Found out how to 'win friends and influence people'. Say nothing.

Asked a felleer how come couldn't sell him a subscription to the NEWS. Man said, we said some things not so complimentary about the institution for which he works, and he didn't like it.

Guess the best thing we could do about this little bit would be to leave it blank, or, just say some 'sweet nothings' about nothing in particular, but, unfortunately, we ain't built that way.

It's a pretty kettle of fish when ANF newspaper (that's not what one's for) is supposed to write the keep up, the anemic circulation. 'sweet nothings' and in that way

Of course nobody likes to have unpleasant things said about them or their doings, but our idea is not to lambast anybody, but to just 'call the shots' as we see them. As we told the man, this is not 'a controlled newspaper' something, it seems, is preferred in this neck of the woods

We frankly, don't think much of a newspaper that kowtows to that kind of doins, and we think operated just that way. Frankly, even less of those who want one we didn't think that was what a newspaper was for.

We try to point out things we think the most people should know about, and, unfortunately,

Bankers Elect, Retire, Promote, Declare, Reso., Eat and Count Sheckles

Both banks, The Guaranty Bank & Trust Company and The National Bank of Gatesville had their regular stockholders and officers and directors meetings, and each had extra good years—deposits indicate that—and did everything and more the heading indicates. They did not, however, state flatly hom much they made during 1959.

GUARANTY

B. K. Cooper, president, said they had a 'good year' and whether he said 'better than last year' we forgot, but think so. They met at Meeke's Cafe, re-elected everybody, and they went back to work after declaring an unannounced dividend—that's all that was said.

NATIONAL

First, they accepted Director Howard Compton's (pictured here) resignation due to ill health, and re elected all the other directors, 10 in number and Andrew Kendrick, Charman of the Board departed their best year ever in 1959, and said the bank provided adequate reserves for taxes and contingencies, a dividend of 20 per cent was paid stockholders.

Promotions included Cam H. McGilvray, from Cashier to Executive Vice-President and F. W. (Jack) Straw from Assistant Cashier to Cashier. McGilvray started in the bank in 1928 as bookkeeper. Straw started in the bank as bookkeeper in 1940.

The Board also authorized $50,000 transferred from Undivided Profits to the Surplus Account, thus increasing the bank's capital and surplus to $250,000.

W. D. Cooper, President, said Mr. Compton began with the bank August 17, 1907 when he

Q-FLU TKES BIG AVERAGE FROM SCHOOLS, NOT TO MENTION REST OF US

The old bugaboo, flu, and the 1960 model is called "Q-flu" because they don't know what, is taking it's toll all over town, country and everywhere that folks breathe. Medics got a new name for it every year.

Averages out for Elementary School this week has been about Senior Ti about 50. This is stu-140, Junior Hi around 50, and dents, and some of the teachers in each had the 'hi-Q.'

Downtown, and of course in the rural sections, there's no estimating but many of them are walking "hi-Q" casese, some are getting down. Hospital records down, some getting up and some could give some light.

By the way, hows your "hi-Q"?

Six Get Huntsville Time: Four Monday, Two Tuesday

Six former residents of Coryell County now live at Huntsville.

Andre T. Figeac, Larry Shieldse, Cecil Norris, all liked somebody's car too well, and were charged with car theft, and got 2 years each.

In the 'forgery department' Winford E. Bradford and John Malone got their time writing wrong things, and they got 2 years' worth.

One lonesome boy, who'd previously been charged with burglary and got 2 to 4 years, broke probation and got to pick up the time. He was Jimmy Don Crosby.

Monday evening, somebody stole Clint Tubbs '50 Chevy, and it's been heard from in East Tex.

Wednesday, a SSB Negro is reported to have stolen a bicycle and Roland Blanchard and son caught both near Roland's store in Mountain Community.

IEWS and NEWS

from our Congressman BOE POAGE

January 8, 1960

Dear Friends:

Although this will be slightly belated, may I wish each of you a very Happy and Prosperous New Decade?

The second session of the Eighty-sixth Congress has gotten Both Houses met and called Roll on Wednesday. On yesterday the President addressed a Joint Session. His speech was, I fear, over optimistic, but it sounded nice to hear him assure us that our defenses are in good order and that we will have a surplus of over 4 billion dollars at the end of the next fiscal year.

Personally, I fear that in order to provide an adequate defense, we may have to spend more than will be included in the budget for National Defense (which budget we have not yet seen), and while I know that the four billion dollars surplus the President predicts may not actually materialize, I think that we should assume that he is correct and that we assign this hope to surplus to payment on the public debt. The President indicated that he, too, felt this money should be used for debt retirement but he did not suggest specific and positive steps to so utilize it. I propose to introduce legislation actually appropriating four billion dollars to this purpose. This will be along the line of the bill I introduced in years past, when I sought to appropriate, first, seven billion and, later, five billion dollars for debt payment.

I know that unless this money is appropriated for this specific purpose it will be used otherwise. I think that it is always well to make payments on the debt during times of national prosperity, and right now it seems to me that such a course might be very helpful in stopping the increase in the interest rate the government must pay. Surely, nothing helps an individual's or nation's credit like paying one's debts. At the same time, it is clearly deflationary and will at least tend to stop the ever rising cost of living.

In the field of agriculture the President's message was very disappointing. It called for consistent action—to "gear production more closely to markets and make costly surpluses more manageable" on the one hand and to "provide greater freedom in farm operations" on the other hand. Of course everyone would like to achieve all these objectives along with increased farm income, but the President suggested not a single thing that would help us reach these goals.

It's unfortunate that the symptoms of fatigue and of laziness are practically identical.

Mr. and Mrs. Schley Calhoun guests of her parents, Mr. and from Gatesville were week-end Mrs. H. J. Parrish. They report that they are grandparents since the arrival of Jody Carl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Calhoun of Gatesville.

Because of the holiday season, it has been a month since the Liberty Ladies' Club has had a meeting. The members are looking forward to the January meetings with Mrs. C. C. Onstott on January 12, and Mrs. Milton Brown January 26.

Jacquelyn Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loy Gene Brown, has been quite ill this week. She is improving.

We learn with interest that our friend Kent Parrish, is going back in the dairy business. He is remodeling his dairy barn, installing all new, and the most modern equipment. He has purchased his base and 40 dairy cows, Success insured.

The Fred Gordon family of Hamilton visited the Alvin Kautzsches Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Jones visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hodges at Hamilton this week. Mrs. Hodges, the former Myrtle Hill, and Mrs. Jones, the former Flora Smith, were girlhood chums and college roommates when they were young schoolteachers in those good old days. Liberty claims them both.

The Calhoun families here have received the distressing news that their kinsman, Eliot Calhoun was crippled while riding in the Dallas Rodeo. While he was riding from the chute, the horse dinged to one side and his foot caught between the timbers. His leg was crushed and broken just above the ankle. Eliot Calhoun is a well-know rodeo performer. He has been with the rodeos at Gatesville several times.

Farmers in this area are getting anxious about crop prospects, as water is running out of every field and tractors and men are idle.

The LIVE AT HOME PROGRAM has not been entirely abandoned at Liberty. J. C. Buster butchered another hog this week-end. He was assisted by his son-in-law, Harold Ayers, of Gatesville.

Sunday visitors in the Buster home were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ayers and children, Geneva and Wm. Harold Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Buster and children, Donnie and Jimmie, Mrs. Clarence Warren, all from Gatesville. They were joined in the afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Onstott from Ohio.

Mrs. John Boyar from Hamilton visited her sister, Mrs. J. C. Buster Saturday.

Mrs. Buster says she was not satisfied when she mangled her right hand with an electric slicer last week—but Thursday she cut her left hand with a butcher knife, so severely that she was off the job until Monday.

FREEMAN PRINTING PLANT IN PROCESS MOVING TO COPPERAS COVE

Freeman Printing Plant, publishers of The Copperas Cove Courier, Byron Freeman, owner, editor and publisher, has moved, or is moving to Copperas Cove, most of the moving being done the past week-end.

There, Mr. Freeman will publish the weekly Copperas Cove Courier, and operate his job printing plant. A small office supply store will be maintained in Gatesville, and the understanding is it will be operated by Mrs. Byron Freeman.

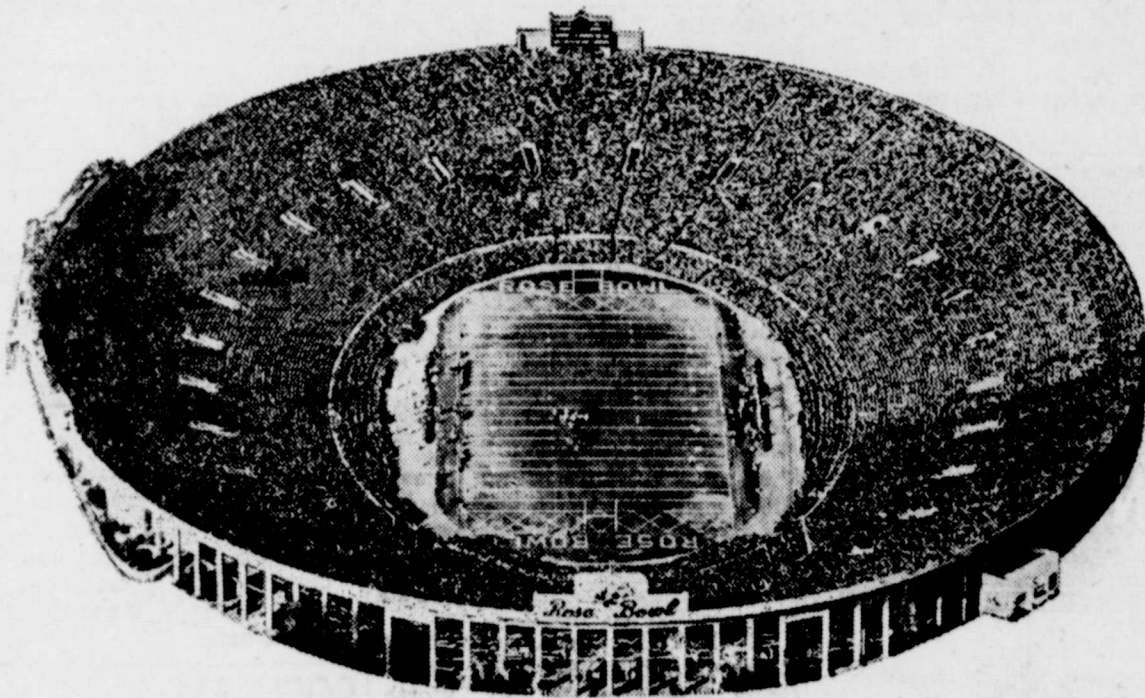

They will maintain residence in Gatesville.

Sybil Price and Floyd Zeigler of Gatesville were presented with Silver Beaver awards — the highest in scouting — at the annual HOT BSA Banquet at the Student Union Building at Baylor University.

Zeigler was also named to a new term as vice president, and Rogers Miller of Gatesville was named on the advisory committee.

Dr. White was re-named president, and C. Dan Proctor, vice-president of the Star Engraving Co., of Houston was the speaker at the banquet attended by 300.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

Here is one of the most weird paradoxes of the times.

In a recent speech Ezra Taft Benson, head of the Dept. of Agriculture which spends billions in tax money on various price support programs, called upon farmers to not only build bigger and better cooperatives, but to "build a better press... better public relations... for entire cooperative movement."

It is interesting to see how this call to arms... this clarion call for a better press, better public relations for entire cooperative movement is answered.

An interesting example is found out in Idaho. An Earl Cole, secretary of an operation styled as the Farm Security Association, in direct mail solicitations makes a strong "pitch" to get on cooperative band wagon because a cooperative small loan operation is being set up.

Nothing is said about the soundness of the management, its experience in the lending business, and other pertinent details.

In fact, the big "pitch" runs this: "How would you like to get out from the burden of... and is able to pay to members each year 90% of... without first having... the usual 52% tax bite... the Federal government taken from most business corporations and organizations.

The call to avoid taxes in business goes even further.

For only a small down payment, and nominal budget payments, anyone can buy shares, the letter advises, in the cooperative movement, and not only keep the Federal government from getting any share of the profits in taxes, but at the same time, the shareholder can save hundreds of dollars by buying food products, cars, machinery, tools and other items at wholesale prices available to co-op.

This is a sample of the sort of stuff that a branch of the government is agitating, while at the same time, taking billions of tax money.

And perhaps the silliest part is one government branch says pay taxes to fight communism; another says go socialistic to avoid taxes.

This whole paradox is so silly that even the TV networks would turn down a story done on this situation, despite the $64,000 disclosure, on the grounds that such a situation is so silly it just couldn't exist.

It is a certainty Congress knows situation.

On several occasions, by an overwhelming vote, the nation's independent businessmen, voting through National Federation of Independent Business, have asked that cooperatives be put on same taxing basis as independent business.

Thus it seems likely Congress cannot ignore this issue much longer.

Suppose you come home to find a group of vandals ramsacking your house and molesting your family. Your impulse is to rush in to drive the vandals out, but the police forbid you, saying you'll get hurt. To protect you, they let the vandals finish. Only after the vandals go are you free to go in.

Outrageous? Of course, but how does it differ in principle from the thing that happened at the Wilson Company strike in Albert Lea, Minnesota? There, in order to prevent picket-line violence, the Governor sent state troopers to help the pickets keep other employees out. Nobody is free to work until the pickets quit.

An ironic twist is noted in the fact that the Governor's name is Freeman, and the town is in Freeborn County. It somehow reminds of the startling remark by Senator Wayne Morse when the steelworkers were ordered back to work: "Stripped of legalism, it means that supposedly free workers have been sentenced for 80 days to a form of economic peonage"

And so freedom has come to mean "by permission of the unions!"

Strange things are happening to the once-proud name of freedom, but the strangest is the freedom to use it for anything you please—like the cry 25 years ago of the Hitler youth: "At last we are free of freedom!"

WATERSHED PROJECTS INCREASE

Progress is being made in Texas as well as other states in working to control the loss from floods which affect the economy of the individual landowner as well as the entire watershed.

Assistance is provided for under the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act passed by the Federal Congress in 1954. Under terms of the Act, local landowners pay for operation and maintenance of the projects while the Federal government provides funds for the structures. The projects are initiated and administered by local organizations with the U. S. D. A. providing technical assistance, cost sharing and credit in accordance with mutually agreed upon plans.

Leadership and group action on the local level is a must even before assistance is asked for under this program. Local soil conservation district supervisors can supply all details on procedures for obtaining this assistance.

Dawson Cooper urges all landowners to return the self-addressed card on estimates of flood damage which occurred last October. This information will be valuable in securing projects for Coryell County to protect us from the recurrence of such flood damage.

NO WAY TO TREAT A PAL
 The Atomic Energy Commission has announced that when current contracts expire in 1962 and 1963, the U. S. A. will purchase no more Canadian uranium. While Canada had expected a reduction in U. S. A. purchases of uranium, she had every right to consider that she should not be entirely cut off.

Commenting on this, the president of a Canadian mining firm said: "Our industry was developed at the pressing request of the United States Government at a time when they urgently needed uranium for defense against a very ominous foreign threat."

The Montreal Star, pulling no punches, had this to say: "We have served a good turn as suppliers when the metal was scarce, but our customers can now get along without us."

Just how important uranium exports are to our Northern Neighbor, can be realized by the fact that in 1958, they totaled 5.7 percent of the value of all Canadian exports, most of which went to the U. S. A.

It seems to us that Canada's uranium producers are to be given shabby treatment—they merit more favorable treatment by the U. S. A. No extensive and expensive stockpiling program of uranium by Uncle Sam is warranted, but we do hope before the present contracts expire, a joint United States-Canada program will be worked out to safeguard uranium producers of both countries.

REGIONAL MEETING FOR TEXAS
 The 1960 annual meeting of the 14-state Southern Commissioners of Agriculture will be held June 17-20 in San Antonio, and the Texas Department of Agriculture will be hosts for this important session.

The San Antonio gathering will mark the first time the Southern commissioners ever have met in Texas as a group.

The 1960 meeting of the commissioners will be especially significant because it will be held just in advance of the Democratic national convention and will, in effect, amount to a Democratic Party agricultural caucus. A list of nationally prominent speakers is slated to address the meeting, probably including a number of active or hopeful candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Agriculture Commissioner S. E. (Si) Corley of Mississippi is president of the Southern commissioners, and the Texas Agriculture Commissioner is vice-president. Membership of the Southern Commissioners of Agriculture includes the states of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

Coming as it does in the midst of a presidential election year and at a time when campaigning for the Democratic nomination probably will be in peak, the

STRIKE AGAINST STRIKES
 Now that the steel strike is claimed to have been won by the union, let's look at what it's crowing is all about.

An increase of 39 cents an hour means $800 a year, though only 14 cents will find its way directly into pay checks. The average steel worker, in 116 days of not working lost nearly $3000. Something to crow about?

The increase adds more than half a billion to annual steel company costs. With no solution to the work arrangements by which production per man-hour can be substantially increased, that half-billion has come out of somebody's pocket. Guess whose?

Since contracts in Big Steel are pattern-setters, look for a rash of strikes and increases all the way around. Take another nick out of everybody's dollar!

It's bad enough that the increases which unions forcibly extorts from the economy are always at the expense of the unorganized—the farmers, the preachers, the pensioners, for whom income keeps lagging behind prices. But the worst is that under a system of more wages without commensurate production to earn them, prices rise for the organized, too, finally wiping out their gains!

Southern group is expected to speak out in no uncertain terms on what they feel is most needed by agriculture in their region.

Decisions reached at the San Antonio session may, in effect, become the basis of what will emerge as the plank in the agricultural platform of the Democratic party nationally for the 1960 election. Each of the commissioners is regarded as a party leader in his own state, and their influence working with the collective voting strength of their 14 states cannot but make itself felt in the attitude of the Democratic party nationally toward the urgent problems which now beset U. S. agriculture.

And so another round, another raise, another nick out of the dollar, until that day of reckoning that means catastrophe! Is that what union officials are crowing about? Is't it time to call a strike on strikes,

TAX FACTS FOR THE HOMEOWNER NO. 1
Theft, Damage And Destruction Of Property

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.)

YOU can get some relief from casualty and theft losses by taking advantage of the legitimate tax deductions you are allowed.

To help you prepare a correct return and take advantage of legitimate tax savings, this newspaper is printing a series of four articles prepared with the help of the state and national organizations of certified public accountants.

Today's article considers the problems you may have in claiming deductions for theft or casualty losses. Later articles will offer advice on other tax problems of particular interest to homeowners.

Time and Destruction

There are a great many ways in which your property can be damaged or destroyed, as for example, by fire, storm, flood, or explosion. Generally, a casualty which will give rise to a deductible loss must occur with some suddenness. However, there are situations where the casualty occurs over a period of time and still results in a deductible casualty loss. For example, consider the damage caused by termites.

Say that you purchased your house in June 1957 and at that time a check by experts showed that there were no termites present. Then, in February 1958, you discover that termites have been eating your house from under you. Can you claim a casualty loss deduction for the termite damage? Yes, you can, even though the damage took place over a nine month period.

The casualty here, is the invasion of your house by the termites. However, it is probable that a casualty deduction will not be allowed where the termite damage did not occur over a relatively short period of time.

The Property Must Be Yours

You must have ownership of the damaged property to claim a loss deduction. It is quite conceivable that severe damage to the property around your house may cause the value of your property to decline. Although the damage occurred suddenly, you cannot claim a deduction for the loss in value unless your own property was actually damaged.

You can claim a deduction for a drop in the value of your car due to an accident. This is true regardless of whether you or another driver is to blame, unless the accident is a result of your willful negligence. However, if you are responsible for a car accident and have to pay for damage inflicted on someone else's car, you cannot deduct the payment as a casualty loss.

Proving a Casualty Loss

Determining the amount you can claim as a casualty loss may be very difficult. Generally you are allowed to claim the amount by which your property decreased in value. In some cases, a repair bill will be considered sufficient to support your deduction.

The best thing you can do is gather together any information that may help support the amount you claim as a deduction. For example, if your house is badly damaged, a qualified architect can often give a reasonable estimate of the before and after value. The appraisal fee, by the way, is a deductible expense.

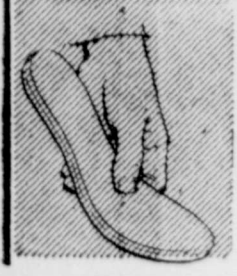

Theft Losses

You can claim a deduction for the value of property that is stolen. The problem in claiming losses from theft is that you will probably have to show some evidence that the theft took place. Be sure that there is at least a police record of the theft and a report of any findings the police may have come up with. Also, you might keep track of newspaper accounts, insurance reports, and so on. Theft losses are deductible in the year you discover that your property is missing.

You can get additional information on casualty and theft deductions from the instruction booklet issued by the Internal Revenue Service each year.

sometimes, they hit the wrong people (or are they the wrong ones). We have our doubts.

If, in a community, nobody differed, it wouldn't be much of a community, and we were told that when we first started in the newspaper business some 25 years ago, that this as just 'one little community and there were no 2 sides—just one big family. We didn't believe it then, and don't yet. They's 2 sides to every question.

After 25 years we're still learning, and expect to.

Those who have the most to say generally use the fewest words.
