

Is this your weather? Not mine. Mine runs between 60 and 105! The rain's what's needed, tho, whether it's "hard or soft", but the hard kind isn't so good on stock, driving, walking, etc!

City Dads and School Board okehed a contract for the designing, blue-printing etc., of a proposed school building for the local seat of learning. It's good, and necessary, and all good and necessary things cost money, and this is no exception.

City Pappys, who hold the string to the pocketbook said they couldn't stand more than $200,000 grand total, and this grand total would include rehabilitating, renewing and repairing some of the existing school property. This rough estimate would leave only around $150,000 for the new edifice, which calls for some 18 to 20 rooms.

Meeting in the Fireman's Recreation Hall, and after a number of domino games, a little pool and a lot of palavar, they adjourned the combined session of the board and council, and the council, after getting City Attorney Tom R. Mears to review the contract, "signed up" for the job on their own, after Jim McClellan made the motion to sign, and Bob Arnold seconded the motion.

The architectural firm is Wilson & Patterson of Fort Worth, and the agreement reads 1 1/2% to be paid by them (the city) when and if bonds are voted, which is now a must. So, look for it, and, count us in—in favor of it!

And, the usual March of Dimes is on with Mrs. Turk Brown ramroding the deal. Th atis another worthy cause, if you've got anything left after paying your eating debts to put into something like this.

Here's a few more "suggests for this "filler". Mrs. Wade Sadler says: "Wit and Humor", Tom Freeman gave us one we wrote down and now can't read. Give again!

GATESVILLE MAN IN SERIOUS CON- DITION AFTER CRASH ORDEAL

Victim Pinned Under Car in Bitter Cold

C. L. Bates of Gatesville, pinned beneath a wrecked car for almost an hour in 24-degree weather, was in a serious condition at Hillcrest Sunday night. State Highway Patrolmen Bill Fowler and O. D. Jackson said an automobile in which Bates and C. S. ones of Gatesville were riding at 2 a. m. Sunday ran off the McGregor Highway and overturned eight miles from Waco.

Pinned Under Car

Jones escaped with only hand injuries, but Bates was pinned under the rear springs of the car after being thrown from it. Rescue workers were unable to free the injured man until a wrecker pulled the car from him.

Hospital attendants placed Bates in an oxygen tent. They said he had received severe chest injuries and that breathing was difficult.

He might have remained under neath the car even longer had not Fowler and Jackson received a call to investigate another accident.

The highway patrolmen were dispatched to an accident in which a large truck operated by the Lipshitz Iron and Metal Co. had run off the McGregor Highway into a small creek a few minutes after midnight. Although the truck received maor damage, its driver was not inured.

Going to McGregor to complete their investigation of the truck mishap, the patrolmen saw a car in a field more than 30 feet from the road. Its lights were burning, and the horn was blaring.

"Something must be wrong. We'd better stop," Fowler told Jackson.

They found Bates pressed against the ground with the springs on his chest. They attempted to remove the car. A wrecker was needed.

A motorist stopped on the edge of the highway. He and Jones started to Waco for a wrecker. They found one a few miles away at the scene of the truck accident.

Companion Temporarily Dazed

"We believe Bates had been there about 35 or 40 minutes before we arrived," Fowler said later. "The wrecker got there a few minutes later."

A small cluster of men shivered in sub-freezing temperatures as wrecker crewmen worked to pull the car from its victim. Headlights focused on the scene cut through the darkness of the field.

After the heavy metal was lifted from him, Bates was placed in a waiting ambulance.

Arthur Pringle of the Waco Ambulance Co., said he believed the Gatesville man felt no pain while pinned under the car.

Unconscious in Ambulance

"He still was unconscious when we put him in the ambulance," Pringle said.

The highway patrolmen said tracks indicated the auto rolled out of control approximately 50 yards, swerving on and off the pavement. Then it ripped thru a fence and rolled over.

Fowler said Bates was thrown from the car when it overturned.

NAGGING BACKACHE
May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action. Don't Neglect It!

Modern life with its ceaseless hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking, exposure, contagion, wharfed, keeps doctors busy, hospitals crowded. The after effects are disturbing to the kidneys and oftentimes people suffer without knowing that disordered kidney action may cause the trouble.

After colds, fever and similar ills there is an increase of body impurities the kidneys must filter from the blood. If the kidneys are overtaxed and fail to remove excess acid and other harmful waste, there is poisoning of the whole system.

DOAN'S PILLS

THE REASON DOAN'S ARE FAMOUS
All over the country grateful people tell others: "Doan's have helped me; I recommend them to you." That is why we say, Ask your neighbor!

Symptoms of disturbed kidney function may be nagging backache, persistent headache, dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of strength and energy. Other signs of kidney or bladder disturbance sometimes are burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

In such cases it is better to rely on a medicine that has won world-wide approval than on something less favorably known. Use Doan's Pills. They have been winning new friends for more than forty years. Be sure to get Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

Coryell County Boy Chosen To Compete In Houston Calf Scramble

Billy Barnard of Gatesville has been selected to compete in the Calf Scrambles of the 1948 Houston Fat Stock Show and Livestock Exposition, which opens on January 31 and continues thru February 15. J. J. Bates, is Billy's vocational agriculture instructor.

The Future Farmers of America was selected by his local Agricultural Teacher, the Area Supervisor, and finally passed by Lloyd V. Halbrooks, Associate Professor of the State Department of Agricultural Education, as being eligible to participate in the calf scramble.

Some 322 farm boys from all over the state of Texas will gather at the sixteenth annual stock show to compete for 161 fine beef calves which will be given to the boys who catch them.

The 161 winners will manage and feed their animals during the next year and then bring them back to compete in the Fat Steer Contest of the 1949 Houston Fat Stock Show.

In addition to the calves they catch, the boys have an opportunity to win a share of the many prizes which are offered them each year, including a scholarship cash prizes and free vacations.

The Calf Scrambles at the Houston show probably have done more toward encouraging scientific breeding and care of livestock than any major agricultural factor in the state.

The 1948 show at Houston, the longest and grandest in its history, will be produced at a cost of over $375,000.

Surviving, besides his wife are a brother, Henry Hunt of New York; two sisters, Mrs. Rosa McCleskey, Houston and Mrs. J. D. Anderson of Weslaco.

Services were held January 9, 1948, at 10 a. m. at Scott Funeral Home and interment was in Restland cemetery.

Pallbearers were J. T. Shults, Jim Nichols, H. E. Preston, H. J. Franks, M. B. Kendrick and R. T. Scott.

1947 Was A Year
Of Disaster In The United States

The year which just closed witnessed a record fire loss in the United States. It was a year in which hundreds of millions of dollars worth of property, much of it scarce, was needlessly destroyed. It was a year in which ten thousand or more people were burned to death, and other thousands disfigured and crippled for life. It was a year of disaster for a legion of American families.

We cannot repair the failures of the past. We can, however, let the lesson of the past guide us in the future. That is true of fire as it is of almost all problems. The fires which caused such havoc in 1947 were not—save for a tiny portion—acts of God. They were, to the contrary, the fruits of human ignorance, inertia, and carelessness. The great majority of them began from the simplest causes—improperly maintained lighting and heating equipment; improper storage of flammables; thoughtlessness with matches and cigarettes, and so on.

Those fires could have been prevented easily. Instead, men and women worked on the dangerous theory that disaster could not come to them. But it did.

We have turned a fresh page now. During the next twelve months that page will be filled with a new record of death and destruction unless we face the problem with determination to improve it. It is up to all of us.

Miss Tomiko Kanasawa
To Appear Here With Gabor Carelli Jan. 26th.

Miss Tomiko Kanasawa, American-born soprano who will appear here on January 26 in joint concert with Gabor Carelli, famous Hungarian tenor, is recognized as the greatest living "Madame Butterfly"—a distinction which she earned by virtue of a cavalcade of brilliant performances in the great musical centers of the world. When William Z. Rozan, who is presenting the concerts here, learned that Eoise McDonald was ill and unable to appear here, he immediately negotiated to obtain Miss Kanasawa. With Mr. Carelli, she will sing and enact scenes from "Madame Butterfly" and "La Traviata"—the performance to be heightened by the authentic costumes to be worn by both artists. Miss Kanasawa was born in California into a whole family of musicians. After careful preparation with the finest teachers and dramatic coaches she made her debut in San Francisco and immediately won the cheering acclaim of both public and press as the greatest "Madam Butterfly"—an accolade she has been receiving ever since.

Heard over nation-wide CBS broadcasts, and appearing in opera and concert in the leading music halls of the nation, Miss Kanasawa has been a sensation wherever she has been presented.

Gabor Carelli, too, has been receiving the plaudits of enthusiastic audiences in opera, operetta and concert appearances. Evidencing Mr. Carelli's great success, here are excerpts from Dallas newspaper reviews on the Carelli concert there a few nights ago:

The Dallas Morning News: "Gabor Carelli won bravos Thursday evening for his recital...."

The Daily Times Herald: "Employing a splendid voice with consummate artistry, Gabor Carelli opened William Z. Rozan's Municipal Concert Series.... If last evening is a sample of what Mr. Rozan has to offer, the acceptance of his series here may be forecast with pleasure. An elite audience including Antal Dorati, conductor of the Dallas Symphony; Victor Alessandro, musical director of the Oklahoma Symphony Orchestra, and many local musicians, accorded the artist enthusiastic and prolonged applause. The cognoscenti knew what they were about."

Mr. Alessandro had flown to Dallas for Mr. Carelli's concert and to engage him for an appearance with his orchestra over a NBC broadcast, only to discover that Mr. Carelli would be on a European tour at the time required by Mr. Alessandro.

Although the average family served by this company is using 32% more electricity than in 1941, the average bill for home electric service has increased only slightly during the same period — from 11 cents to 11.6 cents per day.

Electricity remains cheap because so far rising production costs have been absorbed by increased use and careful business management. Your electric service today is more than ever your biggest bargain.

Where Do People Live the Best?

Russia?
England?
United States?

The answer: The U. S.

We are better fed, better clothed, and have more automobiles, refrigerators, telephones, and radios per capita than any other country.

Why? One reason is the efficiency of the American farmer. In countries where farm production is low, the standard of living is low.

The American farmer represents only 2 1/2 per cent of the world's farmers, yet he produces approximately 20 per cent of the world's food supply.

Steel production also is an accurate measure of living standards. America, with only 7 per cent of the world's population, produces 50 per cent of the world's steel.

TEEN TALK:

DEAR JUDY:

It seems as if every other kid is knitting argyle socks—but mad'y. A rough estimate by the yarn people is that more than 500,000 girls throughout the country have acquired little kits containing materials for making the socks. On subways, buses and street cars, girls are knitting with their six or seven little cards of wool hanging down around the neck. In case you don't know, haven't seen or heard, the argyle socks for boys are made in sort of a diamond checkerboard pattern in a galaxy of colors. Jacksons love 'em.

Well...one baby sitter made cheerful headlines. Pretty Adele Haven, 14-year-old high school freshman, saved five children—all under 7 years of age—when fire broke out in their home in Libertyville, Ill. Brave Adele covered the faces of the youngsters with wet towels and rushed them out of the burning home.

Betsy Baker, 12-year-old daughter of the president of Ohio University, heard the Christmas carol she had composed sung by Thos. Hayward of the Metropolitan Opera with Alfred Antonini conducting the CBS symphony orchestra.

Other young people received special honors also

A magazine awarded prizes or citations to ten "young women of signal achievement". The girls are:

Rev. Ray McCollum
to Leave Coryea
Baptist Association

Rev. Ray McCollum, for the past two years Associational Missionary of Coryea County Baptist Association, has accepted the call to be pastor of the church at Waco, Texas and will take up his work on the new field on February first.

Bro. McCollum was formerly pastor at Coryea City and Kingsville and moved to Waco where he received his degree from Baylor University in June 1947. His wife and two daughters are an asset to him in his work, and it is with regret that we see him leave his work here, for he has endeared himself to the people by his dedication to the work in a wholehearted way and the systematic and efficient manner of encouraging others to the task of building the churches in the county.

When he began work here, there were only three full time churches, while now there are 8 with four resident pastors. Formerly there were 3 quarter time churches but now all the churches are at least half time. Formerly there were only 5 churches with the Baptist Standard in the Budget, now there are 15 with an increase of subscribers from 611 to over 900. The back page of the paper has been edited by Bro. McCollum and carried news of the work of the people and the churches and encouraging report from all of the churches.

Church buildings have been erected at Jonesboro, Waco, and Wersville with the one at Flat in the process of construction. The greatest thing that has been done in a material way is the securing of a camp site for a Young People's Camp near Pidcoke and the purchasing and moving of a building to the site and fitting it for use this summer. A spirit of co-operation has been shown here greater than in any other work, and the missionary has encouraged and aided in this in a great way.

It is with regret that the Baptists of Coryea County see the Missionary go to other fields, but it is their prayer that he may continue his work of usefulness in the place to which the Lord has led him.

Lockhart's only attendant, Virgil Lockhart, brother of the groom served as best man.

Mrs. Lockhart wore a smart powder blue gabardine suit, with brown accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid. Miss Wollard wore a brown dressmaker suit, brown accessories and a corsage of blue Iris.

Others attending were Knox Lovejoy and Mrs. Bill Partain, left on a trip to San Antonio.

The "Camel" Method

Once the camel gets his head into the tent, he soon has his entire body inside. This old saw lends itself to some modern applications, but it fits none better than the current English situation. Socialism is indeed like the camel; it does not stop at part-of-the-way measures. To put it into a good old Southern expression, it's simply "whole hawg or nothing."

A striking feature of the British "Crisis Bill" which recently became law in that country, was a clause giving government the authority to take possession of any industry which it might pronounce inefficiently managed. Actually, what this means is that no industry in England is safe from government confiscation. The threat will always be present, for the excuse of "inefficiency" could be trumped up at any time.

Invading the Tent

For five years I have contended, in this column and in public addresses, that no country could operate successfully with a "half-and-half" economy. If it's partly government managed and partly private enterprise, pretty soon Socialistic schemes find excuse to invade and take over. The present English government is proving my contention. It's the old "camel" process.

England is a country that long has been known for devotion to the freedom of individuals. Yet, within two years after she started her program of nationalizing major industries, it was found necessary to pass a law giving the government power to seize any industry it may choose on the excuse of "inefficiency." There's a lot of leeway there. An industry might be inefficiently managed from the viewpoint of production, or even from the viewpoint of non-cooperation with the government.

Camel Becomes Boss

Another striking feature of the Crisis Bill, as reported by the Associated Press, was that it gave the government power to tell both men and women where to work and what to do. This includes women from 18 to 40 years of age who have no children under 15, and men from 18 to 50 years of age. This loss of freedom of individuals has been unthought of heretofore in English speaking countries.

Control the Beast

It is my earnest conviction that England avoided this conscription of her industry and her people just as long as possible. These steps must have been taken reluctantly, for she long has championed all the freedoms that we hold dear. There is only one conclusion to be drawn: these dangerous and drastic steps cannot be avoided under a government managed economy. Once the camel's head is in, there's no keeping him out of the tent.

Every free American must take this as warning. If we want freedom to work at the job we choose, where we choose, and to bargain for our wages—then we do not want a government managed economy. If we want the right to own property and to operate a business for what profit there is in it, then we must stay shy of government managed economy. The British experience tells the story.

State-wide Meeting For Wild Life Protection
Called January 26-27

MARTIN

The Gillespie County Game & Fish Protective Association, with headquarters in Fredericksburg, has called a State-wide meeting for January 26th and 27th, for the purpose of organizing a State wide Wild Life Protective Association. General discussion will be had by those in attendance concerning protection and preservation of wild game and fish, building of public preserves for hunting and fishing, relief to the small farmer whose crops are destroyed by deer and relief for the large rancher who is constantly annoyed with the law violator. In short it is an open forum to hear the problems confronting all of Texas and outline a plan of correction.

Tom Martin, Fredericksburg, Representative of the 85th District of Texas, has invited the entire House of Representatives to attend, also the Senate. Many have accepted. "Our game laws must be streamlined, we have outgrown them, we hope to enact new and more up to date game and fish laws next year, we can only do this by hearing and understanding the problems of people from all sections of the State. Our tastes are diversified, we have the small boy with his target, the Commercial Fisherman with his problems and the hunter who leases a large ranch but there is room for everyone. We must get together and formulate a plan for the good of all", says Martin. "Among legislative changes contemplated and thoroughly discussed will be a regulatory act that will enable the Game Department to provide protective measures to preserve the game we have. Any and every one interested in the wild life of this State, whether it be from a commercial or a sportsman viewpoint, should attend this meeting. Let's begin to put our State in a class where it belongs. Everyone interested in this subject matter is invited and urged to attend", Martin said.

Bishop Man Shoots
Two Deer With Only One Shot

Verge Winford, formerly of Granger and now of Bishop, tells this one: (It's true too). He and some others had been on a hunting trip and Mr. Winford had been unlucky so far. Then he saw a buck and shot at it with his 30-30 rifle.

He went over to it to examine it, and heard a noise, he turned and discovered another deer. One buck had eight points, the other buck had six. Pretty nice shooting. The bullet had gone on thru the first deer and killed the other.

What's more Winford has members of the hunting party to substantiate the story.

BROTHERHOOD BANQUET

On January 27th the Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church of Gatesville will be entertained in the church dining hall with a banquet. All of the men of the church are invited to keep this date in mind and be present.

Copperas Cove Recovers District Championship In An Unusual Way

Copperas Cove, runner-up in this district six-man football, is now, "De Champ."

This all happened by some misques in eligibility, when the finalist, Pottsville, was disqualified due to some ine'gibilities.

Ranger High School also took the rap on this proposition.

We missed this in a newspaper story, but this is the gist of it, since we were never able to find the story.
