HORNETS TAKE PAY-OFF GAME IN MC-GREGOR SAT NITE 33-24

In the final championship game, the Hornets took the long end of the county 33-24 in the McGregor high school gymnasium Saturday night at 7:30 p. m.

The Hornets led at the half with the close count of 16-13, and in the last half, the Hornets hit the basket to emerge with a 33-24 final count, featuring Ward as high point man, and a starting lineup reading as follows: Ward and Gilbreath, guards; Necessa y and Bone, forwards; B. Davis, center.

Yesterday afternoon, officials met to decide where the Regional play-off will be, and who they would play.

Jonesboro has been finalist at the Lampasas and John Tarleton tournaments, and Lynch was A-1-Tournament at both. In fact, he's made the all-tournament selection in every tournament during his basketball career except the first tourney. Quite a record.

TODAY'S EVENTS By Associated Press

SCHWELLENBACK SAYS CASE BILL ILL ADVISED

WASHINGTON, February 25 (AP)—Secretary of Labor Schwollenback told the Senate Labor Committee the Case Labor Disputes Bill passed by the House is a "hodge-podge bit of legislation" and "ill-advised".

Schwollenback said this is no time to upset the established system of dealing with labor relationships. Instead of promoting industrial peace, the secretary said the bill "may well initiate an era of industrial warfare with the power of government used to destroy labor unions."

BOTH SIDES APPROVE ARGENTINE ELECTION

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, S. A. February 25 (AP)—Opposing political leaders approved the conduct of yesterday's presidential elections, indicating they would regard the outcome a true expression by the Argentine people.

ONE NATIONAL CHINESE ARMY AGREED

CHUNGKING, China, February 25 (AP)—An agreement merging the Central Government and Communist forces into one National Chinese Army was signed today and witnessed by General George Marshall, Special U. S. Envoy to China.

FARM BLOC LINES UP BEHIND LUNCH PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, February 25, (AP)—A potent Senate farm bloc lined up today behind the $115,000,000 yearly Federal school lunch program, more than double the amount voted by the House.

Jonesboro Takes Title In D-E Tournament At Copperas Cove

Jonesboro boys, ended up with the southern division District 34-B tournament, which was held February 14, 15, and 16. It was a double elimination affair, and here are the scores, or winners.

Jonesboro 47, Oglesby 22, in finals.

Copperas Cove, dropped a close one to Oglesby; Jonesboro 49, Pearl 22; another close one, Oglesby vs. Turnersville.

And, in the losers bracket, Copperas Cove dropped to Pearl 57-45, with a total of 102 points for the game, which is some total.

Oglesby emerged a 2 point winner over Turnersville and Jonesboro 48, Oglesby 27; and in the consolation final, Oglesby won over Pearl 3 points.

Tournament all-stars were named by the coaches as: Sims, Oglesby, Blakely, Pearl, Pancake, Turnersville, Jones and Lynch, Jonesboro.

Turnersville Girls Take Title In Tourney From Lometa

Coryell County keeps wrapping up county, district and other tournaments in basketball, and sex is no disqualification.

Turnersville girls took the title, Friday night, by stopping the sextette from Lometa, 46 to 29.

Preliminary games up to the final night looked like this, during the meet which was Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday nights. Turnersville 25, Pearl 15, Jonesboro 20, Gatesville 13.

Wednesday night, Turnersville 22, Jonesboro 20; Lometa 28, Moshiem 25.

Patterson for Turnersville, really cut a rug in flinging in the long ones championship night. She was hitting from center all during the game, and with the heat off, after Turnersville got out in front, the other members of the team matched her performance. There never was any doubt as to who was the Champ.

HORNETS DROP ONE TO MART: THEN WIN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Following their winning game here, the GHS Hornets went to Mart, Thursday night, and dropped one, so they say, in Mart's "cracker-box gym".

It was a tough game for the Hornets all the way through and the score at the half was Gatesville 5, Mart 9, with the contest ending 31-18 for Mart. High point for the Hornets was B. Davis.

Lineup for this game was Ward and Patterson, guards; Necessary and Anderson, forwards; and B. Davis, center.
