On the 6th, we went to the open ing of Hamilton's new radio station, KCLW, and it's really nice, as you've no doubt heard.

One thing happened the Fourth. Postmaster J. Hurl McClellan got a letter from the POD, which said: $15. No dice, no-can-do, desist, stop! and all the other words to that effect in reference to our "colored paper Donarium". Mr. McClellan had previously given us the green light, but, as we both found out, he's not the boss of the ball club.

As the letter said, some overzealous patriot must have mailed the POD a copy of the paper of June 15 with the story, and details and the "desist" letter was the result.

At the Brewer-Kauitzsch H D Club meeting at the Alvin Kauitzsch home June 29 there were in attendance: 15 children, 15 members, and two very welcome visitors, Mrs. Joe Marcella, from San Francisco, Calif., and Miss Pauline Wenzell of Grand Prairie The hostesses showed their ability in reception, entertainment and all arrangements.

The floral decorations were varied and beautiful. They were in part presented by friends, memmbers, which lent much interest and added spirit of friendliness.

The dining table centerpiece was an elevated arrangement of Velma Brewer's lovely pon-pons. The ladies had to look twice before they could distinguish them from roses. In the children's reception room were found Marie Kauitzsch's Mountain Pinks, and Grace Elam's baby orchids.

In the living room was a massive bousuet of zinia-Hartgraves giant zinnia's and African Marigolds.

At the business meeting president Hartgrove reminded the club members to get ready for the county wide pickup brad show at the Hamilton County Court house August 14. She asked for many entries from Liberty. Mrs. Floyd Kemp talked on the subject, of "Showing how easy it is to prepare the entries". Liberty voted
