1968 Pecan Crop Displayed At Show

The Fourth Annual Coryell County Pecan Show will be held Friday and Saturday, December 6 and 7

The 1968 Pecan Crop considered by many to be one of the best in Coryell County history will be judged Friday and on display through Saturday. The best Pecan Crop ever recorded was in 1963. This year's crop of pecans

Kaylyn Begins Construction on New Plant

Kalyn Company's new plant and office building began the erection stage of construction, Monday. The new steel building, designed and erected by Stran Steel Buildings, is expected to be completed by early

General Manager for Kalyn, Joe Barton, reported last week that the exterior steel construction would be completed in about three weeks. Interior office space, insulation, air conditioning, plumbing and other finishing work will take until early January.

The new structure will cost $22,000 (Approximately) and will contain 10,160 square feet of floor space.

is estimated to be worth over $100,000. The good crop coupled with top prices is expected to create enthusiasm in the Pecan Show.

Don Callahan, County Agent reported Monday that 25 entries had been received to date with many more expected.

The pecan entries will be judged according to many specifications, winners to be announced Friday morning. Each entry consists of 40 pecans of which 10 pecans will be in-spected by the judges. Don Callahan estimated that between 30 and 50 different classes would be judged at the show. Three major categories will

Governor-Elect

Plans

When Preston Smith becomes governor on January 21, it will be to the tune of marching bands and at least five dance orchestras. Smith has revealed plans for a gala inauguration reminiscent of the 1950's.

A big Congress Avenue parade will follow his swearing in at noon that day, and after a brief rest, Governor and Mrs. Smith will lead off the dancing at a grand ball. They'll be honored with at least four other balls during the evening.

Last time the capital witnessed such a celebration was when Price Daniel took office in 1957. Then more than 20,000 well-wishers danced 'til dawn. But inaugurations have been rather sedate since then. Governor Smith said he'd reveal more details of his inauguration in a couple of weeks.

be awarded plaques by the Coryell County Pecan Growers Association and the Texas Pecan Growers Association. The three categories are Champion Native: Champion in Shell and Champion shelling. The champion and top three of each variety will be entered in the Regional Pecan Show which will be held in the Lake Air Mall in Waco, January 8, 9, 10, 1969. Following the Pecan judging all entries will be on exhibit at the National Bank Civic Room. The show will remain open until 4:00 p.m., Saturday.

Mr. Callahan announced,

Monday that the extra pecan samples entered in the show would be sold to help defray expenses of the show and help with the sponsoring of the Coryell County Pecan Queen at the State Pecan Queen Con-Preston Smith test next July in San Antonio.

In the Homemaking and Flower section of the Pecan Show entries are to be at the Civic Center no later than 9:00 on Friday.

Miss Grace Chandler, County Home Demonstration Agent, reported that judging of food and flower section of the show would begin Friday morning with winners to be announced before noon Friday.

Of course all entries are expected to employ pecans in some way. All entries will be on display Friday afternoon and all day Saturday.

Football Banquet Scheduled Dec. 20

A banquet, honoring the 1968 will be held Friday, December 20th at 7:00 p.m. in the GHS cafeteria. The principal speaker will be Dr. Rodney J. Kidd, of Austin, who is the director emeritus of the University In-terscholastic League. At the banquet, the high school football players will be recognized, letter awards will be made and the varsity's most valuable back and most valuable lineman will be announced.

Tickets for the banquet will soon go on sale to the general public and will cost $2.50 each.

Rabbit Breeders Hold Specialty Show

Specialty Show attracted 90 entries from all over the state to Gatesville, Sunday. A Silver Martin show was also held and attracted 60 entries.

Some rabbit breeders weathered snow and rain to take part in in the annual show. Entries from North and West Texas experienced the most difficulty in getting to the show. The California Breed is one of the nations most pouplar show rabbits. The breed was developed by Mr. George West of California in 1928 and took over ten years to develop. The breed characteristics were recognized nationally in 1939. The Californian is a white

Poage Reviews 90th Congress

October brought the fall of autumn leaves along the Potomac River, but those closing days of the 90th Congress were such busy ones that hardly anyone noticed. And then came the November elections -- and the selection of Richard M. Nixon to be our 37th President.

Two years of hard work, thousands of bills and amendments and the countless meetings and debates which made up the 90th Congress are already history. But before moving on to a new Congress and new administration, let's reflect on the progress of the just - completed Congress and on the record of the outgoing administration.

The challenges have been many, but none so serious or so complex as the quest to end the war in Southeast Asia, and

The delay of the game could be a factor in the final outcome since Aquilla has been idle since its last regular game on November 8 and Oglesby has been without action since November 15.

Oglesby will carry a perfect 10-0 season record into the Thursday night battle. Aquilla has tasted defeat this season twice, once to Pottsville in a non-district title, but in District 9-B the Aquilla team is undefeated.

The Tigers coached by Gary Fox will probably continue with their tried and true attack, featuring Ronnie Sullins arm to any member of capable receiver and the running of Willie Leos and Larry Ross,

Cove Auto Dealer Killed In

Johnson City

JOHNSON CITY- A 66-year old Copperas Cove car dealer was killed about 4:15 p.m. Friday when the car he was driving collided with a tractor-trailer truck parked on the side of U.S. 281 inside the city limits of

Johnson City.
C. G. (Bill) Lyon of 912
Georgetown Road, Copperas Cove, was pronounced dead at the scene of the accident.

Highway Patrolman Bobby L. Wilcox said Mr. Lyon, who was traveling alone, was driving north on Highway 281 when his auto collided with the rear of the truck. The truck was parked on the right side of the highway, also headed in a northerly direction, Patrolman Wilcox said, and its driver was not near the vehicle when the mishap occurred. My. Lyon's body was taken to Croft Funeral Home in Johnson City to await transfer to

Palmer Funeral Home of Copperas Cove. Mr. Lyon had owned and operated Lyon Motor Co., the Copperas Cove FORD Dealer ship, for a number of years. He was born Oct. 9, 1902, in Gadsden, Alabama, and was married to Margeret Burdick

May 10, 1925, in Copperas Cove, Funeral services were held at 3:30 p.m. Sunday at the First Baptist Church of Copperas Cove, the Rev. E. L. White-head officiated. Burial was in Copperas Cove Cemetery. Surviving are his wife; five daughters, Mrs. Margueritte G. Dubroc of San Antonio, Mrs. Zelah L. Hutchinson of Corpus Chrusti, Mrs. Zelmah L. Spurlin of Lampasas, Mrs. Mary Lou Warren of McMinnville, Tennessee, and Mrs. Janie Nelson of Redstone Arsenal, Alabama; and a number of grandchildren.

Redistricting Of 1960's Wipe Out Farm Block

WASHINGTON A P-- Rep. W. R. Poage, chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, says it is increasingly clear that the redistricting of the 1960's wiped out any farm block in Congress.

The Waco Democrat didn't dispute that the Supreme Court's one-man, one-vote edict gives city folks a fairer representation in Congress. But unless the city representatives become better acquainted with the farm problem, he said, the entire country will suffer. "Failure to support programs which promote agricultural production eventually will lead either to scarcities or monopolistic controls of production," he said. The result would be higher food prices. Agriculture Secretary

Orville Freeman says only an estimated 47 of the 435 House members representative districts in which 20 percent or more of the people work in agriculture.

That is in sharp contrast to the balance in the 1930's when Poage took office and the farm block vote was formidable.

Since the 1960 census, most states have reshaped districts to equalize population-often by stretching a formerly all-rural district into part of all metropolitan area,

Because of the shuffle, nei-individual congressmen are too certain of the urban-rural ratio in each district. An Agriculture Department spokesman said a 1964 agriculture census showed nine Texans with as many as 33 percent of their constituents in communities 2,500 or smaller. That doesn't reveal how many actually work in agricultural fields-an estimated five percent of the nation's and the state's population.

The census was taken before Texas' congressional redistricting but the figures are the latest available,

John Dowdy, D-Athens, re-presented 60.6 percent rural constituents; Rep. Wright P man, D-Texarkana, 58.2; k. Roberts, D-McKinney, 45.5 Poage, 41.2; Jo Jo Pickle D-Austin, 41.0; Abraham Kazan, D-Laredo, 39.1; Omar Burieson, D-Anson, 37.1; Olin F Teague, D-College Station, 34.9; and Bob Price, 33.4. Roberts' office said it estimates 336,000 of its current 420,000 constituents live in communities of 5,000 population or larger.

The office of Rep. Eligio de la Garza, D-Mission, reported it difinitely considers that district to be heavily agriculturaloriented with many rural constituents-even though the USDA doesn't list them as so.

In my writing for the next few writings, let us consider the "Jews in prophecy" as our food for thought With apologies to some other come, saith the Lord, that they writers with whom I agree perfectly, I may use some quotations, when I feel like it is expressed in a way to show the land of Egypt. But, the Lord truth of the fulfillment, in the liveth, which brought up, and day in which we live.

This is a message that the people should be considering very seriously for Jesus said, "to take heed to your selves, lest at anytime your hearts be overcharged with sufeiting, and drunkeness and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares, for, as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth". Luke 21:34 & 35.

When the court preacher was asked by Frederick the Great, to give, in one word, an unanswerable proof for the in-spiration of the Bible, he replied, "The Jew, Your Majes-

Since the time of Abraham, who was called to leave Ur of the Chaldees to become the first Jew, God has, in a special way, dealt with, and through this ancient nation, to bless the world. For this reason, Satan has made Israel his primary target, trying to destroy them. When Israel is in obedience to God, and his laws, she has been exhalted as no other nation, with God given prophets, priests and kings. When she is in rebellion and disobedience, has experienced suffering exceeding that of other less enlightened nations, "For unto whom - so - ever much is given Luke 12:48. But they are still God's people, and a God planned destiny yet awaits them.

We owe the Jews so much! Our Bible came from the Jewish people; Our Savior, the Lord Jesus himself was of Jewish Most of the inspired writers were Jewish. They are God's first people. They were the first to serve him and are of the seed of Abraham, and the good Olive tree.

They are now a rebellious people, away from God, but He made a covenant with Abraham and it will be carried out, thru' a remnant of this people. Rom.

The Jews are beloved of God and he has not cast away his ancient people and it is evident today, that he is preparing them for the acceptance of Jesus, at his second coming as all Bible students know they didn't accept him at his first

When Jesus comes the second time, the Jews will then believe in the name of the only begotten Son of God, the only condition that God accepts from either Jew, or Gentile. This will be the fulfillment of his covenant.

No race has suffered such unspeakable outrages, impoverishment, racial hatred, or frightful persecutions as have the Jewish people; scattered among the nations - slaughtered like so many sheep, beaten, abused and driven from one place to another, yet have survived to this day. Many schemes have been made to exterminate have been made to exterminate them from the earth.

Pharoah, the Assyrians, Nebuchadnezzar, Haman, Titus, and the 20th century Hitler, almost accomplished this thing, the work of Hitler being the worst; some one-third of the world's Jews were slaughtered at the hands of the Nazis; six million human beings! In this weeks news they have apprehended ten other men of the Nazi party who were involved in the slaughter of thousands of Jews. Six million Jews who were driven from their homes, thrown into ghettos, humiliated, turned into slave workers, starved and tortured, before being destroyed in extermination traps of different kinds.

The dreaded Gestapo spread its net over most of Europe, wider orders of will pervented.

under orders of evil, perverted men, such as Eichmann; as many as 18000 Jewish men, women and children were killed daily; they were hounded, tormented and slaughtered. Their wives and daughters violated; their synagogues rocked, their scrolls - the tablets of the Lawdefiled. Among them were some heroic Europeans who risked the wrath of the Nazi Secret Police and somehow, 200,000 Jewish refugees were hidden, kept alive in their homes or smuggled to safety. Even in Hitler's headquarters city of Berlin, some 5,000 Jewish people remained alive to the war's end; The same amount survived in Warsaw. Poland. If there ever was a desire for their homeland, the Jews felt it now. If ever world sympathy was awakened to make arrangments for the Jewish people to possess a homeland, it was during World War II. to reverse the momentum with which billions of tax dollars are being poured into that war at the expense of the needs of our people. Vietnam -- In the 90th Congress I urged the President to find a political solution to end the war. I applauded his decision to begin preliminary peace talks in Paris, and I fully support President Johnson's decision to halt the bombing of North 'Vietnam. It is my hope that our negotiators will be resolute in bringing all factions -- including the South Vietnamese -- to the bargaining table. For five long years the strife in Vietnam has drained America of our resources, most valuably our youth, More than 33,000 Americans -- some 2,000 of them Texans -- have died in that war - torn land. The price is too great for us to move other than rapidly toward a permanent settlement. Our Farmers -- Never has a nation known such overall prosperity. But not the American farmer. The 90th Congress fought to correct some of the inequities facing our rural Americans -- the farmers, ranchers and related agriculture

The Senate tried to extend for four years our Commodity Credity Corporation, soil conservation and price support programs so vital to our farm economy, but because of House opposition, the program was extended just one year. Still, that extension provides stability into a new administration. The Agriculture Appropriation Act of the past year, which I helped to write, was important to 625,000 Texans who live on farms and ranches. Among other key provisions, it provides $329 million for REA electric and telephone facilities. Texas has more than 100 REA coop installations, providing power to more than a million Texans. In the next Congress, we must find a way to obtain better market prices, for the farmer, without upsetting the consumer's budget. I have supported "bargaining power" for farmers, and I expect a bill to give the farmer more say in price setting will be before us next

Our Cities -- Because three out of four Texans now live in urban territory, I devoted much of my attention during the 90th Congress to the problems of our growing cities and towns. I cosponsored and Congress passed bills to cut down on pollution, to provide more and better loans for housing, to support city planning and for locally controlled urban renewal and Model Cities programs, such as those in Waco, Texarkana, Edinburg, San Antonio, Laredo and elsewhere. In the next Congress we must make new commitments. We must make a better effort against problems of crowding, traffic, slums, noise, crime, poverty -the ills that often accompany fast growth, In Texas and elsewhere, we must seek to preserve control for every American over the technology and the forces surrounding him.

Crime -- "Law and Order" became a euphemism for some politicians during 1968, but Congress took a postive stance toward curbing a crime rise that has alarmed us all. We passed the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act, which I cosponsored, to upgrade law enforcement where it is most crucial -- at the local level. It provides money and know how to the states and local communities to better train, better equip and better pay our policemen. A moderate gun-control bill was also passed to control interstate sales of firearms and ammunitition by mail, and requiring dealers -- but not individual owners -- to hold licenses. We passed a juvenile delinquency control bill and an-

The Consumer -- President Johnson called this Congress a "consumer Congress", and rightly so. Probably the best consumer bill we passed was the "Truth-in-Lending Act," requiring loan makers to tell their customers what credit costs. That seems simple enough, but it's surprising how many thousands of Americans have been duped by false claims and "small print" on the part of a few unscrupulous loan sharks who charge high and hidden rates. We also passed a "Truth - in - Packaging Act" aimed at reducing the confusion housewives face in shopping today; a radiation control act, to require manufacturers of appliances such as color TV sets to better protect the buyer against radiation; and bills to help assure clean meat and poultry for the table. I cosponsored these, and also a bill calling for a study of auto insurance rates and ratemaking. I'm anxious to see what that study produces.

Conservation -- Congress did a lot, but uppermost in my mind is the one thing we failed to do. My Big Thicket National Park bill was not passed, but I shall introduce it again early in the new session. Otherwise, for Texans it was a banner conservation year, Congress authorized a supplemental bill to pay judgments for land condemnations at Padre Island Nation al Seashore on the Gul Coast. This beautiful natural shoreline part is now assured. We voted $200,000 for Guadalupe Mountains National Park in West Texas, A stretch of the Rio Grand between Langry and Presidio, in the Big Bend Country of West Texas, is among rivers which may be preserved under the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act, which I cospon-sored; and the National Scenic Trails Act, to preserve his-toric trails in America, names the famous Chisolm Trail which took cattle from Texas to Kansas as a potential national trail,

Education -- Despite budget pains caused by the high cost of the war, Congress took big strides in education legislation, We concerned ourselves with extending -- beefing up the good laws, and revising those which had not shown expected results. Thus, the new Elementary and Secondary Education Act, the Higher Education Act, the Vo-cational Education Act and others should bring more efficient aid to our local schools. In 1967 I introduced and Congress passed, the first Bilingual Education Act in congressional history. Last year, I had to fight for money to finance this special training for children who enter school knowing little English. We obtained $7.5 million, far short of what we needed. I have asked the Bureau of the Budget for full funding of bilingual education next year. I'm also proud to have authored the Professors Emeritus Act, incorporated into the Higher Education Act, bringing experienced professors out of retirement to teach in colleges and universities which face teacher shortages. And as a time advocate of full educational opportunities for all, I was delighted that Congress passed my Universal Higher Education study. President - elect Nixon, under the act, is to appoint a panel to study and recommend ways of removing the financial barriers that keep so many bright young Americans from getting a full college education. Finally the Congress passed a historic Vocational Education Act, to bring new importance to training young Americans for skilled occupations, I authored one major facet of the bill, to upgrade homemak-ing education in our schools, and better train young women to handle the duties that face an adult in modern-day family life, such as managing a bank ac-count, shopping for better buys, understanding credit and other activities. In our technical age, the importance of a welltrained skilled work force cannot be over-estimated. This Vocational Education Act was written to assure that America's work force can meet the challenges of the future.

Teen Use of Drugs Causes Concern by Vern Sanford

House Committee on Juvenile Crime and Delinquency spent two of its recent public hearings listening to testimony about teenagers' use of drugs and marijuana. While the committee has been advised that this is not the main juvenile problem, you can bet it will make recommendations to the Legislature on the subject.

Jack Reville, chief of the Criminal - Law Enforcement division of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said the major problem is that the state has only 25 narcotics agents. "Eight of them are in trainsays Reville, "and we need to double that to make a

Canal System Proposal

Texans and their Legisla-ture will be asked to give approval and support to the huge $10 billion Texas Water Plan through legislation and a vote in November of 1970. Texas Water Development Board plans to reveal details of the plan this month. It is known that it will propose two huge canal systems to carry surplus water across North Texas to the Plains, and down the Gulf Coast to the Lower Rio Grande Valley,

Both canals will be federally - financed, if they prove feasible. But state money will be needed to help finance them and companion reservoirs which will be needed to meet the water needs of a Texas with 30,000,000 people in the year

Board asked a legislative study committee to endorse a proto increase the present 3400 million water development fund bond program to a figure in the range of $2 to $3.5 billion. It said it wanted advice from legislators on how much state financing, through loans, should be put into the program, before setting a precise figure. But it did suggest that the matter be submitted to the voters for approval or disapproval at the election in November, 1970. It also asked that the Legis-lature make a number of policy decisions giving the board and other state agencies the authority and the direction, to carry our jobs of pollution control, recreation and park development, water rights control, planning and contracting for massive job which lies a-

If the water is to be where it is needed in the years ahead, to allow all parts of Texas to grow and prosper, detailed planning work must be begun in 1969, the board said. The Texas Water Plan will be the biggest public works job ever undertaken, nearly four times as large as the $2.5 billion California water project now under construction.

A legislative committe headed by Rep. Bill Clayton of Spring lake took the request under study. It will make its recommendations to the Legislature in January.

American business plans to spend $69.2-billion for new plants and equipment in 1969, an eight per cent increase over the $64.3-billion estimated for 1968.

This is the major finding of the 15th Fall Survey of Preliminary Plans for Capital Spending, released by the Economics Department of McGraw-Hill Publications.

"The strength in capital spending indicated in this survey is widespread," said Douglas Greenwald, their chief economist. "Every major manufacturing industry plans to spend more in 1969 than it is spending in 1968. The manuf dustries as a whole plan to increase expenditures for new plants and equipment from $25.55-billion this year to $29.4billion in 1969-a gain of 11 per cent. Among the nonmanufacturing industries, only railroads and mining expect a drop in capital spending next year."
