Rockets - Hornets To Duel In Football Opener

Football and cool weather are here. The Hornets will open their 1968 campaign against the Robinson Rockets tonight at 8:00 p.m. in McKamie Stadium.

Coach Jack Gunlock will start the following boys on offense: Reggie Schoenewolf, tight end; Gene Brazier, tight guard; Wayne Shirley, center; Keith Bell, middle guard; James Ingram, tackle; Randy Schoenewolf, strong guard; Buddy Wiggins, split end; Mike Barr, quarterback; Mike Gaston, fullback; Gary Carothers, fullback; and Raymond Cole or Larry McCutchen, wingback. On defense: Wayne Shirley and Gene Brazier, guards; Randy Schoenewolf and James Ingram, tackles; Doug Freeman and Lynn Massingale, ends; Gary Carothers and Don Gillette, linebackers; Mike Barr and Larry Smith or Larry McCutchen, halfbacks and Raymond Cole, safety.

The Hornet roster is full of qualified talent, however, only eleven can play at a time. The Hornets' reserves lost some valuable depth through the preseason with Dick Belf and Chris Bone both out for extended periods. Belf underwent a knee operation on Wednesday to correct an injury suffered in the intersquad scrimmage two weeks ago. Bone recently chipped his knee cap during practice and will be out indefinitely (at least three weeks). Raymond Cole has been sick with a virus during the week and is possibly out for the opener.

Gunlock and his staff have made a major change in their personnel this week with a shift of Mike Gaston to tailback. Gaston has always displayed good running techniques and the Weatherford scrimmage set the stage for change. Mike Barr proved to be a capable signal caller in pre-

Game looks for the Robinson team to center around a fine quarterback and an outside running game. "They will run the option pass or run with their fine quarterback," reported Gunlock. Robinson will work on the Hornet defensive secondary with a focus on their right end and halfback.

Gunlock noted that the Rocket fullback was quick and could hurt a wide-open Hornet defense.

The action is at McKamie Stadium and predictions vary considerably. This year, we will try our luck at guessing the outcome. Hornets 24 - Rockets 7.

CITY AD VALOREM TAX RATE SET AT $1.35

City Councilmen voted Tuesday night, September 10 at the regular monthly Council session to maintain the present ad valorem tax rate of $1.35 per $100 evaluation.

The City Tax Evaluation has been completed with a slight increase in total evaluation from 1968, at $7.4 million (approximately) to $7.8 million for 1969. Mayor Miller reported Wednesday that the 1968-69 budget would be finalized at the October 8, 1968 meeting of the council. Miller estimated that the budget for the coming year would be up, to some degree.

New programs such as a sanitary fill, swimming pool, library and street-water system improvements will make up a large part of the budget. The local ad valorem tax will draw into the city general fund approximately $105,000 to finance the 1969 budget expected to be larger than the $347,691.40 budget for 1968.

The council reviewed and certified the recent city sales tax election which saw the measure approved by 321 to 78 vote margin.

The council hired an engineer to survey a drainage system for the area of north Gatesville through the Housing Authority Project to Mill Branch at the city limits.

An open concrete drainage system has been proposed for the area.

The engineer will also map and survey the city west of the Leon River for future sewer and water systems. Development in the Westview area has already demanded a new system.

A ground level reservoir has been proposed for the areas west of the present city limits.

JAYCEES TO BEGIN INSTALLATION OF LIGHTS SOON

The Gatesville Jaycees are continuing their efforts to raise funds to install lights around the county courthouse in Gatesville.

Program director, Tom Kennedy, has completed a downtown campaign for funds this week.

Kennedy reported that the fund raising has been slow and $800 is still needed to finance the project. Anyone wishing to donate can do so at either Gatesville Bank with a deposit to the Coryell County Courthouse Lighting Fund account.

The Jaycees have been seeking bids for the installation of the dome lights at present. Kennedy anticipates the signing of the necessary contract within two weeks and construction can begin immediately.

An estimated two weeks installation time will be required to complete the project. Kennedy projected that the lights could be turned on by the latter part of October or first of November.

The lights around the lower section of the courthouse will be installed by the Jaycees with final adjustment of the fixtures by Verd-a-Ray Corporation consultants.

Nineteen fixtures have been planned to illuminate the landmark building. Six lights will be installed around the dome-clock section of the building with four of the fixtures highlighting the dome and other two lights will accent the two statues atop the third floor.

Thirteen lights will be placed around the base of the building.

Mr. McKamie introduced our

ing. One of the thirteen will illuminate the Memorial Stone on the northeast corner of the courtyard.

The Jaycees will conduct air-plane excursion rides around the area Saturday and Sunday, September 14 and 15 at 4:00 p.m., with the help of area pilots.

Fee for the exciting experience and new outlook on Gatesville will be 1¢ per pound with a $1.00 minimum charge.

Just go out to the City-County Airport for the experience of a lifetime.

Food For Thought

Mrs. B.A. Snoddy

"No room for them in the Inn", Luke 2:7

We would like to bring a few things for us to think about from the above scripture, and see if we can find any resemblance to our busy lives of today.

Bible students know that this is the writing concerning the time that Joseph and Mary went up to pay their taxes; Cæsar Augustus had decreed that all the world should be taxed, each family, according to their lineage, were to go to different villages or towns; Joseph, because he was of the house and lineage of David, went up from Nazareth to Bethlehem, with Mary, his espoused wife - great with child.

Can you not see, in your mind the little city of Bethlehem, that night? Many people from out of town, hustling here and there trying to find a lodging place.

People with their goods and wares on display, because of the extra crowds; greetings, one to another - but for Joseph and Mary there was a special need for a place to rest, that night. Can you not hear the Inn Keeper, as he turned them away: "Sorry, no room for you." He was not aware of whom he was turning away.

This lesson is typical of the people of today; they live such busy, hurried lives, which is so like the enemy of our souls, would have it, until there is no room for Jesus.

But even in Jesus day, as He became man, and lived on earth, when He was visiting in Martha and Mary's home, Martha was so troubled and busy with her homework, she just couldn't find time to sit at Jesus' feet as Mary did, to learn of Him.

During the ministry of Jesus, He saw a man blind from his birth, he was now a grown man and begged for his living; Jesus healed his blindness and he went away seeing, and because it was the Sabbath day, the Pharisees condemned the act and said of Jesus that He was not of God, because He didn't keep the Sabbath day, neither did they believe the healed man's testimony, so they asked his parents if he was their son and how he came to see, but they wouldn't acknowledge anything except that in their son, and said "He is of age - ask him", when they were questioned about his healing, because they were afraid they'd be put out of the Synagogue, John 9:25.

Their heart was full of fear, and of what man could do to them, and had no room to give praise unto the Lord for the wonderful thing done unto their son.

On another occasion, a certain ruler asked Jesus, saying, "Good Master what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus began to tell him the commandments of the old law and the young man told Him he had kept them from his youth up, then Jesus touched the part of his life that he couldn't give up, which was his property, and told him to sell all that he had and distribute unto the poor; The young man went away very sorrowful, for he was very rich, Luke 18:18-23. This young man's life was full of his personal desires and he had no room in his life to follow the Lord.

People of all walks of life have crowded the Lord out, with many different kinds of things; some want material possessions, others fear what man will think of them; some want popularity, but the equasion is the same; no room in the Inn of their hearts.

We find this same spirit arising in our Supreme Court, which says there is no room in our schools for prayer, or reading of the scriptures; no room in the UN for prayer, asking God's wisdom in solving the world's problems, afraid they'll offend the atheistic nations assembled there.

When our nation was young, and the colleges and higher institutions of learning, began to be built, it is said that in the hallways of every college the words of Proverbs 1:7 were found: "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge". Quoting God's word: "Because I have called and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; but ye have set at naught all my council, and would have none of my reproof, I also will laugh at your calamity. I will mock when your fear cometh - - - for that, they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the Lord". Prov. 1:24-29. Jesus stands at the Inn of our hearts and knocks, waiting an invitation to come in. How important it is, that we make room for Him.

National Cotton Council Proposes $10 Million Program

Reporting to the fall Board meeting of the National Cotton Council here (in Brownsville) today, staff members outlined a $10 million cotton research and promotion program for 1969.

The program will be executed by the Council for the Cotton Producers Institute and will be financed primarily by growers contributing $1 per bale under the Cotton Research and Promotion Act.

About 200 cotton industry leaders from the Lower Rio Grande valley all heard the presentations.

Ernest Stewart, New York, the Council's director of promotion, said the CPI promotion budget for 1969 will be $6.6 million, as compared with $5.3 million this year.

David Hull, Memphis, the Council's market research director, reported on a study of 294 ads run to retain organizations cooperating in the CPI campaign. He said 85 percent of the buyers had increased sales and almost half sold out and had to reorder advertised items.

George S. Buck, Jr., Memphis, director of research, said results can be expected quicker as impact of 1968 and 1969 research expansion is felt. He pointed out that CPI's program for 1969 is almost $1 million greater than 1968 and that the effort this year was triple that of 1967.

Dr. M.K. Horne, Jr., Memphis, the Council's chief economist, said the low crop estimate and carryover of 6.7 million bales add up to the smallest U.S. cotton supply since the Korean War. The tight supply was described as the principal reason for cotton's exceptional losses to synthetic fibers.

"Except for this factor," Dr. Horne noted, "cotton has advantages which could score large market gains."

He listed comfort, versatility, favorable consumer attitudes, progress in research and promotion, and expanding consumption as advantages for cotton.

Read P. Dunn, Jr., Washington, executive director of the International Institute for Cotton, said many of the most experienced chemists and physicists in Europe are conducting fundamental research to overcome abrasion and strength loss in chemically finished cotton textiles.

Carl Campbell, Washington, director of foreign operations, emphasized that U.S. cotton must be competitive in price, quality and availability on a continuing basis if a return to normal levels of exports is to be realized.

Earle Younts, Lubbock, southwest area supervisor, explained how industry members, representatives of allied groups suppliers, and educational services have joined forces in an effort to get more cotton products stocked by retailers and sold to consumers.

Members of the Board toured the area, viewing agricultural and industrial operations in the Valley and in Mexico. The beef cattle industry has enjoyed a tremendous increase in the consumption of beef, due in part to selection programs being employed by more and more breeders, says Dr. Frank A. Orts, Extension meats specialist at Texas A & M University.

Consumers are asking for and getting more muscular beef cuts along with more quality. Quality of lean and quantity of lean are not antagonistic, so a breeder can select for these two attributes at the same time.

Marbling, which is a measure of beef palatability and tenderness, muscling, fat covering on the outside of the carcass and fast gaining animals, are highly heritable. Therefore, all of these economically important beef carcass traits can be used in a selection program. But a breeder must also include in his selection program percent calf crop, weaning weight and feed efficiency in order to produce cattle economically, Orts says.

A breeder should secure carcass evaluation data on at least 15 steers or heifers from each sire to determine what type of carcasses his cattle are producing. This may be accomplished by enlisting in the various breed association carcass evaluation programs which offer a carcass evaluation service. A limited number of carcasses can be evaluated by Extension personnel. Local county Extension agents, said the specialist, can supply details on the evaluation programs.

on rural housing programs, established by the new act and previous legislation, for farmers and for other people in the countryside and in rural towns of up to 5,500 population.

New housing services under the act will include --

* Housing loan interest supplement payments for families with incomes too low to meet in full the amortized loan payments on individual rural housing loans.

* Interest supplements on loans to develop nonprofit rental and cooperative housing for low-income people.

* Financial support for "self-help" housing projects for low-income families including grants to nonprofit organizations for the development and supervision of "self-help" housing projects and loans to nonprofit organizations to buy and develop land to be used as building sites.

* Housing and training facilities for rural job trainees and their families.

* Expanded housing credit for city people who work in rural areas.

* Loans for the purchase of building sites for farm-labor housing.

Mr. Freeman announced that the interest - supplement program for individual borrowers under the Farmers Home Administration authority (Title X of the Act) will be placed in effect immediately. Individual loans may be made for up to 33 years, loans for rental and cooperative housing may be made payable over periods up to 50 years.

The interest - supplement program for nonprofit rental housing organizations and cooperatives of low-income families will take effect when administrative arrangements are completed. The new provisions for use in small towns.

sions for job-trainees and self-help housing assistance will not take effect until funds are appropriated.

The interest - supplement plan seeks to put adequate housing within reach of lower-income families by reducing their loan or rent payments. The supplement payments will be made by the Federal Government.

A minimum requirement is that a home - ownership borrower who does not have enough income to pay his loan installments in full will pay at least the amount that would be due if the interest rate were one per cent.

The actual amount that a low-income family will need to pay will depend on its income and the size of the family.

Freeman said the new Act will facilitate a back-to-the-country movement by city dwellers who work in rural areas. They no longer will be required to own rural homesites in order to be eligible for Farmers Home Administration rural housing loans to build homes where they work. They also will now be able to buy an existing home in a rural area.

The Act also eliminates an old provision that any tenant admitted to a Farmers Home Administration - financed rural unit, or any new member of a rural housing co-op, must already be a rural resident. In the future, low-income city dwellers who work in rural localities may move directly from the city into Farmers Home Administration - financed rental or co-op unit.

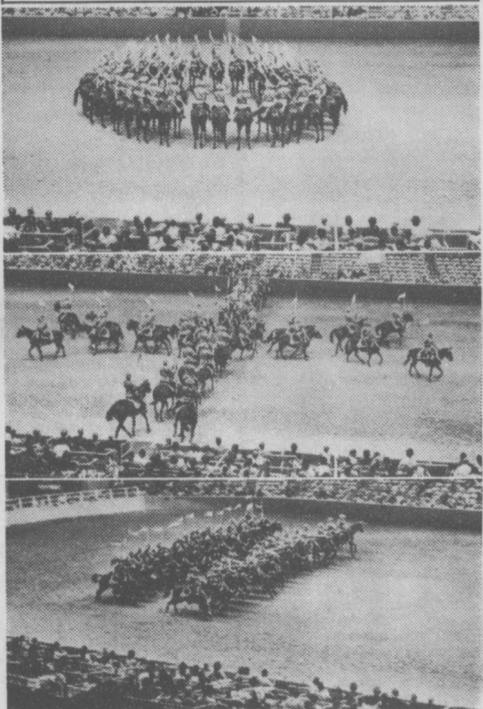

Technical Action Panels, which include top local representatives of the USDA agencies that have local offices in rural areas, will help rural communities gain access to all provisions of the new housing legislation that can be adapted for use in small towns.

For further information regarding the new housing authorizations of the Farmers Home Administration, please contact Vance Stephens, Coryell County Supervisor at 2504 E. Main Street, Gatesville, Texas.

EVANT NEWS

Evant really feels "on the map" getting so much extra attention from the presses these days. It makes us look real fine all headlined and with the Elk Tracks added as a school development feature. With word continuing to come in from far and wide, to the effect that the readers like the word, our ego is inflated enough to want more to write.

The best "human interest story" of the week, has to be cut short, for it is a long story, at best. Beginning during the maneuvers of the United States Army, back in the fifties, a correspondence between a young soldier's wife and this writer has brought stacks of delightful letters to the Kreid family. Like any "pack rat" would-be writer, I have saved the letters and now I know why. Word came, last week, of the birth of their son, August 14, who is named Johnnie Bryan Harvell. The only light we have actually needed on the place since the word came, was the shining face of our own Bryan, upon receiving the news. Among the remarkable features is that Mrs. Harvell, now in her mid-thirties, is a former heart patient, recovered by open heart surgery, after years of discomfort. Last year, she underwent surgery twice also, and this year, here is her "pay off". A mechanic and Baptist minister, Mr. Harvell is the may who stayed on our stockyard for hours and we just could not stand to see him starve... so we fed him chicken and dumplings; he gave us his bride's address, back in Oaksboro, North Carolina, and thus the wedding of a friendship has resulted, without the families ever meeting at all, as a whole.

MRS. MANNING RETURNS HOME

Mrs. Carl Manning who has recently undergone plastic surgery in Temple is home and doing well now.

EVANT CIVIC LEADER DIES

The most tragic news is the death of Mrs. Ralph Perryman, wife of school trustee, and herself an officer in Evant School's PTA as well as active member of Evant Church of Christ. The mother of two of Evant's school children, Mrs. Perryman died in a Galveston Hospital, early Sunday, following a brief infection. The family, residents of Liberty - Ohio, have always been an active part of the community, in general. Local relatives include Mrs. Claude Griggs, an aunt of Mrs. Perryman and Mrs. Isabel Flippins, a sister-in-law of the deceased. Services were held Monday afternoon at Evant Church of Christ, with Evant Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. A full obituary will be carried elsewhere in the newspaper.

AREA YOUTHS ATTEND FELLOWSHIP

Sunday afternoon, at 5:30 a joint meeting of the youth from Pearl, Plainview, Bee House and Evant united in a true fellowship meeting in the Evant Methodist Church, prior to the regular meeting of the M.Y.F. group, in Evant United Methodist Church Fellowship hall. Under the leadership of Mrs. Lilburn Green, the young people sang, talked and had refreshments. Age groups from Junior to college age was represented. These meetings bid fair to continue, as it is to be planned on a once a month basis, to go from one church to another sharing program materials and ideas.

MRS. SAWYER RECOVERING FROM EYE SURGERY

Mrs. P. R. Sawyer is making fine recovery from her latest eye surgery at Irving. She is remaining in that city to be near her doctor and in the home of her children. The miracle of eye surgery, affording a new ability to see again, after one becomes so near blind as she did, is noting short of a wonderful event.

MRS. J.H. BALLOW IN HAMILTON HOSPITAL

Mrs. J.H. Ballow, a patient in Hamilton County General

Hospital, is improving. Her sister, Mrs. Smith, Wichita Falls, came Friday, to be with her and the family and to bring her a birthday cake.

NO NEWS OF MRS. SINGLETON

No late report at the time of this writing, concerning Mrs. Tom Singleton, mother of Johnnie and Elmer Singleton of this town, she is a patient in January Care Home.

MATTHEWS BOYS OFF TO COLLEGE

The third son of Rev. and Mrs. George Matthews has entered college, in preparation for following ministerial duties. Bruce is enrolled in Southwestern, Georgetown, Cortis in Perkins School at S.M.U., as is the elder brother, Neal, who holds a church and is still in school, in S.M.U.

EVANT RESIDENT'S RELATIVES DIES

Word came to Evant, Thursday of the death of Mrs. Omra Newton, Tulia. She was a sister of Mr. Jim Kincheloe, Evant and Paul Kincheloe, Moline. The brothers attended the funeral, Friday, AT Tulia.

THOMPSON - ARMSTRONG HAS NEW GRANDCHILD

A note came from Mr. and Mrs. Noble a Craft, Abilene, announcing the birth of a second child, Nathaniel Aaron, on August 20. The "big Brother", Shannon and the baby are great-grandchildren of Mrs. Joe Thompson and Mr. Archie Armstrong, Evant. Mrs. Thompson spent ten days with the young family, who brought her home the first of last week. In conversation with Mrs. Thompson, we learned that Noble Craft, is now a successful contractor, with plans, at present, to do work in both Lampasas and Gatesville. He keeps three crews of workmen busy. No surprise, really, for no boy left an half-orphan ever tried and was a better young grocer by than former Evant student, Noble Craft. Mrs. Craft will be remembered as Connie Armstrong, daughter of the late Charles Armstrong and Loretta Thompson Armstrong. Noble's mother is now making her home in Abilene, also, after living for several years in Tyler, after moving from Evant.

EVANT P-TA MEMBERS HOLD MEETING

The Evant P - TA meets Thursday night in the School Cafeteria at 8:00 p.m. A meeting of executive officers will meet at 7:30 in the office. This is the first meeting of the new school year. Plan to come and join our P-TA organization. The dues for membership are $1.00. Let's make this a good year by attending all five meetings.

EVANT PERSONALS

The Matthews family spent part of last week visiting with relatives in Temple, and referred to it as their vacation. No one felt neglected in Evant, for all the congregation knew they were barely away.

CA. ADAMSES HAVE VISITORS

Last week's guests of Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Adams included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones, Roswell, New Mexico. They were enroute to HemisFair, too. The Adams report a recent visit to her mother's bedside at Haskell. Mrs. Edith Smith, a patient in a rest home there, is doing as well as usual. We hope to acquire a listing on college bound students for next week. All we know, now, is that Claudia Prays, who spent some of the summer in San Angelo College is home and happy over her summer work. She is one who will re-enter college in a few days. Others of the spring class will be off to college for the first time.

Rays' Granddaughter Member of "Greasepaint" Cast

Temple Civic Theater Opens Fall Musical On Happy Note

Reprinted from Temple Daily Telegram

The Temple Civic Theater's fall musical, "The Roar of the Greasepaint, the Smell of the Crowd", opened on a happy note Wednesday night with a full-house of theater goers.

The play, a quick-moving musical by Leslie Bricusse and Anthony Newley, is a cutting satire on the game of life, illustrating the plight of the underdog and the overdog.

Chadlie Voelter gives an enjoyable performance of Sir, an obnoxious character who keeps winning the game by changing the rules at the expense of "the Loser", Cocky (W.R. Freeman).

While all the time declaring that "I'm not perfect, nobody's perfect," Sir continues to shout the praises of honest, integrity and fair play as he violates his own rules to insure a win over his opponent.

It's not until the second act that Cocky gains the upper hand with Sir and wins the confidence of the Kid (Mrs. Jo Ann Childers), who up to this time has been Sir's right hand man.

Freeman gives a pleasurable performance as the underdog and wins the sympathy of the audience. In the supporting role, Mrs. Childers' manner on the stage makes up for her small verbal part.

Surprising good are the eleven urchins who represent the carefree days of youth. Collectively, the urchins give the performance its sparkle and charm. Their antics and song are delightful. The youngsters are Betsi Chamlee (Editor's Note: Betsi is the 11 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Chamlee of Temple and granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. Otis C. Ray of Gatesville), Cindy Lou Chipman, Marna Kay French, Logan Harlan, Lesley Meredith, Paula Popejoy, Eddie Rymearson, Jimmy Schwartz, Susie Schwartz, Terry Tuttle and Eddie Walker.

Sets and costumes are left to essentials and are simple but adequate for the contemporary abstract production.

Music and choreography are excellent. All performers are adequate in their dual role as vocalists especially the Dream Girl (Mrs. Kathy Brewer) and the Negro, (Eddy Duckens). Mrs. Joni Evans is director of choreography.

The 20-piece orchestra made up of housewives, businessmen and students is an important but unseen segment of the production. Under the direction of Wayne Bachus, the orchestra which organized for the duration of the play, holds up exceptionally well under the demands for a three-hour musical.

The play is directed by Charles Taylor who has brought a touch of professionalism to the theater. He also directed "The County Girl", in which he had a lead role, and "Affairs and State".

"The Roar of the Greasepaint the Smell of the Crowd" will be presented at the Cultural Activities Center, Thursday and Saturday at 8:15 p.m. and Sunday at 2:30 p.m. Tickets for the evening performances are $2.50 for adults and $2 for students and military. Matinee prices are $2 and $1.50.

Over The GARDEN FENCE by R.B.

The nights grow cooler, a haze hangs over the landscape and the autumnal equinox is almost here. The time when the length of the day equals that of the night and the sun pauses for a moment before turning again to the south. As the days grow shorter and the flowers in our garden are putting on a last burst of bloom before winter, it is time to think of drying some summer blooms for our winter pleasure.

The easiest method of drying flowers has always been to hang them upside down in small bunches in a dark, dry area, such as an attic or closet. This works well for cockscomb, goldenrod, strawflowers, honesty or yarrow. But many other flowers may be dried to add color to winter bouquets. All that is needed is a box of builders sand or some of the new silica gel crystals sold by florists for this purpose. Prepare the box with 1-1/2 or 2 inches of sand or silica gel on the bottom. Pick flowers for drying when just mature or slightly before. Those that have been blooming for a day or so are liable to lose their color in drying. Flowers should be picked in the middle of a dry sunny day. Leave only a small bit of stem, this can be extended with wire when ready for arranging.

After flowers are picked, strip all leaves from stems and place such things as zinnias, daisies and other fairly flat flowers face down on the sand. Sprinkle additional sand over them until just covered. Roses, carnations and others like these are best placed face up and the sand sifted in among the petals. Long flowers such as larkspur and delphinium stalks are dried lengthwise by placing in a shallow trench and gently sifting the sand around them. As all flowers tend to darken in drying it is better to use lighter colored ones. A little experimentation will soon show which flowers dry best.

The wild grasses and grains dry easily, come in great variety and add needed neight to winter arrangements. Many other wild flowers also dry well, two of the best known being, gay-feathers or blazing stars and the candelabra shaped eryngo.

Miss Kathleen Sugg - Boyce Lee Edwards Repeat Nuptial Vows

Miss Kathleen Sugg and Boyce Lee Edwards exchanged vows in Evant Church of Christ, August 24, 1968 at 8:00 in the evening.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sugg of Evant and Mr. and Mrs. Lee O. Edwards of Youngsfort.

Minister Rollo Tinkler of Commerce solemnized the double-ring vows before an altar background of tall tapers, cup candle trees, greenery and a single arrangement of white gladioli, before which lay the open family Bible.

Pews were designated by satin bows for the families. Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The bride's bouquet was white orchid with stephanotis and white rose buds. She observed the tradition of something old, by wearing her mother's wedding band. She also carried out something borrowed, blue, new as well as the sixpence in her shoe.

Mrs. Richard Weeks, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor, while Miss Judy Crow served as bridesmaid, as did Mrs. Ralph Bane of Galton, Ohio, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Susan Weeks, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Steve Sugg served as ring bearer. The three attendants and flower girl were attired in southern belle gowns of light blue, with matching headbands, with veils dotted with baby breath flowers. They each carried brandy snifters with white floating candles in blue water.

Serving the groom as best man, was James M. Sullivan of Killeen. Serving as groomsmen were Stanley Sugg, brother of the bride, Vernon G. Edwards, cousin of the groom, Keith Sugg, brother of the bride and Rocky Edwards, brother of the groom, served as candlelighters. Richard Weeks and Delbert Sugg, brother of the bride served as ushers.

The bride's mother chose a dress of pink crepe and a white gardenia corsage for the wedding, while the groom's mother chose blue linen and an identical corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church. Mrs. Neal Teague of Killeen, registered the guests from a table decorated with white and blue mums.

A four-tiered cake, complemented by the groom's mother was served by Mrs. Barbara Davis of Breckenridge and Mrs. Coise Keith of Odessa. Miss Roberta Patsche of Fort Worth, presided at the punch bowl. The table was laid in all white, with silver and crystal serving pieces.

As the guests assembled to bid farewell to the couple, Ricky Weeks and Allan Bane passed out rice bags for the showers of good wishes.

For her going away costume, the bride chose a blue silk suit with white accessories. After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Lubbock, where Mr. Edwards is attending the Sunset School of Preaching.

after a short illness, at the age of 39.

HORNETS READY FOR ROBINSON

The Hornet Varsity will be giving it all they've got tonight against Robinson. I was in the dressing room earlier this week, and the boys look like they are ready to go. The spirit and enthusiasm was so thick, you could cut it with a knife, but the boys all seemed loose and relaxed and ready to play football.

The minute I walked into the room, the players started coming up and telling me exactly what they would do to Robinson. Tackle Randy Schoenewolf said that the Hornets would stomp the Rockets 42-0. Guard Mike Pate said that the Hornet defense would be too much for Robinson and that Gatesville would come out on top, 36-0. End Reggie Schoenewolf didn't want me to print his prediction. O.K. Reggie, but if you score a touchdown tonight, I won't print that either. Center and co-captain, Wayne Shirley, was in a more serious mood, and said that the Hornets would be victorious, 21-6.

Several GHS students gave their predictions of the coming game. All of them felt that Gatesville would win, but they disagreed on the final score. The predictions were: Bobby Stovall - 20-6; Sharon Hightower - 14-0; Victor Bird - 24-12; Carla Pfeffer - 28-6; David Powers - 21-7; Debbie Dyer - 31-13; Mike Dixon - 20-14; Danny Belf - 24-0 and Steve White - 7-14.

★ mr. ed ★

Dear Mr. Ed,
You are keeping your identity a secret. Uncle Charlie didn't keep his a secret. Why should you? He gained fame. Most everyone who sees him now calls him "Uncle Charlie". You should reveal your identity. Sooner or later you will be discovered. From my experience in G.H.S. nothing can be kept a secret for very long. News travels fast!

Seeking your identity

Dear Seeker,
Maybe I'm not a fortune hunter. Some people don't like certain people giving them advice. By keeping my identity a secret, they'll never know who's giving them advice on their problems and their love-life. If you were to find out who I really was, you would have to agree that love is my favorite subject.
Mr. Ed

Dear Mr. Ed,
I'm a Freshman girl who has liked this certain Senior boy for months. I never saw him very much until school started. Everytime I see him I try so hard to get him to notice me. There's only one thing wrong-my fee begin tying themselves around each other. I walk as if I'm going to fall. Do you think that that proves I'm in love?
Clumsy Freshman

Dear Clumsy,
Tying your feet in knots is not a sign of being in love. When I was a Freshman and I saw a pretty senior girl, my feet did begin to tangle, but not because I was in love. Maybe I thought I was, but the main reason my feet tangled was to keep from kicking her boyfriend.
Mr. Ed

"Shades of Purple" Released by Deep Purple

One of the hottest new groups at the present time is the Deep Purple. Their hit single, "Hush", is climbing ast on the charts and their first album, "Shades of Purple", has been released. This album is an excellent one, comparing favorably with the best works of Jimi Hendrix and the cream. On some albums the vocals are so strong that they detract from the instrumentation. That is not the case on this one. The vocals compliment rather than dominate, the sound. Besides "Hush", this album also has the Deep Purple's version of "Help", "Hey Joe", and "I'm So Glad". In addition, there are some great selections written by the Deep Purple themselves. If you like psychedelical rock, you owe it to yourself to get this album; it's great. The Beatles have released a new single, "Revolution", with "Hey Jude" on the flip side. We can expect them to release a new album sometime soon. Pick hit of the week: "San Francisco Girls" by the Fever Tree.

One of the weirdest records to come along in quite a while is "Fire" by the Crazy World of Arthur Brown. This is not the same song that Jimi Hendrix recorded; it is completely different. If this song becomes a hit, it won't be because it is good, but because it is unusual.

Alaska Ranks 10th In Oil Production

Alaska, whose first commercial oil field was discovered in 1957, has already moved up to 10th place among the nation's 32 petroleum-producing states. Alaskan oil production in 1967 doubled the output of 1966. Most recent Bureau of Mines figures show Alaska had 94 wells, producing a daily average of 155,000 barrels of oil. The Bureau predicted that by the end of this year more than 200,000 barrels of oil a day will be moving south by tanker to West Coast refineries.

LIBERTY-OHIO NEWS

by Bess Brown

The Liberty-Ohio people are in deep shock and mourning over the sudden and untimely death of Mrs. Ralph Perryman, who passed away in a Galveston Hospital, Sunday morning. She was ill only a few days. "EvaLee", as she was affectionately called, was one of the finest and most beloved of our young matrons. A devoted wife and mother, she was a wonderful homemaker, the type who could make a mansion out of a hovel; and make everyone happy while doing so. Mrs. Perryman was an active leader in all church, school and club and all other community activities. Her place can never be filled. To her husband, son and daughter and all other relatives, the people of this area extend deep and sincere sympathy.

The descendants of the late Frank Marshall had their annual reunion at the Milton Brown home, Sunday, September 8, 1968. Two sisters and two brothers were absent because of illness. One of the brothers, Robbie Marshall of Carlisbad, greeted the group by telephone. Those from a distance arrived Saturday. More than 30 had supper and breakfast with Gertrude and Ray.

For the noon lunch, barbecued chicken and many covered dishes and desserts were served. The older group enjoyed games and much reminiscing, while the youngsters went dove-hunting in the wooded pastures.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Russel Wilhite, David, Donnie and Darren from Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Johnson and Brnedie from Arlington; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Millsap, Karon, Ky-lane and Koby from Louisville, Mr. Vernon Wilhite and Mrs. Kate Wilhite from Evans; Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Townsen, Gregory and Tracy from San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. S.R. Fuller from Brownwood; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Marshall, Philip, Randy, David and Timmy from Waco; Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, Michelle and Mitchell from Lampasas; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Cummings, Vickie, Marlyn, Laurie and Tracie from Izora; Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Thorne and Ronnie from Waco; Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Evans and Charles, Gatesville; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown, Rex, Terry, Joe and Dannie from Chilton; Mr. and Mrs. Morris Brown, Belinda, Jan, Kay and Robert, Ohio-Liberty; Mr. and Mrs. S.L. Smith from Evans; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown, Gatesville; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cox of Lampasas; Mrs. J.B. Parrish and Becky from Purmella and Tommy Parrish, Ar-

I shall start this week's news with an apology. Mrs. L.A. Brewer is a patient in the Hamilton hospital and I, Bess Brown, am pinch-hitting for her. Please don't expect one who has enjoyed 85 beautiful summers to compare to your youthful correspondent. We learn, with interest, that Mrs. C.C. Onstott, from the Hillcrest Convalescent home, visited her home at Evans, last Sunday. Her daughter, Corece, from Houston, was visiting the Onstotts.

The Raymond Jones family, from Houston, spent the holidays with her parents, the L. C. Perryman's Jr. Mrs. L.C. Perryman Sr. went home with them, Monday. While in Houston, she will visit these relatives, who are former Hamiltonites: Mable and Una Morgan and Lucian Blackshear. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kanitzsch spent the holidays with the Bernard Connors in Fort Worth. The Connors were moving to a new home.

Mrs. Billie Adcock and daughters, are staying with the Tillman Adcock family until the new baby is strong enough to make the trip to Fort Hill, Oklahoma, where Billie is stationed.

Other holiday visitors with the Adcocks were Martha and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ross and daughter, Beverly, from Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Adcock, Brenda, Perry, Arlon and James, from Tyler. Recent visitors at the Elam Ranch were Mr. and Mrs. D.

minutes after the announcement on the air, Mrs. John Newman phoned Elam that the horse was at her place. The wonderful service that our radio listeners, is not used as much as it should be. We depend so much on it for news, weather announcements, programs, etc., that we would be completely lost without its services.
