

One Hundred-One Year-Old Citizen Dies: Here Since 1863

gatesville, Texas

You see so many 'hyphenated newspapers'. Like The Hamilton Herald-News, The Tyler Courier-Journal, and this could go on from now on. So far, actually, we're not "hyphenated."

Not that it mattered, or matters, when Frank Simmons closed down The Oglesby Outlook, we bought it for $1 and finished out his subscriptions to that paper with the NEWS. Then, when the former editor of The Copperas Cove Crony closed down, we collected for a bundle of paper from him in exchange for finishing out his subscription obligation to certain subscribers at Bee House, Evant, and other similar points.

Another thing we've noticed, many many newspaper cling to the Old English style mastheads (name on front) like The Dallas Morning News, but, never did we like that Old English. In fact, in some cases we can't tell one letter of Old English from another unless we see them where they ought to be.

We've been of the opinion that the 'name-plate' of a newspaper is important, but not of the importance it's given on P. 1. We found out, once, imitation of magazines and such like was 'verboten.' We once ran a "LIFE" edition of THE NEWS and tried to duplicate as much as possible the name "LIFE," and here came a letter from LIFE saying no, no, desist, stop, and all that an that that was their trademark and hey didn't appreciate our using, which we didn't any more. We thought (wrongly) that they'd like the added publicity (if it didn't cost them anything) but no, they were touchy about it. We ran one similar to "Seventeen" once and sent them copies and they haven't objected yet. Funny, lots of people don't like to be imitated, even if it DON'T cost anything.

We've thought several time, and we don't think you'll agree with us, that a newspaper should, besides having something in it, have a different looking front once in a while, just for the novelty, if nothing else. But, the public, you know, is adverse to adopting new ideas, and every time we change anything, they don't like it—some of them—some of them do.

You just never know what will be and what will not be acceptable, or what, and that, alone, is what makes this business so intensely interesting, if not exasperating. They give you H—if you do and H—if you don't, so, how can you win!

HORNETS TRY EAGLES OF HILLSBORO HERE TONIGHT: TOUGH ASSIGNMENT

It's been easy, so far, and GHS Hornets have galloped thru three contests with apparent ease. It'll not necessarily be so tonight. They've got a wild Eagle from Hillsboro, and their record to us is blank, except for their 12-7 loss to Ennis Lions, which seems to be a pretty good job for the Eagles. Ennis is usually poison. Coach Al G. Langford said Tuesday evening, the club was in good shape, except perhaps, mentally, and it seemed they were on the "got it made" side—in other words, a little cocky. That's beaten lots of clubs—yes, lots of Gatesville Clubs and this could be no exception. From now on, they'll get tougher and history is history, so boys, better play 'em as they came, and remember, each'll get tougher, and what's been gone might not be done this time. For the Eagles, defensively it was Joe Galliga, Larry Dutton and Carl Bennett, and their offense was George Jordan, Cullin Davis. Boys, it's a big assignment.

PLEASANTVILLE, N. J. PRESS: "Apparently many people have the idea that our governments—Federal, state, county and municipal—should give us every service suggested. That would be nice. It would be nice, of course, to have all the luxuries of life. It is quite necessary that we learn there is a limit to what we can expect our governments to supply. In our private lives, we can't provide ourselves and our families with everything our hearts desire. All of us do not have the many resources to fill all of our wishes. So it is with governments—unless taxes are upped, and upped, and upped."

ALTOONA, PA., MIRROR: "According to Radio Moscow, a new gadget is available that's a combination potato peeler and cocktail mixer. It can peel three-quarters of a pound of spuds in three or four minutes, make a container of cocktail in 90 seconds, they proudly claim. (What connection the separate ingredients have is not made clear).

"We, of course, have nothing to compare with this—although there has been a manual model available for many years. Over here it's called a husband."

WINNEMUCCA, NEV., STAR: "We're taking a chance. We know Nikita Krushchev has been angling for a chance to sit down in two-way talks with the United States. We're taking that chance—but after full consultation with our allies . . . We're gambling that Krushchev, shrewd peasant that he is, will go home impressed by a country happy with its rich distribution of consumers goods, united on foreign policy and without the slightest intention to knuckle under to Red domination anywhere from Berlin to Oshkosh.

that it IS a gamble."

MRS. M. A. FRIEND, WACO CELEBRATES 100TH BIRTHDAY TUESDAY

Mrs. M. A. (Aunt Matt) Friend of Waco, a Bell County pioneer was 100 years old Tuesday. She has two daughters Mrs. W. R. Cavitt of Waco and Mrs. A. A. Harper of Gatesville. She lived in Gatesville and Oglesby before moving to Waco to make her home with Mrs. Cavitt.

She was born in Pontoc County, Miss., and her father's farm was located between Holly Springs, Oxford and Pontoc, and she attended school a few years in Holly Springs before joining her family in a covered wagon for the long trip to Texas.

"We decided to come to Texas because one of my sisters had married and was living out here," she said. "We wanted to be near them. So my other five sisters and my brother and parents bundled everything into the wagon and away we went."

"I drove a mule team on the trip because I was 13 and they thought I could handle them. There were no bridges across the Mississippi River then so we went across on a ferry while they pulled the mules across on cables."

They first settled at Little River. Her father was justice of the peace in Bell County, where he was noted for fearless upholding of the law at a time when cattle rustlers and horsethieves were considered a law unto themselves.

During her earlier life she was active in the Baptist Church.

She said: "I raised two families, my own and one of my son's. His wife died when his children were 5, 3, and 13 months old. Raising a family was certainly different. My mother had a spinning wheel on which she made yarn to make our clothes, and transportation was by covered wagon only."

Other relatives from Temple and Little River are Leslie Huckabee, nephew, Mrs. John Morgan and Mrs. O. A. Honeycutt, both nieces, all from Little River; Mrs. Maude Helms and Mrs. L. O. Griffin, nieces of Temple.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

WALTHAM, MASS., TRIBUNE: "For many years scientific researchers estimated that the market value of the substances in the average human body was only 98 cents. Now, because of inflation, the market quotation is $1.17. "You are now worth 19 cents more than you were 25 years ago. But since the 1959 dollar is worth much less than the 1935 dollar, that margin isn't enough to account for the difference. Should that make a person feel cheap?"

BARTOW, FLA., DEMOCRAT: "Sometimes statistics provide very boring reading, yet there are times when they contain information which should be of interest to every one of us . . . like, for instance, the information that in 1930, 664,000 persons were in the employ of the federal government . . . today, exclusive of our armed forces, the number has reached 2,100,000, an increase of more than 200 per cent . . . the same statistician reports that in 1930 taxes took 13 per cent of the national income, while today the figure has reached 29 per cent . . . in 1930, the per family share of the national debt amounted to $540, while today the figure is $5500 . . ."

SANDERSVILLE, GA., PROGRESS: "You've no doubt heard it said that small business is in a bad way these days. "A report from the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, based on government figures, tells a very different story. "In the last year corporations with assets of less than $250,000 have shown the greatest increase in profit margins."

TODAY'S 2-MINUTE MYSTERY

THE CASE OF
ONE MAN'S MISTAKE
Twenty-fourth of a series
by Donald J. Sobol

"Julie Webster worked at the Chico Club on Brown Street as a cigarette girl. Apparently she had one boy friend too many," said Inspector Winters.
"Start at the beginning," requested Haledjian.

"Julie shared an apartment with two girls a block from the club. Last night at 8:30 she told the bartender she was going there for a few minutes. She'd got a run in one stocking, she said, and wanted to change. The bartender warned her to wear a coat. She wasn't exactly dressed for the street.

"Julie walked west from the club, though her apartment was east. At the corner of Seventh and Vine, she passed Martin Grady.
Inspector Winters opened the door of his office and had Grady brought in. "Tell Dr. Haledjian what you saw last night," he ordered.

"First, I saw this babe," said Grady. "It was a hot night, but not hot enough to be dressed like that. She minced right by me, dressed in tight-fitting shorts, low-cut top, black mesh stocking, and shiny shoes that had heels maybe six inches high."

Grady licked his lips nervously. "I followed her till she turned and told me to get lost. I hurried ahead, but after three blocks looked back. She was waiting by an alley.

"Five minutes later a man, his face shaded by a hat, strolled up and they went into the alley arm in arm. I heard her scream. When I reached the spot, the man had run off. Her clothes were in shreds, and she died without speaking."

"Sometimes," said Haledjian, "clothing makes the man. And sometimes it undoes him."
WHAT DID HALEDJIAN MEAN?

I followed her till she turned and told me to get lost.

Julie Webster was a flirt who walked on the streets in a scanty cigarette girl costume and met a man in an alley. But wasn't silly enough to duck out of the club on the excuse ascribed to her.
Haledjian suspected the bartender, who made up the reason for Julie's departure, had met and killed her because of jealousy. Julie was wearing black mesh stockings. Only a man wouldn't realize mesh stockings don't get runs.

Ft. Hood's just a teen-ager, yet —17 years old! The anniversary is the 18th.

Lt. Gen. G. S. Meoy Jr., departing commanding general of the 4th U. S. Army sent a letter of congratulations to Maj. Gen. Earle H. Wheeler, Ft. Hood and 2nd Division commander.

The Army selected the site in 1941 because of climate, rolling terrain, wooded areas and caliche soil, and construction started in '42, and the official opening was in September. Training peek was in '44 when 6,000 officers and 75,000 enlisted men were there, and N. Ft. Hood was constructed later, and demolished. April 15, 1950 South Camp Hood was permanentized and named Ft. Hood.

Original land was 157,000 Coryell County acres, mostly, and today, the total is 207,000, about 322 square miles of territory.

The popular F-100 pickup is one of more than 480 Ford truck models available in 1960. Dual headlights and the new Ford crest on the hood are standard features on the pickup models. Ohio - Liberty

The most important event of the past week was the Jones-Gromosky car wreck near Ohio Monday morning.

X Raymond Jones and daughter, Debra, had spent the holidays with her parents, X Calvin Perryman and other relatives, and were taking his parents, X Walter Jones of Gatesville home with them in Dallas for a few weeks visit. An Evant girl, Miss Smith, was returning to her job at Dallas, and was catching a ride with the Joneses. They were going to Evant for her, when the wreck occurred.

Mrs. H. J. Billingsley, an eye witness, described the event and her reactions. Her brother-in-law and sister-in-law, X Lee Brinkley of Fort Worth, had spent the night with her. All three, guilty of belonging to the old-fashioned set, had risen early, had breakfast, and they were sitting on the front porch enjoying an early morning sunbath. They were surprised to see Ernest Gromotzky's pickup coming from the Cowhouse, headed back home. Surely, he must have risen earlier than they did. Suddenly out of no where at the curve, at the corner of the Billingsley yard, came the Jones' car. It all happened in the twink of an eye. She could hardly realize that it was a wreck until she heard the cries of the Jones child. She did not seem to get excited or unnerved. After phoning for help, she rendered first aid to the injured. Some of them were unconscious. The elder Mr. Jones who suffered a broken hip, was out of the car, on the ground. She washed the blood from their faces and bound the cuts to stay the bleeding. Thru it all, she remained calm and unmoved. It was after the ambulances were gone and her guests had departed that she felt ill. She had a strange sick feeling like a gnawing hunger, but she could not eat. She tried to sleep, and she got hungrier, still no food. Being very resourceful, the thought of the old age, so well expressed by Will Carleton: "When a man works with his muscles smartly, it makes him up in'o machinery partly; and any little trouble that he's got on hand becomes lighter like and easier to understand."

After a few hours hard hoeing in her garden, that nervous tension began to relax and she felt better.

The Joneses are all making satisfactory recoveries.

X J. B. Sanders had these guests at a 6 o'clock dinner Saturday evening; X Kenneth Wiggins, Gatesville; X Billy Richardson and daughters, Linda and Karan of Grand Prairie.

X J. Frank Blair had these visitors last week end: X Curtis Maynard, Tom nad Marylyn and Miss Dianna Griffin, all of Navasota and the group went to Gorman Sunday to visit with Curtis' mother, Mrs. Artie Maynard.

X L. A. Brewer and son, Jerry Bob, entertained these guests last week end: X R. L. Calhoun, Salt Lake City, Utah; Gayle Burks, Los Angeles, Calif., Miss Donna Brunk, Dallas and Rodgers Yows of Purlmela and X Jack Brewer.

X Joe Davis of Austin visited X Jack Brewer Saturday.

Mrs. O. S. Strickland of Hamilton visited her sisters, Mrs. J. W. Laxson and Mrs. L. C. Perryman Tuesday.

X W. M. McAnnelly visited her two sisters in Abilene last week end.

G. W. Parrish of Paducah visited his parents X George Parrish last week.

X Alebr Lendenham visited her mother, Mrs. L. W. Parr and her brother and wife, X J. A. Parr in Granite, Okla., for several days this week. The sister-in-law, Mrs. J. A. Parr is critically ill.

X L. S. Bullock, Bobby and Sandra of San Angelo were week end visitors with the Albert Ledenham. Mrs. Bullock and Mrs. Ledenham are sisters.

A group of Cave explorers from Oklahoma, Dallas, Wichita Falls and Liberty spent Labor Day exploring the Armstrong Cave at Sonora. Those who went from this community were X W. T. Perryman and Larry; X Ralph Perryman, Raymond Jones, Calvin Perryman and his guests, Mrs. T. M. Miles and Jerry of Dallas; Jack Beulah and Jim Pajadakis of Oklahoma.

They describe this new found cave as a very beautiful one.

This they proved by some of the formations they brought home. Those closely resembled coral in formation and were translucent and of many colors. People enter the cave thru a small perpendicular hole. In many places, the openings into the large rooms are so small that one must crawl on hands and knees to pass. Many inclines must be claimed, often with the assistance of a rope. The many divisions of the cave are so varied and beautiful that it will rival Carlsbad Cavern. Many of its divisions are entirely unexplored. No safety provisions have been set up, and exploring is at personal risk.

The Milton Browns had another family houseparty this week end. Visitors were: The Johnnie Evans family, Salaco, The Harold, B. L., and Morris Brown families and the Hollis Thorne family of Waco; the Gerald Cummings family of Izora and X J. L. Green, Evant.

LITTLE GS' DROP CLOSE ONE TO HILLBURO EAGLETS 6-0; PLAYED MOSTLY MIDFIELD

The four straight quarters they strained, pulled, pushed and played and it ended up GHS Jr. Hi 9, Hillsboro Jr. Hi 6.

Only in the second period was there much action, when the Eaglets sprung loose Aubrey Keys, and got him thru the line, past the secondary and he completed the 45 yards to pay dirt.

Play for the game was between the 20's with neither having an advantage except for the one play, and the first downs were almost even.

Coach John Henry played the entire club and they did well, playing the much heavier team. The 'little g's' passing attack didn't click.

Mrs. Milton Brown and Mrs. Jesse Green visited Mrs. Estol Jackson at Jonesboro Monday.

X Jim Hodges, Mrs. Kate Parrish visited the Garland Leonard family at Hamilton Friday.

Mrs. L. C. Perryman entertained the Liberty Ladies club at her home Sept. 8, and the main feature of the meetings are social advantages that brings together all factions and denominations of the community, and at these meeting community projects and social events are planned and formulated.

It was recalled that it was exactly 38 years ago that Mrs. Perryman had her first meeting of the Liberty Club, which was organized Aug. 9, 1921 by Miss Georgia Lacewell of Evant, our first H-D Agent. She is now Mrs. Coreman of Hico. The 2nd Tuesday of that September, Mrs. Perryman had an all day meeting at which we canned a beef.

Of the two heiroom quilts, the club members quilted, it was difficult to determine which was the more beautiful. One was an old fashioned flower garden; the other was of an intricate blackeedy susan pattern that Mrs. Perryman and the late Janie Harris started 20 years ago and finished recently.

Mrs. H. J. Billingsley announced that the next meeting would be with Mrs. Clovis Belvin, Sept. 22.

Mrs. Perryman served refreshments of sandwiches, chips, fruit Jello cocktail, cake and punch to: Mesdames Park Thompson, Albert Ledenham, Oren Hagan, Ollie Strickland, George Parrish, H. J. Billingsley, J. O. Winslar, Ralph Perryman, J. K. Laxson, J. Frank Blair and Lucian Sanders.

Well, well, after 40 years, the Chicago White Sox won the American League Penant, and we're for 'em to go all the way. They beat Cleveland Indians 4-2, and Al Smith and Jim Rivera hit 4-ply blows to close the deal.
