HONORABLE HOT FOOT FOR JAPS—Two flamethrowing Chinese soldiers trained by U. S. Chemical Warfare Service troops in the use of the CWS portable flamethrower, learn the tactical mission of the weapon—that of destroying enemy pillboxes and bunkers.

AMERICAN HEROES by WOODY COWAN

DISREGARDING his own safety when a Merchant Marine vessel struck an enemy mine in a heavy sea which broke the ship in half, Third Assistant Engineer Francis C. Rack carried his Chief on deck after all usable lifeboats had shoved off. Seeing an empty boat adrift, Rack dove into the sea and swam to it. He managed to propel it to the sinking ship and transferred the Chief Engineer. Rack was awarded a distinguished service medal. When seamen show such courage in using equipment that War Bonds helped to provide, Americans know that their investment in Bonds never can be big enough.

Going to the relief of a platoon isolated by the enemy in Dutch New Guinea, he crawled to the Nips' position, was wounded and his rifle crippled, but charged in, swinging. After a shot dropped Eubanks, his squad killed 45 and effected the relief. War Bonds help equip such heroes.

Freedom

Individual liberty is one of the teachings of Jesus. It goes hand-in-hand with personal responsibility. How can a man be held responsible for his acts unless he is free to determine how he shall act? The understanding that certain rights are everybody's rights, and that no man can rightly deprive another man of them, is an idea for which the world is indebted to Christianity.

Compulsion in religion is older than history. Every nation's lore is colored with tales of forced worship. In fact, the history of Christianity is marred with a shameful record of coercion. Just the same, obedience to Christ is voluntary or it is not obedience at all, and (being an every-day thing) Christianity lives and grows best in surroundings of personal liberty.

A Moral Duty
Opposing dictatorship, resisting infringement by a few upon the liberties of many, is a reverent act of fidelity to the source of all freedom. No government is perfect; no economic system is perfect. For that matter, no church is perfect. All are subject, more or less, to leadership by imperfect people. Nevertheless some principles are right and worthy of vigorous defense.

Harry Emerson Fosdick said, "One of the great hours in history struck when mankind ran into the idea that all the people should unite in making laws, which then all the people should obey. Behind our pitifully fallible experiments with representative government stands the Ideal, worth everything our fathers gave for it and all that we can give—the democratic state."

Godless Laws
One-man governments traditionally become jealous of their subjects' loyalty to God; covetous too, perhaps, of their free-will offerings, large or small. Rarely do totalitarian states begin at the church when they start cutting off people's liberties. They get around to it in the long-run, however. There are about enough exceptions on record to prove the rule.

Dictators usually start their trespasses on freedom by presuming to say who shall engage in trade. It is the natural way to commence. Never do they find a large class in commercial pursuits, so they can begin grabbing power without antagonizing a majority. The next big strategy is to dominate the news. By this method a dictator can make his people think what he pleases.

Step at a Time
With buying and selling pinched under government's heel, one emergency follows another, accidentally or by design; either way serves the purpose. Consumers, the class most hurt by government in business, never learn the truth if press and radio are under control. Selfish rulers snatch away comforts and dole out confusion and suspicion, the chains of serfdom.

Traditionally tyrants work this way; it has happened all along through history. After business is confiscated and the news agencies seized, the people are poisoned with malice, and malice destroys living souls. Americans who value their religious liberty have no choice but to defend representative government, free enterprise, free speech and free press. They can fight on the front line and win, or wait to fight in the last trench and lose.

Released by U. S. War Department, Bureau of Public Relations.

DID THE "IMPOSSIBLE"?
Upon the shoulders of Major General Leslie R. Groves rested the tremendous task of directing the atomic bomb project. The West Point graduate of the class of 1912 for three years labored on one of the world's greatest scientific and engineering achievements. In all this—a venture in which the pressure of time was forever a factor—he had at his command the vast funds and resources of the United States, the most brilliant scientific minds available in this country and the best talent in all areas of endeavor needed for the success of the project, but it was he who juggled the pieces and fitted them into their proper places.

TENNESSEE'S CAPITOL

America's devotion to freedom, which the purchase of War Bonds directly helps to maintain, nowhere has a more exemplary shrine than the State Capitol at Nashville. The $1,500,000 building memorializes years of struggles of sturdy folk. Tennessee's first Legislature met at Kingston and adjourned to Knoxville. Later it met at Nashville and Murfreesboro. Nashville became the permanent capital and the cornerstone of the present building was laid in 1845. It took 14 years to complete. The same love of freedom that inspired those early legislators in selecting a seat of government motivates the state's 186,000 men now in the U. S. armed forces.

Orange consumers have been familiar with California's fruit for years but few realize that the crop of 1949 was valued at 48 millions while that of 1944 brought 154 millions, an increase of 224 percent. Potato growers tripled their output and peaches jumped from a 10 million dollar harvest to 41 1/2 millions. Small crops like prunes and apricots had several hundred percent increase. City Fat Saving Record Falls Under Town and Farm Push

Ever since our government asked town and farm women to save used fats, the record previously set by city women has taken a beating. We must keep up the good work! This country is facing a shortage of 1 billion, 500 million pounds of fats in domestic supplies, alone. Tons of vital war and home-front supplies requiring fats are still needed. We in towns and rural districts are in a better position to save fats than most city folks, so the government is depending on us. Save every drop, every scrap. Melt down solid fats. There's never too little to save! Butchers will give you up to 4¢ and 2 red points a pound. If you have any difficulty, call your Home Demonstration or County Agent. Approved by WFA and OPA. Paid for by Industry.
