War Games Don't Delayed Honeymoon

It didn't seem quite right to his Texas National Guard buddies that Pvt. Lloyd T. Dailey of Waco should be separated from his bride.

So Pvt. Dailey and the new Mrs. Dailey are having a GI honey moon in the North Camp Hood area for the next two weeks.

They were married Friday night too late for Dailey to be excused from attending the 36th Division summer camp. Dailey reported for duty at the 143d Infantry Army in Waco at midnight Saturday.

Maj. Douglas Boyd, 3rd Battalion executive officer decided it would be a good idea if the bride came to Gatesville. The men of the battalion headquarters company agreed—and chipped in $24. A Gatesville apartment, rented for the duration of the camp, became the company's wedding present to the newly weds.

It's Here! Jenkins Sends "Courtesy" For Football And Schedule

Superintendent T. H. Jenkins of McGregor High School is always first in one matter. Getting out his schedule and "press passes". We got both!

And he says. "We look forward to a fine year of good, clean competition in this district in football this fall. We will look forward to seeing you and your family at any game of ours you can find time to attend. Yours truly, Harold Jenkins".

Nice people.
