COUNTY WILL HAVE 95-CENT TAX RATE AGAIN

Coryell County's 95-cent tax rate is almost certain to be retained this year, County Judge Norman Storm said this week as he prepared the county's budget for 1967.

Indications are the 1967 budget will run about $20,000 higher than this year's, the judge said, but there will be increased revenue from a hike in the tax valuation. The commissioners' court has adjusted some low renditions, increasing the total valuation by about a million dollars.

Storm said the 1967 budget will probably total $525,000. Expenditures listed in the county's 1966 budget amounted to $505,114.62.

The tax rate will be formally adopted by the commissioners' court later this summer.

WASHINGTON AND 'SMALL BUSINESS'

By C. WILSON HARDER

The Administration appears unable to gauge future expenses and results of the continuing Vietnam war. The Joint Committee, a bi-partisan advisory group of high-level Congressmen recently listened to Robert Anthony, Defense Department Comptroller announce the conflict as one that will be fought for an indefinite period, but with no danger of economic recession.

But concern from qualified sources C. W. Harder draws out the Administration's drumbeats. Economist Daniel Suits of Michigan reveals, "The general effect of the war spending in Vietnam has been to divert more than two years of normal growth in economic capacity away from other programs and alternative uses."

Senators John Stennis, Mississippi and William Proxmire, Wisconsin, recently chastised the Government for underestimating war expenditures, which will really total $4 to $6 billion rather than the $2.5 billion figure dished out by the Defense Dept.

The semi-annual meeting of the Business Council brought forth the consensus of 100 leading industrialists that further escalation of the Vietnam War will increasingly injure business with accompanying higher taxes, shrinking profits, and a sky-rocketing national deficit.

© National Federation of Independent Business

In his recent Senate plea, Senator George McGovern, South Dakota, quoted the late General Douglas MacArthur: "Anyone who commits American forces to a land war in Asia ought to have his head examined."

And Senator Charles Percy, Illinois, in a reply to Gen. Westmoreland said: "We must answer whether we are prepared to allow our men to die... for an interminable number of years in search of total victory which cannot really be achieved."

Another cry of alarm was the significant white paper issued by the Senate Republican Policy Committee's staff challenging bi-partisan loyalty for Administration policy as well as the policy itself.

Further evidence of the Administration's tragic confusion is illustrated in a Washington dispatch to the Wall St. Journal:

"From Defense Sec. MacNamara on down, they're becoming increasingly convinced that there are no further practical steps the U. S. can take that will have a meaningful effect on the war. Yet they will go along with a stepped-up pace simply for lack of alternative proposals... the escalation moves are expected to be made, like so many other past steps primarily because of Administration frustration with the war's slow progress."

Indeed a destructive course to alleviate "Administration frustration!"

JUDGE ORDERS

SANITY HEARING

Judge Truman Roberts has ordered a sanity hearing July 21 for J. D. Manning Jr., 37-year-old Harmon rancher under indictment for murder with malice in connection with the shotgun slaying of his wife, Rose Ann.

Judge Roberts ordered the sanity hearing during arraignment proceedings in 52nd District Court. Manning entered a plea of innocent to the murder charge.

Manning was arrested shortly after the Jan. 17 slaying and has been held in Coryell County jail since.

GATESVILLE BANKS SHOW

$13.5 MILLION DEPOSITS.

Bank deposits in Gatesville have spiraled upward about 12 per cent in the last year—registering a half million dollars—and local bankers say it's caused by just plain good times.

Continuing the years-long trend of setting new all-time highs with each report, the two banks showed deposits totaling $13,515,421.41 at the close of business on June 30.

That's $1,446,020.75 more than on the same date a year ago—and nearly $5 million more than was on deposit five years ago.

A million dollars of the current gain in bank deposits was registered during the first six months of 1967, the largest increase of any six month period during this decade.

In view of Coryell County's scant grain harvest and the dry weather, bankers said agribusiness alone could not account for the increase.

What To Do In a Tornado

- People in open country can view the approach of a tornado and move at right angles to its path. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression, such as a ditch or ravine.
- In towns or cities, seek shelter inside, preferably in a substantial building. Stay away from windows.
- The southwest corner of the basement of a frame house is safer than in a brick or stone house. If there is no basement, lie down on the first floor under a table or bed (preferably in the southwest corner).
- Urban schools: Stay inside, away from windows; remain near an inside wall on a lower floor. Avoid auditoriums and gymnasiums.
- Rural schools of frame construction: Teachers should remove children to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

Boating Tips...

DISTRESS SIGNALS

With today's finely engineered motors and modern boats there's seldom need to summon aid while afloat. Statistics show that the major reason for distress cries is simply "running out of gas."

If you ever find yourself in this embarrassing position, here's how to attract attention, say the Mercury outboard people. If other boats are in sight, stand with your arms spread and move them up and down like a bird's wings. Or you can attach a white shirt to a fish-pole or oar and wave it back and forth above your head.

Some other ways are: signal "SOS" (three dots, three dashes, three dots) with a flashlight; activate one of the smoke flares designed for just such situations; continuously sound any fog-signal apparatus; raise a square flag with a ball or something resembling a ball underneath it; carry emergency flares with you and set one off whenever anyone approaches in a boat or airplane.

Better still, carry enough gas.

English Imports

by Betty Crocker

Some of our jolliest imports from England, of course, are recipes and food customs. Take tea, always at its best English style. Start with fresh cold water and bring to a brisk boil before pouring over tea leaves (1 teaspoon per cup). Steep 3 to 5 minutes. Or how about pumpkin pie? Long before Mayflower days, the English were enjoying it with chopped apples added to the pumpkin. Then there's famous Yorkshire pudding, the "popover-like" side dish for roast beef that's easy and elegant. And for dessert, be sure to try the English originals below. The custardy, chilled cake with winery fruit flavor called Trifle Cake . . . and spicy gingerbread.

ENGLISH TRIFLE

- 1 1/2 cups Bisquick
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 3 tablespoons soft butter or shortening
- 1 egg
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 3/4 cup milk
- Raspberry jam
- 1/2 cup sherry flavoring
- 1 package (about 3 1/2 ounces) vanilla pudding and pie filling
- 1/2 cup toasted slivered almonds
- 3/4 cup whipping cream
- 3 tablespoons confectioners' sugar
- Chopped candied cherries

Heat oven to 350° Grease and flour square pan, 8x8x2 inches. In large mixer bowl, beat Bisquick, sugar, butter, egg, vanilla and 1/4 cup of the milk 1 minute at medium speed, scraping sides and bottom of bowl frequently. Add remaining milk; beat 1/2 minute. Pour into prepared pan. Bake 35 to 40 minutes. Cool.

Cut into 16 pieces. Slice each piece in half horizontally; spread slices with raspberry jam. Arrange like sandwiches in square pan, 8x8x2 inches. Sprinkle with sherry flavoring. Prepare vanilla pudding and pie filling as directed on package except — increase milk to 2 1/2 cups. Cool. Pour over cake. Sprinkle with almonds. Whip cream and confectioners' sugar; spread over cake. Chill 4 hours. Top with cherries. Cut into squares. 9 servings.

Apricot Topped Gingerbread
From mix or scratch recipe, bake your favorite gingerbread in square pan. Cover top of baked gingerbread with slices of bananas. Over it pour warm Apricot Glaze: 1 can (1 lb. 4 oz.) apricots with juice mixed with 1 cup sugar and 1/2 cup boiling water. Boil until thick like jam. Veddy good!

Brigitta Wickman of Sister Bay, Wis., is in a pensive mood after an active day on the water. An estimated 40 million Americans will join her in boating this year.

The Physician And The Campesinos

Though urbanization is everywhere upon their lands, over 100 million Latin Americans today still are no part of the big, bloating city.

They are campesinos, country folk, much like the members of the family here, in the Guatemalan village of Santa Maria Cauque. And their home is usually a settlement of less than 2,000 inhabitants, one of many dotting the topography of 20 Latin American nations.

But no matter the country of the campesinos, theirs is a common lot of malnourishment, and poor education, and low income. They are beset by high mortality rates — for the age group 15 to 45, in some cases, their rate is three times higher than the urbanites'. An estimated 40 million of them need potable water now.

In short, they are generally the last group to benefit from national programs for improved health and welfare.

Yet, the campesinos count for a sizeable chunk of Latin America's total population. In fact, for about one half of it.

Because of such compelling facts, Dr. Abraham Horwitz, director of the Pan American Sanitary Bureau, regional office for the World Health Organization, rates the improvement of the rural Latin Americans' life and livelihood as the foremost, challenge to hemisphere public health.

He speaks with impressive credentials — as recently re-elected director, to his third four-year term beginning February 1, of a continent-wide health program, and as a 1966 winner of a ranking U.S. honor, the Bronfman prize.

Awarded to him by the American Public Health As-

PHYSICIAN'S VISIT — Making a house call in rural Guatemala, along with a vigorous point, is Dr. Abraham Horwitz of Chile, in 1966 a top newsmaker in international public health, and, with the New Year, an advocate of health as an agenda item for a projected inter-American summit conference.

sociation, the prize is for "adroit and diplomatic leadership that has resulted in unprecedented advances in the improvement of health services in the hemisphere."

The Chilean physician opens the New Year immersed in exactly such a role — as a chief advocate for health topics, and prime among them, rural health, as agenda items for a projected Western Hemisphere heads of state summit scheduled for April.

The idea of an inter-American summit has gained steady support for over a year, with chiefs of state of Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, the United States, and Venezuela among those coming out for it.

Though a summit agenda is still in the making, as are the place and the exact days for the parley to be decided, often mentioned as presidential-calibre items are agriculture, arms control, and the economic integration of Latin America. But, thus far at least, not so health.

The presidential talks, Dr. Horwitz holds, can mean a "powerful inducement" to stepping-up programs for the well-being of the largest single segment in Latin America.

GATESVILLE DRIVER UNHURT IN CRASH FATAL TO THREE

Three people were killed Wednesday night, June 28, when the car in which they were riding collided with a pickup truck on FM 580 a quarter mile east of Lampasas.

Killed were Lawrence Casey, 28; his two-year-old daughter, Jonathan Kay; and Stanley Cox, 31.

Driver of the pickup truck, Floyd Henson of Gatesville, was not injured. Investigating officers said Henson's truck was parked on the side of the road at the time of the collision.

Henson was driving the truck for the rendering plant at Mound. Funeral services for Mr. Cox,

Those new sheets will last a lot longer if they're properly laundered and cared for: The recommended tucked-in sheets be loosened from all edges of the bed before they are removed. Pulling sheets without loosening them will weaken the fabric and may slit weak spots. Mitered corners should be loosened to avoid ripping. If the sheet should rip or tear, mend it before laundering. Small tears will become larger in washing.

Don't use a sheet as a laundry bag. This puts a strain on the sheet and increases snagging and soiling. Time can be saved by not folding sheets before they are put into the laundry bag.

When line-drying sheets, fold the sheet hem and lap about four inches over the line. After securely pinning the sheet, straighten the salvages with your fingers. When sheets are dry, fold them as they are removed from the line. Ironing is not necessary if sheets are folded evenly.

When drying sheets in the dryer, they should be removed before they are completely dry unless the dryer has a moisture setting control. Remove sheets as soon as the dryer stops. If sheets are folded immediately after removal from the dryer, you'll save a lot of ironing time. You may, however, prefer to press at least the top 12 inches, which will show when the bed is made.

SAFETY REGULATIONS

In early 1965 the federal government sought authority to regulate safety activities and standards in the natural gas pipeline industry. Since then the Department of Transportation has been created and charged with the safety aspects of air, water and land transportation. Now the government is asking for legislation to include pipeline safety also as a part of the department's function.

The proposed legislation, 'Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1967' would authorize the Secretary of Transportation to prescribe safety regulations for natural gas moved by pipeline.

The Secretary would be able to prescribe safety regulations for all aspects of gas pipeline transportation including the design, installation, inspection, testing, construction including design, installation and maintenance both of pipe already in the ground and new pipelines and facilities. BACKYARD SAFETY

These Summer days, we do as much outdoor living as weather permits. When not mowing or watering our lawns we're sunning, playing or eating outside. Sentry Insurance offers these timely safety precautions:

- Lawn tools should always be stored when not in use. A power mower is especially inviting for children, also especially dangerous.
- Pesticides should only be used when really needed and then sprayed away from food items.
- Make your little nibblers aware of the lethal poison in the tulip bulb, foxglove leaf, potato sprout and the rhododendron. Even the lovely lily-of-the-valley is poisonous when eaten.
- Stings from bees, wasps, hornets and mosquitos can be serious. More people die from insect stings than from snake bites. If the bitten area swells rapidly, call your doctor immediately.
- In using barbecue grills:
 - Cook in a well ventilated area. Grills should never be used inside unless there's a flue. Never bring a lit grill into closed quarters.
 - Avoid kerosene, gasoline or lighter fluid.
 - Try electrical fire starters which carry the UL safety label.
 - If you prefer the liquid fire starters, add the liquid before—never after—igniting.

What They Wore... By PHYLLIS JOYCE

THE HAWAIIANS HAVE TRADITIONALLY UTILIZED THE MAGNIFICENT FRUITS OF THE ISLANDS IN THE FABRICS OF THEIR CLOTHING. RENGUE, THE SHEER, STARCHED FABRIC IN THE FORMAL DRESS OF THE UPPER CLASS HAWAIIAN OF THE 1930'S WAS MADE FROM NATIVE PINEAPPLE.

THE HULA DANCER OF THIS PERIOD EXPRESSED THE GAIETIES OF LIFE WEARING A SKIRT OF RICH GREEN LEAVES AND EMBROIDERED SILK AND FLOWERED LEIS.

THE FIRST SHIFT DRESSES TO HIT MAINLAND AMERICA WERE ACTUALLY A SIMPLIFIED VARIATION OF THE FORMAL HAWAIIAN MUU-MUUS DISCOVERED BY AMERICAN COLLEGE GIRLS VISITING HAWAII IN THE 1950'S.

Spring Is for Fishin'

In the spring rivers run fast and deep and fishing reaches the height of its popularity. Many boaters rely on light "car-top" boats and small outboards like this six-horsepower Mercury to avoid the shoreline crowds that go with spring angling.
