Gatesville Teachers Will Go to Houston For TSTA Convention

George W. Weir, superintendent of Gatesville public schools, and Sidney Pruitt, principal of the high school, together with a number of other teachers and school folk of Gatesville and Coryell county will attend the 68th annual convention of the Texas Teachers Association which is being held in Houston November 29 and 30.

Speakers will include Governor Coke Stevenson, Governor Ellis Arnold of Georgia, Dr. Kenneth McFarland of Topeka, Kan., and Upton Close of Hollywood, author and radio commentator.

W. M. Gamblin Dies In Temple Hospital Buried Here Thursday

A native of Coryell county, W. M. Gamblin, 68, died in a Temple hospital, Tuesday evening, Nov. 26, at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. Gamblin had been in ill health for several months but was seriously ill only a short time before his death. He was carried to the Temple hospital about three days prior to the end of life. Daughters, who had been at his bedside returned to Gatesville Tuesday on the report from attending physicians and nurses that Mr. Gamblin was improving.

Funeral services, conducted by the Reverend Hubert Crain, and Reverend E. L. Craig will be held Thursday, November 28, at the Scott Funeral Chapel at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Burial will be in the Masonic Cemetery.

ACA Committees To Be Elected On December 6

Committeemen to represent Coryell County farmers in administering national farm programs will be chosen during the coming week in community elections. Farm programs administered by the committeemen include the Agricultural Conservation Program, Federal Crop Insurance and the commodity loans and purchases.

Community elections will be held on Friday, December 6th, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. at: Oglesby, Gatesville, Turnersville, Purlmela, Pidcock and Fat. Farmers desiring to do so may cast their ballots in the County ACA office or vote by mail any day prior to December 6.

Farmers eligible to vote include owners, operators and tenants on farms which are participating in the 1946 ACP Program (including the legume and grass seed program) or the Federal Crop Insurance Program. The wife of every eligible voter may also vote in these community elections, advises James F. Bair, chairman of the Coryell County ACA Committee.

Since every farmer has an interest in seeing that the national programs are fitted to local needs he owes it to himself to vote for the man he feels will best carry out their responsibilities, Blair continued.

Coryell 4-H Club Boys to Stage Mid-Winter Calf Show

W. T. Graham, Coryell county agricultural agent, and J. J. Bates, vocational agricultural teacher in the Gatesville system, in co-operation with the business and professional men of Gatesville will sponsor a mid-winter calf show in this city on Saturday December 14.

The Coryell county 4-H Club boys will show the calves they are feeding out for the annual spring show here, and the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show next March. This is to be a training school for the boys and their prospective show animals.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth McLarty of Dallas, arrived in Gatesville to be Thanksgiving guests of his mother, Mrs. E. S. McLarty at her home, 702 College. They remained for the week end.

FLOOD, HARBOR FUNDS UP 70-MILLION

DALLAS, Nov. 28. (AP)—Flood control and harbor and river projects were back on full-scale operations over the southwestern area today as a $70,000,000 increase in appropriations was announced in Washington.

This will include the Trinity River and Whitney Dam projects.

KRUG CALLED TO HEARING ON PIPE LINE

WASHINGTON, D. C. Nov. 26. (AP)—A subpoena was fired at Secretary of the Interior J. A. Krug today when he failed to show up to tell a house committee whether the idle big and little inch pipelines will be put to emergency use in the coal crisis.

(Note: It's up to Texas, meaning you, and me, to put on the heat to stop this Texas gas from going north, unless plenty of "antes" are fed to the "kitty". We'll be buying Jawn L's coal when our gas is gone, and higher than coal is now. Write your State Representative, State Senator, in Austin, your Congressman and Senator in Washington. If they beat Jawn L. with Texas gas, sooner or later, he'll beat us, with coal.)

SPEED UP OF LEWIS' COURT TRIAL SOUGHT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26. (AP).—Behind-the-scenes talks looking toward a possible end to the coal strike were widely rumored in the capital tonight as the government pressed for speed in John L. Lewis' contempt of court trial, opening tomorrow.

"RED" INFLUENCES TO GET AIRING

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26. (AP).—The house committee on un-American activities today put "a good airing of the Communistic influences in Hollywood" high on the agenda of business for the new Congress.

Purlmela Baptist Church To Have Big Day Sunday, December 1

The Purlmela Baptist church will have its home coming, Sunday, December 1, in their new church which is one of the finest rural churches in the state. At this time the church will be dedicated.

Included in the activities will be an all day singing, lunch in the new banquet hall of the educational annex, including barbecued venison brought home by Jeff Buckner.

The program will begin at 10 a. m. and continue until 3:30 and all former members of the old Cravey Crossing Baptist church will be honored guests.

"There is a pew—reserved for you".

ACA OFFICE HOURS CHANGE ANNOUNCED BY MANAGER

Effective December 7 the Coryell County ACA office will be closed all day Saturday, and open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Monday through Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Adams, who live out on State Road, one mile from town, were in the city visiting with relatives shopping Wednesday afternoon. Their baby son, Richard Mathew, six-weeks old, was having his first experience in a visit down town in the Christmas rush season.

Bridge Courtesy is Pre-Nuptial Compliment
To Mary Margaret Holmes

Mrs. Laura Rayford and Mrs. C. C. Sadler were associate hostesses for a bridge given on Monday night of last week at the Sadler home, 1106 Pidcoke, as a pre-nuptial compliment to Miss Mary Margaret Holmes, who was married on Saturday to James Francis Cain, Jr., of Dallas.

The bride's favored flower, chrysanthemums in bronze shades lent charm to game table appointments. Contestants for high score included Miss Holmes Miss Suzanne Sadler, Mrs. Wilton Fair of Dallas; Miss Marian McMurry, Miss Roberta Blair, Miss Mary Jane Slone, Miss Frances Reesing Miss Bessie Holmes, Mrs. Jack Jackson, Mrs. Lewis Holmes, Mrs. Henry Sadler Mrs. Hal Anderson

High score awards, first and second, were presented to Miss Holmes and Miss Sadler respectively. Also the bride-to-be was given a piece of exquisite china, matching a coffee set she is collecting.

Following the games, card tables were prepared for serving refreshments consisting of a tempting salad and complementing tea wainties with hot coffee.

Pvt. James O. Bates, who has completed his basic training for U. S. Army service at Fort Knox, Ky., is here on a 19-day furlough to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bates, and his brother, O. D. Bates and family. He will return to Fort Knox for assignment to duty.

Mary Margaret Holmes, James Francis Cain, Jr. Take Vows at Church

At Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Gatesville Saturday morning, November 23 at ten o'clock Miss Mary Margaret Holmes became the bride of James Francis Cain, Jr., of Dallas. The Rev. Father Eugene Dore was officiant in the ceremony and nuptial mass.

The all-white altar scene, achieved by placing of gladioli and chrysanthemums against a background of palms, accentuated the gold candelabra holding on either side of the space the symbolic Biblical seven candles; the gold baptismal font and chalice. Wedding music was presented by John Lee, organist, and Billy Clay McClellan who sang "Ave Maria". Given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Lewis F. Holmes, the bride wore a gown of white satin styled in Queen Anne influence with sheer marquisette yoke outlined in seed pearls. Her veil of imported illusion fell from a Dutch crown beaded in seed pearls and her costume was completed in quaint white satin slippers repeating the seed pearl trim. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls brought from Japan when the groom returned to the states after military service in that country. She carried a classical bouquet of orchids and white gladioli.

Miss Ann McClellan was junior bridesmaid, Mrs. James E. McClellan, Jr., bridesmatron, and Mrs. Wilton H. Fair, served as matron of honor. The attendants wore identical dresses of aqua faille, fashioned with sweetheart neckline and bouffant skirt. Head-resses were woven of horsehair braid and veils were in harmonizing shade. Their flowers were salmon pink gladioli in spray design with wide satin streamers. Mrs. Lewis F. Holmes wore ice blue jersey, a hat of matching blue with trimming in pastel shades, and long white gloves. Her corsage was of orchids.

William M. Gaynier of Dallas served the groom as best man, and ushers were James E. McClellan, Jr., and Danny McClellan.

A reception following the wedding was held at the Holmes residence, 1210 East Leon, where large white mums graced the rooms, and where a program of music was given by Mrs. L. Miller Stinnett and Mrs. Byron Leaird, Jr. Miss Bess Holmes received at the door, and greeting arriving guests were Mrs. Lewis F. Holmes James Francis Cain, Sr., the bride and groom, and Mrs. Wilton Fair, Mrs. James McClellan, Jr., Miss Ann McClellan, Danny McClellan and Billy Clay McClellan. Others in the houseparty included Mrs. Hal Anderson of Houston; Miss Ray Virginia McCreary and Mrs. Irvin McCreary of Temple; Miss June Chamlee, Miss Mary Jane Slone Mrs. Louis Bone, Mrs. Bill Thomson and Mrs. Jack Straw, Mrs. Horace K. Jackson, Jr, Mrs. Laura Rayford, Mrs. Horace K. Jackson, Sr., Mrs. James Pritchett and Miss Jean Duncan of Waco, who had charge of the bride's book.

The bride's table overlaid with an imported Irish linen and lace cloth, held the three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Bowls of white mums and candles in silver candelabra graced the board, where the silver services were placed at either end for coffee and punch. When Mrs. Cain cut the first slice of cake a music box, cleverly concealed within, played Lohengrin's Wedding March.

After their return from a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., and other points of attraction, Mr. and Mrs. Cain will be at home in Dallas where he is engaged in the brokerage business. Mrs. Cain traveled in a beige gabardine suit with brown blouse, hat and gloves, with which she wore alligator shoes and carried an alligator bag.

The bride, only child of Mrs. Lila Holmes of this city, and the late Lewis F. Holmes, graduated from Texas University with the class of June 1946. She is a Delta, Delta, Delta sorority member.

James Francis Cain, son of James F. Cain of Detroit Mich., is a graduate of Michigan State University, and is affiliated with the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity. He served our country for three and one-half years in the armed forces with a portion of his time spent in Japan. He was discharged last summer with the rank of first lieutenant.

Those present for the wedding from out of town points, other than participants in the wedding and reception included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brock of Corsicana; Hal Anderson, Houston; Mrs. J. A. Hallman and daughter, Miss Martha Ann Hallman of Temple; Mrs. Herbert Manske and daughter, Rosemary of McGregor; Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Priddie of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sadler of Dallas, Wilton Fair of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cunyus of Waco.

Lois Cole Marries Truett Hopson in Home Ceremony

Before an altar of fern and white chrysanthemums Miss Lois Cole, of Austin became the bride of Truett Hopson in a single ring ceremony performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Davidson at Mound by Rev. J. T. Ayers, Sunday afternoon, November 24.

Pre-nuptial music, which included "Melody of Love" by Englewood, and Simple Avue" by Thome was given by Hal Hopson, brother of the groom who also played "Meditation" during the ceremony, the traditional wedding marcher, and accompanied by Mrs. Gayle Clawson who sang "At Dawning" preceding the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a powder blue suit with black accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of white carnations. She carried out the tradition of wearing something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue.

Miss Wanda Ingram, the bride's only attendant, wore a grey suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Robert Hopson, brother of the groom attended as best man. Candles were lighted by Felix Cole, brother of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopson left immediately following the ceremony for a wedding trip to include a visit with Dr. and Mrs. Alvin Hopson of Lebanon, Tenn., after which they will be at home in Austin, where Mr. Hopson is employed.

Only the family and close friends were present for the rites.

Ruth McDonald and Riley A. Parr Wed At Calvary Church

On Sunday morning, November 24, at nine o'clock, Miss Ruth McDonald became the bride of Riley A. Parr. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. L. Derrick at the Calvary Church before members of the immediate families and a few close friends.

The bride was attired in a blue suit with black accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Parr, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McDonald of this city, graduated from Gatesville High school in June and is employed by the Gulf States Telephone Company.

Mr. Parr, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Parr also of this city, also graduated from Gatesville High school in June and is employed at the Federated Store.

The couple will make their home on East Bridge Street.

Young Economist

I met a young economist in England. His thinking revealed that he would like to see the complete crumbling of the present order and the ultimate nationalization of all England. His discussion showed too that he would thoroughly relish failure of "the capitalistic order" in America, which he boldly predicted would surely come within a few years.

Notable thing about this young man is that he is very influential in the Labor government. He talked freely and with spirit, and the enthusiasm he exhibited shows conclusively which school of thought in England is on the defensive. It is unfortunate when Truth and Right are no longer on the crusade, but instead must be called to the defensive.

Influence of Youth

I asked this young economist the secret of the growth of the Socialist party in the United Kingdom. Displaying political acumen which is engendered only from a thorough understanding of reality and a knowledge of facts, this economist said that victory in the last election in close districts came because of the vote of the young people.

"In fact, the percentage of young people who voted the Socialist ticket was greater than the percentage of older people in the ranks of Labor," he told me, adding a fact I knew already: that the growth of Socialism has been more rapid among young people and among skilled workers. The influence of higher education, he stoutly affirmed, was a definite factor in the spread of Socialism throughout the Kingdom.

I did not encourage him in this regard about America, but the parallel was clear. I found myself wishing that our own high schools and colleges were doing a better job of building into the very fiber of American youth a deep appreciation for the fundamental principles of our American way of life, lest our youth some day lead this nation down that same unfortunate road. Strange irony it is, that wealth created by honest work is used in the form of taxes and in grants as means to destroy the philosophy which begot our freedom and our wealth.

Competition Needed

Even the government officials in London do not seem quite sure that the principle of nationalization is sound. Some uncertainty exists, for they are already detecting basic weaknesses. During the week of July 15 a London newspaper quoted the London County Council as saying that the London Transport (a government monopoly operating street-cars and buses) needed competition. In the same week another writer stated his opinion that the British Broadcasting Corporation, the weaknesses of which were at that time under fire in Parliament, needed the competition of other broadcasting companies in England.

Failure of the private enterprise system in America, our young economist said, would soon come because of the inability of business to operate at a loss. This thing the government could do indefinitely, just for the sake of maintaining employment, he affirmed, insisting there is no limit to deficit financing available to government-owned economy.

I have never been able to convince myself that Socialistic and Communist minded economists could be sincere in advocating this philosophy, characteristic though it is of their thinking. If the principle were workable, why does not some Communist nation issue a million dollar credit to each of its citizens and let them all enjoy wealth in a nation that cannot go broke?

"THE COOK BOOK"

Yes, Man, and we know it! And, when it says "a teaspoon of this" and "2 cups o' that" it means just that.

So, you look in the cupboard, and the "2 cups and 1 spoon" are not there.

First thing you think of then, naturally, is MURRAY'S FOOD STORE, where your larder can be filled, and soon, with those precious ingredients that it takes to make complete cooking pleasure.

GATESVILLE DROPS TITLE TO MCGREGOR IN SEE-SAW BATTLE BEFORE 5,000 FANS FRIDAY EVENING. THE COUNT—GATESVILLE 12, - MCGREGOR 22!

Well, that's that! No gripe, mind you, because for the last few years we've been on top more than we ever have in the life-history of the Gold and Black.

Those colors, might well reflect the attitudes of the local fans, first at the opening of the game, and second, at the close. The fans thought it'd be tough, but not so tough.

There was a lot of Bulldog here Friday night, just a heck of a lot, and just about as stubborn about 'turning loose' with the game, as a bulldog is supposed to be. Even the vituperous Hornet could not loosen the death grip this bulldog had.

Here's the way it went. Following the usual formalities, McGregor kicks, Hortsman kicking, Isbill holding, and the ball went to Flentge on the 8, returned to 20. Davidson carried wide, netting 7, then passes incomplete to Davis and Bone kicked, ball killed on Bulldog 48.

Lechler carried, Ashby stops after 1, another play and Horstman quick-kicks over goal.

Flentge makes 3, Bone 2, stopped by Lehler, Bone makes 1, then kicks to Williams on his 35, returns to 45, Flentge got him.

Lechler to Williams pass, gets 2, Horstmann makes 1st down on Hornet 40, stopped by Flentge, Lechler passes, too long. Melton in, Freddie in. Clemons makes 7 at left tackle. Horstmann drops 1 Gartman getting him. Horstmann kicks, Davidson takes on 4, gets 10. Bone kicks to Williams, stopped by Featherstone on 50. Lechler passes long to Clemons and he goes to 1 yard stripe. After two Horstmann line plays Lechler passes short to Isbill and he crosses the main line. Lechler's pass to Williams is bad.

Clemons for Medlin, Painter for Ashby. McGregor kicks to Gartmann on 12 and he goes to McGregor's 46. Davidson carries for 7, is hurt, and Daniels goes in. Flentge drops 7. Flentge hands to Bone and he don't bo, as the quarter ends.

2nd Quarter
Bone kicks, partially blocked, out on 49, Bulldogs take over. Lecher passes over Horstmann. Lechler to Isbill, incomplete pass. They're penaized, Bone refuses. Horstmann quick-kicks, picked by Flentge on 10, gets to 13.

Bone fakes kick, runs, drops 5. Davidson in, Bone kicks nicely to own 46, ball recovered by Featherstone.

Davidson, rushed, passes to Featherstone, caught near ground ruled incomplete. Hornets lose 5, too many times.

Flentge takes at C and it's 1st D. Flentge takes, is trapped by Anderson. Flentge to Davidson and he makes 2, stopped by Muegge. Davidson's pass to Featherstone broken up by Medlin. Davidson passes again, incomplete, to Featherstone. Gilmer and Pennington in, ball goes over.

Horstmann to Williams, who is knocked out of bounds by Gartman. Lechler hands to Williams, nailed by Pennington, Whitt and Freddie, no gain. Lechler stopped by Ashby, 3 yds. Lechler to Horstmann and he goes to 25, stopped by Gartmann. Anderson in, Ashby out. Bulldogs drop 5, delaying game. Lechler to Isbill, stopped by Flentge, etc, but penalty, Bulldogs off side, 5 yds. Lecher stopped by Anderson after 5. Lechler to Williams, pass and he goes to 15, stopped by Flentge. Bone stops next lay, but it's 1st down on 9. Pennington and Featherstone nail Lechler, drops 2. Williams from Lechler, Runs off tackle going over standing. Lechler adds extra over tackle. Bulldogs 13, Hornets 0.

Bulldogs kick, ball to Davidson on 10, stopped on 35 by Isbill. Bone makes 3, Lechler stops, it's repeated. Davidson is nailed by Muegge and Brim. Bone attempts kick, fumbles, recovers on Hornets 28, stopped by Isbill as the half ends.

3d Quarter

Bulldogs kick to Patterson on 25, return to 28, Muegge stops. Flentge stopped by 3, 1 yd gain. Davidson to Featherstone, knocked down by Medlin. Davidson takes 3, Lecher and Brim. Bone kicks to Williams on own 35, returns 7, stopped by Gartman, McGregor off side, penalty. C. Davis in, Patterson out. Bone kicks again. Crouch in. Hornets take over, and Bone carries. 1st down. Stopped by Muegge. Davidson 'passes complete to Featherstone, stopped by Nithercutt. Davidson makes 2, Muegge there. He makes 4, with Muegge there. Davidson passes to Featherstone over center for 1st on 25. Flentge twists through the line for 1. Davidson fakes pass, runs to 1 foot line. Daniels hits line for six. Daniels fails to add extra, stopped by Muegge. Bulldogs 13, Hornets 6.

Dysinger for Whitt. Hornets kick to Williams on 10, returns to 25. Lechler makes 1. Gilmer is hurt, Painter in. Anderson for Daniels. Lechler stopped by Anderson, Melton forces Lechler out, losing 6. Lechler kicks, ball is killed on Hornet 45. Gartman carries to 39, Muegged. Anderson stops Flentge for none. Davidson drops, picks up, passes to Featherstone on 34 for 1st down. Flentge makes 2, Muegge stops. Davidson takes to Hornet 27, 1st down. Flentge takes at right end, going over beautifully, standing. Bone, who replaced Daniels, fails to add extra at ine. Bulldogs 13, Hornets 13.

Hornets kick to Isbill on 28, returns to 37. Davis stops Williams after 1 yard as quarter ends.

4th Quarter

Horstmann passes to Isbill, incomplete by Anderson. Lechler passes to Williams. Lechler punts to Davidson on 18, stopped by Crouch on 20. Davidson carries, stopped by Medlin, 1 yd. Davidson passes after waiting a long time incomplete. Davidson passes, and Lechler snatches on 35, returns to 12. Lechler makes 3, stopped by Davidson. Williams loses 5, Gilbreath stops Lecher. Lechler passes to Isbill who goes over for six. Lechler adds extra at line. Bulldogs 20, Hornets 13.

Hornets received 2nd kick off on 7, Flentge carries to 28, stopped by Allen. Davidson passes. Lechler intercepts, Gilbreath nails him. Williams makes 1st down. Lecher topped by Pennington, no gain. Williams stopped by Bone, no gain, Bulldogs lose 15, hoding.

Lechler to Williams, pass makes 4, Bone stops. Lechler to Isbill, pass incomplete. Lechler kicks out on 8, a penalty, Bulldogs lose 15 more. Lechler punts out, hits somebody on head Hornets 31.

Davidson passes, Lechler gets on 49. Lechler stopped at center. Williams stopped by Ashby, Pennington and Davis. Lechler punts out on 12.

Davidson, attempting to pass, is pushed back over goal and it's 2 more points for McGregor, a safety. And, they put the ball in play on the 20 on a running play, which 'tis said, is a mistake—should be kicked.

Davidson is then thrown on 5 by Muegge, when attempting to pass. Bone kicks to Bulldog 41. Bulldogs drop 15, clipping. Lecher carries, stopped by Featherstone, as game ends. Hornets 13, Bulldogs 22.

"News" Editor Sets Pace For Country Press Sports Reporting

By Clara Linton

W. Mat Jones, owner and editor of the Coryell County News is a familiar figure on the Hornet's home gridiron or anywhere they played during the football season, rain or shine, cold or hot. With his portable typewriter he reeled off the games play by play for his own paper, and sent the results by wire to all of the larger dailies of Texas, immediately after the games ended, thus giving wide and extra-ordinary publicity to the Hornets, victorious until the final conference game last Friday night.

But, come Thursday afternoon of last week, Editor Jones, substituting in the mechanical department of his paper for floor, job and pressman, performed a feat that is something new under the sun in high school football reporting. He made the Copperas Cove-Pottsville six-man district championship play-off on the Hornet's gridiron. Taking along James Clemons mechanic apprentice in the shop, for copy boy, Jones relayed the copy, page by page from the field to the composing room, where Mr. Compton at the Linotype machine set the hot story for Friday's paper, printed Thursday afternoon or night. The report of the Coryell county six-man team's victory filled one-half of the News' front page, and the paper was in the hands of city readers by daylight Friday morning, and all over Coryell and bordering sections of adjoining counties by the end of the day, Friday.

The News Enterprise and fan z a c. Editor Jones entitles him to his motto: "Fustest with the Mostest", written in his entirely individual newspaper lingo.
