DPS SEEKING GATESVILLE FUGITIVE: HANDCUFFED BUT STOL OFFICERS CAR

The Department of Public Safety broadcast a 2-state alarm Friday for Billy G. Ezzell, 15, an escapee from SSB who sole a station wagon and car Thursday.

Sent here from Houston, he escaped 10 days ago and was caught in El Paso. A probation officer there left with him and a girl in the station wagon going to Gainesville to deliver her, and left the boy in the car handcuffed. Ezzell got into the front seat, started the wagon and it was found wrecked in northeast Cook County.

Later a 61 car was stolen at Sandusky and DPS presume Ezzell stole it.

Big Spring Negro Boy Is Charged With Stabbing 84-Cear-Old Woman

Robert Lonnie Bailey, 15, arrived at SSB 12 hours after he was charged with stabbing an 84 year old woman to death with grass clippers.

Mrs. Martha Hathock, motherin-law of Big Spring Mayor Dr. Lee Rogers was the victim. Besides the stabbing, there was evidence of attempted rape.

The boy had recently been arrested on a house burglary charge and under questioning admitted 17 house burglaries at Big Spring.

The blood-covered grass clippers were found a block from the woman's home, and two granddaughters of the victim found her body bloodsoaked in her 6 room home. A note printed on paper used by school students found under her leg threaened the woman's life in obscne language. On ther other side, was a Spanish lesson.

$25,000 FOR FM ROADS IS TO BE SPENT IN COUNTY: $618,000 IN THIS DIST: --69-

Some $618,000 or 24.8 miles of highway will be involved in the FM program for this district, according to District Engineer Thomas C. Collier of Waco.

Coryell County's part will be from the end of FM 2671 at Mc-Lennan County Line, south to FM 102 and St. Hwy. 236, a disna ectof about 1.9 miles. $25,000 will be the cost of this.

Work will be under the supervision of Paul T. Hensler, Senior Resident Engineer, Gatesville.

This is a part of the $15 million FM Road Constructeion Program for 133 counties, and some 600 miles of new FM roads will be buit. This is for 1 year instead Freeport in surprisingly good conof the usual 4.

There are now 34,000 miles of FMs and much of the money appropriated goes to maintenance of Friday night. these.
