Bring your corn, peas, beans or anything you wish to process and join us in a cooperative program of supplying your pantry needs.

The time: 8 o'clock Monday morning to 5 o'clock each afternoon Mondays through Fridays each week until further notice.

Unless some unforeseen hindrance arises, the canning center will open July 2.

Yours,
J. J. Bates,
Vocational Agriculture Instructor,
Gatesville High School.

Competition

About 25 years ago people in all walks of life began to notice and talk about competition between industries. It was new then and interesting. Before that, competition was understood to exist between people and firms in the same industry—merchant vs. merchant, railroad vs. railroad, sawmill vs. sawmill, etc. But after World War I it was a changed business world, plain to see.

Among the modest newcomers in that remote era was a product called rayon. It was manufactured in the form of yarn, like wool and cotton yarns. The price to weavers was $2.80 a pound against 50¢ for cotton yarn. Last year 55¢ a pound was the price of both rayon and cotton yarns, and rayon was on the market as a fibre, very much like cotton fibre, but less expensive.

Rayon Has Grown

Back in 1919 the American people bought less than 2% as much rayon as cotton. Last year the ratio was 20% and rayon had captured quite a slice of cotton's export demand. Europeans earn less than Americans and they pay more attention to a low price. If it were not for the war using up all both industries can produce rayon would probably be giving cotton some tough competition.

When the war ends these two big industries are faced with a struggle for sales in world markets. It is anybody's guess now how the struggle will turn out, but King Cotton is not licked. The cotton industry is still much bigger; still employs more people than any other American industry. Besides, smart cotton men understand how rayon made its remarkable gains.

Volume and Wages

Rayon started out the American way. It had relatively large investments in machinery. With good tools it turned out large volumes of rayon per worker. On a basis of big results from their day's work the men who worked drew good wages. At the same time large outputs of rayon per man every day made it possible for prices to go lower and lower each year, sales to become bigger and bigger.

Working people in America have a right to live well. When they earn good wages they do live well. Money they spend is the very life blood of national prosperity. But before they can earn good pay they have to turn out lots of merchandise per worker. And in order to produce goods in volume they must have good tools. It was a successful plan with rayon and it will work with cotton.

It Costs Something

People say there is a practical cotton picker ready for introduction after the war. It will cost a lot more than one big sack and a string for each member of a share-cropper's family; it will likewise pick more cotton in a day than they can pick in a week. Efficient tools call for capital investment. It means laying out money, but efficient tools are worth it.

People say we will see many mechanical cotton choppers after the war. It is not impossible. This will increase the number of acres of cotton per worker; make more yield per day for every man. The picker and the chopper will create high wages and good living for a lot of people. But rayon can win its war with cotton if cotton tries to stay in the field armed with hoes and gunny-sacks.

and daughter leave today for Sulphur Springs where Mr. Brooks will be superintendent of schools.

Gratitude

The average American's most vivid impression of the Orient was acquired in less than an hour and came to him free with a bowl of chicken chow-mein. This is no discredit to the average American. He can't help it if Asia is mysterious. It is only an accident that we know a great deal more about Europe. Our ancestors came from that way, so we heard about it.

It is high time now, however, for every soul in the United States, who loves his happy home and peaceful surroundings, to learn more of the character of our straw-colored allies beyond the Pacific. We owe our national safety to them. If it were not for their native integrity we would be held in a nut-cracker between Germany and Japan at this hour, if we were yet able to fight at all.

We Admire Britain

Americans are a tender-hearted folk. We sympathize with other peoples and half-way try to understand them, but we don't usually admire them very much. We felt sorry for the Poles when the Nazi took them in 18 days. Our hearts went out to the Norwegians because they didn't last three weeks. We wept with our British relatives over Dunkirk, but we did more. We admired the British.

Late in 1937 the city of Nanking, China, fell to the Japanese. Far away over the sea strategists thought that was about the end. If China had folded up the next day few people would have blamed her. We Americans would have turned the spigot in our sympathy tank again and drawn out a generous sprinkling of tears for dear old China, and then tried to forget it. But forgetting it would have been impossible.

Must Admire China

If China had fallen in 1937, four years before the Pearl Harbor raid, any child can guess why we Americans would still be remembering it. But China did not fall. It would not be amiss for devout people to give thanks at the table three times a day that China did not fall. If China had fallen Japan could have knifed Russia on the unguarded side, right through Manchuria; surely would have done so.

Back in those early months of the present war when the Germans were all but knocking at the doors of Moscow, our big old globe, as now arranged, was coming unglued. If Japan could have drawn close enough to attack Russia from behind, the Germans would have marched into Moscow. Then, with no Russia to annoy him, Hitler would have parched London to a cinder.

Thanks to China

China stayed in and fought, so London remains. China stood the gaff, so we still have San Francisco. China could take privation and punishment; her share and ours too. As a consequence no bomb has struck an American city. Moreover, China's young men have made their fight as nearly bare-fisted as any army taking part in this war on either side, large or small.

In recent weeks there have been frequent criticisms of China; of Chinese fortitude, of China's disunity, of Chiang Kai-Shek's generalship. Let me close with this admonition: Criticism of China in America today, true or false, has one purpose and one only. It is to break up unity among our allies. Our enemies can hope to survive by no other means. Don't listen to it.

Nation's School Children Ready To Assume Part in Seventh Drive

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The nation's 30,000,000 school children are again all set to assume as much responsibility as is given them in helping to meet the $7,000,000,000 quota set for sales of War Bonds to individuals in the Seventh War Loan.

The demonstrated sales effectiveness of school children was an important factor in the determination of the dates set for this new Drive—May 14th through June 30th. Insistence on the part of many War Finance Chairmen throughout the country paid tribute to the vital support that pupils, teachers and school administrators have given previous Bond Drives.

A recent survey reveals that more than 20 million people heard about the Sixth War Loan from school children. Over eleven million were directly asked to buy bonds by these boys and girls, a little less than a third of whom were solicited in no other way.

The participation of school children ranges from rallies at their schools to the taking over of actual house-to-house canvassing. In Penns Grove, a small New Jersey town, during the last Drive, E Bond sales were lagging behind. In desperation, the War Finance Committee turned to the students of the town's two high schools and one grammar school. "If the adults won't do it, it's up to you," the County Chairman told them. Accepting the challenge, within a week boys and girls had sold $25,000 worth of bonds, and before the close of the Drive, Penns Grove's 6,485 citizens had topped their E Bond quota by $17,000. "Let's chuck that worriment about youth taking responsibility into the ash can," said the local weekly newspaper.

In Michigan, public schools sold $23,750,560 worth of bonds in the Sixth War Loan, with Detroit schools contributing almost a third of this figure. One school in the heart of Detroit averaged sales of $233.60 per pupil; another, in a wealthier district, tallied up $349 for each of its 800 students.

Through special promotions staged by the schools of the small town of Laconia, New Hampshire, whose pupils manned booths, recorded the Drive's progress in downtown department store windows and canvassed all the town's fourteen districts, E Bond sales amounted to $341,334 against a quota of $272,300.

In the state of Washington, the 80,000 school children in King County sold 27,763 E Bonds in one day—$1,182,281 worth.

And in Kings County, New York, elementary and secondary school children tallied up $4,137,435 through the sale of 41,253 E Bonds during the Sixth War Loan.

On Pearl Harbor Day in a remote Virginia county, school pupils canvassed the neighborhood and sold $18,000 worth of Bonds; their total sales for the last drive amounted to $46,000—eight per cent of which was estimated to be "new" sales.

Preparing fellow townspeople for solicitation by the pupils of Fairmount School, Hackensack, N. J., the principal wrote: "You may feel that we are placing an unusual responsibility on our children, but they are unusual children, living in unusual times. They are sincere in their belief that the future of America depends upon our continued support of every man in the line of battle." His pupils sold bonds worth more than $1,000,000 in the Sixth War Loan.

is probably the best reason we know of—they've been in, and discharged.
